In the matter of the application for identification as Mississippi Choctaws of Katy Gay for herself and her two minor children, John Henry and Lillie Ann Ella Bell Gay.

Applicants not represented by attorney.

Katy Gay being first duly sworn testified as follows:

Examination by the Commission.

- Q What is your name? A Katy Gay.
Q What is your age? A Thirty-four.
Q What is your post office address? A Wynnewood, Indian Territory.
Q How long have you lived there? A About one year.
Q Where did you live before that? A Berwin, Indian Territory.
Q Where did you live before that? A Why I moved to Guthrie.
Q Where were you born? A Born in Alabama.
Q How long did you live in Alabama? A I was born and raised and married there.
Q And moved from there when? A I have been away from there about twelve years.
Q And you went from Alabama? A To Little Rock.
Q Arkansas? A Yes, sir.
Q And from there where? A To Guthrie.
Q Is your father living? A No, sir.
Q Is your mother living? A I don't know.
Q What was your father names? A Poles Whiteside.
Q What was your mother's name? A Sally Whiteside, but she is married again.
Q What is her present name? A Sally Kirk.
Q Through which parent do you claim Choctaw blood? A My mother.
Q How much do you claim? A Why about one-fourth I reckon, she was about one-half.
Q Has your mother ever been recognized as a Choctaw Indian or enrolled as such by the Choctaw tribal authorities in Indian Territory? No, sir; not that I know of.
Q Have you a husband living? A Yes, sir.
Q What is his name? A Joe Gay.
Q What is Joe's blood? A He is colored and Indian mixed.
Q You make any claim for him as a Choctaw Indian or don't you know? A I don't know.
Q Have you any children under age for whom you want to make application? A Two.
Q What is the name of the oldest? A John Henry Gay.
Q How old is he? A Seventeen years.
Q What is the name of the next? A Lillie Ann Ella Bell Gay
Q How old is she? A Six years.
Q That is all you have? A Yes, sir; two.

- Q You claim for yourself and the children? A Yes, sir.
 Q Are these the children of Joe Gay? A Yes, sir.
 Q And live with you at your home? A Yes, sir.
 Q Was he ever married before his marriage to you? A No, sir.
 Q Were you ever married before your marriage to him? A No, sir.
 Q Is your name or the names of any of your children on any of the tribal rolls of the Choctaw nation in Indian Territory? A No, sir.
 Q Have you ever made application for citizenship in the Choctaw Nation for yourself and children to the Choctaw tribal authorities? A No, sir.
 Q Have you ever made application for citizenship in the Choctaw Nation to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes, the Choctaw tribal authorities, or the United States Court in Indian Territory? A No, sir.
 Q Do you now come before the Commission to identify yourself and these children as Mississippi Choctaws claiming under article fourteen of the treaty of 1830? A Yes, sir.
 Q Do you understand that article of that treaty? A Do I understand it?
 Q Yes, sir? A Yes; I think so.
 Q Would you like to have it explained to you any further? A They way I look at it, like an agreement between you and me.

Yes it is an agreement only it was made between Nations instead of between people, the United States government being one party to the agreement and the Choctaw Nation then living in Mississippi and Alabama being the other party to the compact, and the object of that agreement was the removal of the Choctaw Indians from the old Choctaw Nation to the Choctaw Nation Indian Territory. Before the treaty was signed it became known that a good many Choctaw Indians would not go to the Choctaw Nation Indian Territory and in order to protect their intertests article fourteen was put into the treaty. Article fourteen is as follows:

"Each Choctaw head of a family being desirous to remain and become a citizen of the states shall be permitted to do so, by signifying his intention to the Agent within six months from the ratification of this treaty, and he or she shall thereupon be entitled to a reservation of one section of six hundred and forty acres of land to be bounded by sectional lines of survey; in like manner shall be entitled to one half that quantity for each unmarried child which is living with him over ten years of age; and a quarter section to such child as may be under ten years of age to adjoin the location of the parent. If they reside upon said lands intending to become citizens of the States for five years after the ratification of the treaty in that case a grant in fee simple shall issue; said reservation shall include the present improvement of the head of the family or a portion of it. Persons who claim under this article shall not lose the privilege of a Choctaw citizen but if they ever remove are not to be entitled to any portion of the Choctaw annuity."

- Q Do you think you understand that, do you? A I don't know.
 Q You understand the object of that treaty was to get the Indians to come from that Country to this? A Yes, sir.
 Q That article fourteen was put into the treaty for the benefit of those Indians who wanted to stay there; you understand that? A Yes, sir.
 Q What is the name of your ancestor through whom you claim the right to be identified as a Mississippi Choctaw? A Polly Boyd.
 Q Did Polly Boyd or any of your Choctaw ancestors comply with article fourteen of that treaty. Did they do these things? A I don't know whether they did or not.

- don't know whether they did or not.
- Q You don't know whether they went to the Indian Agent within six months from the ratification of the treaty of 1830 and told him that they wanted to stay in Mississippi, take land there and become a citizen of the United States? A Yes, sir; they stayed there.
- Q How do you know? A My mother told me.
- Q You claim through your mother? A Through my mother and grandmother.
- Q Sally Kirk is your mother's name? A Yes, sir.
- Q What was her maiden name? A Sally Boyd.
- Q What was her mother's name? A Polly Boyd.
- Q What was your grandmother's maiden name? A I don't know.
- Q But she married a Boyd did she? A I reckon so.
- Q Did she live in Mississippi in 1830? A Yes, sir.
- Q Did she have a family there at that time? A I don't know whether she did or not.
- Q Were either of your parents slaves before the War? A No, sir.
- Q Were either Sally Boyd's father or mother slaves before the War? A No, sir.
- Q Was your father a slave before the War? A I don't know.
- Q Any of his people? A I don't know anything about his people.
- Q How much Choctaw blood did Polly Boyd have? A She was a full blood.
- Q How do you know? A I was taught so.
- Q Matter of family history and tradition? A I don't know sir.
- Q You heard it talked in the family about her having Choctaw blood? A Oh! Yes, sir; my mother always told me that she was a full blood Choctaw.
- Q How old is your mother? A Sixty-five.
- Q Where was she born? A She was born some place in North Alabama I don't know just where.
- Q Was her mother Polly Boyd born in Mississippi? A I don't know where she was born.
- Q What years did she live in Mississippi, Polly Boyd? A She was there in 1830 and I don't know how long before or since.
- Q Did she or any of your Choctaw ancestors own any improvements on land in Mississippi or Alabama in 1830? A Yes, sir.
- Q How do you know? A My grandmother did.
- Q How do you know she had improvements on land in Mississippi in 1830? A They said so.
- Q Who said so? A My mother.
- Q Five years after the treaty of 1830 was made Polly Boyd was living in another state? A I don't know.
- Q You said she was born in North Alabama? A Yes sir.
- Q Therefore Polly Boyd was in North Alabama sixty-five years ago, was she not? A Yes, sir; I reckon so.
- Q How do you know that five years before that she had lands in Mississippi? A They said she had land there right after the treaty.
- Q Did you ever hear of Colonel Ward? A No, sir.
- Q He was the United States Indian Agent who lived in Mississippi. Did you ever hear that Polly Boyd went to him and stated that she wanted land in Mississippi? A No, sir.
- Q Did she own or claim any land in Mississippi under article fourteen of the treaty of 1830? A Yes, sir.
- Q How do you know? A They said she did.
- Q How long did she live on it? A I don't know.
- Q Did she live on it for five years? A I don't know.
- Q Five years after the treaty she went to North Alabama according to your story? A I don't know how long she stayed there but she was there at the time of the treaty, so my parents said.

- Q Did she claim any lands in Mississippi or Alabama under any other article of the treaty of eighteen hundred and thirty than article fourteen or under the supplement of that treaty? A I don't know.
- Q Did she claim any benefits as Choctaw Indian under any treaty made between the government of the United States and the Choctaw Indians other than the treaty of 1830? A I don't know.
- Q Did she ever go before the Commission appointed by act of Congress approved March 3, 1837 or the Commission appointed by act of Congress approved August 23, 1842 and claim benefits as a Choctaw Indian under article fourteen of the treaty of 1830? A Did she?
- Q Yes; A I don't know whether she did or not.
- Q These Commissions were appointed because of the complaints of Choctaw Indians who claimed that they had gone before Colonel Ward the United States Indian Agent within six months after the ratification of the treaty of 1830 and told him that they wanted to stay in the state of Mississippi, take land there, but that he had failed to put their names upon his list known as Ward's register. You never heard that any of your ancestors went before either of them? A No, sir; I did not.
- Q Did you ever hear that any of your ancestors received any lands in Mississippi, Alabama, Louisiana or Arkansas which were given to them to replace the lands which the government had taken from them in the state of Mississippi and right to select which was evidenced by scrip which was issued to them under the act of Congress approved August 23, 1842? A I don't know.
- Q Have you any evidence of any kind that you want to present now in support of this claim? A No, sir.
- Q Would you like time in which to present such evidence? A Yes, sir.

A reasonable time will be allowed this applicant for such purpose.

- Q Do you speak the Choctaw language? A No, sir.
- Q Did Polly Boyd speak the Choctaw language? A I don't know whether she did or not.
- Q Have you any relatives who have appeared here to be identified as Mississippi Choctaws claiming through Polly Boyd? A No, sir.

This applicant has the appearance and physical characteristics of being descended from mixed ancestry,

- Q Do you claim any white blood? A No, sir.

She has either a mixture Negro and white or Negro and Indian. She says she has no white blood. Her hair is black and nearly straight; dark complexion, dark brown eyes, features are thin and have a reddish cast and would indicate a strain of Indian blood. She has no knowledge of the Choctaw language and no knowledge of compliance on the part of her ancestors with the provisions of article fourteen of the treaty of 1830.

-----o-----

In the matter of the application of Katy Gay, et al., for identification as Mississippi Choctaws, M.C.R. 4677.

--: D E C I S I O N :--

It appears from the record herein that application for identification as Mississippi Choctaws was made to this Commission by Katy Gay, for herself and her two minor children, John Henry and Lillie Ann Ella Bell Gay, under the following provision of the act of Congress approved June 28, 1898 (30 Stats., 495):

"Said Commission shall have authority to determine the identity of Choctaw Indians claiming rights in the Choctaw lands under article fourteen of the treaty between the United States and the Choctaw Nation, concluded September twenty-seventh eighteen hundred and thirty, and to that end may administer oaths, examine witnesses and perform all other acts necessary thereto and make report to the Secretary of the Interior."

It also appears that all of said applicants claim rights in the Choctaw lands under article fourteen of the treaty between the United States and the Choctaw Nation, concluded September twenty-seventh, eighteen hundred and thirty, by reason of being descendants of one Polly Boyd, who is alleged to have been a full blood Choctaw Indian and to have resided in Mississippi in eighteen hundred and thirty.

It further appears from the evidence submitted in support of said application and from the records in the possession of the Commission, that none of said applicants has ever been enrolled by the Choctaw tribal authorities as a member of the Choctaw Tribe, or admitted to Choctaw citizenship by a duly constituted court or committee of the Choctaw Nation, or by the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes, or by a decree of the United States Court in Indian Territory, under the provisions of the act of Congress approved June 10, 1896 (29 Stats., 321).

It does not appear from the testimony and evidence offered in support of said application, or from the records in the possession of the Commission relating to persons who complied or attempted to comply with the provisions of said article fourteen of the treaty of eighteen hundred and thirty, and to persons who heretofore were claimants thereunder, that the said Polly Boyd, signified (in person or by proxy) to Colonel Wm. Ward, Indian Agent, Choctaw Agency, an intention to comply with the provisions of said article fourteen, or presented a claim to rights thereunder to either of the Commissions authorized to adjudicate such claims by the acts of Congress approved March 3, 1837 (5 Stats., 180) and August 23, 1842 (5 Stats., 513).

It is therefore, the opinion of this Commission that the evidence herein is insufficient to determine the identity of Katy Gay, John Henry Gay, and Lillie Ann Ella Belle Gay, as Choctaw

Indians entitled to rights in the Choctaw lands under the provisions of said article fourteen of the treaty of eighteen hundred and thirty, and that the application for their identification as such should be refused, and it is so ordered.

Joe Gay,

Wynnewood, Indian Territory,

Dear Sir:

Receipt is hereby acknowledged of affidavit of Catherine Franklin inclosed with your letter of the twenty sixth instant for filing in support of the application of Katy Gay, et al. for identification as Mississippi Choctaws. The same has been made a part of the record in this case and will receive consideration in the disposition of the application.

Yours truly,

Commissioner in Charge.

Muskogee, Indian Territory, December 6, 1902.

Katy Gay,

Wynnewood, Indian Territory.

Dear Madam:

You are hereby advised that on the 6th day of December, 1902, the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes rendered a decision in the case of Katy Gay, et al., applicants for identification as Mississippi Choctaws.

This application was made under the provision of the act of Congress of June 28, 1898 (30 Stats., 495) which is as follows:

"Said Commission shall have authority to determine the identity of Choctaw Indians claiming rights in the Choctaw lands under article fourteen of the treaty between the United States and the Choctaw Nation, concluded September twenty-seventh, eighteen hundred and thirty, and to that end may administer oaths, examine witnesses and perform all other acts necessary thereto and make report to the Secretary of the Interior."

Said decision concludes as follows:

"It is therefore the opinion of this Commission that the evidence herein is insufficient to determine the identity of Katy Gay, John Henry Gay and Lillie Ann Ella Belle Gay, as Choctaw Indians entitled to rights in the Choctaw lands under the provisions of said article fourteen of the treaty of eighteen hundred and thirty and that the application for their identification as such should be refused, and it is so ordered."

You are further advised that you will be allowed fifteen days from the date hereof within which to file arguments in this office, and that at the expiration of said time the papers in the case, together with such arguments, will be forwarded for review to the Secretary of the Interior through the Commissioner of Indian Affairs.

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR,

WASHINGTON, February 13, 1903.

The Honorable

The Secretary of the Interior.

Sir:

There is transmitted herewith the record of the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes in the matter of the application for identification as Mississippi Choctaws of Katy Gay, for herself and two children, John Henry and Lilly Ann Ella Bell Gay, wherein a decision adverse to the applicants was rendered by the Commission on December 6, 1902.

It appears from the evidence in this case that the applicants base their claims to identification on their descent from one Pelly Boyd, who, it is claimed, was a citizen of the Choctaw Nation and resided in Alabama or Mississippi in 1830.

The Commission bases its decision rejecting these parties on the ground that its records fail to show that Pelly Boyd ever complied or attempted to comply with the provisions of the 14th article of the Choctaw treaty of 1830.

An examination of the records of this office discloses the fact that the name of Pelly Boyd is not included in the list of those persons who complied or attempted to comply with the provisions of the 14th article of the treaty of 1830, and it is, therefore, recommended that the decision of the Commission rejecting these parties be approved.

Gentlemen:

December 22, 1902, you transmitted the record in the matter of the application for identification as Mississippi Choctaws, of Katy Gay and her minor children, John Henry Gay and Lillie Ann Ella Bell Gay, including your decision of December 6, 1902, adverse to the applicants.

The applicants claim to be descendants of one Polly Boyd, alleged to have been a full blood Choctaw Indian residing in Mississippi in 1830.

The records fail to show that the applicants were ever admitted or enrolled as citizens of the Choctaw Nation, or that said Polly Boyd complied or attempted to comply with article 14 of the treaty of September 27, 1830, or with either of the acts of March 3, 1837 (5 Stat., 180), and August 23, 1842 (5 Stat., 513).

Q Is your name, or the names of your children, on any of the tribal rolls of the Choctaw Nation in Indian Territory? A No, sir.
Q Have you ever made application for citizenship in the Choctaw Nation for yourself and children to the Choctaw tribal authorities in Indian Territory? A No, sir, not before this.
Q Have you ever made application for citizenship in the Choctaw Nation for yourself and children to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes under the act of Congress of June 10, 1896? A No, sir.
Q Have you ever before this time sought to become enrolled and sought to secure the enrollement of these children as members of the Choctaw tribe by making application to either the Choctaw tribal authorities or the United States authorities in Indian Territory? A No, sir.
Q Do you now come before the Commission for the purpose of being identified and for the identification of these children as Mississippi Choctaws claiming under article fourteen of the treaty of 1830? A Yes, sir.
Q Have you or your children ever been admitted to citizenship in the Choctaw Nation by either the Choctaw tribal authorities, the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes or the United States Court in Indian Territory? A No, sir.
Q Do you understand article fourteen of the treaty of 1830? A I have had it explained.
Q Do you think you understand it without a further explanation or would you like to have it further explained? A I don't know; I think I understand it.

The treaty of eighteen hundred and thirty was made between the United States goverant and the Choctaw tribe of Indians at a place called Dancing Rabbit Creek in Mississippi on the twenty-seventh of September of that year. The object of the treaty was to secure the removal of the Choctaw Indians who lived in the old Choctaw Nation in Mississippi and Alabama, from that old Choctaw Nation to the Choctaw Nation, Indian Territory. Before the treaty was signed it became known that a good many Choctaw Indians would refuse to go to the Choctaw Nation, Indian Territory, with the other Indians and in order to protect their interests article fourteen was drawn up and inserted in the treaty, the treaty was then signed and afterwards, on the 24th day of February 1831, ratified with that article in it. The articlereads as follows:

"Each Choctaw head of a family being desirous to remain and become a citizen of the States, shall be permitted to do, by signifying his intention to the Agent within six months from the ratification of this treaty and he or she shall thereupon be entitled to a reservation of one section of six hundred and forty acres of land to be bounded by sectional lines of survey; in like manner shall be entitled to one half that quantity for each unmarried child which is living with him over ten years of age and a quarter section to such child as may be under ten years of age, to adjoin the location of the parent. If they reside upon said lands intending to become citizens of the states for five years after the ratification of this treaty, in that case a grant in fee simple shall issue; said reservation shall include the present improvement of the head of the family or a portion of it. Persons who claim under this article shall not lose the privilege of a Choctaw citizen but if they ever remove are not to be entitled to any portion of the Choctaw annuity."

That was article fourteen which was put into that treaty at that time, before the treaty was signed and which was satisfactory to those Indians who remained in the old Choctaw Nation as well as the other Indians who removed under the provisions of this treaty.

- Q Do you know if any of your Choctaw ancestors complied with any of the provisions of that article of that treaty or attempted to?
A I don't know.
- Qx You understand this now do you? A Yes, sir.
- Q What is the name of your ancestor through whom you claim your right to be identified as a Mississippi Choctaw? A Smith, my grandfather Smith.
- Q What was the full name? A Dick Smith.
- Q What relation was he to you? A My Grandfather.
- Q On which side? A My mother's father.
- Q Your maternal grandfather? A Yes, sir.
- Q Do you claim anything,--any Choctaw descent from the other side; from your father's side? A Yes, sir.
- Q Through whom do you claim through? A My great grandmother,--- my father's mother, Tobitha Watson.
- Q This is your paternal grandmother or great grandmother? A Great-grandmother.
- Q How much Choctaw blood did Dick Smith have if you know? A Full blood.
- Q How much Choctaw blood did Tobitha Watson have? A Full blood.
- Q Did your maternal grandfather Dick Smith live in Mississippi in 1830? A Yes, sir.
- Q Did he have a family in Mississippi at that time? A No, sir.
- Q Did Tobitha Watson live in Mississippi in 1830? A Yes, sir.
- Q Did she have a family there then? A Yes, sir.
- Q Do you know how old Dick Smith would be if living now? A No, sir.
- Q You don't know when he died? A No, sir; he has been dead some time.
- Q You know when and where he was born? A No, sir I do not.
- Q Did he ever live in any other State except the state of Mississippi? A Not that I know of.
- Q Did he speak the Choctaw language? A I don't know I never saw him, only from hearsay, my mother telling me.
- Q Have all of your ancestors going back from yourself to Dick Smith always lived in the state of Mississippi? A Yes, sir.
- Q Have all of your ancestors going back from yourself to Tobitha Watson always lived in the state of Mississippi? A in Mississippi and Alabama.
- Q In what counties in Alabama? A I don't know that.
- Q You are now living in Mississippi, are you; that is your home? A Yes, sir.
- Q At Pitsboro? A Yes, sir; born and raised right there.
- Q Did any of your Choctaw ancestors either on your father or mother's side ever own any improvements on land in Mississippi or Alabama in 1830? A I don't know.

- Q Did any of your Choctaw ancestors on either your father or mother's side within six months after the ratification of the treaty of 1830, go to the United States Indian Agent, whose name was Colonel Ward and tell him that they wanted to stay in Mississippi, take land there and become citizens of the United States? A I don't know.
- Q Did any of your ancestors if Choctaw Indians go from that old Choctaw Nation in Mississippi or Alabama to the Choctaw Nation Indian Territory between the years 1835 and 1838 with the other Indians? A No, sir.
- Q They always remained in Mississippi and Alabama? A Yes, sir.
- Q Did any of your Choctaw ancestors own any land in Mississippi or Alabama or claim any as Choctaw Indians under article fourteen of the treaty of 1830? A I think so.
- Q Who claimed land under article fourteen of the treaty of 1830? A I just could not tell you exactly.
- Q You are not able to give their names? A No, sir.
- Q You know where this land was that was claimed by any of them? A If they did it was in Choctaw.
- Q In Choctaw County in Mississippi? A Yes, sir.
- Q Is that where the old Choctaw Nation was formerly? A Yes, sir.
- Q Did any of your Choctaw ancestors on either your father or mother's side claim any benefits or any land in Mississippi under any other article of the treaty of 1830 than article fourteen or under the supplement of that treaty do you know? A No, sir.
- Q Did any of them claim any benefits under any treaty made between the United States government and the Choctaw Indians other than the treaty of 1830? A No, sir; not that I know of.

The Choctaw Indians who stayed in the old Choctaw Nation after the treaty of 1830 was ratified refusing to go to the Indian Territory under that treaty, with the other Indians, were required if they wanted to take advantage of article fourteen of the treaty of eighteen hundred and thirty, to go to the United States Indian Agent, whose name was Colonel Ward, and signify to him their intention to remain in Mississippi, take land there and become citizens of the United States. A great many Choctaw Indians did this whose names Colonel Ward failed to put upon his list known as Ward's register. It is estimated that at least six thousand Indians remained in the old Choctaw Nation, of that number a large proportion went to Colonel Ward and made their claims under article fourteen of the treaty of 1830, but, Ward's register contains the names of only seventy-one heads of families out of all that number. His failure to make a complete list of all the Choctaw Indians who went before him and made declarations pursuant to the provisions of article fourteen of the treaty of 1830 caused a good many Indians who had land in Mississippi upon which they had improvements to lose them both were taken from them by the government and sold at the public land sales. This caused a great many complaints among the Indians especially those to lost land and as the result of the complaints made, Congress appointed a Commission in 1837 by act approved March 3 of that year and this Commission went to Mississippi and heard claimants under article fourteen of that treaty. In 1842 another Commission was appointed by Congress under an act approved August 23, 1842, and that Commission also went to the state of Mississippi and heard claimants under article fourteen of that treaty. Both of these Commissions made lists of the names of all Choctaw Indians who came before, each one of them, respectively.

- Q Do you know whether any of your Choctaw ancestors went before either of these Commissions and claim benefits under article fourteen of the treaty of 1830? A No, sir; I don't.

The act of Congress approved August 23, 1842, provided; that, if any Choctaw Indian proved his claim under article fourteen of the treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek, if it also further appeared that he had had land in Mississippi which the government had taken from him that he should be entitled to select land either in Mississippi, Alabama, Louisiana or Arkansas, to be taken from vacant government land and that a certificate to that effect should be given him. These certificates were called scrip.

- Q Did any of your Choctaw ancestors receive any such scrip from the government as Choctaw Indians? A No.
- Q Have you any proof that you want to submit further, any documentary evidence or any witness that you want to call? A Yes, sir; I can get up witnesses.
- Q You have them here? A No, sir.
- Q You have no further proof here then? A No, sir.
- Q No documentary evidence? A No, sir.
- Q Do you want time in which to submit further proof? A Yes, sir.

Attorney here asks for time in which to submit further proof.

- Q On request of attorney a reasonable time will be allowed this applicant in which to furnish proper evidence in support of this claim.

- Q Do you speak the Choctaw language or understand it? A No, sir.
- Q Have you any relatives who have been before the Commission to be identified as Mississippi Choctaws? A Yes, sir.
- Q Can you give their names? A Sophie Powell.
- Q Any others? A Yes, sir.
- Q Give their names please? A Julia Stephens they all came before the Commission.
- Q Any others, you remember? A I think they are the only ones.
- Q They claim through the same ancestors through whom you claim? A Yes, sir.
- Q You want to have their cases considered with yours? A Yes, sir.

Examination by attorney Redwine.

- Q You say your great grandmother was Watson? A Yes, sir.
- Q Was that her name before she was married? A Yes, sir.
- Q Who did she marry? A Asa Langston.
- Q Was he a white man, is it your understanding? A Yes, sir.
- Q And what was your grandmother's name on your father's side? A She was a Langston.
- Q What was her given name? A Sarah Langston.
- Q What part Choctaw was she? A Her mother was a full blood.
- Q Who did she marry? A She married a McGuire.
- Q What McGuire was that? A My father, John McGuire.

By the Commission.

This applicant has the appearance and physical characteristics of being descended from white parentage; medium dark complexion; black hair; dark eyes; she has no knowledge of the Choctaw language and no knowledge of compliance on the part of her ancestors with the provisions of article fourteen of the treaty of 1830.

Hattie A. Davis,
Pittsboro, Mississippi.

Dear Madam:

You are hereby advised that on the 23rd day of October 1902, the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes rendered a decision in the consolidated case of Julia Stephens, et al., embracing the following applications for identification as Mississippi Choctaws:

Julia Stephens, et al.,	M.C.R. 1
Hattie A. Davis, et al.,	M.C.R. 4678
Robert H. Davis, et al.,	M.C.R. 4689
Henry W. McGuire,	M.C.R. 8481
John F. Davis, et al.,	M.C.R. 8422

These applications were made under the provision of the act of Congress of June 28, 1898 (30 Stats., 495) which is as follows:

"Said Commission shall have authority to determine the identity of Choctaw Indians claiming rights in the Choctaw lands under article fourteen of the treaty between the United States and the Choctaw Nation, concluded September twenty-seventh, eighteen hundred and thirty, and to that end may administer oaths, examine witnesses and perform all other acts necessary thereto, and make report to the Secretary of the Interior."

Said decision concludes as follows:

Hattie A. Davis-----2

Hattie A. Davis, Daisie Alice Davis, Bertha May Davis, Henry Algin Davis, Robert H. Davis, Urna Fay Davis, Henry W. McGuire, John F. Davis and John W. Davis, as Choctaw Indians entitled to rights in the Choctaw lands under the provisions of said article fourteen of the treaty of eighteen hundred and thirty and that the applications for their identification as such should be refused, and it is so ordered."

You are further advised that you will be allowed fifteen days from the date hereof within which to file arguments in this office, and that at the expiration of said time the papers in the case, together with such arguments, will be forwarded for review to the Secretary of the Interior through the Commissioner of Indian Affairs.

Respectfully,

Q You have lived in this State all your life, then? A Yes sir.
Q Is your father living? A Yes sir.
Q What is his name? A Ab Mabry.
Q Is your mother living? A No sir.
Q What was her name? A Reenie.
Q Through which one of your parents did you derive your Choctaw blood?
A My mother.
Q How long has your mother been dead? A She died in '70.
Q About how old was she when she died? A I suppose she was about twenty-five.
Q Was she born and raised in the State of Mississippi? A Yes sir.
Q What part? A Well, she was born in Choctaw County.
Q Lived in that vicinity, did she, until her death? A Yes sir.
Q According to your statement she was one-eighth Choctaw? A Yes, sir.
Q Did she speak the Choctaw language? A Well, I don't know, sir.
Q Do you? A No sir.
Q Through which one of her parents did your mother get her Choctaw blood? A Through her father.
Q What was his name? A Henry Box.
Q And he was a fourth Choctaw, was he? A Yes sir.
Q Is he living? A No sir.
Q How long has he been dead? A Well, sir, I don't know.
Q Do you know how old he would be if he were living now? A No sir I don't know how old he would be.

Q Who married you? A Well, a preacher by the name of Johns.

Q Where? A I was married in Tate County, Mississippi.

Q When? A 1887-the 20th of March.

It will be necessary for you to furnish the Commission with proper evidence of your marriage to your wife Alice. This should be done within thirty days.

Q Is your name or the name of any one of these children on any of the Choctaw Tribal rolls in Indian Territory? A Not that I know of.

Q Did you ever make application to the Choctaw Tribal authorities in Indian Territory for yourself and or any of these children to be admitted or enrolled as members of that Tribe? A No sir.

Q Have you ever made any application of any description for yourself or any of these children before today, looking to the establishment of your rights as Choctaws? A I have tried to make application for myself.

Q When? A It has been about five or six years ago I think.

Q How did you do that? A Well, I got a lawyer's name and he sent me some blanks for me to fill out and I had them filled out and sent them back to him.

Q Did you ever hear from that application? A Yes sir, I sent them off-then I failed to fix one up right and he sent it back to me and I sent it to him again and he wrote me that it was too late, that the Commission had closed I believe.

Q That was in '96, wasn't it? A Yes sir, I think so.

- Q As a matter of fact, then, your application never was filed, was it?
A No sir, I suppose not.
Q Did you ever hear anything from the Commission? A No sir.
Q That is the only effort of any kind you ever made to establish your right, is it? A Yes sir.
Q This, then, as a matter of fact, is the only and first application that has ever been made for you or these children? A Yes sir.
Q Do you appear before the Commission at this time for the purpose of claiming rights in the Choctaw lands in Indian Territory for yourself and five minor children under article 14 of the treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek? A Yes sir.
Q Do you understand article 14 of the treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek?
A No sir, I don't.

This treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek was entered into here in Mississippi on the 27th day of September, 1830, between the United States Government and the Choctaw Tribe of Indians. At the time the treaty was made the Choctaws lived here in Mississippi and along the western edge of the State of Alabama. The object of the treaty was to get these Indians to move from the country occupied by them here in Mississippi and Alabama to a new country west of the Mississippi River part of which is now occupied by the greater portion of the Choctaw Tribe of Indians and is commonly known as the Choctaw Nation Indian Territory. At the time the treaty was made some of the Indians were unwilling to leave this country and for the benefit of those who wanted to stay here what is known as the 14th article was put in the treaty. That 14th article provided that upon certain conditions a Choctaw who wanted to stay here in Mississippi might receive land here in Mississippi from the Government of the United States. That 14th article is as follows:

"Each Choctaw head of a family being desirous to remain and become a citizen of the States shall be permitted to do so by signifying his intention to the Agent within six months from the ratification of this treaty and he or she shall thereupon be entitled to a reservation of one section of six hundred and forty acres of land, to be bounded by sectional lines of survey; in like manner shall be entitled to one half that quantity for each unmarried child which is living with him over ten years of age; and a quarter section to such child as may be under ten years of age, to adjoin the location of the parent. If they live upon said lands, intending to become citizens of the States, for five years after the ratification of this treaty, in that case a grant in fee simple shall issue; said reservation shall include the present improvement of the head of the family or a portion of it. Persons who claim under this article shall not lose the privilege of a Choctaw citizen but if they ever remove are not to be entitled to any portion of the Choctaw annuity."

- Q That is the 14th article of the treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek. Do you think you understand that now? A Yes sir, I think I do.

James L. Mabry et al---4

Q Did any of your ancestors ever comply or attempt to comply with its provisions or ever receive any benefits under that article?

A Not that I know of.

Q Did any of them own an improvement here in the old Choctaw Nation in Mississippi and Alabama in the year 1830 when this treaty was made? A I don't know, sir.

Q Did any of them, in fact, live here at that time-71 years ago? A I don't know, sir.

Q Did any of them remove from the old Choctaw Nation here in Mississippi and Alabama to the present Choctaw Nation in Indian Territory at the time of the removal of the greater portion of the Choctaw Tribe of Indians between the years 1833 and 1836? A I don't know that.

Q Did any of them within six months after the treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek was ratified let the Agent of the Government here in Mississippi, for the Choctaws, know that they wanted to stay here in Mississippi and become citizens of the States and take land? A I don't know, sir.

Q Did any of them ever claim or receive any land here in Mississippi from the Government of the United States under article 14 of the treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek? A I don't know that.

Q Did you ever hear of any of your ancestors ever having gotten any land here in Mississippi from the Government of the United States as Choctaw Indians? A No sir.

Q Or any money from the Government? A No sir.

Q So far as you know, then, none of your ancestors have ever received any benefits whatever as Choctaw Indians? A No sir.

In accordance with the provisions of article 14 of the treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek the Government of the United States directed an Agent here in Mississippi to register the names of such Choctaws as might desire to remain here and become citizens of the States and take land. The records of the Government show that this Agent failed to register and report to the Government the names of many Choctaws who did in fact let him know that they wanted to stay here and take land under this 14th article and on this account the Government, at its public land sales here in Mississippi, in many instances sold land upon which Indians lived and had improvements and which they supposed they would receive under article 14 of the treaty. This caused a great deal of complaint among the Indians and the matter was finally brought to the attention of Congress and Congress passed an act which was approved on the 3rd day of March, 1837, providing for the appointment of a Commission to come down here to Mississippi and hear the cases of Choctaws who claimed that they had complied in all respects with the provisions of article 14 of the treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek. These Commissioners were appointed by the President of the United States under this act of Congress and they came down here to Mississippi and heard a few of these Choctaw cases but there were so many that they were unable to dispose of them in the time allowed them by this act of Congress, so it became necessary for Congress to make further provision whereby the remainder of these Indians might be given hearings, so another act was passed which was approved on the 23rd day of August, 1842, providing for the appointment of another Commission to come down here and finish up this work. This second Commission was appointed by the President and the Commissioners came down here to Mississippi and heard a great many Choctaw cases. They were down here in the 40's.

James L. Mabry et al--5

Q Did any of your ancestors appear before either one of these Commissions and attempt to establish their rights under article 14 of the treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek? A Not that I know of.

This act of Congress approved on the 23rd day of August, 1842, provided that in case it should be finally determined that a Choctaw had complied in all respects with the provisions of article 14 of the treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek but that his land had been sold by the Government he should be entitled to select in place of that land so sold by the Government, land some place east in Mississippi or in Alabama, Louisiana or Arkansas, from vacant Government land and should be given a certificate to that effect. These certificates were called scrip.

Q Did any of your ancestors ever get any of this scrip from the Government of the United States under this act of Congress? A No sir, not that I know of.

Q Do you know of any old persons living who would likely know whether any of your ancestors ever complied or attempted to comply with the provisions of article 14 of the treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek or ever received any benefits thereunder? A No sir, I don't.

Q Do you know of any written evidence of any description which would prove or tend to prove such a state of facts? A No sir, I do not.

Q Have you any written evidence of any kind to offer at this time? A No sir.

Q Have you any witnesses here today? A Yes sir.

Q How many? A One.

Q What is the name of that witness? A Ab Mabry.

Q What do you expect to prove by him? A Well, I can prove that it was understood by him and talked and he knew my grandfather-he didn't deny Indian blood that he had.

Q Is that all? A Yes sir, I reckon so-he knows more than I do about it but of course I don't know hardly what would be evidence in the evidence that he knows.

Q Does he know whether any of your ancestors ever complied or attempted to comply with the provisions of article 14 of the treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek or ever received any benefits thereunder? A I don't know, sir, whether he does or not.

Q Have you any farther statements you desire to make at this time in support of your application? A No sir.

If you should find any other witnesses whose testimony you desire to have taken before the Commission, they may appear before us here between now and the 15th of this month or within a reasonable time thereafter at the general office of the Commission in Muskogee, Indian Territory, and their testimony will be taken.

- Q Have you any brothers living? A No sir.
Q Any sisters? A No sir-I have some half sisters but not by my mother.
Q Are any of your mother's brothers or sisters living? A Yes sir, some sisters.
Q How many? A Three.
Q What are their names? A Mediah Bramlett.
Q Is that a man or woman? A Woman.
Q Where does she live? A She lives in, I reckon it is Choctaw County or Webster-I don't know.
Q Has she been before the Commission? A No sir.
Q What is the name of another one? A Sallie Smith.
Q Where does she live? A She lives there in Choctaw or Webster.
Q Has she been before the Commission? A No sir.
Q What is the name of another one of your mother's sisters? A The other's one's name is Betsy Bramlett.
Q Did they marry brothers? A Yes sir.
Q Where does she live? A She lives in Choctaw or Webster County.
Q And your mother has no brothers living? A No sir.
Q Has she any brothers or sisters dead who left descendants? A She has a brother dead but -I don't know, sir-I can't answer.
Q You don't know whether he left descendants or not? A No sir.
Q Are any of the brothers or sisters of Henry Box living? A Not that I know of.
Q Are any of the descendants of any of his brothers or sisters living? A I don't know.

This applicant has the appearance of being a white man-he has black hair and dark gray eyes-he does not speak or understand the Choctaw language.

Albert G. Mabry, witness on behalf of applicant, being first duly sworn, testified as follows:

Examination by the Commission.

- Q What is your name? A Albert G. Mabry.
Q What is your age? A Fifty-three.
Q What is your postoffice address? A Cypress, Mississippi, Tate
County.
Q How long have you lived in Mississippi? A All my life-born and raised in Mississippi.
Q You have no Choctaw blood? A No sir, not that I know of.
Q What is your occupation? A Farming.
Q Are you any relation to the applicant who was just on the stand?
A I claim to be his father.
Q Are you interested in any way in the result of his application?
A Nothing more than nature as he is my son.
Q What was the name of his mother? A Lucinda Box.

That was her maiden name.

Q Did she ever go by the name of Rennie? A No, not as Rennie.

Q How long has she been dead? A She's been dead about thirty years--since '70.

Q Did she have any Choctaw blood? A That was always my understanding.

Q Could she speak the Choctaw language? A Not that I know of.

Q Do you know where she was born? A She was born in Mississippi.

Q Did she live here all her life? A Yes sir--that was my understanding. While I wasn't there when she was born I am satisfied she was born in Mississippi.

Q Was she older or younger than you? A She was a little younger--about a year.

Q Were you acquainted with her parents? A Yes sir.

Q Through which one of her parents did she get her Choctaw blood?

A Her father's side.

Q What was her father's name? A Henry Box.

Q How much Choctaw blood did he have? A It was always understood that he was about a fourth Indian.

Q Choctaw Indian? A Yes sir, Choctaw Indian--it was the general understanding.

Q You mean by that, in the neighborhood in which he lived it was generally understood that he had Choctaw Indian blood? A Yes sir.

Q How long has he been dead? A He's been dead since about '60--it was in the early part of the war.

Q About how old a man was he when he died? A He was very old--I don't remember.

Q Do you know where he was born? A No sir.

Q Do you know how long he lived in Mississippi immediately prior to his death? A No sir, I don't know only hearsay.

Q What was your understanding about the matter? A My understanding was that he come to Mississippi--he found his wife traveling with the Indians--he stopped and camped with the Indians close to him and he fell in love with the woman and married her.

Q When was that? A That was way back long before I was born--that was just my understanding.

Q Do you know where he came from to this State? A No sir.

Q His wife had no Indian blood? A No sir, not that I know of--she never claimed it.

Q Do you know who Henry Box's parents were? A No sir, I do not.

Q You don't know which one of them had Indian blood? A Well, it's my understanding it was from the Box side. I don't know what Henry Box's father's name was.

Q Did Henry Box speak the Choctaw language? A I suppose so.

Q Did you ever hear him speak it? A I heard him go on but I would n't know it if I heard it spoke. They called it Indian talk but I couldn't understand what he said.

Q Do you know where Henry Box was living in 1830? A No sir, I do not.

Q Did he associate with the white people during your acquaintance with him, entirely? A Well, during my acquaintance with him he did--Yes sir. I heard him say that while the Indians were here they were his associates but I never saw him with an Indian myself.

Q You heard me explain the 14th article of the treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek to your son, didn't you? A Yes sir.

Q Do you know whether Henry Box or any of his ancestors ever complied with the provisions of that 14th article or ever received any benefits under it? A No sir.

James L. Mabry et al---8

Q Do you know whether any of them ever got any land here in Mississippi? A No sir.

Q Or any money? A No sir.

Q Did any of them ever live in Indian Territory? A No sir.

Q You never heard, then, of any of his people ever having received any benefits as Choctaw Indians? A No sir.

Q You heard me explain to your son about these acts of Congress of 1837 and 1842 and the Commissions appointed under them? A Yes sir.

Q Did any of the ancestors of your son appear before either of these Commissions, to your knowledge, and attempt to establish their rights?

A Not that I know of.

Q None of them ever got any of this scrip from the Government, did they? A No sir, not that I know of.

Q Do you know of any real old persons that would likely be informed as to whether any of the ancestors of ~~of~~ your son ever complied or attempted to comply with this treaty provision or ever received any benefits under it? A No sir.

Q Are there any further statements you would like to make with reference to this matter? A No sir, I don't know that there is.

Q Have any of the members of your family been before the Commission? A No sir.

Q I want to ask you about the marriage of this man Henry Box and your wife's mother-do you know whether they were lawfully married?

A No sir, I do not.

Q How long did they live together as man and wife-do you know? A I suppose, from the children they raised, they must have lived together forty or fifty years.

Q How many children did they have? A Seven or eight to my knowledge-my wife was the youngest and the others were all older.

This witness is a white man of average intelligence.

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR,
COMMISSION TO THE FIVE CIVILIZED TRIBES.

-----;-----

In the matter of the application of James L. Mabry, et al., for identification as Mississippi Choctaws, M C R 4579.

--: D E C I S I O N :--

It appears from the record herein that application for identification as Mississippi Choctaws was made to this Commission by James L. Mabry for himself and his five minor children, Nettie, Gracie, Ida, Claudie and Maudie Mabry, under the following provision of the act of Congress approved June 25, 1898, (30 Stat., 495):

"Said Commission shall have authority to determine the identity of Choctaw Indians claiming rights in the Choctaw lands under article fourteen of the treaty between the United States and the Choctaw Nation, concluded September twenty-seventh, eighteen hundred and thirty, and to that end may administer oaths, examine witnesses, and perform all other acts necessary thereto and make report to the Secretary of the Interior."

It also appears that all of said applicants claim rights in the Choctaw lands under article fourteen of the treaty between the United States and the Choctaw Nation, concluded September twenty-seventh, eighteen hundred and thirty, by reason of being descendants of one Henry Box, who is alleged to have been an one fourth blood Choctaw Indian.

It further appears from the evidence submitted in support of said application and from the records in the possession of the Commission that none of said applicants has ever been enrolled by the Choctaw tribal authorities as a member of the Choctaw tribe, or admitted to Choctaw citizenship by a duly constituted court or committee of the Choctaw Nation, or by the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes, or by a decree of the United States Court in Indian Territory under the provisions of the act of Congress approved June 10, 1896, (29 Stat., 321).

It does not appear from the testimony and evidence offered in support of said application, or from the records in the possession of the Commission relating to persons who complied or attempted to comply with the provisions of article fourteen of the treaty of eighteen hundred and thirty, and to persons who heretofore were claimants thereunder, that the said Henry Box, or an ancestor less remote, signified (in person or by proxy) to Colonel Wm. Ward, Indian Agent, Choctaw Agency, an intention to comply with the provisions of said article fourteen, or presented a claim to rights thereunder to either of the Commissions authorized to adjudicate such claims by the acts of Congress approved March 3, 1837, (5 Stat., 160), and August 23, 1842, (5 Stat., 513).

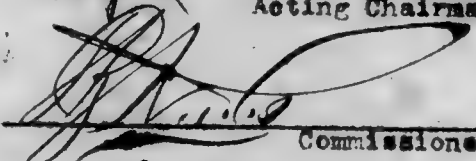

It is therefore the opinion of this Commission that the evidence herein is insufficient to determine the identity of James L. Mabry, Nettie Mabry, Gracie Mabry, Ida Mabry, Claudie Mabry and Maudie Mabry as Choctaw Indians entitled to rights in the Choctaw lands under the provisions of said article fourteen of the treaty of eighteen hundred and thirty, and that the application for their identification as such should be refused, and it is so ordered.

J. L. Mabry,

Cypress, Mississippi,

Dear Sir:

Receipt is hereby acknowledged of your letter of the seventeenth instant, in which you ask if the Commission will accept the depositions of certain witnesses who are too old and feeble to appear before the Commission in support of your application.

In reply to your letter you are advised that if you are unable to secure the attendance of witnesses on any ground, which, under the rules of the Commission, would constitute inability, their depositions will be considered, when taken in accordance with the rules and regulations governing the taking of depositions in support of applications for identification as Mississippi Choctaws. A copy of said regulations is inclosed herewith for your guidance.

Yours truly,

James T. Mabry,
Cypress, Mississippi,

Dear sir:

Your letter of the seventeenth instant, addressed to the Secretary of the Interior, has been by him referred to this commission for consideration and appropriate action. You ask therein what testimony is required to establish your claim as a Mississippi Choctaw.

In reply to your letter you are advised that the Commission cannot advise you what amount of proof is necessary to establish your claim to identification as a Mississippi Choctaw. On the twentieth instant a letter was addressed you by the Commission advising you with reference to the procedure necessary to secure the depositions of certain witnesses in support of your application for identification as a Mississippi Choctaw.

Yours truly,

Commissioner in Charge.

Dear Sir:-

You are hereby advised that on the 17th day of October, 1902, the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes rendered a decision in the case of James L. Mabry, et al., applicants for identification as Mississippi Choctaws.

This application was made under the provision of the act of Congress of June 28, 1898 (30 Stats. 495) which is as follows:

"Said Commission shall have authority to determine the identity of Choctaw Indians claiming rights in the Choctaw lands under article fourteen of the treaty between the United States and the Choctaw Nation, concluded September twenty-seventh, eighteen hundred and thirty, and to that end may administer oaths, examine witnesses and perform all other acts necessary thereto and make report to the Secretary of the Interior."

Said decision concludes as follows:

"It is therefore the opinion of this Commission that the evidence herein is insufficient to determine the identity of James L. Mabry, Nettie Mabry, Gracie Mabry, Ida Mabry, Claudie Mabry and Maudie Mabry as Choctaw Indians entitled to rights in the Choctaw lands under the provisions of said article fourteen of the treaty of eighteen hundred and thirty, and that the application for their identification as such should be refused, and it is so ordered."

You are further advised that you will be allowed fifteen days from the date hereof within which to file arguments

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR,

The Honorable,

The Secretary of the Interior.

Sir:

I have the honor to transmit, herewith, for your consideration, application of James L. Mabry, for himself and his five minor children, Nettie, Gracie, Ida, Claudie and Maudie Mabry, for identification as Mississippi Choctaws, wherein a decision adverse to them was rendered by the Commission October 17, 1902. The testimony in this case shows that the applicants base their claim to identification on their descent from Henry Box whom it is alleged was a member of the Choctaw tribe of Indians in Mississippi in 1830, through his daughter Rennie (or Lucind) Mabry.

The Commission rejected the applicants because it did not appear from its records that the ancestors claimed under by the applicants complied or attempted to comply with the provisions of the 14th Article of the treaty of 1830.

An examination of the records of this office discloses the fact that the names of Henry Box, Rennie (or Lucind) Mabry, do not appear among the names of those Choctaw Indians who complied or attempted to comply with the 14th Article of the Choctaw treaty of 1830, neither does it appear that they applied to the Commissions appointed under Acts of March 3, 1837 (5 Stat. 160) and August 23, 1842 (5 Stat., 513) for an adjudication of their rights as Choctaw Indians, if they had such rights.

It is therefore respectfully recommended that the decision of the Commission rejecting the applicants be approved.

Very respectfully,

W. A. JONES,
Commissioner.

Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes,
Muskogee, I. T.

Gentlemen:

November 3, 1902, you transmitted the record in the matter of the application for identification as Mississippi Choctaws, of James L. Mabry and his minor children, Nettie, Gracie, Ida, Claudie and Maudie Mabry, including your decision of October 17, 1902, adverse to the applicants.

The applicants claim to be descendants of one Henry Bex, who is alleged to have been a one-fourth blood Choctaw Indian.

The records fail to show that the applicants were ever admitted or enrolled as citizens of the Choctaw Nation, or that said Henry Bex or an ancestor less remote complied or attempted to comply with article 14 of the treaty of September 27, 1830, or with either of the acts of March 3, 1837 (5 Stat., 180), and August 23, 1842 (5 Stat., 513).

Reporting January 24, 1903, the Acting Commissioner of Indian Affairs recommends approval of your decision. A copy of his letter is inclosed.

The Department finds no reason to disturb your decision and hereby affirms the same.

Respectfully,

- Q Where did they live then? A In Yazoo County, Mississippi.
- Q Did any of your Choctaw ancestors remove from the old Choctaw Nation here in Mississippi and Alabama to the present Choctaw Nation in Indian Territory at the time of the removal of the greater portion of the Choctaw Tribe of Indians between the years 1833 and 1838? A Not that I know of.
- Q Did any of them within six months after the treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek was ratified let the Agent of the Government here in Mississippi, for the Choctaws, know that they wanted to stay here in Mississippi and become citizens of the States and take land? A Not that I know of.
- Q Did any of them ever claim or receive any land here in Mississippi from the Government of the United States under article 14 of the treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek? A Not that I know of.
- Q Did any of them ever get any land here in Mississippi from the Government under this treaty? A No sir.
- Q Did any of them ever get any money from the Government? A No sir.
- Q So far as you know, did any of your ancestors ever receive any benefits as Choctaw Indians? A Not that I know of.
- Q You heard my explanation as to these acts of Congress passed between the years 1837 and 1842, did you not? A Yes sir.
- Q Did any of your ancestors appear before any of these Commission-ers appointed under these acts of Congress and attempt to establish their rights under article 14 of the treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek? A Not that I know of.
- Q Did any of them ever receive any of this scrip from the Government of the United States under the act of Congress approved August 23, 1842? A Not that I know of.

Emma Oakes et al---3

- Q Do you know of any old persons living who would likely know whether any of your ancestors ever complied or attempted to comply with the provisions of article 14 of the treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek or ever received any benefits thereunder? A No sir.
- Q Do you know of any written evidence of any description which would prove or tend to prove such a state of facts? A No sir.
- Q Have you any written evidence of any kind to offer at this time? A No sir.
- Q Have you any witnesses here to testify in your case? A No sir.

If you should find any witnesses whose testimony you desire to have taken before the Commission they may appear before us here at Meridian between now and the 15th of this month or within a reasonable time thereafter at the general office of the Commission in Muskogee, Indian Territory, and their testimony will be taken.

- Q Are there any further statements you want to make at this time in support of your application? A No sir.
- Q Have you any brothers or sisters who are of age or married? A Yes sir.
- Q How many? A I have one sister married and one brother.
- Q What are their names? A Prentice Johnson and Eliza Powell.
- I have another sister, Flora Johnson; she isn't married.
- Q Has either of them been before the Commission? A No sir.
- Q Are there any further statements you want to make? A No sir.

This applicant has the appearance of being possessed of a mixture of negro and either white or Indian blood-her hair is black and almost straight-she does not speak or understand the Choctaw language.

Ira S. Niles, being first duly sworn, states that as stenographer to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes he reported in full all proceedings had in the above entitled cause, heard at Meridian, Mississippi, February 7th, 1902, and that the above and foregoing is a full, true and correct transcript of his stenographic notes taken in said proceedings on said date.

Muskogee, Indian Territory, August 2, 1902.

A. J. Oakes,

Yazoo City, Mississippi.

Dear Sir:

Receipt is hereby acknowledged of your letter of the 30th inst., wherein you ask "whether the Tom Johnson of Yazoo City, Miss., passed the Dawes Commission." You state that you are interested in said claim because your wife Mrs. L. Oakes is a daughter of Tom Johnson and put in her claim in February, 1902.

In reply you are informed that the records of the Commission do not show that any person by the name of Tom Johnson is an applicant to this Commission for identification as a Mississippi Choctaw. The records do show however, that Emma Oakes, twenty-three years of age, post-office address, Yazoo City, Mississippi, a daughter of Thomas and Winnie Johnson, made application before this Commission on February 7, 1902, for the identification of herself and minor child, Alma, as Mississippi Choctaws, claiming descent from George and Malinda Johnson.

No decision has been reached nor opinion rendered relative to the right of Emma Oakes and her minor child to identification as Mississippi Choctaws.

The Commission is now considering the application of these persons for each identification and it is probable that a decision will be rendered in the near future. The applicants will be duly notified of such decision and of the forwarding of the results to the Secretary of the Interior for review.

Yours truly,

Acting Chairman

Muskogee, Indian Territory, August 7, 1902.

Mr. C. C. Coe,

Yazoo City, Mississippi.

Dear Sir:

You are hereby advised that on the 7th day of August, 1902, the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes rendered a decision in the consolidated case of George Johnson, et al., embracing the following applications for identification as Mississippi Choctaws:

George Johnson,	M.C.R. 4680
Willie Johnson, et al.,	" 4681
Elizabeth Preston,	" 4682
Madora Nelson, et al.,	" 4683
Malinda Johnson, et al.,	" 4684
Ada Nelson, et al.,	" 4685
Anna Oakes, et al.,	" 4686

These applications were made under the provisions of the act of Congress of June 28, 1908 (35 Stats., 495), which is as follows:

"Said Commission shall have authority to determine the identity of Choctaw Indian claimants rights in the Choctaw lands under article fourteen of the treaty between the United States and the Choctaw Nation, concluded September twenty-seventh, six teen hundred and thirty, and to that end may administer oaths, examine witnesses, and perform all other acts necessary thereto, and make report to the Secretary of the Interior".

Said decision concludes as follows:

Emma Oakes-2

"It is, therefore, the opinion of this Commission that the evidence herein is insufficient to determine the identity of George Johnson, Millie Johnson, Jasper Johnson, James Johnson, Minis Johnson, Sironis Johnson, Ollie Johnson, Elizabeth Brazton, Madora Nelson, Caldonia Nelson, Helen Nelson, Ulysses C. Nelson, Charlottie Nelson, Leon W. Nelson, Malinda Johnson, Lala Johnson, Charlie Johnson, Ada Nelson, Allzona Nelson, Daisy L. Nelson, Emma Oakes and Alma Oakes as Choctaw Indians entitled to rights in the Choctaw lands under the provisions of said article fourteen of the treaty of eighteen hundred and thirty, and that the applications for their identification as such should be refused, and it is so ordered".

You are further advised that the Commission has on this date forwarded the record in this case to the Secretary of the Interior for review and you will be informed in due time of such action as may be taken by him.

Yours truly,

Tammie Dickey,
Acting Chairman.

Muskogee, Indian Territory, March 14, 1903.

Emma Oakes,

Yazoo City, Mississippi.

Dear Madam:

The Secretary of the Interior, with his letter of February 25, 1903, returned to this Commission the record theretofore forwarded the Department in the consolidated Mississippi Choctaw case of George Johnson, et al., with instructions that the several applicants included therein be granted an opportunity to introduce further testimony and evidence in support of their claims.

The Secretary of the Interior in his letter states:

'The Department is in possession of a 'Schedule of these Choctaws who received land under the provisions of the 14th article of the treaty of 1830 by remaining upon the land five years in accordance with the provisions of that article,' prepared by the Indian Office. Said schedule contains certain information which may relate to this case, as shown by the following entries:

- 'Johnson, Mary,
Head of family; received 1&1/2 sections lands;
2 children under 10.'
- 'Johnson, George,
Head of family; received 3 sections land;
4 children over, 4 under 10.'
- 'Johnson, Silas D., over 10;
parent George Johnson.'

The question as presented by the record is this: Were the beneficiaries named in said schedule identical in person with the principal applicant or with any of his ancestors? It is impossible to answer this question satisfactorily without further information than that contained in the record.

In as much as George Johnson, the principal applicant, was about thirteen years of age in 1830, it is probable that if now living he could furnish additional testimony relative to his ancestors.

You are therefore requested to advise the parties in interest as to the nature of your rules for taking testimony and that they will be allowed thirty days in which to furnish additional testimony, either oral or written, in accordance therewith in support of their claims."

Article fourteen of the treaty of September 27, 1830, herein referred to, is as follows:

"Each Choctaw head of a family being desirous to remain and become a citizen of the States shall be permitted to do so, by signifying his intention to the Agent within six months from the ratification of this treaty, and he or she shall thereupon be entitled to a reservation of one section of six hundred and forty acres of land, to be bounded by sectional lines of survey; in like manner shall be entitled to one half that quantity for each unmarried child which is living with him over ten years of age, and a quarter section to such child as may be under ten years of age, to adjoin the location of the parent. If they reside upon said lands intending to become citizens of the States for five years after the ratification of this treaty, in that case, a grant in fee simple shall issue; said reservation shall include the present improvement of the head of the family, or a portion of it. Persons who claim under this article shall not lose the privilege of a Choctaw citizen, but if they ever remove are not to be entitled to any portion of the Choctaw annuity."

The Commission requires of applicants for identification as Mississippi Choctaws that they reasonably demonstrate that their Choctaw ancestors resided in the old Choctaw Nation in the states of Mississippi and Alabama in 1830 and that such ancestors complied or attempted to comply with the provisions of article fourteen of the said treaty of 1830 above quoted.

You are hereby notified that in accordance with instructions of the Secretary of the Interior, the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes will, at its office at Muskogee, Indian Territory, up to and inclusive of Monday, April 13, 1903, hear the testimony of such witnesses as may present themselves in person and receive for consideration such documentary evidence as may be offered in support of the claims of the several applicants included in this consolidated case.

You are advised that the Commission is averse to the acceptance of ex parte affidavits in support of applications for identification as Mississippi Choctaws and prefers, whenever possible, to have the personal appearance of witnesses for the purpose of testifying in person, but in the event that witnesses are incapacitated from making personal appearance on account of old age or infirmity, their depositions may be considered when taken in conformity with the rules and regulations governing the procedure in the taking and submission of depositions in support of applications for identification as Mississippi Choctaws, a copy of which rules and regulations is herewith enclosed.

Dear Sir:

Receipt is hereby acknowledged of the affidavit of Mrs. Emma L. Oakes, wherein she sets forth her reasons for desiring to have the deposition of George Johnson taken in support of her application for the identification of herself and minor child as Mississippi Choctaws, together with interrogatories to be propounded to said witness.

These papers are herewith returned for the reason that no service of the interrogatories has been made upon the attorneys for the Choctaw and Chickasaw Nations as required by rules 12 and 13 of the rules and regulations governing the procedure in the taking and submission of depositions in support of Mississippi Choctaw applications, a copy of which rules and regulations is herewith enclosed.

In order that you will have no further trouble in regard to service of copies of interrogatories upon the attorneys for the Choctaw and Chickasaw Nations, we would suggest that you have said interrogatories prepared in duplicate and forward the original and also the copy to the United States Marshal for the Central District

Q Did you ever make application to the Choctaw Tribal authorities in Indian Territory for yourself or either of your children to be admitted or enrolled as members of the Choctaw Tribe of Indians?

A No sir.

Q Have you ever made any applications of any kind before today for yourself or either of these children looking to the establishment of your rights as Choctaw Indians? A No sir.

Q Do you appear before the Commission at this time for the purpose of claiming rights in the Choctaw lands in Indian Territory for yourself and two minor children under article 14 of the treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek? A yes sir.

Q You understand that 14th article of the treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek, do you not? A No sir.

Q Didn't you hear it explained here this morning twice to your sisters? A Yes sir, I heard it explained.

Q Don't you understand it? A No sir, I don't exactly understand it now.

This treaty was entered into here in Mississippi on the 27th day of September, 1830, between the United States Government and the Choctaw Tribe of Indians. At the time this treaty was made the Choctaws lived here in Mississippi and along the western edge of the State of Alabama. The object of this treaty was to get these Indians to move from the country occupied by them here in Mississippi and Alabama to a new country west of the Mississippi River part of which is now occupied by the greater portion of the Choctaw Tribe of Indians and is commonly known as the Choctaw Nation Indian Territory. At the time this treaty was made some of the Choctaws were unwilling to leave this country and for the benefit of those who wanted to stay here what is known as the 14th article was put in the treaty. That 14th article provided that upon certain conditions a Choctaw who preferred to stay here in Mississippi and not move out to the new nation, might receive land here in Mississippi from the Government. It is as follows:-

"Each Choctaw head of a family being desirous to remain and become a citizen of the States shall be permitted to do so by signifying his intention to the Agent within six months from the ratification of this treaty and he or she shall thereupon be entitled to a reservation of one section of six hundred and forty acres of land to be bounded by sectional lines of survey; in like manner shall be entitled to one half that quantity for each unmarried child which is living with him over ten years of age; and a quarter section to such child as may be under ten years of age, to adjoin the location of the parent. If they reside upon said lands, intending to become citizens of the States, for five years after the ratification of this treaty, in that case a grant in fee simple shall issue; said reservation shall include the present improvement of the head of the family, or a portion of it. Persons who claim under this article shall not lose the privilege of a Choctaw citizen but if they ever remove are not to be entitled to any portion of the Choctaw annuity."

- Q Do you understand that 14th article now? A Yes sir.
- Q Did any of your ancestors ever comply or attempt to comply with the provisions of that 14th article of the treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek or ever receive any benefits under it? A Not as I know of.
- Q Did any of your ancestors own an improvement here in the old Choctaw Nation in Mississippi and Alabama in the year 1830 when this treaty was made? A No sir, not as I know of.
- Q Did any of them live here in the old Choctaw Nation at that time- 71 years ago? A No sir.
- Q Did any of them remove from the old Choctaw Nation here in Mississippi and Alabama to the present Choctaw Nation in Indian Territory at the time of the removal of the greater portion of the Choctaw Tribe of Indians between the years 1833 and 1838? A Not as I knows of.
- Q Did any of them within six months after the treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek was ratified let the Agent of the Government here in Mississippi, for the Choctaws, know that they wanted to stay here in Mississippi and become citizens of the States and take land? A Not as I knows of.
- Q Did any of your ancestors ever claim or receive any land here in Mississippi from the Government of the United States under article 14 of the treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek?, A Not as I know of.
- Q Did any of them ever get any land from the Government under any other article of that treaty or under the supplement to that treaty? A No sir, not as I knows of.
- Q Did any of them ever get any money from the Government? A No sir
- Q So far as you know, did any of your ancestors ever receive any benefits whatever as Choctaw Indians? A No sir, not that I know of.

In accordance with the provisions of article 14 of the treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek the Government of the United States directed an Agent here in Mississippi to register the names of such Choctaws as might desire to remain here and become citizens of the States and take land. The records of the Government show that this Agent failed to register and report to the Government the names of many Indians who did in fact let him know that they wanted to stay here and become citizens and take land and on this account the Government, at its public land sales here in Mississippi, in many instances sold land upon which Choctaws lived and had improvements and which they supposed they would receive under article 14 of the treaty, of Dancing Rabbit Creek. This caused a great deal of complaint among the Indians and the matter was finally brought to the attention of Congress and Congress passed certain acts between the years 1837 and 1842 providing for the appointment of Commissions to come down here to Mississippi and here these cases of Choctaws who claimed th at they were entitled to land under article 14 of the treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek but that their land had been sold by the Government. These Commissioners were appointed by the President of the United States and the Commissioners came down here to Mississippi and heard a great many of these cases.

- Q Did any of your ancestors appear before any of these Commissioners and attempt to establish their rights under article 14 of the treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek? A No sir, not as I know of.

An Act of Congress approved August 23, 1842, provided that in case it should be finally determined that a Choctaw had complied in all respects with the provisions of article 14 of the treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek but that his land had been sold by the Government, he should be entitled to select, in place of the land so sold by the Government, land some place else here in Mississippi or in Alabama, Louisiana or Arkansas, from vacant Government land and should be given a certificate to that effect. These certificates were called scrip.

Q Did any of your ancestors ever get any of this scrip from the Government of the United States under this act of Congress? A No sir.

Q Do you know of any old persons living who would likely know whether any of your ancestors ever complied or attempted to comply with the provisions of article 14 of the treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek or ever received any benefits under that article? A No sir.

Q Do you know of the existence of any written evidence of any description which would show or tend to show such a state of facts?

A No sir, I don't know of any.

Q Have you any written evidence of any kind to offer at this time in support of your application? A No sir.

Q Have you any witnesses here today to testify in your case? A No sir.

Q Are there any further statements you want to make? A No sir.

Q You don't speak or understand the Choctaw language, do you? A No sir.

This applicant has the appearance of being possessed of a mixture of negro and either white or Indian blood-her hair is black and perfectly straight. She does not speak or understand the Choctaw language.

Ira S. Niles, being first duly sworn, states that as stenographer to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes he reported in full all proceedings had in the above entitled cause, heard at Meridian, Mississippi, February 7th, 1902, and that the above and foregoing is a full, true and correct transcript of his stenographic notes taken in said proceedings on said date.

Deputy.

Muskogee, Indian Territory, August 7, 1902.

Mr. Nelson,

Wagon, Mississippi.

Dear Sir:

You are hereby advised that on the 24th day of August, 1902, the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes rendered a decision in the consolidated case of George Johnson, et al., embracing the following applications for identification as Mississippi Choctaws:

George Johnson,	H.C.R.	4686
Willie Johnson, et al.,	"	4685
Winifred Preston,	"	4684
Madora Nelson, et al.,	"	4683
Malinda Johnson, et al.,	"	4682
Ada Nelson, et al.,	"	4681
Bama Oaker, et al.,	"	4680

These applications were made under the provisions of the act of Congress of June 22, 1899 (30 Stat., 495), which is as follows:

"Said Commission shall have authority to determine the identity of Choctaw Indians claiming rights in the Choctaw lands under article fourteen of the treaty between the United States and the Choctaw Nation, concluded September twenty-seventh, eighteen hundred and thirty, and to that end may administer oaths, examine witnesses, and perform all other acts necessary thereto, and make report to the Secretary of the Interior".

Said decision concludes as follows:

Ada Nelson-2

"It is, therefore, the opinion of this Commission that the evidence herein is insufficient to determine the identity of George Johnson, Millie Johnson, Jasper Johnson, James Johnson, Finis Johnson, Sironis Johnson, Ollie Johnson, Elizabeth Preston, Madara Nelson, Caldonia Nelson, Helen Nelson, Ulysses C. Nelson, Charlotte Nelson, Leon W. Nelson, Malinda Johnson, Lula Johnson, Charlie Johnson, Ada Nelson, Allzema Nelson, Daisy L. Nelson, Emma Oakes and Alma Oakes as Choctaw Indians entitled to rights in the Choctaw lands under the provisions of said article fourteen of the treaty of eighteen hundred and thirty, and that the applications for their identification as such should be refused, and it is so ordered".

You are further advised that the Commission has on this date forwarded the record in this case to the Secretary of the Interior for review and you will be informed in due time of such action as may be taken by him.

Yours truly,

Acting Chairman.

Registered.

Muskogee, Indian Territory, March 14, 1903.

Ada Nelson,
Eien, Mississippi.

Dear Madam:

The Secretary of the Interior, with his letter of February 25, 1903, returned to this Commission the record theretofore forwarded the Department in the consolidated Mississippi Choctaw case of George Johnson, et al., with instructions that the several applicants included therein be granted an opportunity to introduce further testimony and evidence in support of their claims.

The Secretary of the Interior in his letter states:

"The Department is in possession of a 'Schedule of those Choctaws who received land under the provisions of the 14th article of the treaty of 1830~~by~~ remaining upon the land five years in accordance with the provisions of that article,' prepared by the Indian Office. Said schedule contains certain information which may relate to this case, as shown by the following entries:

- 'Johnson, Mary,
Head of family; received 1&1/2 sections lands;
2 children under 10.'
- 'Johnson, George,
Head of family; received 3 sections land;
4 children over, 4 under 10.'
- 'Johnson, Silas D., over 10;
parent George Johnson.'

The question as presented by the record is this: Were the beneficiaries named in said schedule identical in person with the principal applicant or with any of his ancestors? It is impossible to answer this question satisfactorily without further information than that contained in the record.

In as much as George Johnson, the principal applicant, was about thirteen years of age in 1830, it is probable that if now living he could furnish additional testimony relative to his ancestors.

You are therefore requested to advise the parties in interest as to the nature of your rules for taking testimony and that they will be allowed thirty days in which to furnish additional testimony, either oral or written, in accordance therewith in support of their claims."

Article fourteen of the treaty of September 27, 1830, herein referred to, is as follows:

"Each Choctaw head of a family being desirous to remain and become a citizen of the States shall be permitted to do so, by signifying his intention to the Agent within six months from the ratification of this treaty, and he or she shall thereupon be entitled to a reservation of one section of six hundred and forty acres of land, to be bounded by sectional lines of survey; in like manner shall be entitled to one half that quantity for each unmarried child which is living with him over ten years of age, and a quarter section to such child as may be under ten years of age, to adjoin the location of the parent. If they reside upon said lands intending to become citizens of the States for five years after the ratification of this treaty, in that case, a grant in fee simple shall issue; said reservation shall include the present improvement of the head of a family, or a portion of it. Persons who claim under this article shall not lose the privilege of a Choctaw citizen but if they ever remove are not to be entitled to any portion of the Choctaw annuity."

The Commission requires of applicants for identification as Mississippi Choctaws that they reasonably demonstrate that their Choctaw ancestors resided in the old Choctaw Nation in the states of Mississippi and Alabama in 1830 and that such ancestors complied or attempted to comply with the provisions of said article fourteen of the treaty of 1830 above quoted.

You are hereby notified that in accordance with instructions of the Secretary of the Interior, the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes will, at its office at Muskogee, Indian Territory, up to and inclusive of Monday, April 13, 1903, hear the testimony of such witnesses as may present themselves in person and receive for consideration such documentary evidence as may be offered in support of the claims of the several applicants in this consolidated case.

You are advised that the Commission is averse to the acceptance of ex parte affidavits in support of applications for identification as Mississippi Choctaws and prefers, whenever possible, to have the personal appearance of witnesses for the purpose of testifying in person, but in the event that witnesses are incapacitated from making personal appearance on account of old age or infirmity, their depositions may be considered when taken in conformity with the rules and regulations governing the ~~proceedings~~ in the taking and submission of depositions in support of applications for identification as Mississippi Choctaws, a copy of which rules and regulations is herewith enclosed you.

- Q Do you know where they were living? A Yes sir.
- Q Where? A Yazoo County, Mississippi.
- Q They didn't own an improvement there, did they? A No sir.
- Q Did any of your Choctaw ancestors remove from the old Choctaw Nation here in Mississippi and Alabama to the present Choctaw Nation in Indian Territory at the time of the removal of the greater portion of the Choctaw Tribe of Indians between the years 1834 and 1838? A I don't know, sir.
- Q Did any of them within six months after the treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek was ratified let the Agent of the Government here in Mississippi for the Choctaws know that they wanted to stay here in Mississippi and become citizens of the States and take land? A Not as I know of.
- Q Did any of them ever claim or receive any land here in Mississippi from the Government of the United States under article 14 of the treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek? A No sir.
- Q Did any of them ever get any land here in Mississippi from the Government, to your knowledge? A No sir.
- Q Or any money? A No sir.
- Q So far as you know, then, none of your ancestors ever received any benefits whatever as Choctaw Indians? A No sir.
- Q You heard me explain to your sisters about these acts of Congress passed between the years 1837 and 1842 providing for the appointment of Commissions to come down here and hear these Choctaw Indian claims? A Yes sir.
- Q Did any of your ancestors appear before either of these Commissions and attempt to establish their rights under article 14 of the treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek? A No sir.
- Q Did any of your ancestors ever get any of this scrip from the Government of the United States under the act of Congress approved August 23, 1842? A Not as I know of.
- Q Do you know of any old person living who would likely know whether any of your ancestors ever complied or attempted to comply with the provisions of article 14 of the treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek or ever received any benefits thereunder? A No sir.
- Q Do you know of any written evidence of any description which would show or tend to show such a state of facts? A No sir.
- Q Have you any written evidence to offer at this time? A No sir.
- Q Have you any witnesses here whose testimony you desire to have taken in support of your application? A No sir.

If you should find any witnesses whose testimony you desire to have taken before the Commission they may appear before us here at Meridian between now and the 15th of this month or within a reasonable time thereafter at the general office of the Commission in Muskogee, Indian Territory, and their testimony will be taken.

- Q Are there any further statements you want to make at this time in support of your application? A No sir.

M.C.R. 4682

Muskogee, Indian Territory, August 7, 1902.

Madam Commissioner,

Muskogee, Mississippi.

Dear Madam:

You are hereby advised that on the 7th day of August, 1902, the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes rendered a decision in the consolidated case of George Johnson, et al., and that the following applications for identification as Mississippi Choctaws:

George Johnson,	M.C.R.	4680
Willie Johnson, et al.,	"	4682
Eliza Ann Beaton,	"	4684
Madora Nelson, et al.,	"	4683
Melinda Johnson, et al.,	"	4685
Ada Nelson, et al.,	"	4681
Ferna Oakes, et al.:	"	4680

These applications were made under the provisions of the act of Congress of June 28, 1902 (32 Stats., 495), which is as follows:

"Said Commission shall have authority to determine the identity of Choctaw Indians claiming rights in the Choctaw lands under article fourth of the treaty between the United States and the Choctaw Nation, concluded September twenty-seventh, eighteen hundred and thirty, and to that end may administer oaths, examine witnesses, and perform all other acts necessary thereto, and make report to the Secretary of the Interior".

Said decision concludes as follows:

Malinda Johnson-2

You are further advised that the Commission has on this date forwarded the record in this case to the Secretary of the Interior for review and you will be informed in due time of such action as may be taken by him.

Yours truly,

Acting Chairman.

Dear Madam:

The Secretary of the Interior, with his letter of February 25, 1903, returned to this Commission the record theretofore forwarded the Department in the consolidated Mississippi Choctaw case of George Johnson, et al., with instructions that the several applicants included therein be granted an opportunity to introduce further testimony and evidence in support of their claims.

The Secretary of the Interior in his letter states:

"The Department is in possession of a 'Schedule of those Choctaws who received land under the provisions of the 14th article of the treaty of 1830 by remaining upon the land five years in accordance with the provisions of that article,' prepared by the Indian Office. Said schedule contains certain information which may relate to this case, as shown by the following entries:

- 'Johnson, Mary,
Head of family; received 1 1/2 sections lands;
2 children under 10.'
- 'Johnson, George,
Head of family; received 3 sections land;
4 children over, 4 under 10.'
- 'Johnson, Silas D., over 10;
parent George Johnson.'

The question as presented by the record is this: Were the beneficiaries named in said schedule identical in person with the principal applicant or with any of his ancestors? It is impossible to answer this question satisfactorily without further information than that contained in the record.

M J 2

In as much as George Johnson, the principal applicant, was about thirteen years of age in 1830, it is probable that if now living he could furnish additional testimony relative to his ancestors.

You are therefore requested to advise the parties in interest as to the nature of your rules for taking testimony and that they will be allowed thirty days in which to furnish additional testimony, either oral or written, in accordance therewith in support of their claims."

Article fourteen of the treaty of September 27, 1830, herein referred to, is as follows:

"Each Choctaw head of a family being desirous to remain and become a citizen of the States shall be permitted to do so, by signifying his intention to the Agent within six months from the ratification of this treaty, and he or she shall thereupon be entitled to a reservation of one section of six hundred and forty acres of land, to be bounded by sectional lines of survey; in like manner shall be entitled to one half that quantity for each unmarried child which is living with him over ten years of age, and a quarter section to such child as may be under ten years of age, to adjoin the location of the parent. If they reside upon said lands intending to become citizens of the States for five years after the ratification of this treaty, in that case, a grant in fee simple shall issue; said reservation shall include the present improvement of the head of the family, or a portion of it. Persons who claim under this article shall not lose the privilege of a Choctaw citizen but if they ever remove are not to be entitled to any portion of the Choctaw annuity."

The Commission requires of applicants for identification as Mississippi Choctaws that they reasonably demonstrate that their Choctaw ancestors resided in the old Choctaw Nation in the states of Mississippi and Alabama in 1830 and that such ancestors complied or attempted to comply with the provisions of article fourteen of said treaty of 1830 above quoted.

You are hereby notified that in accordance with instructions of the Secretary of the Interior, the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes will, at its office at Muskogee, Indian Territory, up to and inclusive of Monday, April 13, 1903, hear the testimony of such witnesses as may present themselves in person and receive for consideration such documentary evidence as may be offered in support of the claims of the several applicants in this consolidated case.

You are advised that the Commission is averse to the acceptance of ex parte affidavits in support of applications for identification as Mississippi Choctaws and prefers, whenever possible, to have the personal appearance of witnesses for the purpose of testifying in person, but in the event that witnesses are incapacitated from making personal appearance on account of old age or infirmity, their depositions may be considered when taken in conformity with the rules and regulations governing the procedure in the taking and submission of depositions in support of applications for identification as Mississippi Choctaws, a copy of which rules and regulations is herewith enclosed.

- Q Were either of them in slavery? A No sir, they weren't slaves.
- Q Did any of your Choctaw ancestors remove from the old Choctaw Nation here in Mississippi and Alabama to the present Choctaw Nation in Indian Territory at the time of the removal of the greater portion of the Choctaw Tribe of Indians between the years 1833 and 1838? A No sir, not as I know anything about.
- Q Did any of them within six months after the treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek was ratified let the Agent of the Government here in Mississippi, for the Choctaws, know that they wanted to stay here in Mississippi and become citizens of the States and take land under article 14 of the treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek? A No sir, not that I know of.
- Q Did any of them ever claim or receive any land here in Mississippi from the Government of the United States under this 14th article of the treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek? A No sir, not that I know of.
- Q Did any of them ever get any land here in Mississippi from the Government to your knowledge? A No sir.

Q Or any money? A No sir.

Q So far as you know, then, none of your ancestors ever received any benefits whatever as Choctaw Indians? A No sir.

Q You heard the statements made to your two sisters in regard to those Commissions appointed under acts of Congress between the years 1837 and 1842, did you not? A Yes sir.

Q Now, did any of your ancestors appear before either of these Commissions and attempt to establish their rights under article 14 of the treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek? A None as I knows of.

Q Did any of them ever get any scrip from the Government of the United States under this act of Congress approved on the 23rd day of August, 1842? A None as I knows of.

Q Do you know of any old person living who would likely know whether any of your ancestors ever complied or attempted to comply with the provisions of article 14 of the treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek or ever received any benefits under that article? A No sir, I don't know of anyone living.

Q Do you know of any written evidence of any kind which would prove or tend to prove such a state of facts? A No sir.

Q Have you any written evidence of any kind with you to offer in your case? A No sir.

Q Have you any witnesses here? A No sir.

If you should find any witnesses whose testimony you desire to have taken before the Commission they may appear before us here in Meridian between now and the 15th of this month or within a reasonable time thereafter at the general office of the Commission in Muskogee, Indian Territory, and their testimony will be taken.

Q Do you speak the Choctaw language? A No sir.

Q Does your father? A No sir.

Q Did his mother? A His mother did.

Q How do you know? A I have heard her speak some things and I couldn't understand her.

Q You just suppose it was Choctaw? A That's what she said.

Q Are you a full sister of Elizabeth Preston who has just been before the Commission? A Yes sir.

Q What other sisters have you here today? A Two more besides the ones that have been here.

Q What are their names? A Malinda Johnson and Ada Nelson.

Q Millie Johnson has been before the Commission? A Yes sir.

Q Are there any further statements you want to make at this time in support of your application? A No sir, not any.

Examination by Mr. Beadle:

Q You stated to the Commission that you knew of no witnesses that would be likely to know anything about your ancestors having attempted or made application before any of these Agents--do you know any person who would be likely to know whether your parents were living here 71 years ago, or not? A Yes sir.

Q Give the Commission their names? A Jim Cheatam.

Q Who else? A I don't know of anyone but him.

Madera Nelson et al---4

Q How old a man is James Cheatam? A I don't know, sir.
Q Give us an idea of his age? A Eighty some odd.

By the Commission:

Q What's his postoffice address? A I don't know his postoffice address.
Q Does he live in Yazoo City or in the County? A In Yazoo County. At Eden Station; I think that's his postoffice.

By Mr. Jones:

Q Do you know anything about your grandmother? A Yes sir.
Q Do you know whether she was an Choctaw Indian? A I know she was a Choctaw Indian.
Q How do you know it? A I know it by her appearance and the other Indians I saw.
Q The other Indians came to see her? A Yes sir.
Q Whom did she live with until her death? A She lived with my father until her death.
Q You say you live in the house with your father? A He is living with me and I am taking care of him.
Q After the death of his wife he then came to live with you? A Yes sir.
Q You heard your sister relate something about her having a sore leg, do you know anything about that? A Well, she had a sore leg but I never asked her any questions of the cause of it. She had a lame leg until her death; that was my grandmother had a sore leg.
Q Is your father sick in bed? A Yes sir.
Q And your grandmother lived and died in the State of Mississippi? A Yes sir.

By Mr. Beadle:

Q Did the Choctaw Indians recognize your grandmother to be an Indian? A Yes sir.

By Mr. Jones:

Q Do you know anything about the Choctaw language, how it is spoken? A No sir.
Q You don't know, then, whether your father could speak it or your grandmother? A No sir, no more than I have heard her speak words that she said was that and I couldn't understand it.
Q But you don't know? A No sir.

Commission:

This applicant has the appearance of being possessed of a mixture of negro and either white or Indian blood-her hair is black and perfectly straight. She does not speak or understand the Choctaw language.

M.C.R. 4683

Muskogee, Indian Territory, August 7, 1902.

Madam Nelson,

Yazoo City, Mississippi.

Dear Madam:

You are hereby advised that on the 7th day of August, 1902 the Commission on the Five Civilized Tribes rendered a decision in the consolidated case of George Johnson, et al., embracing the following applications for identification as Mississippi Choctaws:

George Johnson,	M.C.R. 4680
Millie Johnson, et al.,	" 4685
Elizabeth Preston,	" 4684
Madora Nelson, et al.,	" 4683
Malinda Johnson, et al.,	" 4682
Ada Nelson, et al.,	" 4681
Emma Owens, et al.,	" 4686

These applications were made under the provisions of the act of Congress of June 28, 1902 (30 Stat., 495), which is as follows:

"Said Commission shall have authority to determine the identity of Choctaw Indians claiming rights in the Choctaw lands under article fourteen of the treaty between the United States and the Choctaw nation, concluded September twenty-seventh, eighteen hundred and thirty, and to that end may administer oaths, examine witnesses, and perform all other acts necessary thereto, and make report to the Secretary of the Interior".

Said decision concludes as follows:

Madera Nelson-2

You are further advised that the Commission has on this date forwarded the record in this case to the Secretary of the Interior for review and you will be informed in due time of such action as may be taken by him.

Yours truly,

Acting Chairman.

Madora Nelson,
Yazoo City, Mississippi.

Dear Madam:

The Secretary of the Interior, with his letter of February 25, 1903, returned to this Commission the record theretofore forwarded the Department in the consolidated Mississippi Choctaw case of George Johnson, et al., with instructions that the several applicants included therein be granted an opportunity to introduce further testimony and evidence in support of their claims.

The Secretary of the Interior in his letter states:

"The Department is in possession of a 'Schedule of those Choctaws who received land under the provisions of the 14th article of the treaty of 1830 by remaining upon the land five years in accordance with the provisions of that article,' prepared by the Indian Office. Said schedule contains certain information which may relate to this case, as shown by the following entries:

- 'Johnson, Mary,
Head of family; received 1&1/2 sections lands;
2 children under 10.'
- 'Johnson, George,
Head of family; received 3 sections land;
4 children over, 4 under 10.'
- 'Johnson, Silas D., over 10;
parent George Johnson.'

The question as presented by the record is this: Were the beneficiaries named in said schedule identical in person with the principal applicant or with any of his ancestors? It is impossible to answer this question satisfactorily without further information than that contained in the record.

K N 2

In as much as George Johnson, the principal applicant, was about thirteen years of age in 1830, it is probable that if now living he could furnish additional testimony relative to his ancestors.

You are therefore requested to advise the parties in interest as to the nature of your rules for taking testimony and that they will be allowed thirty days in which to furnish additional testimony, either oral or written, in accordance therewith in support of their claims."

The fourteenth article of the treaty of September 27, 1830, herein referred to, is as follows:

"Each Choctaw head of a family being desirous to remain and become a citizen of the States shall be permitted to do so, by signifying his intention to the Agent within six months from the ratification of this treaty, and he or she shall thereupon be entitled to a reservation of one section of six hundred and forty acres of land, to be bounded by sectional lines of survey; in like manner shall be entitled to one half that quantity for each unmarried child which is living with him over ten years of age, and a quarter section to such child as may be under ten years of age, to adjoin the location of the parent. If they reside upon said lands intending to become citizens of the States for five years after the ratification of this treaty, in that case, a grant in fee simple shall issue; said reservation shall include the present improvement of the head of the family or a portion of it. Persons who claim under this article shall not lose the privilege of a Choctaw citizen, but if they ever remove are not to be entitled to any portion of the Choctaw annuity."

The Commission requires of applicants for identification as Mississippi Choctaws that they reasonably demonstrate that their Choctaw ancestors resided in the old Choctaw Nation in the states of Mississippi and Alabama in 1830 and that such ancestors complied or attempted to comply with the provisions of article fourteen of said treaty of 1830 above quoted.

M N 3

You are hereby notified that in accordance with instructions of the Secretary of the Interior, the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes will, at its office at Muskogee, Indian Territory, up to and inclusive of Monday, April 13, 1903, hear the testimony of such witnesses as may present themselves in person and receive for consideration such documentary evidence as may be offered in support of the claims of the several applicants in this consolidated case.

You are advised that the Commission is averse to the acceptance of ex parte affidavits in support of applications for identification as Mississippi Choctaws and prefers, whenever possible, to have the personal appearance of witnesses for the purpose of testifying in person, but in the event that witnesses are incapacitated from making personal appearance on account of old age or infirmity, their depositions may be considered when taken in conformity with the rules and regulations governing the procedure in the taking and submission of depositions in support of Mississippi Choctaw applications, a copy of which rules and regulations is herewith enclosed.

Dear Madam:

Receipt is hereby acknowledged of your letter of the 11th instant, in which you state that your witnesses are unable to appear before the Commission to testify in support of your claim for identification as a Mississippi Choctaw.

In reply to your letter you are informed that the Commission is averse to the acceptance of ex parte affidavits, and prefers, whenever possible, to have the personal appearance of witnesses for examination under oath. In the event, however, that your witnesses are unable to make personal appearance on account of old age or infirmity, or are non-residents of Indian Territory, their depositions may be considered when taken in conformity with the rules and regulations governing the procedure in the taking and submission of depositions in support of applications, a copy of which rules and regulations is herewith enclosed you. Your attention is specially invited to rules 2, 12 and 13 thereof.

Dear Sir:

Receipt is hereby acknowledged of your letter of the 7th instant, relative to the Mississippi Choctaw case of Madora Nelson, et al. You state that the deposition of George Johnson has been filed in support of the claim of Emma Oakes for identification as a Mississippi Choctaw and ask if it is necessary that Madora Nelson file a like statement.

In reply you are informed that it appears from our records that the applications of Emma Oakes et al. and Madora Nelson, et al. have been made a part of the consolidated Mississippi Choctaw case of George Johnson, et al. Evidence filed in support of any of these claims will be considered in the determination of the rights of all applicants included in said consolidated case.

You are further advised that the record in the consolidated Mississippi Choctaw case of George Johnson, et al. was, on September 15, 1903, forwarded to the Secretary of the Interior. The several applicants will be duly notified of such action as may be taken by him.

Respectfully,

Richard J. Hill,
Attorney at Law,
Beggs, Indian Territory.

Dear Sir:

Receipt is hereby acknowledged of your letter of the 5th instant, in which you request to be furnished a copy of all the evidence in M.C.R. 4683.

M. C. R. 4683 is the number of the Mississippi Choctaw application of Madora Nelson, et al., which is a part of the consolidated Mississippi Choctaw case of George Johnson, et al., and as the Department determined this case adversely to the applicants, the entire original record was not returned to this office.

There is, however, enclosed herewith one copy of the testimony of Madora Nelson, the principal applicant in M.C.R. 4683, given at the time of her appearance before the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes at Meridian, Mississippi, February 7, 1902.

Respectfully,

Acting Commissioner.

- Q Have you ever made any application of any description before today looking to the establishment of your rights as a Choctaw Indian? A No sir.
- Q Do you appear before the Commission at this time for the purpose of claiming rights in the Choctaw lands in Indian Territory under article 14 of the treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek? A Yes sir.
- Q Do you understand article 14 of the treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek? A I don't know whether I really do, or not.
- Q You heard it explained fully to your sister, Millie Johnson, did you not? A Yes sir.

This treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek was entered into here in Mississippi on the 27th day of September, 1830, between the United States Government and the Choctaw Tribes of Indians. At the time the treaty was made the Choctaws lived here in Mississippi and along the western edge of the State of Alabama. The object of this treaty was to get these Indians to move from the country occupied by them here in Mississippi and Alabama to a new country west of the Mississippi River part of which is now occupied by the greater portion of the Choctaw Tribe of Indians and is commonly known as the Choctaw Nation Indian Territory. At the time the treaty was made some of the Indians were unwilling to leave this country and for the benefit of those who wanted to stay here what is known as the 14th article was put in the treaty. That 14th article provided that upon certain conditions a Choctaw who preferred to stay here in Mississippi and not move out west to the new Choctaw Nation, might receive land here in Mississippi from the Government. It is as follows:-

"Each Choctaw head of a family being desirous to remain and become a citizen of the States shall be permitted to do so by signifying his intention to the Agent within six months from the ratification of this treaty and he or she shall thereupon be entitled to a reservation of one section of six hundred and forty acres of land, to be bounded by sectional lines of survey; in like manner shall be entitled to one half that quantity for each unmarried child which is living with him over ten years of age; and a quarter section to such child as may be under ten years of age, to adjoin the location of the parent. If they reside upon said lands, intending to become citizens of the States, for five years after the ratification of this treaty, in that case a grant in fee simple shall issue; said reservation shall include the present improvement of the head of the family or a portion of it. Persons who claim under this article shall not lose the privilege of a Choctaw citizen but if they ever remove are not to be entitled to any portion of the Choctaw annuity."

Q I have quoted to you the 14th article of the treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek-do you understand it? A Yes sir, some of it. I don't really understand it all.

Within a few years after this treaty was made-the treaty was made 71 years ago or more-most of the Indians left this country. The 14th article provided that those who wanted to stay here might receive land upon certain conditions-first, a Choctaw Indian who wanted to stay here must let the Agent of the Government here in Mississippi know that he wanted to stay-The Government had an Agent here in the Summer of 1831 for this purpose. The Indians were required by that 14th article to let the Agent know that they wanted to stay and within six months from February 24 1831, the day this treaty was ratified. After the Indian had let the Agent know that he wanted to stay here, he was entitled to a reservation of one section of 640 acres of land, to be bounded by sectional lines of survey and for each child, unmarried, which he might have living with him over ten years of age he was entitled to a half section and for each child under ten years of age he was entitled to a quarter section. The reservations of these children to adjoin that of the parent and these reservations were required by the 14th article of the treaty to include the improvement of the parent as it existed on the 27th day of September, 1830, the day the treaty was made. Now, if the Indian lived on this land for five years from the 24th day of February, 1831, he was entitled to a grant in fee simple for the land -that is the Government would give him a deed to it, conveying to him all its right to the land and the land thereupon became the property of the Indian. Now, that 14th article provided further that persons who claimed under that article should not lose the privilege of a Choctaw citizen but if they ever removed they should not be entitled to any portion of the Choctaw annuity. The Choctaw annuity is money paid to the Choctaws by the Government of the United States each year under treaty provisions.

Elizabeth Preston--4

Q Did any of your ancestors ever comply or attempt to comply with the provisions of article 14 of the treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek or ever receive any benefits under that article? A No sir, not as I know of.

Q Did any of them own an improvement here in the old Choctaw Nation in Mississippi and Alabama in the year 1830 when this treaty was made-71 years ago? A Not as I know of.

Q Did any of them, in fact, live here at that time? A I suppose so.

Q What ones do you think were living here at that time? A My grandaother I guess was here.

Q What was her name? A Malinda Johnson.

Q What others? A Her husband I suppose.

Q I am talking about your Choctaw ancestors? A Oh-Choctaw ancestors-I don't know, sir.

Q Did any of your Choctaw ancestors remove from the old Choctaw Nation here in Mississippi and Alabama to the present Choctaw Nation in Indian Territory at the time of the removal of the greater portion of the Choctaw Tribe of Indians between the years 1830 and 1838? A I don't know, sir.

Q Did any of them within six months after the treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek was ratified let the Agent of the Government here in Mississippi, for the Choctaws, know that they wanted to stay here in Mississippi and become citizens of the States and take land? A Not as I know of.

Q Did any of them ever claim or receive any land here in Mississippi from the Government of the United States under article 14 of the treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek? A Not that I know of.

Q Did any of them ever get any land here in Mississippi from the Government, to your knowledge? A Not as I know of.

Q Did any of them ever get any money from the Government? A Not as I know of.

In accordance with the provisions of article 14 of the treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek the Government of the United States directed an Agent here in Mississippi to register the names of such Choctaws as might desire to remain here and become citizens of the States and take land. The records of the Government show that this Agent failed to register and report to the Government the names of many Indians who did in fact let him know that they wanted to stay here and become citizens and take land under article 14 of the treaty and on this account the Government, at its public land sales here in Mississippi, in many instances sold land upon which Choctaws lived and had improvements and which they supposed they would receive under article 14 of the treaty. This caused a great deal of complaint among the Indians and the matter was finally brought to the attention of Congress and Congress passed ~~xxxxxx which xxxxxx xxxxxx~~ certain acts between the years 1837 and 1842 providing for the appointment of Commissioners to come down here to Mississippi and hear the cases of Choctaws who claimed that they had complied in all respects with the provisions of article 14 of the treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek but that their land had been sold by the Government. These Commissioners were appointed by the President of the United States and they came down here, some in '37 and '38 and others in '42 and '43 and '44 and heard a great many of these cases.

Q Did any of your ancestors appear before any of these Commissioners and attempt to establish their rights under article 14 of the treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek? A Not as I know of.

The act of Congress approved August 23, 1842, provided that in case it should be finally determined that a Choctaw had complied in all respects with the provisions of article 14 of the treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek but that his land had been sold by the Government, he should be entitled to select, in place of the land so sold by the government, land some place else here in Mississippi or in Alabama, Louisiana or Arkansas, from vacant Government land and should be given a certificate to that effect. These certificates were called scrip.

Q Did any of your ancestors ever get any of this scrip from the Government of the United States under this act of Congress? A Not as I know of.

Q Do you know of any old person living who would likely know whether any of your ancestors ever complied or attempted to comply with the provisions of article 14 of the treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek or ever received any benefits under that article? A I don't know, sir, whether there is or not.

Q Do you know of any written evidence of any kind that would prove or tend to prove such a state of facts? A No sir, I don't.

Q Have you any written evidence of any kind to offer at this time? A No sir.

Q Have you any witnesses here today? A No sir.

If you should find any witnesses whose testimony you desire to have taken before the Commission they may appear before us here at Meridian between now and the 15th of this month or within a reasonable time thereafter at the general office of the Commission in Muskogee, Indian Territory, and their testimony will be taken.

Q Are there any further statements you want to make? A No sir.

Examination by Mr. Jones:

Q What is your name? A Elizabeth Preston.

Q How old are you? A I am forty-one I think.

Q You don't know your age? A No sir, not exactly.

Q You say you remember your grandmother? A Yes sir.

Q She was a Choctaw Indian woman, was she? A Yes sir.

Q That's what she said? A That's what she said-she said she was a straight out Choctaw Indian. She showed it.

Q You heard your sister relating something about her having a sore leg-did you ever see that leg? A Yes sir, I have seen it.

Elizabeth Preston--6

Q You don't know anything else about it but you have seen it? A Yes sir, but I don't know how it come about. I knew she had a sore leg.

Q You stated that there was no one living here 71 years ago only your grandmother-how old did you tell the Commission your father was? A I guess he's between seventy and eighty-he's very old.

Q Then the treaty 72 years ago-he was living here wasn't he? A I don't know anything about that.

Q He was seventy odd years old and always lived here in Mississippi to your knowledge? A Yes sir.

Q You have never been in court or sworn before? A No sir, this is my first time.

Q You state that there is no person living who might know that, didn't you? A I said not that I knew of.

By the Commission:

Q Are you a full sister of Millie Johnson who just appeared before the Commission? A Yes sir, a full sister.

Q Give us the names of your other sisters who are here today for the purpose of making application? A Malinda Johnson.

Q Next one? A Dora Nelson.

Q Next one? A Ada Nelson.

By Mr. Jones:

Q Have you a niece here today? A Yes sir.

Q What is her name? A Emma Oaks.

Q Is that your sister's daughter? A My brother's daughter.

Q The one that you gave the name of? A No sir.

Q Is her father living or dead? A He's living.

Commission:

This applicant has the appearance of being possessed of a mixture of negro and either white or Indian blood-her hair is black and perfectly straight. She does not speak or understand the Choctaw language.

Ira S. Miles, being first duly sworn, states that as stenographer to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes he reported in full all proceedings had in the above entitled cause, heard at Meridian, Mississippi, February 7th, 1902, and that the above and foregoing is a full, true and correct transcript of his stenographic notes taken in said proceedings on said date.

Muskogee, Indian Territory, August 7th, 1902

Elizabeth Preston,
Nazoo City, Mississippi.

Dear Madam:

You are hereby advised that on the 7th day of August, 1902, the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes rendered a decision in the consolidated case of George Johnson, et al., embracing the following applications for identification as Mississippi Choctaws:

George Johnson,	M.C.R	4686
Willie Johnson, et al.,	"	4685
Elizabeth Preston,	"	4684
Madora Nelson, et al.,	"	4683
Malinda Johnson, et al.,	"	4682
Ada Nelson, et al.,	"	4681
Emma Oakes, et al.,	"	4680

These applications were made under the provisions of the act of Congress of June 26, 1898 (30 Stats., 495), which is as follows:

"Said Commission shall have authority to determine the identity of Choctaw Indians claiming rights in the Choctaw lands under article thirteen of the treaty between the United States and the Choctaw Nation, concluded September twenty-seventh, eighteen hundred and thirty, and to that end may administer oaths, examine witnesses, and perform all other acts necessary thereto, and make report to the Secretary of the Interior".

Said decision concludes as follows:

Elizabeth Preston-2

"It is, therefore, the opinion of this Commission that the evidence herein is insufficient to determine the identity of George Johnson, Millie Johnson, Jasper Johnson, James Johnson, Finis Johnson, Sironis Johnson, Ollie Johnson, Elizabeth Preston, Madora Nelson, Caldonia Nelson, Helen Nelson, Ulysses C. Nelson, Charlotte Nelson, Leon W. Nelson, Malinda Johnson, Lula Johnson, Charlie Johnson, Ada Nelson, Allena Nelson, Daisy L. Nelson, Emma Oakes and Alma Oakes as Choctaw Indians entitled to rights in the Choctaw lands under the provisions of said article fourteen of the treaty of eighteen hundred and thirty, and that the applications for their identification as such should be refused, and it is so ordered".

You are further advised that the Commission has on this date forwarded the record in this case to the Secretary of the Interior for review and you will be informed in due time of such action as may be taken by him.

Yours truly,

Acting Chairman.

Registered.

Muskogee, Indian Territory, March 14, 1903.

Elizabeth Preston,
Yazoo City, Mississippi.

Dear Madam:

The Secretary of the Interior, with his letter of February 25, 1903, returned to this Commission the record theretofore forwarded the Department in the consolidated Mississippi Choctaw case of George Johnson, et al., with instructions that the several applicants included therein be granted an opportunity to introduce further testimony and evidence in support of their claims.

The Secretary of the Interior in his letter states:

"The Department is in possession of a 'Schedule of those Choctaws who received land under the provisions of the 14th article of the treaty of 1830 by remaining upon the land five years in accordance with the provisions of that article,' prepared by the Indian Office. Said schedule contains certain information which may relate to this case, as shown by the following entries:

- 'Johnson, Mary,
Head of family; received 1&1/2 sections lands;
2 children under 10.'
- 'Johnson, George,
Head of family; received 3 sections land;
4 children over, 4 under 10.'
- 'Johnson, Silas D., over 10;
parent George Johnson.'

The question as presented by the record is this: Were the beneficiaries named in said schedule identical in person with the principal applicant or with any of his ancestors? It is impossible to answer this question satisfactorily without further information than that contained in the record.

In as much as George Johnson, the principal applicant, was about thirteen years of age in 1830, it is probable that if now living he could furnish additional testimony relative to his ancestors.

You are therefore requested to advise the parties in interest as to the nature of your rules for taking testimony and that they will be allowed thirty days in which to furnish additional testimony, either oral or written, in accordance therewith in support of their claims."

Article fourteen of the treaty of September 27, 1830, herein referred to, is as follows:

"Each Choctaw head of a family being desirous to remain and become a citizen of the States shall be permitted to do so, by signifying his intention to the Agent within six months from the ratification of this treaty, and he or she shall thereupon be entitled to a reservation of one section of six hundred and forty acres of land, to be bounded by sectional lines of survey; in like manner shall be entitled to one half that quantity for each unmarried child which is living with him over ten years of age, and a quarter section to such child as may be under ten years of age to adjoin the location of the parent. If they reside upon said lands intending to become citizens of the States for five years after the ratification of this treaty, in that case, a grant in fee simple shall issue; said reservation shall include the present improvement of the head of the family, or a portion of it. Persons who claim under this article shall not lose the privilege of a Choctaw citizen but if they ever remove are not to be entitled to any portion of the Choctaw annuity."

The Commission requires of applicants for identification as Mississippi Choctaws that they reasonably demonstrate that their Choctaw ancestors resided in the old Choctaw Nation in the states of Mississippi and Alabama in 1830 and that such ancestors complied or attempted to comply with the provisions of article fourteen of said treaty of 1830 above quoted.

H P 3

You are hereby notified that in accordance with instructions of the Secretary of the Interior, the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes will, at its office at Muskogee, Indian Territory, up to and inclusive of Monday, April 13, 1908, hear the testimony of such witnesses as may present themselves in person and receive for consideration such documentary evidence as may be offered in support of the claims of the several applicants in this consolidated case.

You are advised that the Commission is averse to the acceptance of ex parte affidavits in support of applications for identification as Mississippi Choctaws and prefers, whenever possible, to have the personal appearance of witnesses for the purpose of testifying in person, but in the event that witnesses are incapacitated from making personal appearance on account of old age or infirmity, their depositions may be considered when taken in conformity with the rules and regulations governing the procedure in the taking and submission of depositions in support of Mississippi Choctaw applications, a copy of which rules and regulations is herewith enclosed.

- Q Did you ever make such an application to the United States authorities? A No sir.
- Q Is this the first application of any description that has ever been made for yourself or anyone of these children? A Yes sir.
- Q Do you appear before the Commission at this time for the purpose of claiming rights in the Choctaw lands in Indian Territory for yourself and five minor children under article 14 of the treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek? A I don't know.
- Q Do you understand article 14 of the treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek A I heard my grandmother x x
- Q Do you understand that 14th article of the treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek? A No sir.

This treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek was entered into here in Mississippi on the 27th day of September, 1830, between the United States Government and the Choctaw Tribe of Indians. At the time this treaty was made the Choctaws lived here in Mississippi and along the western edge of the State of Alabama. The object of the treaty was to get these Indians to move from the country occupied by them here in Mississippi and Alabama to a new country west of the Mississippi River, part of which is now occupied by the greater portion of the Choctaw Tribe of Indians and is commonly known as the Choctaw Nation Indian Territory. At the time the treaty was made some of the Indians were unwilling to leave this country and for the benefit of those who wanted to stay here what is known as the 14th article was put in the treaty. That 14th article provided that upon certain conditions a Choctaw who wanted to stay here in Mississippi and not move out to the new country west of the Mississippi River might receive land here in Mississippi from the Government. It is as follows:-

"Each Choctaw head of a family being desirous to remain and become a citizen of the States shall be permitted to do so by signifying his intention to the Agent within six months from the ratification of this treaty and he or she shall thereupon be entitled to a reservation of one section of six hundred and forty acres of land, to be bounded by sectional lines of survey; in like manner shall be entitled to one half that quantity for each unmarried child which is living with him over ten years of age; and a quarter section to such child as may be under ten years of age; to adjoin the location of the parent. If they reside upon said land, intending to become citizens of the States, for five years after the ratification of this treaty, in that case a grant in fee simple shall issue; said reservation shall include the present improvement of the head of the family or a portion of it. Persons who claim under this article shall not lose the privilege of a Choctaw citizen but if they ever remove are not to be entitled to any portion of the Choctaw annuity."

Q Do you think you understand that 14th article? A Part of it.

Q What part of it is it you don't understand? A I don't understand the most of it.

I will try to explain it to you so you will understand it. You will understand, first, that the requirements of that 14th article were requirements which referred to Indians who lived here 71 years ago when this treaty was made. If a Choctaw who lived here at that time when the treaty was made, decided that he wanted to stay here in Mississippi and not move out west of the Mississippi to the new Nation, he was required by the terms of that 14th article to let the Agent of the Government here in Mississippi, for the Choctaws, know, within six months from the time this treaty was ratified--and the treaty was ratified on the 24th day of February, 1831, that he wanted to stay here and he was then entitled to a reservation of one section of six hundred and forty acres of land here in Mississippi to be bounded by sectional lines of survey and he was also entitled to one half that quantity for each unmarried child which was living with him at the time this treaty was made--the 27th day of September, 1830--who was over ten years of age, and for each child under ten years of age on that date he was entitled to a quarter section of land. The reservations of these children were required to adjoin the location of the parent and these reservations must, under the provisions of the 14th article include the improvement of the head of the family as it existed on the 27th day of September, 1830, the day the treaty was made. Now, if the Indian lived on this land intending to become a citizen of the States for five years from February 24, 1831, the day the treaty was ratified, he was entitled to a grant in fee simple for the land, that is the Government would give him a deed or patent to the land and it would belong to the Indian. Now, this 14th article provided, further, that persons who claimed under that article and stayed here in Mississippi and took land, should not, by reason of their having done so, lose the privilege of a Choctaw citizen but if they ever removed were not to be entitled to any portion of the Choctaw annuity. The Choctaw annuity is money paid each year to the Choctaw Indians under treaty provisions.

Q I have explained to you fully the provisions of article 14 of the treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek. Did any of your ancestors ever comply or attempt to comply with the provisions of article 14 of the treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek or ever receive any benefits thereunder? A My grandmother.

Q What about your grandmother? A They didn't none that I know of. My grandmother was---

Q What about your grandmother? A She remained by some-some Agent or other. She remained for her rights but was scared out by some Agent or other from drunkenness and in going through the cane she skinned her leg-it was so all of her days.

Q When did you first hear her make that statement? A I can't remember the time cause I don't know, sir.

Q You never did hear your grandmother say that, did you? A Yes sir, she's the only one I heard talk about the nation-Choctaw-and their rights. I couldn't understand her.

Q How old were you when she told you that? A I don't know, sir.

Q Where did she tell you that? A In Mississippi-in Yazoo County.

Q Where? A I don't know, sir, what brought it up or nothing about that-I didn't keep nothing to remember it.

Q What else did she tell you on this subject? A Nothing but that.

Q What one of your Choctaw ancestors was living here in Mississippi in 1830-71 years ago? A My father and his mother.

Q Where did they live at that time? A In Mississippi-Yazoo.

Q How do you know that? A That's the only place I know anything about. That's the only place I ever seen them.

Q You aren't 71 years old-do you know where they lived before you were born? A No sir.

Q Did any of your Choctaw ancestors own an improvement here in Mississippi in the year 1830 when this treaty was made? A None that I know of.

Q Did any of them remove from the old Choctaw Nation here in Mississippi and Alabama to the present Choctaw Nation in Indian Territory at the time of the removal of the greater portion of the Choctaw Tribe of Indians between the years 1833 and 1838? A I don't know, sir.

Q Did any of them within six months after the treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek was ratified let the Agent of the Government here in Mississippi, for the Choctaws, know that they wanted to stay here in Mississippi and become citizens of the States and take land? A Not that I know of. A

Q Did any of your ancestors ever claim or receive any land here in Mississippi from the Government of the United States under article 14 of the treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek? A Not that I know of.

Q None of them ever got any, you are sure? A No sir.

Q Did any of them ever get any money from the Government? A No sir.

Q None of your people, so far as you know, ever received any benefits as Choctaw Indians? A No sir, none of them.

In accordance with the provisions of article 14 of the treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek the Government of the United States directed an Agent here in Mississippi to register the names of such Choctaws as might desire to remain here and become citizens of the States and take land, under that 14th article. The records of the Government show that this Agent failed to register and report to the Government the names of many Choctaws who did in fact let him know that they wanted to stay here and become citizens and take land and on this account the Government, at its public land sales here in Mississippi, in many instances sold land upon which Choctaws lived and had improvements and which they supposed they would receive under article 14 of the treaty. This caused a great deal of complaint among the Indians and the matter was finally brought to the attention of Congress and Congress passed an act which was approved on the 3rd day of March, 1837, providing for the appointment of a Commission to come down here to Mississippi and hear the cases of Choctaws who claimed that they had complied in all respects with the provisions of article 14 of the treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek but that their land had been sold by the Government. This Commission was duly appointed by the President of the United States and the Commissioners came down here to Mississippi and heard a few of these Choctaw cases but in the time allowed them by the act of Congress under which they were appointed and a later act of Congress providing for the continuance of the Commission, they were unable to dispose of but a comparatively small number of cases, so it became necessary for Congress to make further provision by which the remainder of these Indians might be given hearings and another act was passed which was approved on the 23rd day of August, 1842, providing for the appointment of another Commission to come down here and finish up this work. This Commission was duly appointed by the President of the United States and the Commissioners came down here to Mississippi in the 40's and heard a great many of these Choctaw cases.

Q Did any of your ancestors appear before either of these Commissions and attempt to establish their rights under article 14 of the treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek? A No sir, not that I know of.

The act of Congress approved August 23, 1842, provided that in case it should be finally determined that a Choctaw had complied in all respects with the provisions of article 14 of the treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek but that his land had been sold by the Government he should be entitled to select, in place of the land so sold by the Government, land some place else in Mississippi, or in Alabama, Louisiana or Arkansas, from vacant Government land and should be given a certificate to that effect. These certificates were called scrip.

Q Did any of your ancestors ever get any of this scrip from the Government of the United States under this act of Congress? A None that I know of.

Q Do you know of any old persons living who would likely know whether any of your ancestors ever complied or attempted to comply with the provisions of article 14 of the treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek or ever received any benefits thereunder? A Yes sir, there are some living.

Q That would know whether your ancestors got land under that 14th article? A No sir, none of them would know that--because she never got anything.

Q How old are these persons referred to by you? A I don't know, sir.

Q Give us the names of some of them? A There are some colored one and some white ones.

Q What are their names? A Jim Cheatan is one--a colored man.

Q How old is Jim? A I don't know, sir.

Q About how old? A I don't know, sir. County

Q Where does he live? A Stays in Yazoo ~~Sty~~ County, Mississippi. He is a farmer.

Q Give us the name of another? A I don't know any more. There aint but that one that I know that's living.

Q Have you any written evidence of any kind to offer? A No sir.

Q Have you any witnesses here? A No sir.

If you should find any witnesses whose testimony you desire to have taken before the Commission they may appear before us here at Meridian between now and the 15th of this month or within a reasonable time thereafter at Muskogee, Indian Territory and their testimony will be taken.

Q What is the matter with your father that he has never been before the Commission? A He's unable to get here.

Q How many children have you who are over age? A Three living.

Q What are their names? A George Swan, Thomas Swan and Ella Swan. I was married twice.

Q Have you another married daughter? A No sir, she's the only married daughter.

Q What is her husband's name? A George Stovall.

Q Have you any brothers or sisters living? A Only one brother and four sisters.

Q What is the name of the brother? A Thomas Johnson.

Millie Johnson et al---7

- Q Where does Thomas live? A In Yazoo County, Mississippi.
Q Has he been before the Commission? A No sir.
Q He is your full brother, is he? A Yes sir.
Q Give us the names of your sisters? A Malinda Johnson.
Q Is she married? A Yes sir.
Q What is her husband's name? A Willie Johnson.
Q Next one? A Elizabeth Preston.
Q Next one? A Medora Nelson.
Q Next one? A Ada Nelson.
Q Is that all? A Yes sir.
Q Where do they live? A Yazoo.
Q Have they been before the Commission? A No sir, not that I know.
Q Are they here now? A Yes sir, they are here today.
Q Have you any brothers dead? A Two.
Q Did either of them leave children? A One did.
Q What was the name of the one that left children? A Jim Johnson.
Q How many children did he leave? A Two.
Q Are they living now? A Yes sir.
Q What are their names? A Woodie Johnson and Alonzo Johnson.
Q With whom do Woodie and Alonzo live? A With their mother.
Q What is her name? A Amy Jones, now.
Q Has she been before the Commission? A No sir.
Q Where does she live? A Yazoo County.
Q Have you any sisters dead? A Yes sir.
Q How many? A One.
Q Did she leave children? A No sir.
Q Are any of your father's brothers or sisters living? A No sir.
Q Are any of the children of any of your father's brothers or sisters living? A No sir.
Q Are any of the grandchildren of any of them living? A No sir.

Examination by Mr. Jones:

- Q How old did you say you was? A Forty-nine years old.
Q Born and raised in the State of Mississippi? A Yes sir.
Q Is your grandmother dead? A Yes sir.
Q Did she die in Mississippi? A Yes sir.
Q She was an Indian, was she? A Yes sir.
Q You oftentimes talked with her? A Yes sir.
Q You stated to the Commission a while ago something about her having a lame leg-what do you know about that leg? A I come to know about it by her being scared by some agent and her running through a cane thicket and skinned her leg.
Q What did she tell you about it? A She said she was running from some agent or other.
Q What did she say was the cause of her running-do you know anything about it? A No sir, I heard her say-
Q Did you know what it meant-you say you don't understand why she was running? A No sir, or what it was for.
Q You got the idea now since the Commission related it to you? A I suppose so.
Q How did you come to know that that leg was lame? A By the Indian.
Q What did you have to do with your grandmother-what made you notice that? A In her walking lane.

Millie Johnson et al---8

- Q And that's how she came to tell you that? A yes sir.
Q You claim that you don't know whether any persons living who might know x x? A None but Jim Cheatem.
Q That's all you know? A Yes sir.

Commission:

This applicant has the appearance of being possessed of a mixture of negro and either white or Indian blood-her hair is black and perfectly straight-she does not speak or understand the Choctaw language.

Muskogee, Indian Territory, August 7th, 1902.

Millie Johnson,
Vazoo City, Mississippi.

Dear Madam:

You are hereby advised that on the 7th day of August, 1902, the Commissioner to the Five Civilized Tribes rendered a decision in the consolidated case of George Johnson, et al., embracing the following applications for identification as Mississippi Choctaws:

George Johnson,	M.C.R	4687
Millie Johnson, et al.,	"	4688
Elizabeth Preston,	"	4689
Madora Nelson, et al.,	"	4693
Malinda Johnson, et al.,	"	4694
Ada Nelson, et al.,	"	4681
Emma Oakes, et al.,	"	4680

These applications were made under the provisions of the act of Congress of June 28, 1898 (30 Stats., 445), which is as follows:

"Said Commission shall have authority to determine the identity of Choctaw Indians claiming rights in the Choctaw lands under article fourteen of the treaty between the United States and the Choctaw Nation, concluded September twenty-seventh, eighteen hundred and thirty, and to that and may administer oaths, examine witnesses, and perform all other acts necessary thereto, and make report to the Secretary of the Interior".

Said decision concludes as follows:

Willie Johnson-2

You are further advised that the Commission has on this date forwarded the record in this case to the Secretary of the Interior for review and you will be informed in due time of such action as may be taken by him.

Yours truly,

Acting Chairman.

Registered.

Muskogee, Indian Territory, March 14, 1903.

Millie Johnson,
Yazoo City, Mississippi.

Dear Madam:

The Secretary of the Interior, with his letter of February 25, 1903, returned to this Commission the record theretofore forwarded the Department in the consolidated Mississippi Choctaw case of George Johnson, et al., with instructions that the several applicants included therein be granted an opportunity to introduce further testimony and evidence in support of their claims.

The Secretary of the Interior in his letter states:

"The Department is in possession of a 'Schedule of those Choctaws who received land under the provisions of the 14th article of the treaty of 1830 by remaining upon the land five years in accordance with the provisions of that article,' prepared by the Indian Office. Said schedule contains certain information which may relate to this case, as shown by the following entries:

- 'Johnson, Mary,
Head of family; received 1&1/2 sections lands;
2 children under 10.'
- 'Johnson, George,
Head of family; received 3 sections land;
4 children over, 4 under 10.'
- 'Johnson, Silas D., over 10;
parent George Johnson.'

The question as presented by the record is this: Were the beneficiaries named in said schedule identical in person with the principal applicant or with any of his ancestors? It is impossible to answer this question satisfactorily without further information than that contained in the record.

M J 2

In as much as George Johnson, the principal applicant, was about thirteen years of age in 1830, it is probable that if now living he could furnish additional testimony relative to his ancestors.

You are therefore requested to advise the parties in interest as to the nature of your rules for taking testimony and that they will be allowed thirty days in which to furnish additional testimony, either oral or written, in accordance therewith in support of their claims."

Article fourteen of the treaty of September 27, 1830, herein referred to, is as follows:

"Each Choctaw head of a family being desirous to remain and become a citizen of the States shall be permitted to do so, by signifying his intention to the Agent within six months from the ratification of this treaty, and he or she shall thereupon be entitled to a reservation of one section of six hundred and forty acres of land to be bounded by sectional lines of survey; in like manner shall be entitled to one half that quantity for each unmarried child which is living with him over ten years of age, and a quarter section to such child as may be under ten years of age, to adjoin the location of the parents. If they reside upon said lands intending to become citizens of the States for five years after the ratification of this treaty, in that case, a grant in fee simple shall issue; said reservation shall include the present improvement of the head of the family, or a portion of it. Persons who claim under this article shall not lose the privilege of a Choctaw citizen but if they ever remove are not to be entitled to any portion of the Choctaw annuity."

The Commission requires of applicants for identification as Mississippi Choctaws that they reasonably demonstrate that their Choctaw ancestors resided in the old Choctaw Nation in the states of Mississippi and Alabama in 1830 and that such ancestors complied or attempted to comply with the provisions of article fourteen of said treaty of 1830 above quoted.

M J 3

You are hereby notified that in accordance with instructions of the Secretary of the Interior the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes will, at its office at Muskogee, Indian Territory, up to and inclusive of Monday, April 13, 1903, hear the testimony of such witnesses as may present themselves in person and receive for consideration such documentary evidence as may be offered in support of the claims of the several applicants in this consolidated case.

You are advised that the Commission is averse to the acceptance of ex parte affidavits in support of applications for identification as Mississippi Choctaws and prefers, whenever possible, to have the personal appearance of witnesses for the purpose of testifying in person, but in the event that witnesses are incapacitated from making personal appearance on account of old age or infirmity, their depositions may be considered when taken in conformity with the rules and regulations governing the procedure in the taking and submission of depositions in support of Mississippi Choctaw applications, a copy of which rules and regulations is herewith enclosed.

Respectfully,

Dear Madam:

You are hereby notified that on the 7th day of May, 1904, the Secretary of the Interior affirmed the decision of this Commission refusing the applications for identification as Mississippi Choctaws of the several persons included in the consolidated case of George Johnson et al., of which decision you were advised by registered mail on the 7th day of August, 1902.

It appears from the record herein that applications for identification as Mississippi Choctaws were made to this Commission by Hadora Nelson for her father, George Johnson; by Millie Johnson for herself and her five minor children, Junger, James, Fanie, Sirenia and Ella Johnson; by Elizabeth Preston for herself; by Hadora Nelson for herself and her five minor children, Caldonia, Nelson, Wynnes G., Charlettie and Leon V. Nelson; by Malinda Johnson for herself and her two minor children, Lela and Charlie Johnson; by Ada Nelson for herself and her two minor children, Allama and Daisy L. Nelson; and by Rosa Gibbs for herself and her minor child, Alma Gibbs, under the following provision of the act of Congress approved

June 28, 1898, (30 Stats., 495):

"Said Commission shall have authority to determine the identity of Cheetaw Indians claiming rights in the Cheetaw lands under article fourteen of the treaty between the United States and the Cheetaw Nation, concluded September twenty-seventh, eighteen hundred and thirty, and to that end may administer oaths, examine witnesses and perform all other acts necessary thereto and make report to the Secretary of the Interior."

It also appears that all of said applicants claim rights in the Cheetaw lands under article fourteen of the treaty between the United States and the Cheetaw Nation, concluded September twenty-seventh, eighteen hundred and thirty, by reason of being descendants of one Malinda Johnson, who is alleged to have been a full-blood Cheetaw Indian, and to have resided in Mississippi in eighteen hundred and thirty.

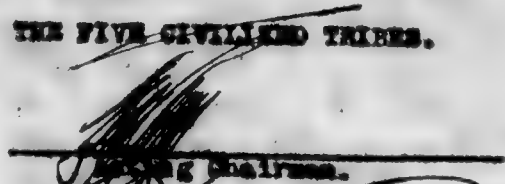

It further appears from the evidence submitted in support of said applications, and from the records in the possession of the Commission that no one of said applicants has ever been enrolled by the Cheetaw tribal authorities as a member of the Cheetaw tribe, or admitted to Cheetaw citizenship by a duly constituted court or committee of the Cheetaw Nation, or by the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes, or by a decree of the United States Court in Indian Territory, under the provision of the act of Congress approved June 10, 1896, (29 Stats., 321).

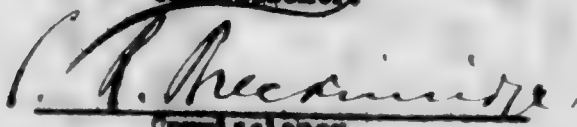

It does not appear from the testimony and evidence offered in support of said applications, or from the records in the possession of the Commission relating to persons who complied or attempted to comply with the provisions of said article fourteen of the treaty of eighteen hundred and thirty, and to persons who heretofore were claimants thereunder, that the said Malinda Johnson, or ancestors less remote, or the applicant George Johnson, signified (in parson or by proxy) to Colonel Wm. Ward, Indian Agent, Choctaw Agency, an intention to comply with the provisions of said article fourteen, or presented a claim to rights thereunder to either of the Commissions authorized to adjudicate such claims by the acts of Congress approved March 3, 1837 (5 Stats., 180), and August 23, 1842 (5 Stats., 513).

Q What was his name? A I don't know.
Q Did his father have any Choctaw Indian blood? A None as I know of.
Q Is your father's mother living? A No sir.
Q What was her name? A Malinda Johnson.
Q He got his Choctaw blood through her? A Yes sir.
Q She, then, was a full blood Choctaw, was she? A Yes sir.
Q In the application you made in your own behalf you testified as to everything within your knowledge concerning your Choctaw ancestors, did you not? A Yes sir.
Q And you also testified fully as to everything within your knowledge as to whether any of your ancestors ever complied or attempted to comply with the provisions of article 14 of the treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek? A Yes sir.

Special reference is here made to the testimony of this applicant and her four sisters, Malinda Johnson, Elizabeth Preston, Ada Nelson and Millie Johnson, heard on this date at Meridian, Mississippi.

- Q Are any of your father's brothers or sisters living? A No sir.
Q Did he ever have any to your knowledge? A One sister.
Q How long has she been dead? A I couldn't tell you--I was very small--I don't know how long it has been.

George Johnson---3

Q Did she leave any children? A Yes sir, but they are dead.
Q Your father and his descendants, then, are the only living descendants of Malinda Johnson-a full blood Choctaw-your father's mother?
A Yes sir.

Gentlemen:

You are hereby advised that on the 7th day of August, 1902, the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes rendered a decision in the case of the case of George Johnson, et al., concerning the following applications for identification as Mississippi Choctaws:

George Johnson,	M.C.R 4686
Willie Johnson, et al.,	" 4685
Elizabeth Preston,	" 4684
Madora Nelson, et al.,	" 4683
Melinda Johnson, et al.,	" 4682
Ade Nelson, et al.,	" 4681
Uma Gates, et al.,	" 4680

These applications were made under the provisions of the act of Congress of June 23, 1893 (30 Stats., 495), which is as follows:

"Said Commission shall have authority to determine the identity of Choctaw Indians claiming rights in the Choctaw lands under article fourteen of the treaty between the United States and the Choctaw Nation, concluded September twenty-seventh, eighteen hundred and thirty, and to that end may administer oaths, examine witnesses, and perform all other acts necessary thereto, and make report to the Secretary of the Interior".

Said decision concludes as follows:

You are further advised that the Commission has on this date forwarded the record in this case to the Secretary of the Interior for review and you will be informed in due time of such action as may be taken by him.

Yours truly,

Thomas J. ...
Acting Chairman.

Muskogee, Indian Territory, August 7, 1902.

The Honorable,
The Secretary of the Interior.

Sir:

There is transmitted herewith the record in the consolidated case of George Johnson, et al., applicants to the Commission for identification as Mississippi Choctaws, including the decision of the Commission of August 7th, 1902.

The above consolidated case embraces the following original applications for identification as Mississippi Choctaws heard by the Commission:

George Johnson,	M.C.R. 4686
Millie Johnson, et al.,	" 4685
Elizabeth Preston,	" 4684
Madora Nelson, et al.,	" 4683
Malinda Johnson, et al.,	" 4682
Ema Cakes, et al.,	" 4680

The Commission has the honor to report that the principal applicants in the several separate applications, their attorneys of record and the attorneys for the Choctaw and Chickasaw Nations have been duly advised by letter of the action of the Commission, copies of said letters being attached to the record.

Respectfully,

Through the Commissioner of Indian Affairs.

A.J. Oakes,

Yazoo City, Mississippi.

Dear Sir:

Receipt is hereby acknowledged of your letter of the 17th inst., giving information relative to Tom (or Thomas) Johnson whom you state is an applicant to this Commission for identification as a Mississippi Choctaw. You state that certain documentary evidence was sent to A.W. Jones, Attorney at Law, to be filed in this case. You ask if the same has been done; and wherein the evidence in this case and the case of Mrs. Emma L. Oakes was insufficient.

In reply, you are informed that the Commission on August 7, 1908, rendered its decision refusing the application of Emma Oakes for the identification of herself and minor child as Mississippi Choctaws; and on the same date notified her of such decision and of the forwarding of the record to the Secretary of the Interior for review. She will be duly notified of such action as may be taken by him.

A J O B

The information given in your letter enables us to identify Tom (Thomas) Johnson as Thomas Johnson; age, 51 years; residence, Eden Mississippi; name of father, George Johnson; name of mother, Mary Johnson; who is an applicant to this Commission for the identification of himself and six minor children as Mississippi Choctaws, having made such application before the Commission at Meridian, Mississippi, February 15, 1902.

There have been filed in support of this claim the ex parte affidavits of James Cheatham, Marshall Colman and Cornelius Jones; and a certified copy of the marriage record between Thomas Johnson and Aloy Clark.

The Commission has not at this time rendered ~~any~~^a decision in this case, but is now considering the right of these persons to identification as Mississippi Choctaws, and it is probable a decision will be rendered in the near future. Upon the rendition thereof, the applicants will be duly notified of such decision, and of the forwarding of the record to the Secretary of the Interior for review.

Relative to the insufficiency of the evidence in these cases, your attention is invited to the provision of the act of Congress approved June 28, 1898, which is as follows;

*Said Commission shall have authority to determine the identity of Choctaw Indians claiming rights in the Choctaw lands under article fourteen of the treaty between the United States and the Choctaw Nation, concluded September twenty-seventh, eighteen hundred and thirty, and to that end may administer oaths, examine witnesses and perform all other acts necessary thereto, and make report to the Secretary of the Interior."

The fourteenth article of the treaty of 1830, referred to in the above legislation, is as follows:

"Each Choctaw head of a family being desirous to remain and become a citizen of the States, shall be permitted to do so, by signifying his intention to the Agent within six months from the ratification of this treaty, and he or she shall thereupon be entitled to a reservation of one section of six hundred and forty acres of land to be bounded by sectional lines of survey; in like manner shall be entitled to one-half that quantity for each unmarried child which is living with him over ten years of age; and a quarter section to such child as may be under ten years of age, to adjoin the location of the parent. If they reside upon said lands intending to become citizens of the States for five years after the ratification of this treaty in that case a grant in fee simple shall issue; said reservation shall include the present improvement of the head of the family or a portion of it. Persons who claim under this article shall not lose the privilege of a Choctaw citizen but if they ever remove are not to be entitled to any portion of the Choctaw annuity."

The Commission in determining the right of persons to be identified as Mississippi Choctaws requires that the applicants reasonably demonstrate that they are the descendants of Choctaw ancestors who resided within the territorial limits of the old Choctaw Nation in the States of Mississippi and Alabama in 1830, and who complied or attempted to comply with the provisions of article fourteen above quoted or were subsequently adjudicated beneficiaries thereunder by either of the two Commissions authorized for this purpose by the acts of Congress approved March 3, 1837 and August 23, 1842.

Acting Chairman.

A J O 4

The Assistant Attorney General for the Interior Department, in an opinion of December 3, 1901, defining the power of this Commission to identify so called Mississippi Choctaws under the provision of the act of Congress approved June 28, 1898, used the following language:

"There is no escape from the conclusion that the provision in the act of June 28, 1898, contemplated the identification of only those 'Choctaw Indians claiming rights in the Choctaw lands under article fourteen of the treaty between the United States and the Choctaw Nation, concluded September twenty-seventh, eighteen hundred and thirty'."

It would, therefore, in order for the persons included in these applications to obtain rights as Mississippi Choctaws under the provisions of the act of Congress of June 28, 1898, and the fourteenth article of the treaty of 1830, be necessary to show that the least remote of their ancestors, who was living at the date of the conclusion of the treaty of 1830, was a beneficiary under the provisions of article fourteen thereof.

Yours truly,

Acting Chairman.

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR,

Office of Indian Affairs,

Washington, February 12, 03.

The Honorable

The Secretary of the Interior.

Sir:

There is transmitted herewith record of the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes in the matter of the application for identification as Mississippi Choctaws of the following persons, wherein a decision adverse to their applicants was rendered by the Commission on August 7, 1902.

Madora Nelson, for her father, George Johnson; Millie Johnson, for herself and her five children, Jasper, James, Finis, Sironis and Ollie Johnson; by Elizabeth Preston; Madora Nelson, for herself and her five children, Caldonia, Helen, Ulysses C., Charlotte and Leon W. Nelson; Malinda Johnson, for herself and her two children, Lula and Charlie Johnson; Ada Nelson, for herself and two minor children, Allzena and Daisy L. Nelson; Emma Oakes, for herself and her child, Alma Oakes.

It appears from the evidence in this case that the applicants base their claims to identification as Mississippi Choctaws on their descent from one Malinda Johnson, who, it is claimed, was a member of the Choctaw tribe and resided in Mississippi or Alabama in 1830.

The Commission bases its decision rejecting these parties on the ground that its records do not show that Malinda Johnson, or ancestors less remote, or the applicant, George Johnson, ever complied or attempted to comply with the provisions of the 14th article of the Choctaw treaty of 1830.

It appears from an examination of the records of this office that there were Johnsons who received land under the 14th article of the treaty of 1830, but this office has only the name of the head of the family, The name of Malinda Johnson is not found as one of those who complied or attempted to comply with the provisions of the 14th article of the treaty of 1830, and it is recommended that the decision of the Commission rejecting the applicants be approved, but that the Commission be instructed to furnish applicants with a copy of this letter and notify them that they may apply for a rehearing on submission of proof relative to the family of Malinda Johnson.

Very respectfully,

A. C. Tonner,

Acting Commissioner.

February 25, 1903.

Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes,
Muskogee, Indian Territory.

Gentlemen:

August 7, 1902, you transmitted the record in the consolidated case embracing the applications of George Johnson (M.C.R. 4686) et al., for identification as Mississippi Choctaws.

You refused to identify the applicants because the records in your possession failed to show that they or any of their alleged ancestors ever complied or attempted to comply with the provisions of article 14 of the treaty of September 27, 1830, or with the subsequent acts relating thereto.

George Johnson, the oldest of these applicants, is a 1/2 blood Choctaw, who was born in 1817 in Yazoo county, Mississippi. The other applicants are his children and grand children.

The testimony in this case fails to show the name of George Johnson's father.

It appears however, that his mother's name was Malinda Johnson; that she was a full blood Choctaw and that she was born about 1803 in Yazoo county, Mississippi, where she lived during the greater part of her life. The testimony of Millie Johnson tends to show that the said Malinda Johnson attempted to comply with the provisions of Article 14 of the treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek.

Reporting in the matter February 12, 1903, the Acting Commissioner of Indian Affairs stated that

"It appears from an examination of the records of this office that there were Johnsons who received land under the 14th article of the treaty of 1830, but this office has only the name of the head of the family. The name of Malinda Johnson is not found as one of those who complied or attempted to comply with the provisions of the 14th article of the treaty of 1830, and it is recommended that the decision of the Commission rejecting the applicants be approved, but that the Commission be instructed to furnish applicants with a copy of this letter and notify them that they may apply for a rehearing on submission of proof relative to the family of Malinda Johnson."

The Department is in possession of a

"Schedule of those Choctaws who received land under the provisions of the 14th article of the Treaty of 1830 by remaining upon the land five years in accordance with the provisions of that Article," prepared by the Indian Office. Said schedule contains certain information which may relate to this case, as shown by the following entries:

- "Johnson, Mary,
Head of family; received 1&1/2 sections lands;
2 children under 10."
- "Johnson, George,
Head of family; received 3 sections land;
4 children over, 4 under 10."
- "Johnson, Silas D., over 10;
parent, George Johnson."

The question as presented by the record is this: were the beneficiaries named in said schedule identical in person with the principal applicant or with any of his ancestors? It is impossible to answer this question satisfactory without further information than that contained in the record.

In as much as George Johnson, the principal applicant, was about 13 years of age in 1830, it is probable that if now living he could furnish additional testimony relative to his ancestors.

You are therefore requested to advise the parties in interest as to the nature of your rules for taking testimony and that they will be allowed thirty days in which to furnish additional testimony, either oral or written, in accordance therewith in support of their claims. In so doing it is desired that you inform the principal applicants that there were a number of families of the name of Johnson who complied with the provisions of article 14 of the treaty of September 27, 1830; that the question of identity is the paramount one in their case, and that therefore, the testimony to be produced by them should show as nearly as possible the names, parentage, place of residence, and date of birth of their ancestors.

The case is herewith remanded for further proceedings in accordance with the instructions given above. The record in the case, and a copy of the Acting Commissioner's letter are enclosed.

Respectfully,

Thos. Ryan,

Acting Secretary.

Dear Sir:

The Secretary of the Interior, with his letter of February 25, 1903, returned to this Commission the record theretofore forwarded the Department in the consolidated Mississippi Choctaw case of George Johnson, et al., with instructions that the several applicants included therein be granted an opportunity to introduce further testimony and evidence in support of their claims.

The Secretary of the Interior in his letter states:

"The Department is in possession of a 'Schedule of those Choctaws who received land under the provisions of the 14th article of the treaty of 1830 by remaining upon the land five years in accordance with the provisions of that article,' prepared by the Indian Office. Said schedule contains certain information which may relate to this case, as shown by the following entries:

- 'Johnson, Mary,
Head of family; received 1 1/2 sections lands;
2 children under 10.'
- 'Johnson, George,
Head of family; received 3 sections land;
4 children over, 4 under 10.'
- 'Johnson, Silas D., over 10;
parent George Johnson.'

The question as presented by the record is this: Were the beneficiaries named in said schedule identical in person with the principal applicant or with any of his ancestors? It is impossible to answer this question satisfactorily without further information than that contained in the record.

In as much as George Johnson, the principal applicant, was about thirteen years of age in 1830, it is probable that if now living he could furnish additional testimony relative to his ancestors.

You are therefore requested to advise the parties in interest as to the nature of your rules for taking testimony and that they will be allowed thirty days in which to furnish additional testimony, either oral or written, in accordance therewith in support of their claims."

Article fourteen of the treaty of September 27, 1830, herein referred to, is as follows:

"Each Choctaw head of a family being desirous to remain, and become a citizen of the States shall be permitted to do so, by signifying his intention to the Agent within six months from the ratification of this treaty, and he or she shall thereupon be entitled to a reservation of one section of six hundred and forty acres of land, to be bounded by sectional lines of survey; in like manner shall be entitled to one half that quantity for each unmarried child which is living with him over ten years of age, and a quarter section to such child as may be under ten years of age, to adjoin the location of the parent. If they reside upon said lands intending to become citizens of the States for five years after the ratification of this treaty, in that case, a grant in fee simple shall issue; said reservation shall include the present improvement of the head of the family, or a portion of it. Persons who claim under this article shall not lose the privilege of a Choctaw citizen but if they ever remove are not to be entitled to any portion of the Choctaw annuity."

The Commission requires of applicants for identification as Mississippi Choctaws that they reasonably demonstrate that their Choctaw ancestors resided in the old Choctaw Nation in the states of Mississippi and Alabama in 1830 and that such ancestors complied or attempted to comply with the provisions of article fourteen of said treaty of 1830 above quoted.

A W J 3

You are hereby notified that in accordance with instructions of the Secretary of the Interior, the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes will, at its office at Muskogee, Indian Territory, up to and inclusive of Monday, April 13, 1903, hear the testimony of such witnesses as may present themselves in person and receive for consideration such documentary evidence as may be offered in support of the claims of the several applicants included in this consolidated case.

You are advised that the Commission is averse to the acceptance of ex parte affidavits in support of Mississippi Choctaw applications and prefers, whenever it is possible, to have the personal appearance of witnesses for the purpose of testifying in person, but in the event that witnesses are incapacitated from making personal appearance on account of age or infirmity, their depositions may be considered when taken in conformity with the rules and regulations governing the procedure in the taking and submission of depositions in support of applications for identification as Mississippi Choctaws, a copy of which rules and regulations is herewith enclosed.

- 'Johnson, Silas D., over 10;
parent George Johnson.'

The question as presented by the record is this: Were the beneficiaries named in said schedule identical in person with the principal applicant or with any of his ancestors? It is impossible to answer this question satisfactorily without further information than that contained in the record.

In as much as George Johnson, the principal applicant, was about thirteen years of age in 1830, it is probable that if now living he could furnish additional testimony relative to his ancestors.

You are therefore requested to advise the parties in interest as to the nature of your rules for taking testimony and that they will be allowed thirty days in which to furnish additional testimony, either oral or written, in accordance therewith in support of their claims."

Article fourteen of the treaty of September 27, 1830, herein referred to, is as follows:

"Each Choctaw head of a family being desirous to remain and become a citizen of the States shall be permitted to do so, by signifying his intention to the Agent within six months from the ratification of this treaty, and he or she shall thereupon be entitled to a reservation of one section of six hundred and forty acres of land, to be bounded by sectional lines of survey; in like manner shall be entitled to one half that quantity for each unmarried child which is living with him over ten years of age, and a quarter section to such child as may be under ten years of age, to adjoin the location of the parents. If they reside upon said lands intending to become citizens of the States for five years after the ratification of this treaty, in that case, a grant in fee simple shall issue; said reservation shall include the present improvement of the head of the family, or a portion of it. Persons who claim under this article shall not lose the privilege of a Choctaw citizen, but if they ever remove are not to be entitled to any portion of the Choctaw annuity."

The Commission requires of applicants for identification as Mississippi Choctaws that they reasonably demonstrate that their Choctaw ancestors resided in the old Choctaw Nation in the states of Mississippi and Alabama in 1830 and that such ancestors complied or attempted to comply with the provisions of article fourteen of said treaty of 1830 above quoted.

You are hereby notified that in accordance with instructions of the Secretary of the Interior the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes will, at its office at Muskogee, Indian Territory, up to and inclusive of Monday, April 13, 1905, hear the testimony of such witnesses as may present themselves in person and receive for consideration such documentary evidence as may be offered in support of the claims of the several applicants in this consolidated case.

You are advised that the Commission is averse to the acceptance of ex parte affidavits in support of applications for identification as Mississippi Choctaws and prefers, whenever possible to have the personal appearance of witnesses for the purpose of testifying in person, but in the event that witnesses are incapacitated from making personal appearance on account of old age or infirmity, their depositions may be ~~admitted~~ considered when taken in conformity with the rules and regulations governing the procedure in the taking and submission of depositions in support of Mississippi Choctaw applications, a copy of which rules and regulations is herewith enclosed.

The Honorable,

The Secretary of the Interior.

Sir:

On August 7, 1902, the Commission transmitted to the Department the record in the consolidated Mississippi Choctaw case of George Johnson, et al., together with its decision refusing the applications of the several applicants included therein for identification as Mississippi Choctaws.

With departmental letter of February 25, 1903 (I T D 1626-1903), the record in this consolidated case was remanded in order that the applicants might be granted further opportunity to introduce additional evidence.

In accordance therewith the Commission on March 14, 1903, notified the applicants and their attorneys, that they would be allowed up to and inclusive of April 13, 1903, to introduce additional evidence in support of their applications for identification as Mississippi Choctaws, and on the same date notice to the same effect was furnished the attorneys for the Choctaw and Chickasaw Nations.

On the 10th day of April, 1903, A. W. Jones, attorney for applicants, filed a motion for a continuance in said consolidated case for thirty days, which said continuance was granted.

The affidavits of E. J. Johnson, M. D. and George Johnson were received on May 6, 1903; also the joint affidavit of Cornelius Jones and Jim Cheatham, May 8, 1903, offered in support of the application of George Johnson for identification as a Mississippi Choctaw.

A. W. Jones filed a motion for a continuance on May 6, 1903 for sixty days from May 11, 1903, and the same was granted. Also on July 10, 1903, in accordance with a motion of A. W. Jones, this case was continued until September 10, 1903.

On July 29, 1903, the deposition of George Johnson to be read in evidence in the matter of the application of Emma Oakes, et al., said application being a part of this consolidated case, was received.

The applicants have failed to show that they are the direct lineal descendants of Choctaw ancestors who complied or attempted to comply with the provisions of the 14th article of the Choctaw treaty of 1830.

The additional proceedings in the consolidated Mississippi Choctaw case of George Johnson, et al., together with the original record in the case, are therefore herewith transmitted.

Dear Sir:

Receipt is hereby acknowledged of your letter of the 11th instant, in which you ask the status of your application, and also that of your father, George Johnson, for identification as Mississippi Choctaws.

In reply you are informed that it appears from our records that you made application to this Commission for the identification of yourself and six minor children as Mississippi Choctaws, but up to the present time no decision has been rendered relative to the rights of yourself and children to such identification. When a decision is rendered you will be notified thereof.

As to the status of the application of your father, George Johnson, you are advised that his right to be identified as a Mississippi Choctaw has not yet been finally determined, the record in said case being now in the hands of the Secretary of the Interior. He will be duly notified of any departmental action taken therein.

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR, (COPY).
OFFICE OF INDIAN AFFAIRS,
WASHINGTON, April 23, 1904.

The Honorable,
Secretary of the Interior.

Sir:

Permit me to invite your attention to a letter of the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes of September 15, 1903 referring to the fact that on February 25, 1903 (I.T.D. 1626-1903), the Department remanded the record in the consolidated Mississippi Choctaw case of George Johnson et al., in order that the applicants might be granted further opportunity to introduce evidence.

In accordance with the instructions of the Department, the Commission on March 14, 1903, notified the applicants and their attorneys that they would be allowed up to and inclusive of April 13, 1903, to introduce additional evidence in support of their applications for identification as Mississippi Choctaws and on the same date notice to the same effect was furnished the attorneys for the Choctaw and Chickasaw Nations. On the 10th day of April, 1903, A. W. Jones, attorney for the applicants, filed a motion for a continuance in this case for thirty days, which continuance was granted.

The affidavits of E.J. Johnson, M.D., and George Johnson were received on May 6, 1903, also the joint affidavit of Cornelius Jones and Jim Cheatham, of May 8, 1903, offered in support of the application herein. On May 6, 1903, A. W. Jones filed a second motion for continuance for sixty days from May 11, 1903, which application was granted and also on July 10, 1903, in accordance with the motion of A.W. Jones, the case was continued until September 10, 1903.

On July 29, 1903, the deposition of George Johnson was taken to be read in evidence in the matter of the application of Emma Oakes et al., which application is a part of this consolidated case was received by the Commission.

The Commission now says the applicants have failed to show that they are direct lineal descendants of Choctaw ancestors who complied or attempted to comply with the provisions of the 14th article of the Choctaw treaty of 1830 and the additional proceedings are submitted together with the original record in the case.

An examination of the record in this case shows that the applicants now base their claims to a right to identification as Mississippi Choctaws on their descent from Malinda Johnson, a sister of George Johnson, who is claimed to be identical with George Johnson who received a reservation of land under the 14th article of the Choctaw treaty of 1830. Whether it be true or not that the George Johnson to whom they refer is the identical George Johnson who received land under the 14th article of the Choctaw treaty is immaterial in the determination of this case since it is shown that the applicants in this case depend for their success on the descent from the sister Malinda. Malinda Johnson was not a beneficiary under the 14th article of the Choctaw treaty of 1830 and therefore her descendants are not entitled to identification as Mississippi Choctaws and I therefore recommend that the decision of the Commission rejecting the applicants be approved.

Malinda Johnson's name does not appear in any of the records of this office which contain the names of Choctaw Indians.

Very respectfully,

A. C. Tonner,

Commissioner.

Receipt is hereby acknowledged of your letter of the 21st instant, in which you request that the record in the Mississippi Choctaw applications of Thomas Johnson, Prentiss Johnson and Flora Johnson be forwarded to the Department for consideration in connection with the consolidated Mississippi Choctaw case of George Johnson, et al.

In reply to your letter you are informed that the record in the consolidated Mississippi Choctaw case of George Johnson, et al., was forwarded to the Department September 15, 1903, and the record in the consolidated Mississippi Choctaw case of Thomas Johnson, et al., was also forwarded the Department on April 21, 1904.

WASHINGTON, May 7, 1904.

Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes,
Muskogee, Indian Territory,

Gentlemen:

On September 15, 1903, you resubmitted the record in the matter of the application of George Johnson (M.G.R. 4686), et al., for identification as Mississippi Choctaws.

The record in this case was returned to you February 25, 1903, for further investigation, to permit the applicants to show, if possible, their descent from some one of the various members of the Johnson family who were beneficiaries under article 14 of the treaty of September 27, 1830. The record as now presented now contains certain additional testimony, including the deposition of the principal applicant, George Johnson, who was born about 1817.

Reporting in the matter April 23, 1904, the Acting Commissioner of Indian Affairs states that an examination of the record shows that the applicants claim descent from Malinda Johnson, a sister of George Johnson who is claimed to be identical with a person of that name who received a reservation of land under the 14th article of the treaty of 1830. The Acting Commissioner is of the opinion that whether it is true or not that the George Johnson to whom the applicants refer is the identical George Johnson who received land under the 14th article of the Choctaw treaty, is immaterial, inasmuch as said applicants trace their descent from Malinda Johnson, the sister of George Johnson. The Acting Commissioner's conclusion is based upon the fact that the records of the Indian Office do not show that the said Malinda Johnson was a beneficiary under the 14th article of the treaty of 1830. He further concludes that her descendants are not entitled to identification as Mississippi Choctaws, and recommends that your decision of August 7, 1902, adverse to the applicants, be approved.

It is true that the evidence fails to show that the said Malinda Johnson, who is the mother of the principal applicant, was a beneficiary under article 14 of the treaty of 1830. It appears, however, that she was born about the year 1802, and that her mother's name was Mary (or Malinda) Johnson. It is not impossible that the latter was identical in person with the Mary Johnson who was a beneficiary under article 14 of said treaty. The testimony is not sufficient, however, to warrant this conclusion. It indicates, in fact, that the Mary Johnson who did receive the benefits of the treaty, was the granddaughter of the said Mary (or Malinda) Johnson. In view of the insufficiency of the showing made, the Department concurs in the Acting Commissioner's recommendation. Your decision is accordingly affirmed.

A copy of the Acting Commissioner's letter is inclosed.

Respectfully,

THOS. RYAN,

Acting Secretary.

Q You claim she was one-half Choctaw, do you? A Yes sir.
Q How long has Nancy been dead? A She died in March 1873.
Q About how old was she when she died? A She was sixty-eight years old when she died.
Q Where was she born? A In Mississippi.
Q Where in Mississippi? A In Winston County-it was Winston County then.
Q What is it now? A Choctaw County.
Q Did she live in this State all her life? A Yes sir, so far as I know. She told me she was a Choctaw Indian.
Q You think she must have lived here all her life, then, on that account? A Yes sir, she was a Mississippi Choctaw.
Q Through which one of her parents did she get her Choctaw blood? A Her mother.
Q What was her mother's name? A I don't know, sir.
Q What was your mother's father's name? A I don't know.

- Q According to your statement your mother's mother was a full blood Choctaw Indian woman? A yes sir.
- Q How do you know that? A Just from what my mother said.
- Q She told you she was a full blood Choctaw and yet never told you her mother's name? A No sir, she never told me.
- Q Where did your mother's mother live? A In this country-she was a Mississippi Choctaw Indian.
- Q Where did she die? A I don't know, sir. I just go by what my mother said.
- Q Are you married? A yes sir.
- Q How many times have you been married? A Once.
- Q Is your wife living? A yes sir.
- Q Is she a Choctaw? A If she is, she don't know it.
- Q You make no claim for her, then? A No sir.
- Q What is her name? A Maria Gordon.
- Q How many children have you living who are under twenty-one years years of age and unmarried? A Four.
- Q Give us the names of those children and their ages-the oldest first? A Tony.
- Q How old is Tony? A Nineteen.
- Q That is a boy, is it? A Yes sir.
- Q Next one? A Robert.
- Q How old is he? A Eighteen.
- Q Next one? A Yettie Vertis.
- Q How old is he? A Sixteen years old.
- Q Next one? A Fannie.
- Q How old is she? A Fourteen.
- Q Are these four children living with you at this time? A Yes sir.
- Q Are they all the children of yourself and Maria Gordon? A Yes sir.
- Q This application, then, is for yourself and four minor children? A yes sir.
- Q Were you married to Maria under a license? A yes sir.
- Q When? A The Fall of '69.
- Q Where? A Winston County, Mississippi.
- Q Who married you? A Methodist preacher by the name of Mr. Woodard.
- Q Have you your marriage license and certificate with you at this time? A No sir.

It will be necessary for you to furnish the Commission with proper evidence of your marriage to your wife Maria. This should be furnished within a period of thirty days from this date.

- Q Have you ever made any effort before this time to establish your rights or the rights of anyone of these four children as Mississippi Choctaws? A No sir.
- Q Has anyone else ever made such an effort in your behalf? A Not as I ever knowed of.
- Q Do you appear before the Commission at this time for the purpose of claiming rights in the Choctaw lands in Indian Territory for yourself and four minor children under article 14 of the treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek? A yes sir.
- Q Do you understand article 14 of the treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek? A No sir, I don't understand it.

This treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek was entered into here in Mississippi on the 27th day of September, 1830, between the United States Government and the Choctaw Tribe of Indians. At the time this treaty was made the Choctaws lived here in Mississippi and along the western edge of the State of Alabama. The object of the treaty was to get these Indians to move from the country occupied by them here in Mississippi and Alabama to a new country west of the Mississippi River part of which is now occupied by the greater portion of the Choctaw Tribe of Indians and is commonly known as the Choctaw Nation Indian Territory. At the time the treaty was made some of the Indians were unwilling to leave this country and for the benefit of those who wanted to stay here what is known as the 14th article was put in the treaty. That 14th article provided that upon certain conditions a Choctaw who wanted to stay here in Mississippi might receive land here in Mississippi from the Government. It is as follows:-

Q Do you understand that 14th article now? A No sir.

This treaty was made to get these Indians out of this country and within a few years after the treaty was made the greater portion of the Choctaw Tribe was moved from this country, that is within a few years after 1830. The 14th article provided that if a Choctaw wanted to stay here in Mississippi and take land from the Government, he must let the Agent know that he wanted to stay here and he must do that within six months from the time the treaty was ratified-the treaty was ratified on the 24th day of February, 1831; after he had let the Agent of the Government here in Mississippi, for the Choctaws, know that he wanted to stay here and become a citizen of the States, he was entitled to a reservation of one section of six hundred and forty acres of land, to be bounded by sectional lines of survey; and if he had a child in his family over ten years of age, on the day the treaty was made, he was entitled to one half that quantity or 320 acres of land, for each child under ten years of age he was entitled to a quarter section of land or 160 acres and the reservations for the children must adjoin the parents' reservation and these reservations were required by the 14th article to include the improvement of the parent as it existed on the 27th day of September, 1830, the day the treaty was made. Now, if this Indian lived on that land, intending to become a citizen of the States, for five years after the treaty was ratified, in that case he was entitled to a grant in fee simple - that is the Government would give a title to the land and it could become his. That 14th article provided, further, that persons who claimed under that article should not lose the privilege of a Choctaw citizen but if they ever removed were not to be entitled to any portion of the Choctaw annuity. That is, that persons who took land under that 14th article did not, by reason of their having done so, lose the right of Choctaw citizenship but if they ever removed out to the new Nation, they should not be entitled to any of this money which is paid each year to the Choctaws by the Government of the United States and is known as the Choctaw annuity.

- Q Did any of your ancestors ever comply or attempt to comply with the provisions of article 14 of the treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek or ever receive any benefits thereunder? A If they did, I don't know anything about it.
- Q Did any of them own an improvement here in the old Choctaw Nation in Mississippi and Alabama in the year 1830 when this treaty was made? A I don't know, sir.
- Q Did any of them live here at that time? A My mother was here.
- Q Where did she live at that time? A In this State.
- Q What part of this State? A In Winston County.
- Q You are sure she was here 71 years ago, are you? A Yes sir.
- Q Did any of your ancestors remove from the old Choctaw Nation here in Mississippi and Alabama to the present Choctaw Nation in Indian Territory at the time of the removal of the greater portion of the Choctaw Tribe of Indians between the years 1833 and 1838? A None of my present people - only the old generation. I don't know anything about way back yonder.
- Q Did any of your people move out there? A None that I know anything about. My mother never went out there.
- Q Did her parents go out there? A Not as I know of.
- Q Did her grandparents go out there? A I don't know anything about that.
- Q Did any of your ancestors within six months after the treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek was ratified let the Agent of the Government here in Mississippi, for the Choctaws, know that they wanted to stay here in Mississippi and become citizens of the States and take land? A I don't know.
- Q Did any of them ever claim or receive any land here in Mississippi from the Government of the United States under article 14 of the treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek? A Not as I know anything about.
- Q Never got any land here that you know of? A No sir.
- Q Or any money? A None that I ever knowed about.

In accordance with the provisions of this 14th article of the treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek the Government of the United States directed an Agent here in Mississippi to register the names of such Choctaws as might desire to remain here and become citizens of the States and take land. The records of the Government show that this Agent failed to register and report to the Government the names of many Indians who did in fact let him know that they wanted to stay here and take land and on this account the Government, at its public land sales here in Mississippi, in many instances sold land upon which Choctaws lived and had improvements and which they supposed they would receive under article 14 of the treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek. This caused a great deal of complaint among the Indians and the matter was finally brought to the attention of Congress and Congress passed certain acts between the years 1837 and 1842, providing for the appointment of Commissions to come down here to Mississippi and hear the cases of Choctaws who claimed that they had complied with the provisions of article 14 of the treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek but that their land had been sold by the Government. These Commissions were appointed by the President of the United States and the Commissioners came down here to Mississippi and heard a great many of these Choctaw cases.

Q Did any of your ancestors appear before either of these Commissions and attempt to establish their rights under article 14 of the treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek? A Not to my knowing.

In act of Congress approved on the 23rd day of August, 1842, provided that in case it should be finally determined that a Choctaw had complied in all respects with the provisions of article 14 of the treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek but that his land had been sold by the Government, he should be entitled to select, in place of the land so sold by the Government, land some place else in Mississippi or in Alabama, Louisiana or Arkansas, from vacant Government land and should be given a certificate to that effect. These certificates were called scrip.

Q Did any of your ancestors ever receive any of this scrip from the Government of the United States under this act of Congress? A I don't know, sir.

Q Do you speak the Choctaw language? A No sir.

Q Did your mother speak the Choctaw language? A I don't know-I couldn't understand what my mother said. She said a heap of things I couldn't understand.

Q Would you know the Choctaw language when you heard it? A I don't know whether I would, or not.

Q You don't know whether your mother spoke the Choctaw language or not, do you? A No sir, I don't know anything about that.

Q Do you know of any old persons living who would likely know whether any of your ancestors ever complied or attempted to comply with the provisions of article 14 of the treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek

- or ever received any benefits under that article? A No sir, I know of noone.
- Q Do you know of any written evidence of any kind which would prove or tend to prove such a state of facts? A No sir.
- Q Have you any written evidence to offer at this time -any papers of any kind that you want to offer. A No sir, I haven't got any.
- Q Have you any witnesses here today? A My wife's here.
- Q What does your wife want to testify about? A She just come as a witness that she knew my mother.
- Q Is that all you can prove by her? A Yes sir, that's all I got here to prove.
- Q Does she know whether any of your ancestors ever complied with the provisions of article 14 of the treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek? A No sir.

If you should find any witnesses whose testimony you desire to have taken in support of your application they may appear before us here at Meridian between now and the 15th of this month or within a reasonable time thereafter at the general office of the Commission in Muskogee, Indian Territory, and their testimony will be taken.

- Q Are there any further statements you want to make at this time
A No sir.
- Q Have you any children living who are over age or married? A Yes sir, some married.
- Q How many? A I've got four married.
- Q What are their names? A George, Alfred, John and a daughter, Gabriella Turner.
- Q Where does she live? A She lives in Montgomery County.
- Q Has she been before the Commission? A No sir.
- Q Where do your boys live? A My three boys live in Arkansas.
- Q Have they ever been before the Commission. A No sir, not here I know.
- Q They never have been to your knowledge? A No sir, not to my knowledge.
- Q Have you any children over age that are not married? A Yes sir.
- Q What are their names? A Charlie and Jimmie.
- Q Where do they live? A In this country.
- Q Montgomery County? A One of them is in Montgomery County and the other is teaching school in Carroll County.
- Q Have they been before the Commission, these two boys? A No sir.
- Q Have you any brothers or sisters living? A Two brothers living.
- Q What are their names? A John and Tony Gordon.
- Q Where do they live? A One of them is living in Choctaw County and the other in Texas.
- Q Which one lives in Texas? A Tony.
- Q Have either of these brothers been before us? A No sir.
- Q Have you any brothers or sisters dead? A Yes sir.
- Q How many? A I don't know, sir.
- Q Did any of them leave children? A No sir.
- Q Are any of your mother's brothers or sisters living? A No sir.
- Q Are any of the children of any of them living? A I don't know anything about that, sir.

Sancho Gordon et al---7

This applicant has the appearance of being possessed of a mixture of negro and either white or Indian blood, in which the negro blood largely predominates. He does not speak or understand the Choctaw language.

Maria Gordon, being first duly sworn, testified as follows:

Examination by the Commission.

- Q What is your name? A Maria Gordon.
Q How old are you? A I could tell my age just exactly but I am about fifty.
Q Were you a slave? A yes sir.
Q What is your postoffice address? A Winona.
Q Are you the wife of Sancho Gordon who just appeared before the Commission? A Yes sir.
Q You have no Choctaw blood? A If I is I don't know it.
Q Do you appear before the Commission at this time for the purpose of testifying in his behalf? A yes sir.

Commission:

Mr. Beadle, what do you want to prove by this witness?

Mr. Beadle:

I expect to prove by this witness that she was acquainted with the mother of the applicant Sancho Gordon and knew her to be possessed of Choctaw Indian blood. She does not know whether any of the ancestors of her husband ever complied or attempted to comply with the provisions of article 14 of the treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek.

Examination by the Commission.

- Q How long have you been married to Sancho? A I don't know.
Q About how long? A I been married about seventeen years.
Q He has been married more than once then, has he? A No sir, I was married more than once but he never was married but once. I don't know how long I was married to him.
Q How long after the surrender was it you married? A I married four years after the surrender.
Q How long have you known Sancho? A I been knowing him ever since I married him.
Q How much more than that? A I knowed him about three months before I married him.
Q Were you acquainted with Sancho's mother during her life time?
A Yes sir, I was acquainted with her.
Q You knew her before you met him, did you? A No sir, I wasn't acquainted with her - I didn't know her personally until after we married.
Q When did she die? A I don't know that neither. She died since we married.

Sancho Gordon et al---8

Q Did she have any Choctaw blood? A I don,t know sir-I know what she told me.
Q What did she tell you? A She told me she was Choctaw Indiano that's all I can tell you.
Q She was a slave,wasn't she? A She didn't ever tell me she was a slave.
Q How much Choctaw blood did she say she had? A She didn't tell me how much she had.
Q You know she wasn't a full blood Choctaw,don't you? A She told me she was a Mississippi Choctaw Indian.
Q Don't you know that she wasn't a full blood Choctaw Indian? A well, no sir, I don,t know.
Q Don't you know she had some negro blood in her? A She didn't look like it.
Q Where was she born? A She didn,t tell me and I don,t know.
Q Did she live in this State all her life? A yes sir,I reckon so. She was here in Mississippi when I knew her. She was very old.
Q Do you know the names of her parents? A No sir,I don't know nothing about her parents. I just acquainted with her and his brothers.

Commission:

Mr. Beadle, is there anything else you want to prove by this witness?

Mr. Beadle:

No sir.

Examination by the Commission:

Q What was her name? A Nancy Gordon.
Q What was the name of the father of this applicant? A I don,t know,sir-I never did know nothing about him and never did see him.

This witness is a negro of average intelligence.

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR,
COMMISSION TO THE FIVE CIVILIZED TRIBES.

In the matter of the application of Samcho Gordon, et al., for identification as Mississippi Choctaws, H.C.R. 4687.

--1 D E C I S I O N :--

It appears from the record herein that application for identification as Mississippi Choctaws was made to this Commission by Samcho Gordon for himself and his four minor children, Tony, Robert, Vertis and Fannis Gordon, under the following provision of the act of Congress approved June 26, 1898 (30 Stats., 495):

"Said Commission shall have authority to determine the identity of Choctaw Indians claiming rights in the Choctaw lands
under article fourteen of the treaty between the United States and the Choctaw Nation, concluded September twenty-seventh eighteen hundred and thirty, and to that end may administer oaths, examine witnesses and perform all other acts necessary
therein and make report to the Secretary of the Interior."

It also appears that all of said applicants claim rights in the Choctaw lands under article fourteen of the treaty between the United States and the Choctaw Nation, concluded September twenty-seventh, eighteen hundred and thirty, by reason of being descendants of one Nancy Gordon, who is alleged to have been an one-half blood Choctaw Indian and to have resided in Mississippi in eighteen hundred and thirty.

It further appears from the evidence submitted in support of said application and from the records in the possession of the Commission, that none of said applicants has ever been enrolled by the Choctaw tribal authorities as a member of the Choctaw tribe, or admitted to Choctaw citizenship by a duly constituted court or committee of the Choctaw Nation, or by the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes, or by a decree of the United States Court in Indian Territory, under the provisions of the act of Congress approved June 10, 1896 (29 Stats., 321).

It does not appear from the testimony and evidence offered in support of said application, or from the records in the possession of the Commission relating to persons who complied or attempted to comply with the provisions of said article fourteen of the treaty of eighteen hundred and thirty, and to persons who heretofore were claimants thereunder, that the said Nancy Gordon, signified (in person or by proxy) to Colonel Wm. Ward, Indian Agent, Choctaw Agency, an intention to comply with the provisions of said article fourteen, or presented a claim to rights thereunder to either of the Commissions authorized to adjudicate such claims by the acts of Congress approved March 3, 1837 (5 Stats., 180) and August 23, 1842 (5 Stats., 815).

It is therefore the opinion of this Commission that the evidence herein is insufficient to determine the identity of Sancho

Gorden, Tony Gorden, Robert Gorden, Vertis Gorden and Fannie Gorden, as Choctaw Indians entitled to rights in the Choctaw lands under the provisions of said article fourteen of the treaty of eighteen hundred and thirty, and that the application for their identification as such should be refused, and it is so ordered.

Dear Sir:

You are hereby advised that on the 31st day of October, 1902, the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes rendered a decision in the case of Sancho Gordon, et al., applicants to the Commission for identification as Mississippi Choctaws.

This application was made under the provision of the act of Congress of June 28, 1898 (30 Stats., 495) which is as follows:

"Said Commission shall have authority to determine the identity of Choctaw Indians claiming rights in the Choctaw lands under article fourteen of the treaty between the United States and the Choctaw Nation, concluded September twenty-seventh, eighteen hundred and thirty, and to that end may administer oaths, examine witnesses and perform all other acts necessary thereto, and make report to the Secretary of the Interior."

Said decision concludes as follows:

It is, therefore, the opinion of this Commission that the evidence herein is insufficient to determine the identity of Sancho Gordon, Tony Gordon, Robert Gordon, Vertis Gordon and Fannie Gordon, as Choctaw Indians entitled to rights in the Choctaw lands under the provisions of said article fourteen of the treaty of eighteen hundred and thirty, and that the application for their identification as such should be refused, and it is so ordered."

You are further advised that you will be allowed fifteen days from the date hereof within which to file arguments in this office, and that at the expiration of said time the papers in the case, to-

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR,
Office of Indian Affairs.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 19, 1903.

The Honorable,

The Secretary of the Interior.

Sir:

There is transmitted, herewith, the record and proceedings had before the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes, in the matter of the application of Sancho Gordon for the identification of himself and his four minor children, Tony, Robert, Vertis and Fannie Gordon, as Mississippi Choctaws.

On October 31, 1902, the commission rendered a decision in this case finding that the evidence submitted in behalf of the applicants is insufficient to determine their identity as Mississippi Choctaw Indians entitled to rights in the lands of the Choctaw Nation under the provisions of article 14 of the Choctaw treaty of 1830, and that their applications for identification as such should be refused.

An examination of the record evidence shows that they claim their rights by reason of being descendants of one Nancy Gordon, the mother of the principal applicant, but they do not give the name of any other ancestor. Neither the record evidence nor the records in this office show that said Nancy Gordon ever complied or attempted to comply with the provisions of article 14 of the Choctaw treaty of 1830, or received a patent for land thereunder. The record evidence shows that none of the applicants are of the full blood.

By reason of the premises the office considers that the decision of the commission is correct and recommends that the same be affirmed by the Department.

Very respectfully,

A. C. TONNER,

Acting Commissioner.

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR,

WASHINGTON, March 21, 1903.

Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes,

Muskogee, Indian Territory.

Gentlemen:

November 17, 1902, you transmitted the record in the case embracing the application for identification as Mississippi Choctaws of Sancho Gordon (M C R 4687), for himself and his four minor children, Tony, Robert, Vertis, and Fannie Gordon, including your decision of October 31, 1902, refusing to identify them as such.

The applicants claim rights in Choctaw lands under article 14 of the treaty of September 27, 1830, by reason of being descendants of one Nancy Gordon, who is alleged to have been an one-half blood Choctaw Indian and to have resided in Mississippi in 1830.

The records fail to show that said applicants have ever been admitted or enrolled as members of the Choctaw Nation, or that their alleged ancestors ever complied or attempted to comply with said article 14 of the treaty of 1830, or with the subsequent acts relating thereto.

Reporting in the matter February 19, 1903, the Acting Commissioner of Indian Affairs recommends that your decision be approved. A copy of his letter is inclosed.

The Department finds no reason to disturb your decision, and it is hereby affirmed.

Respectfully,

THOS. RYAN,

Acting Secretary.

- Q Are these children all living with you now? A Yes sir, all them under age are with me.
- Q Are these five children all the children of yourself and Tom Grisson? A Yes sir.
- Q This application is for yourself and five minor children, is that right? A Yes sir.
- Q Has any application of any description ever been made for you or anyone of these children before today, looking to the establishment of your rights as Choctaw Indians? A No sir.
- Q This is the first application of any kind that has ever been made for you, you are sure, are you? A Yes sir.
- Q Do you appear before the Commission at this time for the purpose of claiming rights in the Choctaw lands in Indian Territory for yourself and five minor children under article 14 of the treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek? A I don't know anything about that.

This treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek was entered into here in Mississippi on the 27th day of September, 1830, between the United States Government and the Choctaw Tribe of Indians. At the time the treaty was made the Choctaws lived here in Mississippi and along the western edge of the State of Alabama. The object of this treaty was to get these Indians to move from this country out to a new country west of the Mississippi River, part of which is now occupied by the greater portion of the Choctaw Tribe of Indians and is commonly known as the Choctaw Nation Indian Territory. At the time the treaty was made some of the Choctaws were unwilling to leave this country and for the benefit of those who wanted to stay here what is known as the 14th article was put in the treaty. That 14th article provided that upon certain conditions a Choctaw who wanted to stay here in Mississippi and not move out to the new country west of the Mississippi River might receive land here in Mississippi from the Government of the United States. It is as follows:-

"Each Choctaw head of a family being desirous to remain and become a citizen of the States shall be permitted to do so by signifying his intention to the Agent within six months from the ratification of this treaty and he or she shall thereupon be entitled to a reservation of six hundred and forty acres of land, to be bounded by sectional lines of survey; in like manner shall be entitled to one half that quantity for each unmarried child which is living with him over ten years of age; and a quarter section to such child as may be under ten years of age, to adjoin the location of the parent. If they reside upon said lands, intending to become citizens of the States, for five years after the ratification of this treaty, in that case a grant in fee simple shall issue; said reservation shall include the present improvement of the head of the family or a portion of it. Persons who claim under this article shall not lose the privilege of a Choctaw citizen but if they ever remove are not to be entitled to any portion of the Choctaw annuity."

Q Do you understand that 14th article of the treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek now? A No sir.

Q Don't you understand what I have said to you? A I heard what you said but I don't know nothing about it.

If a Choctaw who lived here 71 years ago, when this treaty was made, wanted to stay here in Mississippi and take land, he was required by that 14th article to let the Agent of the Government here in Mississippi, for the Choctaws, know that -within six months from February 24th, 1831, the day the treaty was ratified, that he wanted to stay here and he was thereupon entitled to a reservation of one section of six hundred and forty acres of land, to be bounded by sectional lines of survey. In like manner he was entitled to one half that quantity for each unmarried child which was living with him on that date that the treaty was made, who was over ten years of age; a quarter section for such child as was at that time under ten years of age. The reservations of these children must adjoin the location of the parent. If they resided upon said land-lived on that land-for five years from February 24, 1831, the day the treaty was ratified, in that case the Indian was entitled to a grant in fee simple or a deed covering the land. That 14th article provided further that persons who claimed under that article should not lose the privilege of a Choctaw citizen but if they ever removed out to the new nation west of the Mississippi River, they should not be entitled to any portion of the Choctaw annuity. The Choctaw annuity is money paid each year to the Choctaws by the Government of the United States under treaty provisions.

Mary Grisson et al---4

- Q Did any of your ancestors ever comply or attempt to comply with the provisions of article 14 of the treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek or ever receive any benefits under that article? A No sir, not as I ever knowed of. I never heard of it.
- Q Did any of them own an improvement here in the old Choctaw Nation in Mississippi and Alabama in the year 1830 when this treaty was made? A No sir.
- Q Did any of them live here at that time? A Yes sir.
- Q Who? A My mammy and grandmammy.
- Q Where did they live at that time--71 years ago? A They lived in Choctaw, Mississippi.
- Q Choctaw County, Mississippi? A Yes sir.
- Q Near what town? A Winona.
- Q Did any of your Choctaw ancestors remove from the old Choctaw Nation in Mississippi and Alabama to the present Choctaw Nation in Indian Territory at the time of the removal of the greater portion of the Choctaw Tribe of Indians between the years 1833 and 1838? A No sir.
- Q Did any of them, within six months after the treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek was ratified, let the Agent of the Government here in Mississippi, for the Choctaws, know that they wanted to stay here in Mississippi and become citizens of the States and take land? A I don't know--I don't know nothing about that.
- Q Did any of your ancestors ever claim or receive any land here in Mississippi from the Government of the United States under article 14 of the treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek? A No sir.
- Q Did any of them ever claim or receive any land from the Government of the United States under any other article of that treaty or under the supplement to the treaty? A No sir, not as ever I knowed of.
- Q Did any of them ever get any money from the Government? A No sir.
- Q So far as you know, then, none of your people ever received any benefits whatever as Choctaw Indians? A No sir, they never got nothing.

In accordance with the provisions of article 14 of the treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek the Government of the United States directed an Agent here in Mississippi to register the names of such Choctaws as might desire to remain and become citizens of the States and take land. The records of the Government show that this Agent failed to register and report to the Government the names of many Choctaws who did in fact let him know that they wanted to stay here and take land and become citizens. This caused a great deal of complaint among the Choctaws and the matter was finally brought to the attention of Congress and Congress passed certain acts between the years 1837 and 1842, providing for the appointment of Commissioners to come down here to Mississippi and hear the cases of Choctaws who claimed that they were entitled to rights under article 14 of the treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek.

Mary Grissom et al---5

These Commissions were appointed by the President of the United States and the Commissioners came down here to Mississippi and heard a great many of these Choctaw cases.

Q Did any of your ancestors appear before any of these Commissioners and attempt to establish their rights under article 14 of the treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek? A No sir, I don't know anything about that rabbit.

An Act of Congress approved on the 23rd day of August, 1842, provided that in case it should be finally determined that a Choctaw had complied in all respects with the provisions of article 14 of the treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek but that his land had been sold by the Government, he should be entitled to select, in place of this land so sold by the Government, land some place else in Mississippi or in Alabama, Louisiana or Arkansas, from vacant Government land and should be given a certificate to that effect. These certificates were called scrip.

Q Did any of your ancestors ever get any of this scrip from the Government of the United States under this act of Congress? A No sir, they never got any.

Q Do you know of any old persons living who would likely know whether any of your ancestors ever complied or attempted to comply with the provisions of article 14 of the treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek or ever received any benefits under that article? A No sir, I don't know nary one.

Q Have you any written evidence of any kind which would prove or tend to prove such a state of facts? A No sir.

Q Have you any written evidence to offer at this time? A No sir.

Q Have you any witnesses? A No sir.

If you should find any witnesses whose testimony you desire to have taken before the Commission, they may appear before us here at Meridian between now and the 15th of this month or within a reasonable time thereafter at the general office of the Commission in Muskogee, Indian Territory and their testimony will be taken.

Q Are there any further statements you would like to make at this time in support of your application? A No sir.

Q How many children have you who are over 21 years of age or married? A Six.

Q Give us the names of those children? A Octavia Ward, Angie Dansby, John Grissom, Harrison ~~Smith~~ Grissom, Green Grissom and Tommie Grissom.

Q Have any of these children been before the Commission? A No sir.

Q Where do they live? A The two boys that are unmarried live here and the others live in Arkansas.

Mary Grissom et al---6

Q What are the names of the two boys that live here? A Green and Tommie.

Q Are any of your mother's brothers or sisters living? A No sir.

Q Did she ever have any that you know of? A Yes, I heard her say that she had some brothers.

Q Did they leave children? A Not as I know of.

This applicant has the appearance of being possessed of a mixture of ~~with~~ negro and either white or Indian blood in which the negro blood largely predominates. Her hair is black and rather inclined to be straight. She does not speak or understand the Choctaw language.

Ira S. Niles, being first duly sworn, states that as stenographer to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes he reported in full all proceedings had in the above entitled cause, heard at Meridian, Mississippi, February 7th, 1902, and that the above and foregoing is a full, true and correct transcript of his stenographic notes taken in said proceedings on said date.

Subscribed and sworn to before me this the 27th day of February, 1902, at Franks, Mississippi.

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR,
COMMISSION TO THE FIVE CIVILIZED TRIBES.

In the matter of the application of Mary Grissom, et al.,
for identification as Mississippi Choctaws, M.C.R. 4622,

---: D E C I S I O N :---

It appears from the record herein that application for identification as Mississippi Choctaws was made to this Commission by Mary Grissom for herself and her five minor children, Mary, Minnie, Robert, Arrens, and Lillie Grissom, under the following provision of the act of Congress approved June 28, 1898 (30 Stats., 495):

"Said Commission shall have authority to determine the identity of Choctaw Indians claiming rights in the Choctaw lands
under article fourteen of the treaty between the United States and the Choctaw Nation, concluded September twenty-seventh eighteen hundred and thirty, and to that end may administer
oaths, examine witnesses and perform all other acts necessary
therein and make report to the Secretary of the Interior."

It also appears that all of said applicants claim rights in the Choctaw lands under article fourteen of the treaty between the United States and the Choctaw Nation, concluded September twenty-seventh, eighteen hundred and thirty, by reason of being descendants of one Susan Gee, who is alleged to have been a full blood Choctaw Indian and to have resided in Mississippi in eighteen hundred and thirty.

It further appears from the evidence submitted in support of said application and from the records in the possession of the Commission, that none of said applicants has ever been enrolled by the Choctaw tribal authorities as a member of the Choctaw tribe, or admitted to Choctaw citizenship by a duly constituted court or committee of the Choctaw Nation, or by the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes, or by a decree of the United States Court in Indian Territory, under the provisions of the act of Congress approved June 10, 1896 (29 Stats., 321).

It does not appear from the testimony and evidence offered in support of said application, or from the records in the possession of the Commission relating to persons who complied or attempted to comply with the provisions of said article fourteen of the treaty of eighteen hundred and thirty, and to persons who heretofore were claimants thereunder, that the said Susan Gee, or ancestors less remote, signified (in person or by proxy) to Colonel Wm. Ward, Indian Agent, Choctaw Agency, an intention to comply with the provisions of said article fourteen, or presented a claim to rights thereunder to either of the Commissions authorized to adjudicate such claims by the acts of Congress approved March 3, 1837 (5 Stats., 180) and August 23, 1842 (5 Stats., 813).

It is therefore the opinion of this Commission that the evidence herein is insufficient to determine the identity of Mary

Grissom, Mary Grissom (2), Minnie Grissom, Robert Grissom, Arrena Grissom and Lillie Grissom, as Choctaw Indians entitled to rights in the Choctaw lands under the provisions of said article fourteen of the treaty of eighteen hundred and thirty, and that the application for their identification as such should be refused, and it is so ordered.

Dear Madam:

You are hereby advised that on the 31st day of October, 1902, the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes rendered a decision in the case of Mary Grissom, et al., applicants for identification as Mississippi Choctaws.

This application was made under the provision of the act of Congress of June 28, 1898 (30 Stats., 495), which is as follows:

"Said Commission shall have authority to determine the identity of Choctaw Indians claiming rights in the Choctaw lands under article fourteen of the treaty between the United States and the Choctaw Nation concluded September twenty-seventh, eighteen hundred and thirty, and to that end may administer oaths, examine witnesses, and perform all other acts necessary thereto and make report to the Secretary of the Interior."

Said decision concludes as follows:

"It is therefore the opinion of this Commission that the evidence herein is insufficient to determine the identity of Mary Grissom, Mary Grissom (2), Winnie Grissom, Robert Grissom, Arrena Grissom and Lillie Grissom as Choctaw Indians entitled to rights in the Choctaw lands under the provisions of said article fourteen of the treaty of eighteen hundred and thirty, and that the application for their identification as such should be refused, and it is so ordered."

Mary Grisson - 2

You are further advised that you will be allowed fifteen days from the date hereof within which to file arguments in this office, and that at the expiration of that time the papers in the case, together with such arguments, will be forwarded for review to the Secretary of the Interior.

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR,

Office of Indian Affairs,

Washington, February 10, 1903.

The Honorable

The Secretary of the Interior.

Sir:

I have the honor to submit, herewith, for your consideration, the record of the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes in the matter of the application of Mary Grissom for the identification of herself and her five minor children, Mary, Minnie, Robert, Arrena and Lillie Grissom, as Mississippi Choctaws, wherein a decision adverse to the applicants was rendered by the commission on October 31, 1902.

The testimony in this case shows that the parties base their claim to identification as Mississippi Choctaws under this application because of their descent from Susan Gee, who, they allege, was a Choctaw Indian and a resident of the Choctaw Nation, in Mississippi, at the time of the making of the Choctaw treaty of 1830.

The commission rejected these parties because the names of their ancestor, through whom they claim, did not appear among the names of those who complied or attempted to comply with the provisions of the 14th article of the Choctaw treaty of 1830, and for the additional reason that the applicants themselves had never been enrolled as citizens of the Choctaw Nation.

An examination has been made of the records of this office with reference to the name of Susan Gee, and it is discovered that her name does not appear among the names of those who complied or attempted to comply with the provisions of the 14th article of the Choctaw treaty of 1830.

This being the case it is evident that the decision of the commission rejecting the applicants was correct, and I concur in that finding and recommend that it be approved.

Very respectfully,

A. C. Tonner,
Acting Commissioner.

Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes,
Muskogee, I. T.

Gentlemen:

November 17, 1902, you transmitted the record in the matter of the application for identification as Mississippi Choctaws, of Mary Grissom and her minor children, Mary, Minnie, Robert, Arrena and Lillie Grissom, including your decision of October 31, 1902, denying the application.

The applicants claim rights in Choctaw lands under article 14 of the treaty of September 27, 1830, by reason of being descendants of one Susan Gee who is alleged to have been a full blood Choctaw Indian residing in Mississippi in 1830.

The records fail to show that the applicants were ever admitted or enrolled as citizens of the Choctaw Nation, or that said Susan Gee, or an ancestor less remote, complied or attempted to comply with said article 14, or with either of the acts of March 3, 1837 (5 Stat., 180), and August 23, 1842 (5 Stat., 513).

Reporting February 10, 1903, the Acting Commissioner of Indian Affairs recommends approval of your decision. A copy of his letter is inclosed.

The Department finds no reason to modify your decision and is accordingly affirmed.

Respectfully,
(Signed)

Thos Ryan,
Acting Secretary.

Dear Sir:

It appears from the records of the Commission that on February 26, 1902, Sampson Tubbee appeared before this Commission at Franks, Mississippi, and made application for you, your wife and two minor children as Mississippi Choctaws. He was, however, unable to give the names of your minor children, and in order to supply this information there is enclosed you herewith an affidavit in interrogatory form, which you are directed to take before some Notary Public and answer under oath the questions therein propounded, returning the same in the enclosed envelope, which requires no postage. This matter should receive your prompt attention for until such information is received no further action can be taken in your case.

Respectfully,

A reasonable time will be allowed for that purpose.

- Q Is your name on any of the tribal rolls of the Choctaw Nation in Indian Territory? A No, sir.
- Q Have you ever been admitted to citizenship in the Choctaw Nation by either the Choctaw tribal authorities, the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes or the United States Court in Indian Territory? A No, sir.
- Q have you ever made application for enrollment or citizenship in the Choctaw Nation to the Choctaw tribal authorities in Indian Territory? A No, sir.
- Q have you ever made application for enrollment as a Choctaw Indian to the Dawes Commission under the act of Congress of June 10, 1896a? A No, sir.
- Q Do you now come before the Commission to be identified, yourself and this child claiming under article fourteen of the treaty of eighteen hundred and thirty? A Yes, sir.
- Q You understand that article? A Yes, sir.
- Q You understand it well enough so that you can make your claim under it? A Yes, sir.
- Q You care to have it explained any further? A No, sir; U think I understand it.
- Q Without the explanation it reads as follows:
"Each Choctaw head of a family being desirous to remain and become a citizen of the States shall be permitted to do so by signifying his intention to the Agent within six months from the ratification of this treaty and he or she shall thereupon be entitled to a reservation of one section of six hundred and forty acres of land to be bounded by sectional lines of survey; in like manner shall be entitled to one half that quantity for each unmarried child which is living with him over ten years of age and a quarter section to such child as may be under ten years of age, to adjoin the location of the parent. If they reside upon said lands intending to become citizens of the States for five years after the ratification of this treaty in that case a grant in fee simple shall issue; said reservation shall include the present improvement of the head of the family or a portion of it. Persons who claim under this article shall not lose the privilege of a Choctaw citizen but if they ever remove are not to be entitled to any portion of the Choctaw annuity."
- Q Do you know whether any of your ancestors complied with that article? A I don't know.
- Q Or attempted to? A I don't know.
- Q What is the name or what are the names of your ancestors through whom you claim the right to be identified as a Mississippi Choctaw? A Well it is Dick Smith.
- Q What relation was he to you? A He was my great grandfather.
- Q On your mother's side? A Yes, sir.
- Q On which side is Dick Smith? A My mother's side.
- Q No do you claim on the other side, on your mother's father's side? A Yes, sir.
- Q Through whom do you claim on that side? A Tobitha Watson.
- Q What relation was she to you? A My great-great grandmother.
- Q How much Choctaw blood did Dick Smith have? A He was claimed to be a full blood.

- Q How much Choctaw blood did Tobitha Watson have? A She was a full blood.
- Q Was that her maiden name or married name? A Her maiden name.
- Q Whom did she marry? A She married a Langston.
- Q Asa Langston? A Yes, Asa Langston.
- Q Did Dick Smith live in Mississippi, in 1830? A Yes, sir; I think so.
- Q Did Tobitha Watson live there at that time? A Yes, sir.
- Q Did Dick Smith have a family there in 1830? A Yes, sir.
- Q Did Tobitha Watson have a family there at that time? A Yes, sir.
- Q Do you know when Dick Smith died? A No, sir.
- Q Or Tobitha Watson? A No, sir.
- Q Do you know how old either of them would be if living now? A No, sir.
- Q Did either Dick Smith or Tobitha Watson own any improvements on land in Mississippi or Alabama in 1830? A I don't know.
- Qc Did either of them speak the Choctaw language or have Indian names? A I don't know.
- Q Did either of them within six months after the ratification of the treaty of 1830 go to the United States Indian Agent Colonel Ward who had an office in Mississippi and tell him that they wanted to stay in Mississippi take land there and become citizens of the United States? A I don't know.
- Q Did any of them go from the old Choctaw Nation in Mississippi or Alabama to the New Choctaw Nation, Indian Territory with the other Indians between 1833 and 1838? A Not that I know of.
- Q Did any of your Choctaw ancestors to your knowledge own any land or claim any in Mississippi under article fourteen of the treaty of 1830? A I don't know.
- Q Did they claim any land or any benefits in Mississippi or Alabama under any other article of the treaty of 1830 than article fourteen or under the supplement of that treaty? A Not that I know of.
- Q Did any of your Choctaw ancestors, on either your mother's or father's side claim any benefits as Choctaw Indians under any treaty made between the United States government and the Choctaw tribe of Indians other than the treaty of 1830? A I don't know sir.

In 1837, by act of Congress approved March 3rd of that year, a Commission was appointed, which went to Mississippi and heard claimants under article fourteen of the treaty of 1830. In 1842 another Commission was appointed for the same purpose, by act approved August 23rd of that year. Both these Commissions made lists of all Choctaw Indians who came before them, each one, respectively, claiming under article fourteen of the treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek. The reason why these two Commissions were appointed was that that Colonel Ward, the United States Indian Agent, failed to put upon his list, known as Ward's register, the names of all Choctaw Indian claimants who elected to remain in the state of Mississippi and who, as required by the provisions of article fourteen of that treaty, went before him within six months from its ratification and told him that they wanted to stay there, take land and become citizens of the United States. Colonel Ward's neglect and failure to make a complete list of all those claimants caused a good many Indians who had land in Mississippi to lose it, for it was taken from by the government and sold together with the improvements upon it and as a result these Commissions were appointed to right the wrongs which they claimed had been done them by Colonel Ward's neglect.

- Q Did any of your Choctaw ancestors go before either of these two Commissions and claim benefits under article fourteen of the treaty of eighteen hundred and thirty? A Not that I know of.
- Q Did any of your Choctaw ancestors receive any scrip or certificates from the United States government as Choctaw Indians which entitled them to select land in Mississippi, Alabama, Louisiana or Arkansas, to take the place of land that they had had in Mississippi which the government had taken from them? A I don't know.
- Q This scrip was issued under the provisions of an act of Congress approved August 23, 1842. You never heard that any of your ancestors received any? A No, sir.
- Q Your mother's name is Hattie A. Davis? A Yes, sir.
- Q You want to record in her case considered with yours? A Yes, sir.
- Q Any other relatives who have appeared here? A Sophie Powell, and Julia Stephens.
- Q You want their cases considered with yours also? A Yes, sir.
- Q They are relatives of yours? A Yes, sir.
- Q And claim through the same common ancestor? A Yes, sir.
- Q Have you any evidence that you want to present further at this time? A Well, no, sir; not here.
- Q Would you like a little time for that purpose? A Yes, sir.

By attorney; Yes, sir.

By the Commission:

Upon the suggestion of attorney Redwine a reasonable time will be allowed for the presentation of proper evidence in support of this claim.

- Q Do you speak the Choctaw language? A No, sir.
- Q Is there anything more you want to say? A No, sir.

This applicant has the appearance and physical characteristics of being descended from white parentage; blue eyes; medium dark complexion; dark brown hair; has no knowledge of the Choctaw language and no knowledge of compliance on the part of her ancestors with the provisions of article fourteen of the treaty of eighteen hundred and thirty.

G. Rosenwinkel being duly sworn on his oath states that as stenographer to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes he reported in full all the proceedings had in the above entitled cause on February 11, 1902, and that the above and foregoing is a full, true and correct transcript of his stenographic notes in said cause on said date of February 1902.

Robert H. Davis,
Mertie, Indian Territory.

Dear Sir:

You are hereby advised that on the 23rd day of October, 1902, the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes rendered a decision in the consolidated case of Julia Stephens, et al., embracing the following applications for identification as Mississippi Choctaws:

Julia Stephens, et al.,	H.C.R. 1
Hattie A. Davis, et al.,	H.C.R. 4678
Robert H. Davis, et al.,	H.C.R. 4689
Henry W. McGuire,	H.C.R. 5421
John K. Davis, et al.,	H.C.R. 5422

These applications were made under the provision of the act of Congress of June 23, 1893 (30 Stats., 49) which is as follows:

"Said Commission shall have authority to determine the identity of Choctaw Indians claiming rights in the Choctaw lands under article fourteen of the treaty between the United States and the Choctaw Nation, concluded September twenty-seventh, eighteen hundred and thirty, and to that end may administer oaths, examine witnesses and perform all other acts necessary thereto, and make report to the Secretary of the Interior."

Said decision concludes as follows:

the Choctaw lands under the provisions of said article fourteen of the treaty of eighteen hundred and thirty, and that the applications for their identification as such should be refused, and it is so ordered."

You are further advised that you will be allowed fifteen days from the date hereof within which to file arguments in this office, and that at the expiration of said time the papers in the case, together with such arguments, will be forwarded for review to the Secretary of the Interior through the Commissioner of Indian Affairs.

Respectfully,

R. H. Davis,

Guertie, Indian Territory,

Dear Sir:

Receipt is hereby acknowledged of your letter of November 1, stating that the Commission has denied the rights of the applicants in the consolidated Mississippi Choctaw case of Julia Stephens et al. to be identified as Mississippi Choctaws, and has allowed fifteen days from October 23, 1902, in which to file arguments for forwarding to the Secretary of the Interior. You further state that you have just received information that your ancestors got lands in the state of Mississippi under the provisions of article fourteen of the treaty of 1830, but that you have not time to procure certified copies within the fifteen days and ask for an extension of time for thirty days longer within which to file with the Commission certified copies of the patent any such additional proof as may be necessary to identify you as descendants of the patentee.

In reply to your letter you are advised that the fifteen days granted within which to file argument in your case was granted under special instructions from the Secretary of the Interior, and cannot be extended, but at the expiration of the fifteen days the original record, together with such papers as may be filed by you will be forwarded to the Secretary of the Interior for review, through the Commissioner of Indian Affairs.

You are further advised that examination has been made of the records of the government in the possession of the Commission, and the names of the ancestors through whom you claim your Choctaw descent are not found among the names of those persons who complied or attempted to comply with the provisions of article fourteen of the treaty of 1830, or who were subsequently adjudicated beneficiaries thereunder by the Commissions authorized thereto by acts of Congress of March 3, 1837 and August 23, 1842.

- Q This is the first application you have ever made, is it, for yourself and your children for citizenship in the Choctaw Nation? A Yes sir.

Q Do you now come before the Commission for the purpose of being identified as a Hmongish person, and for the identification of those conditions as Hmongish persons, including under article XIV of the Treaty of 1857? A Article XIV—I don't really know whether I understand that XIV article or not. I have heard it once or twice, what it refers to. Will you explain it?

Q The Treaty of 1857 was made between the United States Government and the Chinese Empire of India as a place called Hmongish. The object of that treaty was the removal of all of the Hmongish Indians who lived in the old Chinese Empire, and the Hmongish Indians, or the Chinese Indians in the Indian Territory, that before the treaty was signed in 1857, on the 27th day of September, the United States that a good many Chinese Indians would not go to the Chinese Empire, Indian Territory, and to make no provision for the removal of those Chinese Indians who claimed to come back in the old Chinese Empire. An article was drafted, which was part of the Treaty of 1857, and was numbered Article XIV in that Treaty; that the treaty was signed, and after that it became null and void. That XIV article was part of the Treaty for the equal benefit of the Indians who remained here in that old Chinese Empire, and was as follows:

That Chinese land of a family being removed to another and become a citizen of the United States be provided to do so, by accepting this landowner in the year which six months from the ratification of this Treaty, and he or she shall thereafter be entitled to a remission of one section of six hundred and forty acres of land to be located by sectional lines of survey, the title same shall be entitled to one half the quantity for each acre, and shall be having with him over the years of age, and a quarter section to each child as may be under ten years of age; the subject the location of the parent. If they reside upon said lands intending to make citizens of the United States five years after the ratification of this Treaty in that case grant in that article shall have, and remission shall include the payment, improvement of the land of the land or a portion of it. However the said land shall be made shall not have the privilege of a free use citizens, but if they ever become are not to be entitled to any portion of the United States.

Do you know if any of your ancestors complied with any of the provisions of that article of that Treaty? A Yes, I couldn't say in regard to that.

Q What is the name of your ancestor through whom you claim your right to be identified as a Hmongish person? A William H. Smith.

Q What relation was he to you? A Yes, he was a grandfather, I mean—yes, grandfather. I was told that my grandfather had some Hmongish in him.

Q Did the Hmongish in Hmongish in 1857, or in 1858? A As to that I couldn't say.

between the United States and the Choctaw Nation, concluded September twenty-seventh, eighteen hundred and thirty, by reason of being descendants of one William Bennett, who is alleged to have been an one-fourth blood Choctaw Indian.

It further appears from the evidence submitted in support of said application, and from the records in the possession of the Commission, that none of said applicants has ever been enrolled by the Choctaw tribal authorities as a member of the Choctaw tribe, or admitted to Choctaw citizenship by a duly constituted court or committee of the Choctaw Nation, or by the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes, or by a decree of the United States Court in Indian Territory, under the provisions of the act of Congress approved June 10, 1896, (29 Stats., 321).

It does not appear from the testimony and evidence offered in support of said application, or from the records in the possession of the Commission relating to persons who complied or attempted to comply with the provisions of said article fourteen of the treaty of eighteen hundred and thirty, and to persons who heretofore were claimants thereunder, that the said William Bennett signified (in person or by proxy) to Colonel Wm. Ward, Indian Agent, Choctaw Agency, an intention to comply with the provisions of said article fourteen, or presented a claim to rights thereunder to either of the Commissions authorized to adjudicate such claims by the acts of Congress approved March 3, 1837, (5 Stats., 180), and August 23, 1842, (5 Stats., 525).

It is, therefore, the opinion of this Commission that the evidence herein is insufficient to determine the identity of William Franklin Bennett, Noble Bennett and Dalton Bennett as Choctaw Indians entitled to rights in the Choctaw lands under the provisions of said article fourteen of the treaty of eighteen hundred and thirty, and that the application for their identification as such should be refused, and it is so ordered.

L. D. Horton,

Attorney at Law,

Durant, Indian Territory,

Dear Sir:

Receipt is hereby acknowledged of your letter of April 19, asking if the application of W. J. Miller for identification as a Mississippi Choctaw has been passed upon by the Commission. You also inquire whether one W. F. Bennett, of Durant, Indian Territory, has applied for identification as a Mississippi Choctaw.

In reply to your letter you are advised that no decision has yet been reached nor opinion rendered relative to the claim of William J. Miller to identification as a Mississippi Choctaw. As soon as a decision is reached, he will be notified of the action taken by the Commission.

You are further advised that it appears from our records that William F. Bennett, of Durant, Indian Territory, made application to this Commission, February 12, 1902, for the identification of himself and two minor children as Mississippi Choctaws. No deci-

Dear Sir:-

You are hereby advised that on the 1st day of November, 1902, the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes rendered a decision in the case of William Franklin Bennett, et al., applicants to the Commission for identification as Mississippi Choctaws.

This application was made under the provision of the act of Congress of June 28, 1898, (30 Stats., 495) which is as follows:

"Said Commission shall have authority to determine the identity of Choctaw Indians claiming rights in the Choctaw lands under article fourteen of the treaty between the United States and the Choctaw Nation, concluded September twenty-seventh, eighteen hundred and thirty, and to that end may administer oaths, examine witnesses and perform all other acts necessary thereto, and make report to the Secretary of the Interior."

Said decision concludes as follows:

"It is therefore the opinion of this Commission that the evidence herein is insufficient to determine the identity of William Franklin Bennett, Noble Bennett and Delton Bennett as Choctaw Indians entitled to rights in the Choctaw lands under the provisions of said article fourteen of the treaty of eighteen hundred and thirty, and that the application for their identification as such should be refused, and it is so ordered."

You are further advised that the principal applicant

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR,

Office of Indian Affairs,

Washington, December 18, 1902.

The Honorable

The Secretary of the Interior.

Sir:

There is transmitted herewith a report made November 17, 1902, by the Acting Chairman of the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes, forwarding the record in the matter of the application of William Franklin Bennett, for himself, and his two minor children, Noble and Delton Bennett, for identification as Mississippi Choctaws, claiming rights under the provisions of the 14th article of the treaty of 1830. November 1, 1902, the Commission held that the applicants were not entitled to identification.

Descent is claimed from William Bennett, through William Bennett, his son, it being claimed that William Bennett, the grandfather, was a member of the Choctaw tribe of Indians in Mississippi in 1830, and complied or attempted to comply with the provisions of article 14 of the treaty. The applicants are not full blood Choctaw Indians.

An examination of the records of this office fails to show that William Bennett received a patent for land under the provisions of article 14 of the treaty of 1830, or complied or attempted to comply with the provisions thereof; neither does it appear that he applied to the Commissions appointed under the Acts of March 3, 1837 and August 23, 1842, for an adjudication of his rights, if he had any, as a Choctaw Indian.

It is therefore respectfully recommended that the decision of the Commission rejecting the applicants be approved.

Very respectfully,

W. A. Jones,

Commissioner.

Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes,

Muskogee, I. T.

Gentlemen:

November 17, 1902, you transmitted the record in the matter of the application for identification as Mississippi Choctaws, of William Franklin Bennett and his minor children, Noble and Delton Bennett.

The applicants claim rights in Choctaw lands under article 14 of the treaty of September 27, 1830, by reason of being descendants of one William Bennett, alleged to have been a one-fourth blood Choctaw Indian.

The record fails to show that any one of the applicants was ever admitted or enrolled as a citizen of the Choctaw Nation, or that said William Bennett complied or attempted to comply with said article 14 or with either of the acts of March 3, 1837 (5 Stat., 180), and August 25, 1842 (5 Stat., 515). You refused the application November 1, 1902.

Forwarding the papers December 18, the Commissioner of Indian Affairs recommends approval of your decision. A copy of his letter is inclosed.

After a careful review of the whole record the Department affirms the decision rendered.

Respectfully,

- Q Do you understand article 14 of the treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek? A No sir.
- Q You heard it explained fully to the applicant Amy Martin who was on the stand before you, didn't you? A Yes sir, I heard you explain it.

This treaty was made here in Mississippi on what is known as Dancing Rabbit Creek on the 27th day of September, 1830—over 71 years ago—between the United States Government and the Choctaw Tribe of Indians. At the time the treaty was made the Choctaws lived here in Mississippi and along the western edge of the State of Alabama. The object of this treaty was to get these Indians to move from the country occupied by them here in Mississippi and Alabama to a new country west of the Mississippi River, part of which is now occupied by the greater portion of the Choctaw Tribe of Indians and is commonly known as the Choctaw Nation Indian Territory. At the time the treaty was made some of the Choctaws were unwilling to leave this country and for the benefit of those who insisted upon staying here, what is known as the 14th article was put in the treaty. That 14th article provided that upon certain conditions a Choctaw who wanted to stay here in Mississippi might receive land here in Mississippi from the Government. It is as follows:

"Each Choctaw head of a family being desirous to remain and become a citizen of the States shall be permitted to do by signifying his intention to the Agent within six months from the ratification of this treaty and he or she shall thereupon be entitled to a reservation of one section of six hundred and forty acres of land, to be bounded by sectional lines of survey; in like manner shall be entitled to one half that quantity for each unmarried child which is living with him over ten years of age; and a quarter section to such child as may be under ten years of age, to adjoin the location of the parent. If they reside upon said land, intending to become citizens of the States, for five years after the ratification of this treaty, in that case a grant in fee simple shall issue; said reservation shall include the present improvement of the head of the family or a portion of it. Persons who claim under this article shall not lose the privilege of a Choctaw citizen but if they ever remove are not to be entitled to any portion of the Choctaw annuity."

- Q Do you think you understand that 14th article now? A Yes sir, I think so.
- Q Did any of your ancestors ever comply or attempt to comply with its provisions or ever receive any benefits under that article? A Not as I ever heard of.
- Q Did any of them own an improvement here in the old Choctaw Nation in Mississippi and Alabama in the year 1830 when this treaty was made? A No sir.
- Q Are you quite sure of that? A I never heard of any.
- Q Did any of them, in fact, live here 71 years ago? A My grandmother she's been here in Mississippi all her life.
- Q But she wasn't an Indian? A No sir-but my grandfather was here I reckon-about that time I know.
- Q Where did he live at that time? A I don't know whether he was in Mississippi then or not-my mother is sixty odd years old, I think she was here at that time.
- Q Did any of your Choctaw ancestors remove from the old Choctaw Nation in Mississippi and Alabama to the present Choctaw Nation in Indian Territory at the time of the removal of the greater portion of the Choctaw Tribe of Indians between the years 1833 and 1838? A No sir.

Helen Williams et al---4

Q Did any of them within six months after the treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek was ratified let the Agent of the Government here in Mississippi, for the Choctaws, know that they wanted to stay here in Mississippi and become citizens of the States and take land? A None that I knows of.

Q Did any of them ever claim or receive any land here in Mississippi from the Government of the United States? A No sir, not that ever I heard of.

Q Never got any land here from the Government to your knowledge?

A No land at all.

Q Did any of them ever get any money from the Government? A No sir.

Q Did any of them ever get any land anywhere else from the Government? A No sir, not that I ever heard of.

Q So far as you know, then, none of your ancestors ever received any benefits whatever as Choctaw Indians? A No sir.

In accordance with the provisions of article 14 of the treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek the Government of the United States directed an Agent here in Mississippi to register the names of such Choctaws as might desire to remain here and become citizens of the States and take land. The records of the Government show that this Agent failed to register and report to the Government the names of many Indians who did in fact let him know that they wanted to stay here and become citizens and take land and on this account the Government, at its public land sales here in Mississippi, in many instances sold land upon which Choctaws lived and had improvements and which they supposed they would receive under article 14 of the treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek. This caused a great deal of complaint among the Indians and the matter was finally brought to the attention of Congress and Congress passed certain acts between the years 1837 and 1842 providing for the appointment of Commissions to come down here to Mississippi and hear the cases of Choctaws who claimed that they were entitled to land under article 14 of the treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek but that their land had been sold by the Government. These Commissioners were appointed by the President of the United States and they came down here to Mississippi and heard a great many of these Choctaw cases.

Q Did any of your ancestors appear before any of these Commissioners and attempt to establish their rights under article 14 of the treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek? A No sir.

An act of Congress approved August 23, 1842, provided that in case it should be finally determined that a Choctaw had complied in all respects with the provisions of article 14 of the treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek but that his land had been sold by the Government, he should be entitled to select, in the place of the land so sold by the Government, land some place else here in Mississippi or in Alabama, Louisiana or Arkansas, from vacant Government land, and should be given a certificate to that effect. These certificates were called scrip.

Ellen Williams et al---5

- Q Did any of your ancestors ever get any of this scrip from the Government of the United States under this act of Congress? A No sir.
- Q Are you sure? A Not that I ever heard of.
- Q Do you know of any old persons living who would likely know whether any of your ancestors ever complied or attempted to comply with the provisions of article 14 of the treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek or ever received any benefits thereunder? A No sir.
- Q Do you know of any written evidence of any kind which would show or tend to show such a state of facts? A No sir.

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR,
COMMISSION TO THE FIVE CIVILIZED TRIBES.

In the matter of the application of Ellen Williams, et al., for identification as Mississippi Choctaws. M.C.R. 4691.

--- DECISION ---

It appears from the record herein that application for identification as Mississippi Choctaws was made to this Commission by Ellen Williams for herself and her nine minor children, Alfred, Susan, Sharper, Mattie, James, Arthur, John D., Ella and McCallie Williams, under the following provision of the act of Congress approved June 23, 1898, (30 Stats., 495):

"Said Commission shall have authority to determine the identity of Choctaw Indians claiming rights in the Choctaw lands under article fourteen of the treaty between the United States and the Choctaw Nation, concluded September twenty-seventh, eighteen hundred and thirty, and to that end may administer oaths, examine witnesses and perform all other acts necessary thereto and make report to the Secretary of the Interior."

It also appears that all of said applicants claim rights in the Choctaw lands under article fourteen of the treaty between the United States and the Choctaw Nation, concluded September twenty-seventh, eighteen hundred and thirty, by reason of being descendants of one Starling Banner, who is alleged to have been a full-blood Choctaw Indian.

It further appears from the evidence submitted in support of said application, and from the records in the possession of the Commission, that none of said applicants has ever been enrolled by the Choctaw tribal authorities as a member of the Choctaw tribe, or admitted to Choctaw citizenship by a duly constituted court or committee of the Choctaw Nation, or by the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes, or by a decree of the United States Court in Indian Territory, under the provisions of the act of Congress approved June 10, 1896, (29 Stats., 321).

It does not appear from the testimony and evidence offered in support of said application, or from the records in the possession of the Commission relating to persons who complied or attempted to comply with the provisions of said article fourteen of the treaty of eighteen hundred and thirty, and to persons who heretofore were claimants thereunder, that the said Starling Banner signified (in person or by proxy) to Colonel Wm. Ward, Indian Agent, Choctaw Agency, an intention to comply with the provisions of said article fourteen or presented a claim to rights thereunder to either of the Commissions authorized to adjudicate such claims by the acts of Congress approved March 3, 1837, (5 Stats., 100), and August 23, 1842, (5 Stats., 513).

It is therefore the opinion of this Commission that the evidence herein is insufficient to determine the identity of Ellen Williams, Alfred Williams, Susan Williams, Sharper Williams, Mattie Williams, James Williams, Arthur Williams, John D. Williams, Ella Williams and McCullen Williams as Choctaw Indians entitled to rights in the Choctaw lands under the provisions of said article fourteen of the treaty of eighteen hundred and thirty, and that the application for their identification as such should be refused, and it is so ordered.

WASHINGTON, February 10, 1903.

The Honorable,

The Secretary of the Interior.

Sir:

There is transmitted herewith record of the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes in the matter of the application for identification as Mississippi Choctaws of Ellen Williams, for herself and nine children, Alfred, Susan, Sharper, Mattie, James, Arthur, John D., Ella and McCullen Williams.

It appears from the record in this case that the applicants claim identification by reason of their being descendants of one, Starling Banner, the grandfather of the principal applicant. The principal applicant has no knowledge of her Choctaw ancestors having complied with the provisions of article 14 of the treaty of 1830, or of their having owned improvements in Mississippi or Alabama in 1830.

The Commission bases its decision rejecting these parties on the ground that its records do not show that Starling Banner ever complied or attempted to comply with the provisions of the 14th article of the treaty of 1830.

An examination of the records of this office rediscloses the fact that the name of Starling Banner does not appear among the list of those persons who complied or attempted to comply with the provisions of the 14th article of the Choctaw treaty of 1830, and the office, therefore, recommends the approval of the decision of the Commission rejecting these parties.

Very respectfully,

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR,

WASHINGTON, March 3, 1903.

Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes,
Muskogee, I. T.

Gentlemen:

November 17, 1902, you transmitted the record in the matter of the application for identification as Mississippi Choctaws, of Ellen Williams and her minor children, Alfred, Susan, Sharper, Mattie, James, Arthur, John D., Ella and McCullen Williams, including your decision of October 31, 1902, denying the application.

The applicants claim rights in Choctaw lands under article 14 of the treaty of September 27, 1830, by reason of being descendants of one Starling Banner, who is alleged to have been a full blood Choctaw Indian.

The records fail to show that the applicants were ever admitted or enrolled as citizens of the Choctaw Nation, or that said Starling Banner complied or attempted to comply with said article 14, or with either of the acts of March 3, 1837 (5 Stat., 180) and August 23, 1842 (5 Stat., 513).

Reporting February 11, 1903, the Acting Commissioner of Indian Affairs recommends your decision be approved. A copy of his letter is inclosed.

The Department has carefully reviewed the record in the case and hereby affirms your decision.

Q Do you appear before the Commission at this time for the purpose of claiming rights in the Choctaw lands in Indian Territory for yourself and seven minor children under article 14 of the treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek? A Yes sir.
Q Do you understand article 14 of the treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek? A No sir,
Q Do you know what a treaty means? A No sir.

A treaty is an agreement or contract between Nations- now, if you and someone else have an understanding you call it an agreement or contract; when two nations have such an understanding they call it a treaty or when a nation and an Indian Tribe have an understanding like that, they call it a treaty. This treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek was entered into and was called the treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek because it was made here in Mississippi on the Dancing Rabbit Creek, a creek of that name. This treaty was made about 71 years ago- it was made on the 27th day of September, 1830- between the United States Government and the Choctaw Tribe of Indians. The object of this treaty was to get these Indians who lived here in Mississippi at that time, to go out west of the Mississippi River to what is now known as the Choctaw Nation Indian Territory and at the time the treaty was made some of the Indians didn't want to go out there- they wanted to stay here- and for the benefit of those who wanted to stay here, what is known as the 14th article was put in the

Amy Martin et al---3

Treaty. That 14th article provided that upon certain conditions a Choctaw who wanted to stay here in Mississippi might receive land here in Mississippi from the Government of the United States. It is as follows:-

Q I have quoted to you the 14th article of the treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek. Do you think you understand that article? A No sir.

I will try to explain it to you. This treaty was made here over 71 years ago and within a few years after the treaty was made most of the Indians were moved from this country out to the new nation west of the Mississippi River. The 14th article provided that if a Choctaw wanted to stay here, he should let the Agent of the Government here in Mississippi-the Government had an Agent here in 1831-know that he wanted to stay here and he must so let this Agent know within six months from the time the treaty was finally ratified or agreed to-that was on the 24th day of February, 1831. After he had done that, he was entitled to a reservation of one section of six hundred and forty acres of land or a piece of land a mile square. For each child in his family over ten years of age he was entitled to one half that quantity or 320 acres of land and for each child under ten years of age, he was entitled to a quarter section or 160 acres of land. I am speaking of land here in Mississippi at that time, 71 years ago. These reservations for the children at that time were required to adjoin the location of the parent and the reservations for these Indians were required by that 14th article, in every instance, to include the improvement of the Indian as it existed on the 27th day of September, 1830. The Government wanted these Indians to establish homes and live on them and improve their places and become citizens of the States. The 14th article required, further, that the Indians should live on these reservations for five years from February 24, 1831, the day the treaty was ratified, and if he did that he was entitled to a grant in fee simple for the land—that is, the Government would give him a deed to it and the land would become his. Now that 14th article provided further, that persons who claimed under that article—that is Indians who stayed here in Mississippi under article 14 of the treaty—should not, by reason of their having done so, lose the privilege of a Choctaw citizen but if they ever removed—that is if they ever went out to the new nation—they should not be entitled to any portion of the Choctaw annuity. The Choctaw annuity is money paid each year to the Choctaws by the Government of the United States under treaty provisions.

Q Do you know what ancestors means? A No sir.

Ancestors means your forefathers or what you people term your old folks.

Q Did any of your ancestors—your Choctaw ancestors—ever comply or attempt to comply with the provisions of article 14 of the treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek? A I don't know.

Q Did any of them ever receive any benefits under article 14? A No sir.

Q Did any of your ancestors own an improvement here in the old Choctaw Nation in Mississippi and Alabama in the year 1830 when this treaty was made? A No sir, they never have owned anything of that kind.

Q Were any of them living here 71 years ago when this treaty was made? A I couldn't tell you.

Q Did any of them remove from the old Choctaw Nation here in Mississippi and Alabama to the present Choctaw Nation in Indian Territory at the time of the removal of the greater portion of the Choctaw Tribe of Indians between the years 1833 and 1838? A I don't know of any of them moving at all.

Q Did any of them within six months ~~x~~ from the time this treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek was ratified let the Agent of the Government here in Mississippi, for the Choctaws, know that they wanted to stay here and become citizens of the States and take land? A Not as I know of.

Q Did any of your ancestors ever claim or receive any land here in Mississippi from the Government of the United States under article 14 of the Treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek? A I never knowed nothing—they aint none of them owned land that I know of.

Q If they ever got any land from the Government you would have heard of it, wouldn't you? A Yes sir, I would.

Q Did they ever get any money from the Government? A No sir, not that I knows of.

In accordance with the provisions of article 14 of the treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek the Government of the United States directed an Agent here in Mississippi to register the names of such Choctaws as might desire to remain here and become citizens of the States and take land. The records of the Government show that this Agent failed to register and report to the Government the names of many Indians who did in fact let him know that they wanted to stay here and become citizens and take land and on this account the Government, at its public land sales here in Mississippi, in many instances sold land upon which Indians lived and had improvements and which they supposed they would receive under article 14 of the treaty. This caused a great deal of complaint among the Indians and the matter was finally brought to the attention of Congress and Congress passed certain acts between the years 1837 and 1842 providing for the appointment of Commissions to come down here to Mississippi and hear the cases of Choctaws who claimed th at they had complied in all respects with the provisions of article 14 of the treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek but that their land had been sold by the Government. These Commissioners were appointed by the President of the United States and they came down here to Mississippi and heard : great many of these cases.

Q Did any of your ancestors appear before any of these Commissioners and attempt to establish their rights under article 14 of the treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek? A No sir.

Q Never did? A I never heard of no such before.

An Act of Congress approved August 23, 1842, provided that in case it should be finally determined that a Choctaw had complied in all respects with the provisions of article 14 of the treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek but that his land had been sold by the Government, he should be entitled to select, in place of the land so sold by the Government, land some pl ace else here in Mississippi or in Alabama, Louisiana or Arkansas, from vacant Government land and and should be given a certificate to that effect These certificates were called scrip.

Q Did any of your ancestors ever get any of this scrip from the Government of the United States under this act of Congress? A Never have that I mknow of.

Q Do you know of any old person living who would likely know whether any of your ancestors ever complied or attempted to comply with the provisions of article 14 of the treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek or ever received any benefits thereunder? A No sir.

Q Do you know of any written evidence of any kind which would prove or tend to prove sush a state of facts? A No sir, I do not- I sure don't.

Q Have you any written evidence of any kind to offer at this time? A No sir.

Q Have you any witnesses here today? A I wasn't able to pay my witnesses way here.

Q How many witnesses have you? A I didn't have but one.

Q What is that witness's name? A Leullia Stephens.

Q Where does she live? A In Winona.

Q Is she white or black? A Colored.

Q How old is she? A I don't know, sir.

Q About how old? A I don't know, sir.

Amy Martin et al--6

Q Is she older than you are? A Yes sir, but I don't know how old she is.

Q What could you prove by her? A I just could prove-I couldn't prove nothing by her, only she knew my mother and grandmother.

Q Is that all? A Yes sir-she knew them to be up to blood that I claim.

Q She doesn't know whether any of your people ever complied with this 14th article of the treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek, does she?

A No sir.

If you should desire to offer the evidence of any witnesses in support of this application, they may appear before us here at Meridian between now and the 15th of this month or within a reasonable time thereafter at the general office of the Commission in Muskogee, Indian Territory, and their testimony will be taken.

Q Are there any further statements you would like to make at this time? A No sir.

Q How many children have you who are over age or married? A I have four sons and a daughter.

Q Give us the names of these children? A George Martin.

Q Where does he live? A They are working about now-they are down in the swamp now. They stay with me when they come home.

Q What is the next one? A Reuben Martin, Thomas Martin, Sidney Martin and Emma Baker; that's her name now; she's married.

Q Have any of these children been before the Commission? A No sir.

Q Have you any brothers or sisters living? A I have one half brother living.

Q Same mother or the same father? A Same mother.

Q What's his name? A George W. Ware.

Q Where does he live? A He lives in Carroll County.

Q Has he the same amount of Indian blood you have? A I don't think he has.

Q You don't think he has as much as you have? A I don't think so-he is much darker than I am.

Q You have the same mother? A Yes sir.

Q Has he been before the Commission? A No sir.

Q Did you ever have any other brothers or sisters? A All my brothers and sisters are half brothers and sisters. He's the only one I know of.

Q Are they all by the same mother? A Yes sir.

Q How many more have you? A Sim, Ben, Frank, Jennie, Ann and Virginia. I haven't any whole brothers or sisters.

Q What is the surname of these children? A Sim Norwood.

Q Are the girls married? A Yes sir.

Q Give the married names of these three girls? A I couldn't do that-they left and went to other places-some are in Texas.

Q Are any of your mother's brothers or sisters living? A I never did know nothing about none of her brothers or sisters.

Q Did she ever have any that you know of? A I heard she had one who got drowned. That's all I know about.

This applicant has the appearance of being possessed of a mixture of negro and either white or Indian blood. Her features and facial expression resemble a negro-her hair is inclined to be straight. She does not speak or understand the Choctaw language.

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR,
COMMISSION to the FIVE CIVILIZED TRIBES.

In the matter of the application of Amy Martin, et al., for identification as Mississippi Choctaws, N.C.R. 4892.

DECISION.

It appears from the record herein that application for identification as Mississippi Choctaws was made to this Commission by Amy Martin for herself and her seven minor children; Garland, Fina, Katie, Winnie, Ella, Sara and Fannie Martin under the following provision of the Act of Congress, approved June 28, 1906, (34 Stat., 495):

"Said Commission shall have authority to determine the identity of Choctaw Indians claiming rights in the Choctaw lands under Article Fourteen of the Treaty between the United States and the Choctaw Nation, concluded September twenty-seventh, Eighteen Hundred and Thirty, and to that end may administer oaths, examine witnesses and perform all other acts necessary thereto, and make report to the Secretary of the Interior."

It also appears that all of said applicants claim rights in the Choctaw lands under Article Fourteen of the Treaty between the United States and the Choctaw Nation, concluded September twenty-seventh, Eighteen Hundred and Thirty, by reason of being descendants of one Winnie Pleasant, who is alleged to have been possessed of some Choctaw blood (degree not stated).

It further appears from the evidence submitted in support of said application and from the records in the possession of the Commission that none of said applicants has ever been enrolled by the Choctaw tribal authorities as a member of the Choctaw tribe, or admitted to Choctaw citizenship by a duly constituted court or committee of the Choctaw Nation, or by the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes, or by a decree of the United States Court in Indian Territory, under the provisions of the Act of Congress approved June 13, 1886, (29 Stats., 321).

It does not appear from the testimony and evidence offered in support of said application or from the records in the possession of the Commission relating to persons who complied or attempted to comply with the provisions of said Article Fourteen of the Treaty of Eighteen Hundred and Thirty, and to persons who heretofore were claimants thereunder, that the said Winnie Pleasant signified, (in person or by proxy) to Colonel Wm. Ward, Indian Agent, Choctaw Agency, an intention to comply with the provisions of said Article Fourteen, or presented a claim to rights thereunder, to either of the Commissions authorized to adjudicate such claims under the Acts of Congress approved March 3, 1837, (5 Stats., 180), and August 23, 1842, (5 Stats., 513).

It is, therefore, the opinion of this Commission that the evidence herein is insufficient to determine the identity of Amy Martin, Garland Martin, Finis Martin, Katie Martin, Winnie Martin, Ella Martin, Cora Martin and Timmie Martin as Choctaw Indians entitled to rights in the Choctaw lands under the provisions of said Article Fourteen of the Treaty of Eighteen Hundred and Thirty, and that the application for their identification as such should be refused, and it is so ordered.

Dear Madam:

You are hereby advised that on the 9th day of August, 1902, the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes rendered a decision in the case of Amy Martin, et al., applicants for identification as Mississippi Choctaws.

This application was made under the provision of the act of Congress of June 28, 1898 (30 Stats., 495), which is as follows:

"Said Commission shall have authority to determine the identity of Choctaw Indians claiming rights in the Choctaw lands under article fourteen of the treaty between the United States and the Choctaw Nation, concluded September twenty-seventh, eighteen hundred and thirty, and to that end may administer oaths examine witnesses and perform all other acts necessary thereto, and make report to the Secretary of the Interior".

Said decision concludes as follows:

"It is, therefore, the opinion of this Commission that the evidence herein is insufficient to determine the identity of Amy Martin, Garland Martin, Finis Martin, Katie Martin, Winnie Martin, Ella Martin, Cora Martin, and Tinnie Martin as Choctaw Indians entitled to rights in the Choctaw lands under the provisions of said article fourteen of the treaty of eighteen hundred and thirty, and that the applications for their identification as such should be refused, and it is so ordered".

A 12-2,

You are further advised that the Commission has on this date forwarded the record in this case to the Secretary of the Department of Justice and you will be informed in due time of such action.

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR,

Office of Indian Affairs.

Washington, Oct. 29, 1902.

The Honorable,

The Secretary of the Interior.

Sir:

There is transmitted herewith a report made August 9, 1902, by the Acting Chairman of the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes forwarding the record in the matter of the application of Amy Martin, 6 for the identification of herself and her seven minor children, Garland, Finis, Katie, Winnie, Ella, Cora and Timmie, as Mississippi Cheetaws claiming rights under the provisions of the fourteenth article of the treaty of 1830.

August 9, 1902, the Commission held that the applicants were not entitled to identification.

Descent is claimed from Winnie Pleasant, mother of principal applicant Amy Martin.

The Applicants are not full-blood Cheetaw Indians. An examination of the records of this office fails to show that Winnie Pleasant received a patent to land under the provisions of article fourteen of the treaty of 1830, or that she complied or attempted to comply with the provisions of said article; neither is it shown that she applied to the Commissions appointed under the acts of March 3, 1837 and August 23, 1842, for an adjudication of her rights, if any she had,

as a Cheetaw Indian.

It is therefore respectfully recommended that the decision of the Commission rejecting the applications be approved.

Very respectfully,

Your obedient servant,

W. A. Jones,

Commissioner.

Gentlemen:

August 9, 1902, you transmitted the record in the matter of the application for identification as Mississippi Choctaws, of Amy Martin and her minor children, Garland, Finis, Katie, Winnie, Ella, Cora and Timmie Martin.

The applicants endeavor to trace their descent from one Winnie Pleasant, alleged to have been possessed of some Choctaw blood.

The record fails to show that any one of the applicants was ever admitted or enrolled as a citizen of the Choctaw Nation, or that said Winnie Pleasant complied or attempted to comply with article XIV of the treaty of September 27, 1830, or with either of the acts of March 3, 1837 (5 Stat., 180) and August 23, 1842, (5 Stat., 513). You refused the applications August 9, 1902.

Forwarding the papers October 29, 1902, the Commissioner of Indian Affairs recommends approval of your decision. A copy of his letter is inclosed herewith.

The Department has carefully considered the record in the case, and, finding no reason to disturb your decision, the same is hereby affirmed.

- Q What is his name? A Mose Collins.
- Q Well, how is it your mether had the name Gollins and you also have the name Collins, that is, your husband's name? A Well, I'll tell you. My mother married my husband's brother before I was old enough to marry. He's not my father.
- Q Your father in Das Diggs? A Yes sir. My step-father gives evidence of my grandmother.
- Q Where was your mother born? A I don't know sir, where she was born at.
- Q When she was stolen, in what state was she? A I don't know sir, what state she was stoled in, but she was grown when I knowed her and I don't know where she come from.
- Q Where did she die? A She diedin Arkansas.
- Q When? Do you know? A She died-----I can't say. Died two---- two years before the War commenced. You know what year that was.
- Q In 1859? A Yes sir.
- Q How old was she when she died? A Well, she was about-----I reckon she was about twenty-----twenty-five years old, because she didn't have nary grown child, and I was the oldest one. I judged by that. That's what I had to judge by.
- Q Do you know whether she ever lived in Mississippi? A I don't know whether she ever lived in Mississippi or not.

(3).

- Q Have you any children under twenty-one years of age, and unmarried? A Me? Yes sir, I have one.
- Q What is that boy's name? A What is his name?
- Q Yes? A Named Ben. Benjamin.
- Q Benjamin Collins? A Yes sir.
- Q How old is he? A Sixteen.
- Q Is Mose Collins his father? A Yes sir.
- Q He is living at your home? A Yes sir.
- Q Your other children are all married, are they? A Yes sir.
- Q Were your father and mother married? A Was my father and mother married? A
- Q Yes? A Yes sir.
- Q I mean Dan Diggs and Julia Collins? A Yes sir.
- Q They were married? A Yes sir, they were married.
- Q Were they both slaves when they come together? A Yes sir, they was slaves and after the War they was parted.
- Q Well, they didn't marry in those times, did they? A Yes sir, they married, and after the surrender they said it was legal. I don't know.
- Q You make application for yourself and son, do you? A Yes sir.
- Q Is your name of the name of your son on any of the tribal rolls of the Choctaw Nation in the Indian Territory? It isn't on the rolls is it? A No sir.
- Q Did you ever make application for yourself and your son, for citizenship in the Choctaw Nation to the Choctaw Tribal authorities in the Indian Territory? A No sir.
- Q Did you ever make application for yourself and your son for citizenship in the Choctaw Nation to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes under the act of Congress of June 10, 1896? Never did, did you? A No sir.
- Q Have you or your son ever been admitted to citizenship in the Choctaw Nation by either the Choctaw tribal authorities, the commission to the Five Civilized Tribes, or the United States Court in Indian Territory? A No sir.
- Q Is it your purpose now in coming before the Commission to be identified as a Mississippi Choctaw, and to identify your son as a Mississippi Choctaw under article fourteen of the treaty of 1830? A yes sir.
- Q Do you understand that treaty? A No sir, I don't understand it.
- Q Did you ever hear of article fourteen of that Treaty? A Sir?
- Q Did you ever hear of article fourteen of that treaty? A No sir.
- Q The treaty was made between the United States Government and the Choctaw Indians. It is sometimes called the Treaty of Rabbit Creek, because it was made and signed at a place by that name in Mississippi on the 27th day of September, 1830. The object of the treaty was to effect the removal of all of the Choctaw Indians from the old Choctaw Nation, which was partly in Mississippi and partly in Alabama, to the Choctaw Nation, Indian Territory, but before the treaty was signed it became known that a good many Choctaw Indians would refuse to go to the Choctaw Nation Indian Territory, with the other Indians, and in order to protect their interests article XIV was put into the Treaty. Article XIV reads as follows:

"Each Choctaw head of a family being desirous to remain and become a citizen of the states shall be permitted to do so by signi-ifying his intention to the Agent within six months from the ratification of this Treaty, and he or she shall thereupon be entitled to a reservation of one section of six hundred and forty acres of land to be bounded by sectional lines of survey; in like manner shall be entitled to one half that quantity for each unmarried child which is living with him over ten years of age; and a quarter section to such child as may be under ten years of age; to adjoin the location of the parent. If they reside upon said lands intending to become citizens of the States for five years after the ratification of this Treaty, in that case a grant in fee simple shall issue; said reservation shall include the present improvement of the head of the family or a portion of it. Persons who claim under this article shall not lose the privilege of a Choctaw citizen, but if they ever remove are not to be entitled to any portion of the Choctaw annuity."

- Q Did any of your ancestors comply with that article? Any of your kinfelks, your ancestors, did they ever do those things? A No sir.
- Q You understand that now do you now? Understand it well enough to claim under it, do you not? A Yes sir.
- Q What is the name of your ancestor through whom you claim your right to be identified? A My grandmother?
- Q If that's the one. What is the name? A Charlott.
- Q What? A She was named Charlott. I don't know what her surname was. My grandmother was named Charlott.
- Q Charlott, you don't know the other name? A No sir.
- Q How much Choctaw blood did she have? A She was half Choctaw.
- Q She was half? A She's whole Choctaw, my grandmother was.
- Q Did she live in Mississippi in 1830? A I don't know sir where she-----whether she did or not.
- Q That is your mother's mother is it not? A Yes sir, that's my mother's mother, I am talking about.
- Q Was she a slave before the War? A My mother's mother?
- Q Yes. A No sir, she wasn't a slave.
- Q Could you tell me where she was born? A Where my mother's mother was born?
- Q Charlott. I am talking about Charlott all the time? A No sir, I can't tell you where she was born, but somebody can tell where she was born.
- Q You can't tell? A No sir, I never inquired that.
- Q Where did she die? A I don't know where she died or whether she's dead or not.
- Q How old would she be if living now? A Well, she'd be about seventy years old, I think-----seventy-----she'd be about seventy years old.
- Q Can you give the name of any of your ancestors who lived in Mississippi in 1830? A No sir, I can't. I was too small, and no body's ever told me.
- Q Do you know whether Charlott, your grandmether, claimed through her father or her mother-----claimed Choctaw blood through her father or mother? A Knew whether she claimed it or not.
- Q Through her father or mother? A She was a whole Indian.
- Q Well, did she claim through both her parents? A Yes sir, she was free. She never was bound.

- Q She was what? A She was a free woman.
- Q What was your grandmother's father's name? A I don't know sir. I don't know that, far back. I never inquired that.
- Q What was your grandmother, Charlott's name? A I don't know sir.
- Q You don't know? A No sir.
- Q What was her mother's name? A I don't know sir.
- Q You know nothing about her parents then? A No sir.
- Q Did any of your Choctaw ancestors own any improvements on land in Mississippi or Alabama in 1830? A I don't know.
- Q Did any of your Choctaw ancestors within six months after the ratification of the Treaty of 1830, go to the United States Indian Agent, Colonel Ward, and tell him that they wanted to stay in Mississippi, take land there, and become citizens of the United States? A I don't know that. I don't know sir.
- Q Did any of your Choctaw ancestors go from that old Choctaw Nation to the Choctaw Nation, Indian Territory with the other Indians between 1833 and 1838? A I don't know sir.
- Q Did any of your Choctaw ancestors own any land or claim any in Mississippi or Alabama, under article fourteen of the Treaty of 1830? A I don't know sir.
- Q Did any of your Choctaw ancestors claim any benefits or any land in Mississippi or Alabama under any other article of the treaty of 1830 than article fourteen or under the supplement of that Treaty? A No sir, I don't know that either.
- Q Did they ever claim any benefits as Choctaw Indians under any treaty made between the United States Government and the Choctaw Tribe of Indians other than the Treaty of 1830? A I don't know.
- Q The Choctaw Indians who stayed in the old Choctaw Nation in Mississippi and Alabama, after the treaty of 1830 was ratified were required to go to the United States Indian Agent, Colonel Ward, within six months after the ratification of the Treaty, and signify to him their desire to stay in Mississippi, take land there, and their intention also to become citizens of the United States and a good many Indians did this under article XIV whose names Colonel Ward failed to put upon his list known as Ward's Register and his neglect to do so caused a good many Indians who had land in Mississippi upon which they had improvements to lose both; both were taken from them by the Government and sold at its public land sales. This caused a great many complaints among the Choctaw Indians, especially among those who lost their lands, and as a result of the complaints Congress appointed a Commission in 1837, which went to Mississippi and heard claimants under article XIV of that Treaty, and in 1842 another Commission was appointed by Congress for the same purpose. This Commission went to Mississippi and heard claimants under Article fourteen of that Treaty. Did any of your Choctaw ancestors go before either of those two Commissions and claim benefits as Choctaw Indians under Article XIV of the Treaty of 1830? A I don't know.
- Q Did any of your Choctaw ancestors receive any scrip from the United States Government as Choctaw Indians? A No sir.
- Q I mean by scrip,-----I mean certificates which entitled them to select land in Mississippi, Alabama, Louisiana or Arkansas, to take the place of land which they held in Mississippi and which the Government had taken from them? A No sir.
- Q This scrip was issued under the authority of an act of Congress approved August 23, 1842. You don't know that any of your ancestors got any? A No sir.

- Q Have you any relatives who have appeared here to be identified previous to yourself? A No sir.
- Q You are the first of your family? A Yes sir.
- Q Do you speak or understand the Choctaw language? A No sir.
- Q Can't you speak the Choctaw language? A No sir.
- Q You don't understand it? A No sir.
- Q Have you any evidence or testimony that you want to introduce now? A No sir.
- Q You have nothing further? A No sir.
- Q Would you like a little time to take depositions? A Yes sir.

A reasonable time will be allowed this applicant for that purpose.

- Q Is there anything more you want to say? A No sir.

Cross-examination by Attorney.

- Q Did I understand you to say, Mrs. Collins, that you didn't know where your grandmother was born? A No sir, I said I didn't know where she was born.
- Q Well, did you ever hear? A No sir, I never heard. Oh! She was born in Mississippi.
- Q That's what I am asking you? A Yes sir.
- Q Now where was your grandmother born? A In Mississippi.
- Q Where was your mother born? A I said I don't know where she was born.
- Q Now as to your birth-place; now did you say that you was born in Virginia, or Talladega, Alabama? A No sir, I was born in Virginia.

By the Commission.

This applicant has the appearance and physical characteristics of being descended from Negro parentage. She does not understand the Choctaw language and had no knowledge of a compliance on the part of her ancestors with any of the provisions of article fourteen of the treaty of 1830.

In the matter of the application of Lizzie Collins,

the applications of

Lizzie Collins, et al.....M.C.R. 4693
Nula Bryant, et al.....M.C.R. 4694.

--: D E C I S I O N :--

It appears from the record herein that applications for identification as Mississippi Choctaws were made to this Commission by Lizzie Collins for herself and her minor child, Benjamin
Collins, and by Nula Bryant for herself and her three minor children, Greba, Reese and Cha May Bryant, under the following provision of the act of Congress approved June 25, 1902, (32 Stat., 492):

"Said Commission shall have authority to determine the identity of Chectaw Indians claiming rights in the Chectaw lands under article fourteen of the treaty between the United States and the Chectaw Nation, concluded September twenty-seventh, eighteen hundred and thirty, and to that end may administer oaths, examine witnesses and perform all other acts necessary thereto and make report to the Secretary of the Interior."

It also appears that all of said applicants claim rights in the Chectaw lands under article fourteen of the treaty between the United States and the Chectaw Nation, concluded September twenty-seventh, eighteen hundred and thirty, by reason of being descendants of one Charlett (surname not known), who is alleged to have been a fullblood Chectaw Indian.

It further appears from the evidence submitted in support of said applications, and from the records in the possession of the Commission, that none of said applicants has ever been enrolled by the Chectaw tribal authorities as a member of the Chectaw tribe, or admitted to Chectaw citizenship by a duly constituted court or committee of the Chectaw Nation, or by the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes, or by a decree of the United States Court in Indian Territory, under the provisions of the act of Congress approved June 10, 1896, (29 Stats., 321).

It is found that the name of one Charlette appears upon page 30, Volume I, of claimants brief and evidence in the case of the Chectaw Nation vs. the United States before the Court of Claims, number 12742, in a schedule of Chectaw claimants enclosed, referred to in G. W. Martin's letter of December 24, 1834, as a child over ten years of age of Stem-on-aha-ka. There is nothing in the evidence submitted by the applicants herein tending to show that the

Charlott through whom these applicants claim is the identical Charlette whose name appears in the record cited.

It does not appear from the testimony and evidence offered in support of said applications, or from the records in the possession of the Commission relating to persons who complied or attempted to comply with the provisions of said article fourteen, of the treaty of eighteen hundred and thirty, and to persons who heretofore were claimants thereunder, that the said Charlott, or ancestors less remote, signified (in person or by proxy) to Colonel Wm. Ward, Indian Agent, Choctaw Agency, an intention to comply with the provisions of said article fourteen, or presented a claim to rights thereunder to either of the Commissioners authorized to adjudicate such claims by the acts of Congress approved March 3, 1837, (5 Stats., 180), and August 23, 1842, (5 Stats., 513).

It is, therefore the opinion of this Commission that the evidence herein is insufficient to determine the identity of Lizzie Collins, Benjamin Collins, Rula Bryant, Greba Bryant, Roscoe Bryant and Ola May Bryant as Choctaw Indians entitled to rights in the Choctaw lands under the provisions of said article fourteen of the treaty of eighteen hundred and thirty, and that the applications for their identification as such should be refused, and it is so ordered.

Dear Madam:

You are hereby advised that on the 6th day of August, 1902, the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes rendered a decision in the consolidated case of Lizzie Collins, et al., embracing the following applications for identification as Mississippi Choctaws:

Lizzie Collins, et al., M C R 4693

These applications were made under the provisions of the act of Congress of June 23, 1898 (30 Stat., 495), which is as follows:

"Said Commission shall have authority to determine the identity of Choctaw Indians claiming rights in the Choctaw lands under article fourteen of the treaty between the United States and the Choctaw Nation, concluded September twenty-seventh, eighteen hundred and thirty, and to that end may administer oaths examine witnesses and perform all other acts necessary thereto, and make report to the Secretary of the Interior".

Said decision concludes as follows:

2 9-0.

"It is, therefore, the opinion of this Commission that the evidence herein is insufficient to determine the identity of Linnie Collins, Benjamin Collins, Ella Bryant, Greba Bryant, Hecce Bryant and Cha May Bryant as Choctaw Indians entitled to rights in the Choctaw lands under the provisions of said article fourteen of the treaty of eighteen hundred and thirty, and that the applications for their identification as such should be refused, and it is so ordered.

You are further advised that the Commission has on this date forwarded the record in this case to the Secretary of the Interior for review and you will be informed in due time of such action as may be taken by him.

The Honorable,

The Secretary of the Interior.

Sir:

There is transmitted herewith the record in the consolidated case of Lissie Collins, et al., applicants to the Commission for Identification as Mississippi Choctaws, including the decision of the Commission of August 6, 1902.

The above consolidated case embraces the following original applications for identification as Mississippi Choctaws heard by the Commission:

Lissie Collins, et al.,
Nula Bryant, et al.,

M C R 4693
M C R 4694

The Commission has the honor to report that the principal applicants in the several separate applications, their attorneys of record and the attorneys for the Choctaw and Chickasaw Nations have been duly advised by letter of the action of the Commission, copies of said letters being attached to the record.

Respectfully,

Acting Chairman.

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR.

Land.
47189-1902.

Office of Indian Affairs.

Washington, October 9, 1902.

The Honorable,

The Secretary of the Interior.

Sir:

There is transmitted herewith the record and proceedings had before the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes, in the consolidated Mississippi Choctaw case of Lizzie Collins, et al., wherein the following cases were consolidated:

Lizzie Collins, et al.

Eula Bryant, et al.

The record evidence in this case consists of the testimony of Lizzie Collins and that of her daughter, Eula Bryant.

The witnesses do not state that any of their ancestors ever complied with the provisions of the 14th article of the treaty of 1830 and that their testimony shows that they know nothing of any such compliance on the part of any of their ancestors.

The record evidence fails to show that any of their ancestors ever received a patent for land under the provisions of said article.

The applicants claim that the grandmother of Lizzie Collins was named Charlott but do not know what her surname was and state that she was of Choctaw blood which is subsequently changed and the claim made that she was a whole Choctaw.

The Commission in its decision calls attention to the fact that the name of one Charlotte appears upon page 50, volume 1 of claimant's brief and evidence in the case of the Choctaw Nation versus the United States before the Court of Claims No. 12,742 in the schedule of Choctaw claimants referred to in G. W. Martin's letter of December 24, 1834, as a child over ten years of age of Stem-on-aha-ka.

An examination of the office records shows that "Ish-te-mo-na-ho-ka, a full blood Choctaw woman, aged about 45 years, being interrogated, says her name is Stem-on-aha-ka, and that at the time of the treaty she had a husband and two children. Her husband was named Ou-a-ha-cubbee. He went west about three years after the treaty. Her oldest child is named Tus-ka-um-bee. Died she thinks four or five years ago. He was born same year that Joe Peny was born. He was over ten years old at the treaty. About five feet high. He was living with her and her husband at that time. 2nd. Charlotta, a female (points her out). Over ten years old and lived with her at the time of the treaty on Saboglahatchie. No town near her. Is about four miles from the Kalla Busha."

There is no doubt but what there was a Mississippi Choctaw child by the name of Charlott or Charlotta over ten years old at the date of the treaty and that an attempt was made by her mother to comply with the provisions of the 14th article of the treaty, but the office agrees with the commission that there is nothing in the evidence submitted by the applicants tending to show that the Charlott through whom these applicants claim is the identical Charlotte or Charlotta whose name appears of record in the office. With such an absence of testimony showing the line of descent or connecting the applicants with said Charlotte or Charlotta the office can do nothing more than concur in the decision of the commission refusing to identify the applicants as Mississippi Choctaws entitled to rights in the lands of the Choctaw Nation, and recommends that the same be affirmed by the Department.

Very respectfully,

Your obedient servant,

A. C. TOMMER,

Acting Commissioner.

Gentlemen:

August 6, 1902, you transmitted the record in the matter of the applications for identification as Mississippi Choctaws, of Lizzie Collins and her minor child Benjamin Collins, and of Eula Bryant and her minor children, Oreba, Roscoe and Ola May Bryant.

The applicants endeavor to trace their descent from one Charlott, who is alleged to have been a full blood Choctaw Indian.

The record fails to show that any one of the applicants was ever admitted or enrolled as a citizen of the Choctaw Nation, or that the said Charlott, or a less remote ancestor of the applicants complied or attempted to comply with article XIV of the treaty of September 27, 1830, or with either of the acts of March 3, 1837 (5 Stat., 180) and August 23, 1842 (5 Stat., 513). You refused the applications August 6, 1902.

Forwarding the papers October 9, 1902, the Acting Commissioner of Indian Affairs recommends approval of your decision. A copy of his letter is enclosed.

- Q Have you ever made application for citizenship in the Choctaw Nation for yourself and children to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes? A No sir.
- Q Under the act of Congress of June 10, 1896? A No sir.
- Q Have you or your children any of them ever been admitted to citizenship in the Choctaw Nation by either the Choctaw tribal authorities the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes or the United States Court in Indian Territory? A No sir.
- Q Do you now come before the Commission for the purpose of being identified as a Mississippi Choctaw and to identify these children as Mississippi Choctaws-----A I do-----claiming under article XIV of the Treaty of 1830. Do you claim under that article? A Yes sir.

- Q Do you understand that article of that Treaty? A No sir, I don't understand it.
- Q The Treaty of 1830 was made between the United States Government and the Choctaw Indians at a place called Dancing Rabbit Creek, in Mississippi, on the 27th day of September, 1830, and was made for the purpose principally of removing all of the Choctaw Indians from that old Choctaw Nation, partly in Mississippi and partly in Alabama to the new Choctaw Nation, Indian Territory. Before the Treaty was signed it became known that a good many Choctaw Indians would not go to the Choctaw Nation, Indian Territory with the other Indians, and in order to protect their interests article XIV was put into the Treaty. After that the Treaty was signed and on the 24th day of February, 1831, it was ratified. Article fourteen of that Treaty reads as follows:

"Each Choctaw head of a family being desirous to remain and become a citizen of the States shall be permitted to do so by signifying his intention to the Agent within six months from the ratification of this Treaty, and he or she shall thereupon be entitled to a reservation of one section of six hundred and forty acres of land to be bounded by sectional lines of survey; in like manner shall be entitled to one half that quantity for each unmarried child which is living with him over ten years of age; and a quarter section to such child as may be under ten years of age to adjoin the location of the parent. If they reside upon said lands intending to become citizens of the States for five years after the ratification of this Treaty in that case a grant in fee simple shall issue; said reservation shall include the present improvement of the head of the family or a portion of it. Persons who claim under this article shall not lose the privilege of a Choctaw citizen, but if they ever remove are not to be entitled to any portion of the Choctaw annuity."

- Q You understand that now do you? A Yes sir.
- Q So as to claim under it? A Yes sir, I understand it.
- Q Do you know if any of your ancestors complied or attempted to comply with that article of that treaty? A No sir.
- Q Did they do those things? Do you know? A No sir.
- Q What is the name of your ancestor through whom you claim your right to be identified? A Lissie Collins, my mother.
- Q She claims through her----? A She claims through her mother, and her grandmother.
- Q What was her grandmother's name? A Her grandmother's name was Charlett.
- Q Is that your great-grandmother? A My great-grandmother, yes sir.
- Q Do you remember the other name? A The surname? No sir, I don't know it. My grandmother's name was Julia.
- Q That is a daughter of Charlett-----Julia? A Yes sir.
- Q Did Charlett or Julia either of them ever live in Mississippi? A Charlett did, to my knowledge.
- Q Did she live there in 1830? A I guess so, I don't know. That's what I have been told.
- Q Who told you that Charlett lived there in 1830? A They didn't - tell me she lived-----they told me she was a native of Mississippi. I don't know whether she lived there then or not.

- Q You don't know whether she had a family in Mississippi in 1830?
A Sir?
- Q You don't know whether she had a family in Mississippi in 1830?
A No sir, I don't know that but she was a native of Mississippi.
- Q You claim through your mother, Lucy Collins? A Yes sir.
- Q She claims through her mother? A Julia.
- Q Julia? A Diggs, yes sir.
- Q Julia what? A Julia Diggs.
- Q And she claims through Charlett? A yes sir.
- Q Charlett and Julia were slaves were they at one time? A No sir, Charlett wasn't.
- Q Was Julia? A She was stolen. I don't know whether she she was a slave or not. They said she was stolen.
- Q How much Choctaw blood did Charlett have? A She was a fullblood.
- Q Did she speak the Choctaw language, Charlett? A Who are you speaking of?
- Q Charlett? A I guess so.
- Q Do you know it? A Sir?
- Q Do you know it? A No sir, I don't know it.
- Q Did she have a Choctaw Indian name? A I don't know none only Charlett. They said she had one.
- Q What? A That's what they said.
- Q Who said she had an Indian name? A The old people about home. Some Indians out there.
- Q What old people. Tell me who they were? A Sir?
- Q Tell me who said she had a Choctaw name? A Simon Collins.
- Q Who is he? A He's Julia Diggs' last husband.
- Q Do you know what that name was? A No sir, I don't know.
- Q How old would Charlett be if she were living now? A Be about seventy, I guess.
- Q Do you know? A No sir, I don't know positively.
- Q She might have been a hundred? A Yes, she might have been so far as I know. you know I am away on this side of that.
- Q Did any of your Choctaw ancestors own any improvements on land in Mississippi or Alabama in 1830? A No sir, not that I know of.
- Q Did any of your Choctaw ancestors to your knowledge within six months from the ratification of the Treaty of 1830 go to the United States Indian Agent and tell him that they wanted to stay in Mississippi, take land there and become citizens of the United States?
A Not to my knowledge.
- Q Did any of your Choctaw ancestors own any land or claim any in Mississippi or Alabama under article fourteen of the Treaty of 1830? A Did they do what?
- Q Did they own any land or claim any under article fourteen in Mississippi or Alabama? A None that I know of.
- Q Did they own or claim any land or any benefits of any kind under any other articles of the treaty of 1830 than article fourteen or under the supplement of that treaty? A No sir.
- Q Did any of your ancestors if Choctaw Indians claim any benefits as Choctaw Indians under any treaty made between the United States Government and the Choctaw Tribe of Indians other than the treaty of 1830? A No sir.
- Q The Indians who remained in Mississippi and Alabama in the old Choctaw Nation in 1830, after the treaty was ratified, were required to go to the United States Indian Agent, whose name was Colonel Ward, and who had an Office in Mississippi, and tell him that they wanted to stay in the old Choctaw Nation, take land there and become citizens of the United States. A good many Choctaw Indians did this whose names Colonel Ward failed to put down upon his list known as Ward's Register. His failure to make a full and complete list of the names of all of the Choctaw Indians who went to him at his agency, or wherever he received applications complying with the provisions of article XIV of the Treaty of 1830, caused a good many Indians who had land in Mississippi upon which they had improvements to lose both their land and the improvements which they had. Both were taken from them by the United States Government and sold at its public land sales. This caused a great many complaints among the Choctaw Indians, so that in 1837, by an act of Congress approved March 3, 1837, a Commission was appointed. This Commission went to the state of Mississippi and hears claimants under article fourteen of that Treaty. In 1842 another Commission was appointed by Congress, by an act approved August 23rd of that year, and this Commission also went to the state of Mississippi and heard claimants under article fourteen of that Treaty. Did any of your Choctaw ancestors go before either of those two Commissions and claim any benefits under article fourteen of the Treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek? A No sir, I don't know.

- Q The act of Congress approved August 23, 1842, provided that if any Choctaw Indian proved his claim under article fourteen of the Treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek, and it also further appeared that he had had land taken from him in Mississippi by the Government and sold, that he should be entitled to select land either in Mississippi, Alabama, Louisiana or Arkansas, to be taken from vacant Government land, and that a certificate to that effect should be given to him. These certificates were called scrip. Did any of your Choctaw ancestors receive any such scrip from the Government as Choctaw Indians? A No sir.
- Q Have you had any relatives who have appeared here to be identified except your mother, Lucy Collins? A No sir.
- Q Do you want her case and yours considered together? A Yes sir.
- Q Do you speak the Choctaw language? A No sir.
- Q Have you any proof that you want to submit now in support of this claim? A No sir.
- Q Any further proof. Have you got any with you? A Witnesses?
- Q Any proof at all? A No sir, not at present, but I want to have time to get it in.
- Q You would like time would you? A Yes sir.

reasonable time will be allowed this applicant in which to furnish further proof in support of this application.

- Q Is there anything more you want to say? A No sir.

Examination by Attorney.

- Q Mrs. Bryant, has your information always been that you are a descendant of a Mississippi Choctaw Indian? A Yes sir, ever since I was a child, I have been told that.
- Q Has your information as regards your grandmother, Julia Diggs, been that she was a Mississippi Choctaw? A Yes sir.

Q And born in Mississippi? A yes sir, that is the information I received.

By the Commission.

This applicant has the appearance and physical characteristics of being descended from Negro parentage. She has no knowledge of the Choctaw language and no knowledge of a compliance on the part of her ancestors with the provisions of article fourteen of the Treaty of 1830

Dear Madam:

You are hereby advised that on the 6th day of August, 1902, the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes rendered a decision in the consolidated case of Lizzie Collins, et al., embracing the following applications for identification as Mississippi Choctaws:

Lizzie Collins, et al., M C R 4693

These applications were made under the provisions of the act of Congress of June 28, 1896 (30 Stats., 495), which is as follows:

"Said Commission shall have authority to determine the identity of Choctaw Indians claiming rights in the Choctaw lands under article fourteen of the treaty between the United States and the Choctaw Nation, concluded September twenty-seventh, eighteen hundred and thirty, and to that end may administer oaths, examine witnesses and perform all other acts necessary thereto, and make report to the Secretary of the Interior".

Said decision concludes as follows:

2-2-2.

It is, therefore the opinion of this Commission that the evidence herein is insufficient to determine the identity of Louis Collins, Benjamin Cohen, John Brown, Greig Bryant, Robert Bryant, and the two persons mentioned in the article to which reference is made in the above article, and that the applications for their identification as such should be refused, and it so ordered.

You are further advised that the Commission has on this date forwarded the matter to the Director of the Department of the Interior for review and you will be informed in due time of such action as may be taken by him.

Yours truly,

Tame Dixby.

- Q Have you ever made application for citizenship in the Choctaw Nation for yourself or your brother, or has any one for you or for him, to the Choctaw tribal authorities in Indian Territory? A Not only just now.
- Q Have you ever made application for yourself or brother or anyone for you or for him for citizenship in the Choctaw Nation under the act of Congress of June 10, 1896? A I don't know.
- Q You did not make application five years ago? A No, sir.
- Q Have you or has your brother ever been admitted to citizenship in the Choctaw Nation by either the Choctaw tribal authorities, the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes or the United States Court in Indian Territory? A No, sir.
- Q Do you now come before the Commission for the purpose of identifying yourself and for the identification of your brother as a Mississippi Choctaw claiming under article fourteen of the treaty of eighteen hundred and thirty? A Yes, sir.
- Q Do you understand that article of that treaty? A Yes, sir.
- Q You have had that article explained to you? A I think so.
- Q Would you like to have it explained further? A Yes, sir.

The treaty of eighteen hundred and thirty was made between the United States government and the Choctaw Indians at a place called Dancing Rabbit Creek in Mississippi on the 27th of September of that year. The object of that treaty was the removal of the Choctaw Indians from the old Choctaw Nation, East of the Mississippi River to the Choctaw Nation, Indian Territory, but, before the treaty was signed it became evident that a good many Choctaw Indians would not go to the Choctaw Nation Indian Territory with the other Indians under the provisions of that treaty preferring to stay there in the old Nation and in order to protect their interests some provision had to be made for them in the treaty otherwise it would not have been signed and so article fourteen was drafted and incorporated in the treaty and with that article in the treaty, the treaty was signed and afterwards on the 24th day of February 1831, it was ratified. That article is as follows:

"Each Choctaw head of a family being desirous to remain and become a citizen of the States shall be permitted to do so by signifying his intention to the Agent within six months from the ratification of this treaty and he or she shall thereupon be entitled to a reservation of one section of six hundred and forty acres of land to be bounded by sectional lines of survey; in like manner shall be entitled to one half that quantity for each unmarried child which is living with him over ten years of age; and a quarter section to such child as may be under ten years of age, to adjoin the location of the parent. If they reside upon said lands intending to become citizens of the States for five years after the ratification of this treaty in that case a grant in fee simple shall issue; said reservation shall include the present improvement of the head of the family or a portion of it. Persons who claim under this article shall not lose the privilege of a Choctaw citizen but if they ever remove are not to be entitled to any portion of the Choctaw annuity."

- Q You think you understand that? A Yes, sir.
- Q Do you know if any of your ancestors complied or attempted to comply with any of the provisions of that article of that treaty? A No, sir.
- Q What is the name of the ancestor through whom you claim the right for yourself and your brother Dumas Wheat, to be identified as Mississippi Choctaws, going back now as far as you can or at least to the ancestor through whom you claim who lived in Mississippi in 1830? A I don't know,---I claim through my mother.
- Q But, go back further, through whom does your mother claim; do you claim through Kaziah Thompson? A Yes, sir.
- Q What was her maiden name? A I don't know.
- Q Would you know if you heard it; if I should refresh your memory, would you remember? A I might, I heard them speak of it.
- Q Do you know whether she had a relative or sister through whom some of the applicants who have been here claimed? A I don't know.
- Q What relation was Kaziah Thompson to you? A I do not know that.
- Q Well don't you know whether she was an ancestor in a direct line back; don't you know whether she was a great grandmother or a great aunt? A She must have been something.
- Q What was she do you think; you are claiming your right to be identified through some ancestor from whom you are descended in a direct line; what relation was she to you if you know? A I don't know.
- Q Do you know if she lived in Mississippi in 1830 or not? A No, sir.
- Q You claim through Kaziah Thompson also for your brother Dumas Wheat? A Yes, sir.
- Q How much Choctaw blood did she have? A Kaziah Thompson?
- Q Yes? A One-eighth I suppose, I have forgot which; I don't know what it was.
- Q You claim through your mother do you not? A Yes, sir.
- Q How old would she be if living now? A I don't remember.
- Q Do you know when she died? A I don't know.
- Q You don't know how old she would be if living now? A No, sir.
- Q Would she be old or middle aged? A Pretty old.
- Q Was she born in Mississippi? A No answer.
- Q Can you tell of any ancestor of yours who had Choctaw blood and who ever lived in Mississippi or Alabama? A No, sir.
- Q Did any of your Choctaw ancestors own any improvements on land in Mississippi or Alabama in 1830? A I don't know.
- Q Did any of your Choctaw ancestors within six months from the ratification of the treaty of 1830 go to the United States Indian Agent, whose name was Colonel Ward, and tell him that they wanted to stay in Mississippi, take land there and become citizens of the United States? A I don't know.
- Q Did you ever hear that any of your Choctaw ancestors went from that old Choctaw Nation to the Choctaw Nation Indian Territory with the other Indians between 1833 and 1838? A No, sir.
- Q Did they own or claim any lands in Mississippi or Alabama under article fourteen of the treaty of 1830? A I don't know sir.
- Q Did any of them own any land or claim any or any benefits under any other article of the treaty of 1830 than article fourteen or under the supplement of that treaty? A I don't know.
- Q Did any of them claim any benefits as Choctaw Indians under any other treaty made between the United States government and the Choctaw tribe of Indians other than the treaty of 1830? A I don't know.
- Q Where was your mother born is you know? A I don't know.
- Q Where did she live most of her life? A In Grayson County, Texas? A Yes, sir.
- Q Did she die there? A She was born in Texas and died in Grayson

County.

The Choctaw Indians who remained in the old Choctaw Nation in Mississippi and Alabama after the treaty of 1830 was ratified were required, if they wanted to take advantage of the provisions of article fourteen of that treaty, to go to the United States Indian Agent, whose name was Colonel Ward, and tell him that they wanted to stay in Mississippi, take land there and become citizens of the United States. A good many Choctaw Indians did this whose names, Colonel Ward, failed to put upon his list known as Ward's register and his neglect to do this caused a great many Indians who had land in Mississippi or Alabama to lose both their land and the improvements which they had upon that land; both were taken from them by the government and sold at the public land sales. This caused a great many complaints along the Choctaw Indians so that in 1837 Congress appointed a Commission which Commission went to the state of Mississippi and heard claimants under article fourteen of the treaty of 1830. In 1842 another Commission was appointed by Congress for the same purpose under an act approved August 23rd of that year and this Commission went to the state of Mississippi and heard claimants under article fourteen of the treaty of 1830.

- Q Do you know whether any of your Choctaw ancestors Kaziah Thompson or any other went before either of these two Commissions and claimed benefits under article fourteen of the treaty of 1830? A No, sir.

The act of Congress approved August 23rd, 1842, provided that if any Choctaw Indian proved his claim under article fourteen of that treaty, if it also further appeared that he had had land in Mississippi which the government had taken from him and sold at public land sales that he should be entitled to select land either in Mississippi, Alabama, Louisiana or Arkansas to be taken from vacant government land and that a certificate to that effect should be given him. These certificates were called scrip.

- Q Did any of your ancestors, who are also the ancestors of your brother Dumas Wheat ever receive any such scrip from the Government of the United States as Choctaw Indians? A I don't know.
- Q You understand that these questions which are asked about the compliance of your ancestors with any of the provisions of article fourteen of the treaty of 1830 refer also to the ancestors of your brother Dumas Wheat? A Yes, sir.
- Q Both claim from the same source? A Yes, sir.
- Q Have you any documentary evidence you want to file now in support of this claim? A No, sir.
- Q Do you want anytime in which to introduce further testimony or evidence in this case? A I don't know.
- Q Have you any witnesses that you want to call. Do you wish to call your father to testify in this case? A Yes, sir.
- Q Do you speak or understand the Choctaw language? A No, sir.

Witness excused.....

J. P. Wheat called as a witness in this case after being duly sworn testified as follows:

Examination by the Commission

- Q What is your full name? A J. P. Wheat.
- Q You are the father of this applicant James W. Wheat? A Yes, sir.
- Q And also of Dumas Wheat? A Yes, sir.

- Q Can you tell where your wife was born? A Yes, sir.
- Q Where was she born? A In Grayson County, Texas.
- Q What date? A On May 4th 1860.
- Q When and where did she die? A She died at Sherman, Grayson County, Texas, November 29, 1886. She would be about forty two years old if living now?
- Q Do you know whether any of her ancestors lived in the state of Mississippi or Alabama at any time? A Her mother came from Alabama; her father I believe was from Mississippi. They moved from Alabama to this Country.
- Q Do you know who the common ancestor is through whom these children claim? A They claim under Kaziah Thompson,--she was a Brashear I believe.
- Q Her name was Kaziah Brashear? A Yes, sire
- Q That was her maiden name? A Yes, sir.
- Q What relation was she to James W. Wheat and to Dumas Wheat? A She would be their great-great grandmother I reckon.
- Q Great-great grandmother of your children? A Yes, I believe that is it.
- Q Can you trace the ancestry back from your wife to Kaziah Thompson? A I believe I can.
- Q Now she claims through which parent father or mother? A Her mother.
- Q What was her mother's maiden name? A Mary A. H. Dumas.
- Q Has she not been here to be identified as a Mississippi Choctaw? A No, sir.
- Q Mary A. E. Dumas claimed her Choctaw blood through which parent, father or mother? A Her father.
- Q What was her father's name? A Thompson.
- Q Full name? A I can't give you his full name.
- Q He claimed his Choctaw blood through whom, father or mother? A Through his mother.
- Q And his mother's name was what? A Kaziah Thompson.
- Q You think you have traced corrected from these children through to Kaziah Thompson? A I think so.
- Q How much Choctaw blood did Kaziah Thompson have? A I think they claimed about one-sixteenth, one eighth or one-fourth may be. I am not thoroughly satisfied on that.
- Q Did you ever hear that Kaziah Thompson lived in the state of Mississippi in the year 1830? A Well sir; Yes; I have heard it lately.
- Q Through whom did you hear that? A I heard that through some of the relatives that have been here.
- Q But you have not heard it until recently? A No, sir.
- Q Until this matter of making application for identification came up? A No sir; I never heard it before.
- Q Have you any knowledge of whether or not Kaziah Thompson complied with article fourteen of the treaty of 1830? A No, sir; I have not.
- Q Have you any knowledge of the fact that Kaziah Thompson lived in the states of Mississippi or Alabama and had a family there in eighteen hundred and thirty? A Only from hearsay.
- Q You are not able to state? A No, sir.
- Q Is there anything further that you would like to state in reference to this application made in behalf of your son James W. Wheat and his brother Dumas Wheat? A No, sir; I believe not.

Witness excused.....

James W. Wheat recalled testifies as follows:

46

This applicant has the appearance and physical characteristics of being descended from white parentage. Brown hair; medium fair complexion; blue eyes. He has no knowledge of the Choctaw language and no knowledge of compliance on the part of his ancestors with the provisions of article fourteen of the treaty of 1830.

- Q Have you any relatives who have appeared before this Commission who claim through the same ancestor through whom you claim? Marink Tinspent? A Yes, sir.
- Q Will you give their names? A Snett Dumas, Louis Dumas, Bell Dumas.
- Q And a great many others whose names you do not recall? A Yes, sir.
- Q Do you want to have their testimony considered with yours? A Yes, sir.

G. Rosenwinkel being duly sworn on his oath states that as stenographer to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes he reported in full all the proceedings had in the above entitled cause on February 13, 1902, and that the above and foregoing is a full, true and correct transcript of his stenographic notes in said cause on said date of February 1902.

These applications were made under the provision of the act of Congress of June 28, 1898 (30 Stat., 495), which is as follows:

"Said Commission shall have authority to determine the identity of Choctaw Indians claiming rights in the Choctaw lands under article fourteen of the treaty between the United States and the Choctaw Nation, concluded September twenty-seventh, eighteen hundred and thirty, and to that end may administer oaths, examine witnesses and perform all other acts necessary thereto, and make report to the Secretary of the Interior."

Said decision concludes as follows:

"It is therefore the opinion of this Commission that the evidence herein is insufficient to determine the identity of Scott S. Dumas, Ruth Dumas, Miles G. Lantrip, Mary P. Phillips, Early E. In the matter of the application for identification as a Mississippi Choctaw of Ivy A. Fowler.

J. G. Halls attorney for applicant; No appearance by attorney.

Ivy A. Fowler having been first duly sworn testified as follows:

Examination by the Commission

- Q What is your name? A Ivy A. Fowler.
Q What is your age? A Twenty-one.
Q What is your post office address? A Vernon, Texas.
Q How long have you lived at Vernon? A Just since the 20th of December.
Q Where did you live before that? A Sherman, Texas.
Q Were you born in Sherman? A No, sir; at Van Alstine, Texas.
Q You always lived in Texas? A Yes, sir.
Q Is your father living? A Yes, sir.
Q Is your mother living? A No, sir.
Q What was your father's name? A J. P. Wheat.
Q What was your mother's name? A Lesere M. Wheat.
Q Through which parent do you claim Choctaw blood? A Mother.
Q How much Choctaw blood do you claim? A One-sixteenth.
Q Has your mother ever been recognized in any way or enrolled as a member of the Choctaw tribe of Indians by the Choctaw tribal authorities or the United States authorities in Indian Territory? A No, sir.
Q Are you married? A Yes, sir.
Q Is your husband living? A Yes, sir.
Q What is his name? A Clarke Fowler.
Q Do you make any claim for him as Having Choctaw blood? A No, sir.
Q If he has no Indian blood he must be a white man? A Yes, sir.
Q Do you make any application for any one besides yourself? A No, sir.
Q Is your name on any of the tribal rolls of the Choctaw Nation in Indian Territory? A No, sir.
Q Have you ever made application for citizenship in the Choctaw Nation to the Choctaw tribal authorities in Indian Territory? A No, sir.
Q Have you ever made application for citizenship in the Choctaw Nation to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes under the act of Congress of June 10, 1896? A No, sir.
Q Have you ever been admitted to citizenship in the Choctaw Nation by either the Choctaw tribal authorities, the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes or the United States Court in Indian Territory? A No, sir.
Q This is the first application you have ever made of any description for citizenship or for identification as a Mississippi Choctaw? A Yes, sir.

- Q Do you now come before the Commission for the purpose of being identified as a Mississippi Choctaw claiming under article fourteen of the treaty of 1830? A Yes, sir.
- Q Do you understand that article? A I did not until you explained it, to my brother.
- Q Do you want a further explanation of it? A No, sir; I don't think it is necessary.
- Q Without the explanation it is as follows:

"Each Choctaw head of a family being desirous to remain and become a citizen of the States, shall be permitted to do so, by signifying his intention to the Agent within six months from the ratification of this treaty and he or she shall thereupon be entitled to a reservation of one section of six hundred and forty acres of land to be bounded by sectional lines of survey; in like manner shall be entitled to one half that quantity for each unmarried child which is living with him over ten years of age; and a quarter section to such child as may be under ten years of age, to adjoin the location of the parent. If they reside upon said lands intending to become citizens of the States for five years after the ratification of this treaty in that case a grant in fee simple shall issue; said reservation shall include the present improvement of the head of the family or a portion of it. Persons who claim under this article shall not lose the privilege of a Choctaw citizen but if they ever remove are not to be entitled to any portion of the Choctaw annuity."

- Q You think you understand that now? A Yes, sir.
- Q Do you know whether any of your Choctaw ancestors complied or attempted to comply with any of the provisions of that article of that treaty? A I don't know.
- Q What is the name of your ancestor through whom you claim your right to be identified as a Mississippi Choctaw? A Kaziah Thompson.
- Q What was her maiden name? A Kaziah Brashear.
- Q How much Choctaw blood did she have? A I don't know.
- Q Did she live in Mississippi or Alabama? A I don't know anything about it.
- Q You don't know whether she lived in Mississippi in 1830 and had a family there at that time? A No, sir; I do not.
- Q You could not say how old she would be if living now? A No, sir.
- Q When and where she was born? A No, sir.
- Q And when and where she died? A No, sir.
- Q Did she or any one of your Choctaw ancestors to your knowledge own any improvements on land in Mississippi or Alabama in 1830? A I don't know.
- Q Did any of your Choctaw ancestors within six months after the ratification of the treaty of 1830 go to the United States Indian Agent, whose name was Colonel Ward, and tell him that they wanted to take land there and become citizens of the United States? A I don't know.
- Q Did any of your Choctaw ancestors go from that old Choctaw Nation to the Choctaw Nation Indian Territory with the other Indians between 1833 and 1838 or forty? A I don't know.
- Q Did any of your Choctaw ancestors own any land or claim any or any improvements or any benefits of any kind under article fourteen of the treaty of 1830? A I don't know whether they did or not.
- Q Did they claim any land or any benefits of any kind in Mississippi or Alabama under any other article of the treaty of 1830 than article fourteen or under the supplement of that treaty? A I don't know.
- Q Did any of your Choctaw ancestors claim any benefits as Choctaw Indians under any treaty made between the government of the United States and the Choctaw Indians other than the treaty of 1830? A I don't know.

According to the provisions of article fourteen of the treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek, those Indians who remained in Mississippi after the treaty of 1830 was ratified were required, if they wanted to take advantage of the provisions of article fourteen of that treaty, to go to the United States Indian Agent Colonel Ward, who lived in Mississippi at that time, at his agency and signify to him their intention to remain in Mississippi, take land there and become citizens of the United States. A good many Indians did this whose names Colonel Ward failed to put upon his list known as Ward's register. His neglect to do this caused a good many Indians who held land in Mississippi and Alabama, upon which they had improvements to lose them both, for both the land and the improvements were taken from them by the government and sold at its public land sales. This caused a great many complaints among the Choctaw Indians especially those who lost land and as the result of these complaints Congress appointed a Commission by act approved March 3rd, 1837. This Commission went to Mississippi and heard claimants under article fourteen of the treaty of 1830. In 1842 another Commission was appointed for the same purpose. This Commission also went to the state of Mississippi and heard claimants under article fourteen of the treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek.

Q Did any of your Choctaw ancestors go before either of these two Commissions and claim any benefits or rights as Choctaw Indians under article fourteen of the treaty of 1830? A I don't know.

The act of Congress approved August 23, 1842 provided; that if any Choctaw Indian proved his claim under article fourteen of the treaty of 1830; if it also further appeared that he had had land in Mississippi which the government had taken from him and sold that he should be entitled to select land either in Mississippi, Alabama, Louisiana or Arkansas to be taken from vacant government land and that a certificate to that effect should be given him. These certificates were called scrip.

Q Did any of your ancestors ever receive any such scrip from the government as Choctaw Indians? A I don't know.

Q Have you any evidence that you want to introduce now in support of this application? A I have none other than what is already. I have the same evidence that the other Dumases have.

Q What are the names of some of the members of the Dumas family who are kin to you and who claim through the same common ancestor? A Scott S. Dumas, Louis Dumas, Mell Dumas, Bell L. Dumas.

Q And others whose names you do not now recall? A Yes, sir.

Q They all claim through Kasiah Thompson? A Yes, sir.

Q Do you want to have their records and yours considered together in order that all may come under the same common ancestor? A Yes, sir.

Q Do you speak the Choctaw language? A No, sir.

Q Is there anything further that you want to say in support of your application? A No, sir; I guess not.

Q Would you like to call any witnesses? A No, sir.

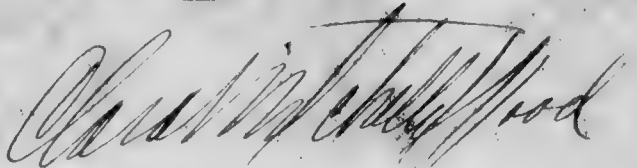

Q Would you like time in which to file further testimony or evidence in this case? A No, sir.

These applications were made under the provision of the act of Congress of June 28, 1898 (30 Stats., 495), which is as follows:

"Said Commission shall have authority to determine the identity of Choctaw Indians claiming rights in the Choctaw lands under article fourteen of the treaty between the United States and the Choctaw Nation, concluded September twenty-seventh, eighteen hundred and thirty, and to that end may administer oaths, examine witnesses and perform all other acts necessary thereto, and make report to the Secretary of the Interior."

Said decision concludes as follows:

"It is therefore the opinion of this Commission that the evidence herein is insufficient to determine the identity of Scott S. Dumas, Ruth Dumas, Miles G. Lantrip, Mary P. Phillips, Early E. Q Have you ever made application for citizenship in the Choctaw Nation to the Choctaw tribal authorities in Indian Territory for yourself and children? A No, sir.
Q Have you ever made application for citizenship in the Choctaw Nation to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes under the act of Congress of June 10, 1896? A No, sir.
Q Have you or your children been admitted to citizenship in the Choctaw Nation by the Choctaw tribal authorities, the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes or the United States Court in Indian Territory? A No, sir.
Q Do you now come before the Commission for the purpose of identifying yourself and children as Mississippi Choctaws claiming under article fourteen of the treaty of 1830? A How is that?
Q Do you now come before the Commission for the purpose of identifying yourself and children as Mississippi Choctaws claiming under article fourteen of the treaty of 1830? A Yes, sir; I don't know much about that.

The treaty of eighteen hundred and thirty was made between the United States government and the Choctaw Indians, who lived in the old Choctaw Nation in Mississippi and Alabama, at a place called Dancing Rabbit Creek on the twenty-seventh of September eighteen hundred and thirty and was made for the purpose of moving the Choctaw Indians from that old Choctaw Nation to the Choctaw Nation, Indian Territory. Before the treaty was signed it became known that a good many Choctaw Indians would not go to the Choctaw Nation, Indian Territory, and in order to protect the interests of those Indians who refused to go with the other Indians under the provisions of the treaty of eighteen hundred and thirty, article fourteen was put into that treaty; it was then signed on the twenty-seventh of September eighteen hundred and thirty and afterwards on the twenty-fourth day of February eighteen hundred and thirty-one it was ratified. That article is as follows:

"Each Choctaw head of a family being desirous to remain and become a citizen of the States, shall be permitted to do so, by signifying his intention to the Agent within six months from the ratification of this treaty and he or she shall thereupon be entitled to a reservation of one section of six hundred and forty acres of land to be bounded by sectional lines of survey; in like manner shall be entitled to one half that quantity for each unmarried child which is living with him over ten years of age; and a quarter section to such child as may be under ten years of age to adjoin the location of the parent. If they reside upon said lands intending to become citizens of the states for five years after the ratification of this treaty in that case a grant in fee simple shall issue; said reservation shall include the present improvement of the head of the family or a portion of it. Persons who claim under this article shall not lose the privilege of a Choctaw citizen but if they ever remove are not to be entitled to any portion of the Choctaw annuity."

- Q Did any of your Choctaw ancestors comply with the provisions of that article? A I could not say.
- Q What is the name of your ancestor through whom you claim your right to be identified as a Mississippi Choctaw? A My father's name is James Phillips; I won't say what my grandfather's name was. He was dead long, long before I could recollect. I never seen him. I think we have the old Bible yet.
- Q You are not able to give the name of your Choctaw ancestor then through whom you claim the right to be identified as a Mississippi Choctaw? A No, sir.
- Q Now I want to know the name, if you can give it, or the relationship of the ancestor through whom you claim your right to be identified as a Mississippi Choctaw? A He was my grandfather; he was a half-breed.
- Q But you are not able at this time to give his name? A No, sir.
- Q Was he your father's father? A Yes, sir.
- Q Your father was James Phillips who made application here a short time ago to be identified as a Mississippi Choctaw? A Yes, sir.
- Q Did your grandfather, your father's father, live in Mississippi or Alabama? A Yes, sir; he moved from Mississippi to Alabama.
- Q Did he live there in the year 1830 in Mississippi? A I would have to say what I heard.
- Q You don't know whether your grandfather had a family in Mississippi or Alabama at that time? A In Mississippi from what father said.
- Q Do you know whether your father's father claimed through his father or his mother? A His mother was a full blood.
- Q Your great grandmother was a full blood? A Yes, sir; Now you see I am so young I don't know.
- Q Did any of your Choctaw ancestors own any improvements on land in Mississippi or Alabama in the year 1830? A That is my understanding.
- Q Through whom did you get that information? A From my father.

- Q Do you know who of your ancestors owned any improvements on land in Mississippi at that time? A It seems to me that father said that grandfather did, but I could not be positive.
- Q Did any of your Choctaw ancestors within six months after the ratification of the treaty of 1830 go to the United States Indian Agent whose name was Colonel Ward, whose agency was in Mississippi and tell him that they wanted to stay in Mississippi, take land there and become citizens of the United States? A I never heard it.that way.
- Q Did any of your Choctaw ancestors go from that old Choctaw Nation to the Choctaw Nation Indian Territory between 1838 and 1838 with the other Indians? A Go to the Territory?
- Q Yes; any of your ancestors? A No, sir; none of my ancestor's but some of his people.
- Q Your father did? A Not until a few years ago.
- Q Well he came did he not? A Yes, sir.
- Q He was born in Mississippi? A Yes, sir.
- Q And he now lives in the Indian Territory? A Yes, sir.
- Q When did he go? A I suppose it must have been about '98.
- Q And he is the only one of your ancestors who did go from Mississippi to the Indian Territory? A Yes, sir.
- Q Did any of your ancestors to your knowledge own any land or claim any in Mississippi or Alabama under article fourteen of the treaty of 1830? A I don't know what that article was; they claimed lands there before grandfather went to Alabama.
- Q vDid he buy it? A He held it among them.
- Q Do you know whether he bought it? A No, sir.
- Q But you don't know that he got that land under article fourteen or not? A No, sir.
- Q Did he claim any land in Mississippi or Alabama or own any under any other article of that treaty except article fourteen or under the supplement of that treaty? A Not that I know of.
- Q Did he ever claim any benefits as a Choctaw Indian under any treaty made between the United States government and the Choctaw tribe of Indians other than the treaty of 1830? A Not that I know of.

The Choctaw Indians who remained in Mississippi after the treaty of 1830 was ratified were required if they wanted to take advantage of the provisions of article fourteen of the treaty of 1830, to go to the United States Indian Agent, who lived in Mississippi and who had an agency in that state and tell him that they wanted to stay in the state of Mississippi take land there and become citizens of the United States. A good many Choctaw Indians did this whose names Colonel ward failed to put upon his list, known as Ward's register. The Agent's neglect to make a proper record of the names of all of the Choctaw Indians who came before him within six months after the ratification of the treaty of 1830 and complied with its provisions caused a good many Indians who held land in Mississippi, upon which they had improvements to lose them; both the land and the improvements were taken from them by the government and sold at the public land sales. This caused a great many complainst among the Choctaw Indians so that in 1837 by act approved March 3rd of that year Congress appointed a Commission which went to Mississippi and heard claimants under article fourteen of the treaty of 1830. In 1842 another Commission was appointed by Congress for the same purpose under act approved August.23 of that year, and this Commission went to Mississippi and heard claimants under article fourteen of the treaty of 1830.

- Q Did any of your Choctaw ancestors go before either of these two Commissions and claim benefits as Choctaw Indians under article fourteen of the treaty of 1830? A I don't know.

The act of Congress approved August 23rd, 1842, provided; that if any Choctaw Indian proved his claim under article fourteen of the treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek, and if it further appeared that he had had land in Mississippi which the government had taken from him and sold that he should be entitled to select land either in Mississippi, Alabama, Louisiana or Arkansas, to be taken from vacant government land and that a certificate should be given him to that effect. These certificates were called scrip.

- Q Did any of your Choctaw ancestors ever receive any such scrip from the United States government as Choctaw Indians? A Not that I know of.
- Q Have any relatives of yours appeared before the Commission to be identified as Mississippi Choctaws except your father James Phillips? A Yes, sir; my brother, L. B. Phillips.
- Q Any others? A None that I know of.
- Q Would you like to have their records considered with yours in order that all might be consolidated under one head? A Yes, sir.
- Q Have you any proof that you want to introduce now? A Nothing only this; I brought this along to see if it was needed.

Sworn statement of James Phillips the father of this applicant, presented, received, marked exhibit "A" filed, and made a part of the record in this case.

- Q You spoke about your grandmother being old? A Yes, sir; she is more than one-hundred years old.
- Q Do you want to have time extended in which to furnish other evidence? A If it is needed I want time.

A reasonable time will be allowed this applicant in which to furnish further testimony if presented under the rules of the Commission.

- Q Do you speak the Choctaw language? A No, sir; I can speak it very little; only what I heard since I have been here.
- Q You don't speak it well enough to carry on a conversation with a Choctaw? A I work in a store and I can speak just enough to sell them things.

This applicant has the appearance and physical characteristics of being descended from white parentage; ruddy complexion; light hair; blue eyes. He does not speak the Choctaw language and has no knowledge of compliance on the part of his ancestors with the provisions of article fourteen of the treaty of 1830.

J. C. Kirkpatrick,

Hugo, Indian Territory,

Dear Sir:

Receipt is hereby acknowledged of your letter of the thirteenth instant, asking if Julian Phillips, formerly of Goodland, Indian Territory, is enrolled as a Mississippi Choctaw and entitled to share in the lands of the Choctaw Tribe when the same are allotted.

In reply to your letter you are advised that it appears from the records of our office that Julian Phillips is an applicant for the identification of himself and two minor children as Mississippi Choctaws, but no decision has yet been reached or opinion rendered relative to their rights as such Mississippi Choctaws.

The act of Congress of May 31, 1900, provides:

"That any Mississippi Choctaw duly identified as such by the United States Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes shall have the right, at any time prior to the approval of the final rolls of the Choctaws and Chickasaws by the Secretary of the Interior, to make settlement within the Choctaw-Chickasaw country, and on proof of the fact of bona fide settlement may be enrolled by the said United States Commission and by the Secretary of the Interior as Choctaws entitled to allotment."

Yours truly,

Commissioner in Charge.

Julian Phillips,

Goodland, Indian Territory.

Dear Sir:

You are hereby advised that on the 13th day of July, 1902, the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes rendered a decision in the consolidated case of James Phillips, et al., embracing the following applications for identification as Mississippi Choctaws:

James Phillips,	M.C.R. 3456
Julian Phillips, et al.,	" 4697
Levi B. Phillips, et al.,	" 3659

These applications were made under the provision of the act of Congress of June 26, 1896 (30 Stats. 495) which is as follows:

"Said Commission shall have authority to determine the identity of Choctaw Indians claiming rights in the Choctaw lands under article fourteen of the treaty between the United States and the Choctaw Nation, concluded September twenty-seventh, eighteen hundred and thirty, and to that end may administer oaths, examine witnesses and perform all other acts necessary thereto, and make report to the Secretary of the Interior."

Said decision concludes as follows:

"It is, therefore, the opinion of this Commission that the evidence herein is insufficient to determine the identity of James Phillips, Julian Phillips, Leola Phillips, Mackie Phillips, Levi B. Phillips, Clarence Phillips, Lola Phillips, Russell Sage Phillips and James Gordon Bennett Phillips, as Cheater Indians entitled to rights in the Cheater lands under the provisions of said article fourteen of the treaty of 1860, and that the applications for their identification as such should be refused, and it is so ordered."

You are further advised that the Commission has on this date forwarded the report in this case to the Secretary of the Interior for review and you will be informed in due time of such action as may be taken by him.

Yours truly,

(SIGNED).

Dear Sir:

Receipt is hereby acknowledged of your letter of the 25th instant, in which you ask to be advised "if the name of Julian Phillips is registered as a Choctaw Indian."

In reply you are informed that it appears from our records that on February 13, 1902, Julian Phillips, thirty-two years of age, post office address Goodland, Indian Territory, made application to this Commission for the identification of himself and two minor children as Mississippi Choctaws. Said application being included in the consolidated Mississippi Choctaw case of James Phillips, et al.

On July 12, 1902, the Commission rendered its decision refusing the applications of the several persons included in said consolidated case, and on the same date the applicants were duly notified of the action of the Commission and of the forwarding of the record to the Secretary of the Interior.

On March 7, 1903, the Secretary of the Interior approved the decision of the Commission refusing said case, and on March 19,

Q Have you ever made application for citizenship in the Choctaw Nation for yourself and children to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes under the act of Congress of June 10, 1896? A No, sir.
Q Have you or these children ever been admitted to citizenship in the Choctaw Nation by either the Choctaw tribal authorities, the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes or the United States Court in Indian Territory? A No, sir.
Q Do you now come before the Commission to identify yourself and these children as Mississippi Choctaws claiming under article fourteen of the treaty of 1830? A Yes, sir.
Q Do you understand that article of that treaty? A Not thoroughly.

The treaty of 1830, some times called the treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek because it was made at a place of that name, in the state of Mississippi in 1830 on the 27th day of September of that year was a treaty, the principal object of which was the removal of the Choctaw Indians who lived in the old Choctaw Nation partly in Mississippi and partly in Alabama to the Choctaw Nation Indian Territory. Before the treaty was signed it became known that a good many Choctaw Indians would not go to the Choctaw Nation, Indian Territory with the other Indians who removed under the provisions of the treaty of 1830 and in order to protect their interests article fourteen was drafted and put into the treaty of 1830. It was then signed, on the 27th of September of that year and afterwards on the 24th day of February 1831 it was ratified. The provisions of that article are as follows:

"Each Choctaw head of a family being desirous to remain and become a citizen of the states shall be permitted to do so, by signifying his intention to the Agent within six months from the ratification of this treaty and he or she shall thereupon be entitled to a reservation of one section of six hundred and forty acres of land to be bounded by sectional lines of survey; in like manner shall be entitled to one half that quantity for each unmarried child which is living with him over ten years of age and a quarter section to such child as may be under ten years of age to adjoin the location of the parent. If they reside upon said lands intending to become citizens of the states for five years after the ratification of this treaty in that case a grant in fee simple shall issue; said reservation shall include the present improvement of the head of the family or a portion of it. Persons who claim under this article shall not lose the privilege of a Choctaw citizen but if they ever remove are not to be entitled to any portion of the Choctaw annuity."

- Q Do you think you understand that now? A I think so.
- Q Did any of your ancestors comply with the provisions of that article as read and explained to you? A I am not able to say.
- Q What is the name of your ancestor through whom you claim your right to be identified? A Sarah Booth.
- Q Did she live in Mississippi in 1830? A It is my information she did.
- Q Did she have a family there at that time? A Yes, sir.
- Q How much Choctaw blood did she have? A One-half.
- Q Do you know where she lived in Mississippi at that time? A I don't know.
- Q Did she speak the Choctaw language? A I don't know.
- Q Did she have a Choctaw Indian name to your knowledge? A Not that I know of.
- Q What relation was she to you? A My great grandmother.
- Q Do you claim through your father? A Yes, sir.
- Q And he used to live in Mississippi? A Yes, sir.
- Q Through whom did he claim; his father or mother? A On his father's side.
- Q And Sarah Booth was his father's mother? A My great grandfather married a Walker.
- Q Your great grandfather's name was what? A George W. Ellis
- Q Her maiden name then was Sarah Booth? A I suppose it is.
- Q Well this is your great grandmother and as you claim through the male line she must have married an Ellis;----Well I don't know who Sarah Booth is, you have to straighten that out? A I have a letter here that will straighten it out.
- Q Your name is George W. Ellis? A Yes, sir.
- Q And you claim through your father George W. Ellis? A Yes, sir.
- Q He claims through his father or mother, which? A His father.
- Q What was his father's name? A George W. Ellis.
- Q And he claims through which parent father or mother? A Through his mother.
- Q What was his mother's maiden name? A That I could not tell you.
- Q Well there is an inconsistency in your statement here; you claim through your great grandmother; what was her name? A Sarah Booth was her maiden name, she married a Walker.

- Q Do you know the given name of Walker? A I don't know.
- Q What proof have you that Sarah Walker, whose maiden name was Booth, lived in Mississippi in 1830 and had a family of children there at that time? A From an old lady named Mrs. Williams who appeared before the Commission at Meridian. Ada Williams I believe is her name.
- Q Did you get that information from anybody in the family? A From his aunt.
- Q What was that aunt's name? A Mrs. Jane Burford.
- Q Has she made application for identification as a Mississippi Choctaw? A She has through her son-in-law William J. Self.
- Q Where was that? A Meridian, Mississippi.
- Q Did any of your Choctaw ancestors own any improvements on land in Mississippi or Alabama in 1830? A I don't know.
- Q Did any of them within six months after the ratification of the treaty of 1830 go to the United States Indian Agent Colonel Ward and tell him that they wanted to stay in Mississippi, take land there and become citizens of the United States? A I don't know.
- Q Did you ever hear that any of your Choctaw ancestors left that old Choctaw Nation East of the Mississippi River and went to the Choctaw Nation Indian Territory between the years 1833 and 1838? A I don't know.
- Q Did any of your Choctaw ancestors own any land or claim any in Mississippi or Alabama under article fourteen of the treaty of 1830? A I don't know.
- Q Did they own any land or claim any under any other article of the treaty of 1830 than article fourteen or under the supplement of that treaty? A I don't know.
- Q Did any of your Choctaw ancestors claim any benefits as Choctaw Indians under any treaty made between the United States government and the Choctaw tribe of Indians other than the treaty of 1830? A I don't know.

The Indians who remained in the state of Mississippi, after the treaty of 1830 was ratified, refusing to go to the Choctaw Nation Indian Territory with the other Indians under that treaty, were required, if they wanted to take advantage of the provisions of article fourteen of that treaty, to go to the United States Indian Agent Colonel Ward within six months from the ratification of the treaty and tell him that they wanted to stay there in the state of Mississippi, take land and wanted to become citizens of the United States. A good many Indians did this whose names Colonel Ward failed to put upon his list known as Ward's register. His neglect to make a proper record of the names of all Choctaw Indians who claimed under article fourteen and who went to him within six months from the ratification of the treaty and so declared their intention caused a good many Indians who had land in Mississippi, upon which they had improvements, to lose them, for both were taken from them and sold by the government at its public land sales. This caused a great many complaints among the Choctaw Indians so that in 1837 by act of March 3, of that year Congress appointed a Commission which went to Mississippi and heard claimants under article fourteen of the treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek. In 1842 by act approved August 23rd of that year Congress appointed another Commission for the same purpose.

- Q Did any of your Choctaw ancestors go before either of these two Commissions and claim benefits as Choctaw Indians? A I don't know.

The act of Congress approved August 23, 1842, provided; that if any Choctaw Indian proved his claim under article fourteen of the treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek; if it also further appeared that he had had land in Mississippi which the government had taken from him and sold at its public land sales, that he should be entitled to select land either in Mississippi, Alabama, Louisiana or Arkansas, to be taken from vacant government lands and that a certificate to that effect should be given him. These certificates were called scrip.

- Q Did any of your Choctaw ancestors receive any such scrip from the government as Choctaw Indians? A I don't know.
- Q You never heard of it? A No, sir.
- Q Have you any relatives who have been here before the Commission to be identified as Mississippi Choctaws? A Not here but at Meridian.
- Q Before the Commission at Meridian? A Yes, sir.
- Q Now will you name them? A William J. Self, he was before the Commission in the interest of his children. He claims no Indian blood himself.
- Q Any others? A No, sir; I don't know of any others.
- Q That is all the relatives to have who have applied? A That is all I know of.
- Q Do you want to have their cases and this other case of relatives who have applied considered with yours when your record is taken up for consideration? A Yes, sir.
- Q Have you any evidence of any kind that you want to introduce now other than your own testimony? A No, sir.
- Q Do you want time in which to present other proof?

By attorney "Yes".

A reasonable time will be allowed this applicant in which to offer further evidence if presented under the rules of the Commission.

- Q Do you speak the Choctaw language? A No, sir.
- Q Is there anything more you want to say in support of this claim? A No, sir.

This applicant has the appearance and physical characteristics of being descended from white parentage; dark ruddy complexion; dark brown hair and dark brown eyes. He has no knowledge of the Choctaw language and no knowledge of compliance on the part of his ancestors with the provisions of article fourteen of the treaty of 1830.

G. Rosenwinkel being duly sworn on his oath states that as stenographer to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes he reported in full all the proceedings had in the above entitled cause on February 14, 1902, and that the above and foregoing is a full, true and correct transcript of his stenographic notes in said cause on said date of February 1902.

Q Now please state what was your great-grandfather's name?
A Joshua J. Ellis.
Q Did you know at the time that you gave this testimony, the name of your great-grandfather or did you simply inadvertently give it wrong? A Inadvertently gave it wrong.
Q Was there any other mistake given in the testimony at that time?
A That's all I know of.
Q That's the only one you desire to correct at this time?
A Yes sir.

Applicant excused.

Applicant, George W. Ellis, Sr., being recalled, testified as follows:

#2.

Examination by attorney Hudson:

- Q When you were examined before the Commission on February 14, 1902, you stated that your father and mother were married in De Soto County, Mississippi; was that correct? A No sir.
- Q What county were they married in? A Marshall County.
- Q At the time you appeared, February 14, 1902, you were given time to furnish your marriage license between yourself and Louisa Ellis; have you that license now? A Yes sir.

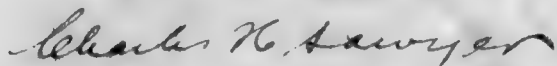

Here attorney for applicant asks leave to file the marriage license of George W. Ellis and Miss Louisa Warren, and asks that the same be marked Exhibit "A" and made a part of the record in this case.

By the Commission:

Motion granted and said paper received, filed and marked Exhibit "A" in this case.

Albert G. McMillan, being first duly sworn, states that as stenographer to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes he reported the proceedings had in the above entitled cause on the 12th day of May, 1902, and that the above and foregoing is a full, true and correct transcript of his stenographic notes taken in said cause on said date.

Department of the Interior,
Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes,
Meridian, Mississippi, February 10, 1902.

In the matter of the application of Charley Moore for the identification of himself alone as a Mississippi Choctaw.

Charley Moore, having been first duly sworn, upon his oath testified as follows:

Examination by the Commission.

- Q What is your name? A Charley Moore.
- Q How old are you? A Twenty eight years old.
- Q How much Choctaw blood have you? A I couldn't exactly tell you how much I has, as I can't tell you about my mether, and you can judge.
- Q How much did your mether have? A My mether claimed to have three quarters, and my grand mether was whole.
- Q Did your father have any Choctaw blood? A I don't know, sir.
- Q You have three eighths, then, have you? A I guess so.
- Q What's your post office address? A Waynesboro, Mississippi.
- Q What county? A Wayne County.
- Q How long have you lived in Wayne County? A I been living there about fifteen years now.
- Q Where did you live before that? A In Choctaw Alabama.
- Q Choctaw County, Alabama? A Yes, sir.
- Q How long did you live there? A From the time I was about twelve years, I guess, I was quite a boy when we left there.
- Q You were born there then? A Yes, sir.
- Q Is your father living? A Yes, sir.
- Q What's his name? A Selemen Moore.
- Q Has he any Choctaw blood? A Not as I knows of.
- Q Was he a slave? A Yes, sir.
- Q Your mether living? A Yes, sir.
- Q What's her name? A Julia Moore.
- Q Has she been before the Commission? A Yes, sir.
- Q When? A I guess it has been about, - Oh! since you all stayed here. She written for me to come; I was down in South Africa, and she wrote me to come home, and I didn't know what it was for.
- Q About how old is your mether? A About sixty five years old.
- Q Where does she live? A She lives in Waynesboro, Mississippi.
- Q Where was she born? A In Choctaw County, Alabama.
- Q She lived in Alabama and Mississippi all her life? A Yes, sir.
- Q Was she a slave? A Yes, sir.
- Q What was her father's name? A I don't know her father's name.
- Q How much Choctaw blood did he have? A I don't know, sir.
- Q What was your mether's mether's name? A Indian Betsey.
- Q How much Choctaw blood did she have? A She was full.
- Q How long has she been dead? A I couldn't tell you.
- Q You never saw her, did you? A No, sir, I never saw her.
- Q Do you know where she lived during her life time? A She lived in Choctaw County a while, and she died in Mobile, Alabama.
- Q She was a slave? A Yes, something, I couldn't tell.
- Q Are you married? A No, sir.

Charley Moore, 2.

Q Never have been married? A No, sir.

Q This application, then, is for yourself only is it? A Yes, sir.

Q Is your name, on any of the Choctaw tribal rolls in Indian Territory? A I don't know, sir.

Q Did you ever make any application of any description? A No, sir, I never have.

Q Before to-day, looking to the establishment of your rights as a Choctaw Indian? A No, sir, never have.

Q Do you appear before the Commission at this time for the purpose of claiming rights in the Choctaw lands, in Indian Territory under article 14 of the treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek? A Yes, sir.

Q Do you understand article 14 of the treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek? A No, sir, I don't know.

The treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek was entered into here in Mississippi on the 27th day of September, 1830, between the United States Government and the Choctaw tribe of Indians. At the time this treaty was made, the Choctaws lived here in Mississippi and along the western edge of the State of Alabama. The object of the treaty was to get these Indians to move out west of the Mississippi River to what is now known as the Choctaw Nation, Indian Territory. At the time the treaty was made, some of the Indians were unwilling to leave here, and for the benefit of these who wanted to stay here, what is known as the 14th article was put in that treaty. That 14th article provided that upon certain conditions, a Choctaw who wanted to stay here in Mississippi, might receive land here in Mississippi from the Government. It is as follows:

"Each Choctaw head of a family being desirous to remain and become a citizen of the States shall be permitted to do so by signifying his intention to the agent within six months from the ratification of this treaty, and he or she shall thereupon be entitled to a reservation of one section of six hundred and forty acres of land, to be bounded by sectional lines of survey; in like manner shall be entitled to one-half that quantity for each unmarried child which is living with him over ten years of age; and a quarter section to such child as may be under ten years of age, to adjoin the location of the parent. If they reside upon said land, intending to become citizens of the States for five years after the ratification of this treaty, in that case a grant in fee simple shall issue; said reservation shall include the present improvement of the head of the family, or a portion of it. Persons who claim under this article shall not lose the privilege of a Choctaw citizen, but if they ever remove are not to be entitled to any portion of the Choctaw annuity."

Q I have quoted to you the 14th article of the treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek. Do you understand it? A Part of it.

Well, now, if a Choctaw who lived here seventy one years ago when this treaty was made, wanted to stay here in

Charley Moore, 3.

Mississippi and not move out to the new nation, and wanted to take land under the 14th article, he was required by the terms of that article to let the agent of the Government here in Mississippi know that he wanted to stay here and he must do that within six months from the time the treaty was ratified, and the treaty was ratified on the 24th day of February, 1831. Now, after he had so let the agent know that he wanted to stay here, he was entitled to a reservation of one section of six hundred and forty acres of land, to be bounded by sectional lines of survey; in like manner he was entitled to one-half that quantity for each unmarried child which was living with him over ten years of age, and a quarter section to such child as was under ten years of age, to adjoin the location of the parent. These reservations for each child must adjoin the location of the parent, and the reservations must include the improvement of the parent as it existed on the 27th day of September, 1830, the day the treaty was made. Now, if the Indian lived on that land intending to become citizens of the States for five years from the ratification of this treaty, five years from February 24, 1831, in that case a grant in fee simple should issue; that is, the Government would give the Indian a deed or patent to the land, and it became the property of the Indian. The 14th article provided further that persons who claimed under that article should not lose the privilege of a Choctaw citizen, but if he ever removed, that is, if he ever went out to the new nation west of the Mississippi, he should not be entitled to any portion of the Choctaw annuity. The Choctaw annuity is money paid each year to the Choctaws by the Government of the United States under treaty provisions

Q Did any of your ancestors ever comply or attempt to comply with the provisions of article 14 of the treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek, or ever receive any benefits under that article? A No, sir.

Q Did any of them own an improvement here in the old Choctaw Nation in Mississippi and Alabama, in the year 1830, when this treaty was made? A My grand father did, so I learned. I don't know.

Q Where did he own an improvement? A In Alabama; I don't know what part it was or anything.

Q What part of Alabama? A Lower edge of Choctaw County, adjoining Wilcox County.

Q Wasn't your grand father a slave? A I don't think he was; he was put into a slave; my mother said he was free one while, and he was bound down and took in, - taken in, and after he was taken in about six months, so I learn, he was killed; his name I don't know, at all.

Q Where was he living seventy one years ago? A Oh! I don't know exactly; I couldn't tell you, I might make a mistake.

Q You don't know what that improvement that he owned here seventy one years ago consisted of? A No, sir.

Q What makes you think he owned an improvement here seventy one years ago? A Because my uncle so told me.

Q When? A My uncle, he lives in Mobile.

Q When did he tell you that? A Five or six years ago. He has a son in this town now.

Q What was that uncle's name? A William Singleton.

Charley Moore, 4.

Q Is he a Choctaw? A Yes, sir.

Q Full brother of your mother? A Yes, sir.

Q Has he been up here? A No, sir, he hasn't been up here. I saw him when I was coming through.

Q Did any of your ancestors remove from the old Choctaw Nation, here in Mississippi and Alabama, to the present Choctaw Nation, in Indian Territory, at the time of the removal of the greater portion of the Choctaw tribe of Indians between the years 1833 and 1838? A Yes, sir, - I don't know, sir.

Q Did any of them within six months after the treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek was made, let the agent of the Government here in Mississippi know the Choctaws knew that they wanted to stay here in Mississippi and become citizens of the States and take land? A I don't know, sir.

Q Did any of them ever claim or receive any land here in Mississippi from the Government of the United States? A No, sir.

Q Or any money from the Government? A No, sir.

Q So far as you know, then, none of your ancestors ever received any benefits whatever as Choctaw Indians? A No, sir.

Q

In accordance with the provisions of article 14 of the treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek, the Government of the United States directed an agent here in Mississippi to register the names of such Choctaws as might desire to remain here and become citizens of the States and take land. The records of the Government show that this agent failed to register and report to the Government, the names of many Indians who did in fact let him know that they wanted to stay here and become citizens of the States and take land, and on this account the Government at its public land sales here in Mississippi, in many instances, sold land upon which Choctaws lived and had improvements, and which they supposed they would receive under article 14 of the treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek. This caused a great deal of complaint among the Indians, and the matter was finally brought to the attention of Congress and Congress passed ~~an act~~ certain acts between the years 1837 and 1842, providing for the appointment of commissions to come down here to Mississippi and hear the cases of Choctaws who claimed that they were entitled to land under article 14 of the treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek, but that their land had been sold by the Government. These commissions were duly appointed by the President of the United States and the commissioners came down here to Mississippi between the years 1837 and 1845, and heard a great many of these Choctaw cases.

Q Did any of your ancestors appear before either of these commissions, and attempt to establish their rights under article 14 of the treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek? A No, sir.

Q Sure of that, are you? A Yes, sir, I am sure to my best knowledge

Q You never heard of it, if they did? A No, sir.

An Act of Congress approved on the 23rd day of August,

Charley Moore, 5.

1842, provided that in case it should be finally determined that a Choctaw had complied in all respects with the provisions of article 14 of the treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek but that his land had been sold by the Government, he should be entitled to select in the place of that land so sold by the Government, land some place else here in Mississippi, or in Alabama, Louisiana, or Arkansas, from vacant Government land, and should be given a certificate to that effect. These certificates were called scrip.

Q Did any of your ancestors ever receive any of this scrip from the Government of the United States under this Act of Congress? A No, sir, not as I know of.

Q Do you know of any old person living who would likely know whether any of your ancestors ever complied or attempted to comply with the provisions of article 14 of the treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek, or ever received any benefits thereunder? A No, sir.

Q Do you know of any written evidence of any kind which would prove or tend to prove such a state of facts? A No, sir, I don't know.

Q Have you any written evidence of any description to offer at this time? A No, sir.

Q Have you any witnesses here to-day? A No, sir.

If you should find any witnesses whose testimony you desire to have taken by the Commission, they may appear before the Commission here in Meridian, Mississippi, before the 15th of this month, or within a reasonable time thereafter at the General office of the Commission, in Muskogee, Indian Territory, and their testimony will be taken.

Q Have you any brothers or sisters living? A Yes, sir.

Q How many? A Seven or eight.

Q Name them? A Jane Chambers, Hester Breadax.

Q Next one? A Aslene Harris.

Q Next? A Winnie Sexton.

Q Next? A Mollie Pettis, Allen Moore, Walter Moore.

Q That's all? A Yes, sir.

Q Any of your mother's brothers or sisters living? A No, sir.

Q Didn't you say one of her brothers was living in Mobile? A He is dead now; he died - I come through in September. William Singleton, he has a son here in Meridian by the name of William Singleton.

Q Are any other of his children living besides this one here in Meridian? A He has got one - yes, there is another one living, but I don't know his name. He had a boy by the name of Charley Singleton.

Q Did your mother ever have any other full brothers or sisters? A No, sir.

Q Do you speak or understand the Choctaw language? A No, sir.

Q Can your mother? A Yes, sir, she can understand it, but aint none of them can understand what she says.

(This applicant has the appearance of being a negro, and shows no indication of being possessed of Indian blood. He does not speak or understand the Choctaw language.)

Charley Moore, 6.

Charley Moore,
Waynesboro, Mississippi.

Dear Sir:

You are hereby advised that on the 2nd day of January, 1903, the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes rendered a decision in the consolidated case of Julia Moore, et al., embracing the following applications for identification as Mississippi Choctaws:

Julia Moore,
Charley Moore,

M.C.R. 1859
M.C.R. 4699

These applications were made under the provision of the act of Congress of June 28, 1898 (30 Stats., 495), which is as follows:

"Said Commission shall have authority to determine the identity of Choctaw Indians claiming rights in the Choctaw lands under article fourteen of the treaty between the United States and the Choctaw Nation, concluded September twenty-seventh, eighteen hundred and thirty, and to that end may administer oaths, examine witnesses and perform all other acts necessary thereto, and make report to the Secretary of the Interior."

Said decision concludes as follows:

"It is therefore the opinion of this Commission that the evidence herein is insufficient to determine the identity of Julia Moore and Charley Moore as Choctaw Indians entitled to rights in the Choctaw lands under article fourteen of the treaty of eighteen hundred and thirty, and that the applications for their identification as such should be refused, and it is so ordered."

Charley Moore-3

You are further advised that you will be allowed fifteen days from the date hereof within which to file arguments in this office, and that at the expiration of said time the papers in the case, together with such arguments, will be forwarded to the Secretary of the Interior through the Commissioner of Indian Affairs.

Q This application, then, is for yourself and wife? A Yes.

Q Is your name, or your wife's name, on any of the Choctaw tribal rolls in Indian Territory? A I don't know.

Q Did you ever make any application of any description for yourself or wife before to-day looking to the establishment of your rights as Choctaw Indians? A No.

Q Do you appear before the Commission at this time for the purpose of claiming rights in the Choctaw lands in Indian Territory for yourself and wife under article 14 of the treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek? A Yes.

Q Do you understand article 14 of the treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek? A No.

This treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek was entered into here in Mississippi on the 27th day of September 1830, over seventy one years ago, between the United States Government and the Choctaw tribe of Indians. At the time this treaty was made, the Choctaws lived here in Mississippi and along the western edge of the State of Alabama. The object of this treaty was to get these Indians to move from the country occupied by them here in Mississippi and Alabama to a new country west of the Mississippi River, a part of which is now occupied by the greater portion of the Choctaw tribe of Indians and is commonly known as the Choctaw Nation, Indian Territory. At the time the treaty was made, some of the Choctaws were unwilling to leave this country, and for the benefit of those who wanted to stay here, what is known as the 14th article was put in the treaty. That 14th article provided that upon certain conditions, a Choctaw who wanted to stay here in Mississippi might receive land here in Mississippi from the Government. It is as follows:

John Rainbow, et al., 3.

"Each Choctaw head of a family being desirous to remain and become a citizen of the States shall be permitted to do so by signifying his intention to the agent within six months from the ratification of this treaty, and he or she shall thereupon be entitled to a reservation of one section of six hundred and forty acres of land, to be bounded by sectional lines of survey; in like manner shall be entitled to one-half that quantity for each unmarried child which is living with him over ten years of age; and a quarter section to such child as may be under ten years of age, to adjoin the location of the parent. If they reside upon said lands intending to become citizens of the States for five years after the ratification of this treaty, in that case a grant in fee simple shall issue; said reservation shall include the present improvement of the head of the family, or a portion of it. Persons who claim under this article shall not lose the privilege of a Choctaw citizen, but if they ever remove are not to be entitled to any portion of the Choctaw annuity."

- Q I have quoted to you the 14th article of that treaty. Do you understand it? A Yes.
- Q Did any of your ancestors, or any of your wife's ancestors, ever comply or attempt to comply with its provisions, or ever receive any benefits under that article? A I don't know.
- Q Did any of them own an improvement here at that time? A I don't know.
- Q Did any of them, in fact, live here then? Seventy one years ago? A I don't know nothing about it.
- Q Did any of them remove from the old Choctaw Nation, here in Mississippi and Alabama, to the present Choctaw Nation, in Indian Territory, at the time of the removal of the greater portion of the Choctaw tribe of Indians between the years, 1833 and 1838? A I don't know nothing about it.
- Q Did any of them, within six months after the treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek was ratified, let the agent of the Government here in Mississippi for the Choctaws know that they wanted to stay here and become citizens of the States and take land? A I don't know.
- Q Did any of them ever get any land here in Mississippi from the Government of the United States under this 14th article of the treaty? A If they get it, they bought it.

John Rainbow, et al., 4.

Q Did they under this 14th article? A I don't know; he never heard him say nothing about him.

Q If they ever get any land here in Mississippi from the Government you never heard of it, then? A No, never seen him get it.

Q Did any of them ever get any money from the Government? A I don't know what he done.

In accordance with the provisions of article 14 of the treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek, the Government of the United States directed an agent here in Mississippi to register the names of such Choctaws as might desire to remain here and become citizens of the States and take land. The records of the ~~State~~ Government show that this agent failed to register and report to the Government the names of many Indians who did, in fact, let him know that they wanted to stay here and become citizens of the States and take land, and on this account, the Government at its public land sales here in Mississippi, in many instances, sold land upon which Choctaws lived and had improvements, and which they supposed they would receive under article 14 of the treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek. This caused a great deal of complaint among the Indians, and the matter was finally brought to the attention of Congress and Congress passed certain acts between the years 1837 and 1842, providing for the appointment of commissions to come down here to Mississippi and hear the cases of Choctaws who claimed that they had complied in all respects with the provisions of article 14 of the treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek, but that their land had been sold by the Government. These commissioners were duly appointed by the President of the United States and they came down here to Mississippi and heard a great many of these Choctaw cases.

Q Did any of your ancestors, or any of your wife's ancestors, appear before either of these commissions and attempt to establish their right under article 14 of the treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek? A No, not before this time, I reckon.

Q Not that you know of? A No, I don't know nothing about him at that time.

An Act of Congress approved August 23, 1842, provided that in case it should be finally determined that a Choctaw had complied in all respects with the provisions of article 14 of the treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek, but that his land had been sold by the Government, he should ~~not~~ be entitled to receive in the place of that land certain land some place else here in Mississippi, or in Alabama, or Louisiana or Arkansas, from vacant Government lands, and should be given a certificate to that effect. These certificates were called scrip.

Q Did any of your ancestors, or any of your wife's ancestors, ever get any of this scrip from the Government of the United States under this Act of Congress? A I reckon not.

John Rainbow, et al., 5.

Q So far as you know, then, none of your ancestors and none of your wife's ancestors, ever received any benefits as Choctaw Indians?

A No, he ne get him.

Q Do you know of any old person living who would likely know whether any of your ancestors, or any of your wife's ancestors, ever complied or attempted to comply with the provisions of article 14 of the treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek, or ever received any benefits thereunder? A I don't know.

Q Have you any written evidence of any kind which ~~you~~would prove or tend to prove such a state of facts? Any papers, deeds, patents, or anything of that kind? A I don't know.

Q Haven't any such things? A I don't know.

Q Have you any witnesses here to-day? A No, I just raised up boy I don't know.

If you should find any witnesses whose testimony you desire to have taken by the Commission, they may appear before the Commission here at Meridian, Mississippi, before the 15th of this month, or within a reasonable time thereafter at the General Office of the Commission, in Muskegee, Indian Territory, and their testimony will be taken.

Q Have you any brothers or sisters living? A I got sister living.

Q Where does she live? A She live up in Nesheba.

Q What's her name? A Martha.

Q What other name? A I ~~done~~ forget the last name - he married; been long time.

Q That's all the sisters you have living? A Yes, just one.

Q Any brothers living? A No.

Q Any of your father's brothers or sisters or any of their children living? A I don't know.

Q Any of your mother's brothers or sisters, or any of their children living? A I don't know.

(From the appearance of this applicant, it would seem that Indian blood largely predominates; he speaks and understands the Choctaw language fairly well, and also speaks and understands English; his hair is perfectly straight. He looks as if he might have a small proportion of either white or negro blood, although he stoutly maintains that he is a full blood Choctaw.

In the matter of the application of John Rainbow, et al.,
for identification as Mississippi Choctaws, M.C.R. 4700.

---: D E C I S I O N :---

It appears from the record herein that application for identification as Mississippi Choctaws was made to this Commission on February 10, 1902, by John Rainbow for himself and his wife, Bettie Rainbow, under the following provision of the act of Congress approved June 28, 1898 (30 Stats., 495):

"Said Commission shall have authority to determine the identity of Choctaw Indians claiming rights in the Choctaw lands under article fourteen of the treaty between the United States and the Choctaw Nation, concluded September twenty-seventh, eighteen hundred and thirty, and to that end may administer oaths, examine witnesses and perform all other acts necessary thereto and make report to the Secretary of the Interior."

From the evidence submitted in support of said application it appears that John Rainbow is a full-blood Mississippi Choctaw Indian. The other applicant is a mixed-blood Choctaw, and as such does not come within the purview of section forty-one of the act of Congress approved July 1, 1902, (32 Stats., 641). Whatever rights as a Mississippi Choctaw she may possess by reason of being a mixed-blood Choctaw will be determined at a later date.

Section forty-one of the act of Congress entitled "An Act to ratify and confirm an agreement with the Choctaw and Chickasaw tribes of Indians, and for other purposes," approved July 1, 1902, (32 Stats., 641), and ratified by the Choctaw and Chickasaw Nations September 25, 1902, provides as follows:

"The application of no person for identification as a Mississippi Choctaw shall be received by said Commission after six months subsequent to the date of the final ratification of this agreement and in the disposition of such applications all full-blood Mississippi Choctaw Indians, and the descendants of any Mississippi Choctaw Indians whether of full or mixed blood who received a patent to land under the said fourteenth article of the said treaty of eighteen hundred and thirty who had not moved to and made bona fide settlement in the Choctaw-Chickasaw country prior to June twenty-eighth, eighteen hundred and ninety-eight, shall be deemed to be Mississippi Choctaws, entitled to benefits under article fourteen of the said treaty of September twenty-seventh, eighteen hundred and thirty, and to identification as such by said Commission, but this direction or provision shall be deemed to be only a rule of evidence and shall not be invoked by or operate to the advantage of any applicant who is not a Mississippi Choctaw of the full blood, or who is not the descendant of a Mississippi Choctaw who received a patent to land under said treaty, or who is otherwise barred from the right of citizenship in the Choctaw Nation, all of said Mississippi Choctaws so enrolled by said Commission shall be upon a separate roll."

It is therefore the opinion of this Commission that John Rainbow should be identified as a Mississippi Choctaw, and it is so ordered.

In the matter of the application of John Rainbow, et al., for identification as Mississippi Choctaws, M.C.R. 4700.

---: D E C I S I O N :---

It appears from the record herein that application for identification as Mississippi Choctaws was made to this Commission by John Rainbow for himself and his wife, Bettie Rainbow, under the following provision of the act of Congress approved June 28, 1898, (30 Stats., 495):

"Said Commission shall have authority to determine the identity of Choctaw Indians claiming rights in the Choctaw lands under article fourteen of the treaty between the United States and the Choctaw Nation, concluded September twenty-seventh, eighteen hundred and thirty, and to that end may administer oaths, examine witnesses, and perform all other acts necessary thereto and make report to the Secretary of the Interior."

From the records of the Commission it appears that the principal applicant, John Rainbow, who is a full-blood Mississippi Choctaw Indian, was, on July 16, 1904, duly identified as a Mississippi Choctaw, under the provisions of Section forty-one of the act of Congress approved July 1, 1902, (32 Stats., 641). The evidence herein shows that the other applicant is a mixed-blood Choctaw and as such does not come within the purview of said section.

It also appears that Bettie Rainbow claims rights in the Choctaw lands under article fourteen of the treaty between the United States and the Choctaw Nation, concluded September twenty-seventh, eighteen hundred and thirty, by reason of being a descendant of Solomon Leflore and Susan Leflore, both of whom are alleged to have been one-quarter blood Choctaw Indians.

It further appears from the evidence submitted in support of said application, and from the records in the possession of the Commission, that said applicant has never been enrolled by the Choctaw tribal authorities as a member of the Choctaw tribe, or admitted to Choctaw Citizenship by a duly constituted court or committee of the Choctaw Nation, or by the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes, or by a decree of the United States Court in Indian Territory, under the provisions of the act of Congress approved June 10, 1896 (29 Stats., 321), nor is the applicant herein a party litigant before the Choctaw-Chickasaw Citizenship Court created under the act of Congress approved July 1, 1902, (32 Stats., 641).

It does not appear from the testimony and evidence offered in support of said application, or from the records in the possession of the Commission, relating to persons who complied or attempted to comply with the provisions of said article fourteen of the treaty of eighteen hundred and thirty, and to persons who heretofore were claimants thereunder, that the said Solomon Leflore, or Susan Leflore signified (in person or by proxy) to Colonel Wm. Ward, Indian agent, Choctaw agency, an intention to comply with the provisions of said article fourteen or presented a claim to rights thereunder to either of the Commissions authorized to adjudicate such claims by the acts of

Congress approved March 3, 1837 (5 Stats., 180) and August 23, 1842 (5 Stats., 513).

It is therefore the opinion of this Commission that the evidence herein is insufficient to determine the identity of Pettie Rainbow, as a Choctaw Indian entitled to rights in the Choctaw lands under the provisions of said article fourteen of the treaty of eighteen hundred and thirty, and that the application for her identification as such should be refused, and it is so ordered.

Dear Madam:

Receipt is hereby acknowledged of your letter of November 14, relative to your rights as a Choctaw Indian. In reply you are advised that it does not appear from our records that you are an applicant to this Commission for identification as a Mississippi Choctaw, under the name of Dinah Crawford. If you are an applicant, kindly advise the Commission when, where, and under what name you made application, and the names of other members of your family who are also applicants. Upon receipt of this information your letter will receive further consideration.

You refer to the claim of Johnnie Rainbo, and you are advised that it appears from our records that he is a full blood Choctaw Indian and an applicant to this Commission for identification as a Mississippi Choctaw. The Commission has not yet passed upon his right to identification as a full blood Mississippi Choctaw.

Dear Madam:

Receipt is hereby acknowledged of your letter of the 13th instant, stating that you do not understand the letter you received from this office notifying you that fifteen days would be allowed within which to file argument in support of your claim. You ask if there will be any use for you and Johnny Rainbow to come to the Indian Territory.

In reply you are informed that the purpose of our letter to you under date of September 16, 1904, was to notify you that the Commission had refused your application for identification as a Mississippi Choctaw and that the record in your case would be held for fifteen days in order that you might file written arguments, if you so desired, to be forwarded with the record to the Secretary of the Interior.

The record in your case, together with the decision of the Commission refusing your application was, on October 3, 1904, forwarded to the Secretary of the Interior and you will be notified of such action as may be taken by him, when this office is advised thereof.

You are further advised that it appears from our records

The Honorable,

The Secretary of the Interior.

Sir:

I enclose herewith, a report from the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes, dated October 3, 1904, transmitting the record of the application for identification as Mississippi Choctaws by John Rainbow for himself and his wife, Bettie Rainbow.

July 16, 1904, John Rainbow was duly identified by the Commission as a full-blood Choctaw Indian. September 16, 1904, the Commission decided adversely to the applicant, Bettie Rainbow.

It appears from the record that Bettie Rainbow claims rights in the Choctaw lands under article 14 of the treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek by reason of being a descendant of Solomon and Susan Leflore, both of whom are alleged to have been one-quarter blood Choctaw Indians.

It further appears from the record, and from the records of this office, that the applicant has never been recognized, enrolled or admitted to citizenship by any tribal authority of the Choctaw Nation, or by any United States tribunal nor is she a party litigant before the Choctaw-Chickasaw Citizenship Court.

It does not appear from the record, or from the records of this office, relating to persons who complied, or attempted to comply, with the provisions of article 14 of the treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek, and to persons who were heretofore claimants thereunder, that the said Solomon Leflore or Susan Leflore signified in person or by proxy to any person an intention to comply with the provisions of said article or presented a claim to rights thereunder or subsequent legislation.

In view of the record the approval of the Commission's decision adverse to Bettie Rainbow is recommended.

It appears from the records of the Commission that on February 10, 1902, application was made for the identification of yourself and family as Mississippi Choctaws.

I now have these records in my possession, and in order that a decision in your case may be rendered by the Commission, it will be necessary for you to personally appear before the Commission at Meridian, Mississippi, at the earliest practicable date, and testify relative to your rights to identification as Mississippi Choctaws.

Under the present law, all persons who may be identified by the Dawes Commission as Mississippi Choctaws will be entitled to participate in the distribution of the tribal property of the Choctaws and Chickasaws, and may, at any time within six months after the date of their identification, remove to and make bona fide settlement in the Choctaw-Chickasaw country, Indian Territory.

Please write me at once, stating whether or not you desire to give testimony in your case, and if so when you will come to Meridian for that purpose. You will find me at the Federal Building between the hours of 8 a.m. and 6 p.m.

If you wish to give further testimony in support of your claim it will be necessary for you to appear before the Commission at Meridian, Mississippi, as indicated in the above quoted letter, at the earliest practicable date.

Very respectfully,

ADDRESS ONLY THE
COMMISSION TO THE FIVE CIVILIZED TRIBES Muskogee, Indian Territory, March 12, 1904.

John Rainbow,
Benton, Mississippi.

Dear Sir:

From the records of the Commission it appears that on February 10, 1902, you appeared before the Commission at Meridian, Mississippi, and made application for yourself, your wife, and minor child as Mississippi Choctaws.

You failed at that time to make any positive statement relative to your ancestors, and in order to supply this information there is enclosed herewith an affidavit in interrogatory form, which you are directed to have some person, other than yourself, who is fully acquainted with your parents, to take before some notary public and answer under oath the questions therein propounded, and return the same to this Commission at your earliest convenience, in the enclosed envelope, which requires no postage. This matter should receive your prompt attention for until such information is received no further action can be taken relative to your identification.

Respectfully,

Commissioner in Charge.

The Honorable,

The Secretary of the Interior.

Sir:

I enclose herewith, a report from the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes, dated October 3, 1904, transmitting the record of the application for identification as Mississippi Choctaws by John Rainbow for himself and his wife, Bettie Rainbow.

July 16, 1904, John Rainbow was duly identified by the Commission as a full-blood Choctaw Indian. September 16, 1904, the Commission decided adversely to the applicant, Bettie Rainbow.

It appears from the record that Bettie Rainbow claims rights in the Choctaw lands under article 14 of the treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek by reason of being a descendant of Solomon and Susan Leflore, both of whom are alleged to have been one-quarter blood Choctaw Indians.

It further appears from the record, and from the records of this office, that the applicant has never been recognized, enrolled or admitted to citizenship by any tribal authority of the Choctaw Nation, or by any United States tribunal nor is she a party litigant before the Choctaw-Chickasaw Citizenship Court.

It does not appear from the record, or from the records of this office, relating to persons who complied, or attempted to comply, with the provisions of article 14 of the treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek, and to persons who were heretofore claimants thereunder, that the said Solomon Leflore or Susan Leflore signified in person or by proxy to any person an intention to comply with the provisions of said article or presented a claim to rights thereunder or subsequent legislation.

In view of the record the approval of the Commission's decision adverse to Bettie Rainbow is recommended.

Very respectfully,

A. C. Tenner

In the matter of the application of Solomon Leflore for the identification of himself, his wife, Susan, and three minor children, Mary W., Luvertus and Martha, as Mississippi Choctaws.

Solomon Leflore, having been first duly sworn, upon his oath testified as follows:

Examination by the Commission.

- Q What is your name? A Solomon Leflore.
- Q How old are you? A This coming March 16th, I will be sixty seven years old.
- Q How much Choctaw blood have you? A Well, I don't know about that; you knew the Leflores all of them; old Colonel Leflore's brother was my father - Jackson Leflore was my father.
- Q He had one-half Choctaw blood? A That's what they say.
- Q Was he a brother to Chief Greenwood Leflore? A Yes, sir, a brother to Greenwood and Basel there in the nation.
- Q Did your mother have any Choctaw blood? A I don't know about that.
- Q Were you a slave? A No, sir.
- Q Was your mother a slave? A No, sir, she went no slave; she was a slave after my father died.
- Q Then, you are one quarter Choctaw blood? A Yes, I reckon.
- Q What blood was your mother, now? A I don't know; she was a yellow woman.
- Q What's your post office address? A Lexington, Mississippi.
- Q What county? A Holmes.
- Q How long have you lived in Holmes County? A About twenty five years.
- Q Where did you live before that? A Up in Leake County.
- Q How long did you live there? A Lived there about twenty years.
- Q Where did you live before that? A I was bred and born in Carroll County, Mississippi; there's where my father died at, and then I went out to my uncles.
- Q You have lived in this State, then, all your life? A Yes, sir.
- Q What was your father's name? A Jackson Leflore.
- Q What was your mother's name? A Caroline.
- Q You get your Choctaw blood solely through your father, when you claim was a full brother of Chief Greenwood Leflore, therefore, had one-half Choctaw blood? A Yes, sir.
- Q Did your father live in this State all his life? A He moved out to the Territory.
- Q When? A Before I was born.
- Q How long before you were born? A I don't know, about --
- Q Did he move out there when the Indians moved out there in the latter part of the thirties? A Yes, sir, he moved out there the time they moved from up here.
- Q Well, how long did your father stay out there? A I don't think he stayed there but two years; got too sickly there for him and he come back;
- Q He stayed here the rest of his life, did he? A Yes, sir, he stayed two miles from Carrollton, on the other side.

Solomon Leflere, et al., 2.

- Q Did your father own any land here in Mississippi? A Yes, he owned that plantation up there.
- Q Where did he get it? A Bought it.
- Q Were your father and mother married? A That's what I don't know.
- Q Did your mother ever have any other children by Jackson Leflere?
- Q Yes, she's got two over in the nation now, and two here in Mississippi.
- Q Did he have a wife at the time of your birth? A No, sir.
- Q Did he ever have a white wife? A No.
- Q Was he ever married at all? A I don't know about that. You see, he died when I was ten years old.
- Q You don't know whether he and your mother ever lived together as man and wife? A No, sir, I don't know.
- Q What was Jackson's father's name? A Louie Leflere.
- Q He had no Chectaw blood, did he? A What?
- Q Louie Leflere? A I don't know that.
- Q What was Jackson's mother's name? A I don't know that, but she was a full blood Injun.
- Q Are you married? A Yes.
- Q What's your wife's name? A Susan.
- Q How old is Susan? A About forty.
- Q Do you want to make application for her tee? A Yes, sir.
- Q How much Chectaw blood has she? A Her father was a half Injun.
- Q Her mother had no Chectaw blood? A No, sir.
- Q Was her father one-half Chectaw Indian? A Yes, sir.
- Q And that would make her one quarter, the same as you, wouldn't it? A Yes, sir.
- Q How long have you been living with her? A About thirty years, I reckon.
- Q She must be a little over forty years old; that would make her only ten years old when you married her? A I never kept account when I married or nothing.
- Q Were you married to her under a license? A Yes, sir.
- Q Have you that license with you? A No, sir.

It will be necessary for you to furnish the Commission with proper evidence of your marriage to your wife, Susan, for use in connection with the application you make in behalf of your minor children. This evidence should be furnished within thirty days from this date, if possible.

- Q Has Susan lived in this State all her life? A Yes.
- Q You are living with her now, are you? A Yes.
- Q Is her father living? A No, dead; her father 's over in the Nation, I couldn't tell whether he is dead or not.
- Q What was his name? A Francis.
- Q What other name? A Juzen.
- Q How much Chectaw blood did you say he had? A He is half blood.
- Q Was he a slave? A I reckon he was by him gwine over there.
- Q When did he go out there? A I don't know; been way yonder.
- Q Haven't you any idea? A No.
- Q Is your wife his youngest child? A I don't know about that.
- Q Is your wife's mother living? A I reckon she is.
- Q What was her name? A Mary.
- Q Was she a slave? A Yes.
- Q Was she married to Francis? A I don't know that neither.

Solonon Leflore, et al., 3.

- Q Does she live in the Territory? A No, she's living up here in Teake County, I think.
- Q Had no Choctaw blood? A No.
- Q Was your wife's father born in this country? A Yes, he was born in Atalla County.
- Q Do you know the name of his father or his mother? A I think his father - I heard them say - was Oen-on-tubbee.
- Q Will you swear that that was his name? A That's what I heard them say his name was.
- Q You never saw Oen-on-tubbee? A No, sir.
- Q Was he a full blood Choctaw? A They say he was a full blood.
- Q Did he live here in Mississippi all his life? A I don't know that.
- Q How many children have you living under twenty one years of age and unmarried? A Three.
- Q What are their names and ages? A Mary W.
- Q How old is Mary? A She is about fourteen, I believe.
- Q Next one? A Luvertus.
- Q That a boy or girl? A Girl.
- Q How old? A She's about eleven.
- Q Next one? A Martha.
- Q How old? A She's about seven.
- Q Is that all? A That's all.
- Q These children all living with you now? A Yes.
- Q Are they all the children of yourself and Susan Leflore? A Yes.
- Q This application is for yourself, wife and three minor children? A Yes.
- Q Is your name, or the name of your wife, or the name of either one of these children to be found upon any of the Choctaw tribal rolls in Indian Territory? A No, sir, not as I knows of.
- Q Did you ever make application to the Choctaw tribal authorities in Indian Territory to be admitted or enrolled as members of that tribe? A No, sir,
- Q Have you ever made any application of any description before to-day looking to the establishment of the rights of yourself, wife, and children, as Mississippi Choctaws? A Only I had a letter wrote down here last week to know was you all here.
- Q That' wasn't an application, of course? A That's all.
- Q Do you appear before the Commission here at this time for the purpose of claiming rights in the Choctaw lands in Indian Territory under article 14 of the treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek? A Yes, sir.
- Q Do you understand article 14 of the treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek? A No.

The treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek was entered into here in Mississippi on the 27th day of September, 1830, that's over seventy one years ago, between the United States Government and the Choctaw tribe of Indians. At the time this treaty was made, the Choctaws lived here in Mississippi and along the western edge of the State of Alabama. The object of the treaty was to get these Indians to move from the country occupied by them here in Mississippi and Alabama to a new country west of the Mississippi River, a part of which is now occupied by the greater portion of the Choctaw tribe of Indians and is commonly known as the Choctaw Nation, Indian Territory. At the time the treaty was made, the Choctaws lived here in Mississippi, and some of them were unwilling to leave this country, and for the benefit of those who wanted to stay here, what is known as the 14th article was put in the treaty. That 14th article provided that upon certain conditions a Choctaw who wanted to stay here in Mississippi, might receive land here in Mississippi from the Government. It is as follows;

Solomon Leflore, et al., 4.

"Each Choctaw head of a family being desirous to remain and become a citizen of the States shall be permitted to do so by signifying his intention to the agent within six months from the ratification of this treaty, and he or she shall thereupon be entitled to a reservation of one section of six hundred and forty acres of land, to be bounded by sectional lines of survey; in like manner shall be entitled to one-half that quantity for each unmarried child which is living with him over ten years of age; and a quarter section to such child as may be under ten years of age, to adjoin the location of the parent. If they reside upon said land intending to become citizens of the States for five years after the ratification of this treaty, in that case a grant in fee simple shall issue; said reservation shall include the present improvement of the head of the family, or a portion of it. Persons who claim under this article shall not lose the privilege of a Choctaw citizen, but if they ever remove are not to be entitled to any portion of the Choctaw annuity."

Q That's the 14th article of the treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek.

Q Do you understand that 14th article? A Yes, I know it.

Q Did any of your ancestors ever comply or attempt to comply with the provisions of this 14th article of the treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek, or ever receive any benefits under that article? A Not that I know of.

Q Did any of them own an improvement here in the old Choctaw Nation, in Mississippi and Alabama, in the year 1830, when this treaty was made? A Not as I know of.

Q Did any of them, in fact, live here at that time; seventy one years ago? A Yes, sir, Oen-on-tubbee, used to live here, her father and his father too.

Q Did any of your ancestors live here then, seventy one years ago?

A My father used to live up here.

Q Where did he live? A The other side of Carrollton.

Q When the treaty was made? A Oh! when the treaty was made; I don't know; he was over seventy years old when he died, before the war.

Q Do you know where he was living when the treaty was made?

A No, I know when he went there in the nation.

Q Did any of your ancestors - your Choctaw ancestors - or any of your wife's Choctaw ancestors remove from the old Choctaw Nation here in Mississippi and Alabama, to the present Choctaw Nation, in Indian Territory, except your father, Jackson Leflore? A Not as I know of.

Q He is the only one that moved out there? A I don't know when he moved out there.

Q Did any of your ancestors, or any of your wife's ancestors, within six months after the treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek was ratified, let the agent of the Government here in Mississippi for the Choctaws know that they wanted to stay here and become citizens of the States and take land under that 14th article? A I don't know that either.

Q Did any of them ever get any money from the Government?

A No, not as I know of.

Q Be far as you know, did any of your ancestors ever get any land from the Government, or any of your wife's ancestors? A No.

Q

In accordance with the provisions of article 14 of the treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek, the Government of the United States directed an agent here in Mississippi to register the names of such Choctaws as might desire to remain here and become citizens of the States and take land. The records of the Government show that this agent failed to register and report to the Government the names of many Choctaws who did, in fact, let him know that they wanted to stay here and become citizens and take land, and on this account, the Government at its public land sales here in Mississippi, in many instances, sold land upon which Choctaws lived and had improvements, and which they supposed they would receive under article 14 of the treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek. This caused a great deal of complaint among the Indians, and the matter was finally brought to the attention of Congress, and Congress passed certain Acts between the years 1837 and 1842, providing for the appointment of commissions to come down here to Mississippi and hear the cases of Choctaws who claimed that they were entitled to land under article 14 of the treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek, but that their land had been sold by the Government. These commissioners came down here to Mississippi between the years 1832 and 1845, and heard a great many of these Choctaw cases.

Q Did any of your ancestors, or any of your wife's ancestors appear before either of these commissions and attempt to establish their rights under article 14 of the treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek? A Not as I know of.

Q

An Act of Congress approved August 23, 1842, provided that in case it should be finally determined that a Choctaw had complied in all respects with the provisions of article 14 of the treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek, but that their land had been sold by the Government, he should be entitled to select in the place of that land, land some place else here in Mississippi, or Alabama, or Louisiana, or Arkansas, from vacant Government land, and should be given a certificate to that effect. These certificates were called scrip.

Q Did any of your ancestors, or any of your wife's ancestors, ever get any of this scrip from the Government of the United States under this Act of Congress? A Not as I know of.

Q If, then, any of your people, or any of your wife's people, ever received any benefits whatever as Choctaw Indians, you have no knowledge of that fact? A No, sir.

Somomen Leflore, et al., 6.

Q Do you know of any old person living who would likely know whether any of your ancestors, or any of your wife's ancestors, ever complied or attempted to comply with the provisions of article 14 of the treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek, or ever received any benefits thereunder? A I don't know.

Q Do you know of any written evidence of any description which would prove or tend to prove such a State of facts? A No.

Q Have you any written evidence of any kind to offer? A No.

Q Have you any witnesses here to-day? A No.

Q Have you any children ever age or married? A I told you I had three married.

Q What are their names? A Nine Chisholm.

Q Where does she live? A She lives there with me.

Q Next one? A Bettie.

Q Bettie what? A Bettie Rainbow.

Q Kin to him? A His wife.

Q Where does she live? A They live there with me.

Q Next one? A Sallie Chisholm.

Q Does she live with you too? A Yes.

Q That's all the children you have living? A Yes, that's all. Got none dead.

Q Have you any brothers or sisters living in Mississippi? A Yes.

Q How many? A Two.

Q What are their names? A Mary Witt.

Q Where does she live? A She lives up here in Leake County.

Q Next one? A Dannie Leflore.

Q Where does he live? A He lives up there too.

Q Full brothers and sisters of yours, are they? A Yes.

Q Has your wife any brothers or sisters living in this State? A Yes she's got some.

Q What are their names? A Eliza.

Q Eliza what? A Ricley.

Q Next one? A That's all? A

Q Where does she live? A She lives up in Leake.

Q Has your wife any brothers or sisters dead who left children?

A I believe not.

Q Have you any brothers or sisters dead who left children? A No.

Q Give us the names of your father's brothers? A Greenwood Leflore, Bazel, Ben, Ferbus and Grant; that's his sister.

Q What was her full name? A Grant Leflore.

Q Oh! she married a Grant? A Yes.

Q What's her given name? A I don't know.

Q Next one? A Miss Long.

Q What was her given name? A That's all I knew.

Q She married a Long? A Yes.

Q Is that all? A Yes, that's all.

Q Have you any brothers or sisters living in the Territory?

A Yes, I have got a sister living there, named Delia.

Q Delia what? A Delia Leflore, when she left.

Q Is she married? A I reckon.

Q Do you know her married name? A I don't know whether she is married or not.

Q Have you any brothers out there? A No.

Q Any further statements you want to make? A No, sir.

Q Do you speak or understand the Choctaw language? A No, I never learned it. I can understand what they say, though.

Solemon Leffers, et al., 7.

Official Interpreter, Oscar Billey, called, and it develops that this applicant understands a few Choctaw words, but cannot carry on a conversation in the Choctaw language. He has the appearance of being possessed of a small proportion of Indian blood. His hair is almost straight.

Department of the Interior,
Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes,
Meridian, Mississippi, February 10, 1902.

In the matter of the application of Samuel H. Hunt for the identification of himself and six minor children, Oliver R., Henry D., Eddie F., Lelia E., Samuel D., and Susan F., as Mississippi Choctaws.

Samuel H. Hunt, having been first duly sworn, upon his oath testified as follows:

Examination by the Commission:

- Q What is your name? A Samuel H. Hunt.
- Q How old are you? A I am thirty six years old.
- Q How much Choctaw blood have you? A You will have to help me to count that; my information is that my great grand father and mother claimed to be full Choctaws. That's my information; I don't know that to be a fact.
- Q If they were both full blood Choctaws, your grand mother would have been a full -? A And my mother a half breed, and that would bring me to one quarter? A
- Q What's your post office address? A Ivery, Mississippi.
- Q What County? A Prentice.
- Q How long have you lived in that County? A I was born in that County, and lived there until I was a right smart boy, seven years old, I reckon, and my father went to West Tennessee, and I have been back in the County ever since that time.
- Q Is your father living? A No, sir.
- Q What was his name? A Henson N. Hunt.
- Q Your mother living? A No, sir.
- Q What was her name? A Katie.
- Q You get your Choctaw blood solely through your mother? A Yes, sir, that's the way I understand it; that's the information I have. Of course, I don't know these things, only what I have been taught to believe.
- Q How long has your mother been dead? A My mother has been dead something near ten years, but the exact date aint in my memory at the present.
- Q How old was she when she died? A She was something about sixty years old; near sixty - in fifty eight, or nine.
- Q Where was she born? A She was born to my remembrance, in south Alabama.
- Q She lived in Alabama how long after her birth? A She lived there until she was married, I suppose; she was married when she was about sixteen.
- Q Do you know what county she lived in? A Why, I couldn't tell you positive, about Talladega Springs.
- Q Through which one of her parents did you say your mother got her Choctaw blood? A My information is that it came through her mother.
- Q What was her mother's name? A Her mother's name was said to be Ellen.

Samuel H. Hunt, et al., 2.

Q Ellen what? A Ellen Sakles, and she was married to John Myers.

Q How long has she been dead? A I have no knowledge of how long she has been dead.

Q According to your statement, she was a full blood Choctaw? A That's the understanding now.

Q Do you know where she was born and raised? A No, sir, I don't know where. All I know is about the year '40, - along in there, the old grand daddy and this grand mother of mine was at that time in South Carolina. I don't know where she was born.

Q Do you know how long they had lived in South Carolina at that time? A No, sir, I do not.

Q You know nothing of the family before that time? A No, sir, just only the information I have - family tradition - and witnesses who claim to have known them.

Q What information have you on the subject? A The information I have of it is that they knew my grand father and mother, and knowed my grand mother, and knowed they formerly lived in south Alabama, and that's the information I have, through what I heard my parents say that they lived there with the Indians, and left there going to the Territory with the Indians, but come into south Alabama and stopped there, and she died there, and left, I think, two or three or four children, and they was raised up there by the other connection. I don't know exactly who did raise my mother; might have heard her say, but don't remember it. I think her great uncle raised her.

Q You don't know where any of your ancestors were living in 1830, do you? A No, sir, I do not.

Q You don't know whether any of them were ever recognized members of the Choctaw tribe? A No, sir.

Q How did you get this information about your family? A Through an old lady who had known my family way back in the early days, and through an old gentleman who had information of the connection, and they emigrated on to this country, at least, this old lady did, years ago. He knew where the family was and all.

Q Are these people living now? A This old man and this old lady were living a few days ago.

Q What are their names? A This old woman's name is Cooper.

Q Full name? A I don't know whether I am going to tell you the full name or not.

Q Where does she live? A Right on the line of Tippah County and Prentice; I think she lives in Tippah County.

Q About how old is she? A She claims to be in ninety, or about ninety.

Q What's the name of the old man? A Lawrence Furtick.

Q Where does he live? A He lives in Prentice County.

Q How old is he? A He is right about seventy.

Q Why did you not bring these witnesses with you? A Well this old lady is too old and decrepid is one reason, the next reason is I wasn't able to pay her expenses here and neither is she, and this gentleman is affected with catarrhal affectations, and bad weather - and I was really unable to pay his way down here and bear his expenses, and he wasn't able to do so.

Q Are you married? A Yes, sir.

Q Is your wife living? A Yes, sir.

Q What's her name? A Her name is Caroline.

Q Has she any Choctaw blood? A No, sir, none that I have any knowledge of.

Samuel H. Hunt, et al., 3.

- Q You make no claim for her then? A No, sir.
Q Have you been married more than once? A No, sir.
Q Has she? A No, sir.
Q How many children have you living for whom you want to make application? A Six.
Q Give us their names again, and ages? A Oliver R., he is twelve years old.
Q Next one? A Henry D.
Q How old? A There is fifteen months difference between their ages.
Q About 11? A Yes, sir.
Q Next one? A Eddie F., he will be ten this coming spring.
Q Next one? A Lelia E.
Q How old? A She's seven years old.
Q Next one? A Samuel D.
Q How old? A He is five years old the 4th of this month.
Q Next one? A Susan F.
Q How old? A She was three years old in December.
Q These children all living with you at this time? A Yes, sir.
Q Are they all the children of yourself and Caroline Hunt? A Yes, sir.
Q This application, then, is for yourself and six minor children?
A Yes, sir.
Q Is your name, or the name of any one of these children to be found upon any of the Choctaw tribal rolls in Indian Territory? A I do not know; I couldn't find that out. No. I didn't understand you. No, sir.
Q Is this the first application of any description that has ever been made for you or any of these children, to any authority, looking to the establishment of your rights as Choctaw Indians? A As far as my knowledge - this is the first one.
Q Do you appear before the Commission at this time for the purpose of claiming rights in the Choctaw lands in Indian Territory under article 14 of the treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek, for yourself and a six minor children? A Yes, sir.
Q Do you understand article 14 of the treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek? A I think I understand it tolerable well; I suppose I understand the allotments and this annuity.
Q I will explain it to you again.

The treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek was entered into here in Mississippi on the 27th day of September, 1830, between the United States Government and the Choctaw tribe of Indians. At the time this treaty was made, the Choctaws lived here in Mississippi and along the western edge of the State of Alabama. The object of the treaty was to get these Indians to move from the country occupied by them here in Mississippi and Alabama, to a new country west of the Mississippi River, a part of which is now occupied by the greater portion of the Choctaw tribe of Indians, and is commonly known as the Choctaw Nation, Indian Territory. At the time this treaty was made, some of the Choctaws were unwilling to leave this country, and for the benefit of those who wanted to stay here what is known as the 14th article was put in the treaty. That 14th article provided that upon certain conditions a Choctaw who wanted to stay here in Mississippi might receive land here from the Government. It is as follows:

Samuel H. Hunt, et al., 4.

"Each Choctaw head of a family being desirous to remain and become a citizen of the States shall be permitted to do so by signifying his intention to the agent within six months from the ratification of this treaty, and he or she shall thereupon be entitled to a reservation of one section of six hundred and forty acres of land, to be bounded by sectional lines of survey; in like manner shall be entitled to one-half that that quantity for each unmarried child which is living with him over ten years of age; and a quarter section to such child as may be under ten years of age, to adjoin the location of the parent. If they reside upon said land, intending to become citizens of the States for five years after the ratification of this treaty in that case a grant in fee simple shall issue; said reservation shall include the present improvement of the head of the family, or a portion of it. Persons who claim under this article shall not lose the privilege of a Choctaw citizen, but if they ever remove are not to be entitled to any portion of the Choctaw annuity."

Q You think you understand it, do you? A Yes, sir.

Q Did any of your ancestors ever comply or attempt to comply with the provisions of article 14 of the treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek, or ever receive any benefits thereunder? A Now, I don't know that they did. I have said what I stated to you a while ago that my remembrance was that when they started from South Carolina, my grand father and mother, that their intention was to go to the Territory and establish their citizenship there; I don't think, well I know, they didn't get there, for my grand mother died.

Q Did any of them own an improvement here in the old Choctaw Nation in Mississippi and Alabama, in the year 1830, when this treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek was made? A If they did, I can't say so, for I don't know.

Q Did any of them live here at that time? A I couldn't say that they did.

Q Did any of them remove from the old Choctaw Nation, in Mississippi and Alabama, to the present Choctaw Nation, in Indian Territory, at the time of the removal of the greater portion of the Choctaw tribe of Indians between the years 1833 and 1838? A If they did, I have no knowledge of it.

Q Did any of them, within six months, after the treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek was ratified, let the agent of the Government here in Mississippi for the Choctaws know that they wanted to stay here in Mississippi and become citizens of the States and take land? A I don't know that they did; not to my knowledge.

Q Did any of them ever claim or receive any land here in Mississippi from the Government of the United States under article 14 of the treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek? A If they did, it is not in my knowledge; I know nothing of any thing they ever received.

Q Did any of them ever receive any land here in Mississippi from the Government of the United States to your knowledge? A Not to my knowledge, no sir.

Q Any of them ever get any money from the Government? A Nothing that ever I knew of.

Samuel H. Hunt, et al., 5.

Q So far as you know, then, none of your ancestors ever received any benefits whatever as Choctaw Indians? A No, sir.

In accordance with the provisions of article 14 of the treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek, the Government of the United States directed an agent here in Mississippi to register and report to the Government the names of such Choctaws as might desire to remain here and become citizens of the States and take land. The records of the Government show that this agent failed to register and report to the Government the names of many Indians who did in fact let him know that they wanted to stay here and become citizens of the States and take land, and on this account the Government at its public land sales here in Mississippi, in many instances, sold land upon which Choctaws lived and had improvements, and which they supposed they would receive under article 14 of the treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek. This caused a great deal of complaint among the Indians, and the matter was finally brought to the attention of Congress, and Congress passed certain Acts between the years 1837 and 1842, providing for the appointment of commissioners to come down here to Mississippi and hear the cases of Choctaws who claimed that they had complied in all respects with the provisions of article 14 of the treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek, but that their land had been sold by the Government. These commissioners were duly appointed by the President of the United States and they came down here to Mississippi between the years 1837 and 1845, and heard a great many of these Choctaw cases.

Q Did any of your ancestors appear before either of these commissioners and attempt to establish their rights under article 14 of the treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek? A They never did; that's what I said a while ago about this grand mother. That's probably where they started, but never did reach here at the time she died.

Q Well, these commissioners were --? If they ever went before --

Q Were here in Mississippi, not in the Territory? A But I say that is probably where they started with the intention of going to the Territory; that's what I have always been told - their intention was to go to the Territory; it might have been to come here; I have no knowledge of it, but it was talked. I know if certain witnesses could be found, they would have no trouble about it.

Q You don't know whether any of them ever appeared before these commissioners? A No, sir.

An Act of Congress approved August 23, 1842, provided that in case it should be finally determined that a Choctaw had complied in all respects with the provisions of article 14 of the treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek, but that this land had been sold by the Government, he should be entitled to select in the place of the land so sold by the Government, land some place else in Mississippi, or Alabama, or Louisiana, or Arkansas, from vacant Government land, and should be given a certificate to that effect. These certificates were called scrip.

Samuel D. Hunt, et al., 6.

Q Did any of your ancestors ever receive any of this scrip from the Government of the United States under this Act of Congress?

A None that ever I know of. I have no knowledge of it. The information that I have is that they did not.

Q What makes you think they didn't? A Just because they always talked of going to the Territory and establishing their claims, is why I think they didn't. Not that I know of, at all.

Q Do you know of any old person living who would likely know whether any of your ancestors ever complied or attempted to comply with the provisions of article 14 of the treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek?

A No, sir, I do not know positively what these two witnesses I had reference to would know in regard to that matter.

Q Do you know of any written evidence of any description which would prove or tend to prove such a State of facts? A No, sir, I don't know.

Q Have you any written evidence of any kind to offer at this time?

A None whatever.

Q Have you any witnesses here to-day? A No, sir, there are only two that I have any knowledge of.

Q Are there any further statements you want to make at this time?

A Nothing that I know of. I would like, if possible, to get the deposition of these witnesses.

If you should desire to have the testimony of these witnesses taken before the Commission, they may appear before the Commission here at Meridian, Mississippi, between now and the 15th of the month, or within a reasonable time there after at the General Office of the Commission, in Muskogee, Indian Territory, and their testimony will be taken. If you should desire to have the depositions of the witnesses taken, you should proceed in accordance with the rules and regulations of the Commission covering the taking of depositions in these Mississippi Choctaw cases, a copy of which has already been furnished you.

Q Have you any brothers or sisters living? A Yes, sir, I have two brothers and three sisters.

Q What are their names? A My oldest brother living is John A Hunt.

Q Next one? A The next one is Hezekiah.

Q Where do they live? A The oldest brother lives in Collins County Texas; my next brother lives in Prentiss County, Mississippi.

Q What are the names of your sisters? A Virginia; she is married; Virginia Jumper.

Q Where does she live? A She lives in Prentiss County, Mississippi.

Q Next one? A Louisa Blagg.

Q Where does she live? A In Pontotoc County, Mississippi.

Q Next one? A Next one is Julia Alexander.

Q Where does she live? A She's in Prentiss County, Mississippi.

Q Next one? A That's all I think.

Q Have you any brothers or sisters dead who left children? A I have one brother dead that left children at the time of his death, but if there is any of them living now, I have no knowledge of it.

Samuel H. Hunt, et al., 7.

Q He is the only one of your brothers or sisters who left children?

A Yes, sir, the two little girls that were left are both dead.

Q Are there any of your mother's brothers or sisters, living?

A If they are, I have no knowledge of them.

Q Are any of the descendants of any of your mother's brothers or sisters living? A I suppose they are. Yes, there is some of the Windhams living in Prentiss County, Jack and Sim Windham.

Q They are children of your mother's sister? A Yes, sir.

Q Is that all of the children of your mother's brothers or sisters who are living that you know of? A That I know of, you say? There is some of them living in Texas I never saw at all, and some in Alabama that I have no knowledge of.

Q Are there any further statements you want to make at this time?

A No, sir.

Q You don't speak or understand the Choctaw language? A No, sir.

Q Did your mother? A No, sir.

Q Her mother? A I can't say about that.

Q What are the names of your great grand parents, the parents of Ellen Sakles? A Well, I understand it was always called uncle Fritz Sakles and Mary.

Q You don't know anything about them at all? A No, no, sir; never saw them at all.

(This applicant has the appearance of being a white man, and shows no indication of being possessed of Indian blood. He does not speak or understand the Choctaw language.)

McElroy is returned for the reason that it appears from the records in the application of Samuel H. Hunt that the name of the mother of the children for whom he makes application, is Caroline Hunt.

The affidavits and interrogatories thereto attached are herewith returned for the reason that the rules of the Commission regulating and governing the procedure in the taking and submission of depositions in support of applications for identification

Samuel H. Hunt 3

Mississippi Choctaws, require that the applicant must serve a copy of the interrogatories upon the opposing party or his attorney of record and must make proper proof of such service and this you have failed to do.

For your guidance you are informed that the opposing party in this case is the Choctaw and Chickasaw Nations that their attorneys of record are Messrs Mansfield, McMurray & Cornish, South McAlester, Indian Territory, and that the only method in which proper service can be had on said parties is by sending a copy of the interrogatories to some party residing in South McAlester, and have him make personal service on Messrs Mansfield, McMurray & Cornish in accordance with Rule 13 of the Rules and Regulations above referred to, a copy of which is enclosed you herewith.

Yours truly,

Commissioner in Charge.

S. H. Hunt,

Ivy, Mississippi,

Dear Sir:

Receipt is hereby acknowledged of your letter of the seventh instant, in which you state that the Clerk made a mistake in your wife's name, and that the S. E. McElroy should have been S.C. McElroy. You are advised that upon the return of the marriage certificate with this correction of name, the same will receive proper consideration.

Yours truly,

Commissioner in Charge.

Miss. Choctaw 4702

Muskogee, Indian Territory, April 3, 1902.

S. H. Hunt,

Ivey, Mississippi,

Dear Sir:

Receipt is hereby acknowledged of your letter of March 26, inclosing certified copy of marriage certificate between S. H. Hunt and Miss S. C. McKelroy, offered in support of your application for the identification of yourself and your minor children as Mississippi Choctaws, and the same has been made a part of the record in your case.

You also wish to be advised how much time you have in which to work up your case, and whether you are required to appear and enroll before the Commission has acted upon your application for identification as a Mississippi Choctaw.

In reply thereto you are informed that it would be well for you to submit such evidence as you may desire to offer for consideration in your case as early as possible.

Relative to that part of your letter in which you inquire concerning enrollment, your attention is invited to the following provision of the act of Congress of May 31, 1900:

S. N. H. 2

"That any Mississippi Choctaw duly identified as such by the United States Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes shall have the right, at any time prior to the approval of the final rolls of the Choctaws and Chickasaws by the Secretary of the Interior, to make settlement within the Choctaw-Chickasaw country, and on proof of the fact of bona fide settlement may be enrolled by the said United States Commission and by the Secretary of the Interior as Choctaws entitled to allotment."

But it is believed that the benefits of this legislation would not accrue to applicants until they have been identified as Mississippi Choctaws by the Commission.

Yours truly,

Commissioner in Charge.

M.O.R. 4702.

Muskogee, Indian Territory, December 4, 1902.

Samuel H. Hunt,

Jumpertown, Mississippi.

Dear Sir:

Receipt is hereby acknowledged of your letter of the 29th ultimo, in which you ask if it will be safe for you to move to the Choctaw Nation and take land pending action of the Commission in your case.

In reply, you are informed that it appears from the records of the Commission that you are an applicant for the identification of yourself, and your minor children, as Mississippi Choctaws.

No opinion or decision has yet been reached in your case. As soon as a decision is rendered, you will be duly notified of the action of the Commission and of the forwarding of the record to the Secretary of the Interior for review.

At the present time, yourself and minor children occupy the status of applicants for identification as Mississippi Choctaws whose right to such identification has in no manner been determined.

S H R 2

Relative to your moving to the Choctaw Nation and taking land, your attention is invited to the following provision of the act of Congress approved July 1, 1902, and ratified by the citizens of the Choctaw and Chickasaw Nations September 25, 1902:

"All persons duly identified by the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes under the provisions of section 21 of the act of Congress approved June 28, 1898 (30 Stats., 495), as Mississippi Choctaws entitled to benefits under article 14 of the treaty between the United States and the Choctaw Nation concluded September 27, 1850, may, at any time within six months after the date of their identification as Mississippi Choctaws by the said Commission, make bona fide settlement within the Choctaw-Chickasaw country, and upon proof of such settlement to such Commission within one year after the date of their said identification as Mississippi Choctaws shall be enrolled by such Commission as Mississippi Choctaws entitled to allotment as herein provided for citizens of the tribes, subject to the special provisions herein provided as to Mississippi Choctaws, and said enrollment shall be final when approved by the Secretary of the Interior."

It is not believed that the benefits of this legislation will in any manner accrue to applicants until duly identified by the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes as Mississippi Choctaws entitled to allotment, and that you are not at this time entitled to possessory rights of the tribal property of the Choctaw and Chickasaw Nations.

Respectfully,

Acting Chairman.

Muskogee, Indian Territory, January 5, 1903.

- Q Has any application of any description ever been made before today for yourself or any one of these children, looking to the establishment of your rights as Chectaw Indians? A No, sir.
- Q You appear before the Commission at this time for the purpose of claiming rights in the Chectaw lands in Indian Territory for yourself and four minor children under article 14 of the treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek? A Yes, sir.
- Q Do you understand article 14 of the treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek? A No, sir.

The treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek, was entered into here in Mississippi on the 27th day of September, 1830, between the United States Government and the Chectaw tribe of Indians. At the time this treaty was made, the Chectaws lived here in Mississippi and along the western edge of the State of Alabama. The object of the treaty was to get these Indians to move from the country occupied by them here in Mississippi and Alabama to a new country west of the Mississippi River, a part of which is now occupied by the greater portion of the Choctaw tribe of Indians, and is commonly known as the Choctaw Nation, Indian Territory. At the time the treaty was made, some of the Indians were unwilling to leave this country, and for the benefit of those who wanted to stay here, what is known as the 14th article was put in the treaty. That 14th article provided that upon certain conditions, a Choctaw who wanted to stay here in Mississippi, and not move out to the new nation, might receive land here in Mississippi from the Government. It is as follows:

"Each Choctaw head of a family being desirous to remain and become a citizen of the States shall be permitted to do so by signifying his intention to the agent within six months from the ratification of this treaty, and he or she shall thereupon be entitled to a reservation of one section of six hundred and forty acres of land, to be bounded by sectional lines of survey; in like manner shall be entitled to one-half that quantity for each unmarried child which is living with him over ten years of age; and a quarter section to such child as may be under ten years of age, to adjoin the location of the parent. If they reside upon said land intending to become citizens of the States for five years after the ratification of this treaty, in that case a grant in fee simple shall issue; said reservation shall include the present improvement of the head of the family, or a portion of it. Persons who claim under this article shall not lose the privilege of a Choctaw citizen, but if they ever remove are not to be entitled to any portion of the Choctaw annuity."

Q Do you think you understand that 14th article of the treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek? A Yes, sir, I guess, I do.

Q Did any of your ancestors ever comply or attempt to comply with its provisions, or ever receive any benefits thereunder?

A No, sir, not that I know of. Never received anything that I know of.

Q Did any of them own an improvement here in the old Choctaw Nation, in Mississippi and Alabama, in the year 1830, when this treaty was made? A I don't know, sir.

Q Did any of them ever ~~own~~ live here at that time? A Yes, sir, I think so.

Q What one of your ancestors lived here seventy one years ago, when this treaty was made? A It was my great grand mother, I think.

Q She lived here seventy one years ago? A I think so. That's my recollection.

Q Do you know where she lived? A No, sir, I do not.

Q You refer to Abbie Geesley? A Yes, sir.

Q Do you know whether she owned an improvement here at that time?

A No, sir, I don't know.

Q Was she a recognized member of the Choctaw tribe of Indians then?

Mary E. Bass, et al., 4.

A I do not know.

Q Did any of your ancestors ever claim or receive any land here in Mississippi from the Government of the United States under article 14 of the treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek? A I couldn't tell.

Q Did any of them ever get any land here in Mississippi from the Government? A I don't know, sir.

Q Did any of them ever get any money from the Government? A If they did, I don't know of it.

Q So far as you know, then, none of your ancestors ever received any benefits whatever as Choctaw Indians? A No, sir, not that I know of.

In accordance with the provisions of article 14 of the treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek, the Government of the United States directed an agent here in Mississippi to register the names of such Choctaws as might desire to remain here and become citizens of the States and take land. The records of the Government show that this agent failed to register and report to the Government the names of many Indians who did in fact let him know that they wanted to stay here and become citizens and take land, and on this account, the Government at its public land sales here in Mississippi in many instances sold land upon which Choctaws lived and had improvements, and which they supposed they would receive under article 14 of the treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek. This caused a great deal of complaint among the Indians, and the matter was finally brought to the attention of Congress, and Congress passed an Act which was providing for the appointment of commissioners to come down here to Mississippi and hear the cases of Choctaws who claimed that they had complied in all respects with the provisions of article 14 of the treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek, but that their land had been sold by the Government. These commissioners were duly appointed by the President of the United States and the commissioners came down here to Mississippi between the years 1837 and 1845, and heard a great many of these Choctaw cases.

Q Did any of your ancestors appear before any of these commissioners and attempt to establish their rights under article 14 of the treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek? A No, sir, not that I know of.

An Act of Congress approved on the 23rd day of August, 1842, provided that in case it should be finally determined that a Choctaw had complied in all respects with the provisions of article 14 of the treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek, but that his land had been sold by the Government, he should be entitled to select in the place of the land so sold by the Government, land some place else in Mississippi, or in Alabama, Louisiana, or Arkansas, from vacant Government land, and should be given a certificate to that effect. These certificates were called scrip.

Mary E. Bass, et al., 5.

Q Did any of your ancestors ever get any of this scrip from the Government of the United States under this Act of Congress?

A No, sir, not that I know of.

Q Do you know of any old person living who would likely know whether any of your ancestors ever complied or attempted to comply with the provisions of article 14 of the treaty of Dancing Rabbit Cr Creek, or ever received any benefits thereunder? A No, sir.

Q Do you know of any written evidence of any kind which would prove or tend to prove such a state of facts? A No, sir.

Q Have you any witnesses here to-day? A No, sir.

Q

If you should find any witnesses whose testimony you desire to have taken by the Commission, they may appear before the Commission here in Meridian, Mississippi, before the 15th of that month, or within a reasonable time thereafter at the General Office of the Commission in Muskogee, Indian Territory, and their testimony will be taken.

Q Have you any written evidence of any kind to offer? A Yes, sir.

The affidavits of John H. McNeese, W.R. Williams, Winston Pace, Alex Pace and B.M. Gardner, are offered in evidence, identified as Exhibits A, B, C, D, and E, respectively, filed and made a part of the record in this case.

Q Is that all the written evidence you have to offer? A Yes, sir.

Q Are there any further statements you would like to make at this time? A No, sir.

Q What are the names of your children who are over twenty one years of age, or married? A Charley C. Bass.

Q Next one? A Mary E.

Q What's her married name? A She's not married. Ada Gay, she is married.

Q Next one? A Evan Ernest, our son, he has been here. Doctor C.C. Bass he was here last year.

Q Any others of your children been here? A No, sir.

Q Have you any brothers or sisters living? A Yes, sir, I have two brothers.

Q Full brothers? A Yes, sir, and one half sister.

Q What are the names of your full brothers? A Harris Wilks is my brother and Evan Wilks.

Q Have they been before the Commission? A No, sir, none of my brothers.

Columbia, Mississippi.

Dear Madam:

You are hereby advised that on the 25th day of October, 1902, the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes rendered a decision in the consolidated case of Stephen Oliver Berry, et al., embracing the following applications for identification as Mississippi Choctaws:

Stephen Oliver Berry, et al.,	M.C.R. 3406
Charles W. Berry, et al.,	M.C.R. 3407
Mary E. Bass, et al.,	M.C.R. 4703
Charles C. Bass,	M.C.R. 1945

These applications were made under the provision of the act of Congress of June 28, 1898 (30 Stats., 495) which is as follows:

"Said Commission shall have authority to determine the identity of Choctaw Indians claiming rights in the Choctaw lands under article fourteen of the treaty between the United States and the Choctaw Nation, concluded September twenty-seventh, eighteen hundred and thirty, and to that end may administer oaths, examine witnesses and perform all other acts necessary thereto, and make report to the Secretary of the Interior."

Said decision concludes as follows:

"It is therefore the opinion of this Commission that the evidence herein, is insufficient to determine the identity of

Mary E. Bass-----2

Stephen Oliver Berry, Verna Berry, Ronnie Berry, Fred Berry, Charles P. Berry, Gressie May Berry, Velma Berry, Mary E. Bass, Cora Myrtle Bass, Isaac Houston Bass, Levi Gaston Bass, Zenona Wreath Bass and Charles C. Bass as Choctaw Indians entitled to rights in the Choctaw lands under the provisions of said article fourteen of the treaty of eighteen hundred and thirty, and that the applications for their identification as such should be refused, and it is so ordered."

You are further advised that you will be allowed fifteen days from the date hereof within which to file arguments in this office, and that at the expiration of said time the papers in the case, together with such arguments will be forwarded for review to the Secretary of the Interior through the Commissioner of Indian Affairs.

Respectfully,

Department of the Interior,
Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes;
Meridian, Mississippi, February 10, 1902.

In the matter of the application of Emaline McFadden for the identification of herself as a Mississippi Choctaw.

Emaline McFadden, having been first duly sworn, upon her oath testified as follows:

Examination by the Commission.

- Q What is your name? A Emaline McFadden.
- Q How old are you? A I was born in '23; you can count it.
- Q Seventy nine? A Yes, sir.
- Q What month were you born in? A December, 9th; I won't be seventy nine until next December.
- Q You are seventy eight now? A Yes, sir.
- Q How much Choctaw blood have you? A I don't hardly know; my grand father was a full blood, or mighty nigh, and my mother, she was half, and then I come in.
- Q One-quarter that would make you? A Yes, sir, that's right.
- Q What's your post office address? A Big Springs.
- Q What county? A Clay County.
- Q How long have you lived in Clay County, Mississippi? A Well, I have lived there about thirty seven years, and in Hinds County, and all right here. Been in Mississippi all the time.
- Q Lived here all your life? A Yes, sir, my grand father lived down here below, and he wouldn't go with the tribe, and he got a little claim; ma was down there and tried to get mine and hers too, and there was a white man by the name of Jack Thompson, and wouldn't let him have no land, and wouldn't give me none.
- Q Is your father living? A No, sir, he's dead; my mother's dead too.
- Q What was your father's name? A William Loggins; he was a white man.
- Q What was your mother's name? A Nancy Loggins. Her name was Nally
- Q You get your Choctaw blood through your mother, as you have stated?
- A Yes, sir, get it right through my mother.
- Q How long has your mother been dead? A She's been dead about thirty four years; been dead a good while.
- Q She was a half blood Choctaw? A Yes, sir.
- Q Did she speak the Choctaw language? A Yes, sir.
- Q Are you sure of that? A Yes, sir; she could talk some; she didn't talk that way all the time.
- Q Can you speak the Choctaw language? A No, sir.
- Q Was your mother born in the State of Mississippi? A Yes, sir.
- Q And lived here all her life? A Lived here until about six years, I believe. Pa moved back to Alabama, and they lived there then; she wasn't satisfied because she wasn't with grand pa, and they moved back; I married while I was over there.
- Q Your mother got her Choctaw blood through her father? A Yes, sir.
- Q What was his name? A Joe Nally.
- Q Did you ever see him? A Yes, sir. Seen him from the time I could recollect.

Emaline McFadden, 2.

Q How long has he been dead? A Well, he was a very old man when the treaty was, and he has been dead, I reckon, about forty - thirty five or forty years, I disremember.

Q How long before your mother died, was it that her father, Joe Nally died? A He dies first.

Q How long first? A About ten years, I believe; I think mother lived ten years afterwards; I think that 's the way of it.

Q Was Joe Nally a full blood Choctaw? A Yes, sir.

Q Sure of that are you? A Yes, sir.

Q Did he have a Choctaw name? A They called him part of the time Joe, and Jose, and just anything, his people did; white people would-n't have much to do with him; that's the reason ma never got ~~anekkar~~ band, because she married a white man.

Q Your mother's mother was a white woman? A Yes, sir.

Q What was your mother's mother's name? A Elizabeth.

Q Was she lawfully married to this Indian, Joe Nally? A Yes, sir, now, you know I don't remember that.

Q How long did they live together as man and wife, do you know? A All their lives; until they died.

Q How many children did she have? A She never raised but five; five girls.

Q Did Joe Nally speak the Choctaw language? A Yes, sir.

Q Where was he born? A Born down here in Mississippi, below here somewhere; I think it was in Jasper County, and stayed there among his tribe, and wouldn't go away with them when the treaty was, never went, and stayed around.

Q He was a very old man when the treaty was made? A Tolerably old; now, I reckon he was about seventy; I expect he was from his looks and age; he has been dead a long time; if he had lived he would have been upwards of a hundred.

Q You are sure he was a full blood Choctaw Indian? A Yes, sir, I am. I wouldn't swear nothing I didn't know.

Q Did he associate with the white people or with the Indians? A He associated with the Indians the most of his time, for the white people wouldn't have nothing to do with him, and down here where he went to get his claim, and ma went to get hers and to get no some; he wouldn't go with the tribe when they went off, and he got him a little claim - he called it a claim, and built a little hut of a house on it, and when he was in that house, ma went to see him, and to get ours, and a white man by the name of Jack Thompson run him off of it, and give him an old kind of a house of a thing, and wouldn't give him a thing for the land; the old man just moved about about in Mississippi until he died; he died in Monroe County, in this State.

Q Do you know the name of either of his parents? A No, sir, I don't know the names of any.

Q Are you married? A I certainly am.

Q Is your husband living? A Yes, sir.

Q What's the name of your husband? A Elias McFadden.

Q Has he any Choctaw blood? A No, sir.

Q You make no claim for him, then? A No, sir, not a bit.

Q Have you any children under age? A No, sir.

Q This application is for yourself only? A Yes.

Q Have you ever made any application of any description before to-day looking to the establishment of your rights as a Choctaw Indian?

A No, sir, never did.

Q Do you appear before the Commission at this time for the purpose of claiming rights in the Choctaw lands in Indian Territory under Enaline McFadden, 3.

article 14 of the treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek? A Yes, sir.
Q Do you understand article 14 of the treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek? A I don't understand it.

This treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek was entered into here in Mississippi on the 27th day of September, 1830, over seventy one years ago, between the United States Government and the Choctaw tribe of Indians. At the time this treaty was made, the Choctaws lived here in Mississippi and along the western edge of the State of Alabama. The object of the treaty was to get these Indians to move from this country to a new country west of the Mississippi River, a part of which is now occupied by the greater portion of the Choctaw tribe of Indians, and is commonly known as the Choctaw Nation, Indian Territory. At the time the treaty was made, some of the Choctaws were unwilling to leave this country, and for the benefit of those who wanted to stay here, what is known as the 14th article was put in the treaty. That 14th article provided that upon certain conditions, a Choctaw who wanted to stay here in Mississippi and not move out to the new nation, might receive land here in Mississippi from the Government. That 14th article is as follows: I am going to quote it to you just like it was put in this treaty seventy one years ago.

"Each Choctaw head of a family being desirous to remain and become a citizen of the States shall be permitted to do so by signifying his intention to the agent within six months from the ratification of this treaty, and he or she shall thereupon be entitled to a reservation of one section of six hundred and forty acres of land, to be bounded by sectional lines of survey; in like manner shall be entitled to one-half that quantity for each unmarried child which is living with him over ten years of age; and a quarter section to such child as may be under ten years of age, to adjoin the location of the parent. If they reside upon said land intending to become citizens of the States for five years after the ratification of this treaty, in that case a grant in fee simple shall issue; said reservation shall include the present improvement of the head of the family, or a portion of it. Persons who claim under this article shall not lose the privilege of a Choctaw citizen, but if they ever remove are not to be entitled to any portion of the Choctaw annuity."

Q I have quoted to you the 14th article of the treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek. Do you understand that 14th article now? A Yes, sir, I understand it very well.

Well, as I explained to you, this treaty referred to Choctaws who lived here seventy one years ago, this 14th article is a Choctaw who lived here seventy one years ago, when the treaty was made, didn't want to go out there to the new nation, but wanted to stay here and take land under article 14 of the treaty, he was required by that article to let the agent of the Government here in Mississippi for the Choctaws know within six months from the time the treaty was ratified - the treaty was ratified on the 23th day of February, 1831, that he did want to stay here and take land, and he was thereupon entitled to a reservation of one section of 640 acres of land, to be bounded by sectional lines of survey; in like manner was entitled to one-half that quantity for each unmarried child which was living with him over ten years of age on the 27th day of September, 1830, the day the treaty was made, and for each child under ten years of age at that time, he was entitled to 160 acres, or a quarter section. Now, if they lived on that land for five years from February 24, 1831, the day the treaty was ratified, in that case a Indian was entitled to a grant in fee simple that is, the Government would give him a deed or patent to the land, and he was entitled to it and could sell it at his own pleasure. That 14th article further provided that persons who claimed on that article should not lose the privilege of a Choctaw citizen, but if they ever removed, that is, if they ever went out to the new nation west of the Mississippi River, should not lose the privilege of a Choctaw citizen, but that they should not be entitled to any portion of the Choctaw annuity. The Choctaw annuity is money paid each year to the Choctaws by the Government of the United States under treaty provisions.

Q Now, did any of your ancestors, old folks, or fore fathers, ever comply or attempt to comply with the provisions of article 14 of the treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek, or ever receive any benefits thereunder? A Yes, grand pa tried to get land, and so did ma, but they wouldn't let him have none.

Q How did they try to do that? A I don't know; grand pa got a claim, and stayed there, I think - he didn't stay there more than six months and ma went down there and tried to get out land, and the white folks run them off.

Q Where was that? A Down below here in this State.

Q Do you know whether your grand father, within six months from the time the treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek was ratified, let the agent of the Government here in Mississippi for the Choctaws, his name was Colonel William Ward, know that he wanted to stay here and become a citizen of the States and take land? A I don't recollect about that, whether he did or not. He was always off and gone.

Q Did he own an improvement here in the old Choctaw Nation in Mississippi and Alabama, in the year 1830, when this treaty was made? A No.

Q That was when you were seven or eight years old?

A Yes.

Q Did he own an improvement here when this treaty was made? A Yes, sir, he did.

Q Where? A Well, he own one right down here I think in Jasper County and that's where they run him off.

Q No, you remember when the treaty was made, so you? A Yes, sir.

Emaline McPhaden, et al.5.

Q Remember that well, do you? A Yes, sir.

Q At that time where were you living? A Down here in Lowndes County, Mississippi. My father and mother lived there; lived there all their lives. Well, not exactly all their lives.

Q You were living in Lowndes County at that time? A Yes, sir.

Q Now, did your grand father own an improvement there in Lowndes County at that time? A No, sir, I don't think he did.

Q Did your father or mother own an improvement there at that time? A No, sir, nary one didn't own none.

Q Did your mother, or father, within six months from the time this treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek was ratified, let the agent of the Government here in Mississippi for the Choctaws at that time, Colonel William Ward, know that they wanted to stay here in Mississippi and become citizens of the States and take land under article 14 of the treaty? A No, sir, I don't think they owned any land.

Q Did they let the agent know they wanted to stay here; that's the point? A They did stay here in Mississippi; they come away from where that tribe was.

Q Now, that's a simple question, and I want you to say if you know, and if you don't, say you don't know. I want to know whether any of them, within six months after the treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek was ratified, let the agent of the Government here in Mississippi, Colonel William Ward, know that they wanted to stay here in Mississippi and become citizens of the States and take land? A I don't know.

Q Now, none of your ancestors went out to the new nation west of the Mississippi River when the Choctaws moved out there? A No, sir, none of them.

Q Now, did your mother, or father for her, or your mother's father, or any other of your ancestors, ever get any land here in Mississippi from the Government of the United States under article 14 of the treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek? A No, sir, only just that claim I was telling you about that grand pa settled on.

Q When was it he settled on that claim? A It was after the treaty. About six years, I reckon, or seven, along there somewhere, because I know I was eight years old, and he moved off his little home down there, and went down below there, and told that he was going to live down there among them, and he went down there to get him a claim, and he made attempt and set him out a claim, and ma went down to get hers then and mine, and I think, I know she couldn't get it, and they told her she was married to a white man, and she couldn't get none.

Q Who told her that? A I don't know who told her.

Q You say you were about eight years old when your grand father went down there? A Yes, sir, I don't know how long he stayed.

Q It couldn't have been six years after the treaty when he went down there, for you were eight years old when the treaty was made?

Q I don't know; I was along there somewhere; I don't know exactly; I am telling you the truth; I don't recollect the very time he went, but I think that was the time. Because he has lived here and died in this State and so did my mother; they never did go to the new country.

Q Have any of them ever gotten any land any of your ancestors, ever gotten any land here in Mississippi from the Government that you know of? A No, sir, I don't know.

Q Did any of them ever get any money from the Government? A No, sir, they didn't.

Emaline McFadden, 6.

Q Did your grand father ever make any further effort to establish his rights to land here in Mississippi? A No.

Q Did your mother ever make any further efforts? A No, sir.

Q Do you know how he got that claim? A No, sir, I don't know how he got that claim.

Q Don't know anyth of the details about it at all? A No, sir.

Q You think it was in Jasper County? A That old Jack Thompson, I know well enough who took it away from him, he was a white man, a slave holder.

In accordance with the provisions of article 14 of the treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek, the Government of the United States directed an agent here in Mississippi to register the names of such Choctaws as might desire to remain here and become citizens of the States and take land. The records of the Government show that this agent failed to register and report to the Government the names of many Indians who did, in fact, let him know that they wanted to stay here and become citizens of the States and take land, and on this account, the Government at its public land sales here in Mississippi in many instances sold land upon which Choctaws lived and had improvements, and which they supposed they would receive under article 14 of the treaty. This caused a great deal of complaint among the Indians that the matter was finally brought to the attention of Congress, and Congress passed certain Acts between the years 1837 and 1842, providing for the appointment of commissions to come down here to Mississippi and hear the cases of Choctaws who claimed that they had complied in all respects with the provisions of article 14 of the treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek, but that their land had been sold by the Government. These commissioners were duly appointed by the President of the United States and they came down here to Mississippi between the years 1837 and 1845, and heard a great many of these Choctaw cases.

Q Did any of your ancestors appear before any of these commissioners and attempt to establish their rights under article 14 of the treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek? A No.

Q Do you remember when these commissioners were down here, fifty or sixty years ago? A Yes, sir, but they didn't do it.

Q Do you remember where the commissioners held sessions? A No, sir just like they are now. They would go to so many places you can't keep up with them.

Q Do you remember the names of any of these commissioners?

A No, sir,

An Act of Congress approved on the 23rd day of August, 1842, provided that in case it should be finally determined that a Choctaw had complied in all respects with the provisions of article 14 of the treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek, but that his land had been sold by the Government, he should be entitled to select in the place of the land so sold by the Government, land some place else in Mississippi, or Alabama, Louisiana, or Arkansas, from vacant Government land, and should be given a certificate to that effect. These certificates were called scrip.

Emaline McFadden, 7.

Q Did any of your ancestors ever get any of this scrip from the Government of the United States under this Act of Congress? A No, sir.

Q Are you sure of that? A Not as I know of.

Q Do you know of any old persons living who would likely know whether any of your ancestors ever complied or attempted to comply with the provisions of article 14 of the Treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek, or ever received any benefits thereunder? A No, sir, they are all dead.

Q Do you know of any written evidence of any kind which would show or tend to show such a state of facts? A No, sir.

Q Have you any witnesses here to day? A No, sir, I aint got no witnesses here.

Q Have you any written evidence of any description to offer? A No, sir.

If you should find any witnesses whose testimony you desire to have taken by the Commission, they may appear before the Commission, here at Veridian, Mississippi, at any time before the 15th of this month, or within a reasonable time thereafter at the General Office of the Commission, in Muskogee, Indian Territory, and their testimony will be taken.

Q Are there any further statements you want to make? A No, sir I don't know that there is.

Q How many children have you living? A Seven.

Q What are their names? A Nancy Casselberry.

Q Next one? A John W. McFadden.

Q Next one? A James L. McFadden.

Q Next one? A Joseph Monroe.

Q Next one? A Mary Hazlewood.

Q Next one? A Sarah Elizabeth Bennett and Caroline Frances Graham.

Q Is that all? A All that's living.

Q How many of them have been before the Commission? A John W. McFadden and Monroe.

Q How many children have you dead? A Four.

Q Did any of them leave children? A Yes, sir.

Q How many? A One.

Q What's the name of the one who left children? A Martha Ann; I have got four dead - Laura Stringfellow.

Q Who alives where? A (No answer.)

Q What was Martha Ann's other name? A Goe.

Q How many of her children are living now? A All of them, well she had one dead; she has got three girls and four boys.

Q What are their names? A Ira Everett.

Q Next? A Mary Alice.

Q Next? A Winnie Lee.

Q Next one? A Sam G.

Q Now, what's the name of the children of Mrs. Stringfellow? A Frances, she is named after her mother.

Emaline McEdden, 8.

Q Is she married? A She aint but ten years old.

Q Are any of these children married? A No, sir, aint none of them married.

Q Are any of your brothers or sisters living? A I don't know; I couldn't tell you. I haven't got any letters from them; some was in Texas and some in Alabama, and some one place and then another.

Q How long since you heard from them? A Its been a long time.

Q You don't know anything about them then? A No, sir, couldn't tell you nary thing about them; they haven't written to me. I have one sister, I believe in the Territory; she writes to my son there.

Q What's her name? A Frances Caroline Thompson.

Q Name your other brothers and sisters? A Well, I don't know whether they are all living or not,

Q Name those you think are living? A William Jasper Loggins.

Q Next? A James W. Loggins.

Q Next one? A John Milton Loggins.

Q Next one? A Henry F. Loggins.

Q Next? A Wesley Loggins; that's my youngest brother, and I don't know nothing about none of them.

Q How many sisters did you have? A I had three.

Q You have given the name of one of the; what's the name of the other two? A Arlevia G. Arnold.

Q Next one? A She's dead; I can't tell you her name.

Q What was her name? A Sarah Elizabeth Powell.

Q

(This applicant has the appearance of being a white woman and shows no indication of being possessed of Indian blood. She does not speak or understand the Choctaw language.)

--: D E C I S I O N :--

It appears from the record herein that applications for identification as Mississippi Choctaws were made to this Commission by Emaline McFadden for herself; by John W. McFadden, for himself and his eight minor children, May Ette, William G., Robert E., Hattie Elvira, George W., Zackary T., John W. and Laura B. McFadden; by Joseph M. McFadden for himself and his three minor nieces, Mary Alice Gee, Minnie Gee and Laura Stringfellow; by John W. McFadden for Samuel E. Gee, his minor nephew now serving in the United States Army in the Philippine Islands; and by John W. McFadden for the identification of his wife, Elvira J. McFadden, as an intermarried Mississippi Choctaw, under the following provision of the act of Congress approved June 28, 1893, (30 Stat., 495).

"Said Commission shall have authority to determine the identity of Choctaw Indians claiming rights in the Choctaw lands under article fourteen of the treaty between the United States and the Choctaw Nation, concluded September twenty-seventh, eighteen hundred and thirty, and to that end may administer oaths, examine witnesses and perform all other acts necessary thereto, and make report to the Secretary of the Interior.

It also appears that all of said applicants claim rights in the Choctaw lands under article fourteen of the treaty between the United States and the Choctaw Nation concluded September twenty-seventh, eighteen hundred and thirty, by reason of being descendants, or married to descendants of Joe (or Jess or Joseph) Nally who is alleged to have been a fullblood Choctaw Indian and to have resided in Mississippi in eighteen hundred and thirty.

It further appears from the evidence submitted in support of said applications, and from the records in the possession of the Commission, that no one of said applicants has ever been enrolled by the Choctaw tribal authorities as a member of the Choctaw tribe, or admitted to Choctaw citizenship by a duly constituted court or committee of the Choctaw nation, or by the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes, or by a decree of the United States Court in Indian Territory, under the provisions of the act of Congress approved June 10, 1896, (29 Stat., 321).

It does not appear from the testimony and evidence offered in support of said applications, or from the records in the possession of the Commission relating to persons who complied or attempted to comply with the provisions of said article fourteen of the treaty of eighteen hundred and thirty, and to persons who heretofore were claimants thereunder, that the said (Joe (or Jose or Joseph) Hally, or ancestors less remote, or the principal applicant herein, signified (in person or by proxy) to Colonel Wm. Ward, Indian Agent, Choctaw Agency, an intention to comply with the provisions of said article fourteen, or presented a claim to rights thereunder to either of the Commissions authorized to adjudicate such claims by the acts of Congress approved March 3, 1837, (5 Stats., 180), and August 23, 1842, (5 Stats., 513).

It is, therefore, the opinion of this Commission that the evidence herein is insufficient to determine the identity of Eualine McFadden, John W. McFadden, May Epte McFadden, William O. McFadden, Robert E. McFadden, Hattie Elvira McFadden, George W. McFadden, Zackary T. McFadden, John W. McFadden (2), Laura B. McFadden, Joseph M. McFadden, Mary Alice Gee, Minnie Gee, Laura Stringfellow and Samuel E. Gee as Choctaw Indians entitled to rights in the Choctaw lands under the provisions of said article fourteen of the treaty of 1830, and that the applications for their identification as such should be refused, and it is so ordered.

It is the further opinion of the Commission that under the provision of law above quoted, no person is entitled to identification as a Mississippi Choctaw by marriage, and that the application made by John V. McFadden for the identification of his wife, Elvira J. McFadden, as an intermarried Mississippi Choctaw, should, therefore, be refused, and it is so ordered:

M.C.R.4704.

Muskogee, Indian Territory, July 18, 1902.

The Honorable,

The Secretary of the Interior.

Sir:

There is transmitted herewith the record in the consolidated case of Emaline McFadden, et al., applicants to the Commission for identification as Mississippi Choctaws, including the decision of the commission of July 18th, 1902.

The above consolidated case embraces the following original applications for identification as Mississippi Choctaws heard by the Commission:

Emaline McFadden,	M.C.R. 4704
John W. McFadden, et al.,	M.C.R. 736
Joseph M. McFadden, et al.,	M.C.R. 742
Samuel E. Gee,	M.C.R. 739

The Commission has the honor to report that the principal applicants in the several separate applications, their attorneys of record and the attorneys for the Choctaw and Chickasaw Nations have been duly advised by letter of the action of the Commission, copies of said letters being attached to the record.

Respectfully,

Through the

Dear Madam:

You are hereby advised that on the 18th, day of July, 1902, the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes rendered a decision in the consolidated case of Emaline McFadden, et al., embracing the following applications for identification as Mississippi

Choctaws:

Emaline McFadden,	M.C.R. 4704
John W. McFadden, et al.,	M.C.R. 786
Joseph M. McFadden et al.,	M.C.R. 742
Samuel E. Gee,	M.C.R. 789

These applications were made under the provision of the act of Congress of June 28, 1898 (30 Stats., 495) which is as follows:

"Said Commission shall have authority to determine the identity of Choctaw Indians claiming rights in the Choctaw lands under article fourteen of the treaty between the United States and the Choctaw Nation, concluded September twenty-seventh, eighteen hundred and thirty, and to that end may administer oaths, examine witness, and perform all other acts necessary thereto, and make report to the Secretary of the Interior."

Said decision concludes as follows:

"It is, therefore, the opinion of this Commission that the evidence herein is insufficient to determine the identity of Emaline McFadden, John W. McFadden, May Ette McFadden, William O. McFadden, Robert E. McFadden, Hattie Elvira McFadden, George W. McFadden, Zackary T. McFadden, John W. McFadden (2), Laura B. McFadden, Joseph M. DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR,
OFFICE OF INDIAN AFFAIRS,

Washington, Aug. 7, 1902.

The Honorable,
The Secretary of the Interior.

Sir:

There is enclosed herewith a report from the Acting Chairman of the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes dated July 18, 1902, forwarding for the Department's consideration the consolidated case of Emaline McFadden, et al., for identification as Mississippi Choctaws claiming rights in the Choctaw lands under the provisions of the 14th article of the treaty of 1830.

Emaline McFadden applies for the identification of herself; John W. McFadden for the identification of himself and his minor children May Ette, William O., Robert E., Hattie Elvira, George W., Zachary T., John W. and Laura B. McFadden; Joseph M. McFadden applies for the identification of himself and his three nieces, Alice Gee, Minnie Gee and Laura Stringfellow; John W. McFadden also applies for the identification of his nephew Samuel E. Gee, who is now serving in the United States Army in the Philippines, and for the identification of his wife Elvira J. McFadden as an intermarried Mississippi Choctaw.

July 18, 1902, the Commission held that the parties above named were not entitled to identification as Mississippi Choctaws.

The record in the case shows that the applicants attempt to trace descent from Joe, Jose or Joseph Nally who was the father of Nancy Loggins nee Nally, mother of principal applicant, John McFadden. William Loggins, father of said principal applicant and husband of Nancy Loggins, was a white man.

The records of this office do not show that anyone by the name of Loggins or by the name of Nally complied or attempted to comply with the provisions of the 14th article of the treaty of 1830, or that they or either of them applied to the commissions appointed under the acts of March 3, 1837 and August 23, 1842, for an adjudication of any rights they may have had.

By Department letter of August 1, 1902, the office is in receipt of a communication from F. G. Barry, of West Point, Mississippi, dated July 28, 1902, enclosing a "petition of John J. McFadden, of Griffith, Clay County, Mississippi, for a rehearing" in the consolidated Mississippi Choctaw case of Emaline McFadden, et al.

The office has considered Mr. Barry's application and enclosures and his principal ground of complaint seems to be based on the fact that he did not get in as a part of the evidence in said case certain questions and answers which he desired to have propounded to Elias Alexander McFadden, of Big Springs, Clay Co., Mississippi.

Inasmuch as the alleged original ancestor named does not appear on the records of this office as a person who complied, or attempted to comply with the provisions of the 14th article of the treaty of 1830 or applied to the commissions appointed under the acts last above mentioned for an adjudication of his rights, the office does not see that the evidence sought to be introduced would be of any benefit to the applicants.

It is therefore respectfully recommended that the decision of the commission rejecting the applicants be approved.

Very respectfully,

Your obedient servant,

(Signed) A. C. Tonner,

Acting Commissioner.

Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes,

Muskogee, Indian Territory.

Gentlemen:

July 18, 1902, you transmitted the record in the consolidated case (M.C.R. 4704), embracing the applications for identification as Mississippi Choctaws of Emaline McFadden for herself; of John W. McFadden for himself and his eight minor children, May Ette, William O., Robert H., Hattie Elvira, George W., Zachary T., John W., and Laura B. McFadden; of Joseph M. McFadden for himself and his three nieces, Alice Gee, Minnie Gee and Laura Stringfellow, and his nephew Samuel E. Gee, also for his wife Elvira J. McFadden, together with your decision of July 18, 1902, refusing to enroll the applicants.

In a letter dated July 28, 1902, addressed to the Department, F. G. Barry, as attorney for petitioner, writes:

"I inclose herewith petition of J. W. McFadden, of Griffith, Clay County, Mississippi, for a re-hearing in this case, as an applicant for identification and share in the allotment of the tribe of Choctaw Indians."

Said petition was accompanied by an affidavit, signed by Elias A. McFadden. Reference to same will be hereinafter made.

The applicant, Emaline McFadden, was born about 1823. The other applicants are her children and grand children. She traces her descent through her mother, Nancy Loggins, nee Nally, to her grand-father, Joe (or Jose or Joseph), Nally, an alleged full blood Choctaw Indian. The testimony tends to show that she was living with her said parents in Mississippi in 1830. It appears that her father attempted to acquire land, presumably under the treaty of 1830, as shown by her statement, made February 10, 1902 (See page 2 of the record), which is as follows:

"He associated with the Indians the most of his time, for the white people wouldn't have nothing to do with him, and down here where he went to get his claim, and Ma went to get hers and to get me some; he wouldn't go with the tribe when they went off, and he got him a little claim- he called it a claim, and built a little hut of a house on it, and when he was in that house, ma went to see him, and to get ours, and a white man by the name of Jack Thompson run him off of it, and give him an old kind of a house of a thing, and wouldn't give him a thing for the land; the old man just moved about in Mississippi until he died; he died in Monroe County, in this State."

The affidavit referred to above, of her husband, Elias A. McFadden, corroborates her testimony as to her ancestry. It also contains the following statements:

"I was here in time of the treaty of 1830."

"Joseph Nally went to Jasper County. What is known as Jasper County, Mississippi., in about three months after the treaty."

"A man by the name of Zache Thompson fell out with him and forced him to leave, but he came back to his old settlement in Lowndes County, Miss., and he made two or three trips trying to get his land but he never succeeded."

"William Loggins undertook to establish his wife's claim in the year 1840 something. I don't exactly remember the year Shaw was here. Shaw refused him on account of them being mixed up with the white people."

From the alleged facts, as stated above, it appears that the principal applicant's father and grand-father, both attempted to comply with the provisions of the treaty of September 27, 1830. There is nothing, however, which shows that such compliance was attempted in reference to the fourteenth article of said treaty. It further appears that the record in your possession, and also those at the Indian Office, fail to show that any of the alleged ancestors ever complied or attempted to comply with the provisions of article fourteen of the treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek. It is therefore believed, in view of the whole record, that the applicants have failed to establish their claim for identification as Mississippi Choctaws, and that the evidence submitted does not warrant a rehearing.

August 7, 1902, the Acting Commissioner of Indian Affairs recommended that your action be approved. The Department concurs therein, and your decision is accordingly affirmed.

A copy of the Acting Commissioner's letter is inclosed.

Respectfully,

(Signed) Thos. Ryan,
Acting Secretary.

Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes,
Meridian, Mississippi, February 10, 1902.

In the matter of the application of Sam Bryant for the identification of himself, his wife, Clara, and seven minor children, Morris, Florence, Ep, French, Adie, Columbus and Ollie, as Mississippi Choctaws.

Sam Bryant, having been first duly sworn, upon his oath testified as follows:

Examination by the Commission.

- Q What is your name? A Sam Bryant.
- Q How old are you? A I was ten years old when the war commenced.
- Q What war, Civil War? A Yes, sir, that's been, you know, -
- Q You are about fifty one years old, are you? A Yes, sir.
- Q How much Choctaw blood have you? A Well, my mother's just half, and my father, old man David Bryant, in the edge of Mississippi, raised him; I don't know what he was.
- Q Then, you are 1/4? A Yes, sir.
- Q What's your post office address? A Chunkey Station.
- Q What county? A Newton.
- Q How long have you lived in Newton County? Mississippi? A I have been there about thirteen years, probably fourteen.
- Q Where did you live before that? A In Choctaw.
- Q What - Choctaw what? A Choctaw County.
- Q Where? A Yes, the County seat was Butler.
- Q Well, that was in Alabama then? A Yes.
- Q Were you born up there? A Yes, sir.
- Q Were you a slave? A No, sir.
- Q Sure of that? A Well, I - there is a man here in this town, Mr. Hunter, can tell you. He used to be an old cotton weigher here.
- Q Is your father living? A No, sir, he's dead.
- Q What was his name? A Gilbert Bryant.
- Q Is your mother living? A Yes, sir.
- Q What's her name? A Candis.
- Q Through which one of your parents do you get your Choctaw blood? A My mother.
- Q Where does she live? A She lives at Whynot.
- Q In Lauderdale County? A Yes, sir.
- Q Has she been before the Commission? A I don't know, sir; that's what I want to find out.
- Q What name does she go by? A She is a Baskin now, she married again.
- Q You say she has one-half Choctaw blood? A Yes, sir.
- Q About how old is your mother? A I don't know, sir; she is about seventy some odd years old, I guess.
- Q Where was she born? A I don't know, sir, she was brought over in Choctaw there, a preacher Lyons raised them up, two girls.
- Q Where was she brought from? A I don't know what part.

Sam Bryant, et al., 2.

Q She was a slave, wasn't she? A No, sir.

Q Was your father a slave? A Yes, sir, belonged to old man David Bryant.

Q How long has your mother lived in Mississippi? A She's been here in Mississippi - in the State of Mississippi about twelve years. She was raised over in Alabama, a girl raised up.

Q Through which one of her parents did she get her Choctaw blood, her mother or her father? A Her father.

Q What was his name? A I don't know, sir, I never did see him.

Q You know nothing about him? A No, sir.

Q He was a full blood Choctaw, according to your testimony?

A Yes, sir.

Q How do you know he was? A Well, her looks used to prove it, and then everybody said she was.

Q Does she know who her father was? A I don't know, sir, she was brought away, just them two girls; when they was brought to this country, one was five years old, and the other one was eight or nine.

Q Did you ever hear where they were brought from? A I think they was brought from Green County, somewhere.

Q In this State? A Yes, sir.

Q What's her name? A Clara.

Q Do you want to make application for her too, do you? A Yes, sir.

Q How old is she? A She's about forty five, maybe a little older than that.

Q She was a slave? A Yes, sir.

Q Has she lived in this State all her life? A I don't - yes sir.

Q What was her father's name? A I don't know, sir, I never did know him.

Q What was her mother's name? A Julia Reed.

Q Is she living now? A Yes, sir.

Q Where does she live? A She lives in Sumter County, Alabama.

Q How long has Julia lived over there? A She's been in there about all of her life, I reckon.

Q Has she any Choctaw blood? A Yes, sir, she looks like she might be about half to me.

Q Are you willing to swear that she has one half Choctaw blood?

A Yes, sir.

Q You don't know except from her appearance? A Yes, sir.

Q Did your wife's father have any Choctaw blood? A I don't know, sir; I don't think she knows her father at all.

Q When did you first hear that Julia Reed had any Choctaw blood?

A Well, I don't know - I have been knowing that for years.

Q Did you ever hear just how much she had? A Well, they claim that she was about one-quarter; she favors more so than I do.

Q How old is Julia? A I don't know, sir.

Q About how old is she? A I think she's about eighty years old.

Q Where was she born? A I don't know, sir, ever since I been knowing her in Sumter County.

Sam Bryant, et al., 3.

Q Through which one of her parents did she get her Choctaw blood?

A I don't know, sir.

Q Do you know the name of her father, or her mother? A No, sir.

Q Were you married to your wife under a license? A Yes, sir.

Q When? A Its been - I don't know, I got my license at the County Seat at Butler; I don't know how many years its been.

Q Where were you married to her? A Just about a mile this side of Mr. Henry Phillips store, Yantley postoffice, Choctaw County, Alabama.

Q Have you lived with her ever since? A Yes, sir.

Q How many children have you living who are under age and unmarried?

A I have got seven.

Q What are their names and ages? A Morris.

Q How old is Morris? A He's about ~~nineteent~~ years old.

Q Next one? A Florence.

Q How old is she? A About a year younger - eighteen.

Q Next one? A Ep.

Q How old is Ep? A He's about sixteen years old.

Q Is your name, your wife's name, or the name of any one of these children, to be found upon any of the Choctaw tribal rolls in Indian Territory? A I don't know.

Q Have you ever made any application of any kind before to-day for yourself, or your wife, or any one of these children, looking to the establishment of your rights as Choctaw Indians? A No, sir.

Q This is the first application of any kind that has ever been made for any of you? A Yes, sir.

Q Do you appear before the Commission at this time for the purpose of claiming rights in the Choctaw lands in Indian Territory for yourself, wife and seven minor children, under article 14 of the treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek? A Yes, sir.

Q Do you understand article 14 of the treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek? A No, sir.

Q Do you know what a treaty is? A Yes, sir, I have an idea.

Q Do you know what a contract is? A Yes, sir.

Q Or agreement? A Yes, sir.

Q A treaty is a contract or agreement between Nations, or between the Government and an Indian tribe, and an article of a treaty is a paragraph, or sub-division, or part of a treaty? A Yes, sir.

Sam Bryant, et al., 4.

This treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek was entered into here in Mississippi on the 27th day of September, 1830, between the United States Government and the Choctaw tribe of Indians. At the time this treaty was made, the Choctaws lived here in Mississippi and along the western edge of the State of Alabama. The object of the treaty was to get these Indians to move from the country occupied by them here in Mississippi and Alabama to a new country west of the Mississippi River, a part of which is now occupied by the greater portion of the Choctaw tribe of Indians, and is commonly known as the Choctaw Nation, Indian Territory. At the time this treaty was made, some of the Indians were unwilling to leave this country, and for the benefit of those who wanted to stay here, what is known as the 14th article was put in the treaty. That 14th article provided that upon certain conditions a Choctaw who wanted to stay here in Mississippi might receive land here in Mississippi from the Government. It is as follows:

"Each Choctaw head of a family being desirous to remain and become a citizen of the States shall be permitted to do so by signifying his intention to the agent within six months from the ratification of this treaty, and he or she shall thereupon be entitled to a reservation of one section of six hundred and forty acres of land, to be bounded by sectional lines of survey; in like manner shall be entitled to one-half that quantity for each unmarried child which is living with him over ten years of age; and a quarter section to such child as may be under ten years of age, to adjoin the location of the parent. If they reside upon said land intending to become citizens of the States for five years after the ratification of this treaty, in that case a grant in fee simple shall issue; said reservation shall include the present improvement of the head of the family, or a portion of it. Persons who claim under this article shall not lose the privilege of a Choctaw citizen, but if they ever remove are not to be entitled to any portion of the Choctaw annuity."

Q Do you think you understand that 14th article? A Yes, sir.

Q Pretty sure of it, are you? A Yes, sir.

Q Did any of your ancestors ever comply or attempt to comply with the provisions of article 14 of the treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek, or ever receive any benefits thereunder? A I don't know, sir, I just thought may be they had, and I begin to think that may be I had better begin to get it.

Q You don't know whether any of them ever complied with that treaty provision or not? A No, sir.

Q Do you know whether any of your wife's ancestors ever did?

A No, sir.

Q Did any of your ancestors, or any of your wife's ancestors, own an improvement here in the old Choctaw Nation in Mississippi and Alabama, in the year 1830, when this treaty was made? A No, sir.

Sam Bryant, et al., 5.

Q Did any of them live here at that time? A Not as I know of.

Q Did any of them remove from the old Choctaw Nation here in Mississippi and Alabama, to the present Choctaw Nation, in Indian Territory, at the time of the removal of the greater portion of the Choctaw tribe of Indians between the years 1833 and 1838? A No, sir.

Q Did any of them, within six months after the treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek was ratified, let the agent of the Government here in Mississippi for the Choctaws know that they wanted to stay here in Mississippi and become citizens of the States and take land? A No, sir, not as I know of.

Q Did any of your ancestors, or any of your wife's ancestors, ever claim or receive any land here in Mississippi from the Government of the United States under article 14 of the treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek? A No, sir.

Q Sure of that? A No, sir.

Q Did any of them ever get any land under any other provision in that treaty? A No, sir.

Q Did any of them ever get any money from the Government? A No, sir.

Q Are you sure that none of your Choctaw ancestors lived here in the old Choctaw Nation, in Mississippi and Alabama, in the year 1830, when this treaty was made, over seventy one years ago? A No, sir, not as I know of.

Q You never heard of any of your ancestors, or any of your wife's ancestors, ever having received any benefits whatever as Choctaw Indians? A No, sir.

In accordance with the provisions of article 14 of the treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek, the Government of the United States directed an agent here in Mississippi to register the names of such Choctaws as might desire to remain here and become citizens of the States and take land. The records of the Government show that this agent failed to register and report to the Government the names of many Choctaws who did in fact let him know they wanted to stay here and become citizens of the States and take land, and on this account, the Government, at its public land sales, here in Mississippi, in many instances, sold land upon which Choctaws lived and had improvements, and which they supposed they would receive under article 14 of the treaty. This caused a great deal of complaint among the Indians and the matter was finally brought to the attention of Congress, and Congress passed certain Acts between the years 1837, and 1842, providing for the appointment of commissioners to come down here to Mississippi and hear the cases of Choctaws who claimed that they had complied in all respects with the provisions of article 14 of the treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek, but that their land had been sold by the Government. These commissioners were duly appointed by the President of the United States and the Commissioners came down here to Mississippi and heard a great many of these Choctaw cases.

Q Did any of your ancestors appear before any of these commissioners and attempt to establish their rights under article 14 of the treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek? A No, sir, I never knowed of any.

Q Did any of your wife's ancestors appear before any of them?

Sam Bryant, et al., 6.

A Not as I knows of.

An Act of Congress approved on the 23rd day of August, 1842, provided that in case it should be finally determined that a Choctaw had complied in all respects with the provisions of article 14 of the treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek, but that his land had been sold by the Government, he should be entitled to select in the place of the land so sold by the Government, land some place else here in Mississippi, or in Alabama, Louisiana, or Arkansas, from vacant Government land, and should be given a certificate to that effect. These certificates were called scrip.

Q Did any of your ancestors, or any of your wife's ancestors appear ever get any of this scrip from the Government of the United States under this Act of Congress? A No, sir.

Q You are quite sure of that, are you? A Yes, sir.

Q Do you know of any old person living who would likely know whether or any of your ancestors, or any of your wife's ancestors, ever complied or attempted to comply with the provisions of article 14 of the treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek, or ever received any benefits thereunder? A No, sir, not unless I were to see some of my people.

Q You don't know whether any of them would be informed on this point or not, do you? A No, sir.

Q Have you any witnesses here to-day? A No, sir.

If you should find any witnesses whose testimony you desire to have taken by the Commission, they may appear before the Commission here at Meridian, Mississippi, before the 15th of this month, or within a reasonable time thereafter at the General Office of the Commission, in Muskogee, Indian Territory, and their testimony will be taken.

Q Have you any written evidence of any kind to offer? A No, sir.

Q Any further statements you want to make at this time in support of your application? A No, sir.

Q Have you any children who are of age, or married? A There are two of age, but they are not married?

Q I want their names? A Well, that's Edgar and Judge Bryant.

Q Are they the children of yourself and Clara? A Yes, sir.

Q Where do they live? A Judge is down on the Gulf, and Edgar has been at Ellisville.

Q Have they been before the Commission? A No, sir.

Q Are any of your brothers or sisters living? A Yes, sir, I have got a brother out here in Mississippi.

Q What's his name? A Landy Bryant.

Q Has he been before the Commission? A I don't know, sir.

Q Have you any brothers living? A I have got three or four sisters; got one living here in this town.

Q What are the names of your sisters? A Laney Baskins; she is only half; she's just a half sister to me.

Q She has the same mother as you? A Yes, sir.

Q Next one? Mary Johnson, whole sister.

Sam Bryant, et al., 7.

- Q Next one? A Julia Ruffin.
Q Next one? A Eliza Pearson.
Q Next one? A She's all; got one more, but she's dead.
Q Any of these sisters been before the Commission? A No, sir, not but one that I knows of.
Q Have you any brothers or sisters dead who left children?
A My sister Eliza left a whole lot of children - Bettie, it's Elizabeth, but I call her Bettie.
Q What's her other name? A We always called her by the two names, some called her Lizzie and some Bettie; I always called her Lizzie.
Q What was her married name? A Bettie.
Q Bettie what? A Bettie Bryant, before she married.
Q Who did she marry? A Jim Harmon.
Q How many of her children are living now? A I don't know, sir.
Q Do you know their names? A No, sir.
Q Where do they live? A They live in Choctaw - in Alabama.
Q They live with their father? A Yes - I think my mother's got a portion of them; I don't know.
Q Have you any brothers dead who left children? A No, sir.
Q Are any of your wife's brothers or sisters, living? A Yes, sir, she's got one living and one dead.
Q What's the name of the one living? A Emma Dunn.
Q Has she been before the Commission? A I don't know; she lives at Corrinne.
Q Did the one that died leave children? A No, sir, never did have nary one.
Q Are any of your mother's brothers or sisters, or any of their children living? A Her brothers, two of them, is living, Miles Hardin and Billy Reed. Just half brothers; they are half brothers to my wife, my mother aint never had no brothers that I know of.
Q These half brothers of your wife, have they Indian blood?
A One of them has.
Q Julia's son? A Yes, sir.
Q Where does he live? A He lives in Sumter County, Alabama.
Q Now the other child isn't Julia's son? A Yes, sir, but they have got different daddies, and I don't know.
Q Well, he must have Indian blood ~~as~~ if he is Julia's son. Where does he live? A He lives in Sumter County too.
Q You have stated that your mother never did have any brothers or sisters? A She's got a sister; there was them two girls brought to this country.
Q Is that sister living? A No, sir, she's dead.
Q Did she leave any descendants? A Yes, sir, she's got four or five children; there is two of them living here in this town.
Q Name them all? A Lizzie Evans.
Q Next one? A Priscilla.
Q Priscilla what? A Coleman.
Q Next one? A Lee.
Q Lee what? A Lee Watkins.
Q Next one? A Johnnie Watkins.
Q Next one? A King Baskin; that's all.
Q That's all of her descendants who are living? A Yes, sir.
Q Did your wife's mother ever have any brothers or sisters? A No, sir, if she did, I never seen them.
Q Is there anything further you want to say at this time? A No, sir.
Q You don't speak or understand the Choctaw language, do you? A

Sam Bryant, et al., 8.

A No, sir.

Q Or your wife, either? A No, sir.

(This applicant has the appearance of being a negro, and shows no indication of being possessed of Indian blood. He does not speak or understand the Choctaw language.)

In the matter of the application of Sam Bryant, et al., for identification as Mississippi Choctaws, M. C. R. 4705.

-----0-----

--: D E C I S I O N :--

It appears from the record herein that an application for identification as Mississippi Choctaws was made to this Commission by Sam Bryant, for himself, his wife Clara Bryant, and his seven minor children, Morris, Florence, Ed. French, Adie, Columbus and Ollie Bryant, under the following provision of the act of Congress approved June 23, 1896 (30 Stats., 495):

"Said Commission shall have authority to determine the identity of Choctaw Indians claiming rights in the Choctaw lands under article fourteen of the treaty between the United States and the Choctaw Nation, concluded September twenty-seventh, eighteen hundred and thirty, and to that end may administer oaths, examine witnesses and perform all other acts necessary thereto, and make report to the Secretary of the Interior."

It also appears that Sam Bryant, the principal applicant herein, claims rights in the Choctaw lands under article fourteen of the treaty between the United States and the Choctaw Nation, concluded September twenty-seventh, eighteen hundred and thirty, by reason of being a descendant of Candis Bryant, who is alleged to have been a half blood Choctaw Indian; that the applicant Clara Bryant claims said rights by reason of being a descendant of Julia Reed, who is alleged to have been either an one-fourth or an one-half blood Choctaw Indian, and that the other applicants herein claim said rights by reason of being descendants of the aforesaid Candis Bryant and Julia Reed.

It further appears from the evidence submitted in support of said application and from the records in the possession of the Commission that none of said applicants has ever been enrolled by the Choctaw tribal authorities as a member of the Choctaw tribe, or admitted to Choctaw citizenship by a duly constituted court or committee of the Choctaw Nation, or by the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes, or by a decree of the United States Court in Indian Territory, under the provisions of the act of Congress approved June 10, 1896 (29 Stats., 321).

It does not appear from the testimony and evidence offered in support of said application, or from the records in the possession of the Commission relating to persons who complied or attempted to comply with the provisions of said article fourteen of the treaty of eighteen hundred and thirty, and to persons who heretofore were claimants thereunder, that the said Candis Bryant, or Julia Reed signified (in person or by proxy) to Colonel Wm. Ward,

Indian Agent, Choctaw Agency, an intention to comply with the provisions of said article fourteen, or presented a claim to rights thereunder to either of the Commissions authorized to adjudicate such claims by the acts of Congress approved March 3, 1837 (5 Stats., 180), and August 23, 1842 (5 Stats., 513).

It is therefore the opinion of this Commission that the evidence herein is insufficient to determine the identity of Sam Bryant, Clara Bryant, Morris Bryant, Florence Bryant, Ep Bryant, French Bryant, Adie Bryant, Columbus Bryant and Ollie Bryant as Choctaw Indians entitled to rights in the Choctaw lands under article fourteen of the treaty of eighteen hundred and thirty, and that the application for their identification as such should be refused, and it is so ordered.

Gentlemen:

You are hereby advised that on the 6th day of December, 1902, the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes rendered a decision in the case of Sam Bryant, et al., applicants for identification as Mississippi Choctaws.

This application was made under the provision of the act of Congress of June 28, 1898 (30 Stats., 495).

Said decision concludes as follows:

"It is therefore the opinion of this Commission that the evidence herein is insufficient to determine the identity of Sam Bryant, Clara Bryant, Morris Bryant, Florence Bryant, Ep Bryant, French Bryant, Adie Bryant, Columbus Bryant and Ollie Bryant as Choctaw Indians entitled to rights in the Choctaw lands under article fourteen of the treaty of eighteen hundred and thirty, and that the application for their identification as such should be refused, and it is so ordered."

You are further advised that the applicants herein have been allowed fifteen days from the date hereof within which to file arguments in this office, and that at the expiration of said time the papers in the case, together with such arguments, will be forwarded for review to the Secretary of the Interior through the Commissioner of Indian Affairs.

Respectfully,

James P. Rich.

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR

Office of Indian Affairs,

Washington, March 26, 1903.

The Honorable

The Secretary of the Interior.

Sir:

I have the honor to transmit herewith for your consideration the record of the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes in the matter of the application of Sam Bryant for himself, his wife Clara Bryant, and his seven minor children, Morris, Florence, Eph, French, Adie, Columbus and Ollie Bryant, for identification as Mississippi Choctaws claiming rights as such under the provisions of the 14th article of the Choctaw treaty of 1830.

The testimony in this case shows that the applicants base their claim to identification on their descent from Julia Reed, Clara Bryant's mother, and Candis Bryant, the principal applicant's mother who, it is alleged, were Choctaw Indians and residents in the Choctaw Nation in Mississippi at the time of the making of the Choctaw treaty of 1830.

The Commission rejected the applicants December 6, 1902, because the names of their ancestors through whom they claim do not appear among those who complied or attempted to comply with the provisions of the 14th article of the treaty of 1830, and for the additional reason that the applicants have never been enrolled as citizens of the Choctaw Nation.

An examination of the records of this office has been made with reference to the names of Julia Reed and Candis Bryant, and it is discovered that their names do not appear among those who complied or attempted to comply with the provisions of the 14th article of said treaty; neither does it appear that they applied to the Commissions appointed to adjudicate the claims of those having rights as Choctaw Indians. There was a Lewis Bryant who received land under the provisions of the 14th article of said treaty who had two children over ten and three under ten years of age; but the record does not give the names of these children so that it is impossible to identify the Candis Bryant herein with these children.

These being the facts it is respectfully recommended that the decision of the Commission rejecting the applicants be approved.

Very respectfully,

A. C. TONNER,

Acting Commissioner.

Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes,
Muskogee, I. T.

Gentlemen:

December 22, 1902, you transmitted the record in the matter of the application for identification as Mississippi Choctaws, of Sam Bryant, his wife Clara Bryant, and his minor children, Morris, Florence, Ep, French, Adie, Columbus and Ollie Bryant, including your decision of December 6, 1902, refusing the application.

The applicants claim to be descendants of one or both of the following named persons: Candis Bryant, alleged to have been a half blood Choctaw Indian, and Julia Reed, alleged to have been a one-fourth or one-half blood Choctaw Indian.

The records fail to show that the applicants were ever admitted or enrolled as citizens of the Choctaw Nation, or that either of their alleged ancestors complied or attempted to comply with article 14 of the treaty of September 27, 1830, or with either of the acts of March 3, 1837 (5 Stat., 180), and August 23, 1842.

(5 Stat., 513).

Reporting March 26, 1903, the Acting Commissioner of Indian Affairs recommends approval of your decision. A copy of his letter is inclosed.

The Department has reviewed the whole record, and hereby affirms the decision rendered.

Respectfully,

 Q Have you ever made application for citizenship in the Choctaw Nation for yourself and your child to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes under the act of Congress of June 10, 1896? A No, sir.
 Q Have you ever been admitted to citizenship in the Choctaw Nation by either the Choctaw tribal authorities, the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes or the United States Court in Indian Territory? together with your child? A No, sir.
 Q This is the first application you have ever made for citizenship in the Choctaw Nation for yourself and child to either the Choctaw tribal authorities or the United States authorities? A Yes, sir.
 Q Do you now come before the Commission for the purpose of identifying yourself and your child as Mississippi Choctaws claiming under article fourteen of the treaty of 1830? A Yes, sir.
 Q Do you understand that article of that treaty? A Tolerably well.
 Q Not as well as you would like? A No, sir.

The treaty of 1830 was made between the United States government and the Choctaw tribe of Indians at a place called Dancing Rabbit Creek in the state of Mississippi on the twenty-seventh day of September 1830. The reason why the government made the treaty was because it desired to remove the Choctaw Indians who lived in the old Choctaw Nation, partly in Mississippi and partly in Alabama, from that old Choctaw Nation to the Choctaw Nation Indian Territory. It was thought that their rights would be protected by the government more safely if they had a tribal government of their own in this Territory. But, before the treaty was signed it became known that a good many Choctaw Indians would not go to this new Territory with the other Indians and in order to protect the interest of those Choctaws who stayed back there article fourteen was drafted and put into the treaty and then the treaty was signed and on February 24, 1831 it was ratified. That article reads as follows:

"Each Choctaw head of a family being desirous to remain and become a citizen of the States shall be permitted to do so by signifying his intention to the Agent within six months from the ratification of this treaty and he or she shall thereupon be entitled to a reservation of one section of six hundred and forty acres of land to be bounded by sectional lines of survey; in like manner shall be entitled to one half that quantity for each unmarried child which is living with him over ten years of age and a quarter section to such child as may be under ten years of age to adjoin the location of the parent. If they reside upon said lands intending to become citizens of the States for five years after the ratification of this treaty in that case a grant in fee simple shall issue; said reservation shall include the present improvement of the head of the family or a portion of it. Persons who claim under this article shall not lose the privilege of a Choctaw citizen but if they ever remove are not to be entitled to any portion of the Choctaw annuity."

- Q You think you understand that now? A Yes, sir.
- Q Did any of your ancestors comply with that article or attempt to? My brother and my sister did.
- Q No; any of your ancestors? A I could not say.
- Q What is the name of your ancestor through whom you claim your right to be identified as a Mississippi Choctaw? A Billy Carpenter.
- Q What relation is Billy Carpenter to you? A My grand daddy.
- Q How much Choctaw blood did he have? A I could not say how much. They say he was about one-half.
- Q Is that what you learned from members of the family? A No, sir.
- Q Well do you think he was a half blood Choctaw Indian? A Well Yes; we can produce evidence.
- Q Well do you know; answer the question? A No, sir; I don't.
- Q Can you give the name of any of your ancestors who lived in Mississippi in 1830? A No, sir.
- Q Can you tell the name of the father of Billy Carpenter? A No, sir.
- Q Do you know the name of the mother of Billy Carpenter? A No, sir.
- Q Do you know through which parent Billy Carpenter claimed his Choctaw blood? A From his father's side.
- Q Billy Carpenter claimed through his father? A Yes, sir.
- Q Did his father live in Mississippi in 1830? A I could not say whether he did or not.
- Q How old would your grandfather Billy Carpenter be if he were living now? A I suppose he would be 80 or 90.
- Q If he would be 80 or 90 years old if living now could he have been married and the head of a family in 1830? A I could not say anything about that.
- Q Did he speak the Choctaw language or have a Choctaw Indian name? A Well, it has been so long I have forgot.
- Q You don't know? A No, sir; I do not.
- Q Did he or any of your Choctaw ancestors own any improvements on land in Mississippi or Alabama in 1830? A I could not say.
- Q Did any of your Choctaw ancestors within six months from the ratification of the treaty of 1830 go to the United States Indian Agent Colonel Ward and tell him that they wanted to stay in Mississippi, take land there and become citizens of the United States? A I don't know.
- Q Did any of your Choctaw ancestors go from that old Choctaw Nation to the Choctaw Nation Indian Territory with the other Indians between 1833 and 1838? A Well I don't know whether they did or not.

- Q Did any of your Choctaw ancestors own any land or claim any underarticle fourteen of the treaty of 1830 in Mississippi or Alabama? A I don't know.
- Q Did they own or claim any land under any other article of the treaty of 1830 than article fourteen or under the supplement of that treaty? A I don't know.
- Q Did any of your Choctaw ancestors claim any benefits or receive any as Choctaw Indians under any treaty made between the United States government and the Choctaw tribe of Indians other than the treaty of 1830? A I don't know whether they did or not.

The Choctaw Indians who remained in the state of Mississippi and Alabama, in the old Choctaw Nation, after the treaty of 1830 was ratified were required, if they desired to take advantage of the provisions of article fourteen of that treaty to go to the United States Indian Agent who had an Agency in Mississippi, within six months from the ratification of the treaty and tell him that they wanted to stay there in Mississippi, take land there and become citizens of the United States. A good many Choctaw Indians did this whose names Colonel Ward failed to put upon his list known as Ward's register. It is estimated that at least six thousand Indians stayed back in the old Choctaw Nation and of that number a good many made application to Colonel Ward under the provisions of article fourteen and within the time limited in that article but Ward's register contains the names of only seventy-one heads of families out of the total number of Indians who remained in the old Choctaw Nation. His neglect to make a proper list of the names of all claimants to come before him within that time caused a good many Indians who had land in Mississippi to lose both their land and the improvements which they had upon it, both were taken from them by the United States government and sold at the public land sales. This caused so many complaints that on account of the complaints made Congress appointed a Commission by act approved March 3, 1837, which Commission went to the state of Mississippi and heard claimants under article fourteen of the treaty of 1830. In 1842, by act approved August 23 of that year another Commission was appointed for the same purpose. Both of these Commissions heard claimants under article fourteen in Mississippi and made lists of their names.

- Q Did any of your Choctaw ancestors go before either of these two Commissions and claim benefits under article fourteen of the treaty of 1830? A No, sir.
- Q Did any of your Choctaw ancestors receive any scrip from the United States government as Choctaw Indians which entitled them to select land either in Mississippi, Alabama, Louisiana or Arkansas to be taken from vacant government lands, to replace the land that they claimed they had in Mississippi and which the government had taken from them and sold? A I could not say.
- Q This scrip was a certificate and was issued under the provisions of an act of Congress approved August 23, 1842. You say that you never heard that any of your ancestors received any? A No, sir.
- Q Have you had any relatives who have been before this Commission to be identified as Mississippi Choctaws? A Yes, sir.
- Q Will you give the names of those that have appeared? A R. A. Osborn.
- Q What does that "R" stand for? A That is just the initial, Richard Allen is his name.
- Q Richard A. Osborn is it? A Yes, sir.
- Q Who else if you remember? A Jane Simpson.

#5

- Q Any others? A Burrill Simpson.
Q Any others? A Jimmie Osborn.
Q These are relatives of yours? A Yes, sir.
Q Do they all claim through Billy Carpenter? A Yes, sir.
Q Do you want to have their record examined with yours when yours is taken up? A Yes, sir.
Q Have you any evidence that you want to present now? A No, sir.
Q Would you like time in which to present other testimony? A Yes, sir.

Attorney says "Yes".

A reasonable time will be allowed this applicant in which to furnish evidence if introduced under the rules of the Commission.

- Q Do you speak the Choctaw language? A No, sir.

This applicant has the appearance and physical characteristics of being descended from white parentage; brown hair; dark ruddy complexion; reddish brown mustache; blue eyes. He has no knowledge of the Choctaw language and no knowledge of compliance on the part of his ancestors with any of the provisions of article fourteen of the treaty of 1830.

G. Rosenwinkel being duly sworn on his oath states that as stenographer to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes he reported in full all the proceedings had in the aboveentitled cause on February 14, 1902, and that the above and foregoing is a full, true and correct transcript of his stenographic notes in said cause on said date of February 1902.

John Osborn,
Leonard, Texas.

Dear Sir:

You are hereby advised that on the 1st day of December, 1902, the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes rendered a decision in the consolidated case of William T. Osborn, et al., embracing the following applications for identification as Mississippi

Chocataws:

William T. Osborn, et al.,	M.C.R. 5204
Richard A. Osborn, et al.,	M.C.R. 4465
James Osborne,	M.C.R. 4466
Mary J. Simpson, et al.,	M.C.R. 4322
Burel Simpson,	M.C.R. 4467
John Osborn, et al.,	M.C.R. 4706

These applications were made under the provision of the act of Congress of June 25, 1895 (30 Stats., 495), which is as follows:

"Said Commission shall have authority to determine the identity of Choctaw Indians claiming rights in the Choctaw lands under article fourteen of the treaty between the United States and the Choctaw Nation, concluded September twenty-seventh, eighteen hundred and thirty, and to that end may administer oaths, examine witnesses and perform all other acts necessary thereto, and make report to the Secretary of the Interior."

Said decision concludes as follows:

John Osborn-2

"It is therefore the opinion of this Commission that the evidence herein is insufficient to determine the identity of William T. Osborn, Lillie Belle Osborn, Radford Burrell Osborn, Richard A. Osborne, Eva Osborne, Addie Osborne, Burrell Osborn, Jesse Osborne, Willie Osborne, James Osborne, Mary J. Simpson, Ada M. Simpson, Oscar Simpson, Otis J. Simpson, Luther Simpson, Everett Simpson, Mary Simpson, Arthur Simpson, Noah Simpson, Burel Simpson, John Osborn and Charley Osborn as Choctaw Indians entitled to rights in the Choctaw lands under the provisions of said article fourteen of the treaty of eighteen hundred and thirty, and that the applications for their identification as such should be refused, and it is so ordered."

You are further advised that you will be allowed fifteen days from the date hereof within which to file arguments in this office, and that at the expiration of said time the papers in the case, together with such arguments, will be forwarded for review to the Secretary of the Interior through the Commissioner of Indian Affairs.

Respectfully,

- Q Have you or your children ever been admitted to citizenship in the Choctaw Nation by either the Choctaw tribal authorities, the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes or the United States Court in Indian Territory? A No, sir.

#3

- Q Do you now come before the Commission to be identified as a Mississippi Choctaw and for the identification of your children as Mississippi Choctaws claiming under article fourteen of the treaty of 1830? A Yes, sir.
- Q Do you understand article fourteen of the treaty of 1830? A No, sir.

The treaty of 1830 was made between the United States government and the Choctaw tribe of Indians at a place in Mississippi called Dancing Rabbit Creek on the twenty-seventh of September 1830 and was made for the purpose of effecting the removal of the Choctaw Indians who lived in the old Choctaw Nation from that Nation to the Choctaw Nation Indian Territory. Before the treaty was signed it became known that a good many Choctaw Indians would not go to the Choctaw Nation Indian Territory and in order to protect their interests article fourteen was put into the treaty of 1830. The treaty was then signed and afterwards was ratified on the 24th day of February 1831. That article reads as follows.:

"Each Choctaw head of a family being desirous to remain and become a citizen of the States shall be permitted to do so by signifying his intention to the Agent within six months from the ratification of this treaty and he or she shall thereupon be entitled to a reservation of one section of six hundred and forty acres of land to be bounded by sectional lines of survey; in like manner shall be entitled to one half that quantity for each unmarried child which is living with him over ten years of age and a quarter section to such child as may be under ten years of age to adjoin the location of the parent. If they reside upon said lands intending to become citizens of the States for five years after the ratification of this treaty in that case a grant in fee simple shall issue; said reservation shall include the present improvement of the head of the family or a portion of it. Persons who claim under this article shall not lose the privilege of a Choctaw citizen but if they ever remove are not to be entitled to any portion of the Choctaw annuity."

- Q Did any of your ancestors comply with the provisions of that article of that treaty. Do you know of they did those things that are stated there? A No, sir.
- Q Do you think you understand that now well enough to claim your rights under it? A Yes, sir.
- Q What is the name of your ancestor through whom you claim your rights to be identified as a Mississippi Choctaw? A My mother.
- Q No; go way back to your ancestors? A Sarah Cocheran.
- Q Sally Cocheran? A Yes, sir.
- Q How do you know that she was a Choctaw Indian? A I don't know sir; All I know is what my mother told me about it.
- Q Your mother was Polly Young? A Yes; I might near forgot all that she told me. I remember my grandmother's name.
- Q Did your mother Polly ever live in the state of Mississippi? A Yes, sir.
- Q Are you sure now? A Yes, sir.
- Q Do you know where Mississippi is? A No, sir.
- Q How do you know Polly Young lived in Mississippi? A All I know is what she told me.
- Q She told you that she lived in Mississippi? A Yes, sir.
- Q Was she born in Mississippi? A I don't know.
- Q How old is Polly Young now? A She is somewhere in sixty; I don't know.
- Q What was her mother's name? A Sally George.

- Q Was Sally George the maiden name of your mother or her married name? A I don't know sir.
- Q What was her maiden name? A It was Young.
- Q And your mother's name was Polly Young? A Yes, sir.
- Q Now I asked what her name was before she was married? A She was a George.
- Q She claimed her Choctaw blood through which parent her father or mother? A It was grandmother.
- Q Did she claim through her father or mother? A It was my grandmother.
- Q What was her name? A Sally Young-----Sally George.
- Q What was your grandmother's name before she was married? A I don't know.
- Q You say you claim through Sally Cochran, who was she? A Sarah Cochran.
- Q Well who was she? A My great grandmother.
- Q Did she live in Mississippi in 1830? A I don't know sir.
- Q Did any of your ancestors live in Mississippi? A Aunts.
- Q Ancestors; do you know what an ancestor is? A No, sir.
- Q Well your father or mother or any of your grandfathers or grandmothers, on either side would be ancestors. Your grandfather would be an ancestor or your grandmother would be an ancestor? A Yes, sir.
- Q Now did any of your ancestors live in Mississippi in 1830? A I don't know sir; I reckon they did.
- Q Do you know? A No, sir.
- Q What makes you reckon some of them did? A I heard mama say.
- Q That they lived in Mississippi? A Yes, sir.
- Q Did you hear your mother say who lived in Mississippi? A I heard her say that her mother and grandmother lived in Mississippi.
- Q Were they slaves there before the War? A I don't know.
- Q Your mother was? A Yes, sir.
- Q Would not her parents be? A Yes, sir.
- Q How old would Sally Cochran be if she were living now? A I don't know.
- Q Did she have or own any improvements on land in Mississippi or Alabama in 1830? A She owned some there some time but I don't know what year it was.
- Q How could she own land if she was a slave? A I don't know sir.
- Q Well you said she owned some? A Yes, sir.
- Q How could she own land if she was a slave? A I don't know.
- Q Then you have to take that back don't you? A Yes, sir.
- Q Did any of your Choctaw ancestors within six months after the ratification of the treaty of 1830 go to the United States Indian Agent Colonel Ward and tell him that they wanted to stay in Mississippi, take land there and become citizens of the United States? A I don't know sir.
- Q Did any of your Choctaw ancestors go from that old Choctaw Nation to the Choctaw Nation, Indian Territory with the other Indians between 1833 and 1838 or '40? A I don't know sir.
- Q Did you ever hear that any of your Choctaw ancestors owned any land or claimed any in Mississippi or Alabama under article fourteen of the treaty of 1830? A No, sir; I never did.
- Q Did any of your Choctaw ancestors to your knowledge own or claim any land in Mississippi or Alabama or any benefits whatever under any other article of the treaty of 1830 than article fourteen or under the supplement of that treaty? A No, sir; not that I knows of.
- Q Did any of your Choctaw ancestors claim any benefits as Choctaw Indians under any treaty made between the United States government and the Choctaw tribe of Indians other than the treaty of 1830? A Not as I knows of.

The Choctaw Indians, who were members of the Choctaw tribe of Indians who lived in the old Choctaw Nation in Mississippi and Alabama in 1830, who refused to go to the Choctaw Nation Indian Territory with the other Indians under the provisions of the treaty of 1830, were required, if they wanted to take advantage of the provisions of article fourteen of that treaty, to go to the United States Indian Agent Colonel Ward who had an agency in Mississippi at that time and state to him that they intended to stay in Mississippi, take land there and become citizens of the United States. A good many Choctaw Indians did this, whose names Colonel Ward failed to put upon his list known as Ward's register and his failure to make a complete list of all Choctaw Indian claimants who came before him within the time limited in article fourteen caused a good many Choctaw Indians who had land in Mississippi, upon which they had improvements to lose both their land and the improvements they had upon it; both were taken from them by the government and sold at its public land sales. This caused a great many complaints among the Choctaw Indians and these complaints resulted that in 1837, by act approved March 3 of that year a Commission to be appointed, which Commission went to the state of Mississippi and heard claimants under article fourteen of that treaty. In 1842 another Commission was appointed by Congress by act approved August 23, of that year and this Commission went to Mississippi also and heard claimants under article fourteen of the treaty of 1830.

- Q Did any of your Choctaw ancestors go before either of these two Commissions and claim benefits as Choctaw Indians? A I don't know.
- Q Did they ever receive any scrip or certificates from the United States government which entitled them to select land either in Mississippi, Alabama, Louisiana or Arkansas to take the place of land which they formerly owned in Mississippi and which the government had taken from them and sold? A No, sir; not that I know of.
- Q These certificates or scrip were issued under the provisions of an act of Congress approved August 23, 1842 and were given to those Indians only who had had land in Mississippi which the government took from them and which they were entitled to hold. You never heard that any of your people ever received any such scrip? A No, sir.
- Q Have you any relatives who have been before this Commission to be identified as Mississippi Choctaws before you? A No, sir; nothing more than my mother.
- Q What is her name? A Polly Young.
- Q Any other relatives? A No, sir.
- Q Do you want to have your mother's case considered with yours and both considered together? A Yes, sir.
- Q Have you any evidence that you want to introduce now in support of your claim? A Yes, sir.

The affidavit of Polly Young presented by this applicant, received, filed, marked exhibit A and made a part of the record in this case.

Certified copy of the affidavit of J. S. Smith, presented by this applicant, received, filed, marked exhibit "B" and made a part of the record in this case.

Certified copy of the affidavit of W.C. Porter, presented by this applicant received, filed, marked exhibit "A" and made a part of the record in this case.

Q Is there anything more you want to say now in support of this claim? A No, sir.

This applicant has the appearance and physical characteristics of being descended from Negro parentage. She has all the facial characteristics also her manner and dialect would indicate that race.

Q Do you speak Choctaw? A No, sir.

She has no knowledge of the Choctaw language and no knowledge of compliance on the part of her ancestors with any of the provisions of the fourteenth article of the treaty of 1830.

G. Rosenwinkel being duly sworn on his oath states that as stenographer to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes he reported in full all the proceedings had in the above entitled cause on February 14, 1902, and that the above and foregoing is a full, true and correct transcript of his stenographic notes in said cause on said date of February 1902.

- Q When were you married to your wife? A I was married December 1883, December 17, 1883.
- Q By a minister? A Yes, sir.
- Q Have you proof of that marriage with you? A No,,sir.

A reasonable time will be allowed this applicant to prove the marriage of himself and his wife.

- Q Is your name or the name of any of your children on any of the tribal rolls of the Choctaw Nation in Indian Territory? A No, sir.
- Q Have you ever made application for citizenship in the Choctaw Nation to the Choctaw tribal authorities in Indian Territory? No,,sir.
- Q Have you ever been admitted to citizenship in the Choctaw Nation with your children by either the Choctaw tribal authorities, the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes or the United States Court in Indian Territory? A No, sir.
- Q Have you ever made application for citizenship in the Choctaw Nation for yourself and children to the Dawes Commission under the act of Congress of June 10, 1896? A No, sir.
- Q Do you now come before the Commission for the purpose of being identified as a Mississippi Choctaw and for the identification of your children as Mississippi Choctaws claiming under article fourteen of the treaty of 1830? A Yes, sir.
- Q Do you understand that article? A I understood it when you were saying it.

The treaty of 1830 was made made between the United States government and the Choctaw tribe of Indians at a place called Dancing Rabbit Creek in Mississippi on the twenty-seventh of September 1830 and was made for the purpose of the removal of all the Choctaw Indians who lived in the old Choctaw Nation East of the Mississippi River to the Choctaw Nation Indian Territory. Before it was signed it became known that a good many Choctaw Indians would not go to the Choctaw Nation Indian Territory and in order to protect the interests of those Indians who elected to remain back there in Mississippi, article fourteen was put into the treaty of 1830. That article is as follows:

"Each Choctaw head of a family being being desirous to remain and become a citizen of the States, shall be permitted to do so, by signifying his intention to the Agent within six months from the ratification of this treaty, and he or she shall thereupon be entitled to a reservation of one section of six hundred and forty acres to be bounded by sectional lines of survey; in like manner shall be entitled to one half that quantity for each unmarried child which is living with him over ten years of age and a quarter section to such child as may be under ten years of age to adjoin the location of the parent. If they reside upon said lands intending to become citizens of the States for five years after the ratification of this treaty in that case a grant in fee simple shall issue; said reservation shall include the present improvement of the head of the family or a portion of it. Persons who claim under this article shall not lose the privilege of a Choctaw citizen but if they ever remove are not to be entitled to, any portion of the Choctaw annuity."

- Q What is the name of your ancestor through whom you claim your right to be identified as a Mississippi Choctaw? A Hannah George, and Sarah Cocheran.
- Q Who is Sarah Cocheran, what relation to Hannah George? A I don't know.
- Q What relation is Sarah Cocheran to you? A My great grandmother I guess.
- Q Don't you know what relation she is? A I never did see her.
- Q A good many of us have never seen our great grandmother's but we know we had them? A Yes, sir.
- Q How do you know that Sarah Cocheran is your great grandmother? A A My mother told me.
- Q She told you that Sarah Cocheran was your great grandmother? A A Yes, sir.
- Q Who did she tell you that Hannah George was? A My grandmother.
- Q That Hannah George was your grandmother and Sarah Cocheran your great grandmother; what relation would they be to each other? A A She must have been her daughter.
- Q How much Choctaw blood did Sarah Cocheran have? A I don't know sir.
- Q How do you know you have got any Choctaw blood? A I don't know at all; only from what my mother said.
- Q Did you ever hear anybody else say so? A No, sir.
- Q How many times did you ever hear her say you had Choctaw blood? A Lots of times.
- Q Did she keep talking about it? A Yes, sir.
- Q But you never heard that from anybody else? A No, sir.
- Q You never heard your father say that you had any Indian blood through your mother? A No, sir.
- Q You were a slave before the war? A No, sir.
- Q You would have been living then would you not; you were born in 1865; I guess you would not? A Yes, sir.
- Q Do you remember of ever hearing your mother say whether you were born during the War? A No, sir.
- Q Or before or after the surrender? A Just before the Surrender I think, she said. I don't remember whether she said just before or after.
- Q How old would your great grandmother Sarah Cocheran be if living now? A I don't know.
- Q Did she, or Hannah George or any of your Choctaw ancestors live in Mississippi in 1830? A I don't know.

- Q Did you ever hear that any of them ever lived in Mississippi? A I heard my mother say that her people lived in Mississippi.
- Q Did your mother ever live in Mississippi? A I reckon so.
- Q Did her mother live in Mississippi? A I don't know that.
- Q Did you ever hear that any of your Choctaw ancestors owned any improvements on land in Mississippi or Alabama in 1830? A I don't know what year it was but I heard my mother say about my grandmother having property in Mississippi.
- Q Was she not a slave? A She says not?.
- Q What was her name? A Who?
- Q Grandmother? A Hannah George is my grandmother.
- Q Did any of your Choctaw ancestors within six months after the ratification of the treaty of 1830 go to the United States Indian Agent Colonel Ward and tell him that they wanted to stay in Mississippi, take land there and become citizens of the United States? A I don't know.
- Q Did any of your Choctaw ancestors go from that old Choctaw Nation to the Choctaw Nation Indian Territory with the other Indians between 1833 and 1838? A I don't know sir.
- Q Did any of your Choctaw ancestors own any land or claim any in Mississippi or Alabama as Choctaw Indians under article fourteen of the treaty of 1830? A I don't know but I heard my mother talk about her people owning property in Mississippi.
- Q Did they claim it under article fourteen of the treaty of 1830? A I don't know that.
- Q This land that you claim your mother said some of her people owned in Mississippi; did she say whether they bought it? A They don't know what it was; it was a store, Grocery store.
- Q Who of your ancestors owned a grocery store in Mississippi? A I think her grandmother?
- Q Who was that? A Sarah Cocheran.
- Q Do you testify that Sarah Cocheran owned a grocery store in Mississippi in 1830? A No, sir.
- Q Or any other time in Mississippi? A No, sir; I only know what she said.
- Q You don't know that she owned any land? A No, sir.
- Q Did any of your Choctaw ancestors own any land or claim any under any other article of the treaty of 1830 than article fourteen or under the supplementary articles of that treaty? A I don't know sir.
- Q Did they ever claim any benefits as Choctaw Indians under any treaty made between the United States government and the Choctaw Indians other than the treaty of 1830? A I don't know sir.

In 1837, a Commission was appointed, by act of Congress approved March 3, of that year, which Commission went to the State of Mississippi and heard claimants under article fourteen of the treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek. In the year 1842 another Commission was appointed by Congress under an act of August 23, of that year and these two Commissions went to Mississippi and heard claimants under article fourteen of the treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek. These two Commissions were appointed to pass upon the claims of Choctaw Indians who claimed that they had presented themselves within six months after the ratification of the treaty of 1830 at the agency of Colonel Ward, the United States Indian Agent and had told him that they wanted to stay in Mississippi, take land there and become citizens of the United States. This they claimed they had done within six months from the ratification of the treaty; but, he failed to put their names upon his list known as Ward's register and for that reason the lands they had had in Mississippi were taken from them by the government and sold. These Commissions of 1837 and the Commission of 1842 were appointed to right the wrong of such Indian claimants.

- Q Did any of your Choctaw ancestors go before either of these two Commissions and claim benefits under article fourteen of the treaty of 1830? You never heard? A No, sir; I never did.

The act of Congress approved August 23, 1842, provided that if a Choctaw Indian proved his claim under article fourteen of the treaty of 1830 and if it also further appeared that he had formerly had land in Mississippi which the government had taken from him that he should be entitled to select land either in Mississippi, Alabama, Louisiana or Arkansas, to be taken from vacant government land and that a certificate to this effect should be given him. These certificates were called scrip.

- Q Did any of your Choctaw ancestors receive any such scrip from the government as Choctaw Indians? A Not that I know of.
 Q What relation is Willie Potts to you? A Sister.
 Q What relation is Pelly Young to you? A Mother.
 Q They have both been before the Commission to be identified as Mississippi Choctaws? A Yes, sir.
 Q You want to have their records and yours considered together? A Yes, sir.
 Q Do you speak the Choctaw language? A No, sir.
 Q Have you any evidence that you want to introduce now? A Yes, sir.

Certified copy of the affidavit of J. S. Smith presented by this applicant, received, filed, marked exhibit "A" and made a part of the record in this case.

Certified copy of the affidavit of W. C. Porter presented by this applicant, received, filed, marked exhibit "B" and made a part of the record in this case.

- Q Have you any witnesses that you want to call before the Commission? A No, sir.
 Q You desire any more time in this case for the presentation of testimony? A No, sir.
 Q Is there anything more you want to say in support of this claim? A No, sir.
 Q Do you speak or understand the Choctaw language? A No, sir.

This applicant has the appearance and physical characteristics of being descended from Negro parentage. He does not show any traces of Choctaw blood. He has no knowledge of the Choctaw language and no knowledge of compliance on the part of his ancestors with the provisions of article fourteen of the treaty of 1830.

G. Rosenwinkel being duly sworn on his oath states that as stenographer to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes he reported in full all the proceedings had in the above entitled cause on February 14, 1902, and that the above and foregoing is a full, true and correct transcript of his stenographic notes in said cause on said date of February 1902.

 Q Have you ever made application for citizenship in the Choctaw Nation to the Choctaw tribal authorities in Indian Territory? A No, sir.
 Q Have you ever made application for citizenship in the Choctaw Nation for yourself and children to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes under the act of Congress of June 10, 1896? A No, sir.
 Q Five years ago? A No, sir.
 Q Have you or your children ever been admitted to citizenship in the Choctaw Nation by either the Choctaw tribal authorities, the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes or the United States Court in Indian Territory? A I don't understand that.
 Q Have you or your children ever been made citizens? A No, sir.
 Q Do you now come before the Commission for the purpose of being identified yourself and these children as Mississippi Choctaws claiming under article fourteen of the treaty of 1830? A Yes, sir.
 Q Do you understand that article of that treaty? A No, sir.

The treaty of 1830 was made between the United States government and the Choctaw Indians at a place called Dancing Rabbit Creek in the state of Mississippi on the twenty-seventh day of September 1830 and was made for the purpose of removing all of the Choctaws from the old Choctaw Nation East of the Mississippi River to the Choctaw Nation Indian Territory. Before the treaty was signed however it became known that a good many Choctaw Indians would not go to the Choctaw Nation Indian Territory and in order to protect their interests article fourteen was drafted and put into the treaty. The treaty was then signed and afterward ratified. That article reads as follows:

"Each Choctaw head of a family being desirous to remain and become a citizen of the States shall be permitted to do so by signifying his intention to the Agent within six months from the ratification of this treaty and he or she shall thereupon be entitled to a reservation of one section of six hundred and forty acres of land to be bounded by sectional lines of survey; in like manner shall be entitled to one half that quantity for each unmarried child which is living with him over ten years of age; and a quarter section to such child as may be under ten years of age to adjoin the location of the parent. If they reside upon said lands intending to become citizens of the States for five years after the ratification of this treaty in that case a grant in fee simple shall issue; said reservation shall include the present improvement of the head of the family or a portion of it. Persons who claim under this article shall not lose the privilege of a Choctaw citizen but if they ever remove are not to be entitled to any portion of the Choctaw annuity."

- Q Do you think you understand that well enough to claim under it?
A Yes, sir.
- Q What is the name of your ancestor through whom you claim your right to be identified as a Mississippi Choctaw? A My great grandmother.
- Q What was her name? A Sarah Cocheran.
- Q Did any of your ancestors comply with that article of the treaty or try to; do you know? A Yes, my mother.
- Q Did they comply with that article? A That you just read.
- Q Yes sir? A I don't know; I did not understand it well enough. If I understood it I might know.
- Q How do you know that Sarah Cocheran was a Choctaw Indian? A I don't know; only what my mother said.
- Q Did she tell you? A Yes, sir.
- Q Was Sarah Cocheran a slave? A No, sir.
- Q Did she live in Mississippi in 1830? A I don't know.
- Q Did she ever live in Mississippi? A Not that I know of. I heard my father talking a great deal about Mississippi.
- Q Was your mother born in Mississippi? A I don't know sir whether she was or not.
- Q Can you give the names of any of your Choctaw ancestors who lived in Mississippi? A Not any, only my grandmother.
- Q Who was she? A Sarah Cocheran.
- Q I asked you if she lived in Mississippi and you said you did not know? A I told you I did not know any one only what I heard my mother say.
- Q What did you hear her say about Sarah Cocheran living in Mississippi in 1830? A I just heard that she lived in Mississippi and she never was a slave and I heard that she owned a block.
- Q A House you mean? A Yes, sir.
- Q Who was that; Sarah Cocheran? A Yes, sir.
- Q Well did she keep a store? A Yes, sir.
- Q Did she own any land? A Not that I know of.
- Q Did she have any improvements on land in Mississippi to your knowledge? A I don't know.
- Q Did any of your Choctaw ancestors within six months after the ratification of the treaty of 1830 go to the United States Indian Agent Colonel Ward and tell him that they wanted to stay in Mississippi, take land there and become citizens of the United States? A No, sir.
- Q Did any of your Choctaw ancestors go from that old Choctaw Nation to the Choctaw Nation Indian Territory with the other Indians between 1833 and 1838? A No, sir.
- Q Did any of them own any land or claim any in Mississippi or Alabama under article fourteen of the treaty of 1830? A No, sir; not that I know of.
- Q Did they claim any land or own any under any other article of the treaty of 1830 than article fourteen or under the supplement of that treaty? A No, sir not that I know of.

#4

- Q Did they claim any benefits as Choctaw Indians under any treaty made between the United States and the Choctaw tribe of Indians other than the treaty of 1830; did you ever hear that they did?
A No, sir.

The Indians who remained in Mississippi after the treaty of 1830 was ratified were required to go to the United States Indian Agent Colonel Ward within six months from the ratification of the treaty, if they wanted to take advantage of the provisions of article fourteen of that treaty, and tell him that they wanted to stay in Mississippi, take land there and become citizens of the United States. A good many Choctaw Indians did this whose names Colonel Ward failed to put upon his list known as Ward's register. His failure to make a full and complete list of all Indians who came before him under article fourteen of that treaty caused a good many Indians who had land in Mississippi to lose both their land and the improvements for both were taken from them by the government and sold at the public land sales. This caused so many complaints that Congress by act approved March 3, 1837, appointed a Commission which Commission went to the state of Mississippi and heard claimants under article fourteen of the treaty of 1830. In 1842, by act approved August 23, of that year Congress appointed another Commission which also went to Mississippi and heard claimants under article fourteen of the treaty of 1830.

- Q Did any of your Choctaw ancestors go before either of these two Commissions and claim benefits as Choctaw Indians under article fourteen of the treaty of 1830. Did you ever hear? A No, sir; I never did.
- Q Did any of your Choctaw ancestors receive any scrip or certificates from the United States government as Choctaw Indians which entitled them to select land in either Mississippi, Alabama, Louisiana or Arkansas to take the place of land which they held in Mississippi which had been taken from them by the government and sold? A No, sir.
- Q Is Polly Young your mother? A Yes, sir.
- Q Did she appear before the Commission to be identified as a Mississippi Choctaw last fall? A Yes, sir.
- Q What relation is Willie Potts to you? A Sister.
- Q What relation is Alexander Young? A Brother.
- Q Do these all claim through the same ancestor Sarah Cocheran? A Yes, sir.
- Q Do you want the record in their cases considered with yours when yours is taken up by the Commission? A Yes, sir.
- Q Do you speak the Choctaw language? A No, sir.
- Q Have you any documents that you want to present now or any further proof? A Yes, sir.

Certified copy of the ex parte affidavit of W. C. Porter presented by applicant, received, filed, marked exhibit "A" and made a part of the record in this case.

Certified copy of the ex parte affidavit of J. S. Smith, presented by applicant, received, filed and marked exhibit "B", made a part of the record in this case.

- Q Have you any other evidence that you want to submit or do you want any time in which to introduce other testimony? A No, sir.
- Q Is there anything more you would like to say in support of this claim? A No, sir; not that I know of.

Q Do you now come before the Commission to identify yourself and these children as Mississppi Choctaws claiming under article fourteen of the treaty of 1830? A Yes sir.
Q Do you understand that article of that treaty? A No, sir.

The treaty of 1830 was made between the United States govern - ment and the Choctaw Indians at a place called Dancing Rabbit Creek in Mississippi on the 27th day of September 1830 and was made for the purpose of removing all the Choctaw Indians who lived in that old Choctaw Nation to the Choctaw Nation Indian Territory but before the treaty was signed it became known that a good many Choctaw Indians would not go to the Choctaw Nation Indian Territory with the other Indians under the treaty of 1830 and in order to protect their interests article fourteen was put into the treaty of 1830. It reads as follows:

"Each Choctaw head of a family being desirous to remain and become a citizen of the States, shall be permitted to do so, by signifying his intention to the Agent within six months from the ratification of this treaty and he or she shall thereupon be entitled to a reservation of one section of six hundred and forty acres of land to be bounded by sectional lines of survey; in like manner shall be entitled to one half that quantity for each unmarried child which is living with him ever ten years of age and a quarter section to such child as may be under ten years of age, to adjoin the location of the parent. If they reside upon said lands intending to become citizens of the States for five years after the ratification of this treaty in that case a grant in fee simple shall issue; said reservation shall include the present improvement of the head of the family or a portion of it. Persons who claim under this article shall not lose the privilege of a Choctaw citizen but if they ever remove are not to be entitled to any portion of the Choctaw annuity."

- Q Do you understand that now well enough to claim under it? A Yes, sir; I reckon.
Q Did your ancestors, any of them, ever comply with that article of that treaty, or tried to? A I don't know sir.
Q What is the name of your ancestor through whom you claim your right to be identified as a Mississippi Choctaw? A I don't understand you.

- Q Don't you know what an ancestor is? A No, sir.
- Q Your grandmother, or grandfather would be ancestors; what was the name of your ancestor through whom you claim your right to be identified as a Mississippi Choctaw? A I don't know.
- Q Do you know the name of your great grandmother? A Yes, sir.
- Q What was her name? A Sarah Cocheran.
- Q Was that on your mother's side? A Yes, sir.
- Q That is your great grandmother? A Yes, sir.
- Q What was your grandmother's name on your mother's side? A Hannah George.
- Q She was the mother of your mother? A Yes, sir.
- Q Did your mother or Hannah George or Sarah Cocheran, any of them, ever live in Mississippi or Alabama? A I don't know sir.
- Q Do you know whether any of them lived in Mississippi in 1830 and had a family there then? A No, sir.
- Q How do you know then that you are a Mississippi Choctaw? A Just going on what my mother told me.
- Q What did she say about it? A She said that she was.
- Q Did she say that she ever lived in Mississippi? A Yes, sir.
- Q She did; your mother? A Yes, sir.
- Q Was she born in Mississippi? A I don't know sir, where she was born.
- Q Did she say that her mother lived in Mississippi? A I don't know.
- Q Did she say that her grandmother was born and lived in Mississippi? A I don't know sir.
- Q Was Sarah Cocheran a slave before the War? A I don't know sir.
- Q Was her daughter Hannah George a slave? A I don't know sir.
- Q Your mother was, was she not? A Yes, she says she was.
- Q How could she become a slave and her mother not? A Her mother must have been one too.
- Q Well then was not her mother one? A I don't know sir.
- Q How much Choctaw blood did Sarah Cocheran have? A I don't know sir.
- Q How old would she be if living now? A I don't know how old she would be.
- Q How old would Hannah George be if living now? A I don't know sir.
- Q Did any of your Choctaw ancestors own any improvements on land in Mississippi or Alabama in 1830? A I don't know sir.
- Q Did any of your ancestors within six months after the ratification of the treaty of 1830 go to the United States Indian Agent Colonel Ward and tell him that they wanted to stay in Mississippi, take land there and become a citizen of the United States? A I don't know sir.
- Q Did you ever hear that any of them went from that old Choctaw Nation to the Choctaw Nation Indian Territory with the other Indians between 1833 and 1838 or '40? A No, sir.
- Q Did any of your Choctaw ancestors own any improvements on land in Mississippi or Alabama in 1830? A I don't know sir.
- Q Did any of your Choctaw ancestors own any land or claim any in Mississippi or Alabama under article fourteen of the treaty of 1830? A I don't know sir.
- Q Did they claim any land under any other article of that treaty than article fourteen or under the supplement of that treaty do you know? A No, sir.
- Q Did they claim any benefits whatever as Choctaw Indians under any treaty made between the United States government and the Choctaw tribe of Indians other than the treaty of 1830; do you know? A No, sir.

- Q Did any of your Choctaw ancestors go before the Commission appointed by act of Congress, approved March 3, 1837 or before the Commission appointed by act of Congress approved August 23, 1842, and claim benefits as Choctaw Indians under article fourteen of the treaty of 1830? A No, sir; not that I know of.
- Q These two Commissions were appointed because Choctaw Indian claimants alleged that they had gone before Colonel Ward, the United States Indian Agent within six months from the ratification of the treaty and told him that they intended to stay in Mississippi, take land there and become citizens of the United States but that he failed to put their names upon his list known as Ward's register. For this reason and in order to get the benefits of article fourteen, with which they claimed they had complied, they went before the Commission of 1837 and 1842, either one or the other. You don't know whether any of your ancestors went before either? A No, sir.
- Q Did any of your Choctaw ancestors receive any scrip from the government of the United States which entitled them to select land in Mississippi, Alabama, Louisiana or Arkansas to take the place of land which they claimed they had previously held in Mississippi and which the government had taken from them and sold at its public land sales? A I don't know sir.
- Q This scrip or these certificates were issued under an act of Congress approved August 23, 1842. You don't know whether any of your ancestors received any? A No, sir.
- Q What relation is Polly Young to you? A My mother.
- Q What relation is Alexander Young to you? A Brother.
- Q Millie Potts? A Sister.
- Q These have all appeared before the Commission to be identified as Mississippi Choctaws? A Yes, sir.
- Q All claim through Sarah Cocheran? A Yes, sir.
- Q You want to have their records considered with yours when yours is taken up for consideration by the Commission? A Yes, sir.
- Q Have you any documentary evidence of any kind that you want to present now? A Yes, sir.

Certified copy of the ex parte affidavit of W. A. Porter presented by this applicant, received, filed, marked exhibit "A" and made a part of the record in this case.

Certified copy of the ex parte affidavit of J.S. Smith presented by this applicant, received, filed, marked exhibit "B" and made a part of the record in this case.

- Q Do you want time for the presentation of any other evidence? A No, sir.
- Q Do you speak or understand the Choctaw language? A No, sir.

This applicant has the appearance and physical characteristics of being descended from Negro parentage; she claims part Choctaw blood but does not know how much she claims; shows no traces of Choctaw descent. She does not understand the Choctaw language and knows of no compliance on the part of her ancestors with any of the provisions of article fourteen of the treaty of 1830.

Belle Nero,

Pottshoro, Texas.

Dear Madam:

You are hereby advised that on the 25th day of July, 1903, the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes rendered a decision in the consolidated case of Polly Young, et al., embracing the following applications for identification as Mississippi Choctaws:

Polly Young, et al.,	W.C.R. 3625
Millie Potts, et al.,	• 4709
Alexander Young, et al.,	• 4708
Belle Nero, et al.,	• 4710
Willie Potts, et al.,	• 4707
James Young,	• 4711

These applications were made under the provision of the act of Congress of June 28, 1898 (30 Stats. 495) which is as follows:

Said Commission shall have authority to determine the identity of Choctaw Indians claiming rights in the Choctaw lands under article fourteen of the treaty between the United States and the Choctaw Nation, concluded September twenty-seventh, eighteen hundred and thirty, and to that end may administer oaths, examine witnesses and perform all other acts necessary thereto, and make report to the Secretary of the Interior.

Said decision concludes as follows:

B X 2

"It is, therefore, the opinion of this Commission that the evidence herein is insufficient to determine the identity of Polly Young, Effie Young, Millie Potts, Frank Potts, Maud Potts, Curley Burn Potts, Daisy Potts, Austin Potts, Elias Potts, Alexander Young, Theodor Young, Allen Young, Andrew Young, Sammie Young, Della Nere, Winnie Nere, Roger Nere, Louisa Nere, Tinney Nere, Ray Nere, Sadie Nere, Willie Potts, Vesta Potts, Lizzie Lane Potts, Ethel Potts, Maudie Potts, Charlotte Potts, Jeffrey July Potts, and James Young, as Choctaw Indians entitled to rights in the Choctaw lands, under the provisions of said article fourteen of the treaty of eighteen hundred and thirty, and that the applications for their identification as such should be refused, and it is so ordered."

You are further advised that the Commission has on this date forwarded the record in this case to the Secretary of the Interior for review, and you will be informed in due time of such action as may be taken by him.

Yours truly,

SIGNED

Belle Nero,
Pottsboro, Texas.

Dear Madam:

Receipt is hereby acknowledged of your letter of the 2nd inst., in which you ask to be informed "what additional proof I will have to secure in my case."

It appears from our records that you are an applicant to this Commission for the identification of yourself and minor children as Mississippi Choctaws, having made said application before the Commission at its office in Muskogee, Indian Territory, February 14, 1902, and that your case was consolidated with the case of Polly Young, who the records of the Commission show, is your mother, and certain other persons who are applicants to the Commission for identification as Mississippi Choctaws, claiming descent from the same common ancestor, Sarah Cochran.

The authority vested in this Commission to determine the identity of so-called Mississippi Choctaws is contained in the provisions of the act of Congress of June 23, 1898, as follows:

"Said Commission shall have authority to determine the identity of Choctaw Indians claiming rights in the Choctaw lands under article fourteen of the treaty between the United States and the Choctaw Nation, concluded September twenty-seventh, eighteen hundred and thirty, and to the end may administer oaths, examine witnesses and perform all other acts necessary thereto, and make report to the Secretary of the Interior.*

B H

At the time you made your application article fourteen of the treaty of eighteen hundred and thirty, was read to you, and in reply to a question you stated that you understood the provisions of that article of the treaty.

The Commission requires of applicants for identification as Mississippi Choctaws that they reasonably demonstrate that they are descendants of Choctaw Indians who resided within the territorial limits of the old Choctaw Nation in the states of Mississippi and Alabama, in 1830, and complied or attempted to comply with the provisions of article fourteen of the treaty of 1830, or were subsequently adjudicated beneficiaries thereunder by either of the two Commissions authorized for this purpose by the acts of Congress of March 3, 1837 and August 23, 1842.

The several applicants in the consolidated case of Polly Young, et al., having failed to submit any proof of the compliance on the part of Sarah Ceshran with the provisions of the fourteenth article of the treaty of 1830, the Commission on July 25, 1902, rendered its decision refusing the right to identification as Mississippi Choctaws of the several persons whose applications are included in said consolidated case and on the same date notified the several applicants therein of such decision and of the forwarding of the record to the Secretary of the Interior for his review.

You will be informed in due time of such action as may be taken by him.

Yours truly,

Acting Chairman.

In the matter of the application for identification as a Mississippi Choctaw of James Young.

Applicant not represented by attorney.

James Young being first duly sworn testifies as follows:

Examination by the Commission.

- Q What is your name? A James Young.
Q What is your age? A Twenty-five.
Q What is your post office address? A Denison, Texas, 314 Johnson street.
Q How long have you lived in Denison? A I have lived in Denison about five years.
Q Where did you live before that? A Yes, sir.
Q Where were you born? A Born in Preston Bend.
Q Always lived in Texas? A Yes, sir.
Q In Grayson County? A Yes, sir.
Q Is your father living? A No, sir.
Q Is your mother living? A Yes, sir.
Q What was your father's name? A Alfred Young.
Q What was your mother's name? A Polly Young.
Q Do you claim Choctaw blood through your mother? A Yes, sir.
Q How much do you claim? A Don't know how much.
Q Has your mother ever been recognized in any way or enrolled as a member of the Choctaw tribe of Indians by the Choctaw tribal authorities or the United States authorities in Indian Territory? A No, sir.
Q Was your father a slave before the War? A Yes, I guess so.
Q He was a Negro? A Yes, sir.
Q Was your mother a slave? A Yes, sir.
Q How much Negro blood did she have? A I could not tell you.
Q More than Choctaw? A I could not tell you that.
Q You are not married? A No, sir.
Q You claim for yourself alone? A Yes, sir.
Q Is your name on any of the tribal rolls of the Choctaw Nation in Indian Territory? A No, sir.
Q Have you ever made application for citizenship in the Choctaw Nation to the Choctaw tribal authorities in Indian Territory? A No, sir.
Q Have you ever made application to the Dawes Commission under the act of Congress of June 10, 1896? A No, sir.
Q Have you ever been admitted to citizenship in the Choctaw Nation by the Choctaw tribal authorities, the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes or the United States Court in Indian Territory? A No, sir.
Q Do you now come before the Commission for the purpose of being identified as Mississippi Choctaw claiming under article fourteen of the treaty of 1830? A Yes, sir.
Q Do you understand that article of that treaty? A Yes, I guess so

- Q You have heard it read and explained a good many times? A Yes sir.
- Q Think you understand it now without a further explanation? A Why just do as you like about it.
- Q How about your understanding; do you think you understand it well? A No, sir; I don't understand it well.
- Q Do you know what a treaty is? A No, sir; not exactly.
- Q You know what a contract in writing is? A No, sir.
- Q You know what an agreement is? A No, sir.
- Q Did you not make a contract with the Railroad Company and agreed to work for them? A Yes, sir.
- Q Now then supposing you put that in writing and you sign it on one side and the sign it on the other that is a contract. Now a treaty is a compact in writing made between two or more Nations whereas an agreement or contract in writing is made between two or more people. The treaty of 1830 which was made between the United States government and the Choctaw Nation was a compact in writing made between these two Nations and the representatives of the United States government on one side and the Chiefs and head men of the Choctaw tribe on the other side and that made two parties to the treaty. Now the object of that treaty was to remove all of the Choctaw Indians who lived way across there East of the Mississippi River, in the states of Mississippi and Alabama, from that Nation, called the old Choctaw Nation, to the new Choctaw Nation, Indian Territory. That was what the treaty was made for. Well, a good many Indians came to this new Choctaw Nation Indian Territory under that treaty but a good many others would not come, they said "No" they would not come but stayed back there, so that treaty would not have been signed by the Choctaw Nation only the United States government said we will put in article fourteen in the treaty, if that will satisfy you Indians which article was put into the treaty for the protection of the interests of the Choctaw Indians who stayed back there in the old Choctaw Nation. Now you understand that? A Yes, sir.
- Q Now then this article reads as follows:

"Each Choctaw head of a family being desirous to remain and become a citizen of the states shall be permitted to do so, by signifying his intention to the Agent within six months from the ratification of this treaty and he or she shall thereupon be entitled to a reservation of one section of six hundred and forty acres of land to be bounded by sectional lines of survey; in like manner shall be entitled to one half that quantity for each unmarried child which is living with him over ten years of age and a quarter section to such child as may be under ten years of age, to adjoin the location of the parent. If they reside upon said lands intending to become citizens of the States for five years after the ratification of this treaty in that case a grant in fee simple shall issue; said reservation shall include the present improvements of the head of the family or a portion of it. Persons who claim under this article shall not lose the privilege of a Choctaw citizen but if they ever remove are not to be entitled to any portion of the Choctaw annuity."

- Q Now do you understand that? A Yes, sir.
- Q Do you know whether any of your ancestors complied or attempted to comply with any of the provisions of that article of that treaty. Do you know whether any of them did those things? A Mother says that my great grandmother did.

- Q What was her name? A Sarah Cocheran.
- Q She was your great grandmother on your mother's side? A Yes, sir
- Q Did she own any land in Mississippi? A Yes, sir; I don't know whether she owned it in Mississippi or not but she was a native of somewhere or another.
- Q How did any of your ancestors live in Mississippi? A That is what I don't know.
- Q How much Choctaw blood did Sarah Cocheran have? A Mamma says she was a full blood.
- Q Could she speak the Choctaw language? A I suppose she could.
- Q You don't know that? A No, sir; only what I was told.
- Q By your mother? A Yes, sir.
- Q Was she a slave before the War or was her daughter a slave, Hannah George? A My great grandmother was no slave but Hannah George was a slave because she was stolen away from her Mamma that is how come her to be a slave.
- Q You are sure about that stolen business? A That is what I was told by my Mamma.
- Q Did any of your Choctaw ancestors within six months after the ratification of the treaty of 1830 go to the United States Indian Agent Colonel Ward and tell him that they wanted to stay in Mississippi, take land there and become citizens of the United States? A I don't know.
- Q Don't know whether any of your ancestors came from that old Choctaw Nation to the Choctaw Nation Indian Territory between 1833 and 1838? A I guess my great grandmother did. That is what Mamma says.
- Q Where did she locate? A I could not tell you.
- Q Then all of your people lived in the Indian Territory since? A No, sir.
- Q If your great grandmother came to the Indian Territory, was her daughter Hannah George born in the Indian Territory? A I don't know.
- Q If she was she was a slave in the Indian Territory? A She could not because none of the rest of them was slaves.
- Q But you said a little while ago that Hannah George was? A She was after she was stolen?
- Q Was she living in the Territory when she was stolen? A I don't know where she was living.
- Q You don't know where she was taken to after she was stolen? A No, sir.
- Q Did any of your Choctaw ancestors own any land or claim any under article fourteen of the treaty of 1830 in the state of Mississippi? A I don't know.
- Q Did any of your Choctaw ancestors own or claim any land in Mississippi or Alabama under any other article of the treaty of 1830 than article fourteen or under the supplement of that treaty? A I don't know sir.
- Q Did any of your Choctaw ancestors claim any benefits as Choctaw Indians under any treaty made between the United States government and the Choctaw tribe of Indians other than the treaty of 1830? A Why I suppose my great grandmother did.
- Q Do you know? A That is what I have been told.
- Q Under what other treaties did she claim? A I don't know which one.

The Choctaw Indians who stayed in the old Choctaw Nation in Mississippi and Alabama after the treaty of 1830 was ratified were required, if they wanted to take advantage of the provisions of article fourteen of that treaty, to go to the United States Indian Agent Colonel Ward, who had an Agency in Mississippi at that time and tell him that they wanted to stay in Mississippi take land there and become citizens of the United States. A good many Choctaw Indians did this within the time limited under the provisions of article fourteen of the treaty of 1830, but Colonel Ward failed to put their names down upon the list made by him known as Ward's register. This caused a great many Indians who had complied with article fourteen and who were entitled to hold land in Mississippi or Alabama to lose the land which they were occupying and the improvements upon that land, both were taken from them by the government and sold at its public land sales. This caused a great many complaints among the Choctaw Indians so that in 1837 by act approved March 3, of that year Congress appointed a Commission which went to Mississippi and heard claimants under article fourteen of the treaty of 1830. In 1842 another Commission was appointed by act approved August 23, of that year for the same purpose and this Commission went to Mississippi and heard claimants under article fourteen of that treaty.

- Q Did any of your Choctaw ancestors go before either of these two Commissions and claim benefits as Choctaw Indians under article fourteen? A I don't know.
- Q Did any of your Choctaw ancestors ever receive any scrip from the United States government as Choctaw Indians which entitled them to select land either in Mississippi, Alabama, Louisiana or Arkansas, to be taken from vacant government land? A I don't know unless it was my great grandmother.
- Q Did you ever hear that your great grandmother ever received any scrip from the government under the provisions of the act of Congress of August 23, 1842? A Yes, I heard Mamma say.
- Q Did she tell you all about that act of Congress of August 23, 1842? A Yes, she said she was no slave.
- Q Well the question is did she tell you about that act of Congress at that time? A No, sir; she did not tell me all about it.
- Q Who is Polly Young? A My mamma.
- Q And she told you about these things? A I heard her say that.
- Q And it is Polly Young who made application at Atoka, to be identified as a Mississippi Choctaw? A Yes, sir.
- Q These things that she has told you will appear in her record; she also made application? A Yes, I guess so.
- Q Who is Alexander Young? A My brother.
- Q Millie Petts? A My sister.
- Q Belle Nere? A My sister.
- Q Do you want to have the records in these cases all consolidated under the head of your mother's case? A Yes, sir.
- Q Have you any evidence that you want to introduce now in support of your claim? A Nothing but these papers.

Certified copy of the ex parte affidavit of J. S. Smith presented by this applicant received, filed, marked exhibit "A" and made a part of the record in this case.

Certified copy of the ex parte affidavit of W. C. Porter presented by applicant, received, filed, marked exhibit "B" and made a part of the record in this case.

- Q Do you speak the Choctaw language? A No, sir.
- Q Have you any other evidence that you want to introduce now in support of your claim? A No, sir.
- Q Do you want time in which to introduce more? A No, sir; not that I know of.

- Q Did you ever make application of any description before to-day for yourself and these children for the purpose of establishing your rights as Choctaw Indians? A No, sir, I haven't.
- Q Do you appear before the Commission at this time for the purpose of claiming rights in the Choctaw lands in Indian Territory for yourself and these four minor children under article 14 of the treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek? A Yes, sir.
- Q Do you understand article 14 of the treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek? A No, sir, I don't understand it.

This treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek was entered into here in Mississippi on the 27th day of September, 1830, between the United States Government and the Choctaw tribe of Indians. At the time this treaty was made, the Choctaws lived here in Mississippi and along the western edge of the State of Alabama. The object of the treaty was to get these Indians to move from the country occupied by them here in Mississippi and Alabama to a new country west of the Mississippi River, a part of which is now occupied by the greater portion of the Choctaw tribe of Indians and is commonly known as the Choctaw Nation, Indian Territory. At the time the treaty was made, some of the Indians were unwilling to leave this country, and for the benefit of those who wanted to stay here, what is known as the 14th article was put in the treaty. That 14th article provided that upon certain conditions a Choctaw who wanted to stay here in Mississippi might receive land here in Mississippi from the Government. It is as follows:

Alfred Thomas, et al., 3.

"Each Choctaw head of a family being desirous to remain and become a citizen of the States shall be permitted to do so by signifying his intention to the agent within six months from the ratification of this treaty, and he or she shall thereupon be entitled to a reservation of one section of six hundred and forty acres of land, to be bounded by sectional lines of survey; in like manner shall be entitled to one-half that quantity for each unmarried child which is living with him over ten years of age; and a quarter section to such child as may be under ten years of age, to adjoin the location of the parent. If they reside upon said land intending to become citizens of the States for five years after the ratification of this treaty, in that case a grant in fee simple shall issue; said reservation shall include the present improvement of the head of the family or a portion of it. Persons who claim under this article shall not lose the privilege of a Choctaw citizen, but if they ever remove are not to be entitled to any portion of the Choctaw annuity."

- Q That's the 14th article of the treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek. Do you understand it now? A Yes, sir.
- Q Did any of your ancestors ever comply or attempt to comply with its provisions or ever receive any benefits thereunder? A They haven't as I know of.
- Q Did any of them own an improvement here in the old Choctaw Nation, in Mississippi and Alabama, in the year 1830, when this treaty was made? A No, sir, not as I know of.
- Q Did any of them live here at that time, to your knowledge? A My folks all lived here in this State, in Hinds County.
- Q Your mother isn't old enough to be living here at that time, is she? A I don't think she was.
- Q Who, of her people, were living here? A I reckon Cud Thomas.
- Q I am talking about Choctaw ancestors now? A I don't know.
- Q I am talking about your Choctaw ancestors? A I don't know, sir.
- Q Did any of your ancestors remove from the old Choctaw Nation here in Mississippi and Alabama, to the present Choctaw Nation, in Indian Territory, at the time of the removal of the greater portion of the Choctaw tribe of Indians between the years 1833 and 1838? A Not as I know of.
- Q Did any of them, within six months after the treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek was ratified, let the agent of the Government here in Mississippi for the Choctaws know that they wanted to stay here in Mississippi and become citizens of the States and take land? A I don't know, sir.
- Q Did any of them ever claim or receive any land here in Mississippi from the Government of the United States under article 14 of the treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek? A Not as I know of.
- Q Any of them ever receive any money from the Government? A No, sir, not as I know of.
- Q So far as you know, then, none of your ancestors ever received any benefits whatever as Choctaw Indians? A No, sir.

In accordance with the provisions of article 14 of the treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek, the Government of the Alfred Thomas, et al., 4.

United States directed an agent here in Mississippi to register the names of such Choctaws as might desire to remain here and become citizens of the States and take land. The records of the Government show that this agent failed to register and report to the Government the names of many Indians who did, in fact, let him know that they wanted to stay here and become citizens of the States and take land, and on this account the Government at its public land sales here in Mississippi in many instances sold land upon which Choctaws lived and had improvements, and which they supposed they would receive under article 14 of the treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek. This caused a great deal of complaint among the Indians, and the matter was finally brought to the attention of Congress, and Congress passed certain Acts between the years 1837 and 1842, providing for the appointment of commissioners to come down here to Mississippi and hear the cases of Choctaws who claimed that they had complied in all respects with the provisions of article 14 of the treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek, but that their land had been sold by the Government. These commissioners were duly appointed by the President of the United States and they came down here to Mississippi and heard a great many of these Choctaw cases.

Q Did any of your ancestors appear before either of these commissioners and attempt to establish their rights under article 14 of the treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek? A No, sir, not as I know of.

An Act of Congress approved August 23, 1842, provided that in case it should be finally determined that a Choctaw had complied in all respects with the provisions of article 14 of the treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek, but that his land had been sold by the Government, he should be entitled to select in the place of the land so sold by the Government, land some place else here in Mississippi, or in Alabama, Louisiana, or Arkansas, from vacant Government land, and should be given a certificate to that effect. These certificates were called scrip.

Q Did any of your ancestors ever get any of this scrip from the Government of the United States under this Act of Congress?

A No, sir, not that I know of.

Q Do you know of any old person living who would likely know whether any of your ancestors ever complied or attempted to comply with the provisions of article 14 of the treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek, or ever received any benefits thereunder? A No, sir, I don't know of any

Q Have you any written evidence of any description proving, or tending to prove, such a state of facts? A No, sir, I don't know of any evidence at all.

Q Have you any witness here to-day? A No, sir.

Q Have you any written evidence of any kind to offer? A No, sir, I haven't.

Q Any further statements you want to make? A No, sir.

Alfred Thomas, et al., 5.

If you should find any witnesses whose testimony you desire to have taken by the Commission, they may appear before the Commission here at Meridian, Mississippi, before the 15th of this month, or within a reasonable time thereafter at the General Office of the Commission, in Muskogee, Indian Territory, and their testimony will be taken.

- Q Have you any brothers living? A Yes, sir.
Q How many? A I have got two brothers living.
Q What are their names? A Richard Harper and George Harper.
Q Any sisters living? A Yes, sir, I have got three sisters living.
Q What are their names? A Lucy and Murtie and Sarah.
Q They are here to-day for the purpose of making application? A Yes sir.
Q Are your brothers here to-day? A One of them; but he has been before the Commission.
Q Have you any children of age? A Yes, sir.
Q How many? A Two.
Q What are their names? A Charlotte and William.
Q Is Charlotte married? A Yes, sir.
Q What's her married name? A Charlotte Ury.
Q Is she here to-day? A No, sir.

By S. A. Beadle:

- Q Is your son, William, here to-day? A Yes, sir.
Q Did your mother, Millie Harper, always live near Bolton, Hinds County, Mississippi? A Yes, sir, she has ever since my recollection.
Q How old is she? A I don't know how old she is; sixty or seventy Q ~~years~~ she is over seventy five years of age, she would have been living here in 1830, when this treaty was made? A Yes, sir, I think she would.

By Commission:

Do you speak or understand the Choctaw language? A No, sir, I don't .

(This applicant has the appearance of being possessed of negro and either white or Indian blood; he does not speak or understand the Choctaw language.)

Sarah J. Lambert, et al.2.

Q Has any application of any description ever been made in your behalf before to-day for the establishment of your rights as a Choctaw Indian? A No, sir.

Q Do you appear before the Commission at this time for the purpose of claiming rights in the Choctaw lands in Indian Territory, under article 14 of the treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek? A Yes, sir.

Q Do you understand that 14th article of the treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek? A No, sir, not exactly.

This treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek was entered into here in Mississippi on the 27th day of September, 1830, between the United States Government and the Choctaw tribe of Indians. At the time the treaty was made, the Choctaws lived here in Mississippi and along the western edge of the State of Alabama. The object of the treaty was to get these Indians to move from this country out west of the Mississippi River to what is known as the Choctaw Nation. At the time the treaty was made, some of the Indians didn't want to leave this country, and for the benefit of those what is known as the 14th article was put in the treaty. That 14th article provided that upon certain conditions a Choctaw who preferred to stay here in Mississippi, might receive land here in Mississippi from the Government. It is as follows:

"Each Choctaw head of a family being desirous to remain and become a citizen of the States shall be permitted to do so by signifying his intention to the agent within six months from the ratification of this treaty, and he or she shall thereupon be entitled to a reservation of one section of six hundred and forty acres of land, to be bounded by sectional lines of survey; in like manner shall be entitled to one-half that quantity for each child which is living with him over ten years of age; and a quarter section to such child as may be under ten years of age, to adjoin to the location of the parent. If they reside upon said land intending to become citizens of the States for five years after the ratification of this treaty, in that case a grant in fee simple shall issue; said reservation shall include the present improvement of the head of the family or a portion of it. Persons who claim under this Article shall not lose the privilege of a Choctaw citizen, but if they ever remove are not to be entitled to any portion of the Choctaw annuity."

Q I have quoted to you the 14th article of the treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek. Do you think you understand it now? A Yes, sir.

Q Did any of your ancestors ever comply or attempt to comply with the provisions of this 14th article of the treaty, or ever receive any benefits thereunder? A Not as I know of.

Q Did any of them own an improvement here in the old Choctaw Nation, in Mississippi and Alabama, in the year 1830, when this treaty was made? A No, sir, not that I know of.

Q Any of them live here at that time? A Yes, sir.

Q What one of your Choctaw ancestors lived here seventy one years ago? A My grand mother.

Sarah J. Lambert, of 3.

- Q Your grand mother wasn't a Choctaw Indian? A My grand father, I meant.
- Q Jim Gibson? A Yes, sir.
- Q Where did he live then? A He lived in Hinds County.
- Q How do you know? A I was told that he did.
- Q In 1830? A In 1830.
- Q Seventy one years ago, nearly seventy two years ago? A Well, I just don't know; I guess he did.
- Q You don't know, that's the fact about the matter? A Yes, sir.
- Q Did any of your Choctaw ancestors remove from the old Choctaw Nation here in Mississippi and Alabama, to the present Choctaw Nation in Indian Territory, at the time of the removal of the greater portion of the Choctaw tribe of Indians between the years 1831 and 1837?
- A I don't know.
- Q Did any of them, within six months after the treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek was ratified, let the agent of the Government here in Mississippi for the Choctaws know that they wanted to stay here in Mississippi and become citizens of the States and take land?
- A I don't know, sir.
- Q Did any of them ever claim or receive any land here in Mississippi from the Government of the United States under article 14 of the treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek? A I don't know, sir.
- Q Any of them ever get any land here in Mississippi from the Government to your knowledge? A No, sir.
- Q Or any money? A Not as I know of.

In accordance with the provisions of article 14 of the treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek, the Government of the United States directed an agent here in Mississippi to register the names of such Choctaws as might desire to remain here and become citizens of the States and take land. The records of the Old Government show that this agent failed to register and report to the Government the names of many Indians who did in fact let him know that they wanted to stay here and become citizens and take land. On this account, the Government at its public land sales here in Mississippi in many instances sold land upon which Choctaws lived and had improvements, and which they supposed they would receive under article 14 of the treaty. This caused a great deal of complaint among the Indians and the matter was finally brought to the attention of Congress, and Congress passed certain Acts between the years 1837 and 1842, providing for the appointment of commissioners to come down here to Mississippi and hear the cases of Choctaws who claimed that they were entitled to land under article 14 of the treaty but that their land had been sold by the Government. These commissioners were duly appointed by the President of the United States and they came down here to Mississippi between the years 1837 and 1845, and heard a great many of these cases.

- Q Did any of your ancestors appear before any of these commissioners and attempt to establish their rights under article 14 of the treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek? A No, sir, not as I know of.

Sarah J. Lambert, 4.

An Act of Congress approved August 23, 1842, provided that in case it should be finally determined that a Choctaw had complied in all respects with the provisions of article 14 of the treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek, but that his land had been sold by the Government, he should be entitled to select in the place of the land so sold by the Government, land some place else here in Mississippi, or in Alabama, or Louisiana, or Arkansas, from vacant Government land, and should be given a certificate to that effect. These certificates were called scrip.

Q Did any of your ancestors ever receive any of this scrip from the Government of the United States under this Act of Congress? A No, sir, not as I know of.

Q So far as you know, then, none of your ancestors ever received any benefits as Choctaw Indians? A No, sir.

Q Do you know of any old person living who would likely know whether any of your ancestors ever complied or attempted to comply with the provisions of article 14 of the treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek, or ever received any benefits whatever thereunder? A Yes, sir, I don't know of any.

Q Do you know of any written evidence of any kind which would prove or tend to prove such a state of facts? A No, sir.

Q Have you any written evidence here to-day to offer in support of your application? A No, sir.

Q Have you any witnesses here to-day? A No, sir, I have no witnesses. I just thought that mother's witnesses would do for us.

The testimony of the witnesses who testified in your mother's case will be considered in connection with your application.

If you should find any other witnesses whose testimony you desire to have taken by the Commission, they may appear before the Commission here at Meridian, Mississippi, before the 15th of this month, or within a reasonable time thereafter at the General Office of the Commission, in Muskogee, Indian Territory, and their testimony will be taken.

Q Are there any further statements you want to make at this time in support of your application? A No, sir.

Q Do you speak or understand the Choctaw language? A No, sir.

(This applicant has the appearance of being possessed of a mixture of negro and either white or Choctaw blood, in which the negro blood predominates. She does not speak or understand the Choctaw language.)

- Q This application is for yourself only? A Yes, sir.
- Q Is your name on any of the Choctaw tribal rolls in Indian Territory? A Not as I know of.
- Q Have you ever made any application of any kind before to-day? A No, sir.
- Q Attempting to establish your rights as a Choctaw Indian? A No, sir.
- Q This is the first application of any kind that has ever been made for you, is it? A Yes, sir.
- Q Do you appear before the Commission at this time for the purpose of claiming rights in the Choctaw lands in Indian Territory under article 14 of the treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek? A Yes, sir.
- Q Do you understand that 14th article of the treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek, do you not? A No, sir.

Lucy Ewings, 2.

This treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek was entered into here in Mississippi on the 27th day of September 1830, between the United States Government and the Choctaw tribe of Indians. At the time this treaty was made, these Indians lived here in Mississippi and along the western edge of the State of Alabama. The object of the treaty was to get these Indians to move from the country occupied by them here in Mississippi and Alabama out west to a new country known as the Choctaw Nation, Indian Territory. At the time the treaty was made, some of the Indians were unwilling to leave this country, and for the benefit of those who wanted to stay here in Mississippi, what is known as the 14th article was put in the treaty. That 14th article is as follows:

"Each Choctaw head of a family being desirous to remain and become a citizen of the States shall be permitted to do so by signifying his intention to the agent within six months from the ratification of this treaty, and he or she shall thereupon be entitled to a reservation of one section of six hundred and forty acres of land, to be bounded by sectional lines of survey; in like manner shall be entitled to one-half that quantity for each unmarried child which is living with him over ten years of age; and a quarter section to such child as may be under ten years of age, to adjoin the location of the parent. If they reside upon said land intending to become citizens of the States for five years after the ratification of this treaty, in that case a grant in fee simple shall issue; said reservation shall include the present improvement of the head of the family, or a portion of it. Persons who claim under this article shall not lose the privilege of a Choctaw citizen, but if they ever remove are not to be entitled to any portion of the Choctaw annuity."

Q I have quoted to you the 14th article of the treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek. Do you think you understand it? A Yes, sir.

Q Did any of your ancestors ever comply or attempt to comply with the provisions of this 14th article, or ever receive any benefits thereunder? A Not as I know of.

Q Were any of them living here in the old Choctaw Nation in Mississippi and Alabama in the year 1830, when this treaty was made? A I don't know, sir.

Q Did any of them own an improvement here at that time? A No, sir, not that I know of.

Q Did any of them remove from the old Choctaw Nation, here in Mississippi and Alabama, to the present Choctaw Nation, in Indian Territory, at the time of the removal of the greater portion of the Choctaw tribe of Indians between the years 1833 and 1838? A No, sir, not as I know of.

Q Did any of them, within six months after the treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek was ratified, let the agent of the Government here in Mississippi for the Choctaws, know that they wanted to stay here in Mississippi and become citizens of the States and take land? A Not as I know of.

Q Did any of them ever claim or receive any land here in Mississippi from the Government of the United States? A Not as I know of.

Lucy Ewings, # 3.

Q Any of them ever get any money from the Government? A No, sir, not that I know of.

In accordance with the provisions of article 14 of the treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek, the Government of the United States directed an agent here in Mississippi to register the names of such Choctaws as might desire to remain here and become citizens of the States and take land. The records of the Government show that this agent failed to register and report to the Government the names of many Indians who did, in fact, let him know that they wanted to stay here and become citizens and on this account the Government at its public land sales here in Mississippi, in many instances, sold land upon which Choctaws lived and had improvements, and which they supposed they would receive under article 14 of the treaty. This caused a great deal of complaint among the Indians, and the matter was finally brought to the attention of Congress, and Congress passed certain Acts ~~which~~ between the years 1837 and 1842, providing for the appointment of commissions to come down here to Mississippi and hear the cases of Choctaws who claimed that they had complied in all respects with the provisions of article 14 of the treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek, but that his land had been sold by the Government. These commissioners were duly appointed by the President of the United States, and came down here to Mississippi between the years 1837 and 1845, and heard a great many of these Choctaw cases.

Q Did any of your ancestors appear before any of these commissioners and attempt to establish their rights under article 14 of the treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek? A Not as I know of.

An Act of Congress approved August 23, 1842, provided that in case it should be finally determined that a Choctaw had complied in all respects with the provisions of article 14 of the treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek, but that his land had been sold by the Government, he should be entitled to select in the place of the land so sold by the Government, land some place else here in Mississippi or in Alabama, or Louisiana, or Arkansas, from vacant Government land, and should be given a certificate to that effect. These certificates were called scrip.

Q Did any of your ancestors ever get any of this scrip from the Government of the United States under this Act of Congress? A No, sir, not that I know of.

Q Do you know of any old person living who would likely know whether any of your ancestors ever complied or attempted to comply with the provisions of article 14 of the treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek, or ever received any benefits thereunder? A No, sir.

Q Do you know of any written evidence which would prove or tend to prove such a state of facts? A No, sir.

Lucy Hwings, 4.

Q Have you any written evidence of any kind to offer at this time?

A No, sir.

Q Have you any witnesses here to-day? A No, sir.

If you should find any witnesses whose testimony you desire to have taken by the Commission, they may appear before Commission here at Meridian, Mississippi, before the 15th of this month, or within a reasonable time, thereafter, at the General Office of the Commission, in Muskogee, Indian Territory, and their testimony will be taken.

Q Are there any further statements you want to make? A No, sir.

Q Nothing further? A No, sir.

Q Do you speak or understand the Choctaw language? A No, sir.

(This applicant has the appearance of being possessed of a mixture of negro and either white or Indian blood, in which the negro blood largely predominates. She does not speak or understand the Choctaw language.)

These applications were made under the provision of the act of Congress of June 28, 1898 (30 Stats., 498) which is as follows:

"This Commission shall have authority to determine the identity of Cheetaw Indians claiming rights in the Cheetaw lands under article fourteen of the treaty between the United States and the Cheetaw Nation, concluded September twenty-seventh, eighteen hundred and thirty, and to that end may administer oaths, examine witnesses and perform all other acts necessary thereto and make report to the Secretary of the Interior."

Said decision concludes as follows:

"It is therefore the opinion of this Commission that the evidence herein is insufficient to determine the identity of Millie Harper, Richard Harper, Roberta Harper, Eddie Harper, John Harper, Dan Harper, James L. Harper, Rosie Harper, Jesse Harper, Lucy Ewings, Susie Lambert, Mary Lambert, Squire Lambert, Sophia Lambert, Alfred Harper, William Harper, Johnnie Harper, Moses Harper, Ermine Harper, George Harper, Millie Daniels, Alfred Daniels, Percy Daniels, Susie Belle Daniels, Josie Daniels, Mary L. Q Is that all? A Yes, sir.

Q Are these four children living with you at this time? A Yes, sir.

Q Are they all the children of yourself and Lewis Mack? A Yes, sir.

Q This application, then, is for yourself and four minor children? A Yes.

Q Is your name or the name of any one of these children to be found upon any of the Choctaw tribal rolls in Indian Territory?

A No, sir.

Q Have you ever made any application of any description before today looking to the establishment of your rights as Choctaw Indians?

A No, sir.

Q This, then, is the first application of any kind that has ever been made for any of you? A Yes, sir.

Q Do you appear before the Commission at this time for the purpose of claiming rights in the Choctaw lands in Indian Territory for yourself and four minor children under article 14 of the treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek? A Yes, sir.

Q You understand article 14 of the treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek, do you not? A Yes, sir.

Q Did any of your ancestors ever comply or attempt to comply with the provisions of this 14th article or ever receive any benefits thereunder? A No, sir.

Q Did any of them own an improvement here in the old Choctaw Nation in Mississippi and Alabama, in the year 1830, when this treaty was made? A No, sir.

Q Did any of them, in fact, live here at that time, seventy one years ago? A My mother.

Q Well, what other one of your ancestors lived here at that time?

A I don't know, sir.

Q Did any of them, within six months after the treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek was made, let the agent of the Government here in Mississippi, for the Choctaws, know that they wanted to stay here in Mississippi and become citizens of the States and take land? A I don't know.

Q Did any of them remove from the old Choctaw Nation, here in Mississippi and Alabama, to the present Choctaw Nation, in Indian Territory, at the time of the removal of the greater portion of the Choctaw tribe of Indians, between the years 1833 and 1838? A No, sir, not that I know of.

Q Did any of them ever claim or receive any land here in Mississippi from the Government of the United States under article 14 of the treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek? A No, sir, not that I know of.

Q Did any of them ever get any land under any other article of that treaty, or under the supplement to it? A No, sir.

Q Or any money from the Government? A No, sir.

Q So far as you know, then, none of your ancestors, ever received any benefits whatever as Choctaw Indians? A No, sir, not that I know of.

In accordance with the provisions of article 14 of the treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek, the Government of the United States directed an agent here in Mississippi to register the names of such Choctaws as might desire to remain here and become citizens and take land under that article. The records of the Government show that this agent failed to register and report to the Government the

It will be necessary for you to furnish the Commission with proper evidence of your marriage to your wife, Judy, for use in connection with the application which you make in behalf of your minor children. This evidence should be furnished within thirty days from this date, if possible.

- Q This application is for yourself and five minor children, is that right? A Yes, sir, that's right.
Q Is your name or the name of any one of these children to be found upon any of the Choctaw tribal rolls in Indian Territory?
A No, sir.
Q Has any application of any description ever been made for yourself or any of these children for the purpose of establishing your rights as Choctaw Indians? A Not as I know of.
Q This is the first application of any kind that has ever been made for any of you? A Yes, sir.
Q Do you appear before the Commission at this time for the purpose of claiming rights in the Choctaw lands in Indian Territory for yourself and five minor children under article 14 of the treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek? A Yes, sir.
Q Do you understand article 14 of the treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek? A No, sir.

This treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek was entered into here in Mississippi on the 27th day of September, 1830, between the United States Government and the Choctaw tribe of Indians. At the time this treaty was made, the Choctaws lived here in Mississippi and along the western edge of Alabama.. The object of the treaty was to get these Indians to move from the country occupied by them here in Mississippi and Alabama, to a new country west of the Mississippi River, a part of which is now occupied by the greater portion of the Choctaw tribe of Indians, and is commonly known as the Choctaw Nation, Indian Territory. At the time this treaty was made, some of the Indians were unwilling to leave this country, and for the benefit of those who wanted to stay here what is known as the 14th article was put in that treaty. That 14th article is as follows:

Alfred Harper, et al., 3.

"Each Choctaw head of a family being desirous to remain a and become a citizen of the States shall be permitted to do so by signifying his intention to the agent within six months from the ratification of this treaty, and he or she shall thereupon be entitled to a reservation of one section of six hundred and forty acres of land, to be bounded by sectional lines of survey; in like manner shall be entitled to one-half that quantity for each unmarried child which is living with him over ten years of age; and a quarter section to such child as may be under ten years of age, to adjoin the location of the parent. If they reside upon said land intending to become citizens of the States for five years after the ratification of this treaty, in that case a grant in fee simple shall issue; said reservation shall include the present improvement of the head of the family, or a portion of it. Persons who claim under this article shall not lose the privilege of a Choctaw citizen, but if they ever remove, are not to be entitled to any portion of the Choctaw annuity."

Q Do you understand that 14th article now? A Yes, sir.

Q Did any of your ancestors ever comply or attempt to comply with the provisions of this 14th article of the treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek, or ever receive any benefits thereunder? A Not as I know of.

Q Did any of them own an improvement here in the old Choctaw Nation, in Mississippi and Alabama, in the year 1830, when this treaty was made? A No, sir.

Q Did any of them live here at that time? A Not as I know of.

Q Did any of them remove from the old Choctaw Nation, here in Mississippi and Alabama, to the present Choctaw Nation, in Indian Territory, at the time of the removal of the greater portion of the Choctaw tribe of Indians, between the years 1833 and 1838? A No, sir, not as I know of.

Q Did any of them, within six months after the treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek was ratified, let the agent of the Government, here in Mississippi for the Choctaws know that they wanted to stay here in Mississippi and become citizens of the States and take land? A No, sir, not that I know of.

Q Did any of them ever claim or receive any land here in Mississippi from the Government of the United States under article 14 of the treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek? A Not that I know of.

Q Or under any other provision of that treaty? A Not that I know of.

Q Did any of them ever get any money from the Government? A Not that I know of.

Q So far as you know, then, none of your ancestors ever received any benefits as Choctaw Indians? A No, sir, not that I know of.

Q You hear my explanation to several other applicants about the commissioners that were appointed under the Act of Congress between the years 1837 and 1842, and came down here to Mississippi and heard a lot of Choctaw cases, did you not? A Yes, sir.

Q Did any of your ancestors appear before any of these commissioners and attempt to establish their rights under article 14 of the treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek? A Not that I know of.

Q Did any of them ever get any scrip from the Government of the

Alfred Harper, et al., 4.

United States under the Act of Congress approved August 23, 1842?

A Not that I know of.

Q Do you know of any old person living who would likely know whether any of your ancestors ever complied or attempted to comply with the provisions of article 14 of the treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek, or ever received any benefits thereunder? A No, sir.

Q Do you know of any written evidence which would prove or tend to prove such a state of facts? A No, sir.

Q Have you any written evidence to offer at this time? A No, sir.

Q Have you any witnesses here to-day? A No, sir.

Q

If you should find any witnesses whose testimony you desire to have taken by the Commission, they may appear before the Commission here at Meridian, Mississippi, before the 15th of this month, or within a reasonable time thereafter at the General Office of the Commission, in Muskegee, Indian Territory, and their testimony will be taken.

Q Are there any further statements you want to make at this time?

A No, sir.

Q Do you speak or understand the Choctaw language? A No, sir.

(This applicant has the appearance of being a negro, and shows very little, if any, indication of being possessed of Indian blood. He does not speak or understand the Choctaw language.)

Q Did any of your ancestors remove from the old Choctaw Nation, here in Mississippi and Alabama, to the present Choctaw Nation, in Indian Territory, at the time of the removal of the greater portion of the Choctaw tribe of Indians, between the years 1833 and 1838?

A Not that I knows of.

Q Did any of them own an improvement here in the old Choctaw Nation, in Mississippi and Alabama, in the year 1830, when this treaty was made? A No, sir, not that I knows of.

Q Did any of them live here at that time? A No, sir, not that I knows of.

Q Did any of your ancestors, within six months, after the treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek was ratified, let the agent of the Government here in Mississippi for the Choctaws know that they wanted to stay here in Mississippi and become citizens of the States and take land? A Not that I knows of.

Q Did any of them ever claim or receive any land here in Mississippi from the Government of the United States, under article 14 of the treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek? A No, sir, not that I knows of.

Q Did any of them ever get any money from the Government? A No, sir, not that I knows of.

Q Did any of them ever get any land here in Mississippi under any other provisions? A No, sir.

Q So far as you know, then, none of your ancestors ever received any benefits whatever as Choctaw Indians? A No, sir.

Q You have heard my explanation to the other applicants here this morning of the commissions that were appointed under Acts of Congress and came down here to Mississippi between the years 1837 and 1842, have you not? A Yes, sir.

Q Did any of your ancestors appear before any of these commissions and attempt to establish their rights as Choctaw Indians, under article 14 of the treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek? A Not that I knows of.

Q Did any of your ancestors ever get any scrip from the Government of the United States under the Act of Congress approved August 23, 1842? A Not that I knows of.

Q Do you know of any old person living who would likely know whether any of your ancestors ever complied or attempted to comply with the provisions of article 14 of the treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek, or ever received any benefits thereunder? A No, sir.

Q Do you know of any written evidence of any kind which would prove to tend to prove such a state of facts? A No, sir.

Q Have you any written evidence to offer at this time? A No, sir.

Q Have you any witnesses? A No, sir.

If you should find any witnesses whose testimony you desire to have taken by the Commission, they may appear before the Commission here at Meridian, Mississippi, before the 15th of this month, or within a reasonable time thereafter at the General Office of the Commission, in Muskogee, Indian Territory, and their testimony will be taken.

Q Are there any further statements you want to make at this time?

A No, sir.

Q Do you speak or understand the Choctaw language? A No, sir.

William Mack, 3.

(This applicant has the appearance of being a negro, and shows very little, if any, indication of being possessed of Indian blood. He does not speak or understand the Choctaw language.)

R. S. Streit, having been first duly sworn, upon his oath states that as stenographer to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes, he reported in full all proceedings had in the above entitled cause on the 11th day of February, 1902, and that the above and foregoing is a full, true and correct translation of his stenographic notes of said proceedings, in said cause, upon said date.

- Q Did Rose speak or understand the Choctaw language? A No, sir.
- Q What was her blood; French, and Choctaw too? A Yes, sir.
- Q Did she and you wife's father always live in Mississippi? A Yes, sir, always, sir.
- Q Always lived down there in Jackson County? A Yes, sir.
- Q Do you know the names of the parents of Ezien Bangs? A No, sir, outside of the Bangs.
- Q Or of Rose? A No, sir.
- Q This application is for yourself and wife only? A Yes, sir.
- Q Is your name, or your wife's name on any of the Choctaw tribal rolls in Indian Territory? A No sir, never did.
- Q Has any application of any description ever been made for yourself or wife before to-day for the purpose of establishing your rights as Choctaw Indians? A No, sir, never did.
- Q Do you appear before the Commission at this time for the purpose of claiming rights in the Choctaw lands in Indian Territory for yourself and wife, under article 14 of the treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek? A Yes, sir.
- Q Do you understand article 14 of the treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek
A I don't know, sir.

This treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek was entered into here in Mississippi on the 27th day of September, 1830, over seventy one years ago, between the United States Government and the Choctaw tribe of Indians. At the time this treaty was made the Choctaws lived here in Mississippi and along the western edge of the State of Alabama. The object of the treaty was to get these Indians to move from this country out west of the Mississippi River to what is now known as the Choctaw Nation, Indian Territory. At the time the treaty was made, some of the Indians were unwilling to leave this country, and for the benefit of those who wanted to stay here what is known as the 14th article was put in the treaty. That 14th article is as follows:

Anton Kaly, et al., 4.

section of six hundred and forty acres of land, to be bounded by sectional lines of survey; in like manner ~~shall~~ shall be entitled to one-half that quantity for each child which is living with him over ten years of age; and a quarter section to such child as may be under ten years of age, to adjoin the location of the parent. If they reside upon said land intending to become citizens of the States for five years after the ratification of this treaty in that case a grant in fee simple shall issue; said reservation shall include the present improvement of the head of the family or a portion of it. Persons who claim under that article shall not lose the privilege of a Choctaw citizen, but if they ever remove are not to be entitled to any portion of the Choctaw annuity."

Q Do you think you understand that 14th article of the treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek? A Yes, sir.

Q Did any of your ancestors ever comply or attempt to comply with its provisions, or ever receive any benefits under that article?

A No, sir.

Q Are you quite sure of that? A I believe, as far as I know about it.

Q Did any of them own an improvement here in the old Choctaw Nation, in Mississippi and Alabama, in the year 1830, when this treaty was made? A No, sir, I couldn't tell you that neither.

Q Did any of them remove from the old Choctaw Nation here in Mississippi and Alabama, to the present Choctaw Nation, in Indian Territory, at the time of the removal of the greater portion of the Choctaw tribe of Indians between the years 1833 and 1838? A No, sir.

Q Where were your father and mother living seventy one years ago, when you were a year old? A At a place they called John's Bayou, in Jackson County, Mississippi.

Q Did they own an improvement there at that time? A No, sir.

Q They did not? A No, sir.

Q Where were your wife's people living at that time? A All right along there, close neighbors.

Q Did they own an improvement there then? A No, sir.

Q Your people rented land, or just settled? A Just settled on public land, you know.

Q Do you own any land there now? A Yes, sir.

Q How did you get that? A Homesteaded one piece.

Q Did any of your wife's ancestors ever comply or attempt to comply with the provisions of article 14 of the treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek, or ever receive any benefits thereunder? A No, sir.

Q Did any of them remove from the old Choctaw Nation out west to the new nation? A No, sir, none of them ever did.

Q Did any of your ancestors, or any of your wife's ancestors, ever claim or receive any land here in Mississippi from the Government of the United States under article 14 of the treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek? A No, sir.

Q Did any of them ever get any land from the Government under any other article of that treaty, or under the supplement to the treaty? A No, sir.

Q Any of them ever get any money from the Government? A No, sir.

Q So far as you know, then, none of your ancestors or your wife's ancestors ever received any benefits whatever as Choctaw Indians?

A No, sir.

Anton Ealy, et al., 5.

In accordance with the provisions of article 14 of the treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek, the Government of the United States directed an agent here in Mississippi to register the names of such Choctaws as might desire to remain here and become citizens of the States and take land. The records of the Government show that this agent failed to register and report to the Government, the names of many Indians who did in fact let him know that they wanted to stay here and take land, and on this account, the Government at its public land sales here in Mississippi in many instances sold land upon which Choctaws lived and had improvements, and which they supposed they would receive under article 14 of the treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek. This caused a great deal of complaint among the Indians, and the matter was finally brought to the attention of Congress, and Congress passed an Act which was approved ~~and~~ between the years 1837 and 1842, providing for the appointment of commissioners to come down here to Mississippi and hear the cases of Choctaws who claimed that they were entitled to land under article 14 of the treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek, but that their land had been sold by the Government. These commissioners were appointed under acts of Congress by the President of the United States and they came down here between the years 1837 and 1845, and heard a great many of these Choctaw cases.

Q Did any of your ancestors, or your wife's ancestors, appear before any of these commissioners and attempt to establish their rights under article 14 of the treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek?

A No, sir, not that I know of. Never heard of it, if they did.

An Act of Congress approved August 23, 1842, provided that in case it should be finally determined that a Choctaw had complied in all respects with the provisions of article 14 of the treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek, but that his land had been sold by the Government, he should be entitled to select in the place of the land so sold by the Government, land some place else here in Mississippi or in Alabama, or Louisiana, or Arkansas, from vacant Government land, and should be given a certificate to that effect. These certificates were called scrip.

Q Did any of your ancestors, or any of your wife's ancestors ever receive any of this scrip from the Government of the United States under this Act of Congress? A No, sir.

Q Quite sure of that, are you? A Yes, sir.

Q Do you know of any old person living who would likely know whether any of your ancestors, or any of your wife's ancestors, ever complied or attempted to comply with the provisions of article 14 of the treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek, or ever received any benefits thereunder? A No, sir, I don't know.

Anten Ealy, et al., 6.

Q Do you know of the existence of any written evidence which would prove or tend to prove such a state of facts? A No, sir.

Q Have you any written evidence, papers, documents, deeds, or papers of any kind, to offer at this time in support of your application?

A No, sir.

Q Have you any witnesses here to-day whose testimony you desire to have taken before the Commission? A Yes, sir.

Q How many? A Two.

Q What are their names? A Mr. Ware and Mr. Carlisle.

Q What do you expect to prove by these witnesses? A Well, all that I have testified to.

By Mr. Holcomb:

He wants to prove the residence of this branch of the family in that locality during the period of '30.

By Commission:

If you should find any other witnesses whose testimony you desire to have taken by the Commission, they may appear before the Commission here at Meridian, Mississippi, at any time before the 15th of this month, or within a reasonable time thereafter at the General Office of the Commission, in Muskogee, Indian Territory, and their testimony will be taken.

Q Are there any further statements you care to make at this time? A No, sir.

Q Have you any children living over age? A Yes, sir, four of them right here; they are married, though.

Q What are the names of these children? A One of them is a girl, Mary Carrell.

Q Next one? A Eliza Geff, and there are my two sons.

Q What are their names? A William and Joe Ealy.

Q Have you any children dead? A Yes, sir.

Q Did any of these children who are dead leave children? A Yes, sir.

Q What's the name of the one that left one? A The name of the child you mean?

Q The name of your child? A Tony Ealy.

Q What's the name of that child? A Eliza.

Q Where does she live? A She lives right about me; about four miles west.

Q About how old is she? A I really couldn't tell you, sir.

Q Is she married? A No, sir, she aint married; she's a little girl ten or twelve years old.

Q With whom does she live? A She stays with her mother; she is married again - her mother.

Q What's her mother's name? A Lizzie. She was Lizzie Garlick before she married.

Q What's her name now? A Lizzie Dobson.

Q Now, you have another child dead who left children? A Yes, sir, two, but they are both dead.

Q Well, now, have you any other children who are dead, who left children? A No, sir.

Q Has any application been made for this little girl, Eliza?

A No, sir.

Q Now, have you any brothers or sisters living? A Yes, sir.

Anton Ealy, et al., 7.

- Q How many brothers? A One brother and one sister.
- Q What's the name of the brother? A One is Daniel Ealy, and the sister is Eldwina Bang.
- Q Where do they live? A Pascageula River, about seven miles above me in Jackson County.
- Q Have they been before the Commission? A No, sir.
- Q Have you any brothers or sisters dead? A Yes, sir, I have one sister and four brothers dead.
- Q Did any of them leave descendants? A Yes, sir.
- Q How many of them left descendants? A Well, I couldn't say exactly now.
- Q What was the name of the oldest brother who is dead? A Sylister Ealy.
- Q Are any of his descendants living? A Yes, sir, but they are all grown men, and I don't know where they are.
- Q Do you know their names? A Yes, sir.
- Q Give us their names? A Ardell, a girl.
- Q Is she married? A Yes, sir, she's married, but I don't know where she is.

- Q Has she any sisters living? A Never had no sisters.
- Q Where do these brothers live? A Right there wlese by where I am living, and there is one, Esien; I fergot him, lives in here about

Anton Ealy, et al., 8.

Perkinson at present.

Q Has your wife any brothers dead? A No, sir, that's the only brother my wife has got dead.

Q Did he leave descendants? A No, sir.

Q Are any of your wife's father's brothers or sisters living? A No, sir.

Q Are any of their descendants living? A No, sir.

Q Are any of your mother's father's brothers or sisters or any of their descendants living? A No, sir.

Q Are any of your mother's mother's brothers or sisters, or any of their descendants living? A No, sir.

(This applicant has perfectly straight hair, which is, on account of his age, almost white. He has rather dark skin with a copper tinge, and light eyes. His features would indicate that he is possessed of Indian blood.)

(Applicant excused.)

James Ware, being called as a witness in behalf of the above named applicant, and being first duly sworn, upon his oath states as follows:

Examination by the Commission.

Q What is your name? A James Ware.

Q How old are you, Mr. Ware? A Seventy five years of age.

Q What's your post office address? A Van Cleave, Jackson County, Mississippi.

Q How long have you lived in Jackson County? A I have lived in Jackson County - was born there and have lived there, with the exception of six years.

Q Where did you live during those six years? A I was in Hinds County, in this State.

Q You are not an applicant before the Commission, are you? A No, sir.

Q And claim no Indian blood? A No, if I have, I don't know it.

Q What's your occupation, Mr. Ware? A I follow farming principally. I used to cut timber, burn coal, and various things in the timber line.

Q Are you acquainted with the applicant, Anton Ealy? A Yes, sir.

Q How long have you known him? A All his life; we were little boys together; played together, and been together ever since, except these six years.

Q You are no kin to him? A None whatever.

Q Are you interested in any way in the result of his application?

A No, sir, only just wanted me to come and prove by me that he had been in the County, and his mother and ancestors; that's all he wanted me to come fer.

By J.R.Helcomb:

I suppose the material points we wish to establish are that they didn't have an opportunity for enrollment in that locality; they didn't reject any offer - any opportunity to enroll, and also that the blood of these ancestors - and that he knew them, and knew that in fact - and his belief and his knowledge and understanding in that community about the amount of Indian that they possessed.

Anton Ealy, et al., 9.

By Commission:

Q These witnesses neither of them know whether any of the ancestors of this applicant ever complied or attempted to comply with the provisions of article 14 of the treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek, or ever received any benefits thereunder? A

By J.R.Helcomb:

No, he don't know anything about that.

By Commission:

Q Has Anton Ealy lived in Jackson County, Mississippi, all his life? A Yes, sir, all his life.

Q Has he any Indian blood? A Yes, sir, his grand mother was a Choctaw.

Q His grand mother? A Yes, sir.

Q What was her name? A I disremember her name; I was very small.

Q You have seen her? A Yes, sir, they used to come to my father's.

Q Was that his father's mother? A His grand mother.

Q That would his grand mother - Anton's father's mother? A His grand mother's mother was a Choctaw Indian; that's what I wanted to say.

Q His grand mother's mother? A Yes, sir, was a Choctaw, and that made his mother a Choctaw, and his father was part Choctaw;

Q How much Choctaw blood did Anton's father have? A He had a full half.

Q His father was a Frenchman? A Yes, sir.

Q What's the name of Anton's father? A His name was Sylister Ealy.

Q Now, his father was a Frenchman? A His father was said to be a Frenchman.

Q And Sylister's mother was, according to your statement, one quarter Choctaw? A Who, Anton's mother?

Q No, Sylister's mother? A She was - her mother was a full Choctaw; I don't know what blood her father was.

Q Well, now, do you know the name of Sylister's mother? A Yes, sir.

Q What was it? A We always called her Mezah.

Q Now, could she speak the Choctaw language? A Her?

Q Yes? A No, sir.

Q Could Sylister speak the Choctaw language? A No, sir, they all spoke French language.

Q Do you know the names of Mezah's parents? A No, I don't recollect their names.

Q But you are sure that her mother? A Her mother was a Choctaw.

Q Was a full blood Choctaw? A Full blood Choctaw; I have heard my father talk about it, and they were raised right there.

Q Did you ever see Mezah's mother? A No, never seen her mother.

Q All you know about her being a full blood Choctaw is what your father told you? A Told me and other people.

Q It was always your understanding that she was a full blood Choctaw Indian? A Yes, sir.

Q What was Mezah's father? A Well, I don't know that I could tell you that either.

Q Did you ever see him? A His name was - yes I saw him - Richon; he was part French; that's all the name I knowed for him.

Anton Ealy, et al., 10.

Q He was part French you say? A Yes, sir.

Q What was the other part? A I don't know what it was.

Q White? A White, I suppose; he wasn't dark skinned. He followed the water when I knew him; he died with the small pox.

Q That would make - according to your statement, Mezah was one half Choctaw? A Yes, sir.

Q Syllister's father had no choctaw blood, did he? A He didn't have any.

Q That would make Syllister a quarter, wouldn't it? A No, she -

Q Mezah was one half Choctaw? A Her mother was a full blood.

Q And her father didn't have any Choctaw blood, that would make Mezah one half? A Yes.

Q Now, Mezah was Syllister's mother? A Yes, sir, Syllister's father, they said he had Choctaw blood in him, but I wouldn't swear that he did have.

Q What was Syllister's father's name? A Battiest Ealy.

Q Did he look to you as if he had Indian blood? A He was dark skinned - looked like he might have some Indian.

Q You have no idea how much he had? A I couldn't tell you how much.

Q Did Battiest and Mezah ~~xxxxxxx~~ live there in Jackson County all their lives? A Yes, sir, they lived right there.

Q Were they both born there in that County? A I think so; I know Battiest was born there too.

Q Now, were their parents born and raised there too? A Which.

Q Battiest and Mezah's parents? A Why, the Choctaw parents was.

Q How old a man is Anton, do you know? A He is seventy two or three, somewhere along there.

Q Well, do you know his wife? A Yes, sir.

Q What's her name? A Her name is Madaline.

Q How long have you known her? A Known her all her life.

Q Has she any Indian blood? A Yes, sir.

Q How much? A She must be over a quarter.

Q You think she is as much as the old man - Anton? A I reckon she is about as much.

Q Can she speak the Choctaw language? A No sir, none of them can speak it; when the Choctaws were living there, there was only a few living, and they never tried to speak it. The Choctaws were moved from that country when I was small boy; I know they camped there by us close to my father's.

Q Were you present at the wedding of Anton and Madaline? A No, sir, I weren't.

Q How long did they live together? A They lived together, I couldn't tell you exactly.

Q About how long, Mr. Ware? A They must have lived together between thirty and forty years. Long enough to raise a pretty good family.

Q Was Anton married before he married her? A No, sir, never was married.

Q She never was married before she married him? A No, sir.

Q Do you know the names of Madaline's parents, her father and mother? A Her mother was named Rose; her father was named Esien Bang.

Q Did her mother have any Choctaw blood? A Oh! yes, she had Choctaw blood.

Q How much? A Well, she must have been bear about a half too.

Q Did Esien have any Choctaw blood - her father? A Yes, sir, he was said to have.

Anton Ealy, et al., 11.

Q How much? A They said he was about a quarter.
Q Do you know the names of his parents? A No, sir, I know the name of his father; I have seen him.
Q What was his name? A Bang.
Q Did he have any Choctaw blood? A I couldn't tell you; he looked like he might have; I couldn't say that he did have.
Q Did Esien get his Choctaw blood through his mother? A Yes, what he had he got through his mother.
Q What was her name? A I don't recollect her name.
Q Through which one of her parents did Rose get her Choctaw blood? A She got it through her mother.
Q What was her mother's name? A I don't know.
Q Has this family lived there in Jackson County ever since you were born? A Yes, sir, ever since I was born.
Q How long before that, do you know? A I reckon twenty five or thirty years; my father was raised right there with them.
Q Your father was? A Yes, sir.
Q You don't know whether any of the ancestors of Anton or of his wife, Madaline, ever complied or attempted to comply with the provisions of article 14 of the treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek, or ever received any benefits thereunder? A I don't think they ever complied or ever received any benefits. You know they didn't know how to go to work, and nobody took it in hand for them, and they just let it lye that way. Didn't know, I suppose, there was any such thing to be done.

By J.R.Helcomb?

Q Do you remember anything about the occasion of the marriage of Anton Ealy and his wife? A The occasion.

Q Yes, the preliminaries. Do you know how old a man he was when he married? A No, I don't know that I could tell you exactly.

(This witness is a white man of average intelligence.)

(Witness excused.)

Edward H. Carlisle, having been first duly sworn as a witness on behalf of the above named applicant, upon his oath testified as follows:

Examination by the Commission.

Q What is your name? A Edward H. Carlisle.
Q How old are you, Mr. Carlisle? A I was born in 1836 - September 1836; sixty five, I reckon, last September.
Q What's your post office address? A Purvis, Marion County, Mississippi.
Q How long have you lived there? A About eleven years. Ten or eleven years, I don't know just exactly.
Q Where did you live before that? A In Jackson County, Mississippi. That is, from '56 to that time; I was born in Alabama.
Q What place? A The post office was Troy, Pike County.
Q You lived there until you went to Jackson County? A Yes, sir.
Q What's your occupation? A I have been a little of everything - farmer, burned coal and worked land. I am a farmer now, have been since I have been in Marion County.

Anton Ealy, et al., 12.

Q You are not an applicant for identification as a Mississippi Choctaw, are you? A No, sir; aint none of the blood about me, I don't think.

Q Are you acquainted with Anton Ealy and his descendants? A Yes sir, since that time; since '56.

Q Are you any kin to him? A Anton Ealy and my first wife were cousins.

Q Did your first wife have any Indian blood? A No, sir.

Q Are you interested in any way in the result of this application?

A Not a bit in the world, no, sir.

By J.R.Holcomb:

We wish to establish by this witness the place of residence, and the belief in the neighborhood of how Anton Ealy and his wife were regard as to the amount of Indian blood that they possessed; that they were known as original settlers in that country. I believe that's about the only points.

By Commission:

You first met Anton Ealy in '56? A Yes, sir.

Q Has he lived in Jackson County ever since that time? A Yes, sir, if he has been away from there, I don't know it.

Q Has Anton any Choctaw blood? A He was claimed to have that; old citizens, when I moved to that country, claimed it.

Q How much Choctaw blood has he? A I don't know, myself, but I think he claimed to be half, or something like that.

Q Do you know his wife? A Yes, sir, I have seen his wife.

Q What's her name? A Madaline. She was Madaline Bangs.

Q Has she any Choctaw blood? A She looks like it.

Q Do you know how much? A No, sir, I don't know about that.

Q She lived there ever since you met? A Yes, sir, she married when I first met them in '56.

Q Through which one of his parents did Anton get his Choctaw blood?

Q I don't know; his father looked like one; that's all I know.

Q Did you ever see his mother? A No, sir.

Q Do you know the names of his father and mother? A His mother he said - no, sir - Anton's mother - I have seen them both of them; I know both of their names; his father was Sylister; his mother was named Mary; that's the way the people claimed it - Sylister Ealy.

Q You don't know which one of them had Choctaw blood? A Yes, sir, the father.

Q Do you know how much he had? A No, sir.

Q He wasn't a full blood, was he? A I don't hardly think he was.

Q His mother had no Choctaw blood? A No, sir.

Q Do you know how long Sylister lived in Jackson County? A No, sir, he was there when I went there; he was born there, I suppose; he was claimed as an old settler; he was an old man when I first saw him.

Q As a matter of fact, you don't know anything of the residence of these people of your own knowledge beyond '56? A No, sir.

Q Do you know the names of Sylister's parents? A No, sir.

Q Do you know the names of the parents of Madaline, Anton's wife?

A The father, I never saw; the mother was called Rose Bangs; I think I heard them say the father was called Esien.

Q You were not acquainted with him? A No, sir, he was dead before I moved there, or gone somewhere; I never seen him.

Q Did Rose have any Choctaw blood? A She shewed it, but I don't know how much.

Anton Baly, et al., 13.

Q Do you know whether Esien had any Choctaw blood? A No, sir, I never saw him. I don't know anything about him.

Q You don't know whether any of the ancestors of Anton, or of his wife, ever complied or attempted to comply with the provisions of article 14 of the treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek, or ever received any benefits thereunder, do you? A I never heard of it.

Q If they did? A No, sir, I never heard of it, if they did.

In the matter of the application of Anton Ealy, et al., for identification as Mississippi Choctaws, consolidating the applications of:-

Anton Ealy, et al.,	M.C.R. 4722
Mary Carroll, et al.,	M.C.R. 4723
Mary R. Belton, et al.,	M.C.R. 4731

Eliza Goff, et al.,	M.C.R. 4724

---: D E C I S I O N :---

It appears from the record herein that applications for identification as Mississippi Choctaws were made to this Commission by Anton Ealy for himself and his wife, Madaline Ealy; by Mary Carroll for herself and her five minor children, Abizear A., Toney, George, Earnest, and Lydia M. Carroll; by Mary R. Belton for herself and her two minor children, James A. and Alice C. Belton; by Nancy Dobson for herself and her three minor children, Mary Jane, William and Sabra A. Dobson; by Joseph Ealy for himself, his wife, Olevia Ealy, and his seven minor children, Toney, Joseph, Jr., John R., Mary, Ruford, Bishop M. and Malinda M. Ealy; by William Ealy for himself and his two minor children, Rose A. and Earnest W. Ealy;

by Eldwena Ealy for herself and her four minor children, Mazaline, Bessie, Ella and Laura Ealy; and by Eliza Goff for herself and her four minor children, Johnnie, Frank, Devie and Mollie Goff, under the following provision of the act of Congress approved June 28, 1898 (30 Stats., 495):

"Said Commission shall have authority to determine the identity of Choctaw Indians claiming rights in the Choctaw lands under article fourteen of the treaty between the United States and the Choctaw Nation, concluded September twenty-seventh, eighteen hundred and thirty, and to that end may administer oaths, examine witnesses, and perform all other acts necessary thereto and make report to the Secretary of the Interior."

It also appears that the principal applicant, Anton Ealy, claims rights in the Choctaw lands under article fourteen of the treaty between the United States and the Choctaw Nation, concluded September twenty-seventh, eighteen hundred and thirty, by reason of being a descendant of Battiest Ealy, and Mezah Ealy (nee Richon), who are alleged to have been Choctaw Indians, degree of blood possessed by each not positively shown, and both to have resided in Mississippi in eighteen hundred and thirty; that Madaline Ealy applied for in M.C.R. 4722, claims said rights by reason of being a descendant of Ezien Bang and Rose Bang, who are alleged to have been one-half blood Choctaw Indians, and to have resided in Mississippi in eighteen hundred and thirty; that all the applicants in M.C.R. 4723, M.C.R. 4731, M.C.R. 5357, M.C.R. 4730, M.C.R. 5481, M.C.R. 4724 and the principal applicant in M.C.R. 4725, claim said rights by reason of being descendants of Battiest Ealy, Mezah Ealy (nee Richon), Ezien Bang and Rose Bang; that Olevia Ealy applied for in M.C.R. 4725, claims said rights by reason of being a descendant of Alex C. Ladnier, who is alleged to have been an one-half blood Choctaw Indian; and that minor applicants applied for in M.C.R. 4725 claim said rights by reason of being descendants of Battiest Ealy, Mezah Ealy (nee Richon), Ezien Bang, Rose Bang and Alex C. Ladnier.

It further appears from the evidence submitted in support of said applications, and from the records in the possession of the Commission, that none of said applicants has ever been enrolled by the Choctaw tribal authorities as a member of the Choctaw tribe, or admitted to Choctaw citizenship by a duly constituted court or committee of the Choctaw Nation, or by the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes, or by a decree of the United States Court in Indian Territory, under the provisions of the act of Congress approved June 10, 1896 (29 Stats., 321).

It does not appear from the testimony and evidence offered in support of said applications, or from the records in the possession of the Commission relating to persons who complied or attempted to comply with the provisions of said article fourteen of the treaty of eighteen hundred and thirty, and to persons who heretofore were claimants thereunder, that the said Battiest Ealy, or Mezah Ealy, (nee Richon), or Ezien Bang, or Rose Bang, or Alex C. Ladnier, or ancestors less remote, or applicant Anton Ealy signified (in person or by proxy) to Colonel Wm. Ward, Indian Agent, Choctaw Agency, an intention to comply with the provisions of said article fourteen, or presented a claim to rights thereunder to either of the Commissions authorized to adjudicate such claims by the acts of Congress approved March 3, 1837 (5 Stats., 180) and August 23, 1842 (5 Stats. 513).

It is therefore the opinion of this Commission that the evidence herein is insufficient to determine the identity of Anton Ealy, Madaline Ealy, Mary Carroll, Abizear A. Carroll, Toney Carroll, George Carroll, Earnest Carroll, Lydia M. Carroll, Mary R. Belton, James A. Belton, Alice C. Belton, Nancy Dobson, Mary Jane Dobson,

William Dobson, Habra A. Dobson, Joseph Ealy, Olevia Ealy, Toney Ealy, Joseph Ealy, Jr., John R. Ealy, Mary Ealy, Ruford Ealy, Bishop W. Ealy, Malinda W. Ealy, William Ealy, Rose A. Ealy, Earnest W. Ealy, Eldwona Ealy, Masaline Ealy, Bessie Ealy, Ella Ealy, Laura Ealy, Liza Goff, Johnnie Goff, Frank Goff, Dovie Goff and Mollie Goff, as Choctaw Indians entitled to rights in the Choctaw lands under the provisions of said article fourteen of the treaty of eighteen hundred and thirty, and that the applications for their identification as such should be refused, and it is so ordered.

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR,

OFFICE OF INDIAN AFFAIRS,

WASHINGTON, June 23, 1903.

The Honorable

The Secretary of the Interior.

Sir:

There is transmitted herewith for your consideration the record and proceedings of the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes in the matter of the consolidated application for identification as Mississippi Choctaws of the following parties: Anton Ealy for himself and his wife, Madaline Ealy; by Mary Carroll for herself and her five minor children, Abizear A., Toney, George, Earnest and Lydia M. Carroll; by Mary R. Belton for herself and her two minor children, James A. and Alice C. Belton; by Nancy Dobson for herself and her three minor children, Mary Jane, William and Sabra A. Dobson; by Joseph Ealy for himself, his wife, Olevia Ealy, and his seven minor children, Toney, Joseph, Jr., John R., Mary, Bishop M. and Malinda M. Ealy; by William Ealy for himself and his two minor children, Rose A. and Earnest W. Ealy; by Eldwena Ealy for herself and her four minor children, Maxaline, Bessie, Ella and Laura Ealy; and by Eliza Goff for herself and her four minor children, Johnnie, Frank, Devie and Mollie Goff, wherein a decision adverse to the applicants was rendered by the Commission April 17, 1903.

The testimony in this case shows that the applicants base their claim to identification under this application on their descent from the following ancestors; Battiest Ealy and Mezah Ealy, nee Richon, parents of Sylister Ealy, father of the principal applicant, Ezien and Rose Bang, parents of Madaline Ealy, the principal applicants wife and Alex C. Ladnier, it being claimed that they were Choctaw Indians and residents in Mississippi at the time of the making of the Choctaw treaty of 1830.

The Commission rejected the applicants because the names of the ancestors through whom they claim do not appear on their records among the names of those who complied or attempted to comply with the provisions of the 14th article of the treaty of 1830 and for the additional reason that the applicants have never been enrolled as citizens of the Choctaw Nation.

An examination has been made of the records of this office with reference to the names of Sylister and Battiest Ealy, Mezah Ealy, nee Richon, Ezien and Rose Bang and Alex C. Ladnier, and it is discovered that their names do not appear among the names of those who complied or attempted to comply with the provisions and treaty aforesaid; neither does it appear that they applied to the Commissions appointed under Acts. of March 3, 1837 and August 23, 1842, for an adjudication of their rights, if any they had, as Choctaw Indians.

It is therefore, respectfully recommended that the decision of the Commission rejecting the applicants, be approved.

Very respectfully,

W. A. Jones,

Commissioner.

Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes,
Muskegee, I.T.

Gentlemen:

May 4, 1903, you transmitted the consolidated case involving the applications for identification as Mississippi Choctaws, of Anton Ealy and his wife, Madaline Ealy; of Mary Carroll and her minor children, Abizear A., Toney, George, Earnest and Lydia M. Carroll; of Mary R. Belton and her minor children, James A. and Alice C. Belton; of Nancy Dobson and her minor children, Mary Jane, William and Sabra A. Dobson; of Joseph Ealy, his wife, Olevia Ealy, and his minor children, Toney, Joseph Jr., John R., Mary, Ruford, Bishop M. and Malinda M. Ealy; of William Ealy and his minor children, Rose A. and Earnest W. Ealy; of Eldwena Ealy and her minor children, Masoline, Bessie, Ella and Laura Ealy; and of Eliza Goff and her minor children, Johnnie, Frank, Dovie and Mellie Goff. You refused the applications April 17, 1903.

The applicants claim rights to Choctaw lands under article 14 of the treaty of 1830 by reason of being descendants of Sylister Ealy, Battiest Ealy, Misah Ealy (nee Richon), Esien Bang, Rose Bang or Alex C. Ladnier, it being alleged that said ancestors were possessed of Choctaw Indian blood, and that Battiest Ealy, Mizah Ealy (nee Richon), Ezien Bang and Rose Bang were residents in Mississippi in 1830.

The evidence submitted in this case, as well as the records of the Indian Office fail to show that any one of the alleged ancestors of the applicants complied or attempted to comply with article 14 of the treaty of 1830, or with either of the subsequent acts of Congress relating thereto.

Reporting June 23, 1903, the Commissioner of Indian Affairs recommends approval of your decision. A copy of his letter is enclosed herewith.

The Department finds no reason to disturb your decision, and it is hereby affirmed.

Respectfully,

Thos Ryan,

Acting Secretary.

Mary Carroll et al---2

Q This application, then, is for yourself and five minor children?

A Yes sir.

Q Is your name or the name of any one of these children to be found upon any of the Choctaw Tribal rolls in Indian Territory? A No sir.

Q Has any application ever been made for yourself or any of these children before today for the purpose of establishing your rights as Choctaw Indians? A No sir.

Q This is the first application of any kind that has ever been made for any of you? A Yes sir.

Q Do you appear before the Commission at this time for the purpose of claiming rights in the Choctaw lands in Indian Territory for yourself and five minor children under article 14 of the treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek? A Yes sir.

Q Do you understand article 14 of the treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek? A No sir, I don't.

The treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek was entered into here in Mississippi on the 27th day of September, 1830, between the United States Government and the Choctaw Tribe of Indians. At the time this treaty was made the Choctaws lived here in Mississippi and along the western edge of the State of Alabama. The object of the treaty was to get these Indians to move from the country occupied by them here in Mississippi and Alabama to a new country west of the Mississippi River part of which is now occupied by the greater portion of the Choctaw Tribe of Indians and is commonly known as the Choctaw Nation Indian Territory. At the time the treaty was made—that was about 71 years ago—some of the Indians were unwilling to leave this country and for the benefit of those who wanted to stay here what is known as the 14th article was put in the treaty. That 14th article provided that upon certain conditions a Choctaw who wanted to stay here in Mississippi and not move out to the new country, with the rest of the Indians, might receive land here in Mississippi from the Government. It is as follows:

"Each Choctaw head of a family being desirous to remain and become a citizen of the States shall be permitted to do so by signifying his intention to the Agent ~~xxxx~~ within six months from the ratification of this treaty and he or she shall thereupon be entitled to a reservation of one section of six hundred and forty acres of land, to be bounded by sectional lines of survey; in like manner ~~six~~ shall be entitled to one half that quantity for each unmarried child which is living with him over ten years of age; and a quarter section to such child as may be under ten years of age, to adjoin the location of the parent. If they reside upon said lands, intending to become citizens of the States, for five years after the ratification of this treaty, in that case a grant in fee simple shall issue; said reservation shall include the present improvement of the head of the family or a portion of it. Persons who claim under this article shall not lose the privilege of a Choctaw citizen but if they ever remove are not to be entitled to any portion of the Choctaw annuity."

- Q That is th 14th article of the treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek- do you think you understand it? A Yes sir, I think I do.
- Q Did any of your ancestors ever comply or attempt to comply with the provisions of this 14th article of the treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek or ever receive any benefits thereunder? A No sir, they never have.
- Q Did any of them own an improvement here in the old Choctaw Nation in Mississippi and Alabama in the year 1830 when this treaty was made? A No sir.
- Q Did any of them live here at that time? A Yes sir, they lived here.
- Q Where? A Down where I come from.
- Q In Jackson County? A Yes sir.
- Q Who of your people lived here 71 years ago-your Choctaw ancestors-in Jackson County? A Old people I reckon.
- Q Did your father or mother live here then? A That was before them I can't count, I aint got no learning.
- Q Did your parents live there all their lives? A All my old people lived there all their lives-they were born and raised there.
- Q Did your grandparents live in Jackson County all their lives? A Yes sir.
- Q Did any of your ancestors within six months after the treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek was ratified let the Agent of the Government here in Mississippi, for the Choctaws, know that they wanted to stay here in Mississippi and become citizens of the States and take land? A I don't know.
- Q Did any of your Choctaw ancestors ever move from this country out west to the new nation? A No sir.
- Q Did any of your people ever claim or receive any land here in Mississippi from the Government of the United States under article 14 of the treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek? A No sir, they never have.
- Q Did any of them ever get any land from the Government here in Mississippi under any other provision of that treaty? A No sir.
- Q Did any of them ever get any money from the Government? A No sir.
- Q None of your ancestors, then, so far as you know ever received any benefits whatever as Choctaw Indians? A No sir, they never have.

In accordance with the provisions of article 14 of the treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek the Government of the United States directed an Agent here in Mississippi to register the names of such Choctaws as might desire to remain here and become citizens of the States and take land under that 14th article. The records of the Government show that this Agent failed to register and report to the Government the names of many Choctaws who did in fact let him know that they wanted to stay here and become citizens of the States and take land and on this account the Government, at its public land sales here in Mississippi, in many instances sold land upon which Choctaws lived and had improvements and which they supposed they would receive under article 14 of the treaty. This caused a great deal of complaint among the Indians and the matter was finally brought to the attention of Congress and Congress passed certain acts between the years 1837 and 1842, providing for the appointment of Commissions to come down here to Mississippi and hear the cases of Choctaws who claimed that they had complied with the provisions of article 14 of the treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek but that their land had been sold by the Government. These Commissions were appointed by the President of the United States and the Commissioners came down here to Mississippi between the years 1837 and 1845 and heard a great many of these Choctaw cases.

Q Did any of your ancestors appear before any of these Commissioners and attempt to establish their rights under article 14 of the treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek? A No sir.

Q You are quite sure of that, are you? A Yes sir.

An act of Congress approved August 23, 1842, provided that in case it should be finally determined that a Choctaw had complied in all respects with the provisions of article 14 of the treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek but that his land had been sold by the Government, he should be entitled to select in place of the land so sold by the Government, land some place else here in Mississippi, or in Alabama, Louisiana or Arkansas, from vacant Government land and should be given a certificate to that effect. These certificates were called scrip.

Q Did any of your ancestors ever get any of this scrip from the Government of the United States under this act of Congress? A No sir, they never have.

Q Do you know of any old persons living who would likely know whether any of your ancestors ever complied or attempted to comply with the provisions of article 14 of the treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek or ever received any benefits thereunder? A No sir.

Q Do you know of any documentary evidence of any kind in existence which would prove or tend to prove such a state of facts? A No sir I don't.

Q Have you any written evidence of any kind you want to offer at this time? A No sir.

Q Have you any witnesses here at this time? A There are Mr. Ware and Mr. Carlisle.

Q They have just testified in your father's case, have they not? A Yes sir.

Their testimony will be considered in connection with your application you make at this time and it will not be necessary for the witnesses to be re-examined.

If you should find any witnesses whose testimony you desire to have taken before the Commission, they may appear before us here at Meridian this week or within a reasonable time thereafter at the general office of the Commission in Muskogee, Indian Territory, and their testimony will be taken.

Mary Carroll et al--5

- Q Are there any further statements you want to make at this time in support of your application? A No sir.
- Q How many children have you over age or married? A Three.
- Q What are their names? A The oldest one is Nancy Mahala Dobson.
- Q Where does she live? A She lives down there in Jackson County.
- Q Has she been before the Commission? A No sir.
- Q What is the name of the next one? A Mary R. Belton.
- Q Where does she live? A She lives in Perkinston.
- Q Has she been before the Commission? A She's here today.
- Q What is the ~~name~~ name of your other child? A Sarah J. Crane.
- Q Has she been before the Commission? A No sir.
- Q Where does she live? A In Alabama.
- Q That is all of your children? A Yes sir.
- Q How many brothers have you living? A Two.
- Q What are their names? A Joseph Ealy, and the other is William Ealy.
- Q They are here today, are they? A Yes sir, there they sit, both of them.
- Q Have you any sisters living? A Yes sir.
- Q How many? A Eliza Goff, Eldwena-she isn't married, Caroline-she isn't married, Sarah Jane-she isn't married, Sophie Ladnier.
- Q Have any of these sisters been before the Commission? A No sir, none of them; Eliza is here today.

This applicant has a dark complexion-straight, black hair and dark eyes; she claims to be possessed of one half Indian blood; her features would not indicate that she is possessed of that proportion of Indian blood. She does not speak or understand the Choctaw language.

Ira S. Niles, being first duly sworn, states that as stenographer to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes he reported in full all proceedings had in the above entitled cause, heard at Meridian, Mississippi, February 11th, 1902, and that the above and foregoing is a full, true and correct transcript of his stenographic notes taken in said proceedings on said date.

These applications were made under the provision of the act of Congress of June 25, 1898 (30 Stats., 495) which is as follows:

"Said Commission shall have authority to determine the identity of Choctaw Indians claiming rights in the Choctaw lands under article fourteen of the treaty between the United States and the Choctaw Nation, concluded September twenty-seventh, eighteen hundred and thirty, and to that end may administer oaths, examine witnesses and perform all other acts necessary thereto and make report to the Secretary of the Interior."

Said decision concludes as follows:

"It is therefore the opinion of this Commission that the evidence herein is insufficient to determine the identity of Anton Haly, Madeline Haly, Mary Carroll, Abiear A. Carroll,

Dear Sir:

Receipt is hereby acknowledged of your letter of the 27th ultimo, in which you state "We have received notice that our evidence before the Commission was insufficient to establish our claims. We are prepared now to prove our blood conclusively." You also ask "Please notify us what evidence is required."

In reply you are informed that it is presumed from your letter you refer to the application made by Mary Carroll, wife of James Carroll, Vancleave, Mississippi, for the identification of herself and minor children as Mississippi Choctaws.

The fifteen days from April 17, 1903, heretofore granted in this case, expired on May 2, 1903. On May 4, 1903, the record in said case, together with the decision of the Commission, was transmitted to the Secretary of the Interior. Pending action thereon by him the Commission cannot receive or consider further evidence in support thereof.

- Q You heard me explain to your father and your sister Mary Carroll, about the certain Commissions appointed under the acts of Congress approved between the years 1837 and 1842, to come down here to Mississippi and hear Choctaw claims under article 14 of the treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek, did you not? A Yes sir.
- Q Did any of your ancestors appear before any of these Commissioners and attempt to establish their rights under article 14 of the treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek? A No sir, not as I know of.
- Q Did any of them get any scrip from the Government of the United States under the act of Congress approved August 23, 1842? A No sir.
- Q Do you know of any old person living who would likely know whether any of your ancestors ever complied or attempted to comply with the provisions of article 14 of the treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek or ever received any benefits thereunder? A No sir.
- Q Do you know of any written evidence of any kind which would prove or tend to prove such a state of facts? A No sir.
- Q Have you any written evidence of any kind to offer at this time? A No sir.
- Q Have you any witnesses here today? A No sir.

If you should find any witnesses whose testimony you desire to have taken before the Commission they may appear before us here at Meridian between now and the 15th of this month or within a reasonable time thereafter at the general office of the Commission in Muskogee, Indian Territory, and their testimony will be taken.

Eliza Goff et al--3

- Q Are there any further statements you want to make at this time?
A no sir.
Q Do you speak or understand the Choctaw language? A No sir.
Q Have you any brothers living? A Yes sir.
Q How many? A two.
Q What are their names? A Joe and William Haly.
Q They are here today, are they? A yes sir.

This applicant has the appearance of being a white man woman, although she has a dark complexion, dark eyes and straight, black hair. Her features would not indicate that she is possessed of Indian blood-she does not speak or understand the Choctaw language.

Ira S. Niles, being first duly sworn, states that as stenographer to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes he reported in full all proceedings had in the above entitled cause, heard at Meridian, Mississippi, February 11th, 1902, and that the above and foregoing is a full, true and correct transcript of his stenographic notes taken in said proceedings on said date.

- Q This application is for yourself, your wife and seven minor children, is that right? A Yes sir.
Q Is your name or your wife's name or the name of any one of these children on any of the Choctaw Tribal rolls in Indian Territory?
A No sir.
Q Has any application of any description ever been made before today for yourself, your wife or any one of these children for the pur-

- pose of establishing your rights as Choctaw Indians? A No sir.
- Q This is the first application of any description that has ever been made for any of you? A Yes sir.
- Q Do you appear before the Commission at this time for the purpose of claiming rights in the Choctaw lands in Indian Territory for your self, your wife and seven minor children under article 14 of the treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek? A Yes sir.
- Q Do you understand the 14th article of the treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek? A yes sir.
- Q You have heard it explained to your father and your sisters here this morning? A yes sir.
- Q Did any of your ancestors ever comply or attempt to comply with the provisions of this 14th article of the treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek or ever receive any benefits thereunder? A no sir.
- Q Did any of them own an improvement herein the old Choctaw Nation in the year 1830 when this treaty was made? A No sir, not as I know of.
- Q Did any of them live here in the old Choctaw Nation at that time? A No sir.
- Q Did any of your Choctaw ancestors remove from the State of Mississippi to the new Choctaw Nation west of the Mississippi River at the time of the removal of the greater portion of the Choctaw Tribe of Indians between the years 1833 and 1838? A I don't know, sir.
- Q Did any of them within six months after the treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek was ratified let the Agent of the Government here in Mississippi, for the Choctaws, know that they wanted to stay here in Mississippi and become citizens of the States and take land? A I don't know.
- Did any of them ever claim or receive any land here in Mississippi from the Government of the United States under the 14th article of the treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek? A No sir.
- Q Did any of them ever get any land here in Mississippi from the Government of the United States under any other article of that treaty or under the supplement? A No sir, not as I know of.
- Q Did any of them ever get any money from the Government? A No sir.
- Q Are these same facts true as to your wife's ancestors? A Yes sir.

In accordance with the provisions of article 14 of the treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek the Government of the United States directed an Agent here in Mississippi to register the names of such Choctaws as might desire to remain and become citizens of the States and take land. The records of the Government show that this Agent failed to register and report to the Government the names of many Indians who did in fact let him know that they wanted to stay here and become citizens of the States and take land and on this account the Government, at its public land sales here in Mississippi, in many instances sold land upon which Choctaws lived and had improvements and which they supposed they would receive under article 14 of the treaty. This caused a great deal of complaint among the Indians and the matter was finally brought to the attention of Congress and Congress passed certain acts, between the years

1837 and 1842, providing for the appointment of Commissioners to come down here to Mississippi and hear the cases of Choctaws who claimed that they had complied in all respects with the provisions of article 14 of the treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek but that their land had been sold by the Government. These Commissioners were duly appointed by the President of the United States and they came down here to Mississippi and heard a great many of these cases.

Q Did any of your ancestors appear before any of these Commissioners and attempt to establish their rights under article 14 of the treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek? A I don't know.

An act of Congress approved on the 23rd day of August, 1842, provided that in case it should finally be determined that a Choctaw had complied in all respects with the provisions of article 14 of the treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek but that his land had been sold by the Government he should be entitled to select, in lieu of the land so sold by the Government, land some place else here in Mississippi or in Alabama, Louisiana or Arkansas, from vacant Government land and should be given a certificate to that effect. These certificates were called scrip.

Q Did any of your ancestors ever get any of this scrip from the Government of the United States under that act of Congress? A No sir.

Q Did any of your wife's people ever appear before either of these Commissioners? A No sir, not as I know of.

Q Did any of them ever get any scrip? A No sir.

Q Do you know of any old persons living who would likely know whether any of your ancestors or any of your wife's ancestors ever complied or attempted to comply with the provisions of article 14 of the treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek or ever received any benefits thereunder? A No sir, I don't know.

Q Have you any written evidence of any kind which would prove or tend to prove such a state of facts? A No sir.

Q You have no written evidence to offer at this time? A No sir.

Q No witnesses? A No sir-I have one witness, Mr. Ware, who will testify as to my wife's Indian blood.

If you should find any other witnesses whose testimony you desire to have taken before the Commission, they may appear before us here at Meridian between now and the 15th of this month or within a reasonable time thereafter at the general office of the Commission in Muskogee, Indian Territory, and their testimony will be taken.

Q Are there any further statements you want to make at this time?

A No sir.

Q You don't understand or speak the Choctaw language, do you? A No sir.

This applicant has very dark skin and straight, black hair, though his features would not indicate that he is possessed of Indian blood. He does not speak or understand the Choctaw language.

Joseph Ealy et al---5

James Ware, being first duly sworn, testified as follows:-

Examination by the Commission.

- Q What is your name? A James Ware.
Q How old are you? A Seventy-five.
Q What is your postoffice address? A Van Cleave, Mississippi, Jackson County.
Q How long have you lived there in Jackson county? A Lived there about seventy years-I was born and raised in that County-I was out of it about six years.
Q Are you acquainted with this applicant Joseph Ealy, who has just been before the Commission? A Yes.
Q How long have you known him? A Ever since he was a boy.
Q You are no relation to him? A No sir.
Q You are not interested in any way in the result of his application? A No sir.
Q What is his father's name? A We claim Anton Ealy is his father.
Q You testified this morning in his father's case, didn't you? A Yes sir.
Q Are you acquainted with Joseph's wife? A Yes sir.
Q What's her name? A I don't recollect her ~~name~~ given name-- Olevia I think.
Q How long have you known her? A Ever since she was a little girl.
Q Is she older or younger than Joseph? A About the same age I expect.
Q Were you acquainted with their parents? A Yes sir.
Q What was her father's name? A John Bobinger.
Q What was her mother's name? A We always called her Tenies Ladnier. I never knewed that she had any other name. That's what we always called her.
Q Was John older or younger than you? A He was a little younger than me.
Q Was his wife younger than you? A She was about my age.
Q Did either he or his wife have Choctaw blood? A His wife had.
Q How much? A Her father was a half breed.
Q She was a quarter, then? A Yes sir.
Q Then Olevia must be about one-eighth Choctaw? A Yes, I suppose so.
Q How long did Olevia's mother live there in Jackson County? A She lived there about sixty years.
Q Was she born there? A Yes sir, she was born in Jackson County and lived there until she died.
Q What was her father's name? A Alex G. Ladnier.
Q He was one-half Choctaw, you say? A Yes sir.
Q But her mother had no Choctaw blood? A No sir, she had none.
Q What was she-her mother? A She was a colored woman but she was christened by the priest "free".
Q Has Joseph Ealy any colored blood in him? A Nothing but Choctaw I don't think.
Q No colored blood? A I don't think he's got a bit.

Joseph Baly et al---6

- Q Alex Ladnier was a half blood Choctaw? A yes sir.
Q Through which one of his parents did he get his Choctaw blood?
A His mother.
Q What was her name? A I don't recollect her name.
Q Did you ever see her? A No sir, but everybody said she was a Choctaw.
Q Full blood Choctaw? A Yes sir, and Ladnier was a Frenchman. That's all I know about it is what my father and all the old settlers said- they knew them well.
Q You don't know whether any of the ancestors of Olevia ever complied or attempted to comply with the provisions of article 14 of the treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek or ever received any benefits thereunder? A No sir, I don't have any idea they ever did- I never knowed of it.

The witness is a white man of average intelligence.

Joseph Ealy, et al.,	M.C.R. 4725
William Ealy, et al.,	M.C.R. 4730
Eldwena Ealy, et al.,	M.C.R. 5461
Eliza Goff, et al.,	M.C.R. 4724

These applications were made under the provision of the act of Congress of June 28, 1898 (30 Stats., 495) which is as follows:

"Said Commission shall have authority to determine the identity of Choctaw Indians claiming rights in the Choctaw lands under article fourteen of the treaty between the United States and the Choctaw Nation, concluded September twenty-seventh, eighteen hundred and thirty, and to that end may administer oaths, examine witnesses and perform all other acts necessary thereto and make report to the Secretary of the Interior."

Said decision concludes as follows:

"It is therefore the opinion of this Commission that the evidence herein is insufficient to determine the identity of Anton Ealy, Madaline Ealy, Mary Carroll, Abizear A. Carroll,

Joseph Ealy, -2

Toney Carroll, George Carroll, Earnest Carroll, Lydia M. Carroll, Mary R. Belton, James A. Belton, Alice C. Belton, Nancy Dobson, Mary Jane Dobson, William Dobson, Sabra A. Dobson, Joseph Ealy, Olevia Ealy, Toney Ealy, Joseph Ealy, Jr., John R. Ealy, Mary Ealy, Ruford Ealy, Bishop M. Ealy, Malinda M. Ealy, William Ealy, Ross A. Ealy, Earnest W. Ealy, Eldwena Ealy, Mazaline Ealy, Bessie Ealy, Ella Ealy, Laura Ealy, Liza Goff, Johnnie Goff, Frank Goff, Dovie Goff and Mollie Goff, as Choctaw Indians entitled to rights in the Choctaw lands under the provisions of said article fourteen of the treaty of eighteen hundred and thirty, and that the applications for their identification as such should be refused, and it is so ordered."

You are further advised that you will be allowed fifteen days from the date hereof within which to file arguments in this office, and that at the expiration of said time the papers in the case together with such arguments will be forwarded to the Secretary of the Interior through the Commissioner of Indian Affairs.

Respectfully,

- Q Is Willie a boy? A Yes sir.
- Q Are these three children all the children of yourself and Cornelia? A Yes sir.
- Q They are living with you now? A Yes sir.
- Q Were you married to her under a license? A Yes sir.
- Q Where? A In Jackson County.
- Q When? A I been married about five years.

Frank Bang et al---3

- Q Who married you? A A fellow by the name of Whittington.
Q What official position did he hold? A I don't know.
Q Preacher, was he? A Yes sir.

It will be necessary for you to furnish proper evidence of your marriage to Cornelia. This should be furnished within a period of thirty days from this date.

- Q Is your name or your wife's name on any of the Choctaw Tribal rolls in Indian Territory? A No sir.
Q Has any application of any description ever been made before today for yourself, your wife or anyone of these children for the purpose of establishing your rights as Choctaw Indians? A No sir.
Q Do you appear before the Commission at this time for the purpose of claiming rights in the Choctaw lands in Indian Territory for yourself, wife and three minor children under article 14 of the treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek? A Yes sir.
Q Do you understand that 14th article of the treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek? A Yes sir, I think I do.
Q You have heard it explained here several times today, haven't you? A Yes sir.
Q Did any of your ancestors or any of your wife's ancestors ever comply or attempt to comply with the provisions of this 14th article or ever receive any benefits thereunder? A No sir.
Q Did any of them own an improvement here in the old Choctaw Nation in Mississippi and Alabama in the year 1830 when this treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek was made? A No sir.
Q Did any of them live here at that time in the old Choctaw Nation? A Yes sir.
Q Where? A In Jackson County, Mississippi.
Q They wasn't in the old Choctaw Nation at that time, but they were living in Jackson County, were they? A Yes sir.
Q What one of your ancestors or your wife's ancestors were living here then? A That I couldn't say.
Q Did any of your ancestors or your wife's ancestors remove out to the new nation west of the Mississippi River when the greater portion of the Choctaw Tribe of Indians moved out there between the years 1833 and 1838? A No sir.
Q Did any of them within six months after the treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek was ratified let the Agent of the Government here in Mississippi, for the Choctaws, know that they wanted to stay here in Mississippi and become citizens and take land? A I don't know, sir.
Q Did any of them ever claim or receive any land here in Mississippi from the Government of the United States under article 14 of the treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek? A No sir.
Q Did any of them ever get any land from the Government under any other provision in that treaty? A No sir.
Q Or any money from the Government? A No sir.
Q As far as you know, then, none of your ancestors and none of your wife's ancestors ever received any benefits whatever as Choctaw Indians? A No sir.
Q You heard me explain to Edward Bang, the applicant who just appeared before the Commission prior to your appearance about certain Commissions which were appointed under acts of Congress approved between the years 1837 and 1842, did you not? A Yes sir.

Q Did any of your ancestors or any of your wife's ancestors appear before any of these Commissioners and attempt to establish their rights under article 14 of the treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek?

A No sir.

Q Did any of your ancestors or any of your wife's ancestors receive any scrip from the Government of the United States under the act of Congress approved August 23, 1842? A No sir.

Q Do you know of any old person living who would likely know whether any of your ancestors or any of your wife's ancestors ever complied or attempted to comply with the provisions of article 14 of the treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek or ever received any benefits thereunder? A None that I know of.

Q Do you know of any written evidence of any description which would show or tend to show such a State of facts? A No sir.

Q Have you any written evidence to offer at this time? A No sir.

Q Have you any witnesses here today? A None but Mr. Ware who testified in the Anton Kaly case.

If you should find any further witnesses whose testimony you desire to have taken before the Commission they may appear before us here at Meridian between now and the 15th of this month or within a reasonable time thereafter at Muskogee, Indian Territory, and their testimony will be taken.

Q Are there any further statements you want to make at this time? A No sir.

on any of the Choctaw Tribal rolls in Indian Territory? A No sir.
Q Have you ever made any application of any kind before today for yourself or any of these children? A I made application for myself but not in this way-I made it at Jackson for a homestead.
Q You never tried to establish your Indian rights before? A No sir.
Q Do you appear before the Commission at this time for the purpose of claiming rights in the Choctaw lands in Indian Territory, for yourself and eight minor children, under article 14 of the treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek? A Yes sir, providing that this claim don't conflict with that other claim there at Jackson.
Q You are referring to the homestead claim there at Jackson? A Yes sir.

This wont affect your homestead claim at all.

Q You understand this 14th article of the treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek, do you? A No sir.

This treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek was entered into here in Mississippi on the 27th day of September, 1830, between the United States Government and the Choctaw Tribe of Indians. At the time the treaty was made the Choctaws lived here in Mississippi and along the western edge of the State of Alabama. The object of this treaty was to get these Indians to move from the country occupied by them here in Mississippi and Alabama to a new country west of the Mississippi River, part of which is now occupied by the greater portion of the Choctaw Tribe of Indians and is commonly known as the Choctaw Nation Indian Territory. At the time the treaty was made some of the Indians were unwilling to leave this country and for the benefit of those who wanted to stay here what is known as the 14th article was put in the treaty. That 14th article provided that upon certain conditions a Choctaw who wanted to stay here in Mississippi might receive land here in Mississippi from the Government. It is as follows:-

Q Do you understand that now? A No sir, I don't understand it.

Well, if a Choctaw who lived here 71 years ago, when the treaty was made, wanted to stay here and become a citizen of the States, and take land under article 14 of the treaty, he was required by that 14th article to let the Agent of the Government here in Mississippi know, within six months from the time the treaty was ratified, that he did want to stay here. This treaty was ratified on the 24th day of February, 1831, -so, within six months from that time he was required to let the Agent know that he wanted to stay here and he was thereupon entitled to a reservation of one section of 640 acres of land to be bounded by sectional lines of survey. For each child in his family over ten years of age he was entitled to a half section or 320 acres of land. For each child in his family under ten years of age he was entitled to a quarter section or 160 acres of land. Now, the childrens' reservations must adjoin the location of the parent under this 14th article, and these reservations must include the improvement of the parent as it existed on the 27th day of September, 1830, the day the treaty was made. Now, if the Indian lived on this land, intending to become a citizen of the States, for five years from February 24, 1831, he was entitled to a grant in fee simple for the land - that is the Government would give him a deed or patent to the land and it would be his then to dispose of whenever he wanted to. That 14th article provided further that persons who claimed under that article should not lose the privilege of a Choctaw citizen but if they ever removed, that is, if they ever went out to the new nation, they should not be entitled to any portion of the Choctaw annuity. The Choctaw annuity is money paid each year by the United States Government to the Choctaws under treaty provisions.

Q Did any of your ancestors ever comply or attempt to comply with the provisions of article 14 of the treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek or ever receive any benefits thereunder? A Not as I know of.

Q Did any of them own an improvement here in the old Choctaw Nation here in Mississippi or Alabama 71 years ago, when this treaty was made? A Not as I know of.

Q Did any of them live here in the old Choctaw Nation 71 years ago? A I reckon they did.

Q Where did they live? A Right here at Van Cleave, Mississippi.

Q That's in Jackson County? A Yes sir, that's where all my folks lived.

Q Did any of your ancestors remove from Mississippi to the present Choctaw Nation in Indian Territory at the time of the removal of the Greater portion of the Choctaw Tribe of Indians between the years 1833 and 1838? A Not as I know of.

Q Did any of them within six months after the treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek was ratified let the Agent of the Government here in Mississippi, for the Choctaws, know that they wanted to stay here in Mississippi and become citizens of the States and take land? A I never did know.

Q Did any of them ever claim or receive any land here in Mississippi from the Government of the United States under article 14 of the treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek? A No sir.

Q Did any of them ever get any land under any other provision of that treaty? A No sir.

Q Did any of them ever get any money from the Government? A No sir, not as I know of.

Q So far as you know, then, none of your people ever received any benefits whatever as Choctaw Indians? A No sir.

In accordance with the provisions of article 14 of the treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek the Government of the United States directed an Agent here in Mississippi to register the names of such Choctaws as might desire to remain and become citizens of the States and take land under that article. The records of the Government show that this Agent failed to register and report to the Government the names of many Indians who did in fact let him know that they wanted to stay here and become citizens and take land and on this account the Government, at its public land sales here in Mississippi in many instances sold land upon which Choctaws lived and had improvements and which they supposed they would receive under article 14 of the treaty. This caused a great deal of complaint among the Indians and the matter was finally brought to the attention of Congress and Congress passed certain acts between the years 1837 and 1842 providing for the appointment of Commissioners to come down here to Mississippi and hear the cases of Choctaws who claimed that they had complied in all respects with the provisions of article 14 of the treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek but that their land had been sold by the Government. These Commissioners were appointed by the President of the United States and the Commissioners came down here to Mississippi and heard a great many of these Choctaw cases.

Q Did any of your ancestors appear before any of these Commissioners and attempt to establish their rights under article 14 of the treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek? A No sir, not as I know of.

An act of Congress approved August 23, 1842, provided that in case it should be finally determined that a Choctaw had complied in all respects with the provisions of article 14 of the treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek but that his land had been sold by the Government, he should be entitled to select in the place of the land so sold by the Government land some place else in Mississippi or in Alabama, Louisiana or Arkansas, from vacant Government land, and should be given a certificate to that effect. These certificates were called scrip.

Q Did any of your ancestors ever receive any of this scrip from the Government of the United States under this act of Congress? A Not as I know of.

Edward Bang et al--6

Q Do you know of any old person living who would likely know whether any of your ancestors ever complied or attempted to comply with the provisions of article 14 of the treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek or ever received any benefits thereunder? A No sir, I don't.
Q Do you know of any written evidence which would show or tend to show such a state of facts? A No sir, I do not.
Q Have you any written evidence to offer at this time? A No sir.
Q Have you any witnesses here today? A I've got one, Mr. Ware.
Q He testified in the Anton Kaly case, did he not? A I think he did.

If you should find any other witnesses whose testimony you desire to have taken before the Commission they may appear before us here this week or within a reasonable time thereafter in Muskogee, Indian Territory, and their testimony will be taken.

Q Are there any further statements you want to make at this time?
A No sir.
Q Have you any brothers living? A Yes sir.
Q How many? A One full brother and four half brothers.
Q What's the name of your full brother? A Esien Bang.
Q What are the names of your half brothers? A Sam, Galby, John and Henry Bang.
Q Have any of them been before the Commission? A No sir.
Q Has your father been before the Commission? A No sir, he wanted to come up here but didn't have the money to come.
Q Have you any sisters living? A Yes sir, I got two sisters.
Q What are their names? A I can't think of it. One of them is called Lou and the other is called Sis.
Q Are they married? A Yes sir, one of them is.
Q Which one of them is married? A Lou.
Q What's her husband's name? A Cedar Bang; she married her cousin.
Q Have you any brothers or sisters dead? A I got two sisters dead and one brother.
~~XXXXXXXXXXXX~~
Q Were any of them grown at the time of their death? A No sir.
Q Has your father any brothers living? A Yes sir, old man Ben and some others.
Q That's the man who was just on the stand before you? A Yes sir.
Q Has your mother any brothers living? A No sir, not as I know of.
Q Or any sisters? A No sir, not as I know of.
Q Has your mother any brothers or sisters dead who left children?
A She got some dead but I don't know where they are--I don't know their names. I don't know whether any of them left children or not.
Q Do you speak or understand the Choctaw language? A No sir, I can't speak it; my mother could speak it a little but I couldn't.

This applicant has a very dark complexion--dark eyes--black straight hair--his features, however, would not indicate that he is possessed of as much Indian blood as is claimed by him. He does not speak or understand the Choctaw language.

Q This is the first application of any kind, is it? A Yes sir.
Q Do you appear before the Commission at this time for the purpose of claiming rights in the Choctaw lands in Indian Territory for yourself, wife and minor child under article 14 of the treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek? A Yes sir.
Q Do you understand article 14 of the treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek? A Yes sir.
Q You have heard it repeated here several times during the day?
A Yes sir.
Q Did any of your ancestors ever comply or attempt to comply with the provisions of this 14th article of the treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek or ever receive any benefits under that article? A No sir.
Q Where were your people living in 1830 when this treaty was made-71 years ago? A Down in there.

Benjamin Bang et al---3

Q In Jackson County? A Yes sir-they been raised right there.

Q Did any of them move out west to the new nation? A No sir.

Q Did any of them own an improvement here in the old Choctaw Nation in 1830? A No sir.

Q Did any of them within six months after this treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek was ratified let the Agent of the Government here in Mississippi, for the Choctaws, know that they wanted to stay here and become citizens of the States and take land? A No sir.

Q Did any of them ever claim or receive any land here in Mississippi from the Government of the United States under article 14 of the Treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek? A No sir.

Q Did any of them ever get any money from the Government? A No sir.

Q Or any land from the Government, anywhere? A They got a little down there.

Q From whom? A I cant tell you.

Q They didn't get it from the Government under this old treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek, you are sure? A No sir.

In accordance with the provisions of article 14 of the treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek the Government of the United States directed an Agent here in Mississippi to register the names of such Choctaws as might desire to remain and become citizens of the States and take land under that article. The records of the Government show that this Agent failed to register and report to the Government the names of many Indians who did in fact let him know that they wanted to stay here and become citizens and take land, and on this account the Government, at its public land sales here in Mississippi, in many instances sold land upon which Choctaws lived and had improvements and which they supposed they would receive under article 14 of the treaty. This caused a great deal of complaint among the Indians and the matter was finally brought to the attention of Congress and Congress passed certain acts between the years 1837 and 1842 providing for the appointment of Commissioners to come down here to Mississippi and hear the cases of Choctaws who claimed that they had complied in all respects with the provisions of article 14 of the treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek but that their land had been sold by the Government. These Commissioners were duly appointed by the President of the United States and they came down here to Mississippi between the years 1837 and 1845 and heard a great many Choctaw cases.

Q Did any of your ancestors or any of your wife's ancestors appear before either of these Commissions and attempt to establish their rights under article 14 of the treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek? A No sir.

Q Did any of them ever get any scrip from the Government under the act of Congress approved August 23, 1842? A No sir.

Q None of your wife's ancestors ever received any benefits under article 14 of the treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek, did they? A No sir.

Benjamin Bang et al--4

- Q None of them ever complied with its provisions? A No sir.
- Q Do you know of any old person living who would likely know whether any of your ancestors ever complied or attempted to comply with the provisions of article 14 of the treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek or ever received any benefits thereunder? A No sir, I don't.
- Q Do you know of any written evidence of any kind which would prove or tend to prove such a state of facts? A No sir.
- Q Have you any written evidence to offer at this time? A No sir.
- Q Have you any witnesses here today? A Yes sir, Mr. Ware, who testified in the Anton Ealy case.
- Q Are you any relation to Anton Ealy's wife? A Yes sir, she's my sister.
- Q Full sister? A Yes sir.
- Q What's her name? A Madaline.

If you should find any other witnesses whose testimony you desire to have taken before the Commission they may appear before us here at Meridian between now and the 15th of this month or within a reasonable time thereafter at Muskogee, Indian Territory, and their testimony will be taken.

- Q Are there any further statements you want to make in support of this application? A No sir.
- Q Have you any children over age or married? A Yes sir.
- Q How many? A Two married.
- Q How many over age? A One.
- Q You have four children living now, altogether? A Yes sir.
- Q One under age and three over age? A Yes sir.
- Q What are the names of these three children over age? A One is named Benjamin Bang Jr., Alfred Bang, and Pierre Bang.
- Q Have any of them been before the Commission? A No sir.
- Q Are any of them here now? A No sir.
- Q Have you any children dead who left children? A No sir.
- Q Have you any brothers living? A Yes sir.
- Q How many? A I've got four, I believe.
- Q Your brothers? A Yes sir.
- Q What are their names? A The oldest one is Edmo Bang.
- Q Where does he live? A Down in Jackson County.
- Q Next one? A Ezion Bang.
- Q Where does he live? A Harrison County.
- Q Where does the next one of your brothers live? A He lives right there about where I live in Jackson County-his name is Pierre.
- Q What is the name of the next one of your brothers? A Edward.
- Q Where does he live? A In Jackson County.
- Q Have you any other sisters living besides the wife of Anton Ealy? A No sir, that's the only sister I ever had.
- Q Have you any brothers dead? A One of them.
- Q How old was he when he died? A He was 21 when he died.
- Q Was he married? A No sir.
- Q Has your wife any brothers or sisters living? A Got two sisters and one brother.
- Q What is the name of the brother? A Louis Ladnier.
- Q Where does he live? A In Jackson County.
- Q What are the names of her sisters? A One is Mary and the other one is Celestine-she lives down there.

Benjamin Bang et al--5

- Q Is Mary married? A Yes sir-she lives in Scranton.
Q What's her husband's name? A Frank Henry.
Q Is Celestine married? A Yes sir, she married my brother Edmo Bang.
Q Has your wife any brothers or sisters dead? A Yes sir, she had three brothers that died.
Q How old were they when they died? A They were getting pretty old.
Q Did any of them leave children? A Yes sir.
Q What was the name of the oldest one of her brothers who is dead?
A Gilbert Ladnier.
Q Are any of his children living now? A Yes sir.
Q What are their names? A I can't tell you.
Q Where do they live? A They live in Scranton, Mississippi.
Q What is the name of the next one of your wife's brothers who is dead? A Jim.
Q Did he leave children? A Yes sir.
Q Where do they live? A In Scranton.
Q Do you know their names? A No sir, I do not.
Q What is the name of the next one of your wife's brothers? A Sylvan.
Q Did he leave children? A Yes sir.
Q Do you know their names? A No sir, I don't know their names.
Q Has your wife any sisters dead? A Two.
Q Did they leave children? A Yes sir.
Q What was the name of your wife's oldest sister who is dead? A Toniese.
Q What was her other name? A She married a Bobinger.
Q Are any of the children of these people living? A Well, I know all of them.
Q What are their names? A Sam Bobinger.
Q Next one? A Frederick.
Q Next one? A Alex.
Q Next one? A Mike.
Q Which one comes after Mike? A Pierre-he is here today.
Q Next one after him? A That's all.
Q What's the name of the next one of your wife's sisters who is dead? A Cecile.
Q Are any of her children living? A Yes sir, they are all living pretty much.
Q What was Cecile's married name? A She married William Page.
Q What are the names of her children who are living? A Robert is one.
Q Do you know any more of them? A I don't know their names.
Q Are any of your mother's brothers or sisters or any of your father's brothers or sisters living? A No sir.
Q Are any of their descendants living? A No sir.
Q Are any of your wife's mother's brothers or sisters or any of your wife's father's brothers or sisters or any of their descendants living? A No sir.
Q Do you speak or understand the Choctaw language? A No sir.
Q Are there any further statements you want to make at this time?
A No sir.

Benjamin Bang,

Vancleave, Mississippi.

Dear Sir:

You are hereby advised that on the 17th day of April, 1903, the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes rendered a decision in the consolidated case of Edmo Bang, et al., embracing the following applications for identification as Mississippi Choctaws:

Edmo Bang, et al.,	M.C.R. 5356
Margaret Ann Mason,	M.C.R. 5358
Celestine Davis, et al.,	M.C.R. 5359
Mary Jane Waltman, et al.,	M.C.R. 5480
Benjamin Bang, et al.,	M.C.R. 4728
Frank Bang, et al.,	M.C.R. 4726
Henry Bang, et al.,	M.C.R. 5482
Edward Bang, et al.,	M.C.R. 4727

These applications were made under the provision of the act of Congress of June 28, 1898 (30 Stats., 495) which is as follows:

"Said Commission shall have authority to determine the identity of Choctaw Indians claiming rights in the Choctaw lands under article fourteen of the treaty between the United States and the Choctaw Nation, concluded September twenty-seventh, eighteen hundred and thirty, and to that end may administer oaths, examine witnesses and perform all other acts necessary thereto and make report to the Secretary of the Interior."

Said decision concludes as follows:

"It is therefore the opinion of this Commission that the evidence herein is insufficient to determine the identity of Edmo Bang, Celestine Bang, Louis Moore, Celestine Moore, Margaret Ann Mason, Celestine Davis, Martha C. Davis, Ransom H. Davis, Mary Jane Waltman, Sylvester Waltman, Willie J. Waltman, James Waltman, Ernest Waltman, Mary M. Waltman, John Waltman, Lee Waltman,

In the matter of the application of Pierre Bobinger for the identification of himself, his wife Mary and eight minor children, Linnie, Martha T., Levi, Ella, Sarah, Leonard, Soulie R., and Ferdinand C. Bobinger, as Mississippi Choctaws.

APPEARANCES: Joel R. Holcomb, Attorney for applicant.

Said Pierre Bobinger, being first duly sworn, testified as follows:

Examination by the Commission.

- Q What is your name? A Pierre Bobinger.
Q How old are you? A Forty-three.
Q How much Choctaw blood have you? A Well, I don't know, sir-I reckon about half.
Q Can you swear that you have half Choctaw blood? A Yes sir.
Q You understand the nature of an oath, don't you? A Yes sir.
Q What is your postoffice address? A McHenry, Harrison County, Mississippi.
Q How long have you lived in Harrison County? A About three years.
Q Where did you live before that? A Jackson County.
Q How long did you live there? A All my life.
Q Is your father living? A No sir.
Q What was his name? A John Bobinger.
Q Is your mother living? A No sir.
Q What was her name? A Teniese.
Q Did your father have any Choctaw blood? A No sir.
Q Did your mother? A Yes sir.
Q How much did she have? A I suppose she must have had something over three-quarters-nearly full-her mother was a full blood Indian and her father must have been about half. Old Mr Ware was raised and born with them and he can tell more than I can.
Q How long has your mother been dead? A About twenty-one years.
Q About how old was she when she died? A She must have been about sixty years old when she died.
Q Did she live in Jackson County all her life? A Yes sir.
Q Did she speak the Choctaw language? A No sir, she could understand it.
Q What was her mother's name? A I don't know, sir.
Q Do you know her father's name? A No sir.
Q Did they live in Jackson County all their lives? A Yes sir.
I think I can tell you her father's name-I heard her say her father's name was Alex G. Ladnier.
Q Do you know whether he had any Choctaw blood? A She said he was about half.
Q Who told you that? A I heard my father talk about it.
Q You never saw Ladnier, did you? A No sir.
Q Did you ever hear of any of your Choctaw ancestors living anywhere except in Jackson County? A No sir.
Q Are you married? A Yes sir.
Q What's your wife's name? A Mary.
Q Has she any Choctaw blood? A Yes sir.
Q How much? A I suppose about a quarter.

- Q Do you want to make application for her? A Yes sir.

Q How much? A I don't know, sir, I couldn't tell-I suppose about half.
Q Was your wife's mother any Choctaw blood? A No sir.
Q Were your wife's parents lawfully married? A Yes sir.
Q What evidence have you of that fact? A I heard them say they were and I heard them talking about the man that married them.
Q How many children did they raise? A Eight.
Q Have they always lived in Jackson County? A The mother was born in Wayne County and she moved to Jackson when she was quite young.
Q Do you know the name of the father or mother of Pierre Bang-your wife's father? A Yes sir, his mother was named Rose Bang-I forgot the old man's name.
Q Which one of them had Choctaw blood? A They both had Choctaw blood.
Q Did you know either one of them, ? A I knew the old lady.
Q How much Choctaw blood did she have? A I couldn't tell you exactly. I never did hear her say. I heard they claimed it.
Q Is Pierre Bang any relation to Benjamin Bang who appeared before the Commission here today? A Yes sir, he's a brother-a full brother.
Q What was your mother's maiden name? A Teniese Ladner.
Q How many children have you living? A Eight.

Q When? A About nineteen years ago.

Pierre Robinger et al---3

Q Where? A Van Cleave, Jackson County, Mississippi.

Q Who married you? A Mr Irvin Roberts.

Q Who was he? A A preacher.

Q Have you your marriage license and certificate with you at this time? A No sir.

It will be necessary for you to furnish proper evidence of your marriage to your wife for use in the consideration of the application you make for these children. It should be furnished within thirty days from this date.

Q This application is for yourself, your wife and eight minor children? A Yes sir.

Q Is your name or your wife's name or the name of any one of these children to be found upon any of the Choctaw Tribal rolls in Indian Territory? A No sir.

Q Has any application ever been made before today for yourself, your wife or any one of these children to be admitted or enrolled as members of the Choctaw Tribe of Indians? A No sir.

Q This is the first application of any kind that has ever been made for any of you for the purpose of establishing your rights as Choctaws? A Yes sir.

Q Do you appear before the Commission at this time for the purpose of claiming rights in the Choctaw lands in Indian Territory for yourself, your wife and eight minor children under article 14 of the treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek? A Yes sir.

Q Do you understand that 14th article of the treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek? A No sir.

This treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek was entered into here in Mississippi on the 27th day of September, 1830, between the United States Government and the Choctaw Tribe of Indians. At the time this treaty was made the Choctaws lived here in Mississippi and along the western edge of the State of Alabama. The object of the treaty was to get these Indians to move from the country occupied by them here in Mississippi and Alabama to a new country west of the Mississippi River, part of which is now occupied by the greater portion of the Choctaw Tribe of Indians and is commonly known as the Choctaw Nation Indian Territory. At the time the treaty was made some of the Indians were unwilling to leave this country and for the benefit of those who wanted to stay here what is known as the 14th article was put in the treaty. That 14th article is as follows:

"Each Choctaw head of a family being desirous to remain and become a citizen of the States shall be permitted to do so by signifying his intention to the Agent within six months from the ratification of this treaty and he or she shall thereupon be entitled to a reservation of one section of six hundred and forty acres of land, to be bounded by sectional lines of survey; in like manner shall be entitled to one half that quantity for each unmarried child which is living with him over ten years of age; and a quarter section for such child as may be under ten years of age, to adjoin the location of the parent. If they reside upon said land, intending to become citizens of the States, for five years after the ratification of this treaty, in that case a grant in fee simple shall issue; said reservation shall include the present improvement of the head of the family or a portion of it. Persons who claim under this article shall not lose the privilege of a Choctaw citizen but if they ever remove are not to be entitled to any portion of the Choctaw annuity."

Q Do you understand that 14th article now? A Yes sir.

Q Did any of your ancestors or any of your wife's ancestors ever comply or attempt to comply with its provisions of ever receive any benefits under that article? A Not that I know of.

Q Did any of them own an improvement here in the old Choctaw Nation in Mississippi and Alabama in the year 1830 when this treaty was made-71 years ago? A No sir, not as I know of.

Q Did any of them live here at that time? A Well, I suppose they was all here.

Q Where? A In Jackson County, Mississippi.

Q Did any of your ancestors or any of your wife's ancestors remove from Mississippi out to the new nation in Indian Territory at the time of the removal of the greater portion of the Choctaw Tribe of Indians between the years 1833 and 1838? A No sir.

Q Did any of your ancestors or any of your wife's ancestors within six months after the treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek was ratified let the Agent of the Government here in Mississippi, for the Choctaws, know that they wanted to stay here in Mississippi and become citizens of the States and take land? A No sir-I don't know.

Q Did any of them ever claim or receive any land here in Mississippi from the Government under article 14 of the treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek? A No sir.

Q Or under any other article of that treaty or the supplement?

A No sir.

Q Did any of them ever get any money from the Government? A No sir.

Q So far as you know, then, none of your ancestors and none of your wife's ancestors ever received any benefits whatever as Choctaw Indians? A No sir.

In accordance with the provisions of article 14 of the treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek the Government of the United States directed an Agent here in Mississippi to register the names of such Choctaws as might desire to remain here and become citizens and take land under that article. The records of the Government show that this Agent failed to register and report to the Government the names of many Choctaws who did in fact let him know that they wanted to stay here and become citizens and take land and on this account the Government, at its public land sales here in Mississippi, in many instances sold land upon which Choctaws lived and had improvements and which they supposed they would receive under article 14 of the treaty. This caused a great deal of complaint among the Indians and the matter was finally brought to the attention of Congress and Congress passed certain acts between the years 1837 and 1842 providing for the appointment of Commissions to come down here to Mississippi and hear the cases of Choctaws who claimed that they had been entitled to land under article 14 of the treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek but that their land had been sold by the Government. These Commissioners were appointed by the President of the United States and they came down here to Mississippi between the years 1837 and 1842 and heard a great many of these Choctaw cases.

Q Did any of your ancestors or any of your wife's ancestors appear before any of these Commissioners and attempt to establish their rights under article 14 of the treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek? A No sir.

An act of Congress approved August 23, 1842, provided that in case it should be finally determined that a Choctaw had complied in all respects with the provisions of article 14 of the treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek but that his land had been sold by the Government, he should be entitled to select, in the place of the land so sold by the Government, land some place else in Mississippi or in Alabama, Louisiana or Arkansas, from vacant Government land and should be given a certificate to that effect. These certificates were called scrip.

Q Did any of your ancestors or any of your wife's ancestors ever get any of this scrip from the Government of the United States under this act of Congress? A No sir.

Q Do you know of any old person living who would likely know whether any of your ancestors or any of your wife's ancestors ever complied or attempted to comply with the provisions of article 14 of the treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek or ever received any benefits thereunder? A No sir.

Q Do you know of the existence of any written evidence of any description which would prove or tend to prove such a state of facts? A No sir, I don't.

Q Have you any written evidence to offer at this time? A No sir.

Q Have you any witnesses here today? A Well, none but Mr. Ware.

If you should find any other witnesses whose testimony you desire to have taken before the Commission they may appear before us here at Meridian between now and the 15th of this month or within a reasonable time thereafter at Muskogee, Indian Territory, and their testimony will be taken.

Q Are there any further statements you want to make at this time? A No sir.

Pierre Bobinger et al--6

- Q Do you speak or understand the Choctaw language? A No sir.
Q Have you any brothers living? A Yes sir.
Q How many? A Four.
Q What are their names? A Sam, Frederick, Alex and Mike.
Q Where do they live? A One of them lives in Jackson County.
Q Where do the others live? A Two of them live at Long Beach in Harrison County.
Q The other one? A He lives here at Mo Henry, where I live.
Q Have any of them been before the Commission? A No sir.
Q Have you any sisters living? A Got three.
Q What are their names? A Elizabeth.
Q Is she married? A Yes sir.
Q What's her husband's name? A John Gill.
Q What's another sister's name? A Catherine.
Q Is she married? A yes sir.
Q What's her husband's name? A Joseph Raly.
Q Next one? A Her name is Halmena.
Q Is she married? A yes sir.
Q What's her husband's name? A Abigail Carroll.
Q Have any of them ever been before the Commission? A no sir.
Q Has your wife any brothers or sisters living? A yes sir.
Q How many? A She's got seven besides herself.
Q Is she a full sister of Frank Bang who just appeared before the Commission? A yes sir.

This applicant has a very dark complexion-dark eyes-straight black hair-although his features do not indicate that he is possessed of Indian blood. He does not speak or understand the Choctaw language.

James Ware, being first duly sworn, testified as follows:-

Examination by the Commission:

- Q What's your name? A James Ware.
Q How old are you? A Seventy-five years old.
Q What's your postoffice address? A Van Cleave.
Q What is your occupation? A I farm and raise stock.
Q How long have you lived in Jackson County, Mississippi? A I have lived there all my life except six years that I lived in Hinds County.
Q Are you acquainted with this applicant Pierre Bobinger? A yes sir
Q How long have you known him? A I have known him ever since his birth.
Q Has he lived down in that County all his life? A Yes sir, until about three years ago when he moved to MoHenry, in Harrison County.
Q What was his father's name? A John Bobinger.
Q What was he? A He was a Butchman.
Q He had no Choctaw blood? A Not that I know of.
Q What was Pierre's mother's name? A Teniese.
Q Did she have any Choctaw blood? A Yes sir.

Pierre Bobinger et al--7

How much Choctaw blood did Teniese Bobinger have? A Her father was a half breed.

Q She was a quarter, then? A Yes sir, she was about a quarter.

Q That would make this applicant an eighth Choctaw? A I suppose so-about that.

Q His mother was a quarter and his father had no Choctaw blood? A He didn't own none that I know of.

Q Did Teniese live there in Jackson County all her life? A Yes sir.

Q Was she older or younger than you? A She was younger than me.

Q How much younger? A I reckon she was twenty years younger.

Q Did she speak or understand the Choctaw language? A No sir.

Q Were you acquainted with her parents-her father and mother?

A I seed her father. I wasn't very large when he got drowned.

Q What was his name? A Alex C. Ladnier.

Q Did he have any Choctaw blood? A Yes sir.

Q How much? A Well, one-half.

Q Did he speak or understand the Choctaw language? A Yes sir, he did.

Q Where did he live during his life time? A He lived down there on the coast.

Q Was he born there? A Yes sir, born and raised there.

Q Teniese's mother had no Choctaw blood? A No sir.

Q What was she? A She was a colored woman-she was a servant-her father's name was Baly and he had her by one of his servants and he had her christened by the priest and made free. Alex married her.

Q Do you know whether any of the ancestors of this applicant, Pierre Bobinger, ever complied or attempted to comply with the provisions or article 14 of the treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek or ever received any benefits thereunder? A No sir, I don't know anything about it.

Q Has your father any Choctaw blood? A Yes sir.
Q How much? A About half.
Q Has your mother? A Yes sir.
Q How much? A About half.
Q Is the Anton Ealy who appeared before the Commission here this morning your father? A Yes sir.
Q What is your wife's name? A Eliza.
Q Has she any Choctaw blood? A No sir.
Q You make no claim for your wife? A No sir.
Q How many children have you living? A Two.
Q What are their names and ages? A Rose A.
Q How old? A Four years old.
Q Next one, A Earnest W.
Q How old? A Two years old.
Q Is that all? A Yes sir.
Q Are these children living with you at this time? A Yes sir.
Q Are they the children of yourself and Eliza? A Yes sir.
Q Have you been married more than once? A No sir.
Q Has she? A No sir.
Q Were you married to her under a license? A Yes sir.
Q When? A I don't know exactly how long - about eight years I reckon.
Q Where were you married to her? A Married in Jackson County.
Q Have you your marriage license and certificate with you at this time? A No sir.

It will be necessary for you to furnish the Commission with proper evidence of your marriage to your wife Eliza for use in connection with the application you make for your two minor children. This evidence should be furnished within thirty days from this date.

- Q This application, then, is for yourself and two minor children, is that right? A Yes sir.
- Q Is your name on any of the Choctaw Tribal rolls in Indian Territory? A No sir.
- Q Has any application ever been made before today for yourself or either of these children for the purpose of establishing your rights as Choctaw Indians? A Not as I know of.
- Q This is the first application of any kind? A Yes sir.
- Q Do you appear before the Commission at this time for the purpose of claiming rights in the Choctaw lands in Indian Territory for yourself and two minor children under article 14 of the treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek? A Yes sir.
- Q Do you understand that 14th article of the treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek? A Yes sir.
- Q Did any of your ancestors ever comply or attempt to comply with the provisions of that 14th article? A Not as I know of.
- Q Did any of them own an improvement here in the old Choctaw Nation in Mississippi and Alabama in the year 1830 when this treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek was made? A No sir.
- Q Did any of them live here at that time? A Yes sir, I reckon they did.
- Q Where? A Down near Van Cleave.
- Q In Jackson County? A Yes sir.
- Q Who of your ancestors lived here at that time--71 years ago? A Yes sir, I reckon my father and grandparents lived in Jackson County at that time.
- Q Did any of your ancestors--your Choctaw ancestors--move from Mississippi out to the new country when the greater portion of the Choctaw Tribe of Indians moved out there? A No sir.
- Q Did any of them within six months after the treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek was ratified let the Agent of the Government here in Mississippi, for the Choctaws, know that they wanted to stay here and become citizens of the States and take land? A Not as I know of.
- Q Did any of them ever claim or receive any land here in Mississippi from the Government of the United States under article 14 of the treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek? A No sir.
- Q Or under any other provision of that treaty? A No sir.
- Q Did any of them ever get any money from the Government? A No sir.
- Q None of your ancestors, then, so far as you know, ever received any benefits as Choctaw Indians? A No sir, not as I know of.

In accordance with the provisions of article 14 of the treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek the Government of the United States directed an Agent of the Government here in Mississippi to register the names of such Choctaws as might desire to remain and become citizens of the States and take land. The records of the Government show that this Agent failed to register and report to the Government the names of many Indians who did in fact let him know that they wanted to stay here and become citizens and on this account the Government, at its public land sales here in Mississippi, in many instances sold land upon which Choctaws lived and had improvements and which they supposed they would receive under article 14 of the treaty. This caused a great deal of complaint among the Indians and the matter was finally brought to the attention of Congress and Congress passed certain acts between the years 1837 and 1842 providing for the appointment of Commissioners to come down here to Mississippi and hear the cases of Choctaws who claimed that they were entitled to land under article 14 of the treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek but that their land had been sold by the Government. These Commissioners were duly appointed by the President of the United States and they came down here to Mississippi and heard a great many of these Choctaw cases.

Q Did any of your ancestors appear before any of these Commissioners and attempt to establish their rights under article 14 of the treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek? A Not as I know of.

An act of Congress approved on the 23rd day of August, 1842, provided that in case it should be finally determined that a Choctaw had complied in all respects with the provisions of article 14 of the treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek but that his land had been sold by the Government, he should be entitled to select, in place of the land so sold by the Government, land some place else in Mississippi or in Alabama, Louisiana or Arkansas, from vacant Government land and should be given a certificate to that effect. These certificates were called scrip.

Q Did any of your ancestors ever get any of this scrip from the Government of the United States under this act of Congress? A No sir, not as I know of.

Q Do you know of any old persons living who would likely know whether any of your ancestors ever complied or attempted to comply with the provisions of article 14 of the treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek or ever received any benefits thereunder? A No sir.

Q Do you know of any written evidence of any kind which would prove or tend to prove such a state of facts? A No sir.

Q Have you any written evidence of any kind to offer at this time? A No sir.

Q Have you any witnesses here today? A No sir.

If you should find any witnesses whose testimony you desire to have taken before the Commission they may appear before us here at Meridian between now and the 15th of this month or within a reasonable time thereafter at the general office of the Commission in Muskogee, Indian Territory, and their testimony will be taken.

Q Are there any further statements you want to make at this time? A No sir.

Q Are you a full brother of Joseph Ealy who has just been before the Commission? A Yes sir.

Q Do you speak or understand the Choctaw language? A No sir.

This applicant has dark skin, dark eyes and straight, black hair-his cheek bones are rather prominent-his general appearance, however, would not indicate that he was possessed of as much Indian blood as is claimed by him. He does not speak or understand the Choctaw language.

William Baly et al--4

Ira S. Niles, being first duly sworn, states that as stenographer to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes, he reported in full all proceedings had in the above entitled cause, heard at Meridian, Mississippi, February 11th, 1902, and that the above and foregoing is a full, true and correct transcript of his stenographic notes taken in said proceedings on said date.

Purvis, Mississippi,

Dear Sir:

Receipt is hereby acknowledged of your letter of the eleventh instant, inclosing the following papers for filing in support of applications for identification as Mississippi Choctaws:

Certified copy of marriage license and certificate of Franklin Bang and Cornelia Gurlic to be filed in the application of Frank Bang, et al.

Certified copy of marriage license and certificate of William Ely and Eliza Dobaen, in support of the application of William Ely, et al.

Certified copy of marriage license and certificate between Joseph Ely and Catherine O. Bohinger, offered in support of the application of Joseph Ely, et al.

There is returned to you herewith certified copy of the marriage license and certificate between Edward J. Bang and Miss T. Beltren, which is offered in evidence presumably in the case of Edward Bang, but in the application of Edward Bang et al. for identi fiction as a Mississippi Chapter it appears that the wife of Edward Bang is Esperance Bang, and before the inclosed marriage license and certificate can be accepted in this case it will be necessary to show the reason for this difference in names.

Yours truly,

Commissioner in Charge.

William Ealy,

Vandervee, Mississippi.

Dear Sir:

You are hereby advised that on the 17th day of April, 1903, the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes rendered a decision in the consolidated case of Anton Ealy, et al., embracing the following applications for identification as Mississippi Choctaws:

Anton Ealy, et al.,	M.C.R. 4722
Mary Carroll, et al.,	M.C.R. 4723
Mary R. Belton, et al.,	M.C.R. 4731
Nancy Dobson, et al.,	M.C.R. 5357
Joseph Ealy, et al.,	M.C.R. 4725
William Ealy, et al.,	M.C.R. 4730
Elwena Ealy, et al.,	M.C.R. 5481
Eliza Goff, et al.,	M.C.R. 4724

These applications were made under the provision of the act of Congress of June 23, 1893 (30 Stats., 495) which is as follows:

"Said Commission shall have authority to determine the identity of Choctaw Indians claiming rights in the Choctaw lands under article fourteen of the treaty between the United States and the Choctaw Nation, concluded September twenty-seventh, eighteen hundred and thirty, and to that end may administer oaths, examine witnesses and perform all other acts necessary thereto and make report to the Secretary of the Interior."

Said decision concludes as follows:

"It is therefore the opinion of this Commission that the evidence herein is insufficient to determine the identity of Anton Ealy, Madeline Ealy, Mary Carroll, Abissar A. Carroll,

William Ealy,-2

Toney Carroll, George Carroll, Earnest Carroll, Lydia M. Carroll, Mary R. Belton, James A. Belton, Alice C. Belton, Nancy Dobson, Mary Jane Dobson, William Dobson, Sabra A. Dobson, Joseph Ealy, Olivia Ealy, Toney Ealy, Joseph Ealy, Jr., John B. Ealy, Mary Ealy, Ruford Ealy, Bishop M. Ealy, Malinda M. Ealy, William Ealy, Rose A. Ealy, Earnest W. Ealy, Eldwena Ealy, Masaline Ealy, Beasie Ealy, Ella Ealy, Laura Ealy, Lisa Goff, Johnnie Goff, Frank Goff, Devie Goff and Mollie Goff, as Choctaw Indians entitled to rights in the Choctaw lands under the provisions of said article fourteen of the treaty of eighteen hundred and thirty, and that the applications for their identification as such should be refused, and it is so ordered."

You are further advised that you will be allowed fifteen days from the date hereof within which to file arguments in this office, and that at the expiration of said time the papers in the case together with such arguments will be forwarded to the Secretary of the Interior through the Commissioner of Indian Affairs.

Respectfully,

In the matter of the application of Mary R. Belton for the identification of herself and two minor children, James A., and Alice C., as Mississippi Choctaws.

APPEARANCES: Joel R. Holcomb, Attorney for applicants.

Said Mary R. Belton, being first duly sworn, testified as follows:-

Examination by the Commission.

- Q What is your name? A Mary R. Belton.
Q How old are you? A I don't know, sir-I am about twenty-eight years old.
Q How much Choctaw blood have you? A About a quarter-cause ma claims to be half.
Q What is your postoffice address? A Perkinston.
Q What County? A Harrison County, Mississippi.
Q How long have you lived in Harrison County? A It will be three years this coming May.
Q Where did you live before that? A Down in Jackson County.
Q How long did you live there? A All my life-I was born and raised there.
Q Is your father living? A Yes sir.
Q What's his name? A James Carrell.
Q Is your mother living? A Yes sir.
Q What's her name? A Mary Carrell.
Q Through which one of your parents do you get your Choctaw blood? A My mother.
Q She's a half blood, is she? A yes sir.
Q Is she the Mary Carrell who appeared before the Commission here this morning and made application for identification as a Mississippi Choctaw? A Yes sir.
Q What's her father's name? A Anton Ealy.
Q He also appeared here this morning? A yes sir.
Q What's the name of your husband? A Alex Belton.
Q Is he living? A Yes sir.

Q Is your name on any of the Choctaw Tribal rolls in Indian Territory? A No sir, not as I know of.
Q Has any application ever been made before today for yourself or either of these children for the purpose of establishing your rights as Choctaw Indians? A No sir, not as I know of.
Q This is the first application that has ever been made? A Yes sir.
Q Do you appear before the Commission at this time for the purpose of claiming rights in the Choctaw lands in Indian Territory for yourself and two children under article 14 of the treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek? A Yes sir.

Mary R. Belton et al--2

Q Do you understand that 14th article? A Yes sir, I reckon so; I have heard it called over two or three times today.

Q Do you think you understand it all right? A I don't know, sir, whether I do or not.

I will repeat it to you again. It is as follows:-

"Each Choctaw head of a family being desirous to remain and become a citizen of the States shall be permitted to do so by signifying his intention to the Agent within six months from the ratification of this treaty and he or she shall thereupon be entitled to a reservation of one section of six hundred and forty acres of land, to be bounded by sectional lines of survey; in like manner shall be entitled to one half that quantity for each unmarried child which is living with him over ten years of age; and a quarter section to such child as may be under ten years of age, to adjoin the location of the parent. If they reside upon said lands, intending to become citizens of the States, for five years after the ratification of this treaty, in that case a grant in fee simple shall issue; said reservation shall include the present improvement of the head of the family or a portion of it. Persons who claim under this article shall not lose the privilege of a Choctaw citizen but if they ever remove are not to be entitled to any portion of the Choctaw annuity."

Q I have quoted to you the 14th article of the treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek-do you think you understand it? A Yes sir, I guess so.

Q Did any of your ancestors ever comply or attempt to comply with the provisions of that 14th article or ever receive any benefits under that article? A No sir, not as I know of.

Q Did any of them own an improvement here in the old Choctaw Nation in Mississippi and Alabama in the year 1830 when this treaty was made? A No sir, not as I know of.

Q Did any of them live in the old Choctaw Nation at that time? A Not as I know of.

Q Did any of them remove from the State of Mississippi out west to the new Choctaw Nation at the time of the removal of the greater portion of the Choctaw Tribe of Indians? A Not as I know of.

Q Did any of them within six months after the treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek was ratified let the Agent of the Government here in Mississippi, for the Choctaws, know that they wanted to stay here in Mississippi and become citizens of the States and take land? A No sir, not that I know of.

Q Did any of them ever claim or receive any land here in Mississippi from the Government of the United States under article 14 of the treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek? A No sir, not that I know of.

Q Or under any other provision of that treaty? A No sir.

Q Did any of them ever get any money from the Government? A No sir, not that I know of.

Q You heard me explain to your mother and to your grandfather about these Commissions that were appointed under acts of Congress between 1837 and 1842, did you not? A Yes sir.

Mary R. Belton et al---3

Q Did any of your ancestors appear before any of these Commissioners and attempt to establish their rights under article 14 of the treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek? A No sir, not that I know of.

Q Did any of them ever get any scrip from the Government of the United States under the act of Congress approved August 23, 1842?

A No sir, not that I know of.

Q Do you know of any old person living who would likely know whether any of your ancestors ever complied or attempted to comply with the provisions of article 14 of the treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek or ever received any benefits thereunder? A No sir.

Q Do you know of any written evidence of any description which would prove or tend to prove such a state of facts? A No sir, I do not.

Q Have you any written evidence to offer at this time? A No sir.

Q Have you any witnesses here today? A No sir, I don't suppose I have, any more than my mother and grandfather.

Their testimony will be considered in your case.

If you should find any witnesses whose testimony you desire to have taken before the Commission they may appear before us here at Meridian between now and the 15th of this month or within a reasonable time thereafter at the general office of the Commission in Muskegee, Indian Territory, and their testimony will be taken.

Q Are there any further statements you want to make at this time?

A No sir.

Q Do you speak or understand the Choctaw language? A No sir.

This applicant has the appearance of being a white woman-- shows no indications of being possessed of Indian blood-- she has dark eyes, straight, black hair and her complexion is inclined to be dark--her features are those of a white person--she does not speak or understand the Choctaw language.

Ira S. Niles, being first duly sworn, states that as stenographer to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes he reported in full all proceedings had in the above entitled cause, heard at Meridian, Mississippi, February 11th, 1902, and that the above and foregoing is a full, true and correct transcript of his stenographic notes taken in said proceedings on said date.

Subscribed and sworn to before me this the 3rd day of March, 1902, at Philadelphia, Mississippi.

In the matter of the application for identification as a Mississippi Choctaw of Minerva Allen.

Applicant represented by J. E. Arnold, Agent.

Minerva Allen first duly sworn testified as follows:

Examination by the Commission

- Q What is your name? A Minerva Allen.
Q What is your age? A I was born in Fifty-one.
Q Would you be about fifty-one now? A Yes, sir; I am fifty-one to-day.
Q What is your post office address? A Waupanucka.
Q Indian Territory? A Yes, sir.
Q How long have you lived at Waupanucka? A About five months.
Q Where did you live before that? A In Texas.
Q Where were you born? A In Louisiana.
Q What place in Louisiana? A Rapides Parish.
Q How long did you live in Louisiana? A I lived there until I was about thirteen years old.
Q And then you went where? A Texas.
Q And lived there until you went to the Territory? A Yes, sir.
Q Is your father living? A No, sir.
Q Is your mother living? A No, sir.
Q What was your father's name? A John Perry McGee.
Q What was your mother's name? A Elizabeth McGee.
Q Through which parent do you claim Choctaw blood? A My mother.
Q How much Choctaw blood do you claim? A One-quarter.
Q Has your mother ever been recognized in any way or enrolled as a member of the Choctaw tribe of Indians by the Choctaw tribal authorities or the United States authorities in Indian Territory? A Not that I know of,--she was not.
Q Have you a husband living now? A I don't know whether he is living or not.
Q Have you any children that you want to make application for? A No, sir.
Q Are you not living with your husband? A No, sir.
Q Just separated? A Yes, sir.
Q He left? A Yes; three years ago and I have not seen him since that is why I say I don't know whether he is living or not.
Q Is your name on any of the tribal rolls of the Choctaw Nation in Indian Territory? A No, sir.
Q Have you ever made application for citizenship in the Choctaw Nation to the Choctaw tribal authorities? A No, sir.
Q Have you ever made application to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes for citizenship in the Choctaw Nation under the act of Congress of June 10, 1896? A No, sir.
Q Have you ever been admitted to citizenship in the Choctaw Nation by either the Choctaw tribal authorities, the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes or the United States Court in Indian Territory? A No, sir.

- Q Do you now come before the Commission to be identified yourself as a Mississippi Choctaw claiming under article fourteen of the treaty of eighteen hundred and thirty? A Yes, sir.
- Q Do you understand that article of that treaty? A No sir.

The treaty of eighteen hundred and thirty was made between the United States government and the Choctaw tribe of Indians at a place in Mississippi, called Dancing Rabbit Creek, on the 27th of September, eighteen hundred and thirty. It was made for the especial purpose of the removal of the Choctaw Indians who lived in the old Choctaw Nation east of the Mississippi River to the Choctaw Nation Indian Territory. Before the treaty was signed it became known that a good many Choctaw Indians would refuse to go to the Choctaw Nation Indian Territory. Some provision had to be made for them before the treaty would be signed and that provision was contained in an article numbered fourteen, called article fourteen of the treaty of 1830 and which was made for the especial protection and benefit for what are now called Mississippi Choctaws. That article reads as follows:

"Each Choctaw head of a family being desirous to remain and become a citizen of the States, shall be permitted to do so, by signifying his intention to the Agent within six months from the ratification of this treaty and he or she shall thereupon be entitled to a reservation of one section of six hundred and forty acres of land to be bounded by sectional lines of survey; in like manner shall be entitled to one half that quantity for each unmarried child which is living with him over ten years of age and a quarter section to such child as may be under ten years of age to adjoin the location of the parent. If they reside upon said lands intending to become citizens of the States for five years after the ratification of this treaty in that case a grant in fee simple shall issue; said reservation shall include the present improvement of the head of the family or a portion of it. Persons who claim under this article shall not lose the privilege of a Choctaw citizen but if they ever remove are not to be entitled to any portion of the Choctaw annuity."

- Q You think you understand that article after having had it read and explained to you, so that you can claim under it? A Yes, sir.
- Q Did any of your ancestors comply or attempt to comply with any of the provisions of that article? A I don't know whether they did, my grandfather died just about the time of the treaty.
- Q What was his name? A Dove.
- Q Is he the ancestor through whom you claim your right to be identified as a Mississippi Choctaw? A Yes, sir.
- Q What was his full name? A I don't know what his full name was. I don't remember that I heard any of the family say what his name was.
- Q How much Choctaw blood did he have? A I think he was about a full breed.
- Q What proof have you that he was a full blood Choctaw Indian? A Nothing only through my grandmother, and mother and all the kin say so.
- Q Is it a matter of family history? A Yes, sir.
- Q When did he die? A In 1830 or thirty one.
- Q Did he have a family there at that time? A Yes; he had a wife and eight children.
- Q Did he have an Indian name? A Dove is an Indian name is it not.
- Q I don't know; it sounds and reads like an English name; did he

- Q have any other name than Dove? A That is all I ever heard.
- Q Was he your mother's father? A Yes, sir.
- Q Did your mother live in Mississippi? A Yes, sir.
- Q Was he born in Mississippi? A Yes, sir.
- Q How old would your mother be if living now? A She was born in 1815.
- Q In Mississippi? A Yes, sir.
- Q She was not married in 1830? A No, sir; she was married in 1833.
- Q Did your grandfather Dove or any of your Choctaw ancestors own any improvements on land in Mississippi or Alabama in 1830? A Well I think he did but then it was taken away from him.
- Q What information or knowledge have you that he owned land in Mississippi which was taken away from him? A I heard my mother and grandmother and aunt say so.
- Q By whom was this land taken away from him? A I don't know that.
- Q Do you know where the land was located? A No, sir.
- Q In Mississippi was it? A Yes, it was in Mississippi, either in Wilkinson or Choctaw County, I suppose, because I heard mother say that she lived there.
- Q These Counties are in Mississippi? A Yes, sir.
- Q Did any of your Choctaw ancestors within six months after the ratification of the treaty of 1830 go to the United States Indian Agent, Colonel Ward, and tell him that they intended to stay in Mississippi, take land there and become citizens of the United States? A No, sir.
- Q Did you ever hear that any of them left that old Choctaw Nation and went to the Choctaw Nation Indian Territory with the other Indians between the years 1833 and 1838? A No, sir; he never went there; I don't know anything about the rest of his family except him.
- Q Did your grandfather Dove ever own any lands or claim any in Mississippi or Alabama under article fourteen of the treaty of 1830? A I don't know whether he did own any lands he claimed some but it was taken away from him between 1830 and 1833, it was taken away from him.
- Q Do you know whether he claimed it under article fourteen? A No, sir.
- Q Do you know whether he ever claimed or received any land under any other article of the treaty of 1830 than article fourteen or under the supplement of that treaty? A No, sir; I only know that she said they took the place away from her when he died.
- Q Did he claim any land or any benefits under any treaty made between the United States government and the Choctaw tribe of Indians other than the treaty of 1830? A Not that I know of.

The Indians who remained in the old Choctaw Nation in Mississippi and Alabama after the treaty of 1830 was ratified, were required if they wanted to take advantage of the provisions of article fourteen of that treaty to go to the United States Indian Agent, whose name was Colonel Ward, and who had an agency in Mississippi at that time and tell him that they wanted to stay in Mississippi, atek land there and become citizens of the United States. A good many Indians did this whose names Colonel Ward failed to put upon his list, known as Ward's register. A great many Indians made application to him under that article of that treaty and within six months from its ratification whose names should have appeared upon his list but were not placed there His neglect to make a full and complete list of these claimants caused a good many Indians who had land in Mississippi upon which they had improvements to lose them both; both were taken from them by the government and sold at its public land sales. So many complaints were made on account of this that Congress appointed a Commission by act approved March 3, 1837 and this Commission went to the state of Mississippi and heard claimants under article fourteen of that treaty. In 1842 another Commission was appointed under act of Congress approved August 23, 1842 for the same purpose and this Commission went to Mississippi and heard claimants under article fourteen of the treaty of 1830.

- Q Did you ever hear that any of your Choctaw ancestors, or that this one in particular, your grandfather Dove, went before either of these two Commissions and claimed benefits as Choctaw Indians?
A I never heard any of them say that he did or did not.
- Q He would probably have been dead before the year 1837? A Yes he died between 1830 and 1833.
- Q Did any of your Choctaw ancestors receive any scrip from the government of the United States which entitled them to select land in Mississippi, Alabama, Louisiana, or Arkansas, to take the place of land which the government had taken from them and sold?
A I don't think that they did.
- Q Have you had any relatives who have appeared here and made application to be identified as Mississippi Choctaws? A Nobody but my sister and brother.
- Q What is your brother's name? A Elijah McGee.
- Q And your sister's name? A Alice Schmidt.
- Q Is Elijah McGee your brother? A Yes, sir.
- Q Alice Schmidt is your sister? A Yes, sir.
- Q Have they made application for identification as Mississippi Choctaws before the Commission? A Yes, sir.
- Q Claim through the same common ancestor Dove? A Yes, sir.
- Q Do you want to have their records considered with yours when yours is examined by the Commission? A Yes, sir.

Reference is hereby made to the case of Elijah McGee, M.C.R. 3453, and also to the application of Alice Schmidt, 3451.

- Q Have you any evidence or other proof that you want to submit now to the Commission in support of this claim? A

By Mr. Arnold.

No, sir.

- Q You care for time in which to file other evidence?

By Mr. Arnold.

Yes, sir.

A reasonable time is allowed this applicant in which to file other evidence in support of this application provided such evidence or testimony is presented under the rules of the Commission.

- Q Do you speak or understand the Choctaw language? A No, sir

This applicant has the appearance and physical characteristics of being descended from white parentage. She does not speak or understand the Choctaw language and has no knowledge of compliance on the part of her ancestors with any of the provisions of article fourteen of the treaty of 1830

COMMISSION TO THE FIVE CIVILIZED TRIBES.

-----oOo-----

In the matter of the application of Minerva Allen, et al.,
for identification as Mississippi Choctaws, consolidating the applications of

Minerva Allen,	M C R 4732
Alice Schmidt, et al.,	M C R 3461
Elijah McGee, et al.,	M C R 3463
Mollie Thompson, et al.,	M C R 6322

-----: D E C I S I O N :-----

It appears from the record herein that applications for identification as Mississippi Choctaws were made to this Commission by Minerva Allen for herself; by Alice Schmidt for herself and her two minor children, Bessie Dumfrey and Willie Schmidt; by Elijah
McGee for himself and his three minor children, May, Eva and Lee McGee, and by Mollie Thompson for herself and her five minor children, Ada A., Jesse S., Alonzo C., Abel P. and Ophelia M. Thompson
under the following provision of the act of Congress approved June 28, 1898, (30 Stats., 495):

"Said Commission shall have authority to determine the identity of Choctaw Indians claiming rights in the Choctaw lands under article fourteen of the treaty between the United States and the Choctaw Nation, concluded September twenty-seventh, eighteen hundred and thirty, and to that end may administer oaths, examine witnesses and perform all other acts necessary thereto and make report to the Secretary of the Interior."

It also appears that all the applicants except those embraced in M.C.R. 6322 claim rights in the Choctaw lands under article fourteen of the treaty between the United States and the Choctaw Nation, concluded September twenty-seventh, eighteen hundred and thirty, by reason of being descendants of Elizabeth McGee, who is alleged to have been an one-half blood Choctaw Indian, and to have resided in Mississippi in eighteen hundred and thirty, and that the applicants in M.C.R. 6322 claim said rights by reason of being descendants of Thomas S. Dove, who is alleged to have been a Choctaw Indian, degree of blood not stated.

It also appears from the testimony that there are more remote Choctaw ancestors than the ones above mentioned, but as their full names are not given, it is impossible for the Commission to determine whether or not they were beneficiaries under the fourteenth article of the treaty of "Dancing Rabbit Creek."

It further appears from the evidence submitted in support of said applications and from the records in the possession of the Commission that none of said applicants has ever been enrolled by the Choctaw tribal authorities as a member of the Choctaw tribe, or admitted to Choctaw citizenship by a duly constituted court or committee of the Choctaw Nation, or by the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes, or by a decree of the United States Court in Indian Territory, under the provisions of the act of Congress approved June 10, 1896, (29 Stats., 321).

It does not appear from the testimony and evidence offered in support of said applications, or from the records in the possession of the Commission relating to persons who complied or attempted to comply with the provisions of said article fourteen of the treaty of eighteen hundred and thirty, and to persons who heretofore were claimants thereunder, that the said Elizabeth McGee, or Thomas S. Dove, signified (in person or by proxy) to Colonel Wm. Ward, Indian Agent, Choctaw Agency, an intention to comply with the provisions of said article fourteen of the treaty of eighteen hundred and thirty, or presented a claim to rights thereunder to either of the Commissions authorized to adjudicate such claims by the acts of Congress approved March 3, 1837, (5 Stats., 180), and August 23, 1842, (5 Stats., 513).

It is therefore the opinion of this Commission that the evidence herein is insufficient to determine the identity of Minerva Allen, Alice Schmidt, Bessie Dumfrey, Willie Schmidt, Elijah McGee, May McGee, Eva McGee, Lee McGee, Mollie Thompson, Ada A. Thompson, Jesse S. Thompson, Alonzo C. Thompson, Abel P. Thompson and Ophelia M. Thompson as Choctaw Indians entitled to rights in the Choctaw lands under the provisions of said article fourteen of the treaty of eighteen hundred and thirty, and that the applications for their identification as such should be refused, and it is so ordered.

Minerva Allen,

Post Office Box #67,

Wapanucka, Indian territory.

Dear Madam:

Receipt is hereby acknowledged of your letter of the 4th instant, in which you ask if yourself, your sister Alice Schmidt, and your brother Elijah McGee can file on lands.

In reply to your letter you are informed that it appears from the records of the Commission that you are an applicant for identification as a Mississippi Choctaw; that your brother Elijah McGee and your sister Alice Schmidt are applicants for the identification of themselves and their minor children as Mississippi Choctaws.

The Commission has not up to the present time reached any opinion or decision in these cases but is now considering the several applications and it is probable decisions will be rendered in the near future. Upon the rendition thereof the applicants will be duly notified of the action of the Commission and of the forwarding of the record to the Secretary of the Interior.

Relative to your right to file on lands in the Choctaw-Chickasaw country, your attention is invited to the following provision of the act of Congress approved July 1, 1902, which was ratified by the citizens of the Choctaw and Chickasaw Nations September 25, 1902:

"All persons duly identified by the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes under the provisions of section 21 of the act of Congress approved June 28, 1898 (30 Stats., 495), as Mississippi Choctaws entitled to benefits under article 14 of the treaty between the United States and the Choctaw Nation concluded September 27, 1830, may, at any time within six months after the date of their identification as Mississippi Choctaws by the said Commission, make bona fide settlement within the Choctaw-Chickasaw country, and upon proof of such settlement to such Commission within one year after the date of their said identification as Mississippi Choctaws shall be enrolled by such Commission as Mississippi Choctaws entitled to allotment as herein provided for citizens of the tribes, subject to the special provisions herein provided as to Mississippi Choctaws, and said enrollment shall be final when approved by the Secretary of the Interior."

It is not believed that the benefits of this legislation will in any manner accrue to applicants until duly identified as Mississippi Choctaws entitled to allotment, and that yourself, your sister Alice Schmidt and your brother Elijah McGee are not at this time entitled to possessory rights of the tribal property of the Choctaw and Chickasaw Nations.

Respectfully,

Chairman.

Dear Madam:

You are hereby advised that on the 14th day of April 1903, the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes rendered a decision in the consolidated case of Minerva Allen, et al., embracing the following applications for identification as Mississippi Choctaws:

Minerva Allen,	M C R 4732
Alice Schmidt, et al.,	M C R 3451
Elijah McGee, et al.,	M C R 3453
Mollie Thompson, et al.,	M C R 6322

These applications were made under the provision of the Act of Congress of June 28, 1898 (30 Stats., 496) which is as follows:

"Said Commission shall have authority to determine the identity of Choctaw Indians claiming rights in the Choctaw lands under article fourteen of the treaty between the United States and the Choctaw Nation, concluded September twenty-seventh, eighteen hundred and thirty, and to that end may administer oaths, examine witnesses and perform all other acts necessary thereto, and make report to the Secretary of the Interior."

Said decision concludes as follows:

"It is therefore the opinion of this Commission that the evidence herein is insufficient to determine the identity of Minerva Allen, Alice Schmidt, Bessie Dumfrey, Willie Schmidt, Elijah McGee, May McGee, Eva McGee, Lee McGee, Mollie Thompson, Ada A. Thompson, Jesse S. Thompson, Alenso C. Thompson, Abel P. Thompson and Ophelia M. Dear Madam:

Receipt is hereby acknowledged of your letter of the 22nd instant, in which you give the name of your grandfather and the date of his death, and state "If we need any other evidence please let us know."

In reply you are informed that it appears from our records that you made application to this Commission for identification as a Mississippi Choctaw. On April 14, 1903, the Commission rendered its decision refusing your application, and on the same date you were duly notified of the action of the Commission and that you would be allowed fifteen days from the date of said decision within which to file arguments in support of your claim to be forwarded to the Secretary of the Interior.

The fifteen days from April 14, 1903, heretofore granted in this case, will expire on April 29, 1903. On April 30, 1903, the record in your case, together with such arguments as may be offered in support thereof, will be forwarded to the Secretary of the Interior. You will be duly notified of such action as may be taken by him.

M A A 2

The Commission cannot render you an opinion upon the sufficiency of evidence offered in support of your claim. However, you are advised that the Commission requires of applicants for identification as Mississippi Choctaws that they not only show that they are possessed of Choctaw blood but that they must also show that they are descendants of Choctaw ancestors who resided in the old Choctaw Nation in the States of Mississippi and Alabama in 1830, and that such ancestors complied or attempted to comply with the provisions of the fourteenth article of the Choctaw treaty of 1830, or who subsequently had their claims arising thereunder adjudicated by either of the two Commissions authorized for this purpose by the acts of Congress of March 3, 1837 and August 23, 1842.

Respectfully,

Chairman.

Muskogee, Indian Territory, April 30, 1903.

The Honorable,

The Secretary of the Interior.

Sir:

There is transmitted herewith the record in the consolidated case of Minerva Allen, et al., applicants to the Commission for identification as Mississippi Choctaws, including the decision of the Commission of April 14, 1903.

The above consolidated case embraces the following original applications heard by the Commission:

Kinerva Allen,	M.C.R. 4732;
Alice Schmidt, et al.,	M.C.R. 3461;
Elijah McGee, et al.,	M.C.R. 3463;
Kollie Thompson, et al.,	M.C.R. 6322.

The Commission has the honor to report that the principal applicants in the several separate applications and the attorneys for the Choctaw and Chickasaw Nations have been duly advised by letter of the action of the Commission, copies of said letters being attached to the record.

Respectfully,

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR,
Office of Indian Affairs,

WASHINGTON, June 6, 1903.

The Honorable,

The Secretary of the Interior.

Sir:

I have the honor to submit herewith record of the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes in the matter of the application of Minerva Allen for herself; Alice Schmidt for herself and her two minor children, Bessie Dumfrey and Willie Schmidt; Elijah McGee for himself and his three minor children, May, Eva and Lee McGee, and by Mollie Thompson for herself and her five minor children, Ada A., Jesse S., Alonzo C., Abel T. and Ophelia M. Thompson as Mississippi Choctaws wherein the Commission rejected the applicants on April 14, 1903.

The record in this case shows that the applicants predicate their claims to identification as Mississippi Choctaws on their descent from one Dove through his daughter Elizabeth McGee it being alleged that Dove was the head of a Choctaw family in Mississippi in 1830, and that his daughter Elizabeth was married to McGee in 1833. As to whether the ancestor Dove who had lands as his home in the Choctaw Nation in Mississippi in 1830 and complied or attempted to comply with the provisions of the 14th article of the Choctaw treaty of that year the witnesses are unable to state relying solely for their right to identification on their descent from Dove through his daughter Elizabeth McGee.

The Commission rejected the applicants for the reason that its records failed to show that Elizabeth McGee either complied or attempted to comply with the provisions of the 14th article of the Choctaw treaty of 1830.

An investigation of the records of this office have been made with reference to _____ Dove and Elizabeth McGee, and it is ascertained that the name of neither of these parties appeared among the names of those Choctaw Indians who complied or attempted to comply with the provisions of the 14th article of the Choctaw treaty. The only McGee who did comply for land under the 14th article of the Choctaw treaty was Samuel McGee, whose children in 1830 were Anna, Lavina and Humphreys, his wife being named Polly, she being a daughter of John Jones. Part of the testimony with reference to this applicant will be found in the bound volume of testimony in the case of Choctaw Nation versus United States, volume 2, page 1055. It is evident to me that the decision of the Commission rejecting these applicants was correct, and I recommend that it be approved.

L.R.S.

Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes,

Muskogee, I. T.

Gentlemen:

On April 30, 1903, you transmitted the consolidated case involving the applications for identification as Mississippi Choctaws, of Alice Schmidt and her minor children Bessie Dumfrey and Willie Schmidt; of Minerva Allen; of Elijah McGee and his minor children, My, Eva and Lee McGee; and of Mollie Thompson and her minor children, Ada A., Jesse S., Alonzo G., Abel P. and Ophelia M. Thompson. You refused the applications April 14, 1903.

The applicants claim rights to Choctaw lands under article 14 of the treaty of 1830, by reason of being descendants of one Dove, grandfather of the principal applicant. All of them, except the applicants in M. C. R. 6322 claim through Elizabeth McGee, daughter of said Dove, and the applicants in M. C. R. 6322 claim through Thomas S. Dove, son of the said ancestor Dove, it being alleged that said Dove was a Choctaw Indian and a resident of the Choctaw Nation in 1830.

The evidence fails to show that any of the said ancestors complied or attempted to comply with the provisions of article 14 of the treaty of 1830, or with the subsequent acts of Congress relating thereto. The records of the Indian Office fail to show that any one by the name of Dove or Elizabeth McGee complied or attempted to comply with the provisions of said article or acts. There was a Samuel McGee who applied for land under article 14 of the treaty of 1830, and whose children at that time were Anna, Lavina and Humphreys; his wife was named Polly, and was a daughter of John Jones.

Comparing the information furnished by the Indian Office with that furnished by the record in this case, the Department is of the opinion that Samuel McGee could not have been identical with any of the ancestors through whom the applicants claim.

Reporting June 8, 1903, the Acting Commissioner of Indian Affairs recommends that your decision be approved. A copy of his letter is inclosed.

The Department affirms your decision.

Sir:

June 18, 1903, the Department affirmed the decision of the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes, adverse to the applicants, in the Mississippi Choctaw case of Alice Schmidt et al.

The motion for rehearing in said case, in the form of affidavits, by Elijah McGee and Minerva Allen, received with your office letter of July 17, 1906, is denied, as it is merely alleges in a general way that evidence can be produced to show that one of the ancestors of the claimants was a full-blood Choctaw Indian, living in Mississippi, and that the alleged ancestor through whom they claim complied with the 14th article of the treaty of 1830; that their knowledge relative to such alleged compliance is a matter of family history, "testimony as to which can and will be submitted by the oldest members of the family and such other old Indians as applicants may be able to produce to establish their allegations."

Choctaws.

Commissioner of Indian Affairs,
Washington, D. C.

Sir:

Receipt is acknowledged of Indian Office letter of November-22, 1907 (I. T. 90355-1907), enclosing for report thereon, a communication from P. S. Mossely of Bromide, Oklahoma, concerning the enrollment of Elige McGee, Mrs. Alice Smith and Mrs. Minerva Allen as Choctaws by blood.

I have the honor to report in the above matter that Elijah McGee, Alice Schmidt and Minerva Allen applied to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes for the identification of themselves and children as Mississippi Choctaws, claiming their rights under the 14th article of the Choctaw treaty of 1830, by reason of being the descendants of Elizabeth McGee, an alleged half-blood Choctaw Indian. These applications were consolidated under the name of Minerva Allen, et al.

The evidence introduced in support of the consolidated
Mississippi Choctaw case of Minerva Allen, et al. failed to show that the applicants were the descendants of a Choctaw ancestor who complied with the provisions of article 14 of the treaty of 1830, and their applications were refused by a decision of the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes rendered April 14, 1903. This decision was affirmed by the Secretary of the Interior June 18, 1903 (I.T.D. 4974-1903).

November 2, 1906 (I.T.D. 20552-1906), the Secretary of the Interior denied a motion for rehearing relative to the rights of these applicants, since which time it does not appear that any action has been taken in their case.

The letter of P. S. Mossly is returned herewith.

Respectfully,

Acting Commissioner.

- Q How old is Martha? A Two.
- Q That is all? A Yes, sir.
- Q Is William Graves the father of these children? A Yes, sir.
- Q You are the mother of them all? A Yes, sir.
- Q Was he ever married before his marriage to you? A No, sir.
- Q Were you ever married before you married him? A Yes, sir.
- Q Have you any children that you want to make application for by any other marriage? A No, sir; I have two but they are over age

- Q Have they ever been before the Commission, these two? A No, sir.
- Q What are their present names? A Jim Steele and Parthena Rucker
- Q Where do they live? A Close to me; I have another married by my present husband, Matilda Ellison.
- Q Is your name or the names of any of your children on any of the tribal rolls of the Choctaw Nation in Indian Territory? A Not that I know of.
- Q Have you ever made application for citizenship in the Choctaw Nation for yourself and your children to the Choctaw tribal authorities in Indian Territory? A No, sir; only before when I went before the Dawes.
- Q Have you ever made application for citizenship in the Choctaw Nation to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes under the act of Congress of June 10, 1896? A No, sir.
- Q That would be over five years ago? A No, sir.
- Q The only application you ever made previous to this present application is the application which you made at Caddo, Indian Territory, August 29, 1899 is it? A Yes, sir.
- Q You then appeared before Commissioner McKennon? A Yes, sir.
- Q And that record you now want transferred to this? A Yes, sir.
- Q Have you ever been admitted to citizenship in the Choctaw Nation by either the Choctaw tribal authorities, the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes or the United States Court in Indian Territory? A No, sir.
- Q Or your children? A No, sir.
- Q Do you now come before the Commission for the purpose of being identified and for the identification of your children as Mississippi Choctaws claiming under article fourteen of the treaty of 1830? A Yes, sir.
- Q Do you understand that article of that treaty? A No, sir.
- Q Do you know what a treaty is? A No, sir; I have heard them say but I don't remember anything about it.
- Q Did you ever hear of a contract being made between two or more people? A Yes, sir.
- Q You have made contracts yourself did you not? A Yes, sir.
- Q Some times contract are made in writing? A Yes, sir.
- Q Well a treaty is the same thing only it is made in writing and signed by its parties but the parties to a treaty are two or more Nations instead of individuals? A Yes, sir.
- Q It is called a treaty because it is made between Nations? A Yes, sir.

In 1830 such a treaty or agreement was made between the United States government and the Choctaw tribe of Indians at a place called Dancing Rabbit Creek in Mississippi and was signed on the 27th day of September 1830; but, before that treaty was signed it became known that a good many Choctaw Indians would refuse to go to the Choctaw Nation Indian territory under that treaty with the other Indians, for the object of that treaty was to secure the removal of these Choctaw Indians from that old Choctaw Nation to the Choctaw Nation Indian territory. Some provision had to be made for the Indians who refused to go and article fourteen was drafted and put into the treaty. An article in a treaty is a part of it; one of its subdivisions. Article fourteen is as follows:

"Each Choctaw head of a family being desirous to remain and become a citizen of the States shall be permitted to do so by signifying his intention to the Agent within six months from the ratification of this treaty and he or she shall thereupon be entitled to a reservation of one section of six hundred and forty acres of land to be bounded by sectional lines of survey; in like manner shall be entitled to one half that quantity for each unmarried child which is living with him over ten years of age and a quarter section to such child as may be under ten years of age, to adjoin the location of the parent. If they reside upon said lands intending to become citizens of the States for five years after the ratification of this treaty in that case a grant in fee simple shall issue; said reservation shall include the present improvement of the head of the family or a portion of it. Persons who claim under this article shall not lose the privilege of a Choctaw citizen but if they ever remove are not to be entitled to any portion of the Choctaw annuity."

- Q Did any of your ancestors comply with that article or attempt to?
A I don't know sir; whether they did or not.
- Q Do you know what is meant by ancestor? A No, sir.
- Q What do you think it means? A I think you mean the aunts.
- Q No, I mean father or mother, grandfather or grandmother, great grandfather or great grandmother any relation in a direct line back? A No, sir.
- Q You don't know whether they did comply with the article or not?
A No, sir.
- Q What is the name of your ancestor through whom you claim your right to be identified as a Mississippi Choctaw? A My grandmother.
- Q What was her name? A Charlotte Danforth.
- Q How much Choctaw blood did she have? A They say she was a full blood.
- Q Did she live in Mississippi in 1830? A I don't know.
- Q Did any of your Choctaw ancestor ever live in the state of Mississippi or the state of Alabama? A My mother said they did.
- Q Your mother said who lived there? A That her mother lived there
- Q Who was her mother? A Charlotte Danforth.
- Q That is your mother's mother then? A Yes, sir.
- Q And your mother told you that Charlotte Danforth lived in the State of Mississippi? A Yes, sir.
- Q Did she tell you that she lived there in 1830; and had a family there at that time? A No, sir; she did not tell me when she lived there but she lived there and went to Virginia..
- Q Was Charlotte Danforth a slave? A No, sir.
- Q Did she speak the Choctaw language? A The old lady what had my mother she said she did.
- Q What old lady do you mean? A Old Lady Price, she said she spoke it.
- Q Who is old lady Price? A She had my mother.
- Q Who did Charlotte Danforth stay with? A She stayed with her husband I reckon.
- Q What was his name? A Randolph Danforth I think.
- Q Was he a Negro? A No, sir.
- Q What was he? A They said he was a Mexican.
- Q Negro and what; what was his mixed blood? A I don't know what was his mixed blood.
- Q How do you know he was not a slave? A Because when my mother's mother died she died in Topeka Kansas.
- Q How do you know that Charlotte Danforth was not a slave? A I don't know, only I heard my mother say so.
- Q How old would Charlotte Danforth be if living now? A I don't know.
- Q How old would your mother be if living now? A She would be nearly seventy.
- Q She was born where? A I don't know where my mother was born.

- Q Was Mose Montgomery and Matilda Danforth your mother married?
A Yes, sir.
- Q When were they married? A I don't know sir; some time before the War?
- Q But Mose Montgomery was a slave was he not? A No, sir.
- Q You don't know anything about him? A No, sir.
- Q How do you know that he was married then? A I heard white people say so that knowed him.
- Q Did any of your Choctaw ancestors own any improvements on land in Mississippi or Alabama in 1830? A Not as I knows of.
- Q Did any of your Choctaw ancestors go to the United States Indian Agent within six months after the ratification of the treaty of 1830 and tell him that they wanted to stay in Mississippi, take land there and become citizens of the United States? A If they did I don't know anything about it.
- Q Did you ever hear that any of them left that old Choctaw Nation in Mississippi and Alabama and went to the Choctaw Nation Indian territory with the other Indians between 1833 and 1838? A No, sir; I never did hear that they did.
- Q Did any of your Choctaw ancestors own any land or claim any in Mississippi or Alabama under article fourteen of the treaty of 1830? A If they did I don't know it.
- Q Did any of your Choctaw ancestors own any land or claim any or any benefits under any other treaty made between the United States government and the Choctaw tribe of Indians other than the treaty of 1830? A If they did I don't know it.

The Choctaw Indians who remained in the states of Mississippi and Alabama after the treaty of 1830 was ratified were required in order that they might take advantage of the provisions of article fourteen of the treaty of 1830 to go to the United States Indian Agent, within six months from the ratification of that treaty and tell him that they wanted to take advantage of the provisions of article fourteen that is stay there in Mississippi, take land and become citizens of the United States. A great many Choctaw Indians did this whose names Colonel Ward failed to put upon his list known as Ward's register. It is estimated that at least 6000 Choctaw Indians stayed back there in the old Choctaw Nation and out of that number a good many complied with the provisions of article fourteen in that respect and within six months from the ratification of the treaty but Colonel Ward neglected to put their names upon his list. Ward's list contains the names of only seventy-one heads of families out of the total number who applied. His neglect to make a proper list of all Choctaw Indian claimants who came before him under the provisions of article fourteen of the treaty of 1830 caused a good many Indians who had land in Mississippi upon which they had improvements to lose them both for both the land and the improvements were taken from them by the government and sold at its public land sales. This caused a great many complaints among the Choctaw Indians so that in 1837, as the result of these complaints, by an act approved March 3 of that year Congress appointed a Commission to go to Mississippi and hear claimants under article fourteen of the treaty of 1830. In 1842 another Commission was appointed by Congress for the same purpose. This Commission also went to Mississippi and heard claimants under article fourteen of the treaty of 1830. That second Commission was appointed by an act of Congress approved August 23, 1842.

- Q Did any of your Choctaw ancestors go before either of these two Commissions and claim benefits as Choctaw Indians under article fourteen of that treaty? A If they did I don't know it.

The act of Congress, approved August 23, 1842, provided that if any Choctaw Indian claimant proved his claim under article fourteen of the treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek, if it also further appeared that he had had land in Mississippi which the government had taken from him and sold that he should be entitled to select land either in Mississippi, Alabama, Louisiana or Arkansas to be taken from vacant government land and that a certificate to that effect should be given him. These certificates were called scrip.

- Q Did any of your Choctaw ancestors receive any such scrip from the government as Choctaw Indians? A If they did I don't know it.
 Q Have any of your relatives appeared before this Commission to be identified as Mississippi Choctaws? A No, sir; not as I know of.
 Q Have you any other proof or evidence that you want to introduce now? A I have one witness.
 Q Do you understand or speak the Choctaw language? A No, sir; not much.
 Q Do you at all? A No, sir; I cannot speak it.

Fannie Patterson called as a witness in behalf of applicant testified as follows:

Examination by the Commission.

- Q What is your name? A Fannie Patterson.
 Q What is your age? A Somewhere close along in fifty or sixty I don't know my age exactly.
 Q What is your post office address? A Wynnewood.
 Q How long have you lived at Wynnewood, Indian Territory? A About nine years.
 Q Have you ever made application to be enrolled or identified as a Mississippi Choctaw Indian? A Yes, sir.
 Q When did you appear before the Commission? A I appeared before the Commission at Colbert.
 Q When did you appear? A (By attorney) June 1900.
 Q Did you make application at that time to be identified as a Mississippi Choctaw? A Yes, sir. (attorney; for enrollment as a Choctaw)
 Q Is that the only application you ever made to the Dawes Commission? A Yes, sir.
 Q Do you now come before the Commission to testify in the case of the application of Malinda Graves? A Yes, sir.
 Q And her children? A No answer.
 Q What do you know about Malinda Graves having Choctaw blood? A Her mother was called a Choctaw and she looked like it.
 Q Where did you know her mother? A In Lamar County.
 Q In what state? A Paris, Texas, and I knowed the man that she lived with there, Price.
 Q What was her mother's physical appearance? A She had the appearance of an Indian.
 Q Full blood Indian? A That is the way she appeared to me and she did not belong to no one there.
 Q How long ago did you know her? A Twenty years.
 Q How long ago was that; did you know her before the War? A Yes, sir.
 Q And she was living in Texas then? A Yes, sir she was living in

#7

Texas then.

- Q Do you know that she was a Mississippi Choctaw? A That is what she called herself, Mississippi Choctaw and they all called her that .
- Q What is a Mississippi Choctaw? A I don't know.
- Q How do you that she was one? A That is what they called her.
- Q Always called her Mississippi Choctaw? A Always called her Mississippi Choctaw.
- Q Why did they not just call her Choctaw? A I don't know.
- Q Did she ever live in Mississippi? A I heard her say that her relatives lived there.
- Q But she did not say that she lived there? A No, sir.
- Q Was she a part Negro? A She did not look like it to me.
- Q Would you judge that she had any Negro blood at all? A She did not look like it to me; she looked like if she had any blood at all that it might be part white.
- Q Do you speak the Choctaw language? A No, sir.
- Q Did she? A She did not talk plain but I never heard her speak Choctaw but you could not call her language plain.
- Q Did she ever comply with the provisions of article fourteen of the treaty of 1830? A I don't know.
- Q You don't know anything about her father and mother? A No, sir.
- Q You just knew her? A Yes, sir.
- Q And knew her in Texas? A Yes, sir.
- Q Is there anything further you would like to say now in support of this claim and this application made by Malinda Graves? A No, sir; I don't know anything more; I know her and her children and I know her mother and her mother's children that is as far as I knew.

G. Rosenwinkel being duly sworn on his oath states that as stenographer to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes he reported in full all the proceedings had in the above entitled cause on February 15, 1902, and that the above and foregoing is a full, true and correct transcript of his stenographic notes in said cause on said date of February 1902.

James Steel,	" 4863
Parthenia Rucker, et al.,	" 4861
Matilda Allison,	" 4862

--- D E C I S I O N ---

It appears from the record herein that applications for identification as Mississippi Choctaws were made to this Commission by Malinda Graves for herself and her six minor children, Sarah, Robert, John, Ines, Bertha and Martha Graves; by James Steel for himself; by Parthenia Rucker for herself and her four minor children, Annie Bell, Robert, Leaford and Mary Jane Rucker, and by Matilda Allison for herself, under the following provision of the act of Congress approved June 28, 1898 (30 Stats., 495):

"Said Commission shall have authority to determine the identity of Choctaw Indians claiming rights in the Choctaw lands under article fourteen of the treaty between the United States and the Choctaw Nation, concluded September twenty-seventh, eighteen hundred and thirty, and to that end may administer oaths, examine witnesses and perform all other acts necessary thereto and make report to the Secretary of the Interior."

It also appears that all of said applicants claim rights in the Choctaw lands under article fourteen of the treaty between the United States and the Choctaw Nation, concluded September twenty-seventh, eighteen hundred and thirty, by reason of being descendants of Angerline (or Caroline or Adeline or Angeline) Danforth (or Danford), who is alleged to have been a full blood Choctaw Indian.

It further appears from the evidence submitted in support of said applications and from the records in the possession of the Commission that none of said applicants has ever been enrolled by the Choctaw tribal authorities as a member of the Choctaw tribe, or admitted to Choctaw citizenship by a duly constituted court or committee of the Choctaw Nation, or by the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes, or by a decree of the United States Court in Indian Territory, under the provisions of the act of Congress approved June 10, 1896, (29 Stats., 321).

It does not appear from the testimony and evidence offered in support of said applications, or from the records in the possession of the Commission relating to persons who complied or attempted to comply with the provisions of said article fourteen of the treaty of eighteen hundred and thirty, and to persons who heretofore were claimants thereunder, that the said Angerline (or Caroline or Adeline or Angeline) Danforth (or Danford), or an ancestor less remote, signified (in person or by proxy) to Colonel Wm. Ward, Indian Agent, Choctaw Agency, an intention to comply with the provisions of said article fourteen, or presented a claim to rights thereunder to either of the Commissions authorized to adjudicate such claims by the acts of Congress approved March 3, 1837 (5 Stats., 180) and August 23, 1842 (5 Stats., 513).

It is therefore the opinion of this Commission that the evidence herein is insufficient to determine the identity of Malinda Graves, Sarah Graves, Robert Graves, John Graves, Ines Graves, Bertha Graves, Martha Graves, James Steel, Parthenia Rucker, Annie Bell Rucker, Robert Rucker, Leaford Rucker, Mary Jane Rucker and Matilda Allison, as Choctaw Indians entitled to rights in the Choctaw lands under the provisions of article fourteen of the treaty of eighteen hundred and thirty, and that the applications for their identification should be refused, and it is so ordered.

M.O. 4733

Muskogee, Indian Territory, March 5, 1902.

Malinda Graves,

Wynnawood, Indian Territory.

Dear Madam:

Receipt is hereby acknowledged of your letter of the 1st instant in which you state that you made a mistake in giving the name of your grand mother at the time you appeared before the Commission as an applicant for identification as a Mississippi Choctaw. You state that your grand mother's correct name is Angerline instead of Sharlott; this information has been made a matter of record.

Yours truly,

Commissioner in Charge.

Miss. Cho. 4733
and 4863.

Muskogee, Indian Territory, March 18, 1902.

William Graves,

Wynnewood, Indian Territory,

Dear Sir:

Receipt is hereby acknowledged of your letter of the fifteenth instant, inclosing certain papers for filing in support of the following applications for identification as Mississippi Choctaws
Affidavit of Malinda Graves to be filed with the application of James Steel.

Marriage license and certificate between William Graves Jr. and Mrs. Malinda Stephens, to be filed with the application of Malinda Graves et al.

The same have been filed with the records in the above named cases and will receive consideration in the disposition of the applications.

Yours truly,

Commissioner in Charge.

Miss. Choctaw 4733

Muskogee, Indian Territory, April 18, 1902.

William Graves,

Wynnewood, Indian Territory,

Dear Sir:

Receipt is hereby acknowledged of your letter of April 15, inclosing affidavit of Bada Williams offered in support of the application of Halinda graves for identification as a Mississippi Choctaw and the same has been filed with the record in this case.

Yours truly,

Acting Chairman.

Muskogee, Indian Territory, December 8, 1908.

David Williams,

Wynnewood, Indian Territory.

Dear Sir:

Receipt is hereby acknowledged of your letter of the 4th inst., in which you ask to be advised if one, Malinda Gray, claiming to be a Mississippi Choctaw is an enrolled citizen. You state that her husband's name is Doc Graves.

In reply, you are informed that it does not appear from our records that any person by the name of Malinda Gray is an applicant for identification as a Mississippi Choctaw.

The records of the Commission do show, however, that Malinda Graves, 42 years of age, residence Wynnewood, Indian Territory, is an applicant for the identification of herself and her minor children as Mississippi Choctaws.

If the person named in the above application is the one of whom you inquire, you are advised that the Commission has not up to this time rendered any opinion or decision in her case, but is now considering her application and it is probable that a decision will be rendered in the near future; when she will be duly notified of the action of the Commission, and of the forwarding of the record

Parthenia Rucker, et al.,	" 4861
Matilda Allison,	" 4862

These applications were made under the provision of the act of Congress of June 28, 1898 (30 Stats., 495) which is as follows:

"Said Commission shall have authority to determine the identity of Choctaw Indians claiming rights in the Choctaw lands under article fourteen of the treaty between the United States and the Choctaw Nation, concluded September twenty-seventh, eighteen hundred and thirty, and to that end may administer oaths, examine witnesses and perform all other acts necessary thereto and make report to the Secretary of the Interior."

Said decision concludes as follows:

"It is therefore the opinion of this Commission that the evidence herein is insufficient to determine the identity of Malinda Graves, Sarah Graves, Robert Graves, John Graves, Ines Graves, Bertha Graves, Martha Graves, James Steel, Parthenia Rucker, Annie Bell Rucker, Robert Rucker, Leaford Rucker, Mary Jane Rucker and Matilda Allison, as Choctaw Indians entitled to rights in the Choctaw lands under the provisions of article fourteen of the treaty of eighteen hundred and thirty, and that the applications for their identification should be refused, and it is so ordered."

The Honorable

The Secretary of the Interior.

Sir:

There is transmitted herewith the record in the consolidated case of Malinda Graves, et al., applicants to the Commission for identification as Mississippi Choctaws, including the decision of the Commission of February 7, 1903.

The above consolidated case embraces the following original applications for identification as Mississippi Choctaws, heard by the Commission:

Malinda Graves, et al.	M.C.R. 4733
James Steel	M.C.R. 4863
Parthenia Rucker, et al.	M.C.R. 4861
Matilda Allison	M.C.R. 4862

The Commission has the honor to report that the principal applicants in the several separate applications and the attorneys for the Choctaw and Chickasaw Nations have been duly advised by letter of the action of the Commission, copies of said letters being attached to the record.

Respectfully,

Through the Commissioner of Indian Affairs.

Dear Madam:

Receipt is hereby acknowledged of your letter of the 18th instant, relative to the decision of the Commission refusing your application for the identification of yourself and minor children as Mississippi Choctaws. You ask that you be allowed further time in which to hunt up certain witnesses.

In reply to your letter you are informed that the fifteen days from February 7, 1903, heretofore granted you within which to file arguments in support of your claim to be forwarded to the Secretary of the Interior, expired on February 22, 1903. On February 24, 1903, the record in your case, together with the decision of the Commission, was forwarded to the Secretary of the Interior. You will be duly notified of such action as may be taken by him.

The fifteen days allowed applicants in Mississippi Choctaw cases within which to file arguments in support of their claims are granted under specific departmental instructions and cannot be extended.

Respectfully,

Chairman.

The Honorable,

The Secretary of the Interior.

Sir:

I have the honor to submit herewith record and proceedings had before the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes, in the matter of the consolidated application for identification as Mississippi Choctaws of the following parties: Malinda Graves for herself and her six minor children, Sarah, Robert, John, Ines, Bertha and Martha Graves; James Steel for himself; Parthenia Rucker for herself and her four minor children, Annie Bell, Robert, Leaford and Mary Jane Rucker, and Matilda Allison for herself, wherein a decision adverse to the applicants was rendered by the Commission on February 7, 1903.

The testimony in this case shows that the applicants base their claim to identification as Mississippi Choctaws under this application because of their descent from Charlotte, Angeline or Caroline Danforth, who, it is claimed were Choctaw Indians and residents of the Choctaw Nation, in Mississippi at the date of the making of the Choctaw treaty of 1830.

The commission rejected the applicants because the names of the ancestors through whom they claim did not appear among the names of those who complied or attempted to comply with the provisions of the 14th article of the Choctaw treaty of 1830.

An examination has been made of the records of this office with ~~xx~~ reference to the names of Charlotte, Angeline or Caroline.

Caroline Danferth, and it is discovered that they do not appear among the names of those who complied or attempted to comply with the provisions of the 14th article of the Ghoctaw treaty of 1830.

This being true, it is evident that the decision of the commission rejecting the applicants was correct, and I concur in that finding and recommend that it be approved.

Very respectfully,

A.C. Tonner,

Acting commissioner.

Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes,
Muskogee, Indian Territory.

Gentlemen:

February 24, 1903, you transmitted the record in the consolidated case embracing the applications for identification as Mississippi Choctaws of Malinda Graves (M C.R. 4733), for herself and her six minor children, Sarah, Robert, John, Ines, Bertha and Martha Graves; of James Steel for himself; of Parthenia Rucker for herself and her four minor children, Annie Bell, Robert, Leaford, and Mary Jane Rucker; and of Matilda Allison for herself, including your decision of February 7, 1903, refusing to identify them as such.

The principal applicant, Malinda Graves, through whom the others claim, is a quarter blood Choctaw. She obtained her Indian blood from her mother, Matilda Montgomery, nee Danforth, who was born soon after the treaty of Dancing Rabbit creek. The mother of Matilda Montgomery was a full blood Choctaw named Angerline (or Caroline or Adline or Angeline) Danforth (or Danford).

The testimony as furnished by the record fails to show that these applicants or any of their alleged ancestors, ever complied or attempted to comply in person or by proxy, with the provisions of article 14 of the treaty of September 27, 1830, or the subsequent acts of Congress relating thereto.

It further appears that the records of the government in your possession, as well as those at the Indian Office, fail to show that any person whatever bearing the name of any of the alleged ancestors ever complied or attempted to comply with said article or acts.

The Department is therefore of the opinion, in view of the testimony now before it, that these applicants have failed to establish their claims.

Reporting in the matter March 18, 1903, the Acting Commissioner of Indian Affairs recommends that your decision be approved. A copy of his letter is inclosed.

The Department finds no reason to disturb your decision and it is accordingly affirmed.

Respectfully,

THOS. RYAN.

In the matter of the application for identification as a Mississippi Choctaw of George A. Moler.

Applicant not represented by attorney.

George A. Moler being first duly sworn testified as follows:

Examination by the Commission.

- Q What is your name? A George A. Moler.
Q What is your age? A Twenty-one past.
Q What is your post office address? A Granbury, Cook County, Texas.
Q How long have you lived in Granbury? A About eight years I guess
Q Where did you live before that? A Hunt County.
Q Where were you born? A Hunt County
Q Texas? A Yes, sir.
Q Always lived in Texas? A Yes, sir.
Q What is your father's name? A George Moler.
Q Is he living? A No, sir.
Q What is your mother's name? A Martha.
Q Is she living? A Yes, sir.
Q Is her name Moler? A No; Wells now.
Q She married again? A Yes, sir.
Q You claim through your father or mother? A Father.
Q How much Choctaw blood do you claim? A One-eighth.
Q Has your father ever been recognized in any way or enrolled as a member of the Choctaw tribe of Indians by the Choctaw tribal authorities or the United States authorities in Indian Territory?
A If he has I don't know anything about it.
Q Are you married? A No, sir.
Q Claim for yourself alone do you? A Yes, sir.
Q When and where were your father and mother married? A Hunt County.
Q Texas? A Yes, sir.
Q You remember the day of the month and year? A No, sir.
Q Have you proof of their marriage with you? A No, sir.
Q Can you introduce it later in support of this claim? A Why
Q you have the license here, my mother filed it here.
Q Did your mother make application and did she introduce that marriage license? A She did on out side; she did not make any application herself but for us children.

A reasonable time will be allowed this applicant in which to introduce evidence of the marriage of his father and mother.

- Q Is your name on any of the tribal rolls of the Choctaw Nation in Indian territory? A No, sir.
Q Did you ever make application for citizenship in the Choctaw Nation to the Choctaw tribal authorities in Indian Territory? A No, sir.

- Q Did you ever make application for citizenship in the Choctaw Nation to the Dawes Commission under the act of Congress of June 10, 1896? A No, sir.
- Q Have you ever been admitted to citizenship in the Choctaw Nation by the Choctaw tribal authorities, the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes or the United States Court in Indian Territory? A I don't know whether I ever have or not.
- Q You now come before the Commission to be identified as a Mississippi Choctaw claiming under article fourteen of the treaty of 1830? A Yes, sir.
- Q You understand that article of that treaty? A I think I do.
- Q Would you like to have it explained to you? A You might explain it.

The treaty of 1830 was made between the United States government and the Choctaw tribe of Indians at a place called Dancing Rabbit Creek in Mississippi and was made for the purpose of the removal of the Choctaw Indians who lived in the old Choctaw Nation in Mississippi and Alabama to the Choctaw Nation Indian Territory. Before the treaty was signed it became known that a good many Choctaw Indians would not go to the Choctaw Nation Indian Territory with the other Indians under that treaty of 1830 and in order to protect the interests of these Indians who stayed back there article fourteen was put into the treaty. That article is as follows:

"Each Choctaw head of a family being desirous to remain and become a citizen of the States shall be permitted to do so, by signifying his intention to the Agent within six months from the ratification of this treaty and he or she shall thereupon be entitled to a reservation of one section of six hundred and forty acres of land to be bounded by sectional lines of survey; in like manner shall be entitled to one half that quantity for each unmarried child which is living with him over ten years of age; and a quarter section to such child as may be under ten years of age, to adjoin the location of the parent. If they reside upon said lands intending to become citizens of the states for five years after the ratification of this treaty in that case a grant in fee simple shall issue; said reservation shall include the present improvement of the head of the family or a portion of it. Persons who claim under this article shall not lose the privilege of a Choctaw citizen but if they ever remove are not to be entitled to any portion of the Choctaw annuity."

- Q Did any of your Choctaw ancestors comply with any of the provisions of article fourteen of the treaty of 1830? A Yes, sir.
- Q What is the name of your ancestor through whom you claim your right to be identified as a Mississippi Choctaw? A My great grandfather.
- Q Who did these other people claim that they are related to? A I don't know.
- Q Go back as far as you can and tell me who lived in Mississippi in 1830, if you can? A I can't tell you that.
- Q Who is your ancestor that you claim through? A Aunt Melinda Surratt.
- Q What relation is she to you? A My aunt on my father's side.
- Q You cannot claim through your aunt, you must claim through an ancestor going back in a direct line. You have to claim through either your father or mother, or either your grandfather or grandmother on either your father or mother's side? A That was the only one I know anything about.
- Q You claim through your father, George Moler? A Yes, sir.
- Q Now he claims through whom, his father or mother? A Through his father I suppose.
- Q Well do you know? A No, sir; I don't know.

- Q You don't know whether his father had any Choctaw blood or not?
A No, sir.
- Q Do you know whether you claim his lineage further back or your mother's lineage further back? A No, sir; I do not.
- Q In making an application for identification as a Mississippi Choctaw in will be necessary for you to show that you have Choctaw blood, and that that Choctaw blood was derived from an ancestor who lived in the old Choctaw Nation, either in Mississippi or Alabama, and complied with the provisions of article fourteen of the treaty of 1830. Do you think you can do that now? A I don't know whether I can or not.
- Q You don't think you can do that now? A No, sir.
- Q Do you think that if you were given time that you could introduce testimony or evidence to show that you had a Choctaw ancestors who lived in Mississippi in 1830 and who complied with article fourteen of that treaty? A I don't know that.
- Q You are not able then to go back further in a direct line than your father George Moler? A Yes, sir; that is all.
- Q He is now dead? A Yes, sir.
- Q How old would he be if living now? A About fifty-one I think.
- Q Where was he born? A I cannot tell you.
- Q Did you ever hear that he lived in Mississippi? A I heard he was.
- Q Who told you that he used to live in Mississippi? A Some of my ancestors.
- Q Who told you? A I don't know exactly.
- Q Did your mother tell you? A It might have been her.
- Qx Do you know where in Mississippi your father George Moler lived?
A No, sir.
- Q Can you give the name of either his father or mother? A His father's name was Elsie Moler.
- Q What was his mother's name? A His mother's name was----I have forget what his mother's name was.
- Q Did you ever hear that his father or mother lived in Mississippi?
A Yes, I heard it but I don't know how true it was.
- Q Do you know whether Elsie Moler lived in Mississippi in 1830? A No, sir.
- Q Did any of your Choctaw ancestors own any improvements on land in Mississippi or Alabama in 1830? A I don't know that they did.
- Q Did any of your Choctaw ancestors within six months after the ratification of the treaty of 1830 go to the United States Indian Agent Colonel Ward and tell him that they wanted to stay in Mississippi, take land there and become citizens of the United States? A I don't know.
- Q Did any of your Choctaw ancestors go from that old Choctaw Nation to the Choctaw Nation Indian Territory with the other Indians between 1833 and 1838? A I don't know that.
- Q Did you ever hear that any of your Choctaw ancestors owned any land or claimed any under article fourteen of the treaty of 1830 in the states of Mississippi or Alabama? A No, sir; I don't know.
- Q Did you ever hear that they claimed any land or any improvements or benefits of any kind as Choctaw Indians under any other article ~~of~~ the treaty of 1830 than article fourteen or under the supplement of that treaty, in Mississippi or Alabama? A No, sir.
- Q Did they ever claim any benefits as Choctaw Indians under any treaty made between the United States government and the Choctaw tribe of Indians other than the treaty of 1830? A I don't know whether they did or not.

The Indians who stayed in Mississippi and Alabama, that is in the old Choctaw Nation, after the treaty of 1830 was ratified were required under the provisions of article fourteen of that treaty to go to the United States Indian Agent, within six months after the ratification of the treaty of 1830 and tell him that they wanted to stay in Mississippi, take land there and become citizens of the United States. This was required if they wished to take advantage of the provisions of article fourteen of that treaty. A good many Choctaw Indians did this whose names Colonel Ward failed to put upon his list known as Ward's register. His failure to make a proper and complete list of all Choctaw Indian claimants who came before him under the provisions of that article of that treaty caused a good many Indians who had land in Mississippi upon which they had improvements to lose both the land and the improvements they had upon it. Both were taken from them by the government and sold at its public land sales. This caused a great many complaints along the Choctaw Indians so that in 1837, by act approved March 3, of that year Congress appointed a Commission which went to Mississippi and heard claimants under article fourteen of the treaty of 1830. In 1842 Congress appointed another Commission by act approved August 23, of that year and this Commission also went to Mississippi and heard claimants under article fourteen of that treaty.

- Q Do you know whether any of your ancestors went before either of these two Commissions, that of 1837 or the Commission of 1842 and claimed benefits under article fourteen of the treaty of 1830? A No, sir.

The act of Congress approved August 23, 1842, provided that if any Choctaw Indian proved his claim under article fourteen of the treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek; if it also further appeared that he had had land in Mississippi which the government had taken from him and sold at its public land sales that he should be entitled to select land either in Mississippi, Alabama, Louisiana or Arkansas, to be taken from vacant government lands and a certificate to that effect should be given him. These certificates were called scrip.

- Q Did any of your Choctaw ancestors receive any such scrip from the government as Choctaw Indians? A I don't know.
 Q Have you had any relatives who have been before this Commission to be identified as Mississippi Choctaws? A Yes; my mother has been before it.
 Q What was her name? A Martha Wells.
 Q Any others? A My brothers have all been before them.
 Q What is your brother's name? A J. M. Moler.
 Q Any others? A E. G. Moler.
 Q Your mother's name is Martha Wells? A Yes, sir.
 Q She is a white woman? A Yes, sir.
 Q And she appeared before the Commission to make application for whom? A For her youngest child.
 Q Annie Moler? A Yes, sir.
 Q What relation is James M. Moler to you? A My brother.
 Q Who is John Moler? A He is one of my brothers.

Reference is here made to: James M. Moler, M.C.R. 4275,

- Q Do you want to have their records considered with yours when yours is taken up for consideration by the Commission? A Yes, sir; altogether.
- Q Have you any documentary or anyother evidence that you want to introduce new? A No, sir.
- Q Do you speak the Choctaw language? A No, sir.
- Q Do you want time in which to introduce testimony or evidence in this case? A No, sir; I don't think I need any other.
- Q Is there anything further you would like to say in support of this claim? A No, sir.

This applicant has the appearance and physical characteristics of being descended from white parentage; dark complexion; dark eyes; dark hair almost black; and has no knowledge of the Choctaw language and no knowledge of compliance on the part of his ancestors with any of the provisions of the fourteenth article of the treaty of 1830.

Dear Sir:-

You are hereby advised that on the 12th day of July 1902, the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes rendered a decision in the consolidated case of Martha Caroline Mackadams, et al., embracing the following applications for identification as Mississippi Choctaws:

Martha Caroline Mackadams, et al.,	H.C.R. 3839
Ellen M. Surratt, et al.,	H.C.R. 4020
Sarah A. Washington, et al.,	H.C.R. 4024

James H. Moler,	H.C.R. 4275
John Moler, et al.,	H.C.R. 4276
Gip Moler,	H.C.R. 4277
Katie Renslee, et al.,	H.C.R. 4278
Lee Mathews, et al.,	H.C.R. 4279
Annie Moler,	H.C.R. 4280
George A. Moler,	H.C.R. 4734.

These applications were made under the provision of the act of Congress of June 28, 1898 (30 Stats. 495) which is as follows:

"Said Commission shall have authority to determine the identity of Choctaw Indians claiming rights in the Choctaw lands under article fourteen of the treaty between the United States and the Choctaw Nation, concluded September twenty-seventh, eighteen hundred and thirty, and to that end may administer oaths, examine witnesses, and perform all other acts necessary thereto and make report to the Secretary of the Interior."

Said decision concludes as follows:

"It is therefore the opinion of this Commission that the evidence in this case is insufficient to determine the identity of Martha Caroline Mackadams, David Franklin Mackadams, Ellen M. Surratt, Crawford Emmet Surratt, Sarah A. Washington, Charlie E. Washington, Rhena B. Washington, Ludie A. Washington, Dudley D. Washington, Veatrous Liles, Carrie Belle Liles, Thomas A. Moler as Choctaw Indians entitled to rights in the Choctaw lands under the provisions of said article fourteen of the treaty of eighteen hundred and thirty, and that the applications for their identification as such should be refused, and it is so ordered."

You are further advised that the Commission has on this date forwarded the record in this case to the Secretary of the Interior for review and you will be informed in due time of such action as may be taken by him.

Yours truly,

James Dixie

Q How long did you live there? A About three years and six months I expect.
Q Where did you live before you lived there? A In Arkansas.
Q Were you born in Arkansas? A Yes, sir.
Q Always lived in Arkansas until you came to the Indian Territory? A No, sir; I lived in Texas part of the time.
Q Before you went to the Indian Territory from Arkansas how long did you live in Arkansas? A Nine years.
Q Is your father living or dead? A Dead.
Q Is your mother living? A Dead.
Q What was your father's name? A John E. Pyle.
Q What was your mother's name? A Polly Ann.
Q Do you claim through your father or mother? A Father.
Q How much Choctaw blood do you claim? A I don't know how much/
Q Has your father ever been recognized in any way or enrolled as a member of the Choctaw tribe of Indians by the Choctaw tribal authorities or the United States authorities in Indian Territory? A No, sir.
Q Have you proof of the marriage of your father and mother with you now? A No, sir; I have no proof.
Q Do you think you could introduce that proof if given time? A A I don't know whether I could or not.
Q Do you know when and where they were married? A No, sir; I do not know.
Q Do you know where? A They were married in Arkansas.
Q What place? A I don't know the name of the place;---they were married at Marion County, at Yellville.
Q Were they married by a minister? A Yes, sir.
Q Under a license? A Yes, sir.

A reasonable time will be allowed this applicant in which to prove the marriage of her father and mother if she desires.

- Q Is your husband living? A Yes, sir; that is my husband right there.
- Q What is his name? A W. K. Girod.
- Q Do you make any claim for him as having Choctaw blood? A No, sir.
- Q He is a white man then is he? A Yes, sir.
- Q How many children have you? A One.
- Q What is the name of that child? A Gracie.
- Q G-r-a-c-i-e? A Yes, sir.
- Q How old is she? A Six months.
- Q You claim for yourself and this child do you? A Yes, sir.

- Q He was married before he married you? A Yes, sir.
- Q Has he any children by that marriage? A No, sir.
- Q Is your name on any of the tribal rolls of the Choctaw Nation in Indian Territory? A No, sir.
- Q Have you ever made application for citizenship in the Choctaw Nation to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes under the act of Congress of June 10, 1896? A No, sir.
- Q Have you ever been admitted to citizenship in the Choctaw Nation to the Choctaw tribal authorities, the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes or the United States Court in Indian Territory? A No, sir.
- Q Do you now come before the Commission for the purpose of identifying yourself and your child as Mississippi Choctaws claiming under article fourteen of the treaty of 1830? A Yes, sir.
- Q Do you understand that article of that treaty? A No, sir; I don't understand it.
- Q Do you understand what a treaty is? A I don't understand much about it at all.

A treaty is a compact in writing made between two or more Nations and differs from a contract made between individuals in that respect that a treaty is always made between Nations.

The treaty of 1830 was made between the United States government and the Choctaw tribe of Indians, in Mississippi and Alabama at a place called Dancing Rabbit Creek in the state of Mississippi on the 27th day of September 1830. It is some times called the treaty of 1830 and some times the treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek, but it is the same treaty. The reason why that treaty was made was that the government desired, the United States government desired to remove the Choctaw Indians who lived in the old Choctaw Nation in Mississippi and Alabama from that old Choctaw Nation to the Choctaw Nation Indian Territory. Before the treaty was signed it became known that a good many Choctaw Indians would not go to the Choctaw Nation, Indian Territory and in order to protect their interests article fourteen was put into the treaty that article reads as follows:

"Each Choctaw head of a family being desirous to remain and become a citizen of the States shall be permitted to do so by signifying his intention to the Agent within six months from the ratification of this treaty and he or she shall thereupon be entitled to a reservation of one section of six hundred and forty acres of land to be bounded by sectional lines of survey; in like manner shall be entitled to one half that quantity for each unmarried child which is living with him over ten years of age and and a quarter section to such child as may be under ten years of age to adjoin the location of the parent. If they reside upon said lands intending to become citizens of the States for five years after the ratification of this treaty in that case a grant in fee simple shall issue; said reservation shall include the present improvement of the head of the family or a portion of it. Persons who claim under this article shall not lose the privilege of a Choctaw citizen but if they ever remove are not to be entitled to any portion of the Choctaw annuity."

- Q Do you understand that now well enough to claim under it? A Yes, sir.
- Q Do you know whether any of your ancestors complied or attempted to comply with any of the provisions of that article of that treaty as read and explained to you. Do you know whether they did any of these things that were enumerated there? A I don't know anything about that.
- Q What is the name of your ancestor through whom you claim your right to be identified as a Mississippi Choctaw Lucy DeGraffenreed?
- Q Who is that? A My great grandmother.
- Q What was your grandmother's name? A Catherine G. Pyle.
- Q A daughter of Lucy DeGraffenreed? A Yes, sir.
- Q And your father's mother? A Yes, sir.
- Qx Did Lucy DeGraffenreed live in the state of Mississippi in 1830? A Lucy DeGraffenreed did not; her mother did.
- Q Where did Lucy DeGraffenreed live in 1830? A I could not tell you where she lived.
- Q What was Lucy DeGraffenreed's mother's name? A Lucy Thaxton.
- Q Then you claim that Lucy Thaxton who was your great-great grandmother lived in Mississippi in 1830, do you? A Yes, sir.
- Q Did she have a family of children there at that time in that state? A I don't know I reckon she did.
- Q Did you hear it in the family; is it a matter of family history and tradition? A I never heard.
- Q How old would Lucy Thaxton be if living now? A I could not say.
- Q Where was she born and when? A I could not say where she was born.
- Q Did she die in the state of Mississippi? A No, sir; I don't reckon she did; she left there before she died.
- Q Where did she go to? A I could not tell; she left there when the treaty was made.
- Q She was living there until 1830 was she? A Yes, sir.
- Q But you don't know that she had children there at that time? A No, sir.
- Q Was her husband a white man? A I don't know that.
- Q How much Choctaw blood did Lucy Thaxton have? A She claimed one-half, that what I have been told.
- Q You don't know about that whether she had a half or not? A No, sir.
- Q Did Lucy DeGraffenreed ever live in Mississippi? A I don't know whether she did or not.
- Q Did any of your Choctaw ancestors own any improvements on lands in Mississippi or Alabama in eighteen hundred and thirty? A No, sir.
- Q Did any of your Choctaw ancestors within six months after the ratification of the treaty of 1830 go to the United States Indian Agent Colonel Ward and tell him that they wanted to stay in Mississippi, take land there and become citizens of the United States? A I don't know.
- Q Did any of your Choctaw ancestors go from that old Choctaw Nation to the Choctaw Nation, Indian Territory, with the other Indians between 1833 and 1838? A I don't know.

- Q Did any of your Choctaw ancestors own any land or claim any in Mississippi or Alabama under article fourteen of the treaty of 1830? A Yes, sir; I reckon Lucy Thaxton did.
- Q Did she claim any under article fourteen of the treaty of 1830? A All I know is what I heard my grandmother tell about it. That she lived there and had land.
- Q Did she have land in Mississippi in 1830? A Yes, sir.
- Q How do you know that? A I don't know it; that is what I heard.
- Q Who told you? A I heard my grandmother speak of it.
- Q Where did she get that land if you ever heard? A We can get proof of that.
- Q Did she buy it? A I don't know whether she bought it or not. It was improved; Russell Franklin and a Negro Lucy Franklin are out witnesses.
- Q You don't know anything about that land business way back there in 1830? A No, sir.
- Q Did any of your Choctaw ancestors own any land or claim any under any other article of the treaty of 1830 than article fourteen or under the supplement of that treaty? A Not that I know of.
- Q Did any of your Choctaw ancestors claim any land or any benefits under any treaty made between the United States government and the Choctaw tribe of Indians other than the treaty of 1830? No, sir; I don't remember.

The Choctaw Indians who stayed in the old Choctaw Nation in Mississippi and Alabama after the treaty of 1830 was ratified were required if they wanted to take advantage of the provisions of article fourteen of that treaty to go to the United States Indian Agent, Colonel Ward, within six months from the ratification of the treaty of 1830 and tell him that they wanted to stay in Mississippi, take land there and become citizens of the United States. A great many Choctaw Indians did this whose names Colonel Ward failed to register upon his register known as Ward's list. His failure to make a complete list of all claimants who came before him under article fourteen of that treaty caused many Indians who had land in Mississippi upon which they had improvements to lose them both; both were taken from them by the government and sold at its public land sales. This caused a great many complaints among the Choctaw Indians so that in 1837 by act of March 3rd of that year a Commission was appointed by Congress which Commission went to Mississippi and heard claimants under article fourteen of that treaty. In 1842 by act approved August 23rd of that year another Commission was appointed by Congress which went to Mississippi and heard claimants under article fourteen of that treaty.

- Q Did any of your Choctaw ancestors appear before either of these two Commissions and claim benefits as Choctaw Indians under article fourteen of the treaty of 1830? A No, sir; I don't know anything about it

The act of Congress approved August 23, 1842, provided that; if any Choctaw Indian proved his claim under article fourteen of the treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek; if it also further appeared that he had had land in Mississippi which the government had taken from him and sold that he should be entitled to select land either in Mississippi, Alabama, Louisiana or Arkansas, to be taken from vacant government land and that a certificate to that effect should be given him. These certificates were called scrips.

- Q Did any of your Choctaw ancestors receive any scrip from the government as Choctaw Indians? A No, sir.
- Q Have you any evidence that you want to introduce now in support of your claim, anything further? A No, sir.
- Q Do you want time in which to introduce further testimony or evidence in this case? A No, sir; I want the case put in with the rest of them.
- Q You don't care for any time then? A No, sir.
- Q Have you had any relatives who have been here to be identified as Mississippi Choctaws claiming through this same ancestor Lucy Thaxtion? A Yes, sir.
- Q Who is Samuel M. Pyle? A My Uncle.
- Q Has your mother been here? A No, sir; she is dead.
- Q Your father and mother are both dead? A Yes, sir.
- Q Who is Samuel G. Pyle? A My uncle.
- Q Do you want to have their cases considered with yours when yours is examined? A Yes, sir.

Reference is here made to Sameul G. Pyle, M.C.R. 4613,
Samuel M. Pyle, M.C.R. 4597.

- Q Do you speak the Choctaw language? A No, sir.
- Q Is there anything further you want to say in support of your claim? A No, sir.

This applicant has the appearance and physical characteristics of being descended from white parentage; light complexion; brown eyes; brown hair. She has no knowledge of the Choctaw language and no knowledge of compliance on the part of her ancestors with any of the provisions of article fourteen of the treaty of 1830.

G. Rosenwinkel being duly sworn on his oath states that as stenographer to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes he reported in full all the proceedings had in the above entitled cause on February 15, 1902, and that the above and foregoing is a full, true and correct transcript of his stenographic notes in said cause on said date of February 1902.

 Q Have you ever made application for citizenship in the Choctaw Nation to the Choctaw tribal authorities in Indian Territory? A No, sir.
 Q Have you ever made application for citizenship in the Choctaw Nation to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes under the act of Congress of June 10, 1896? A No, sir.
 Q Have you ever been admitted to citizenship in the Choctaw Nation with your children by either the Choctaw tribal authorities, the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes or the United States Court in Indian Territory? A No, sir.
 Q You now come before the Commission for the purpose of being identified and for the identification of your children as Mississippi Choctaws claiming under article fourteen of the treaty of 1830? A Yes, sir.
 Q Do you understand that article of that treaty? A No, sir.
 Q Do you know what a treaty is? A No, sir.
 Q You know what a contract in writing is? A No, sir.

A contract in writing or an agreement in writing is where two or more individuals make a bargain and a treaty in writing is where the compact is made between Nations instead of individuals.

The treaty of 1830 was made between the United States government and the Choctaw tribe of Indians at a place called Dancing Rabbit Creek in Mississippi on the 27th day of September of that year and was made for the purpose of the removal of the Choctaw Indians from the old Choctaw Nation to the Choctaw Nation, Indian Territory. Before the treaty was signed it became known that a good many Choctaw Indians would not go to the Choctaw Nation Indian Territory and in order to protect the interests of these Indians who stayed back there in the old Choctaw Nation, article fourteen was drafted and put into that treaty. The treaty was then signed and afterwards ratified on the 24th day of February 1831. It reads as follows:

"Each Choctaw head of a family being desirous to remain and become a citizen, of the States shall be permitted to do so, by signifying his intention to the Agent within six months from the ratification of this treaty and he or she shall thereupon be entitled to a reservation of one section of six hundred and forty acres of land to be bounded by sectional lines of survey; in like manner shall be entitled to one half that quantity for each unmarried child which is living with him over ten years of age; and a quarter section to such child as may be under ten years of age to adjoin the location of the parents. If they reside upon said lands intending to become citizens of the States for five years after the ratification of this treaty in that case a grant in fee simple shall issue; said reservation shall include the present improvement of the head of the family or a portion of it. Persons who claim under this article shall not lose the privilege of a Choctaw citizen but if they ever remove are not to be entitled to any portion of the Choctaw annuity."

- Q You think you understand that well enough to claim under it? A Yes, sir.
- Q What is the name of your ancestor through whom you claim your right to be identified as a Mississippi Choctaw? A Lucy Thaxton.
- Q What relation was Lucy Thaxton to you? A My great-great grandmother.
- Q Did she or any of your Choctaw ancestors comply with the provisions of that article of that treaty? A I don't know.
- Q How much Choctaw blood did Lucy Thaxton have? A She claimed one-half Choctaw.
- Q Did she speak the Choctaw language? A I don't know.
- Q Did she live in Mississippi in 1830? A I don't know that.
- Q Do you know whether she or any of your Choctaw ancestors had a family in Mississippi in 1830 or in Alabama? A I don't know.
- Q Did you ever hear that she lived there? A I don't know.
- Q Can you give the name of any ancestors of yours who lived in the state of Mississippi or Alabama? A No, sir; I don't know any.
- Q How old would Lucy Thaxton be if living now? A I don't know.
- Q You claim through your father? A Yes, sir.
- Q He claimed through which parent father or mother? A Mother.
- Q Did she live in Mississippi? A She had lived in Mississippi.
- Q How old would your father's mother be if she were living now? A I don't know exactly how old.
- Q She claimed through which parent; her father or mother? A Her mother.
- Q What was her mother's name? A Before she married it was DeGraffenreed, she married an Anglen.
- Q And her mother was Lucy Thaxton? A Yes, sir.
- Q Is that, Lucy Thaxton, the maiden name of your great-great grandmother? A I think that was her husband's name.
- Q Did she or any of your Choctaw ancestors own any improvements on land in Mississippi or Alabama in 1830? A I don't know.
- Q Did Lucy Thaxton or any of your Choctaw ancestors go before the United States Indian Agent whose name was Colonel Ward, within six months after the ratification of the treaty of 1830 and tell him that they wanted to stay in Mississippi, take land there and become citizens of the United States? A I don't know.
- Q Did any of your Choctaw ancestors go from that old Choctaw Nation to the Choctaw Nation Indian Territory with the other Indians between 1833 and 1838? A I don't know that.
- Q Did any of your Choctaw ancestors own or claim any land in Mississippi or Alabama under article fourteen of the treaty of 1830? A I don't know.
- Q Did they claim any land under any other article of the treaty of 1830 than article fourteen or under the supplement of that treaty? A I don't know whether they did or not.

- Q Did they claim any benefits as Choctaw Indians under any treaty made between the United States government and the Choctaw Indians other than the treaty of 1830; do you know? A No, sir .

The Indians who stayed in Mississippi and Alabama in the old Choctaw Nation after the treaty of 1830 was ratified, if they wanted to take advantage of the provisions of article fourteen, were required, to go to the United States Indian Agent, Colonel Ward, within six months after the ratification of the treaty and tell him that they wanted to stay in Mississippi, take land there and become citizens of the United States. A good many Indians did this, whose names Colonel Ward failed to record upon his list known as Ward's register, and this failure caused a good many Indians who had land in Mississippi to lose their land and the improvements they had upon that land. Both were taken from them by the government and sold at its public land sales. This caused so many complaints among the Choctaw Indians that Congress in 1837 appointed a Commission by act approved March 3rd of that year which Commission went to Mississippi and heard claimants under article fourteen of the treaty of 1830. In 1842 another Commission was appointed by Congress for the same purpose and this Commission went to Mississippi and heard claimants under article fourteen of the treaty of 1830.

- Q Did any of your Choctaw ancestors go before either the Commission of 1837 or the Commission of 1842 and claim benefits under article fourteen of the treaty of 1830? A I don't know sir.
- Q Did any of your Choctaw ancestors receive any scrip from the government of the United States as Choctaw Indians which entitled them to select land either in Mississippi, Alabama, Louisiana, Alabama or Arkansas, to take the place of land which they held in Mississippi and which they claimed the government had taken from them? A I don't know.
- Q What relation is Samuel M. Pyle to you? A Uncle.
- Q Samuel G. Pyle? A Uncle.
- Q They have appeared before the Commission claiming through Lucy Thaxton? A Yes, sir.
- Q They have made application to be identified as Mississippi Choctaws; have they? A Yes, sir.
- Q You want to have their records considered with yours? A Yes, sir
- Q And also the record of your sister Charlotte I. Girod? A Yes, sir.

Reference is here made to, Samuel M. Pyle, M. C. R. 4897,
Samuel G. Pyle, M. C. R. 4613,
Charlotte I. Girod, M. C. R. 4735.

- Q Do you speak or understand the Choctaw language? A No, sir.
- Q Have you any documentary evidence or any other evidence you want to introduce at this time? A No, sir.
- Q Do you want any time extended to you for the introduction of further evidence or proof in this case? A We have two Negroes; their names are Catherine Franklin and Russell Franklin.
- Q You want time to get their evidence? A Yes, sir.

A reasonable time is extended for the introduction of further proper evidence in this case.

This applicant has the appearance and physical characteristics of being descended from white parentage; black hair; dark complexion; gray eyes. She has no knowledge of the Choctaw language and no knowledge of compliance on the part of her ancestors with any of the provisions of article fourteen of the treaty of 1830.

Department of the Interior,
Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes,
Meridian, Mississippi, February 12, 1902.

In the matter of the application of Miles G. Lantrip for identification as a Mississippi Choctaw.

Miles G. Lantrip, having been first duly sworn, upon his oath testified as follows:

Examination by the Commission.

- Q What is your name? A Miles G. Lantrip.
- Q How old are you? A I am seventy three; born in 1828, November 28th.
- Q How much Choctaw blood have you? A Well, I don't know.
- Q What's your post office address? A Sarepta, Calhoun County, Mississippi.
- Q How long have you lived at Sarepta? A I have been living here in Chickasaw and Calhoun Counties, since 1870.
- Q Where did you live before that? A Lived in Alabama.
- Q At what place? A Sumter County.
- Q How long did you live there? A Lived a year at Fayette County.
- Q Where did you live before that? A Lived there until I come to Mississippi, in them two places.
- Q You were born there in Western Alabama? A Born in Christian County, Kentucky, and was brought over there a child; I don't remember nothing about that.
- Q When did your father die? A He died last year. He was ninety three years old.
- Q What was his name? A John Lantrip.
- Q Is your mother living? A No, sir, she's been dead twenty years, or more.
- Q What was her name? A Elizabeth Lantrip; Brashears was her maiden name.
- Q Through which one of your parents did you derive your Choctaw blood? A From my mother.
- Q How old was your mother when she died? A She was up in sixty, somewhere; I reckon she was sixty five.
- Q Do you know how much Choctaw blood she had? A No, I really don't.
- Q Your father didn't have any Choctaw blood? A None that I know of.
- Q Now, where was your mother born? A In Kentucky, I reckon. I don't know that.
- Q What part of Kentucky? A Christian County, Kentucky.
- Q You think she was born there? A I just simply don't know.
- Q What was her maiden name? A Brasher.
- Q How was your mother ever in Mississippi until you moved here? A No, never was here. She was in Alabama, on Tom Bigbee River; partly raised there.
- Q Was she ever in Alabama before she came there when you were a child? A Oh! yes; she was married in Alabama, at Demopolis.
- Q And moved from there to Kentucky? A Yes, and stayed a year and come back.

Miles G. Lantrip, et al., 2.

Q How long did she live in Alabama before she went to Kentucky?

A I reckon she was raised there; I don't know. My grand father was in Kentucky.

Q Through which one of her parents did your grand mother get her Choctaw blood? A She supposed to get it from her grand mother.

Q That does not answer my question. Through which one of her parents did your mother get her Choctaw blood? A Her father.

Q What was his name? A Lawrence Brasher.

Q Did you ever see him? A Oh! yes.

Q When did he die? A He died, I think, somewhere along in the eighties.

Q How old was he at the time of his death? A I think he was eighty seven.

Q Do you know how much Choctaw blood he had? A No, I don't know.

Q What was your mother's mother's name? A Her mother was Sallie, is all I know.

Q You don't know what her maiden name was? A Yes.

Q What was it? A Edmington.

Q She had no Choctaw blood? A Not that I know of. She died before I can recollect /

Q Didn't you ever hear how much Choctaw blood Lawrence Brasher had? A No, not that I can remember.

Q Where was he born? A He was born, I reckon - I don't know that. In South Hampton County, Virginia, or North Hampton County, North Carolina, one, I don't know which.

Q Do you remember the year he was born? A I have known, but I have forgotten. No, I don't know; it was in 1700 though.

Q It was before the beginning of the 19th century? A Yes, sir.

Q Do you know how long he lived in Virginia before he came west?

A No, he came west while young.

Q Before he was married, or after? A Before he was married, I reckon; I don't know that, either; that's too far back for my age.

Q Where did he move to from Virginia? A He went to Kentucky I reckon.

Q What part of Kentucky? A Christian County, or Hopkins County.

Q How long did he stay there? A I don't know that, either.

Q Where did he go to from there? A Came to the Choctaw Nation.

Q Choctaw County, Alabama? A Maringo County,

Q Do you know when it was he came to Demopolis? A No, sir.

Q Have you any idea? A In the 20's, I reckon; I don't know.

Q How old were you when your mother moved from Kentucky down to Alabama with you? A I was just an infant.

Q Not a year old? A I expect so, not a year old, I don't know that.

Q You lived there in western Alabama then? A Raised up there until I was eleven years old and come to Mississippi, and have been here ever since.

Q Was that in the old Choctaw reservation where you lived there?

A Yes, I reckon it was.

Q Did your father and mother own any land there? A No, not that I know of; I don't know that.

Q Did either of them talk the Choctaw language? A They could talk a good deal of it; some of it, no a good deal of it; learned it from the Indians, I reckon.

Q They associated with the white people, did they, or with the Indians? A Well, I don't know; they wasn't with the white people; they was considered white people; they lived there with the Indians a good deal.

Miles G. Lantrip, 3.

- Q What was your father's occupation at that time? A Just a farmer.
- Q Did he own land there then? A No, I don't reckon he did.
- Q Rented it? A I don't know; I reckon he did.
- Q Do you know the name of the father, or of the mother of Lawrence Brasher? A I know them both.
- Q What were their names? A His mother was named Jane, I reckon, Nancy Jane, and his father was John Brasher.
- Q Did Jane have any Choctaw blood whatever? A Jane, she had the Choctaw blood.
- Q You never saw her, did you? A Oh! yes, I seed her many times; she died here in Mississippi.
- Q Do you know in what year she was born? A No, I don't know.
- Q She was the mother of Lawrence Brasher? A Yes, sir and Kizziah Thompson.
- Q Who is Kizziah Thompson? A She is a sister to Lawrence Brasher.
- Q Where was Jane Brasher born? A I don't know that.
- Q What amount of Choctaw blood did she have? A Well, I don't know that either.
- Q Do you know, in fact, that it was Choctaw Indian blood that she had? A I don't really know, in fact; only the proof that they have got from the Choctaw Indians.
- Q Who do you refer to? A Descendants of Kizziah Thompson have heretofore made application for identification as Mississippi Choctaws and I am informed that their proof shows that Kizziah Thompson, her brother Lawrence Brasher, were possessed of Choctaw Indian blood.
- Q What was Jane's maiden name, do you know? A I don't know, unless it was Lipsic or Black; I think it was Black. I don't know but that I have heard my grand father call his uncle Billy Black, and I knew the Blacks back there in that country.
- Q Where were you living seventy one years ago? A I guess I was living in Alabama, seventy one years ago; I couldn't remember.
- Q What county? A I reckon in Fayette County, or Pickens County, I don't know.
- Q You have no way of arriving at the amount of Choctaw blood possessed by you? A No, I haven't none.
- Q Do you know through which one of her parents Jane Brasher got her Choctaw blood? A No, I don't know that.
- Q Did Jane look like an Indian? A She was a deal spare made, dark skin, black haired woman.
- Q When did she come to Mississippi? A She in forty one or forty two; grand daddy died in forty one.
- Q She lived in Alabama where you did, before she came to Mississippi, did she? A Yes, she lived there.
- Q Are you married? A Yes, sir.
- Q Wife living? A Yes, sir.
- Q Has she any Choctaw blood? A None that I know of. I reckon not.
- Q You make no claim for her? A No, sir.
- Q What's her name? A Sarah E.
- Q Have you ever been married more than once? A No, sir.
- Q Has she? A No.
- Q Have you any children under age? A No, sir.
- Q How many children have you of age who are living? A Just got four living.
- Q Some of them here to-day? A Yes, sir, my daughter here.

In connection with any application which may be made by any of your children, it will be necessary that the Commission be furnished with proper evidence of your marriage to your wife, Sarah E.

Miles G. Lantrip, 4.

- Q Were you married to her under a license? A Oh! yes.
Q When? A In '52, I believe.
Q Where? A In Calhoun County, where I live.
Q Who married you? A Colonel Brasher.
Q What was his official position at that time? A He was supervisor.
Q By virtue of his office, he had the right to perform marriage ceremonies? A Oh! yes.
Q Have you your marriage license and certificate with you at this time? A No, I haven't got it.

It will be necessary for you to furnish the Commission with proper evidence of your marriage to your wife, Sarah E. Lantrip.

- Q Have you any evidence of the marriage of Colonel Lawrence Brasher and your mother's mother? A No, I don't where they were married.
Q How long did they lived together as man and wife? A I don't know that; a good while.
Q How many children were born to them? A Six, I reckon.
Q Did they live together until one or the other of them died? A Lived together until she got burnt and had fits.
Q This application is for yourself only, is it? A Yes, sir.
Q Is your name on any of the Choctaw tribal rolls in Indian Territory? A No, I reckon not.
Q Has any application of any description ever been made for you before to-day looking to the establishment of your rights as a Choctaw Indian? A None at all.
Q This is the first application of any kind that has ever been made for you? A Yes, sir, first application.
Q Do you appear before the Commission at this time for the purpose of claiming rights in the Choctaw lands in Indian Territory under article 14 of the treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek? A I reckon that's it.
Q Do you understand article 14 of the treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek? A No, I don't understand it.

This treaty was entered into here in Mississippi on the 27th day of September, 1830, between the United States Government and the Choctaw tribe of Indians. At the time the treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek was made, the Choctaws lived here in Mississippi and along the western edge of the State of Alabama. The object of the treaty was to get these Indians to move from the country occupied by them here in Mississippi and Alabama, to a new country west of the Mississippi River, a part of which is now occupied by the greater portion of the Choctaw tribe of Indians and is commonly known as the Choctaw Nation, Indian Territory. At the time the treaty was made, some of these Indians were unwilling to leave this country, and for the benefit of those who insisted upon remaining here what is known as the 14th article was put in the treaty. That 14th article provided that upon certain conditions a Choctaw who wanted to stay here in Mississippi, might receive land here in Mississippi from the Government of the United States. It is as follows:

Miles G. Lantrip, 5.

"Each Choctaw head of a family being desirous to remain and become a citizen of the States shall be permitted to do so by signifying his intention to the agent within six months from the ratification of this treaty, and he or she shall thereupon be entitled to a reservation of one section of six hundred and forty acres of land, to be bounded by sectional lines of survey; in like manner shall be entitled to one-half that quantity for each unmarried child which is living with him over ten years of age; and a quarter section to such child as may be under ten years of age, to adjoin the location of the parent. If they reside upon said land intending to become citizens of the States for five years after the ratification of this treaty in that case a grant in fee simple shall issue; said reservation shall include the present improvement of the head of the family, or a portion of it. Persons who claim under this article shall not lose the privilege of a Choctaw citizen, but if they ever remove are not to be entitled to any portion of the Choctaw annuity."

Q I have quoted to you article 14 of the treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek. Do you understand it? A Yes, I sorter understand it.

I will try and explain it to you, so you will understand it. If a Choctaw who lived here seventy one years ago, preferred to stay here in Mississippi and not move out to the new nation west of the Mississippi River, he was entitled to take land upon certain conditions. First provision of that 14th article was that he should, within six months after the treaty was ratified, and the treaty was ratified on the 24th day of February, 1831, let the agent of the Government here in Mississippi for the Choctaws know that he wanted to stay here and become a citizens of the States. The Government had an agent here in 1831 for the purpose of enabling these Choctaws to notify the Government through an agent, of their intention to stay here. The Choctaw was then entitled to a reservation of one section of six hundred and forty acres of land, to be bounded by sectional lines of survey, and for each child in his family over ten years of age, on the 27th day of September, 1830, the day the treaty was made, he was entitled to a reservation of one half section, or three hundred and twenty acres of land, and for each child in his family under ten years of age at that time, he was entitled to a reservation of one quarter section, or one hundred and sixty acres. Now, the reservations for these children were required by that 14th article to adjoin the location of the parent; and the reservations ~~for~~ were required by that article to include the improvement of the parent as it existed on the 27th day of September, 1830, the day the treaty was made. Now, if these Indians lived on that land intending to become citizens of the States for five years after the treaty was ratified, that is, five years from February 24, 1831, in that case they were entitled to a grant in fee simple for the land; that is, the Government would give them a deed to the land, and the land would become the property of the Indian to dispose of at his pleasure. That 14th article provided further that persons who claimed under that article should not lose the privilege of a Choctaw citizen, but if they ever removed, that is, if they ever went out to the new nation west of the Mississippi River, they should not be entitled to any portion of the Choctaw annuity. The Choctaw annuity is money paid each year to the Indians by the Government under treaty stipulations.

Q Now, did any of your ancestors ever comply or attempt to comply with the provisions of article 14 of the treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek, or ever receive any benefits under that article? A Not that I know of.

Q Did any of them own an improvement here in the old Choctaw Nation in Mississippi and Alabama, in the year 1830, when this treaty was made? A I don't know; I reckon grand father did at Demopolis, Alabama I don't know; he lived there.

Q What County is that in? A Maringo.

Q How far is it from the Tom Bigbee River? A On the Tom Bigbee River.

Q On the other side of the river or this side? A On this side, I think, I don't know that.

Q What makes you think your grand father owned an improvement here then? A He lived there, that's all.

Q You refer to Lawrence Brasher? A Yes sir, that's all the grounds I have got, because I don't know.

Q Did your mother live there at that time? A Oh! yes, she was raised there.

Q Did she own an improvement then? A Not that I know of. She was raised there and married there.

Q Did any of your Choctaw ancestors remove from the old Choctaw Nation, here in Mississippi and Alabama, to the present Choctaw nation, in Indian Territory at the time of the removal of the greater portion of the Choctaw tribe of Indians between the years 1833 and 1838? A Not that I know anything about.

Q Did any of them, within six months after the treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek was ratified, let the agent of the Government here in Mississippi for the Choctaws know that they wanted to stay here in Mississippi and become citizens of the States and take land?

Q Not that I know of; I don't know.

Q Did any of them ever claim or receive any land here in Mississippi from the Government of the United States under article 14 of the treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek? A No, I don't know that. I have heard my grand father speak about scrips and warrants, but I don't know what that was.

Q If any of your people ever received any land from the Government under this 14th article of the treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek, then, you never heard of it? A No, I never heard of it.

Q Well, it's likely you would have heard of it if they had ever got any land? A I was small then.

Miles G. Lantrip, 7.

Q Did any of your people ever get any money from the Government?

A None that I know of.

Q None of them ever got any land anywhere from the Government?

A Not that I know anything about.

Q Did any of your ancestors ever receive any benefits whatever as Choctaw Indians? A None that I know about.

In accordance with the provisions of article 14 of the treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek, the Government of the United States directed an agent here in Mississippi to register the names of such Choctaws as might desire to remain here and become citizens of the States and take land under that article. The records of the Government show that this agent failed to register and report to the Government the names of many Indians who did in fact let him know that they wanted to stay here and become citizens of the States and take land, and on this account the Government at its public land sales here in Mississippi in many instances sold land upon which Choctaws lived and had improvements, and which they supposed they would receive under article 14 of the treaty. This caused a great deal of complaint among the Indians, and the matter was finally brought to the attention of Congress, and Congress passed certain Acts between the years 1837 and 1842, providing for the appointment of commissions to come down here to Mississippi and hear the cases of Choctaws who claimed that they had complied in all respects with the provisions of article 14 of the treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek, but that their land had been sold by the Government. These commissioners were appointed by the president of the United States and they came down here to Mississippi and heard a great many of these Choctaw cases.

Q Did any of your ancestors appear before any of these commissioners and attempt to establish their rights under article 14 of the treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek? A None that I know of.

Q Did you ever hear of these commissions being down here fifty and sixty years ago? A No, sir, I don't know nothing about them.

An Act of Congress approved August 23, 1842, provided that in case it should be finally determined that a Choctaw had complied in all respects with the provisions of article 14 of the treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek, but that his land had been sold by the Government, he should be entitled to select in the place of the land so sold by the Government, land some place else here in Mississippi, or in Alabama, or Louisiana, or Arkansas, from vacant Government land, and should be given a certificate to that effect. These certificates were called scrip.

Q Did any of your ancestors ever get any of this scrip from the Government under this Act of Congress? A Not that I know of. I have heard my grand father speak about his land warrants, but how he got it, I don't know.

Miles G. Lantrip, et al., 8.

Q You are talking about Lawrence Brasher? A Yes, sir, Colonel Brasher.

Q You say you have heard him speak of land scrip? A Yes, and his land warrants, but I don't know.

Q Did you ever see those warrants? A No, I never seen them.

Q You don't know what they were at all? A No, I don't know now.

Q What did you ever hear him say about them? A I just heard him speak of his land warrants and scrip; I suppose they were old revolutionary scrips, or something of that kind, but I don't know that.

Q Do you know whether any of that scrip - any of these warrants - are in existence now? A No, I don't know.

Q Did he ever tell you where he got the warrants or the scrip?

A No, sir, I just merely heard him say he had them - speak of them.

Q Did he or your mother ever own any land here in Mississippi? A Which, Colonel Brasher?

Q Yes? A Oh! yes, he owned land.

Q Where? A Down in Calhoun County.

Q How did he get that land? A He entered it.

Q Homesteaded it? A Yes, entered it from the Government.

Q You are sure he didn't get it under this treaty? A No, I don't reckon he did; he entered the land in 1850.

Q Do you know of any old person living who would likely know whether any of your ancestors ever complied or attempted to comply with the provisions of article 14 of the treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek, or ever received any benefits thereunder? A No, I don't know.

Q Do you know of the existence of any written evidence of any description which prove or tend to prove such a state of facts?

A No, I don't know that.

Q Have you any written evidence of any kind to offer at this time?

A None at all.

Q Have you any witnesses here to-day? A Yes, sir, I have a witness to prove that I am of the blood.

Q How many witnesses have you? A Both of these men.

Q What are their names? A Charles Murphy, and John T. McComic.

Q You expect to prove by them simply that you are a lineal descendant of Lawrence Brasher? A Yes, sir, of Kizziah Thompson, either one, they were brother and sister.

Q They don't know whether any of your ancestors ever complied or attempted to comply with these treaty provisions, or not, do they?

A I don't know whether they do or not.

Q Are there any further statements you want to make at this time in support of your application? A No, none that I know of.

Q

If you should find any other witnesses whose testimony you desire to have taken by the Commission, they may appear before the Commission here at Meridian, Mississippi, before the 15th of this month, or within a reasonable time thereafter at the General Office of the Commission, in Muskogee, Indian Territory, and their testimony will be taken.

Q What is your occupation? A Well, sir, I am originally a farmer; I have been in business now for - I have been afflicted a long time - aint able to perform manual labor, but I have been in some position that sorter kept me up.

Q Are you acquainted with the applicant, Miles G. Lantrip? A Yes, sir.

Q Who has just appeared before the Commission? A Yes, sir.

Q Are you any kin to him? A Only by marriage, sir. My wife and his mother were own cousins.

Q Your wife and this applicant's mother were own cousins? A Yes, sir.

Q How long have you known Mr. Lantrip? A I have known him from my recollection. I come to Chickasaw County in '43, and in '44, I got acquainted with his father; I think he was a small boy then at that time; I have been acquainted with him personally ever since, we lived in the same settlement, and went to the same town for food and everything of the kind.

Q What was his father's name? A John Lantrip.

Q Did you know his mother? A Yes, sir.

Q What was her name? A Elizabeth Lantrip; her maiden name was Elizabeth Brasher.

Q How old would she be if she were living now? A Well, sir, I couldn't tell you.

Q How much older than was she than you? A I the don't think she was as old as I was at that time.

Q If she were living now she would be older than you? A No, sir, I don't think she would.

Q Well, this man claims to be seventy three years old? A Yes, I understand your question now; she would be older than I, but I don't recollect when she was born, and I don't recollect her age.

Q Did you meet her when you met him first? A My recollection is I did. The first time I ever saw Mr. Lantrip, I come from Houston, Mississippi, up to where they are living now and passed Mr. Lantrip's house; the first time I ever saw the family.

Q Did his mother have any Choctaw blood? A I don't know, sir.

Q Did his father have any? A I don't know that either.

Q Do you know the name of Elizabeth's father? A Colonel Lawrence Brasher.

Q You were acquainted with him? A Yes, sir, personally acquainted with him.

Q What was Elizabeth's mother's name? A I don't recollect what her name was, from the fact that I never saw her.

Q Did Lawrence Brasher have any Choctaw blood? A I don't know, sir.

Miles G. Lantrip, 13.

sir.

Q Do you know the names of his parents? A I do not.

Q When did Lawrence Brasher come to the State of Mississippi, if you know? A I don't know; I wasn't here; he was here when I come here. He was in Chickasaw County when I first come here.

Q Could he speak the Choctaw language? A Not that I know of.

Q Could Elizabeth? A I don't think she could; if she did, I didn't hear her.

Q Do you know where Lawrence Brasher was born? A No, sir.

Q Do you know where he lived before he came to Mississippi? A Only from hearsay.

Q Where did you hear that he lived? A I heard that he came from Kentucky and moved to Maringe County, Alabama.

Q And from there to Mississippi? A From there back to - he lived in Fayette County, Alabama, and then he moved from there to this State.

Q You know nothing of his residence prior to your coming to Mississippi, except from hearsay? A No, sir, I will make this statement about that. There was a large family of Brashers in Alabama; my brother married a Brasher, an own cousin to Colonel Brasher; I came with my brother; I wasn't -- in forty three. Its been a good while ago. We come to Houston, Mississippi, Chickasaw County, and that was the first time I ever saw Colonel Brasher, but I have heard my brother's wife and my brother speak about the Brashers in Alabama, but I never saw Colonel Brasher until I saw him in Chickasaw County.

Q You have some children who will appear before the Commission? A My sons has been to this place this week, but then I don't know what he done.

Q What's his name? A Henry S. McComie.

Q Your wife was what relation to Colonel L. Brasher? A He was he uncle. Colonel Brasher's sister was my wife's mother.

Q What was the name of this sister of Colonel Brasher? A Rachel Chrestman.

Q What was your wife's name? A She was name Mary Ann Chrestman.

Q How long has she been dead? A She's been dead about fifteen years as near as I can recollect.

Q Was she older or younger than you? A She was younger.

How much? A I suppose she was fifteen or twenty years younger than me. I don't know exactly her age.

Q Do you know whether any of the ancestors of Miles G. Lantrip ever complied or attempted to comply with the provisions of article 14 of the treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek, or ever received any benefits thereunder? A No, sir.

Q Do you know whether any of the ancestors of your wife did? A I do not.

Q You are thoroughly familiar with this 14th article? A Yes, sir.

Q Anything further you want to say in this matter? A No, sir, I believe there is nothing else that would be essential.

(This witness is a white man of average intelligence.)

(Witness ~~name~~ excused.)

Charles E. Murphy, having been first duly sworn as a witness on behalf of the above named applicant, upon his oath testified as follows:

Miles G. Lantrip, 14.

Examination by the Commission.

- Q What is your name? A Charles E. Murphy.
- Q How old are you, Mr. Murphy? A Seventy five years old the 11th day of last January.
- Q What is your post office address? A Reid, Mississippi.
- Q What county? A Calhoun County.
- Q How long have you lived there in Calhoun County? A I have lived there for sixty years; I have been moved out five or six years and come back.
- Q Have you any Indian blood? A Not that I knew of.
- Q What's your occupation? A Well, just most anything that you would call; I run a farm, been in public office a heap of my life. I have held office between thirty and forty years of my life.
- Q Now, are you acquainted with the applicant, Miles G. Lantrip?
- A Yes, sir, I have known him fer about sixty one years.
- Q Are you any kin to him? A Not a bit; never was.
- Q Are you interested in any way in the result of his application?
- A Not a bit; no interest whatever.
- Q Has he any Choctaw blood? A I can't tell you that fer I don't know.
- Q Were you acquainted with his parents? A Yes, sir, I was.
- Q What was his mother's name? A They always called her Betsey Lantrip.
- Q What was his father's name? A Jehn.
- Q Did either of Miles' parents have Choctaw blood? A I don't know, sir, of my own knowledge; I have heard it, but I don't know it.
- Q Which one did you hear had Choctaw blood? A Old grand mother Brasher - old Colonel Brasher's first wife.
- Q Which one of this applicant's parents? A His mother was a Brasher.
- Q Did you ever hear how much Choctaw blood she had? A No, never did.
- Q What was her father's name? A Colonel L. Brasher, signed his name just that way.
- Q What does that "L" stand fer? A Lawrence.
- Q Did he have Choctaw blood? A I don't know that, sir; I never knew him until he come to Mississippi; I was acquainted with him about sixty years.
- Q Where, then, did Elizabeth Lantrip get her Choctaw blood? A It must have come from the Brasher family; her grand mother, I suppose.
- Q Lawrence Brasher's mother? A Yes, sir.
- Q Did you know her? A I did.
- Q What was her name? A I think they called her Jane; we always called her grand mother Brasher.
- Q Do you know how much Choctaw blood she had? A No, I don't know, but her looks and all would show that she had some in her; I went state that there was.
- Q You wouldn't say that she had Choctaw blood? A No, sir, I couldn't say.
- Q When did these people come to Mississippi? A They come to Mississippi, I reckon, about '61, I think it was; no, 1831; I think it was about that.
- Q From where? A I think they always claimed they come here from Pickens County, Alabama; I have heard them speak of it.
- Q These people have lived here ever since that time? A Yes, sir, a powerful train of them.
- Q Was Lawrence Brasher and the mother of Elizabeth Lantrip lawfully married? A I suppose they was; he claimed her as his daughter, and she claimed him as her father, and it was just like anybody else in the country that I don't know that's married. I guess they were married; I feel satisfied they was, but you see I wasn't there, I don't know.

Miles G. Lantrip, 15.

Q How long did Lawrence and the mother of Elizabeth Lantrip live together as man and wife? A A long time; they raised a family.

Q Did they live together until one or the other died? A Oh! yes, sir, they did.

Q Do you know anything about the marriage of this applicant and his wife? A I might near know it; I was asked to the infair, but didn't go, and I heard Colonel Brasher say this man's father married them, and that I ought to have been, they had a fine dinner there.

Q About when was that? A I don't know; it's been a good long time back. Its been back, I should say, between fifty five and sixty years, to the best of my knowledge.

Q Where were they married? A They was married right where he lives in Calhoun County; I think it was Chickasaw then. He has lived with his wife until yet.

Q Do you know whether any of the ancestors of this applicant ever complied or attempted to comply with the provisions of article 14 of the treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek, or ever received any benefits under that article? A All I know about that, and I don't know what that was, old Colonel Brasher drew a land warrant away back yonder for something, but I can't tell you what it was. I think it called for eighty acres of land; ~~at~~ most all of the old men who lived in them days drew land warrants.

Q For what purpose? A For some purpose, I don't recollect - if they had been old soldiers in the war, and I don't recollect for what purpose, and I knew he made an application and drew a land warrant.

Q When was it that he got that land warrant? A It's been, I will say, fifty years ago - must have been.

Q Do you know where he got the land? A Most all of the old men that drew the land warrants they sold them to a Dutchman in Houston, I don't know what he ever done with it.

Q You don't know that this warrant was received on account of his Indian blood? A No, sir, I don't know that. I know he drew the land warrant, and most all of the old men did.

Q Not necessarily the Indians? A I just supposed it was because they had been old soldiers.

Q He was a revolutionary soldier, was he? A No, he weren't a revolutionary soldier, I don't think, but he was in some war.

Q You don't know whether he or any other of the ancestors of this applicant ever complied or attempted to comply with the provisions of article 14 of the treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek, or ever received any benefits under it? A I don't know; my mind was never called to it; I never looked into and never had any interest in it.

Q Are there any further statements you care to make in support of this application? A No, sir, if there was any more questions you want to ask me, I am ready to answer them.

Q Mr. Lantrip, are there any further questions you want me to ask this witness?

By Mr. Lantrip? A No.

By Commission?

Did Lawrence Brasher have any sisters? A Yes, sir.

Q Do you remember their names? A Yes.

Miles G. Lantrip, 16.

Q Who are they? A Kizziah Thompson, Rachel Chrestman, and Pelly Miller, and then I have heard him speak about another one I never saw.

Q What was her name? A I have fergot.

Q Do you remember any others? A Peggy Ceek.

Q Do you remember any others? A No, I was acquainted with all of them.

Muskogee, Indian Territory, February 26, 1902.

Miles G. Lantrip,
Sarapta, Mississippi,

Dear Sir:

Receipt is hereby acknowledged of the affidavit of B. J. Ivy as to the marriage of Miles G. Lantrip and Sarah E. Christman, on June 29, 1882. The same has been seen filed with the record in the matter of your application for identification as a Mississippi Choctaw, but it cannot be accepted as conclusive evidence of such marriage. In the event of your inability to secure a certified copy of the record of such marriage from the Court for the county in which it was celebrated, you should forward the certificate of the Clerk of the Court for said county showing why you cannot procure certified copy of the record. The Commission will then accept the affidavits of two disinterested parties who were present at your marriage as evidence of the same.

Yours truly,

Commissioner in Charge.

and 4739.

Muskogee, Indian Territory, March 21, 1902.

J. H. Ramsey,

Clerk Circuit Court,

Pittsboro, Mississippi,

Dear Sir:

Receipt is hereby acknowledged of your letter of the twelfth instant, inclosing certified copy of marriage license and certificate between J. E. Lantrip and Miss J. C. Stribling, which is offered for filing in support of the application of Isom Lantrip for identification as a Mississippi Choctaw, together with your explanation that Isom Lantrip's mother's maiden name was Stribling and she married J. E. Lantrip, and after his death was married to a man named Hill. You are advised that the discrepancy in names referred to in our former letter was that the name appears in the testimony of Isom Lantrip as "Kate" and in the marriage license and certificate as "J. C." Kindly explain this variance in names.

Receipt is also acknowledged of your certificate to the effect that there are no marriage records in Calhoun County prior to 1876, and it is presumed that this is offered in support of the ap-

These applications were made under the provision of the act of Congress of June 28, 1898 (30 Stats., 495), which is as follows:

“Said Commission shall have authority to determine the identity of Choctaw Indians claiming rights in the Choctaw lands under article fourteen of the treaty between the United States and the Choctaw Nation, concluded September twenty-seventh, eighteen hundred and thirty, and to that end may administer oaths, examine witnesses and perform all other acts necessary thereto, and make report to the Secretary of the Interior.”

Said decision concludes as follows:

“It is therefore the opinion of this Commission that the evidence herein is insufficient to determine the identity of Scott S. Dumas, Ruth Dumas, Miles G. Lantrip, Mary P. Phillips, Early E. Dear Sir:

You are hereby notified that the Secretary of the Interior on January 5, 1906, affirmed the decision of the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes of May 15, 1903, refusing the applications of the several persons in the consolidated Mississippi Choctaw case of Scott S. Dumas, et al., of which the application for your identification as a Mississippi Choctaw is a part.

Respectfully,

Commissioner.

Department of the Interior,
Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes,
Meridian, Mississippi, February 12, 1902.

In the matter of the application of Mary P. Phillips, for the identification of herself and eight minor children, Early E., Esther E., Maud E., Leo R., Myrtle, Leland and Durelle and Rex, as Mississippi Choctaws.

Mary P. Phillips, having been first duly sworn, upon her oath testified as follows:

Examination by the Commission.

- Q What is your name? A Mary P. Phillips.
- Q How old are you? A Born in '66.
- Q What month A March, 24th.
- Q How much Choctaw blood have you? A I don't know that.
- Q What's your post office address? A Reid, Calhoun County.
- Q How long have you lived up there in Calhoun County? A All my life.
- Q Is your father living? A Yes, sir.
- Q What's his name? A Miles G. Lantrip.
- Q Is he the Miles G. Lantrip who appeared before the Commission before you? A Yes, sir.
- Q Is your mother living? A Yes, sir.
- Q What's her name? A Sarah E.
- Q Through which one of your parents do you get your Choctaw blood? A My father.
- Q Your mother has no Choctaw blood? A Not that I know of.
- Q You have no idea how much Choctaw blood you have? A No, sir.
- Q Do you know, as a matter of fact, that you have Choctaw blood, or is it just Indian blood of some kind? A No, sir.
- Q What's the name of your husband? A Thomas J. Phillips.
- Q Has he any Choctaw blood? A No, sir.
- Q You make no claim for him? A No, sir.
- Q How many children have you living for whom you want to make application? A Eight.
- Q What are the names and ages of these children? A Early E.
- Q How old? A Seventeen.
- Q Next one? A Fifteen - Esther E.
- Q Next one? A Maud E., thirteen.
- Q Next one? A Leo R., ten.
- Q Next one? A Myrtle, eight.
- Q Next one? A Leland.
- Q That's a boy, is it? A Yes, sir.
- Q How old? A Six.
- Q Next one? A Durelle.
- Q Boy or girl? A Boy.
- Q How old? A Four.
- Q Next one? A Rex
- Q That's a boy? A Yes, sir.
- Q How old? A One year.
- Q That's all, is it? A Yes, sir.
- Q Are these children all living with you at this time? A Yes, sir.
- Q Are they all the children of yourself and Thomas J. Phillips?
- A Yes, sir.

Mary P. Phillips, et al., 2.

Q This application, then, is for yourself and eight minor children, is that correct? A Yes, sir.

Q Is your name, or the name of any one of these children, to be found upon any of the Choctaw tribal rolls in Indian Territory?

A No, sir.

Q Has any application of any description ever been made before today for yourself or any one of these children, for the purpose of establishing your rights as Choctaw Indians? A No, sir.

Q This is the first application of any kind that has ever been made for you? A Yes, sir.

Q Do you appear before the Commission at this time for the purpose of claiming rights in the Choctaw lands in Indian Territory for yourself and eight minor children under article 14 of the Treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek? A Yes, sir.

Q You understand that 14th article? A Yes, sir, I think I understand it.

Q Heard it explained fully to your father this morning? A Yes, sir.

Q Did any of your ancestors ever comply or attempt to comply with the provisions of this 14th article of the treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek, or ever receive any benefits thereunder? A None that I know of.

Q Did any of them own an improvement here in the old Choctaw Nation, in Mississippi and Alabama, in the year 1830, when this treaty was made? A I don't know, sir.

Q Did any of them live here, in fact, at that time - seventy one years ago? A I don't know that.

Q Did any of your ancestors remove from the old Choctaw Nation, in Mississippi and Alabama, to the present Choctaw Nation, in Indian Territory, at the time of the removal of the greater portion of the Choctaw tribe of Indians, between the years 1833 and 1838? A I don't know.

Q Did any of them, within six months after the treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek was ratified, let the agent of the Government here in Mississippi for the Choctaws know that they wanted to stay here in Mississippi and become citizens of the States and take land? A I don't know, sir.

Q Did any of them ever claim or receive any land here in Mississippi from the Government under article 14 of the treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek? A No, sir.

Q Or under any other provision in that treaty? A None that I know of.

Q Did any of them ever get any money from the Government? A No, sir, not that I know of.

Q Did any of your ancestors ever receive any benefits whatever as Choctaw Indians? A No, sir.

Q You have heard me explain to your father the causes which brought about the certain Acts of Congress providing for the appointment of commissioners to adjust these claims here between 1837 and 1845?

A Yes, sir.

Q Did any of your ancestors appear before any of these commissioners and attempt to establish their rights under article 14 of the treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek? A No, sir.

Q Did any of them ever get any scrip from the Government under the Act of Congress approved August 23, 1842? A No, sir.

Q Do you know of any old person living who would likely know whether any of your ancestors ever complied or attempted to comply with the provisions of article 14 of the treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek, or ever received any benefits thereunder? A No, sir, I don't know.

Mary P. Phillips, et al., 3.

Q Do you know of any written evidence which would prove or tend to prove such a state of facts? A No, sir.

Q Have you any written evidence of any kind to offer at this time?

A No, sir.

Q Have you any witnesses here to-day? A None only the ones who testified in my fathers case, Mr. Murphy and Mr. Mc Comie.

If you should find any other witnesses whose testimony you desire to have taken by the Commission, they may appear before the Commission, here at Meridian, Mississippi, before the 15th of this month, or within a reasonable time thereafter at the General Office of the Commission, in Muskogee, Indian Territory, and their testimony will be taken.

Q Are there any further statements you want to make at this time?

A No, sir.

Q You don't speak or understand the Choctaw language? A I do not.

Q Have you any brothers living? A Yes, sir, have one.

Q What's his name? A Marquis LaFayette Lantrip.

Q Have you any sisters living? A Yes, sir.

Q How many? A Two.

Q What are their names? A Malena P. Covington.

Q What's the other one's name? A Emma E. Cook.

(This applicant has the appearance of being a white woman and shows no indication of being possessed of Indian blood; she does not speak or understand the Choctaw language.)

R. S. Streit, having been first duly sworn, upon his oath states that as stenographer to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes, he reported in full all proceedings had in the above entitled cause on the 12th day of February, 1902, and that the above and foregoing is a full, true and correct translation of his stenographic notes of said proceedings in said cause upon said date.

Subscribed and sworn to before me at Philadelphia, Mississippi, this 1st day of March, 1902.

These applications were made under the provision of the act of Congress of June 28, 1898 (30 Stats., 495), which is as follows:

"Said Commission shall have authority to determine the identity of Choctaw Indians claiming rights in the Choctaw lands under article fourteen of the treaty between the United States and the Choctaw Nation, concluded September twenty-seventh, eighteen hundred and thirty, and to that end may administer oaths, examine witnesses and perform all other acts necessary thereto, and make report to the Secretary of the Interior."

Said decision concludes as follows:

In the matter of the application of Isom Lantrip for identification as a Mississippi Choctaw.

Isom Lantrip, having been first duly sworn, upon his oath testified as follows:

Examination by the Commission.

- Q What is your name? A Isom Lantrip.
Q How old are you? A Twenty two.
Q How much Choctaw blood have you? A I don't know.
Q Haven't any idea? A None at all.
Q What's your post office address? A Sarepta, Mississippi.
Q What county? A Calhoun County.
Q How long have you lived there? A All my life.
Q Is your father living? A No, sir.
Q What was his name? A John Lantrip.
Q Is your mother living? A Yes, sir.
Q What was her name? A Katie Hill's her name now.
Q Through which one of your parents did you get your Choctaw blood?
A My father.
Q How much Choctaw blood did he have? A I couldn't tell you.
Q Have no idea? A None whatever.
Q Through which one of his parents did he get his Choctaw blood?
A From his father.
Q Is his father living? A Yes, sir.
Q What's his name? A Miles G. Lantrip.
Q Is he the Miles G. Lantrip who appeared before the Commission here this morning? A Yes, sir.
Q Have you any evidence of the marriage of your father and mother?
A No, sir.

It will be necessary for you to furnish the Commission with proper evidence of the marriage of your father and mother for consideration in connection with this case.

- Q Did your father live in Calhoun County, Mississippi, all his life? A No, - yes, I reckon so.
Q Are you married? A No, sir.
Q This application, then, is for yourself only? A Yes, sir.
Q Is your name on any of the Choctaw tribal rolls in Indian Territory? A Not that I know of.
Q Has any application of any description ever been made for you before to-day for the establishment of your rights as a Choctaw Indian? A None whatever.
Q Do you appear before the Commission at this time for the purpose of claiming rights in the Choctaw lands in Indian Territory under article 14 of the treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek? A I do.

Isom Lantrip, 2.

Q You understand that 14th article of the treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek? A Yes, sir, I think I do.

Q You have heard it explained fully to your grand father this morning? A Yes, sir.

Q Did any of your ancestors ever comply or attempt to comply with its provisions, or ever receive any benefits under that article? A Not that I ever knowed of.

Q Did any of them own an improvement here in the old Choctaw Nation in Mississippi and Alabama, in the year 1830, when this treaty was made? A None as I know of.

Q Were any of them living here at that time? A Not that I know of.

Q Did any of them remove to the new nation west of the Mississippi river at the time of the removal of the greater portion of the Choctaw tribe of Indians, between the years 1833 and 1838? A I couldn't tell.

Q Did any of them, within six months after the treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek was ratified, let the agent of the Government here in Mississippi for the Choctaws, know that they wanted to stay here in Mississippi and become citizens of the States and take land? A I don't know.

Q Did any of them ever claim or receive any land here in Mississippi from the Government of the United States under article 14 of the treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek? A I don't know.

Q Any of them ever get any money from the Government? A I don't know that.

Q So far as you know, none of your ancestors ever received any benefits whatever as Choctaw Indians, is that right? A Yes, sir, I reckon so.

Q You heard the explanation to your father- grand father - of the causes which brought about the certain Acts of Congress providing for the appointment of commissioners to come down here and hear these Choctaw claims under article 14 of the treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek? A Yes, sir.

Q Did any of your ancestors appear before any of these commissioners down here between the years 1837 and 1845 and attempt to establish their rights under article 14 of the treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek? A I don't know.

Q Did any of them ever get any scrip from the Government of the United States under the Act of Congress approved August 23, 1842? A I don't know.

Q Don't know? A No, sir.

Q Do you know of any old person living who would likely know whether any of your ancestors ever complied or attempted to comply with the provisions of article 14 of the treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek, or ever received any benefits thereunder? A No, sir.

Q Do you know of any written evidence which would prove or tend to prove such a state of facts? A No, sir.

Q Have you any written evidence to offer at this time? A No sir.

Q Have you any witnesses here? A No, sir, only the ones that testified in my grand father's case.

Q Any further statements you want to make at this time? A No, sir.

If you should find any other witnesses whose testimony you desire to have taken by the Commission, they may appear before the Commission here at Meridian, Mississippi, at any time before the 15th of this month, or within a reasonable time there after at the General Office of the Isom Lantrip, 3.

Commission, in Muskogee, Indian Territory, and their testimony will be taken.

- Q Have you any brothers or sisters living? A Two brothers.
Q What are their names? A Jim and Albert .
Q Where do they live? A They live in Calhoun County.
Q With whom? A With their stepfather, Thomas Hill.
Q And their mother? A Yes, sir.
Q Has any application been made for these children? A None whatever
Q Are they both minors? A Yes, sir.
Q You don't speak or understand the Choctaw language, do you?
A No, sir.

(This applicant has the appearance of being a white man and has light hair, light complexion, and light eyes, and none of the features of an Indian. He does not speak or understand the Choctaw language.)

R. S. Streit, having been first duly sworn, upon his oath states that as stenographer to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes, he report in full all proceedings had in the above entitled cause on the 12th day of February, 1902, at Meridian, Mississippi, and that the above and foregoing is a full, true and correct translation of his stenographic notes of said proceedings in said cause upon said date.

Miss. Choc. 4739

Muskogee, Indian Territory, February 26, 1902.

Isom Lantrip,

Sarepta, Mississippi,

Dear Sir:

There is returned you herewith certified copy of marriage license and certificate between J. E. Lantrip and Miss J. C. Stribling, which was received at this office without accompanying letter, presumably for filing in support of your application for identification as a Mississippi Choctaw. It appears from your testimony that your father's name is John Lantrip and your mother's name is Kate Hill. Before the inclosed evidence of marriage can be filed in support of your application it will be necessary that this difference in names be explained.

Should the certified copy of marriage license and certificate returned you herewith not be intended for filing in your case, please return the same, and advise the commission, if possible, in what case it was offered for filing.

Yours truly,

Commissioner in Charge.

Q Are they all the children of yourself and Carrie Brasher? A Yes, sir.
Q This application, then, is for yourself and three minor children?
A Yes, sir.
Q Were you married to Carrie under a license? A Yes, sir.
Q When? A About '91, I believe.
Q Where? A There close to where I live in Calhoun County.
Q Who married you? A John McComie, this fellow.
Q What official position did he hold? A Member of the Board of Supervisors.
Q Have you your marriage license and certificate with you at this time? A Ya No, sir.

It will be necessary for you to furnish the Commission with proper evidence of your marriage to your wife, Carrie, for use in connection with the application which you make in behalf of your minor children. This evidence should be furnished within thirty days from this date, if possible.

- Q Is your name, or the name of any one of these children, to be found upon any of the Choctaw tribal rolls in Indian Territory?
A Not that I know of.
Q Has any application of any description ever been made before today for yourself or any one of these children, for the purpose of establishing your rights as Choctaw Indians? A No, sir.
Q You appear before the Commission at this time for the purpose of claiming rights in the Choctaw lands in Indian Territory for yourself and three minor children under article 14 of the treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek? A Yes, sir.
Q Do you understand article 14 of the treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek? A Yes, sir, I think I do.
Q You heard it fully explained to your uncle, Miles G. Lantrip?
A Yes, sir.
Q Did any of your ancestors ever comply or attempt to comply with the provisions of article 14 of the treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek, or ever receive any benefits thereunder? A I don't know, sir.
Q Did any of them ever own an improvement here in the old Choctaw Nation, here in Mississippi and Alabama, in 1830, when this treaty was made? A I don't know, sir.
Q Were any of them living here in the old Choctaw Nation seventy one years ago? A I don't know that.
Q Did any of your people remove from the old Choctaw Nation west of the Mississippi River at the time of the removal of the greater portion of the Choctaw tribe of Indians, between the years 1833 and 1838?

William T. Brasher, et al., 3.

A I don't know, sir, whether they did or not.

Q Did any of them, within six months after the treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek was ratified, let the agent of the Government here in Mississippi for the Choctaws know they wanted to stay here in Mississippi and become citizens of the States and take land? A I don't know, sir.

Q Did any of them ever claim or receive any land here in Mississippi from the Government of the United States under article 14 of the treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek? A I don't know.

Q Did any of your people ever get any land from the Government to your knowledge? A No, sir.

Q Or any money? A No, sir.

Q You heard the explanation to your uncle as to the causes which brought about the appointment of certain commissioners by the Government between the years 1837 and 1842, did you not? A Yes, sir.

Q Did any of your ancestors appear before any of these commissioners and attempt to establish their rights under article 14 of the treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek? A I don't know, sir.

Q Did any of them ever get any scrip from the Government of the United States under the Act of Congress approved August 23, 1842? A I don't know.

Q Do you know of any old person living who would likely know whether any of your ancestors ever complied or attempted to comply with the provisions of article 14 of the treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek, or ever received any benefits thereunder? A No, sir, I don't know.

Q Do you know of any written evidence of any description which would prove or tend to prove such a state of facts? A No, sir.

Q Have you any written evidence to offer at this time? A No, sir.

Q Have you any witnesses here to-day? A No, sir, none only those who have already testified, Mr. McConic and Murphy.

If you should find any other witnesses whose testimony you desire to have taken in support of your application, they may appear before the Commission, here at Meridian, Mississippi, at any time before the 15th of this month, or within a reasonable time thereafter at the General office of the Commission, in Muskogee, Indian Territory, and their testimony will be taken.

Q Any further statements you want to make at this time? A No, sir.

Q Have you any brothers or sisters living? A Yes, sir.

Q How many? A Got three brothers living and one sister.

Q What are the names of your brothers? A Seaborn Emloy is the oldest one.

Q Is he here to-day? A No, sir, he is not here.

Q What's the name of another brother? A Andy.

Q Is he here to-day? A Yes, sir.

Q What's the name of your other brother? A Robert.

Q Is he here to-day? A Yes, sir.

Q One sister, you say? A Yes, sir.

Q What's the name of your sister? A Neely E.

Q Is she married? A Yes, sir.

Q What's her husband's name? A Greenberry Collins.

Q Have you any brothers or sisters dead? A Yes, sir, got two; one brother and one sister.

William T. Brasher, et al., 4.

- Q Were they grown at the time of their death? A Yes, sir.
Q Neither of them married? A No, sir.
Q And left no descendants, of course? A No, sir, I have got a half sister too.
Q By your mother, or father? A Mother.
Q What's her name? A Sarah Brasher.
Q How old is she? A She is about forty, I expect.
Q Is she married? A Yes, sir.
Q Is that her married name, Brasher? A Yes, sir.
Q What was her maiden name? A Brown.
Q Has she been before the Commission? A No, sir.
Q Have you any other half sisters, or any half brothers? A No, sir, I have one half sister dead.
Q Did she leave descendants? A She was small when she died.

(This applicant has the appearance of being a white man, and shows no indication of being possessed of Indian blood. He does not speak or understand the Choctaw language. He has light hair and complexion and light eyes.)

R. S. Streit, having been first duly sworn, upon his oath states that as stenographer to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes, he reported in full all proceedings had in the above entitled cause on the 12th day of February, 1902, at Meridian, Mississippi, and that the above and foregoing is a full, true and correct translation of his stenographic notes of said proceedings in said cause upon said date.

These applications were made under the provision of the act of Congress of June 28, 1898 (30 Stats., 495), which is as follows:

“Said Commission shall have authority to determine the identity of Choctaw Indians claiming rights in the Choctaw lands under article fourteen of the treaty between the United States and the Choctaw Nation, concluded September twenty-seventh, eighteen hundred and thirty, and to that end may administer oaths, examine witnesses and perform all other acts necessary thereto, and make report to the Secretary of the Interior.”

Said decision concludes as follows:

“It is therefore the opinion of this Commission that the evidence herein is insufficient to determine the identity of Scott S. Dumas, Ruth Dumas, Miles G. Lantrip, Mary P. Phillips, Early E. Q How old are you? A Twenty five.
Q How much Choctaw blood have? A I don't know.
Q Have you any idea? A No, sir.
Q What's your post office address? A Sarepta, Mississippi.
Q What county? A Calhoun County.
Q How long have you lived in that county? A I was born there and been there ever since.
Q Is your father living? A Yes, sir.
Q What's his name? A John Brasher.
Q Mother living? A Yes, sir.
Q What's her name? A Rena C. Brasher.
Q Through which one of your parents do you get your Choctaw blood?
A Mother.
Q Father has none? A I don't know whether he had or not.
Q How much Choctaw blood do you claim your mother has? A I don't know.
Q Haven't any idea? A No, sir.
Q Are you any relation to William T. Brasher who just appeared before the Commission? A Yes, sir, full brother.
Q What relation is your mother to Miles G. Lantrip, who appeared before the Commission this morning? A Full sister.
Q What's the name of your wife? A Ada.
Q How much Choctaw blood has she? A Same that I have, I reckon.
Q You don't know how much it is? A No, sir.
Q You want to make application for her? A Yes, sir.
Q How old is she? A Twenty three.
Q You are living together now, are you? A Yes, sir.
Q How long has she lived in Calhoun County? A Born there and lived there all her life.
Q Is she any relation to you? A Yes, sir.
Q What? A Third cousins.

- Q When? A The first day of March 1900.
- Q Where? A At her father's house in Calhoun County.
- Q Who married you? A Supervisor Jake Beasley.
- Q Have you your marriage license and certificate with you at this time? A No, sir.

It will be necessary for you to furnish the Commission with proper evidence of your marriage to your wife, Ada, for use in connection with the application which you make in behalf of your minor child. This evidence should be furnished within thirty days from this date, if possible.

- Q This application is for yourself, your wife, and one minor child, is that correct? A Yes, sir.
- Q Is your name, or your wife's name, on any of the Choctaw tribal rolls in Indian Territory? A Not that I know of.
- Q Has any application of any description ever been made for either of you before to-day looking to the establishment of your rights as Choctaw Indians? A No, sir.
- Q Do you appear before the Commission at this time for the purpose of claiming rights in the Choctaw lands in Indian Territory for yourself, wife and minor child under article 14 of the treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek? A Yes, sir.
- Q You understand that 14th article of the treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek? A Yes, sir.
- Q Did any of your ancestors, ever comply or attempt to comply with the provisions of that article, or ever receive any benefits thereunder? A None that I know of.
- Q Did any of them own an improvement here in the old Choctaw Nation in Mississippi and Alabama, in the year 1830, when this treaty was made? A I don't know.

Andy Brasher, et al., 3.

Q Did any of them live here at that time? A I don't know that.

Q Did any of them remove to the new Choctaw Nation west of the Mississippi River at the time of the removal of the greater portion of the Choctaw tribe of Indians between the years 1833 and 1838?

A I don't know.

Q Did any of them, within six months after the treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek was ratified, let the agent of the Government here in Mississippi for the Choctaws know they wanted to stay here in Mississippi and become citizens of the States and take land? A I don't know.

Q Any of them ever claim or receive any land here in Mississippi from the Government of the United States under article 14 of the treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek? A Not that I know of.

Q Is the same true as to your wife? A Yes, sir.

Q Did you ever hear of any of your ancestors, or any of your wife's ancestors ever having gotten any land here in Mississippi from the Government of the United States? A Not that I know of.

Q Or any money? A No, sir.

Q You heard my explanation to your uncle, Miles G. Lantrip, as to the causes which brought about the certain Acts of Congress between the years 1837 and 1842 and their provisions? A Yes, sir.

Q Did any of your ancestors appear before any of the commissioners appointed under these Acts of Congress and attempt to establish their rights under article 14 of the treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek? A I don't know.

Q Did any of your wife's ancestors appear before any of these commissions? A No, sir, not that I know of.

Q Did any of your ancestors, or any of your wife's ancestors, ever get any scrip from the Government of the United States under the Act of Congress approved August 23, 1842? A Not that I know of.

Q Do you know of any old person living who would likely know whether any of your ancestors, or any of your wife's ancestors, ever complied or attempted to comply with the provisions of article 14 of the treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek, or ever received any benefits under that article? A No, sir, I don't.

Q Do you know of any written evidence of any kind which would show or tend to show such a state of facts? A No, sir.

Q Have you any written evidence to offer at this time? A None, sir.

Q Have you any witnesses here to-day? A None but those who testified in my uncle's case.

If you should find any other witnesses whose testimony you desire to have taken in support of your application, they may appear before the Commission here at Meridian, Mississippi, before the 15th of this month, or within a reasonable time thereafter at the General Office of the Commission, in Muskogee, Indian Territory, and their testimony will be taken.

Q Any further statements you want to make at this time? A No, sir.

Q Has your wife any brothers living? A Yes, sir.

Q How many? A Two.

Q What are their names? A Albert Collums and Elmer Collums.

Q Has your wife any sisters living? A Yes, sir.

Q What's her name? A Dottie.

Andy Brasher, et al., 4.

- Q Have any of them been before the Commission? A No, sir. She has got two half brothers and half sisters.
- Q What are their names? A The oldest one is named Silas; next one is named Wesley B. Collums; the girl's name is Mary.
- Q Is she married? A Yes, sir, she married a Collums.
- Q Has your wife's father any brothers or sisters living? A Yes, sir, two brothers.
- Q What are their names? A One named Greenberry Collums.
- Q The other one? A Abner L. Collums.
- Q Has he any sisters living? A No, sir.
- Q You don't speak or understand the Choctaw language? A No, sir.

(This applicant has the appearance of being a white man, and shows no indication of being possessed of Indian blood. He has light hair, light complexion, and light eyes, and has none of the features of an Indian. He does not speak or understand the Choctaw language.)

R. S. Streit, having been first duly sworn, upon his oath states that as stenographer to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes, he reported in full all proceedings had in the above entitled cause at Meridian, Mississippi, on the 12th day of February, 1902, and that the above and foregoing is a full, true and correct translation of his stenographic notes of said proceedings in said cause upon said date.

Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes,
Meridian, Mississippi, February 12, 1902.

In the matter of the application of Robert L. Brasher for identification as a Mississippi Choctaw.

Robert L. Brasher, having been first duly sworn, upon his oath testified as follows:

Examination by the Commission.

- Q What is your name? A Robert L. Brasher.
- Q How old are you? A Twenty one.
- Q How much Choctaw blood have you? A I don't know, sir.
- Q Have you any idea? A No, sir.
- Q Do you know that you have any Choctaw blood? A No, sir, no more than the rest.
- Q What's your post office address? A Pitts, Mississippi.
- Q What county? A Calhoun County.
- Q How long have you lived in Calhoun County? A All my life.
- Q Father living? A Yes, sir.
- Q What's his name? A John Brasher.
- Q Mother living? A Yes, sir.
- Q What's her name? A Rena C.
- Q Through which one of your parents do you get your Choctaw blood? A Mother.
- Q How much Choctaw blood as your mother? A I don't know.
- Q Through which one of her parents did she get her Choctaw blood? A Mother.
- Q What was her name? A Elisabeth Lantrip.
- Q Is your mother any relation to Miles G. Lantrip? A Yes, sir.
- Q What? A Full sister.
- Q What relation are you to Andy Brasher, who just appeared before the Commission? A Full brother.
- Q Are you married? A No, sir.
- Q This application, then, is for yourself only, is it? A Yes, sir.
- Q Is your name on any of the Choctaw tribal rolls in Indian Territory? A No, sir.
- Q Has any application ever been made of any description before to-day, looking to the establishment of your rights as a Choctaw Indian? A No, sir.
- Q This is the first application of any kind ever made for you? A Yes, sir.
- Q Do you appear before the Commission at this time for the purpose of claiming rights in the Choctaw lands in Indian Territory under article 14 of the treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek? A Yes, sir.
- Q Do you understand article 14 of the treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek? A Yes, sir.
- Q You have heard it explained this morning to your uncle, Miles G. Lantrip? A Yes, sir.
- Q Did any of your ancestors ever comply or attempt to comply with the provisions of this 14th article of the treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek, or ever receive any benefits thereunder? A Not as I know of.
- Q Did any of them own an improvement here in the old Choctaw Nation in Mississippi and Alabama, in 1830, when this treaty was made?

Robert L. Brasher, 2.

A I don't know.

Q Did any of them live here in the old Choctaw Nation at that time? A I don't know, sir, whether they did or not.

Q Did any of your ancestors remove from the old Choctaw Nation out west of the Mississippi at the time of the removal of the greater portion of the Choctaw tribe of Indians between the years 1833 and 1838? A Not that I know of.

Q Did any of them, within six months after the treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek was ratified, let the agent of the Government here in Mississippi for the Choctaws know they wanted to stay here and become citizens of the States and take land? A Not that I know of.

Q Did any of them ever claim or receive any land here in Mississippi from the Government of the United States under article 14 of the treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek? A I don't know, sir.

Q Or under any other provision in that treaty? A No, sir, I suppose not.

Q Did any of them ever get any money from the Government? A No, sir, I suppose not.

Q You heard my explanation to your uncle, Miles G. Lantrip as to the causes which brought about the enactment of certain laws by Congress between the years 1837 and 1842, and the provisions of those laws? A Yes, sir.

Q Did any of your ancestors appear before any of those commissions appointed under these Acts of Congress and attempt to establish their rights as under article 14 of the treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek?

A Not as I know of.

Q Did any of them ever get any scrip from the Government of the United States under the Act of Congress approved August 23, 1842?

A I don't know, sir.

Q Did any of your people ever receive any benefits whatever as Choctaw Indians to your knowledge? A No, sir.

Q Do you know of any old person living who would likely know whether any of your ancestors ever complied or attempted to comply with the provisions of article 14 of the treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek, or ever received any benefits thereunder? A No, sir.

Q Do you know of any written evidence of any kind which would show or tend to show such a state of facts? A No, sir.

Q Have you any written evidence to offer at this time? A No, sir.

Q Have you any witnesses here to-day? A No, sir, no more than Mr. McComie and Mr. Murphy, who have testified in my uncle's case.

Q

If you should find any other witnesses whose testimony you desire to have taken by the Commission in support of your application, they may appear before the Commission at any time before the 15th of this month, at Meridian, Mississippi, or within a reasonable time thereafter, at the General Office of the Commission, in Muskogee, Indian Territory, and their testimony will be taken.

Q Any further statements you want to make at this time? A No, sir.

Q You don't speak or understand the Choctaw language, do you?

A No, sir.

Q Does your mother? A No, sir, I don't suppose she does.

(This applicant has the appearance of being a white man, and shows no indication of being possessed of Indian blood. He does not speak or understand the Choctaw language. He has light hair, light complexion, and light eyes.)

Robert L. Braasher, et al., 3.

R. S. Streit, having been first duly sworn, upon his oath states that as stenographer to the Commission, to the Five Civilized Tribes, he reported in full all proceedings had in the above entitled cause at Meridian, Mississippi, on the 12th day of February, 1902, and that the above and foregoing is a full, true and correct translation of his stenographic notes of said proceedings in said cause upon said date.

Subscribed and sworn to before me at Philadelphia, Mississippi, this 3rd day of March, 1902.

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR
COMMISSION TO THE FIVE CIVILIZED TRIBES,
Meridian, Mississippi, February 12th, 1902.

In the matter of the application of Albert Collums for the identification of himself alone as a Mississippi Choctaw.

Said Albert Collums, being first duly sworn, testified as follows:-

Examination by the Commission.

- Q What is your name? A Albert Collums.
Q How old are you? A Twenty-one years old.
Q How much Choctaw blood have you? A I don't know.
Q Haven't you any idea? A No sir, I have no idea.
Q Do you know, in fact, that you have any? A No sir, I don't know as I do.
Q What makes you think you have? A I have been taught it.
Q Didn't they teach you how much you had? A No sir.
Q What's your postoffice address? A Pitts, Mississippi.
Q What County? A Calhoun.
Q How long have you lived in Calhoun County? A All my life.
Q Is your father living? A Yes sir.
Q What's his name? A Obediah Collums.
Q Is your mother living? A Yes sir.
Q What's her name? A Jane Collums.
Q Through which one of your parents do you get your Choctaw blood? A My father.
Q Has he ever been before the Commission? A No sir.
Q Where does he live? A He lives in Calhoun County.
Q Do you know how much Choctaw blood he has? A No sir.
Q How long has he lived in Calhoun County? A I don't know-I have no idea how long.
Q Do you know any other place he has ever lived? A No sir.
Q Through which one of his parents did he get his Choctaw blood? A His mother..
Q What was her name? A Mandy Collums.
Q Through which one of her parents did she get her Choctaw blood? A I don't know.
Q Do you know what her father's name was? A No sir, I don't.
Q What relation is your father to Miles G. Lantrip who appeared before the Commission this morning? A Cousin.
Q First cousin? A I don't know.
Q You don't know what relation their mothers were? A No sir.
Q Did you ever hear of any of your people living anywhere except in Calhoun County? A No sir.
Q Are you married? A No sir.
Q This application, then, is for yourself only, is it? A Yes sir.
Q Is your name on any of the Choctaw Tribal rolls in Indian Territory? A No sir.
Q Has any application of any description ever been made for you before today looking to the establishment of your rights as a Choctaw Indian? A No sir.
Q Do you appear before the Commission at this time for the purpose of claiming rights in the Choctaw lands in Indian Territory under article 14 of the treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek? A Yes sir.
Q You understand that 14th article of the treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek, do you not? A Yes sir, I think I do.

- Q You heard it explained fully to Miles G. Lantrip? A yes sir.
- Q Did any of your ancestors ever comply or attempt to comply with the provisions of this 14th article or ever receive any benefits thereunder? A No sir.
- Q Did any of them own an improvement here in the old Choctaw Nation in Mississippi and Alabama in the year 1830 when this treaty was made? A I don't know.
- Q Did any of them live here at that time? A I don't know whether they did or not.
- Q Did any of them move to the new Choctaw Nation in Indian Territory at the time of the removal of the greater portion of the Choctaw Tribe of Indians between the years 1833 and 1838? A Not that I know of.
- Q Did any of them within six months after the treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek was ratified let the Agent of the Government here in Mississippi, for the Choctaws, know they they wanted to stay here in Mississippi and become citizens of the States and take land? A No sir, I reckon not.
- Q Did any of them ever claim or receive any land here in Mississippi from the Government under article 14 of the treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek? A No sir, I reckon not.
- Q Did any of them ever get any land in Mississippi from the Government to your knowledge? A No sir.
- Q Did any of them ever get any money from the Government? A Not that I know of.
- Q You heard me explain to Mr. Lantrip this morning the causes which brought about certain acts of Congress approved between the years 1837 and 1842 and their provisions, didn't you? A Yes sir.
- Q Did any of your ancestors appear before any of these Commissioners appointed under these acts of Congress and attempt to establish their rights under article 14 of the treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek? A I don't know, sir.
- Q Did any of them ever get any scrip from the Government under the act of Congress approved August 23, 1842? A Not that I know anything about.
- Q Do you know of any old persons living who would likely know whether any of your ancestors ever complied or attempted to comply with the provisions of article 14 of the treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek or ever received any benefits thereunder? A None except the two witnesses who testified in Mr. Lantrip's case this morning, Mr. Murphy and Mr. McComic.
- Q Have you any written evidence of any kind which would prove or tend to prove that any of your ancestors ever complied or attempted to comply with the provisions of article 14 of the treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek or ever received any benefits under that article? A No sir, I have not.
- Q Have you any written evidence to offer at this time? A No sir.
- Q Any witnesses? A No sir.

If you should find any witnesses whose testimony you desire to have taken before the Commission they may appear before us here at Meridian between now and the 16th of this month or within a reasonable time thereafter at Muskegee, Indian Territory, and their testimony will be taken.

Albert Collins--3

- Q Are there any further statements you want to make at this time?
A No sir, I believe not.
Q What relation are you to Ada Brasher, the wife of Andy Brasher?
A A full brother.
Q How many brothers have you living? A Just one.
Q What's his name? A Elmer.
Q Have you any other sisters living? A Yes sir, I've got one.
Q What's her name? A Dottie.
Q Is she married? A No sir.
Q You don't speak or understand the Choctaw language, do you? A No sir.

This applicant has light hair-light complexion and light eyes-shows no indications of being possessed of Indian blood-his features are not those of an Indian-he does not speak or understand the Choctaw language.

Ira S. Niles, being first duly sworn, states that as stenographer to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes, he reported in full all proceedings had in the above entitled cause, heard at Meridian, Mississippi, February 12th, 1902, and that the above and foregoing is a full, true and correct transcript of his stenographic notes taken in said proceedings on said date.

Subscribed and sworn to before me this the 4th day of March, 1902, at Philadelphia, Mississippi.

These applications were made under the provision of the act of Congress of June 28, 1898 (30 Stats., 495), which is as follows:

"Said Commission shall have authority to determine the identity of Choctaw Indians claiming rights in the Choctaw lands under article fourteen of the treaty between the United States and the Choctaw Nation, concluded September twenty-seventh, eighteen hundred and thirty, and to that end may administer oaths, examine witnesses and perform all other acts necessary thereto, and make report to the Secretary of the Interior."

Said decision concludes as follows:

"It is therefore the opinion of this Commission that the evidence herein is insufficient to determine the identity of Scott S. Dumas, Ruth Dumas, Miles G. Lantrip, Mary P. Phillips, Early E. DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR,
COMMISSION TO THE FIVE CIVILIZED TRIBES,
Meridian, Mississippi, February 12th, 1902.

In the matter of the application of James S. Collums for the identification of himself alone as a Mississippi Choctaw.

Said James S. Collums, being first duly sworn, testified as follows:-

Examination by the Commission.

- Q What is your name? A James S. Collums.
Q How old are you? A Twenty-six years old.
Q How much Choctaw blood have you? A I don't know, sir.
Q Have you any idea? A No sir.
Q Didn't you ever hear how much you had? A No sir.
Q What is your postoffice address? A Pitts.
Q What County? A Calhoun County.
Q How long have you lived in Calhoun County, Mississippi? A I was born and raised there.
Q Is your father living? A yes sir.
Q What's his name? A Henry Collums/
Q Is your mother living? A yes sir.
Q What's her name? A Catherine.
Q Through which one of your parents do you get your Choctaw blood?
A My daddy.
Q Has he been before the Commission? A No sir.
Q Where does he live? A He lives in Calhoun.
Q About how old is he? A He will be sixty-five years old next August.
Q Are your father and mother living together? A yes sir.
Q How long have they been married? A I expect about thirty-five years.

It will be necessary for you to furnish the Commission with proper evidence of the marriage of your father and mother for use in connection with this application.

- Q Your father got his Choctaw blood through which one of his parents? A His mother.
Q What was her name? A Mandy Collums.
Q What was her maiden name? A That's all I ever knew-she was a Brasher before she married.
Q Do you know what her father's name was? A Col. Brasher.
Q What was his first name? A I don't recollect.
Q What relation is your father to Obediah Collums? A Brothers.
Q Full brothers? A Yes sir.
Q How long has your father lived up there in Calhoun County? A He's been living there about forty-five or fifty years.
Q Where did he live before he went there? A I think they come from Alabama.
Q What part of Alabama? A I don't recollect now.
Q What relation is your father to Miles G. Lantrip who appeared before the Commission this morning? A Cousin.
Q First cousin? A I think so.

James S. Collins--2

- Q Their mother's were sisters, were they? A Yes sir.
- Q Are you married? A No sir.
- Q This application, then, is for yourself only? A Yes sir.
- Q Is your name on any of the Choctaw Tribal rolls in Indian Territory? A No sir.
- Q Has any application ever been made before today looking to the establishment of your rights as a Choctaw Indian? A No sir.
- Q Do you appear before the Commission at this time for the purpose of claiming rights in the Choctaw lands in Indian Territory under article 14 of the treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek? A Yes sir.
- Q You understand that 14th article, do you not? A Yes sir.
- Q Did any of your ancestors ever comply or attempt to comply with the provisions of article 14 of the treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek or ever receive any benefits thereunder? A I don't know.
- Q Did any of them own an improvement here in the old Choctaw Nation in Mississippi and Alabama in the year 1830 when this treaty was made? A I don't know, sir.
- Q Did any of them live here in the old Choctaw Nation at that time? A I don't know whether they did or not.
- Q Did any of them remove to the new Choctaw Nation in Indian Territory at the time of the removal of the greater portion of the Choctaw Tribe of Indians between the years 1833 and 1838? A I don't know.
- Q Did any of them within six months after the treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek was ratified let the Agent of the Government here in Mississippi, for the Choctaws, know that they wanted to stay here in Mississippi and become citizens of the States and take land? A I don't know.
- Q Did any of them ever claim or receive any land here in Mississippi from the Government of the United States under article 14 of the treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek? A I don't know, sir.
- Q Did any of them ever get any land here in Mississippi from the Government to your knowledge? A No sir.
- Q Or any money? A No sir.
- Q You heard the explanation made to Miles G. Lantrip as to the causes which brought about certain acts of Congress between the years 1837 and 1842 and the provisions of those acts of Congress, did you not? A Yes sir.
- Q Did any of your ancestors appear before any of these Commissioners appointed under these acts of Congress and attempt to establish their rights under article 14 of the treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek? A I don't know.
- Q Did any of them get any scrip from the Government of the United States under the act of Congress approved August 23, 1842? A Not that I know of.
- Q As far as you know, then, none of your ancestors ever received any benefits whatever as Choctaw Indians? A No sir.
- Q Do you know any old person living who would likely know whether any of your ancestors ever complied or attempted to comply with the provisions of article 14 of the treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek or ever received any benefits thereunder? A No sir, I do not.
- Q Do you know of any written evidence of any description which would show or tend to show such a state of facts? A No sir, I don't.
- Q Have you any written evidence to offer at this time? A No sir.
- Q Have you any witnesses here today? A None except the two witnesses who testified in the case of Miles G. Lantrip.

James S. Collums--3

If you should find any other witnesses whose testimony you desire to have taken before the Commission they may appear before us here at Meridian between now and the 15th of this month or within a reasonable time thereafter at Muskogee, Indian Territory, and their testimony will be taken.

- Q Are there any further statements you want to make at this time?
A No sir.
Q Have you any brothers living? A yes sir, two.
Q What are their names? A Barry and Andrew Collums.
Q Are they of age? A yes sir.
Q Have they been before the Commission? A No sir.
Q Do they live in Calhoun County? A Yes sir.
Q Have you any sisters living? A yes sir.
Q How many? A Four.
Q What are their names? A Alice.
Q Is she married? A yes sir.
Q What's her married name? A Alice Brasher.
Q Next one? A Annie Crooker.
Q Next one? A Hattie Collums.
Q Next one? A Dessie Collums, the last two aren't married.
Q Have you any brothers or sisters dead who left children? A No sir.
Q Do you speak or understand the Choctaw language? A No sir.

This applicant has light hair-light complexion and light eyes-shows no indications whatever of being possessed of Indian blood. He does not speak or understand the Choctaw language.

Ira S. Niles, being first duly sworn, states that as stenographer to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes he reported in full all proceedings had in the above entitled cause, heard at Meridian, Mississippi, February 12th, 1902, and that the above and foregoing is a full, true and correct transcript of his stenographic notes taken in said proceedings on said date.

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR,
COMMISSION TO THE FIVE CIVILIZED TRIBES,
Meridian, Mississippi, February 12th, 1902.

In the matter of the application of Ada Nichols for the identification of herself alone as a Mississippi Choctaw.

Said Ada Nichols, being first duly sworn, testified as follows:-

Examination by the Commission.

- Q What's your name? A Ada Nichols.
- Q How old are you? A Twenty-four.
- Q How much Choctaw blood have you? A My father has a quarter.
- Q Has your mother any? A No sir.
- Q That would make you an eighth? A Yes sir.
- Q What's your postoffice address? A Wynot, Mississippi.
- Q What County? A Lauderdale.
- Q How long have you lived in Lauderdale County? A All my life.
- Q Is your father living? A Yes sir.
- Q What's his name? A Col. Nichols.
- Q Has he any middle initial? A Yes sir, "T".
- Q Is your mother living? A Yes sir.
- Q What's her name? A Martha.
- Q You claim to get your Choctaw blood solely through your father?
- A Yes sir.
- Q Your father has been before the Commission here this month, has he not? A Yes sir, he was here last week.
- Q How long has your father living in this County? A Pretty well all his life.
- Q Where did he live before he came here? A He was raised here- he was in Choctaw County a few years.
- Q Choctaw County, Alabama? A Yes sir.
- Q About how old is your father? A About sixty-six.
- Q Are you married? A No sir.
- Q This application, then, is for yourself only? A Yes sir.
- Q Is your name on any of the Choctaw Tribal rolls in Indian Territory? A No sir.
- Q Did you ever make application to either the Choctaw Tribal authorities or the United States authorities to be admitted or enrolled as a member of that Tribe? A No sir.
- Q This, then, is the first application of any kind that has ever been made for you for the purpose of establishing your rights as a Choctaw? A Yes sir.
- Q Do you appear before the Commission at this time for the purpose of claiming rights in the Choctaw lands in Indian Territory under article 14 of the treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek? A Yes sir.
- Q Do you understand article 14 of the treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek?
- A No sir.

This treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek was entered into here in Mississippi on the 27th day of September, 1830, between the United States Government and the Choctaw Tribe of Indians. At the time the treaty was made the Choctaws lived here in Mississippi and along the western edge of the State of Alabama. The object of the treaty was to get those Indians to move from the country occupied by them here in Mississippi and Alabama to the new country west of the Mississippi River, part of which is now occupied by the greater portion of the Choctaw Tribe of Indians and is commonly known as the Choctaw Nation Indian Territory. At the time the treaty was made some of the Indians were unwilling to leave this country and for the benefit of those who wanted to stay here what is known as the 14th article was put in the treaty. That 14th article provided that upon certain conditions a Choctaw who wanted to stay here in Mississippi and not move out west with the Tribe might receive land here in Mississippi from the Government. It is as follows:-

"Each Choctaw head of a family being desirous to remain and become a citizen of the States shall be permitted to do so by signifying his intention to the Agent within six months from the ratification of this treaty and he or she shall thereupon be entitled to a reservation of one section of six hundred and forty acres of land, to be bounded by sectional lines of survey; in like manner shall be entitled to one half that quantity for each unmarried child which is living with him over ten years of age; and a quarter section to such child as may be under ten years of age, to adjoin the location of the parent. If they reside upon said land, intending to become citizens of the States, for five years after the ratification of this treaty, in that case a grant in fee simple shall issue; said reservation shall include the present improvement of the head of the family or a portion of it. Persons who claim under this article shall not lose the privilege of a Choctaw citizen but if they ever remove are not to be entitled to any portion of the Choctaw annuity."

Q I have quoted to you the 14th article of the treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek. Do you think you understand it? A Yes sir.

Q Did any of your ancestors ever comply or attempt to comply with the provisions of article 14 of the treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek or ever receive any benefits thereunder? A Not that I know of.

Q Did any of them own an improvement here in the old Choctaw Nation in Mississippi and Alabama in the year 1830 when this treaty was made? A I do not know.

Q Did any of them, in fact, live here 71 years ago when the treaty was made? A I don't know.

Q Did any of your ancestors-your Choctaw ancestors-remove out to the new nation west of the Mississippi River at the time of the removal of the greater portion of the Choctaw Tribe of Indians between the years 1833 and 1838? A I don't know.

Q Did any of them within six months after the treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek was ratified let the Agent of the Government here in Mississippi, for the Choctaws, know that they wanted to stay here and become citizens of the States and take land? A I don't know.

Q Did any of them ever get any land from the Government here in Mississippi under article 14 of the treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek? A I don't know.

Q Did any of them ever get any land under any other article of that treaty or under the supplement to it? A I don't know.

Ada Nichols---3

Q So far as you know, then, none of your ancestors ever got any land from the Government? A No sir.

Q Did any of them ever get any money from the Government? A No sir.

In accordance with the provisions of article 14 of the treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek the Government of the United States directed an Agent here in Mississippi to register the names of such Choctaws as might desire to remain here and become citizens of the States and take land. The records of the Government show that this Agent failed to register and report to the Government the names of many Choctaws who did in fact let him know that they wanted to stay here and become citizens of the States and take land and on this account the Government, at its public land sales here in Mississippi, in many instances sold land upon which Choctaws lived and had improvements and which they supposed they would receive under article 14 of the treaty. This caused a great deal of complaint among the Indians and the matter was finally brought to the attention of Congress and Congress passed certain acts between the years 1837 and 1842 providing for the appointment of Commissions to come down here to Mississippi and hear the cases of Choctaws who claimed that they had complied in all respects with the provisions of article 14 of the treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek but that their land had been sold by the Government. These Commissioners were appointed by the President of the United States and the Commissioners came down here to Mississippi between the years 1837 and 1846 and heard a great many of these Choctaw cases.

Q Did any of your ancestors appear before any of these Commissioners and attempt to establish their rights under article 14 of the treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek? A Not that I know of.

An act of Congress approved August 23, 1842, provided that in case it should be finally determined that a Choctaw had complied in all respects with the provisions of article 14 of the treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek but that his land had been sold by the Government, he should be entitled to select, in the place of the land so sold by the Government, land some place else in Mississippi, or in Alabama, Louisiana or Arkansas, from vacant Government land, and should be given a certificate to that effect. These certificates were called scrip.

Q Did any of your ancestors ever get any of this scrip from the Government of the United States under this act of Congress? A Not that I know of.

Q Do you know of any old person living who would likely know whether any of your ancestors ever complied or attempted to comply with the provisions of article 14 of the treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek or ever received any benefits thereunder? A I do not.

Ada Nichols--4

Q Do you know of any written evidence of any description which would prove or tend to prove such a state of facts? A No sir.

Q Have you any written evidence of any kind to offer at this time? A No sir.

Q Have you any witnesses here at this time? A No sir.

If you should find any witnesses whose testimony you desire to have taken before the Commission they may appear before us here at Meridian at any time prior to the 15th of this month or within a reasonable time thereafter at Muskogee, Indian Territory, and their testimony will be taken.

Q Are there any further statements you want to make at this time? A No sir.

Q What are the names of some of your brothers and sisters? A Florence Perry, Albie Martin.

Q Next one? A Emma Nichols-she isn't married.

Q Is that all your sisters? A I have some small ~~tax~~ sisters.

Q What are the names of your brothers? A Bob Nichols, Barry Nichols, Ed Nichols and Elbert Nichols.

Q They have been before the Commission, have they? A I think all have except Elbert.

Q Your father made application in behalf of the young one, did he not? A I think so.

Q Do you speak or understand the Choctaw language? A No sir.

This applicant has the appearance of being a white woman-shows no indications of being possessed of Indian blood-she has dark hair-dark eyes and fair complexion-she does not speak or understand the Choctaw language.

Ira S. Niles, being first duly sworn, states that as stenographer to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes he reported in full all proceedings had in the above entitled cause, heard at Meridian, Mississippi, February 12th, 1902, and that the above and foregoing is a full, true and correct transcript of his stenographic notes taken in said proceedings on said date.

Subscribed and sworn to before me this the 4th day of March, 1902, at Philadelphia, Mississippi.

Clerk U.S. Circuit Court, Southern District of Mississippi.

Ada Nichols,

Whynot, Mississippi.

Dear Madam:

You are hereby advised that on the 15th day of July, 1902, the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes rendered a decision in the consolidated case of Colonel T. Nichols, et al., embracing the following applications for identification as Mississippi Choctaws:

Colonel T. Nichols, et al.,	M C R 4589
Berry A. Nichols,	" 4634
Edward R. Nichols,	" 4635
Robert W. Nichols, et al.,	" 4636
Florence Perry et al.,	" 4637
Martha A. Martin, et al.,	" 4638
Ada Nichols,	" 4745

These applications were made under the provision of the act of Congress of June 23, 1898 (30 Stats., 495) which is as follows:

"Said Commission shall have authority to determine the identity of Choctaw Indians claiming rights in the Choctaw lands under article fourteen of the treaty between the United States and the Choctaw Nation, concluded September twenty-seventh, eighteen hundred and thirty, and to that end may administer oaths, examine witnesses and perform all other acts necessary thereto, and make report to the Secretary of the Interior."

Said decision concludes as follows:

"It is therefore the opinion of this Commission that the evidence herein is insufficient to determine the identity of

Colonel T. Nichols, Emma Nichols, Elbert Nichols, Essie Nichols,
Melton Nichols, Nellie May Nichols, Sara Nichols, Berry
A. Nichols, Edward N. Nichols, Robert V. Nichols, Maggie N.
Nichols, Walter P. Nichols, Nellie Nichols, Ogie Lee Nichols,
Eva May Nichols, Florence Perry, Esther Perry, Arthur Perry, Lemmie Perry, Freddie Perry, Dallas Perry, Vivian Perry, Martha A. Martin, Kate Martin, Carl Martin, Clifton Martin, Mira Martin and Mia Nichols as Choctaw Indians, entitled to rights in the Choctaw Lands under the provisions of said article fourteen of the treaty of 1830, and that the applications for their identification as such should be refused and it is so ordered."

You are further advised that the Commission has on this date forwarded the record in this case to the Secretary of the Interior for review and you will be informed in due time of such action as may be taken by him.

Yours truly,

Meridian, Mississippi, February 12th, 1902.

In the matter of the application of Lemella Martin for the identification of herself and one minor child, Henry Allen, as Mississippi Choctaws.

APPEARANCES: S.A. Beadle, Attorney for applicant,
A.W. Jones, Agent for applicant.

Said Lemella Martin, being first duly sworn, testified as follows:-

Examination by the Commission.

- Q What's your name? A Lemella Martin.
Q How old are you? A Twenty-nine.
Q How much Choctaw blood have you? A About three fourths I guess- my father claimed to be a full blood.
Q What is your postoffice address? A Winona, Mississippi.
Q What County? A Montgomery.
Q How long have you lived there? A Been there seven years and four months the third of March.
Q Where did you live before that? A In Jackson, Mississippi.
Q How long there? A Ten years.
Q Where did you live before that? A In Yazoo City-I was born there.
Q You lived there until you went to Jackson? A Yes sir, I went to Jackson when I was ten or eleven years old.
Q Is your father living? A No sir.
Q What was his name? A Manuel Stevens.
Q Is your mother living? A Yes sir.
Q What's her name? A Anna E. Stevens.
Q How much Choctaw blood do you claim your father had? A He claimed to be full blood Indian.
Q Are you sure he was a full blood Choctaw? A That's what he claimed to be-he looked just like the rest of the Indians and talked like the rest.
Q How long has he been dead? A Two years the 25th of April next.
Q How much Choctaw blood has your mother? A About a quarter I suppose.
Q Is she the Anna E. Stevens who just appeared before the Commission before you did? A Yes sir.
Q Has your father lived in Mississippi all his life? A Yes sir.
Q Has your mother? A Yes sir, ever since I can remember. My father says he was born and raised in Seatt County.
Q Are you married? A Yes sir.
Q How many times have you been married? A Twice.
Q What was the name of your first husband? A Hardy Allen.
Q Did he have any Choctaw blood? A No sir.
Q What's the name of your present husband? A Charley Martin.
Q Is Hardy Allen living? A Yes sir.
Q Were you married to him under a license? A Yes sir.
Q Have you any children by your present husband? A No sir.
Q You make no claim for your present husband? A No sir.
Q How many children have you living? A Never had but one.
Q What is that child's name? A Henry Allen.
Q How old is he? A He will be seven years old the 30th of March.

- Q Is he the child of yourself and Hardy Allen? A Yes sir.
- Q He gets his Choctaw blood, then, solely through you? A Yes sir.
- Q This application is for yourself and one child? A Yes sir.
- Q Is your name on any of the Choctaw Tribal rolls in Indian Territory? A No sir.
- Q Has any application of any description ever been made before today for yourself or this child looking to the establishment of your rights as Choctaw Indians? A No sir.
- Q Do you appear before the Commission at this time for the purpose of claiming rights in the Choctaw lands in Indian Territory for yourself and child under article 14 of the treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek? A Yes sir.
- Q Do you understand this 14th article of the treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek? A Yes sir.
- Q Did any of your ancestors ever comply or attempt to comply with the provisions of that 14th article of the treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek or ever receive any benefits under it? A I don't know.
- Q Did any of them own an improvement here in the old Choctaw Nation in Mississippi and Alabama in the year 1830 when this treaty was made? A I don't know.
- Q Did any of them live here at that time, as a matter of fact? A Yes sir, I guess so—they were born and raised here.
- Q What one of your ancestors was living here 71 years ago? A My father, I suppose— I don't know. He said his mother was an Indian and his father was an Indian Chief.
- Q Do you know the names of your father's father and mother? A No sir.
- Q Did any of your ancestors move out to the new nation when the greater portion of the Choctaw Tribe moved out there between the years 1833 and 1838? A No sir.
- Q Did any of them within six months after the treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek was ratified let the Agent of the Government here in Mississippi, for the Choctaws, know that they wanted to stay here in Mississippi and become citizens of the States and take land? A I don't know.
- Q Did any of them ever claim or receive any land here in Mississippi from the Government under article 14 of the treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek? A I don't know.
- Q Or under any other article of the treaty or under the supplement? A I don't know about it.
- Q Did any of them ever get any money from the Government? A No sir, not as I know of.
- Q You heard me explain to your mother the causes which brought about certain acts of Congress between the years 1837 and 1842, and their provisions? A Yes sir.
- Q Did any of your ancestors appear before any of the Commissioners appointed under those acts of Congress and attempt to establish their rights under article 14 of the Treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek? A Not as I know of.
- Q Did any of them ever get any scrip from the Government under the act of Congress approved August 23, 1842? A Not as I know of.
- Q So far as you know, then, none of your ancestors ever received any benefits whatever as Choctaw Indians? A No sir.
- Q Do you know of any old persons living who would likely know whether any of your ancestors ever complied or attempted to comply with the provisions of article 14 of the treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek

Lemella Martin et al---3

- or ever received any benefits thereunder? A No sir.
- Q Do you know of any written evidence of any description which would prove or tend to prove such a state of facts? A No sir.
- Q Have you any written evidence to offer at this time? A No sir.
- Q Have you any witnesses here today? A Yes sir, I have one.
- Q What's his name? A Tom Harvey.
- Q What do you expect to prove by him? A Prove that my father was an Indian.
- Q What else? A That he knew my mother's mother-that she had Indian in her.
- Q Is that all? A Yes sir.

If you should find any other witnesses whose testimony you desire to have taken before the Commission, they may appear before us here between now and the 15th of this month or within a reasonable time thereafter at Muskogee, Indian Territory, and their testimony will be taken.

- Q Have you any further statements to make at this time in support of your application? A No sir.
- Q Do you speak or understand the Choctaw language? A No sir.
- Q Have you any brothers living? A Yes sir.
- Q How many? A Two.
- Q What are their names? A Manuel and Nathaniel.
- Q Have you any sisters living? A Yes sir.
- Q How many? A Two.
- Q What are their names? A The oldest is named Dorsey Jackson.
- Q Next one? A Lottie Ball.
- Q Have any of your brothers and sisters been before the Commission? A No sir.

This applicant has the appearance of being possessed of a mixture of negro and either Indian or white blood-the negro blood largely predominates-her hair is black and almost straight-she does not speak or understand the Choctaw language.

Ira S. Niles, being first duly sworn, states that as stenographer to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes, he reported in full all proceedings had in the above entitled cause, heard at Meridian, Mississippi, February 12th, 1902, and that the above and foregoing is a full, true and correct transcript of his stenographic notes taken in said proceedings on said date.

Subscribed and sworn to before me this the 5th day of March, 1902,

Muskogee, Indian Territory, October 26, 1902.

Lemella Martin,
Winona, Mississippi.

Dear Madam:

You are hereby advised that on the 28th day of October, 1902, the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes rendered a decision in the consolidated case of Anna E. Stevens, et al., embracing the following applications for identification as Mississippi Choctaws:

Anna E. Stevens, et al., M.C.R. 4747
Lemella Martin, et al., M.C.R. 4746

These applications were made under the provision of the act of Congress of June 28, 1898, (30 Stat., 493) which is as follows:

"Said Commission shall have authority to determine the identity of Choctaw Indians claiming rights in the Choctaw lands under article fourteen of the treaty between the United States and the Choctaw nation, concluded September twenty-seventh, eighteen hundred and thirty, and to that end may administer oaths, examine witnesses and perform all other acts necessary thereto, and make report to the Secretary of the Interior."

Said decision concludes as follows:

"It is therefore the opinion of this Commission that the evidence herein is insufficient to determine the identity of Anna E. Stevens, Nathaniel Stevens, Lemella Martin and Henry Allen, as Choctaw Indians entitled to rights in the Choctaw lands under the provisions of said article fourteen of the treaty of eighteen hundred and thirty, and that the applications for their identification as such should be refused, and it is so ordered."

L.M.--2

You are further advised that you will be allowed fifteen days from the date hereof within which to file arguments in this office, and that at the expiration of said time the papers in the case, together with such arguments, will be forwarded for review to the Secretary of the Interior through the Commissioner of Indian Affairs.

Respectfully,

James Dixby.

It will be necessary for you to furnish the Commission with proper evidence of the marriage of yourself and Manuel Stevens for use in connection with the application you make in behalf of ~~these~~ minor child and also for use in connection with the applications which may be made by any of your children who are of age. This should be furnished within thirty days from this date.

- Q Is your name or the name of this child on any of the Choctaw Tribal rolls in Indian Territory? A I don't know, sir.
Q Have you ever made any application of any description before today for the purpose of establishing the rights of yourself and this child as Choctaw Indians? A No sir.
Q This is the ~~xx~~ first application of any kind that has ever been made for you? A yes sir.
Q Do you appear before the Commission at this time for the purpose of claiming rights in the Choctaw lands in Indian Territory for yourself and minor child~~x~~ under article 14 of the treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek? A yes sir.
Q Do you understand article 14 of the treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek? A ~~xxx xxx~~ No sir, I don't understand it.

This treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek was entered into here in Mississippi on the 27th day of September, 1830, -over 71 years ago-between the United States Government and the Choctaw Tribe of Indians. At the time this treaty was made the Choctaws lived here in Mississippi and along the western edge of the State of Alabama. The object of the treaty was to get these Indians to move from the country occupied by them here in Mississippi and Alabama to a new country west of the Mississippi River, part of which is now occupied by the greater portion of the Choctaw Tribe of Indians and is commonly known as the Choctaw Nation Indian Territory. At the time the treaty was made some of the Indians were unwilling to leave this country and for the benefit of those who wanted to stay here what is known as the 14th article was put in the treaty. That 14th article provided that upon certain conditions a Choctaw who wanted to stay here in Mississippi might receive land here in Mississippi from the Government. It is as follows:-

"Each Choctaw head of a family being desirous to remain and become a citizen of the States shall be permitted to do so by signifying his intention to the Agent within six months from the ratification of this treaty and he or she shall thereupon be entitled to a reservation of one section of six hundred and forty acres of land, to be bounded by sectional lines of survey; in like manner shall be entitled to one half that quantity for each unmarried child which is living with him over ten years of age; and a quarter section to such child as may be under ten years of age, to adjoin the location of the parent. If they reside upon said land, intending to become citizens of the States, for five years after the ratification of this treaty, in that case a grant in fee simple shall issue; said reservation shall include the present improvement of the head of the family or a portion of it. Persons who claim under this article shall not lose the privilege of a Choctaw citizen but if they ever remove are not to be entitled to any portion of the Choctaw annuity."

Q Do you think you understand that 14th article now? A Yes sir, I reckon so.

Q Did any of your ancestors ever comply or attempt to comply with the provisions of this 14th article or ever receive any benefits under it? A No sir.

Q Did any of them own an improvement here in the old Choctaw Nation here in Mississippi and Alabama in the year 1830 when this treaty was made? A I don't know, sir.

Q Did any of them live here in the old Choctaw Nation in Mississippi and Alabama at that time? A I don't know, sir.

Q Do you know whether any of your husband's ancestors ever complied with this treaty provision or ever received any benefits under it? A I don't know, sir-his people were amongst the Choctaws-I don't know.

Q You don't know whether any of them ever owned an improvement here at that time or ~~ask~~ whether they lived there at that time? A Yes sir, they lived here.

Q 71 years ago? A Yes sir, because he was born here and died here.

Q You don't know the name of a single one of his ancestors, do you? A No sir.

Q Did any of your ancestors or any of your husband's ancestors remove out to the new nation west of the Mississippi River at the time of the removal of the greater portion of the Choctaw Tribe of Indians between the years 1833 and 1836? A Not as I know of.

Q Did any of them within six months after the treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek was ratified let the Agent of the Government here in Mississippi, for the Choctaws, know that they wanted to stay here in Mississippi and become citizens of the States and take land? A I don't know, sir.

Q Did any of them ever claim or receive any land here in Mississippi from the Government of the United States under article 14 of the treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek? A No sir, not as I know of.

Q Did any of them ever get any land here in Mississippi from the Government to your knowledge? A No sir.

Q Did any of them ever get any money from the Government? A No sir.

In accordance with the provisions of article 14 of the treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek the Government of the United States directed an Agent here in Mississippi to register the names of such Choctaws as might desire to remain here and become citizens of the States and take land.

The records of the Government show that this Agent failed to register and report to the Government the names of many Indians who did in fact let him know that they wanted to stay here and become citizens and take land and on this account the Government, at its public land sales here in Mississippi, in many instances sold land upon which Choctaws lived and had improvements and which they supposed they would receive under article 14 of the treaty. This caused a great deal of complaint among the Indians and the matter was finally brought to the attention of Congress and Congress passed certain acts between the years 1837 and 1842 providing for the appointment of Commissions to come down here to Mississippi and hear the cases of Choctaws who claimed that they were entitled to land under article 14 of the treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek but that their land had been sold by the Government. These Commissioners were appointed by the President of the United States and they came down here to Mississippi between the years 1837 and 1845 and heard a great many of these Choctaw cases.

Q Did any of your ancestors or any of your husband's ancestors appear before any of these Commissioners and attempt to establish their rights under article 14 of the treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek?
A Not to my knowing.

An act of Congress approved August 23, 1842, provided that in case it should be finally determined that a Choctaw had complied in all respects with the provisions of article 14 of the treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek but that his land had been sold by the Government, he should be entitled to select in place of that land so sold by the Government, land some place else in Mississippi or in Alabama, Louisiana or Arkansas, from vacant Government land and should be given a certificate to that effect. These certificates were called scrip.

Q Did any of your ancestors or any of your husband's ancestors ever get any of this scrip from the Government of the United States under this act of Congress? A No sir.

Q So far as you know, then, none of your ancestors and none of your husband's ancestors ever received any benefits whatever as Choctaw Indians? A No sir.

Q Do you know of any old persons living who would likely know whether any of your ancestors or any of your husband's ancestors ever complied or attempted to comply with the provisions of article 14 of the treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek or ever received any benefits thereunder? A No sir.

Q Do you know of any written evidence of any kind which would prove or tend to prove such a state of facts? A No sir.

Q Have you any written evidence to offer at this time? A No sir, I have not.

Q Have you any witnesses here? A That's all the witness I have.

Q What's his name? A Brother Thomas Harvey.

Anna E. Stevens et al---6

Q Is he as old as you are? A Yes sir, he is older.

Q What do you expect to prove by him? A Just wanted him to testify that he knew my mother and he knows my husband.

Q Is that all you expect to prove by him? A yes sir.

If you should find any other witnesses whose testimony you desire to have taken before the Commission, they may appear before us here at Meridian between now and the 15th of this month or within a reasonable time thereafter at Muskogee, Indian Territory, and their testimony will be taken.

Q Are there any further statements you want to make at this time in support of your application? A No sir.

Q What are the names of your four children who are over age? A Ledoska Jackson-the oldest girl.

Q Next one? A Lemella Martin.

Q Next one? A Manuel Stevens.

Q Next one? A Lottie Ball.

Q Have any of them been before the Commission? A No sir. Lemella is here today.

Q Have you any children dead? A Yes sir, I have fourteen children dead-I am the mother of nineteen and there is only five living.

Q Did any of these children who are dead leave children? A No sir, all died when they were young.

This applicant has the appearance of being possessed of a mixture of negro and either white or Indian blood, in which the negro blood predominates. Her hair is inclined to be straight-her features and facial expression are those of a negro.

Tom Harvey, being first duly sworn, testified as follows:-

Examination by the Commission.

Q What's your name? A Tom Harvey.

Q How old are you? A About sixty-three or sixty-four

Q What's your postoffice address? A Winona.

Q Montgomery County, Mississippi? A yes sir.

Q How long have you lived up there? A All my days-this is the first I've been from home since I was freed.

Q You have lived up there in Montgomery all your life? A Yes sir, bred and born up there.

Q Are you acquainted with this applicant Anna E. Stevens? A yes sir

Q Are you acquainted with her daughter Lemella Martin who just appeared before the Commission? A yes sir.

Q Are you any kin to these people? A No sir.

Q How long have you known them? A I been knowing them for a good many years-at least her father, Mrs. Stevens' husband and her father.

Anna E. Stevens et al--7

- Q Are you interested in any way in the result of these applications? A No sir.
- Q What is your occupation, Tom? A Cutting wood and working around the garden.
- Q Has Anna E. Stevens any Choctaw blood? A Yes sir.
- Q How much? A There's about three thirds I think, according to what I heard them say.
- Q You don't think she has any more than that? A I aint much-got about that-I don't know.
- Q Through which one of her parents did she get her Choctaw blood? A I reckon she got it through her mother.
- Q Did you know her mother? A Yes sir.
- Q What was her name? A Sarah Walker.
- Q How long has Sarah been dead? A I don't know, sir-exactly.
- Q Was Sarah much older than you? A No sir, I don't reckon she was.
- Q When did you first meet Sarah? A Its been-well, I was small-I was nearly twenty years old.
- Q Where did you meet her? A At a place near Vaden in Carroll County.
- Q Was she a slave? A No sir.
- Q How much choctaw blood did she have? A They said she was full blood-se I understood.
- Q You would be willing to swear to that, would you? A yes sir.
- Q That she was a full blood Choctaw? A yes sir.
- Q Do you think you would know a full blood if you saw one? A Yes sir, I think I do.
- Q Did you know Sarah Walker's husband? A No sir.
- Q Did you know Sarah's father and mother? A No sir, I just know her.
- Q Don't you know, as a matter of fact, that Sarah had some negro blood in her? A She might have had but I don't know.
- Q You couldn't swear that she had Choctaw blood, could you? A No sir, that's only what I heard people say.
- Q Were you ever acquainted with a man named Manuel Stevens? A Yes sir.
- Q What kin was he to Lemella Martin? A Her father.
- Q Was he married at the time of his death? A Of course he was.
- Q What was his wife's name? A Anna Stevens.
- Q Did Manuel have any Choctaw blood? A yes sir.
- Q How do you know that? A The Indians would come there and he would talk the Indian language.
- Q Can you talk the Choctaw language? A I can speak a few words what he spoke.
- Q Let's hear you speak some words.

The witnesses here pronounces three Choctaw words.

- Q Do you know how much Choctaw blood this man Manuel had? A No sir, I don't know-I think he was mighty near full Indian.
- Q What makes you think that? A Cause he had ways like an Indian and talked like an Indian and he would play ball with them.
- Q How old would Manuel be if he were living now? A About seventy years old I reckon.
- Q How old were you when you first met him? A I was about twenty years old I reckon.
- Q Was he a slave? A I don't know whether he was at that time or not.

Anna E. Stevens et al--8

Q Was he ever a slave? A I don't know-I started to say that I heard him say so but I didn't.

Q Do you know the name of his father or his mother? A No sir.

Q Do you know where Manuel was born? A He was born in Winston County down here-its called Choctaw County too.

Q Choctaw County, Mississippi? A Yes sir.

Q How do you know that? A I know what I heard him say.

Q He told you he was born in Choctaw County, this State, did he? A Yes sir.

Q Don't you know he had negro in him? A I couldn't swear it.

Q Isn't it your opinion that he did? A If you ask me for the truth, I don't know.

Examination by Mr. Beadle:

Q Are you certain that this woman Lemella Martin's father was an Indian? A I have heard him say so.

Q What else about Lemella Martin's father led you to believe that he was a Choctaw Indian? A Cause he was the color of the Indian- he was built like them and he talked like them.

Q You say because he was the color of them and built like them and talked their language? A Yes sir and I have no other right to believe anything else only what he said.

Q When did he tell you that? A Its been years ago.

Q About how long? A I reckon its been 30 or 40 years ago.

Commission:

Mr. Beadle, does this witness know whether any of the ancestors of Lemella Martin ever complied or attempted to comply with the provisions of article 14 of the treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek or ever received any benefits thereunder?

By Mr. Beadle:

No sir.

--: D E C I S I O N :--

It appears from the record herein that applications for identification as Mississippi Choctaws were made to this Commission by Anna E. Stevens for herself and her minor child, Nathaniel Stevens, and by Lemella Martin for herself and her minor child, Henry Allen, under the following provision of the act of Congress approved June 28, 1898 (30 Stat., 498):

"Said Commission shall have authority to determine the identity of Choctaw Indians claiming rights in the Choctaw lands under article fourteen of the treaty between the United States and the Choctaw Nation, concluded September twenty-seventh, eighteen hundred and thirty, and to that end may administer oaths, examine witnesses and perform all other acts necessary thereto, and make report to the secretary of the Interior."

It also appears that the principal applicant herein,
Anna E. Stevens, claims rights in the Choctaw lands under article fourteen of the treaty between the United States and the Choctaw

Nation, concluded September twenty-seventh, eighteen hundred and thirty, by reason of being a descendant of Ellen Bailey, nee Scott, who is alleged to have been a full blood Choctaw Indian, and to have resided in Mississippi in eighteen hundred and thirty, and that the other applicants herein claim said rights by reason of being descendants of the aforesaid Ellen Bailey, nee Scott, and one Manuel Stevens, who is alleged to have been a full blood Choctaw Indian.

It further appears from the evidence submitted in support of said applications and from the records in the possession of the Commission that none of said applicants has ever been enrolled by the Choctaw tribal authorities as a member of the Choctaw tribe, or admitted to Choctaw citizenship by a duly constituted court or committee of the Choctaw Nation, or by the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes, or by a decree of the United States Court in Indian Territory, under the provisions of the act of Congress approved June 20, 1894 (29 Stats., 381).

It does not appear from the testimony and evidence offered in support of said applications, or from the records in the possession of the Commission relating to persons who complied or attempted to comply with the provisions of said article fourteen of the treaty of eighteen hundred and thirty, and to persons who heretofore were claimants thereunder, that the said Ellen Bailey, nee Scott, or the said Manuel Stevens, or ancestors less remote, signified (in person or by proxy) to Colonel Wm. Ward, Indian Agent, Choctaw Agency, an intention to comply with the provisions of said article fourteen, or presented a claim to rights thereunder to either of the Commissions authorized to adjudicate such claims by the acts of Congress approved March 3, 1837 (5 Stats., 180) and August 23, 1842 (5 Stats., 613).

It is therefore the opinion of this Commission that the evidence herein is insufficient to determine the identity of Anna E. Stevens, Nathaniel Stevens, Lemolla Martin and Henry Allen, as Chectaw Indians entitled to rights in the Chectaw lands under the provisions of said article fourteen of the treaty of eighteen hundred and thirty, and that the applications for their identification as such should be refused, and it is so ordered.

Anna F. Stevens,

Winona, Mississippi,

Dear Madam:

Receipt is hereby acknowledged of your letter of November 9, stating that you can furnish whatever proof is necessary in the matter of the applications of Anna Eliza Stevens et al. and Lemella Martin, et al. as Mississippi Choctaws, and that you will forward the same within fifteen days from the date you received the notice.

In reply to your letter you are advised that at the time you made application for identification as Mississippi Choctaws you and Lemella Martin stated that you based your claims on the provisions of the fourteenth article of the treaty of 1830, which was read and explained to you. It not appearing from the evidence offered in support of these claims nor from the records of the government in the possession of the Commission that the alleged Choctaw ancestors through whom you claim your rights ever complied or attempted to comply with the provisions of article fourteen of the treaty of 1830 or received land or scrip thereunder, the Commission was without authority to identify you and your children as Mississippi Choctaws, and therefore rendered its decision refusing your application and the application of Lemella Martin for identification as Mississippi Choctaws. On October 26, 1902, you were notified of the decision of the Commission and that you would be allowed fifteen days from that date within which to file argument in your case for the consideration of the Secretary of the Interior, through the Commissioner of Indian Affairs. The Honorable,

The Secretary of the Interior.

Sir:

There is transmitted herewith the record in the consolidated case of Anna E. Stevens, et al., applicants for identification as Mississippi Choctaws, including the decision of the Commission of October 28, 1902.

The above consolidated case embraces the following original applications for identification as Mississippi Choctaws heard by the Commission:

Anna E. Stevens, et al.,	M.C.R. 4747
Lemella Martin, et al.,	M.C.R. 4746

The Commission has the honor to report that the principal applicants in the several separate applications, their agent, their attorney of record and the attorneys for the Choctaw and Chickasaw Nations have been duly advised by letter of the action of the Commission, copies of said letters being attached to the record.

Respectfully,

Department of the Interior,

The Honorable,

The Secretary of the Interior.

Sir:

I have the honor to submit herewith for your consideration the record of the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes in the matter of the consolidated application for identification as Mississippi Choctaws of the following parties: Anna E. Stevens for herself and her minor child, Nathaniel Stevens and Lemella Martin for herself and her minor child, Henry Allen wherein a decision adverse to the applicants was rendered by the commission on October 28, 1902.

The testimony in this case shows that the principal applicant bases her claim to identification because of her descent from Ellen Bailey, nee Scott, and that the other applicants base their claim to identification because of their descent from Manuel Stevens. The applicants claim that their ancestors were Choctaw Indians and residents of the Choctaw Nation, in Mississippi, at the time of the making of the Choctaw treaty of 1830.

The commission rejected the applicants because the names of their ancestors through whom they claim did not appear among the names of those who complied or attempted to comply with the provisions of the 14th article of the Choctaw treaty of 1830, and for the additional reason that the applicants had never been enrolled as citizens of the Choctaw Nation.

An examination has been made of the records of this office with reference to the names of Ellen (Scott) Bailey and Manuel Stevens and it is discovered that their names do not appear among the names of those who complied or attempted to comply with the provisions of the 14th article of the Choctaw treaty of 1830.

This being the case it is evident that the decision of the Commission rejecting the applicants was correct, and I concur in that finding and recommend that it be approved.

Very respectfully,

Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes,
Muskogee, I.T.

Gentlemen:

November 13, 1902, you transmitted the record in the matter of the applications for identification as Mississippi Choctaws of Anna E. Stevens and her minor child Nathaniel Stevens; and of Lemella Martin and her minor child Henry Allen, including your decision of October 28, 1902, adverse to the applicants.

Anna E. Stevens claims to be a descendant of one Ellen Bailey (nee Scott) alleged to have been a full blood Choctaw Indian residing in Mississippi in 1830. The other applicants trace their descent from said Ellen Bailey and from one Manuel Stevens alleged to have been a full blood Choctaw Indian.

The applicants have not been admitted or enrolled as citizens of the Choctaw Nation, and the record fails to show that any one of their alleged ancestors complied or attempted to comply with article 14 of the treaty of September 27, 1830, or with either of the acts of March 3, 1837 (5 Stat., 180), and August 23, 1842 (5 Stat., 513).

Reporting January 26, 1903, the Acting Commissioner of Indian Affairs recommends approval of your decision. A copy of his letter is inclosed.

Finding no reason to disturb your decision after a careful review of the record, the Department affirms the same.

- Q Is your name or the name of any one of these children to be found on any of the Choctaw Tribal rolls in Indian Territory? A No sir.
- Q Has any application of any description ever been made for you or any of these children before today looking to the establishment of your rights as Choctaw Indians? A No sir, not as I know of.
- Q Do you appear before the Commission at this time for the purpose of claiming rights in the Choctaw lands in Indian Territory for yourself and three minor children under article 14 of the treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek? A Yes sir.
- Q You understand that 14th article of the treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek, do you? A Yes sir.
- Q Did any of your ancestors ever comply or attempt to comply with the provisions of that 14th article or ever receive any benefits under that article? A No sir, not as I know of.
- Q Did any of your ancestors own an improvement here in the old Choctaw Nation in Mississippi and Alabama in the year 1830 when this treaty was made? A No sir.
- Q Did any of them live here at that time? A Not as I know of.
- Q Did any of them remove from the old Choctaw Nation in Mississippi and Alabama to the present Choctaw Nation in Indian Territory at the time of the removal of the greater portion of the Choctaw Tribe of Indians between the years 1833 and 1838? A No sir.
- Q Did any of them within six months after the treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek was ratified let the Agent of the Government here in Mississippi, for the Choctaws, know that they wanted to stay here in Mis-

Mississippi and become citizens of the States and take land? A Not as I know of.

Q Did any of them ever claim or receive any land here in Mississippi from the Government of the United States under article 14 of the treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek? A No sir.

Q Or under any other provision of that treaty? A No sir.

Q Did any of them ever get any money from the Government? A No sir.

In accordance with the provisions of article 14 of the treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek the Government of the United States directed an Agent here in Mississippi to register the names of such Choctaws as might desire to remain and become citizens of the States and take land under that article. The records of the Government show that this Agent failed to register and report to the Government the names of many Indians who did in fact let him know that they wanted to stay here and become citizens and take land and on this account the Government, at its public land sales here in Mississippi, in many instances sold land upon which Choctaws lived and had improvements and which they supposed they would receive under article 14 of the treaty. This caused a great deal of complaint among the Indians and the matter was finally brought to the attention of Congress and Congress passed certain acts between the years 1837 and 1842 providing for the appointment of Commissions to come down here to Mississippi and hear the cases of Choctaws who claimed that they had complied in all respects with the provisions of article 14 of the treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek but that their land had been sold by the Government. These Commissioners were appointed by the President of the United States and they came down here to Mississippi between the years 1837 and 1845 and heard a great many of these Choctaw cases.

Q Did any of your ancestors appear before either of these Commissions and attempt to establish their rights under article 14 of the treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek? A No sir.

An act of Congress approved the 23rd day of August, 1842, provided that in case it should be finally determined that a Choctaw had complied in all respects with the provisions of article 14 of the treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek but that his land had been sold by the Government, he should be entitled to select, in place of the land so sold by the Government, land some place else in Mississippi or in Alabama, Louisiana or Arkansas, from vacant Government land, and should be given ~~an~~ certificate to that effect. These certificates were called scrip.

Q Did any of your ancestors ever get any of this scrip from the Government of the United States under this act of Congress? A No sir.

Texanna Bailey et al--4

- Q So far as you know, then, none of your ancestors ever received any benefits whatever as Choctaw Indians? A No sir, never did.
- Q Do you know of any old persons living who would likely know whether any of your ancestors ever complied or attempted to comply with the provisions of article 14 of the treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek or ever received any benefits thereunder? A No sir, not as I know of.
- Q Do you know of any written evidence of any description which would prove or tend to prove such a state of facts? A No sir.
- Q Have you any written evidence to offer at this time in support of your application? A No sir, I haven't any.
- Q Have you any witnesses here today? A Yes-I have one-he knew me before I knew myself.
- Q What's his name? A Tom Harvey.
- Q What do you expect to prove by him? A I expect to prove what my grandmother was.

If you should find any other witnesses whose testimony you desire to have taken before the Commission, they may appear before us here at Meridian between now and the 15th of this month within a reasonable time thereafter at the general office of the Commission in Muskogee, Indian Territory, and their testimony will be taken.

- Q Are there any further statements you want to make at this time? A No sir, I have a plenty of witnesses at home but haven't any here.
- Q Have you any brothers or sisters living? A Yes sir, five of us are living.
- Q What are the names of your brothers and sisters who are living? A Lonnie Raymond.
- Q Is that a boy? A yes sir.
- Q Sealy Allen, Minnie Thompson and Ella Finnell.
- Q Is that all your brothers and sisters? A No sir, Hattie Johnson- and then I have a brother named Charlie Gossett, and then I have a brother names Henry Gossett.
- Q Have any of them been before the Commission? A Not as I know of.
- Q Did any of your brothers or sisters who are dead leave children? A No sir.
- Q Are any of your mother's brothers or sisters living? A No sir, they're all dead.
- Q Did any of them leave children? A yes sir.
- Q Are you acquainted with those children? A No sir.
- Q You don't know their names? A No sir.
- Q Where do they live? A They live in Arkansas-and Memphis, Tennessee.
- Q Do you speak or understand the Choctaw language? A No sir.

This applicant has the appearance of being possessed of a mixture of negro and either white or Indian blood-she has straight black hair-dark eyes and dark complexion-her cheek bones are rather prominent-she does not speak or understand the Choctaw language.

Examination by Mr. Beadle:

- Q Why didn't you bring your witnesses with you? A I wasn't able to bring but one.
- Q Did you ever see your grandmother? A Yes sir, my grandmother raised me.
- Q How old were you when she died? A I don't know how old I was.
- Q About how old would she be if she were living? A She would be about ninety years old I reckon; eighty or ninety.
- Q Did she always live in this State? A Yes sir, she was born and raised in Choctaw County.

Tom Harvey, being first duly sworn, testified as follows:

Examination by the Commission.

- Q What's your name? A Tom Harvey.
- Q How old are you? A About sixty-three or four.
- Q What's your postoffice address? A Winona.
- Q Montgomery County, Mississippi? A Yes sir.
- Q How long have you lived up there? A All my days.
- Q Were you a slave? A Yes sir.
- Q What is your occupation now? A Working in gardens and cutting wood.
- Q Are you acquainted with the applicant Texanna Bailey? A Yes sir.
- Q How long have you known her? A All her days.
- Q Are you any kin to her? A No sir, only fellow servants.
- Q Was she a slave? A No sir, I reckon not.
- Q Are you interested in any way in the result of her application?
A No sir.
- Q Has she any children? A Yes sir.
- Q How many? A Three.
- Q Has she any Choctaw blood? A Well, she looks like it.
- Q Do you know whether she has any Choctaw blood? A That's what they've always said-I don't know myself.
- Q Were you acquainted with her mother? A Yes sir.
- Q What was her name? A Dinah Wilson.
- Q What was her married name at the time of her death? A Her husband was named Jim Gossett.
- Q Was Dinah a slave? A Yes sir.
- Q Where was she born? A In Mississippi.
- Q Where? A near Vaden, in Carroll County.
- Q How old were you when you first met Dinah? A We were raised up children together. Lived on the same place.
- Q I understood you to say that you lived in Montgomery all your life? A A Where I am living now is only about ten miles from where I was born and bred.
- Q Did Dinah have any Choctaw blood? A I reckon-I don't know.
- Q Were you acquainted with Dinah's father and mother? A I was acquainted with her mother.
- Q Through which one of her parents did Dinah get her Choctaw blood? A From her mother's side.
- Q What was her mother's name? A Raster Wilson.
- Q How much Choctaw blood did she have? A She was full blood-so said.
- Q Full blood Choctaw Indian? A That's what was said.

Texanna Bailey et al--6

- Q You wouldn't be willing to swear that she was? A I wouldn't be willing to swear anything else. That's what I heard.
- Q Who ever told you that she was a full blood Choctaw Indian?
- A The whole family of people where I lived-they always called her that Indian.
- Q Wasn't she a slave? A She wasn't no slave.
- Q How did her daughter come to be a slave? A They lived on the place-but she was always called a free born woman.
- Q Did you know Easter's father and mother? A No sir.
- Q How long has Easter been dead? A She's been dead-its been quite a while.
- Q Give us an Idea? A About-near twenty years, I guess.
- Q About how old was Easter when she died? A She was about 65 years old-if she lived up to now she would have been eighty or more.
- Q Where was she born-do you know? A No sir.
- Q How old were you when you first knew her? A We were children together.
- Q Could she speak the Choctaw language? A Well, as well as I can understand, she did speak just a little different from our people-she would speak Indian.
- Q I want to know whether she could speak the Choctaw language?
- A I don't know.
- Q Could Dinah speak the Choctaw language? A I never heard her.
- Q Did you ever hear of Easter or Dinah living any place outside of the State of Mississippi? A No sir.

Commission:

Mr Beadle, does he know whether any of the ancestors of this applicant ever complied or attempted to comply with the provisions of article 14 of the treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek or ever received any benefits thereunder?

By Mr. Beadle:

No sir.

Examination by Mr. Beadle:

- Q What place was that you lived on? A I lived on Wilson's place.
- Q You say that Easter lived there? A yes sir.
- Q Did this woman's mother live there? A yes sir.
- Q Was Easter a slave? A No sir, she lived there on the place and was said to be a free born woman.
- Q Who told you that? A All the people on the place.
- Q Did the white people tell you so? A No sir, thr white people didn't
- Q Did the negroes tell you so? A yes sir.

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR,
COMMISSION TO THE FIVE CIVILIZED TRIBES.

In the matter of the application of Texanna Bailey, et al., for identification as Mississippi Choctaws, M C R 4748.

D E C I S I O N .

It appears from the record herein that application for identification as Mississippi Choctaws was made to this Commission by Texanna Bailey for herself and her three minor children, Charles, Ruby and Minnie Bailey, under the following provision of the act of Congress approved June 23, 1898, (30 Stats., 495):

"Said Commission shall have authority to determine the identity of Choctaw Indians claiming rights in the Choctaw lands under article fourteen of the treaty between the United States and the Choctaw Nation, concluded September twenty-seventh, eighteen hundred and thirty, and to that end may administer oaths, examine witnesses and perform all other acts necessary thereto and make report to the Secretary of the Interior."

It also appears that all of said applicants claim rights in the Choctaw lands under article fourteen of the treaty between the United States and the Choctaw Nation, concluded September twenty-seventh, eighteen hundred and thirty, by reason of being descendants of one Easter Wilson, who is alleged to have been a full blood Choctaw Indian.

It further appears from the evidence submitted in support of said application and from the records in the possession of the Commission that none of said applicants has ever been enrolled by the Choctaw tribal authorities as a member of the Choctaw tribe, or admitted to Choctaw citizenship by a duly constituted court or committee of the Choctaw Nation, or by the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes, or by a decree of the United States Court in Indian Territory under the provisions of the act of Congress approved June 10, 1896, (29 Stats., 321).

It does not appear from the testimony and evidence offered in support of said application or from the records in the possession of the Commission, relating to persons who complied or attempted to comply with the provisions of said article fourteen of the treaty of eighteen hundred and thirty, and to persons who heretofore were claimants thereunder, that the said Easter Wilson, or ancestors less remote, signified (in person or by proxy) to Colonel Wm. Ward, Indian Agent, Choctaw Agency, an intention to comply with the provisions of said article fourteen or presented a claim to rights thereunder to either of the Commissions authorized to adjudicate such claims by the acts of Congress approved March 3, 1837, (5 Stats., 180), and August 23, 1842, (5 Stats., 513).

It is therefore the opinion of this Commission that the evidence herein is insufficient to determine the identity of Texanna Bailey, Charles Bailey, Ruby Bailey and Minnie Bailey as Chectaw Indians entitled to rights in the Chectaw lands under the provisions of said article fourteen of the treaty of eighteen hundred and thirty, and that the application for their identification as such should be refused, and it is so ordered.

OFFICE OF INDIAN AFFAIRS

Washington, Jan. 26, 1903.

The Honorable

The Secretary of the Interior

Sir:

I have the honor to submit, herewith, for your consideration, the record of the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes in the matter of the application for identification as Mississippi Choctaws of the following parties: Texanna Bailey for herself and her three minor children, Charles Ruby and Minnie Bailey, wherein a decision adverse to the applicants was rendered by the commission on October 17, 1902.

The testimony in this case shows that the applicants base their claim to identification as Mississippi Choctaws under this application because of their descent from Easter () Wilson. The applicants claim that their ancestor was a Choctaw Indian and a resident of the Choctaw Nation, in Mississippi, at the time of the making of the Choctaw treaty of 1830.

The commission rejected the applicants because the name of their ancestor through whom they claim did not appear among the names of those who complied or attempted to comply with the provisions of the 14th article of the Choctaw treaty of 1830, and for the additional reason that the applicants had never been enrolled as citizens of the Choctaw Nation.

An examination has been made of the records of this office with reference to the name of Easter () Wilson, and it is discovered that her name does not appear among the names of those who complied or attempted to comply with the provisions of the 14th article of the Choctaw treaty of 1830.

This being the case it is evident that the decision of the commission rejecting the applicants was correct, and I concur in that finding and recommend that it be approved.

Very respectfully

Gentlemen:-

November 3, 1902, you transmitted the record in the matter of the application for identification as Mississippi Choctaws of Texanna Bailey and her minor children, Charles, Ruby and Minnie Bailey, including your decision of October 17, 1902, refusing the application.

The applicants claim to be descendants of one Easter Wilson, who is alleged to have been a full blood Choctaw Indian.

The records fail to show that the applicants have been admitted or enrolled as citizens of the Choctaw Nation, or that said Easter Wilson, or a less remote ancestor of the applicants, complied or attempted to comply with article 14 of the treaty of September 27, 1830, or with either of the acts of March 3, 1837 (5 Stats. 180) and August 23, 1842(5 Stat.513).

Reporting January 26, 1903, the Acting Commissioner of Indian Affairs recommends that your decision be approved. A copy of his letter is inclosed.

Q Do you understand article 14 of the treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek? A Yes sir, I think so.
Q You have read it or heard it explained, have you? A Yes sir.

This treaty was made here in 1830 between the United States Government and the Choctaw Tribe of Indians. At the time the treaty was made the Choctaws lived here in Mississippi and along the western edge of the State of Alabama. The object of the treaty was to get these Indians to move from the country occupied by them here in Mississippi and Alabama to a new country west of the Mississippi River, part of which is now occupied by the greater portion of the Choctaw Tribe of Indians and is commonly known as the Choctaw Nation Indian Territory. At the time the treaty was made some of the Indians were unwilling to leave this country and for the benefit of those who wanted to stay here what is known as the 14th article was put in the treaty. That 14th article provided that upon certain conditions a Choctaw who preferred to stay here in Mississippi might receive land here in Mississippi from the Government. It is as follows:-

"Each Choctaw head of a family being desirous to remain and become a citizen of the States shall be permitted to do so by signifying his intention to the Agent within six months from the ratification of this treaty and he or she shall thereupon be entitled to a reservation of one section of six hundred and forty acres of land, to be bounded by sectional lines of survey; in like manner shall be entitled to one half that quantity for each unmarried child which is living with him over ten years of age; and a quarter section to such child as may be under ten years of age, to adjoin the location of the parent. If they reside upon said lands, intending to become citizens of the States, for five years after the ratification of this treaty, in that case a grant in fee simple shall issue; said reservation shall include the present improvement of the head of the family or a portion of it. Persons who claim under this article shall not lose the privilege of a Choctaw citizen but if they ever remove are not to be entitled to any portion of the Choctaw annuity."

Q That is the 14th article of the treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek-do you think you understand that? A Yes sir, I think I do.

Q Did any of your ancestors ever comply or attempt to comply with its provisions if ever receive any benefits under that article?

A I don't know, sir-I reckon not.

Q Did any of them own an improvement here in the old Choctaw Nation in Mississippi and Alabama in 1830 when this treaty was made? A I don't know-I don't reckon they did.

Q Did any of them live here at that time-71 years ago? A None of mine didn't; because they came to this country in 1836.

Q Did any of your ancestors remove to the present Choctaw Nation in Indian Territory at the time of the removal of the greater portion of the Choctaw Tribe of Indians between the years 1833 and 1838? A No sir.

Q Did any of them within six months after the treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek was ratified -the treaty was ratified on the 24th day of February, 1831-let the Agent of the Government here in Mississippi for the Choctaws, know that they wanted to stay here and become citizens of the States and take land? A I don't know whether they did or not-I reckon not though cause they didn't come here until '36, my family didn't.

Q Did any of them ever claim or receive any land here in Mississippi from the Government of the United States under the 14th article of the treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek? A No sir.

Q Or under any other article of that treaty or the supplement?

A No sir, I guess not.

Q So far as you know, then, none of your ancestors ever received any benefits whatever as Choctaw Indians? A No sir.

In accordance with the provisions of article 14 of the treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek the Government of the United States directed an Agent here in Mississippi to register the names of such Choctaws as might desire to remain here and become citizens of the States and take land under that article. The records of the Government show that this Agent failed to register and report to the Government the names of many Indians who did in fact let him know that they wanted to stay here and become citizens of the States and take land and on this account the Government, at its public land sales here in Mississippi, in many instances sold land upon which Choctaws lived and had improvements and which they supposed they would receive under article 14 of the treaty. This caused a great deal of complaint among the Indians and the matter was finally brought to the attention of Congress and Congress passed certain acts between the years 1837 and 1842 providing for the appointment of Commissions to come down here to Mississippi and hear the cases of Choctaws who claimed that they had complied in all respects with the provisions of article 14 of the treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek but that their land had been sold by the Government. These Commissioners were appointed by the President of the United States and they came down here between the years 1837 and 1845 and held sessions here in Mississippi and heard a great many of these Choctaw cases.

Marancy A. Dean--4

Q Did any of your ancestors appear before any of these Commissioners and attempt to establish their rights under article 14 of the treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek? A I don't know, sir-whether they did or not.

An act of Congress approved the 23rd day of August, 1842, provided that in case it should be finally determined that a Choctaw had complied in all respects with the provisions of article 14 of the treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek but that his land had been sold by the Government, he should be entitled to select in place of the land so sold by the Government, land some place else here in Mississippi or in Alabama, Louisiana or Arkansas, from vacant Government land and should be given a certificate to that effect. These certificates were called scrip.

Q Did any of your ancestors ever get any of this scrip from the government of the United States under this act of Congress? A No sir.

Q Do you know of any old person living who would likely know whether any of your ancestors ever complied or attempted to comply with the provisions of article 14 of the treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek or ever received any benefits thereunder? A No sir.

Q Do you know of any written evidence of any description which would prove or tend to prove such a state of facts? A No sir, I don't.

Q Have you any written evidence of any kind to offer at this time? A No sir.

Q Have you any witnesses here to testify in your behalf? A No sir.

If you should find any witnesses whose testimony you desire to have taken before the Commission, they may appear before us here at Meridian between now and the 15th of this month or within a reasonable time thereafter at the general office of the Commission in Muskogee, Indian Territory, and their testimony will be taken.

Q Are there any further statements you would like to make at this time in support of your application? A No sir, I don't know as I have.

Q You never have had any children at all? A No sir.

Q Now, you have some brothers and sisters living? A Yes sir, I have one sister is all-her name is Mrs. Bernabe J. Burford-she has registered-she's my sister-she's the only sister I have.

Q Did you ever have any brothers? A Yes sir, but I haven't any living.

Q How many brothers did you have? A Four, I believe.

Q Did they all live to be grown? A No sir, only two of them lived to be grown.

Q You have two brothers who left descendants, did you? A No sir, one married and the other was single.

Q Are any of the children of the married one living at this time?

A Yes sir.

Q How many? A Three I believe of my brother's children, in Texas.

Maraney A. Dean--5

- Q What are their names? A He has one son named Jeremiah Ellis-he hasn't but two children living-George W/ Ellis. They live at Houston, Texas.
- Q How many sisters did you have? A I don't know-I haven't got but one living. There was thirteen of us and they nearly all died.
- Q How many of your sisters lived to be grown? A I had three sis-tersto marry, Mrs. Burford, Mrs. Byars and Mrs. Wiley.
- Q Did Mrs. Byars leave any descendants? A Yes sir.
- Q Are any of her children living now? A Yes sir, she has four or five.
- Q Can you name them? A Yes sir.
- Q What are their names? A Louis Byars, Joe Byars, Goodlet Byars, Frank Byars and a daughter Blanche Byars.
- Q Is she married? A Yes sir.
- Q What's her husband's name? A Bolling.
- Q Are any of the descendants of Mrs. Wiley living? A No.
- Q Are any of your mother's brothers or sisters living? A No sir.
- Q How many brothers did she have? A I don't know.
- Q Do you remember the names of any of them? A No sir-except Jeptha
Walker-he's the only brother I remember-he's dead.
- Q Are any of Jeptha Walker's children living? A Yes sir.
- Q How many? A There's four boys and five girls.
- Q Name the boys? A Montezumas Walker.
- Q Does he live in Indian Territory? A Yes sir.
- Q What's the name of the next one? A Jeptha Walker.
- Q Next one? A Jabars Walker.
- Q Next one? A Will Walker.
- Q Is that all? A That's all the boys.
- Q Do you remember the name of any one of your mother's sisters?
A No, sir.
- Q Do you speak or understand the Choctaw language? A No sir.

This applicant has the appearance of being a white woman-shows no indications of being possessed of Indian blood-she does not speak or understand the Choctaw language.

A Yes sir.

Q Is your name or the name of any one of these children on any of the Choctaw Tribal rolls in Indian Territory? A I don't know.

Q Has any application ever been made before today for you or any of these children looking to the establishment of your rights as Choctaw Indians? A No sir.

Q Do you appear before the Commission at this time for the purpose of claiming rights in the Choctaw lands in Indian Territory for yourself and five minor children under article 14 of the treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek? A I do.

Q Do you understand that 14th article? A Yes sir, I do.

Q Did any of your ancestors ever comply or attempt to comply with its provisions or ever receive any benefits under that article? A No sir.

Q Did any of them own an improvement here in the old Choctaw nation in Mississippi and Alabama in the year 1830 when this treaty was made? A No sir.

Q Did any of them, in fact, live here at that time? A No sir, I don't think they did. They come here later than that.

Q What time did they come here? A I don't know-I think it was about '36.

Q Did any of your ancestors move out to the new Choctaw Nation west of the Mississippi River at the time of the removal of the greater portion of the Choctaw Tribe of Indians between the years 1833 and 1836? A They did not.

Q Did any of them within six months after the treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek was ratified let the Agent of the Government here in Mississippi, for the Choctaws, know that they wanted to stay here and become citizens and take land? A No sir, I don't think they did.

Q Did any of them ever claim or receive any land here in Mississippi from the Government of the United States under article 14 of the treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek? A They did not.

Q Did any of them ever get any land from the Government under any other provision of that treaty? A Not as I know of.

Q Did any of them ever get any money from the Government? A No sir.

Nellie D. House et al--3

Q So far as you know, then, none of your ancestors ever received any benefits whatever as Choctaw Indians? A No, never did.

In accordance with the provisions of article 14 of the treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek the Government of the United States directed an Agent here in Mississippi to register the names of such Choctaws as might desire to remain and become citizens of the States and take land, under that article. The records of the Government show that this Agent failed to register and report to the Government the names of many Choctaws who did in fact let him know that they wanted to stay here and take land and on this account the Government, at its public land sales here in Mississippi, in many instances sold land upon which Choctaws lived and had improvements and which they supposed they would receive under article 14 of the treaty. This caused a great deal of complaint among the Choctaws and the matter was finally brought to the attention of Congress and Congress passed certain acts between the years 1837 and 1842 providing for the appointment of Commissions to come down here to Mississippi and hear the cases of Choctaws who claimed that they had complied with the provisions of article 14 of the treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek but that their land had been sold by the Government. These Commissioners were appointed by the President of the United States and they came down here between the years 1837 and 1842 and held sessions here in Mississippi and heard a great many of these Choctaw cases.

Q Did any of your ancestors appear before any of these Commissioners and attempt to establish their rights under article 14 of the treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek? A Did not, as I know of.

An act of Congress approved the 23rd day of August, 1842, provided that in case it should be finally determined that a Choctaw had complied in all respects with the provisions of article 14 of the treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek but that his land had been sold by the Government he should be entitled to select, in place of the land so sold by the Government, land some place else in Mississippi or in Alabama, Louisiana or Arkansas, from vacant Government land and should be given a certificate to that effect. These certificates were called scrip.

Q Did any of your ancestors ever get any of this scrip from the Government under this act of Congress? A Not as I know of.

Q Do you know of any old persons living who would likely know whether any of your ancestors ever complied or attempted to comply with the provisions of the 14th article of the treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek or ever received any benefits thereunder? A No sir.

Q Do you know of any written evidence of any description which would prove or tend to prove such a state of facts? A I do not.

Nellie D. House et al--4

- Q Have you any written evidence of any kind to offer at this time?
A No sir.
Q Have you any witnesses here to testify in your case? A No sir.

If you should find any witnesses whose testimony you desire to have taken before the Commission, they may appear before us here at Meridian between now and the 15th of this month or within a reasonable time thereafter at the General Office of the Commission in Muskogee, Indian Territory, and their testimony will be taken.

- Q Are there any further statements you want to make at this time in support of your application? A No sir.
Q Have you any brothers living? A I have two.
Q What are their names? A Leonidas G. Dean and David L. Dean.
Q They have heretofore appeared before the Commission, have they not?
A Yes sir.

This applicant has the appearance of being a white woman—shows no indications of being possessed of Indian blood—she does not speak or understand the Choctaw language.

Ira S. Hiles, being first duly sworn, states that as stenographer to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes he reported in full all proceedings had in the above entitled cause, heard at Meridian, Mississippi, February 12th, 1902, and that the above and foregoing is a full, true and correct transcript of his stenographic notes taken in said proceedings on said date.

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR,
COMMISSION TO THE FIVE CIVILIZED TRIBES,
Meridian, Mississippi, February 12th, 1902.

In the matter of the application of Lillian C. House for the identification of herself alone as a Mississippi Choctaw.

Said Lillian C. House, being first duly sworn, testified as follows:-

Examination by the Commission.

- Q What's your name? A Lillian C. House.
Q How old are you? A Twenty.
Q How much Choctaw blood have you? A One thirty-second.
Q What's your postoffice address? A Senatobia, Mississippi, Tate County.
Q How long have you lived in Tate County? A All my life.
Q Is your father living? A No sir.
Q What was his name? A Henry M. Callicott.
Q Is your mother living? A No sir.
Q What was her name? A Mittie Burford Callicott.
Q Through which one of your parents did you get your Choctaw blood? A Mother.
Q How long has your mother been dead? A Eighteen years.
Q How old was she when she died? A She was twenty-two or twenty-three-twenty-three I think.
Q Did she live in Mississippi all her life? A Yes.
Q In Tate County? A Yes sir.
Q Through ~~xxx~~ which one of her parents did she get her Choctaw blood? A Mother.
Q What was her name? A Bersheba J. Burford.
Q Is she living now? A Yes sir.
Q Where does she live? A In Independence, Mississippi.
Q Application has been made in her behalf, has it not? A Yes.
Q Has she lived in this State all her life? A No, she was born in Georgia.
Q How old is she-do you know? A She's sixty-seven I think. About that.
Q Has she lived in this State ever since her removal from Georgia? A Yes sir.
Q Do you remember when that was? A It was when she was about four or five years old.
Q Through which one of her parents did she get her Choctaw blood? A Through her mother.
Q What was her name? A Bersheba Walker-she married an Ellis.
Q Through which one of her parents did Bersheba Ellis get her Choctaw blood? A Through her mother, Sarah Booth-she got her Choctaw blood through her father Black John Booth.
Q How much Choctaw blood did Black John Booth have? A He was half Indian.
Q Do you know the name of his father or mother? A No.
Q Do you know how old he would be if he were living now? A No.
Q What is the name of your husband? A Sam J. House Jr.
Q Has he any Choctaw blood? A No.
Q You make no claim for him? A No.
Q You have no children? A No.
Q This application is for yourself only? A Yes.
Q Is your name on any of the Choctaw Tribal rolls in Indian Territory? A I don't know.

Q Has any application of any description ever been made for you before today looking to the establishment of your rights as a Choctaw
A No.

Q Do you appear before the Commission at this time for the purpose of claiming rights in the Choctaw lands in Indian Territory under article 14 of the treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek? A Yes.

Q Do you understand that 14th article of the treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek? A Yes sir.

Q Did any of your ancestors ever comply or attempt to comply with the provisions of that 14th article or ever receive any benefits under it? A Not that I know of.

Q Did any of them own an improvement here in the old Choctaw Nation in Mississippi and Alabama in the year 1830 when this treaty was made? A Not that I know of.

Q Did any of them, in fact, live here at that time? A No.

Q Where did they live-your Choctaw ancestors-in 1830? A They lived in Georgia.

Q Do you know when they moved over here in Mississippi? A In '36.

Q That's a matter of family history, is it? A Yes.

Q Did any of your Choctaw ancestors move out to the new Choctaw Nation west of the Mississippi River when the main portion of the Tribe moved out there between the years 1833 and 1838? A Not that I know of.

Q Did any of them within six months after the treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek was ratified let the Agent of the Government here in Mississippi, for the Choctaws, know that they wanted to stay here in Mississippi and become citizens of the States and take land? A Not that I know of.

Q Did any of them ever claim or receive any land here in Mississippi from the Government of the United States under the 14th article of the treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek? A No.

Q Or under any other article of that treaty? A No.

Q Or under the supplement to that treaty? A Not that I know of.

Q Did any of them ever get any money from the Government? A Not that I know of.

Q So far as you know, then, none of your ancestors ever received any benefits whatever as Choctaw Indians? A No sir.

Q You have heard here today an explanation ~~in~~ of the causes which brought about certain acts of Congress between the years 1837 and 1842, providing for the appointment of Commissioners to come down here to Mississippi and hear ~~the~~ ~~cases~~ these Choctaw claims under the 14th article of the treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek, have you not? A Yes.

Q Did any of your ancestors appear before any of these Commissioners and attempt to establish their rights under the 14th article of the treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek? A Not that I know of.

An act of Congress approved the 23rd day of August, 1842, provided that in case it should be finally determined that a Choctaw had complied in all respects with the provisions of article 14 of the treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek but that his land had been sold by the Government he should be entitled to select, in the place of the land so sold by the Government, land some place else here in Mississippi or in Alabama, Louisiana or Arkansas, from vacant Government land and should be given a certificate to that effect. These certificates were called scrip.

Lillian C. House--3

Q Did any of your ancestors ever get any of this scrip from the Government of the United States under this act of Congress? A Not that I know of.

Q Do you know of any old person living who would likely know whether any of your ancestors ever complied or attempted to comply with the provisions of article 14 of the treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek or ever received any benefits thereunder? A No.

Q Do you know of any written evidence of any kind which would prove or tend to prove such a state of facts? A No.

Q Have you any written evidence of any kind to offer at this time in support of your application? A No.

Q Have you any witnesses here today to testify in your case? A No.

If you should find any witnesses whose testimony you desire to have taken before the Commission they may appear before us here at Meridian between now and the 15th of this month or within a reasonable time thereafter at the general office of the Commission in Muskogee, Indian Territory, and their testimony will be taken.

Q Are there any further statements you want to make at this time in support of your application? A I desire to have the testimony of Mrs. Ada Williams which has already been introduced in support of certain applications of persons who are descendants of the same common ancestor as I am considered in connection with my application.

Q Have you any brothers or sisters living? A No-I have two half brothers but they are on my father's side.

Q They have no Choctaw blood? A No.

Q Are any of your mother's brothers or sisters living? A No.

Q Did she ever have any brothers or sisters? A She had one sister.

Q Did she leave descendants? A Yes sir.

Q How many? A Three.

Q Are they living now? A Yes.

Q What are their names? A Peyton Self, Will E. Self, Lillian G. Self.

Q They are minor children-are they? A Yes sir, their father made application for them a few days ago.

Q Are any of the brothers or sisters of your grandmother Bersheba J. Burford living? A She has one sister living.

Q What's her name? A Marancy A. Dean.

Q Is she the Marancy A. Dean who has appeared before the Commission here today and made application for identification as a Mississippi Choctaw? A Yes.

Q Do you speak or understand the Choctaw language? A No.

This applicant has the appearance of being a white woman-shows no indications of being possessed of Indian blood-she does not speak or understand the Choctaw language.

Q How long have you lived at Ivanhoe? A About six years.
Q Where did you live before you lived there? A Bonham.
Q Where were you born? A Louisiana.
Q Where in Louisiana? A Well, I don't know.
Q About what was your age when you left the state of Louisiana? A I was eleven years old.
Q From there did you go to Texas? A Yes, sir.
Q What place in Texas? A Bonham.
Q And have lived there since, in Texas? A Yes, sir.
Q Is your father living? A No, sir.
Q Is your mother living? A No, sir.
Q What was your father's name? A John Morgan.
Q What was your mother's name? A Before she was married?
Q Just her given name? A Phyllis.
Q P-h-y-l-l-i-s is it? A Yes, sir; I think so.
Q Through which parent do you claim Choctaw blood father or mother? A On my mother's side.
Q How much Choctaw blood do you claim? A I don't know.
Q Has your mother ever been recognized in any way or enrolled as a member of the Choctaw tribe of Indians by the Choctaw tribal authorities or the United States authorities in Indian Territory; that is has she ever been recognized by the Indians in Indian Territory and enrolled by them? A No, sir.
Q She has never lived in the Indian Territory has she? A No, sir.

make application for? A No, sir.

Q This is his child that you want to make application for? A Yes, sir.

Q And you make application for yourself and one child? A Yes, sir.

Q Is your name on any of the tribal rolls of the Choctaw Nation to your knowledge? A No, sir.

Q You are not an Indian, enrolled here as one? A No, sir; not enrolled.

Q Then your name is not on the tribal rolls to your knowledge? A No, sir.

Q Have you ever made application for citizenship in the Choctaw Nation to the Choctaw tribal authorities in Indian Territory? A No, sir.

Q Have you ever made application for citizenship in the Choctaw Nation to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes under the act of Congress of June 10, 1896? A No, sir.

Q Have you ever been admitted to citizenship in the Choctaw Nation by the Choctaw tribal authorities, the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes or the United States Court in Indian Territory? A No, sir.

Q Did you ever before this time seek to become enrolled as a member of the Choctaw tribe of Indians by making application to either the Choctaw tribal authorities or the United States authorities in Indian Territory? A No, sir.

Q Do you now come before the Commission for the purpose of being identified and for the identification of your child as Mississippi Choctaws claiming under article fourteen of the treaty of 1830? No answer.

Q Do you claim under article fourteen of that treaty or do you claim under the whole treaty. You will have to answer the question one way or the other? A I don't know.

Q You don't understand that treaty? A No, sir.

Q And you don't understand article fourteen do you? A No, sir.

The treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek was made between the United States government and the Choctaw tribe of Indians who lived at that time in the old Choctaw Nation which was partly in Mississippi and partly in Alabama, at a place called Dancing Rabbit Creek on the 27th day of September 1830 and was made for the purpose of removing all of the Choctaw Indians who lived in the old Choctaw Nation to the Choctaw Nation Indian Territory. Before the treaty was signed it became known that a good many Choctaw Indians would refuse to go to the Choctaw Nation Indian Territory and in order to protect the interests of those Indians who wanted to stay back there in the old Choctaw Nation article fourteen was drafted and put into the treaty. After that article was incorporated into the treaty, the treaty was signed and later on the 24th of February 1831 it was ratified. Article fourteen is as follows:

"Each Choctaw head of a family being desirous to remain and become a citizen of the States, shall be permitted to do so, by signifying his intention to the Agent within six months from the ratification of this treaty and he or she shall thereupon be entitled to a reservation of one section of six hundred and forty acres of land to be bounded by sectional lines of survey; in like manner shall be entitled to one half that quantity for each un married child which is living with him over ten years of age and a quarter section to such child as may be under ten years of age to adjoin the location of the parent. If they reside upon said lands intending to become citizens of the States for five years after the ratification of this treaty in that case a grant in fee simple shall issue; said reservation shall include the present improvement of the head of the family or a portion of it. Persons who claim under this article shall not lose the privilege of a Choctaw citizen but if they ever remove are not to be entitled to any portion of the Choctaw annuity."

- Q Article fourteen as has been stated before was put into this treaty for the especial benefit of Mississippi Choctaw Indians, so called. Do you claim under that part of the treaty, that article, or do you claim under the whole treaty? A I don't know myself.
- Q Did you understand it after having heard it read and explained to you. Do you understand what that treaty was made for? A No, sir.
- Q It was made for the purpose of removing the Choctaw Indians from the old Choctaw Nation to the new Choctaw Nation West of the Mississippi River. You understand that do you not? No answer.
- Q Then you also understood that I stated that a good many Indians would not go? A Yes, sir.
- Q Then article fourteen was drafted and put into the treaty for their especial benefit, you understand that? A Yes, sir.
- Q Then the treaty was afterwards signed with that article included and then did you understand that these people who stayed back there were compelled to go to the United States Indian Agent Colonel Ward and tell him that they wanted to stay there, take land there and become citizens of the United States. You understand that? A Yes, sir.
- Q Well that is about all there is for you to understand. Now don't you understand that article. Do you think you can claim under it or don't you understand it so that you can claim under it. You don't have to know every little particular thing about it. Are you not able to answer the question. Do you think you claim under that article? A Yes, sir.
- Q Now do you know whether any of your ancestors complied or attempted to comply with any of the provisions of that article of that treaty? A My mother's sister.
- Q Any of your ancestors, your kins-people way back in a direct line to your remotest great grandfather or great grandmother? A Yes sir, I guess so.
- Q Now you don't know that? A No, sir.
- Q Then you must say you don't know? A I don't know.
- Q What is the name of your ancestor through whom you claim your right to be identified as Mississippi Choctaw? A I don't understand the question.
- Q What is the name of your relative that you claim your rights through? A Millers.
- Q What is the full name, John, Jim or Henry? A No, sir; Hughes M. Miller.
- Q Just let me see how that name is spelled? A I don't know
- Q What relation was he to you? A My ---- grandfather.
- Q How much Choctaw blood did he claim to have? A I don't know.
- Q You never heard? A No, sir.
- Q Did he ever live in Mississippi or Alabama? A I don't know sir whether he did or not.
- Q Do you know whether he claimed his Choctaw blood through his father or mother? A His mother I think.
- Q Did Hugh M. Miller, your grandfather live in Mississippi in 1830 and have a family there at that time? A I don't know sir.
- Q Can you give me the names of any of your ancestors who did live in Mississippi in 1830? A No, sir.
- Q How old would Hugh Miller be if living now? A I don't know sir

- Q Do you know when he was born? A No, sir.
- Q Is this which you offer now taken from the family record? Yes sir.
- Q In these pages which you say were taken from your family bible the name of one H. M. Miller appears is that the Hugh M. Miller, your grandfather? A Yes, sir.
- Q This record states that he was born September 11, 1808; is that right; was that the date of his birth? A I don't know.
- Q Well this record says so; is this record right? A Yes, it is right I guess but I don't know.
- Q Well look at it here and see what it states? A That is what it says.
- Q Then he would be ninety four years old if living now? A I guess so.
- Q Do you know whether he was born in Mississippi or Alabama or where he was born? A No, sir.
- Q You never heard that he lived in Mississippi or any other of your ancestors? A No, sir; I don't think I did.
- Q You claim through your mother; was Hugh M. Miller her father? A Yes, sir.
- Q Did you ever hear that you mother lived in Mississippi or Alabama? A No, sir.
- Q How can you claim to be a descendant from Mississippi Choctaw ancestors when you don't know that you had an ancestor who lived in Mississippi? A Well I know some of my relatives had a claim here.
- Q Did any of your Choctaw ancestors own any improvements on land in Mississippi or Alabama in 1830? A Not that I know of.
- Q Did any of your Choctaw ancestors within six months from the ratification of the treaty of 1830 go to the United States Indian Agent and tell him that they wanted to stay in Mississippi, take land there and become citizens of the United States? A I don't know.
- Q Did any of your Choctaw ancestors go from that old Choctaw Nation Mississippi or Alabama to the Choctaw Nation Indian Territory with the other Indians between 1833 and 1838 or forty? A I don't know.
- Q Did any of your Choctaw ancestors own any land or claim any in Mississippi or Alabama under article fourteen of the treaty of 1830? A I don't know.
- Q Did any of your Choctaw ancestors own any land or claim any in Mississippi or Alabama under any other article of the treaty of 1830 than article fourteen or under the supplement of that treaty? A Not that I know of.
- Q Did any of your Choctaw ancestors claim any benefits as Choctaw Indians under any treaty made between the United States government and the Choctaw tribe of Indians other than the treaty of 1830? A I don't know.

The Choctaw Indians who remained in Mississippi and Alabama in the old Choctaw Nation after the treaty of eighteen hundred and thirty was ratified, were required, if they wanted to take advantage of the provisions of article fourteen of that treaty, to go to the United States Indian Agent whose name was Colonel Ward, within six months from the ratification of the treaty and tell him that they wanted to stay in Mississippi, take land there and become citizens of the United States. A great many Choctaw Indians did this whose names Colonel Ward failed to put upon his list known as Ward's register. As a result of his neglect to make a proper record of the names of all Indians who complied with article fourteen of the treaty of 1830 in that respect a good many Indians who had land in Mississippi upon which they had improvements, lost both their land and the improvements they had upon it, both were taken from them by the government and sold at the public land sales. This caused a great many complaints among the Choctaw Indians, so that in 1837, by act approved March 3, of that year Congress appointed a Commission which Commission went to Mississippi and heard claimants under article fourteen of the treaty of eighteen hundred and thirty. In 1842 by act approved August 23, 1842, Congress appointed another Commission which went to Mississippi and heard claimants under article fourteen of that treaty.

- Q Did any of your Choctaw ancestors go before either of these two Commissions, that of 1837 or the Commission of 1842 and claim benefits as Choctaw Indians under article fourteen of that treaty?
A No, sir; I don't know.

The act of Congress approved August 23, 1842, provided that if any Choctaw Indian proved his claim under article fourteen of the treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek, if it further appeared that he had had land in Mississippi which the government had taken from him formerly and sold, that he should be entitled to select land either in Mississippi, Alabama, Louisiana or Arkansas, to be taken from vacant government lands and that a certificate to that effect should be given him. These certificates were called scrip.

- Q Did any of your Choctaw ancestors get any such scrip from the United States government as Choctaw Indians? A I don't know.
Q Have you had any relatives who have appeared here to be identified as Mississippi Choctaws, before this date? A Yes, sir.
Q What are the names of some of the relatives who have appeared? A William Miller, most of them calls him Bill Miller.
Q What relation is William J. Miller to you? A Second cousin.
Q What relation is Austin Miller to you? A He is a second cousin too.
Q Do they claim through the same common ancestor Hugh M. Miller? A Yes, sir.
Q You say you claim through the same common ancestor through whom your second cousin William J. Miller claims? A Yes, sir.
Q But he claims through his paternal grandmother Susan Pitchlyn and you claim through Hugh M. Miller what relation was Susan Pitchlyn to Hugh M. Miller? A She was his mother.
Q Hugh M. Miller's mother? A Yes, sir.
Q So that you, if you went back one generation, would also claim through Susan Pitchlyn? A Yes, sir.
Q Do you want the record made in the case of William J. Miller and also in the case of Austin Miller considered with your case when that is taken up for consideration by the Commission? A Yes, sir.

Reference is here made to William J. Miller, M.C.R. 934
Austin Miller, M.C.R. 3381

- Q Do you speak or understand the Choctaw language? A No, sir.
Q Is there anything further you want to say in support of this claim; anything further you want to say? A No, sir.
Q Have you any documentary evidence or any other evidence you want to introduce at this time? A No, sir.

Applicant excused.

William James Miller called as a witness in behalf of this applicant being first duly sworn testifies as follows:

Examination by the Commission.

- Q What is your name? A William James Miller.
- Q Are you the same William J. Miller who made application to be identified as a Mississippi Choctaw before the Commission at Muskogee, Indian Territory, October 24, 1900? A Yes, sir.
- Q What is your age? A Fifty-four.
- Q What is your post office address? A Roberta.
- Q You have changed your address from Durant? A Yes, sir.
- Q How long have you lived at Roberta? A I went there the second day of last month.
- Q What is your occupation? A Farmer.
- Q Do you know Hattie Batten? A Yes, sir.
- Q What relation is she to you? A Second cousin.
- Q She claims her Choctaw blood through her grandfather Hugh M. Miller? A Yes, sir.
- Q You claim through Susan Pitchlyn? A Yes, sir; The way it is her grandfather was a brother to my father Jake Miller and their mother was Susan Pitchlyn.
- Q Did Hugh M. Miller live in Mississippi? A Yes, sir.
- Q Did Susan Pitchlyn live in Mississippi? A Yes, sir.
- Q Did Hugh M. Miller live in Mississippi in 1830 and have a family there at that time? A I don't recollect, I was born in 1847.
- Q Don't you recall whether Hugh M. Miller lived there in Mississippi? A I don't know. I know her father and him lived there and left there and came to Louisiana.
- Q Did Susan Pitchlyn live there in 1830 and have a family there at that time? A I don't know.
- Q Hugh M. Miller was born in what year? A I can state unless I look over the record.
- Q Well you have seen the family record in the bible? A Yes, sir.
- Q Well, that states that he was born in the year 1808? A That is what I saw in the record.
- Q What record was that? A That is,--that was in the family bible.
- Q Of what family, belonged to whom? A I think it was on Hugh's.
- Q John Hugh's? A Uncle Hugh Miller.
- Q Who was he? A That was the Hugh Miller that you have down there.
- Q The grandfather of this applicant? A Yes, sir.
- Q Do you know whether Hugh M. Miller or any other ancestor of this applicant ever complied or attempted to comply with article fourteen of the treaty of 1830? A Not as I know of.
- Q How old would Hugh M. Miller be if living now? A I don't know only what I heard you say a minute ago.
- Q Well he was born in 1808, he would be ninety-four years old? A Yes, sir.
- Q Did he have an Indian name or speak the Choctaw Indian language? A Not as I know of.
- Q How much Choctaw blood did he have? A What the relations tells me that their mother was a half breed.
- Q Whose mother? A Jake and Hugh Miller's mother.
- Q How much would Hugh be then? A I don't know.
- Q One-half of one-half which is one-quarter? A Yes, sir.
- Q In your application which you made before the Commission you stated that you claimed one-quarter yourself; but, Hugh M. Miller was a brother of your father, was he not? A Yes, sir.
- Q And your father's name was what? A Jake Miller.
- Q And Jake Miller would have the same blood that his Brother Hugh M. Miller had? A Yes, sir.

#7

- Q Well you testified that Hugh M. Miller had one-quarter, of course your father, his brother, would have one-quarter? A Yes, sir.
- Q And you would have one-half of your father? A Yes, sir.
- Q Then you would have one-eighth? A I don't know how to divide it up.
- Q Well that is the way to divide it up? A Yes, sir.
- Q How much Choctaw blood would this young lady have, whose grandfather was Hugh M. Miller? A I can't tell you that.
- Q Well you say Hugh M. Miller had one-half? A Yes, sir.
- Q Was Phillis Morgan his daughter? A Yes, sir.
- Q Then Phillis would have one-eighth, one-half of one-quarter would she not? A Yes, sir.
- Q And this young lady would have one-half of one-eighth or one-sixteenth, you think that is right? A Yes; it looks like to me that is right.
- Q She would have half the quantity that you have and it has been shown that you have one-eighth, therefore she would have one-sixteenth which is one-half of what her mother had? A Yes, sir.
- Q Is there anything further that you want to say in support of this claim? A No, sir.

Witness excused.

This applicant has the appearance and physical characteristics of being descended from white parentage; dark brown hair; black eyes; medium dark complexion. She does not understand the Choctaw language and has no knowledge of compliance on the part of her ancestors with the provisions of article fourteen of the treaty of eighteen hundred and thirty.

G. Rosenwinkel being duly sworn on his oath states that as stenographer to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes he reported in full all the proceedings had in the above entitled cause on February 17, 1902, and that the above and foregoing is a full, true and correct transcript of his stenographic notes in said cause on said date of February 1902.

Applicants not represented by attorney.

Fannie Cox being first duly sworn testified as follows:

Examination by the Commission

- Q What is your name? A Fannie Cox.
Q C-o-x? A Yes, sir.
Q What is your age? A Fifty-two.
Q What is your post-office address? A Wynnewood, I.T.
Q How long have you lived at Wynnewood, Indian Territory? A Ten years.
Q Where did you live before you lived there? A Louisiana.
Q Were you born in Louisiana? A Yes, sir.
Q Do you remember what place in Louisiana? A Bienville, Parish, Louisiana.
Q How old were you when you left the state of Indiana? A Forty-two.
Q And you came to what place in Indian Territory when you were forty two years old? A Wynnewood.
Q Ten years ago? A Yes, sir.
Q Is your father living? A No, sir.
Q Is your mother living? A Yes, sir; she is living somewhere, I don't know where. They went off and left me when I was small.
Q What was your father's name? A Forest Whitlow.
Q What is your mother's name? A Laura Martin.
Q Did she marry again? A Yes, sir.
Q Through which parent do you claim Choctaw blood? A By my mother she was partly mixed but my father I think was a full blood.
Q You claim through both father and mother? A Yes, I think my father was a full blood. I was given to an old white lady who raised me.
Q How much Choctaw blood do you claim? A I think my father was half blood.
Q How much Choctaw blood did your mother have? A I think she was about one-half or may be one-quarter.
Q If your father was one-half you would be one-half of that? A Yes sir.
Q Your mother was one-quarter you would be one-half of that? A Yes, sir.
Q That would be one-eighth? A Yes, sir.
Q You claim three-eighths do you? A Yes, sir.
Q You testified a little while ago that your father was a full blood and now you say that he was a half blood? A Well he looks like a full blood.
Q What was his other blood? A White
Q Your father was not a slave? A No, sir.

- Q You say your mother was one-quarter Choctaw blood? A Yes, sir.
- Q What was her other blood? A Black.
- Q Then you claim to have white, black and Indian blood? A Yes, sir.
- Q Was your mother a slave before the War? A I reckon she was.
- Q Were you? A I don't know.
- Q You were not free? A No, sir; I was not turned loose until the rest was.
- Q You were considered a slave? A Yes, I was considered part slave.
- Q Well you could not be considered a part slave; you were either a free person or a slave? A The old lady raised me, the old white lady.
- Q You were considered a slave were you not? A Yes; I reckon I was.
- Q And you received your freedom at emancipation did you not? A Yes, sir.
- Q Were your parents ever recognized in any way or enrolled as members of the Choctaw tribe of Indians by the Choctaw tribal authorities or the United States authorities in Indian Territory? A I think my father was.
- Q But he never lived in the Indian Territory? A I don't know.
- Q Did he ever live in the Indian Territory? A I don't know sir.
- Q Then how do you know that he was enrolled as a Choctaw Indian in Indian Territory? A I was always told that.
- Q And yet you don't know that he ever lived here? A He left over there but I don't know where he went to, whether he was ever enrolled or not.
- Q How long has your father been dead? A I don't know.
- Q Where did he die? A I don't know where he died at.
- Q Where did he live when you last knew anything about him? A In Louisiana.
- Q You never heard of him leaving Louisiana? A Yes, but I don't know where he went to. We think he went to the Indian Territory.
- Q What do you mean by him going to the Indian Territory? A We all think he did.
- Q How do you know that? A Only what I was told.
- Q Who told you that he went to the Indian Territory after he left Louisiana? A The old white lady what raised me.
- Q Did she say that he went to the Indian Territory? A Yes, sir.
- Q Did she say when he died? A No, sir.
- Q Where is your mother now? A She is back in Louisiana.
- Q She never was enrolled as a Choctaw Indian in Indian Territory? A No, sir.
- Q Are you married? A Yes, sir.
- Q What is your husband's name? A Richard Cox.
- Q He is living I suppose? A Yes, sir.
- Q What is he, a Negro? A He is a mixed blood Indian, his father was a half Indian.
- Q Has he any white blood? A No, sir.
- Q What kind of Indian is he? A I think he is a Commanche.
- Q Commanche Indian and White is that right? A Black.
- Q Do you make any claim for him? A No, sir.
- Q Now give me the name of the oldest child unmarried and under age that you want to make application for? A They are twins, Dick and Willie.
- Q Richard? A Yes, sir.
- Q How old is Richard? A Eighteen.
- Q How the next? A He is eighteen.
- Q Don'd you call him William? A No; Willie.
- Q How old is he? A Eighteen, they are twin boys.

#3

- Q Now the next boy or girl? A Missie.
Q How old? A She is sixteen.
Q Next? A Ezel.
Q How do you spell that; do you know? A A It starts with a "Z", I don't know how it is spelled.
Q Is that a boy or girl? A Boy.
Q Is that all? A Yes, sir.
Q How old is he? A He is twelve years old.
Q Is Richard Cox the father of these children? A Of one of them I have been married twice.
Q Richard Cox is the father of which one? A To Ezel, the youngest one.
Q What is the name of the father of Richard, Willie and Missie? A Nathan Smart.
Q Negro? A Part Negro; both of them was part Indian and part Negro.
Q What was his Indian blood? A I don't know sir what it was.
Q Is Nathan Smart dead? A Yes, sir.
Q You don't know whether he had any Choctaw blood? A I don't know whether it was Choctaw or not.
Q Your son Richard and his twin brother Willie are the children of your husband Nathan Smart? A Yes, and Missie.
Q Who is now dead? A Yes, sir. Choctaw
Q You don't claim that Nathan Smart had any Indian blood? A I don't know what it was.
Q Whatever Choctaw blood you claim for these children you claim through you do you not? A Yes, sir.
Q Is your name or the names of these children on any of the tribal rolls of the Choctaw Nation in Indian Territory? A Not as I knows of.
Q Have you ever made application for citizenship for yourself and children in the Choctaw Nation to the Choctaw tribal authorities in Indian Territory? A No, sir.
Q Have you ever made application for citizenship in the Choctaw Nation for yourself and children to the Dawes Commission under the act of Congress of June 10, 1896? A No, sir.
Q Have you or your children ever been admitted to citizenship in the Choctaw Nation by either the Choctaw tribal authorities, the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes or the United States Court in Indian Territory? A No, sir.
Q Do you now come before the Commission to be identified yourself and your children as Mississippi Choctaws claiming under article fourteen of the treaty of 1830? A Yes, sir.
Q Do you understand that article of that treaty? A No, sir; I don't understand it but I have heard it right smart.

The treaty of 1830 was made between the United States government and the Choctaw Indians at a place called Dancing Rabbit Creek in the state of Mississippi on the 27th day of September 1830 and was made for the purpose of removing the Choctaw Indians from that old Choctaw Nation East of the Mississippi River to the Choctaw Nation, Indian Territory. Before the treaty could be signed however it became known that a good many Choctaw Indians would not go to the Choctaw Nation Indian Territory and in order to protect the interest of these Indians it was necessary to put an article in the treaty which would be satisfactory to them, so article fourteen was drafted and put into the treaty of 1830. That article is as follows:

"Each Choctaw head of a family being desirous to remain and become a citizen of the States shall be permitted to do so by signifying his intention to the Agent within six months from the ratification of this treaty and he or she shall thereupon be entitled to a reservation of one section of six hundred and forty acres of land to be bounded by sectional lines of survey; in like manner shall be entitled to one half that quantity for each unmarried child which is living with him over ten years of age and a quarter section to such child as may be under ten years of age, to adjoin the location of the parent. If they reside upon said lands intending to become citizens of the States for five years after the ratification of this treaty in that case a grant in fee simple shall issue; said reservation shall include the present improvement of the head of the family or a portion of it. Persons who claim under this article shall not lose the privilege of a Choctaw citizen but if they ever remove are not to be entitled to any portion of the Choctaw annuity."

- Q Do you know whether any of your Choctaw ancestors complied with the provisions of that article? A My sisters?
- Q Ancestors ever complied with anything stated in that article? A I never have had any sisters.
- Q I mean ancestor; An ancestor is a relative of yours in a straight line back from you; your father or mother; grandfather or grandmother; great grandfather or great grandmother? A Yes, they all left.
- Q What is the name of your ancestor through whom you claim your right to be identified as a Mississippi Choctaw; now give me the name of your grandfather or grandmother, whoever you claim through? A Mary Martin--was my grandmother.
- Q Did she live in Mississippi? A Yes, sir.
- Q Did she live there in 1830? A I expect she did.
- Q Did she have a family there in 1830? A I think she did.
- Q How old would Mary Martin be if living now? A Now; she would be over one-hundred years old; she was eighty-five when she died.
- Q When did she die? A Fifteen years ago.
- Q She would be 102 years now? A Yes, sir.
- Q Was she born in Mississippi? A Yes, my mother was too.
- Q How old is your mother now? A I don't know sir; she is pretty old.
- Q How old do you think she would be? A Seventy some odd years.
- Q And she was born in Mississippi? A Yes, sir.
- Q Now did your grandmother Mary Martin own any improvements on land in Mississippi or Alabama in 1830? A I don't know sir.
- Q Did she or any of your Choctaw ancestors within six months after the ratification of the treaty of 1830 go to the United States Indian Agent whose name was Colonel Ward and tell him that they wanted to stay in Mississippi, take land there and become citizens of the United States? A Not as I know of.
- Q Did any of your Choctaw ancestors go from that old Choctaw Nation to the Choctaw Nation Indian Territory with the other Indians between 1833 and 1838? A All of my father's people left but I can't tell what time it was; I was nothing but a little baby when they all left.
- Q Did any of your Choctaw ancestors own any land or claim any in Mississippi or Alabama under article fourteen of the treaty of 1830? A I think they did in Mississippi.
- Q Do you know? A I think my father had some.
- Q Get it from the government? A I don't know.
- Q Under article fourteen of that treaty? A I could not tell you that.

#5

- Q Did any of your Choctaw ancestors claim any land or receive any in Mississippi or Alabama under any other article of the treaty of 1830 than article fourteen or under the supplement of that treaty? A I don't know.
- Q You never heard? A No, sir.
- Q Did any of your Choctaw ancestors claim any benefits under any treaty made between the United States government and the Choctaw Indians other than the treaty of 1830? A I don't know sir.

The Choctaw Indians who remained in the old Choctaw Nation in Mississippi and Alabama after the treaty of 1830 was ratified were required if they wanted to take advantage of the provisions of article fourteen of that treaty to go to the United States Indian Agent whose name was Colonel Ward, within six months from the ratification of the treaty, and tell him that they wanted to stay in Mississippi, take land there and become citizens of the United States. A good many Choctaw Indians did this whose names Colonel Ward failed to put upon his list known as Ward's register. His failure to make a complete list of all Choctaw Indian claimants who came before him under article fourteen of the treaty of 1830, caused a good many Indians who had land in Mississippi and Alabama upon which they owned improvements to lose both, for both were taken from them by the government and sold. This caused a great many complaints among the Choctaw Indians, and, as the result of these complaints, Congress, in 1837, appointed a Commission, by act approved March 3, of that year. This Commission went to Mississippi and heard claimants under article fourteen of the treaty of 1830. Another Commission was appointed by act of Congress of August 23rd 1842 and this Commission went to Mississippi and heard claimants under article fourteen of the treaty of 1830.

- Q Did any of your Choctaw ancestors go before either of these two Commissions claiming benefits as Choctaw Indians? A Not that I know of.
- Q Have you any evidence that you want to submit now in support of this claim ; any papers? A I have to have my proof carried back.
- Q You have not got it with you? A No, sir.
- Q You want time in which to produce it? A Yes, sir.

A reasonable time will be allowed this applicant to present further proof in support of her application.

The act of Congress approved August 23rd, 1842, provided, that; if any Choctaw Indian proved his claim under article fourteen of the treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek; if it also further appeared that he had had land in Mississippi which the government had taken from him and sold that he should be entitled to select land either in Mississippi, Alabama, Louisiana, or Arkansas, to be taken from vacant government lands and that a certificate to that effect should be given him. These certificates were called scrip.

- Q Did any of your Choctaw ancestors receive any such scrip from the government as Choctaw Indians? A No, sir; Not as I know of.
- Q Do you speak the Choctaw language? A No, sir.
- Q Have you had any relatives who have appeared here to be identified as Mississippi Choctaws? A No, sir.
- Q You are the first one of your kin folks or family? A I am the first that I know of.

This applicant has the appearance and physical characteristics of being descended from mixed ancestry, of Negro, White and Indian; her hair is long, black and coarse and a little curly. She says it use to be straight but after she had the small-pox it caused it to curl. She does not understand the Choctaw language and has no knowledge of compliance on the part of her ancestors with any of the provisions of article fourteen of the treaty of 1830. In her physical appearance the Negro seems to predominate.

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR.
COMMISSION TO THE FIVE CIVILIZED TRIBES.

In the matter of the application of Fannie Cox, et al.,
for identification as Mississippi Choctaws, M. C. R. 4753.

It appears from the record herein that application for identification as Mississippi Choctaws was made to this Commission by Fannie Cox for herself and her four minor children, Willie, Richard and Missie Smart and Ezel Cox, under the following provision of the act of Congress approved June 28, 1898 (30 Stats., 495):

"Said Commission shall have authority to determine the identity of Choctaw Indians claiming rights in the Choctaw
lands under article fourteen of the treaty between the United States and the Choctaw Nation concluded September twenty-seventh, eighteen hundred and thirty, and to that end may administer oaths, examine witnesses, and perform all other acts necessary thereto and make report to the Secretary of the Interior."

It also appears that all of said applicants claim rights in the Choctaw lands under article fourteen of the treaty between the United States and the Choctaw Nation concluded September twenty-seventh, eighteen hundred and thirty, by reason of being descendants of Mary Martin, who is alleged to have been possessed of some Choctaw Indian blood (degree thereof not stated) and to have resided in Mississippi in eighteen hundred and thirty; and Forest
(or Fannie) Whitley, who is alleged to have been a half blood

Choctaw Indian, and Laura Whitlow (nee Martin), who is alleged to have been an one-fourth blood Choctaw Indian.

It further appears from the evidence submitted in support of said application and from the records in the possession of the Commission that none of said applicants has ever been enrolled by the Choctaw tribal authorities as a member of the Choctaw tribe, or admitted to Choctaw citizenship by a duly constituted court or committee of the Choctaw Nation, or by the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes, or by a decree of the United States Court in Indian Territory, under the provisions of the act of Congress approved June 10, 1896 (29 Stats., 321).

It does not appear from the testimony and evidence offered in support of said application, or from the records in the possession of the Commission relating to persons who complied or attempted to comply with the provisions of said article fourteen of the treaty of eighteen hundred and thirty, and to persons who heretofore were claimants thereunder, that the said Mary Martin, or Forest (or Harris) Whitlow, or Laura Whitlow (nee Martin) signified (in person or by proxy) to Colonel Wm. Ward, Indian Agent, Choctaw Agency, an intention to comply with the provisions of said article fourteen, or presented a claim to rights thereunder to either of the Commissions authorized to adjudicate such claims by the acts of Congress approved March 3, 1837 (5 Stats., 180), and August 23, 1842 (5 Stats., 513).

It is therefore the opinion of this Commission that the evidence herein is insufficient to determine the identity of Fannie Cox, Willie Smart, Richard Smart, Missie Smart and Ezel

Cox as Choctaw Indians entitled to rights in the Choctaw lands under the provisions of said article fourteen of the treaty of eighteen hundred and thirty, and that the application for their identification as such should be refused, and it is so ordered.

Dear Madam:

You are hereby advised that on the 6th day of December, 1902, the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes rendered a decision in the case of Fannie Cox, et al., applicants for identification as Mississippi Choctaws.

This application was made under the provision of the act of Congress of June 28, 1898 (30 Stats., 495), which is as follows:

"Said Commission shall have authority to determine the identity of Choctaw Indians claiming rights in the Choctaw lands under article fourteen of the treaty between the United States and the Choctaw Nation, concluded September twenty-seventh, eighteen hundred and thirty, and to that end may administer oaths, examine witnesses and perform all other acts necessary thereto, and make report to the Secretary of the Interior."

Said decision concludes as follows:

"It is therefore the opinion of this Commission that the evidence herein is insufficient to determine the identity of Fannie Cox, Willie Smart, Richard Smart, Missie Smart and Esal Cox as Choctaw Indians entitled to rights in the Choctaw lands under the provisions of said article fourteen of the treaty of eighteen hundred and thirty, and that the application for their identification as such should be refused, and it is so ordered."

You are further advised that you will be allowed fifteen days from the date hereof within which to file arguments in this office, and that at the expiration of said time the papers in the case, together with such arguments, will be forwarded for review to

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR,

OFFICE OF INDIAN AFFAIRS,

Washington, Feb. 27, 1903.

The Honorable,

The Secretary of the Interior.

Sir:

There is transmitted herewith for your consideration the record of the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes in the matter of the application of Fannie Cox for herself and her four minor children, Willie, Richard, Missie Smart and Exel Cox, for identification as Mississippi Choctaws claiming rights as such under the provisions of the 14th article of the Choctaw treaty of 1830.

The testimony in this case shows that the applicants base their claim to identification under this application on their descent from Mary Martin, who it is alleged, was a Choctaw Indian and a resident in the Choctaw Nation in Mississippi at the time of the making of the Choctaw treaty of 1830, through

Forest (or Farris) Whitlow and Laura Whitlow, nee Martin.

The Commission rejected the applicants December 6, 1902, because the name of their ancestor under whom they claim does not appear among those who complied or attempted to comply with the provisions of the 14th article of said treaty, and for the additional reason that the applicants have never been enrolled as citizens of the Choctaw Nation.

An examination of the records of this office has been made with reference to the names of Mary Martin, Forest (or Farris) Whitlow and Laura Whitlow nee Martin, and it is discovered that their names do not appear among those who complied or attempted to comply with the provisions of the 14th article of said treaty. Neither does it appear that they applied to the commission appointed under the Acts of March 3, 1837, and August 29, 1842, for an adjudication of their rights as Choctaw Indians, if they had such rights.

These being the facts it is respectfully recommended that the decision of the Commission rejecting the applicants be approved.

Very respectfully,
(Signed), A.C. Tonner,
Acting Commissioner.

Gentlemen:

December 22, 1902, you transmitted the record in the matter of the application for identification as Mississippi Choctaws of Fannie Cox and her minor children, Willie, Richard and Missie Smart, and Exel Cox, including your decision of December 6, 1902, refusing the application.

The applicants endeavor to trace their descent from Mary Martin, alleged to have been a Choctaw Indian, residing in Mississippi in 1850, from Forest (or Farris) Whitlow, who is said to have been a half blood Choctaw Indian, and from Laura Whitlow (nee Martin) alleged to have been a one-fourth blood Choctaw Indian.

The records fail to show that the applicants were ever admitted or enrolled as citizens of the Choctaw Nation, or that any one of their alleged ancestors complied or attempted to comply with article 14 of the treaty of September 27, 1830, or with either of the acts of March 3, 1837 (5 Stat., 180), and August 23, 1842 (5 Stat., 515).

Reporting February 27, 1903, the Acting Commissioner of Indian Affairs recommends approval of your decision; a copy of his letter is inclosed.

The Department has reviewed the record, and hereby affirms the decision rendered.

Respectfully,

In the matter of the application of Elizabeth W. Collier for the identification of herself and one minor child, Valeria E., as Mississippi Choctaws.

Elizabeth W. Collier, having been first duly sworn, upon her oath testified as follows:

Examination by the Commission.

- Q What is your name? A Elizabeth W. Collier.
- Q How old are you? A Thirty three.
- Q How much Choctaw blood have you? A My grand father married a Choctaw woman; she may be a half breed.
- Q That would make you an eighth, then? A I don't know how you figure that out, you know.
- Q What's your post office address? A Shaw, Mississippi.
- Q What county? A Boliver County.
- Q How long have you lived in Boliver County? A For the past six years.
- Q Where did you live before then? A In Macon, Mississippi, and in Montgomery County.
- Q Where were you born? A In Indianola, Mississippi.
- Q You have lived in this State all your life? A Yes, sir.
- Q Is your father living? A No, sir.
- Q What was his name? A Goldsby Chambliss Walker.
- Q Is your mother living? A No, sir.
- Q What was her name? A Catherine Green.
- Q That was her maiden name? A Yes, sir.
- Q Through which one of your parents did you get your Choctaw blood? A From my father.
- Q How long has he been dead? A He died in '79.
- Q Do you know how much Choctaw blood he had? A His mother - his father was the one that married the Choctaw woman.
- Q You don't know whether she was a full blood Choctaw woman, or not? A No, sir, I do not.
- Q Where was your father born? A In Alabama, or Mississippi, I don't know which; in Alabama, I think.
- Q Do you know what place in Alabama? A No, sir, I do not.
- Q How long did he live there before he came to Mississippi? A I don't know.
- Q Did he ever live any place except in Alabama, or Mississippi? A I think not.
- Q How old would your father be if he were living now? A He was about sixty when he died about twenty three years ago; he would be about eighty.
- Q He got his Choctaw blood through his mother? A Yes, sir.
- Q What was her name? A Frances Chambliss.
- Q Did you ever see her? A No, sir.
- Q You don't know just how much Choctaw blood she had? A No, sir, I am not positive; I think a half breed.

Elizabeth W. Collier, et al., 2.

- Q Do you know where she was born? A No, sir, I don't know.
- Q You don't know where she lived during her life time? A No, sir, I know she lived in Mississippi with my grand father, and of course that is so far back I have to remember what has been handed down.
- Q Do you know the name of either one of her parents? A No, sir, I do not.
- Q Application has heretofore been made to the Commission by other descendants of Frances Chambliss? A Yes, sir.
- Q What's your husband's name? A J. G. Collier.
- Q What does that "J" stand for? A Jesse.
- Q Is he living? A Yes, sir.
- Q Has he any Choctaw blood? A No, sir, he doesn't claim any.
- Q You make no claim for him? A No, sir.
- Q How many children has he living? A One.
- Q What's the name of that child? A Valeria E.
- Q How old? A Ten months.
- Q The child of yourself and Jesse G. Collier? A Yes, sir.
- Q This application is for yourself and one child? A Yes, sir.
- Q Is your name on any of the Choctaw Tribal rolls in Indian Territory? A I couldn't say.
- Q Have you ever made any application of any description before today for the purpose of establishing your rights as a Choctaw Indian? A No, sir, but others have, so mine may come in as proof; I have got an affidavit.
- Q You mean that relatives of yours have made application? A Yes, sir.
- Q This is the first application of any kind that has ever been made for you? A Yes, sir.
- Q Do you appear before the Commission at this time for the purpose of claiming rights in the Choctaw lands in Indian Territory for yourself and minor child under article 14 of the treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek? A I do.
- Q Do you understand article 14 of the treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek? A Yes, sir, but I would have you to read it to me.

This treaty was made here in 1830, on the 27th day of September. At the time the treaty was made, the Choctaws lived here in Mississippi and Along the western edge of the State of Alabama. The object of the treaty was to get these Indians to move from this country to a new country west of the Mississippi River, commonly known as the Choctaw Nation, Indian Territory. At the time the treaty was made, some of the Indians were unwilling to leave this country and for the benefit of those who wanted to stay here what is known as the 14th article was put in the treaty. That 14th article provided that upon certain conditions a Choctaw who wanted to stay here in Mississippi and not move out to the new nation, might receive land here in Mississippi from the Government. It is as follows:

"Each Choctaw head of a family being desirous to remain and come a citizen of the States shall be permitted to do so by signing his intention to the agent within six months from the ratification of this treaty, and he or she shall thereupon be entitled to a reservation of one section of six hundred and forty acres of land, to be bounded by sectional lines of survey; in like manner shall be entitled to one-half that quantity for each unmarried child which is living with his over ten years of age; and a quarter section to such child as may be under ten years of age, to adjoin the location of the parent. If they reside upon said land, intending to become citizens of the States, for five years after the ratification of this treaty, in that case a grant in fee simple shall issue; said reservation shall include the present improvement of the head of the family, or a portion of it. Persons who claim under this article shall not lose the privilege of a Choctaw citizen, but if they ever remove are not to be entitled to any portion of the Choctaw annuity."

Elizabeth W. Collier, et al., 3.

Q. That's the 14th article of the treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek, do you think you understand that now? A. I do.

Q. Did any of your ancestors ever comply or attempt to comply with its provisions, or ever receive any benefits thereunder? A. I think they have complied with the treaty.

Q. What one of them? A. I believe that my mother did.

Q. Your mother? A. My grandmother, I mean.

Q. Frances Chambliss? A. Yes, sir.

Q. What leads you to believe that? A. It's on record, I think.

Well, I haven't heard about the special treaty, but I think it's on record.

Q. On record where, Mrs. Collier? A. In this office, I suppose. I don't know that I can answer that.

Q. What was the name of your grand father? A. John Walker.

Q. The husband of Frances Chambliss? A. Yes, sir.

Q. He had no Choctaw blood? A. Didn't claim any.

Q. Do you know where he or his wife lived on the 27th day of September, 1830? A. No, sir, I don't know.

Q. Do you know where they lived for five years after that time, or six years after that? A. No, sir, I do not.

Q. Do you know whether any of your Choctaw ancestors owned an improvement here in the old Choctaw Nation, in Mississippi and Alabama, in the year 1830, when this treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek was made? A. No, sir, I don't know.

Q. Do you know in fact that any of them lived here at that time? A. In Mississippi.

Q. In the old Choctaw Nation? Yes? A. No, sir, I do not.

Q. Did any of them move out to the new nation west of the Mississippi River when the greater portion of the Choctaw tribe of Indian moved out there? A. I don't know when they moved, but one of John Walker's daughters and her descendants -

Q. What is her name? A. Elizabeth Ryan.

Q. She is a daughter of John Walker, your grand father? A. Yes, sir.

Q. She has heretofore made application to the Commission? A. Yes, sir, she lives there.

Q. Do you know when she went out there? A. No, sir.

Q. Is she as much as seventy one years old now? A. Yes, sir, I expect she is. I couldn't say positively, but she is older than my father; I am very sure that she is over seventy one.

Q. Did John Walker, or his wife, go out there? A. I think not.

Q. Did any of your Choctaw ancestors, within six months after the treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek was ratified, let the agent of the Elizabeth W. Collier, et al., 4.

Government here in Mississippi for the Choctaws knew that they wanted to stay here in Mississippi and become citizens of the States and take land? A I don't know.

Q Did any of them ever claim or receive any land here in Mississippi, from the Government of the United States under article 14 of the treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek of your knowledge? A I do not know

Q Any of them ever get any land here in Mississippi from the Government at any time? A I don't know.

Q Did any of them ever get any money from the Government? A Not to my knowledge.

Q So far as you know, then, none of your ancestors ever received any benefits whatever as Choctaw Indians? A Not to my knowledge.

In accordance with the provisions of article 14 of the treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek, the Government of the United States directed an agent here in Mississippi to register the names of such Choctaws as might desire to remain here and become citizens of the States and take land; and the records of the Government show that this agent failed to register and report to the Government the names of many Indians who did, in fact, let him know that they wanted to stay here and become citizens of the States and on this account the Government at its public land sales here in Mississippi in many instances sold land upon which Choctaws lived and had improvements, and which they supposed they would receive under article 14 of the treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek. This caused a great deal of complaint among the Indians, and the matter was finally brought to the attention of Congress, and Congress passed certain Acts between the years 1837 and 1842, providing for the appointment of commissioners to come down here to Mississippi and hear the cases of Choctaws who claimed that they had complied in all respects with the provisions of article 14 of the treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek, but that their land had been sold by the Government. These commissioners were appointed by the President of the United States, and they came down here to Mississippi and heard a great many of these Choctaw cases.

Q Did any of your ancestors appear before any of these commissioners and attempt to establish their rights under article 14 of the treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek? A Not to my knowledge.

An Act of Congress approved August 23, 1842, provided that in case it should be finally determined that a Choctaw had complied in all respects with the provisions of article 14 of the treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek, but that his land had been sold by the Government, he should be entitled to receive in the place of that land so sold by the Government, land some place else here in Mississippi, or Alabama, from vacant Government land, and should be given a certificate to that effect. These certificates were called scrip.

Elizabeth W. Collier, et al., 5.

Q Did any of your ancestors ever get any of this scrip from the Government of the United States under this Act of Congress? A I don't know.

Q Do you know of any old person living who would likely know whether any of your ancestors ever complied or attempted to comply with the provisions of article 14 of the treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek, or ever received any benefits under that article? A There may be in Alabama some of those persons - daughters and sons of John Walker.

Q Do you know the names of them? A Mr. John Walker's daughter, Mrs. Woodall, but her son, William Woodall is living in Alabama.

Q She is not living herself? A No, sir, but her son.

Q How old is he? A She was married - one of the oldest daughters, and her son may be very old, I haven't seen him.

Q Has he been before the Commission? A No, sir, I think not.

Q Do you know of any one who would know about this 14th article compliance by your ancestors now, that was seventy one years ago?

A I don't know any one person?

Q Any living person, yes? A No, sir, I don't know any.

Q Do you know of any written evidence of any kind which would show or tend to show such a state of facts? A I have been told that it was on the record.

Q You are talking about the record some of your people brought here and gave in their testimony before the Commission, and found on the original Ward's list white man named John Walker; that's what you refer to in your testimony? A Yes, sir, it speaks of his wife, a ~~wh~~ half breed Indian; I am not positive - and seven children.

Q This information you have got on from some of your relatives?

A I have seen the record myself.

Q You know of no other written evidence of any kind? A No, sir.

Q You, of course, would not attempt to say that this John Walker on the original Ward's list is your grand father? A Yes, Why not?

Q Do you mean to swear to that? A As much as any of us know who our grand father is.

Q Don't you think there could have been another John Walker down here at that time? A No, sir, I think not. I have always known we had Indian blood in us, and I have an old slave ~~whoknew~~ and ~~witix~~ I understand - and I am just as positive as any one could be of our grand father.

Q What is the name of the old slave? A Ephraim Boatwright.

Q He has been before the Commission in one of the other cases and testified has he not? A Yes, sir.

Q Do you know how many children John Walker had? A Seven.

Q Do you know how many children he had on the 27th day of September 1830? A No, I don't say that.

Q Didn't he have more than seven Mrs. Collier? A I have never heard of more than seven; he may have had.

Q Do you remember the names of those seven? A Yes, sir, I think I do.

Q Name them please? A Elizabeth, Mary, William, James, John, Golsby and Nancy.

Q Now, where did your father come in that list of children; was he next to the youngest the way you have named them? A No, sir, I don't think I named in the order in which they were born. My father he was not the oldest; he may be in the middle somewhere.

Elizabeth W. Collier, et al., 6.

Q How old would the oldest one of John Tasker's children be if she were living now? A I couldn't form any idea, because father is not the oldest, and he would have been eighty, and he was not the oldest; I couldn't say positive.

Q The only one of these children living now, is Elizabeth Ryan, your father's sister, who lives in Indian Territory, is that correct?

A I think so, yes sir, and I couldn't say that she is living from my own knowledge; that's just what I heard, because I have not seen her.

Q Did you ever see her? A No, sir, never did; I am positive I didn't I was so young, I don't know that ever I did. But I am positive she was my father's sister.

Q Have you any brothers or sisters living? A Yes, sir, I have a sister in Indian Territory - two living, E.G. Dean and Mrs. Alberta W. Gaines.

Q Application has been made to the Commission by each one of these sisters? A Yes, sir.

Q Are there any further statements you want to make? A No, sir, nothing; I have no information to give.

Q Have you any witnesses here to-day? A No, sir.

If you should find any witnesses whose testimony you desire to have taken by the Commission, in support of your application, they may appear before the Commission, here at Meridian, Mississippi, before the 15th of this month, or within a reasonable time there after at the General Office of the Commission, in Muskogee, Indian Territory, and their testimony will be taken.

R. S. Streit, having been first duly sworn, upon his oath states that as stenographer to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes, he reported in full all proceedings had in the above entitled cause at Meridian, Mississippi, Mississippi, on the 15th day of February, 1902, and that the above and foregoing is a full, true and correct translation of his stenographic notes of said proceedings in said cause upon said date.

cept your mother? A No, sir.

Q Are you married? A Yes, sir.

Q Is your husband living? A Yes, sir.

Q Has he any Choctaw blood? A No, sir.

Q You make no claim for him, then? A No, sir.

Q What's his name? A Dick Green.

Q Have you any children under age? A No, sir.

Q This application, then, is for yourself only? A Yes, sir.

Q Is your name on any of the Choctaw tribal rolls in Indian Territory? A No, sir. I don't know.

Q Has any application of any description ever been made for you before to-day for the purpose of establishing your rights as a Choctaw Indian? A No, sir.

Q Do you appear before the Commission at this time for the purpose of claiming rights in the Choctaw lands in Indian Territory under article 14 of the treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek? A Yes, sir.

Q Do you understand article 14 of the treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek? A No, I don't.

This treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek was entered into here in Mississippi on the 27th day of September, 1830, between the United States Government and the Choctaw tribe of Indians. At the time the treaty was made, the Choctaws lived here in Mississippi and along the western edge of the State of Alabama. The object of the treaty was to get these Indians to move from the Country occupied by them here in Mississippi and Alabama, to a new country west of the Mississippi River a part of which is now occupied by the greater portion of the Choctaw tribe of Indians, and is commonly known as the Choctaw Nation, Indian Territory. At the time the treaty was made, some of the Choctaws were unwilling to leave this country, and for the benefit of those who wanted to stay here, what is known as the 14th article was put in the treaty. That 14th article provided that upon certain conditions, a Choctaw he wanted to stay here at that time, might receive land here in Mississippi from the Government. It is as follows:

"Each Choctaw head of a family being desirous to remain and become a citizen of the States shall be permitted to do so by signifying his intention to the agent within six months from the ratification of this treaty, and he or she shall thereupon be entitled to a reservation of one section of six hundred and forty acres of land, to be bounded by sectional lines of survey; in like manner shall be entitled to one half that quantity for each unmarried child which is living with him over ten years of age; and a quarter section to such child as may be under ten years of age, to adjoin the location of the parent. If they reside upon said land intending to become citizens of the States for five years after the ratification of this treaty, in that case a grant in fee simple shall issue; said reservation shall include the present improvement of the head of the family, or a portion of it. Persons who claim under this article shall not lose the privilege of a Choctaw citizen, but if they ever remove are not to be entitled to any portion of the Choctaw annuity."

Ellen Green, 3.

Q Now, I will try and explain this 14th article clearly to you, so you will be sure to understand it? A Yes, sir, because I don't know.

I have just finished quoting the 14th article to you. Now, you will understand that those provisions, or requirements in that article referred to Indians who lived here seventy one years ago. If an Indian who was living here in the old Choctaw Nation, seventy one years ago wanted to stay here and not move out to the new nation with the main body of the tribe, he was entitled to select land under article 14 of the treaty, upon certain conditions. He was required by that 14th article to let the agent of the Government here in Mississippi know that he wanted to stay here in Mississippi and become a citizen of the States, and he must let the agent know within six months from the time the treaty was ratified; the treaty was ratified on the 24th day of February, 1831. Now, after he had let the agent know he wanted to stay here and become a citizen of the States, he was entitled to a reservation of one section of six hundred and forty acres of land here in Mississippi, to cover his improvement that he had here at that time. For each child over ten years of age in his family, he was entitled to a half section or three hundred and twenty acres of land, and for each child under ten years of age, he was entitled to a quarter section, or one hundred and sixty acres of land. Of course, these tracts of land were to be bounded by sectional lines of survey, and the reservations for the children were required to adjoin the location of the parent. Now, if the Indian lived on that land intending to become a citizen of the States for five years from the ratification of this treaty, in that case a grant in fee simple should issue; that is, when they lived there five years after February 24, 1831, continuously, the Government would give them a deed to the land, and it would become his. A good many Indians did get land here in Mississippi under this Treaty; they complied with its provisions and got land. But that 14th article said further that persons who claimed under that article should not by reason of their having done so, lose the privilege of a Choctaw citizen, but if they ever removed; that is, if they ever went out to the new nation west of the Mississippi River, they would not be entitled to any portion of the Choctaw annuity. The Choctaw annuity is money paid to the Indians by the Government of the United States each year under treaty provisions.

Q Now, I have explained fully to you the provisions of the 14th article of the treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek. Did any of your ancestors ever comply or attempt to comply with its provisions, or ever receive any benefits thereunder? A No, sir, not that I know of.

Q Did any of them own an improvement here in the old Choctaw Nation in Mississippi and Alabama, in the year 1830, when this treaty was made? A No, sir.

Ellen Green, 4.

Q Did any of them, in fact, live here at that time? A Not as I knows of, they did. If they did, I don't know it.

Q Did any of your ancestors remove from the old Choctaw Nation west of the Mississippi River at the time of the removal of the greater portion of the Choctaw tribe of Indians between the years 1833 and 1838? A No, sir, not that I knows of.

Q Did any of them, withinsix months after the treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek was ratified, let the agent of the Government here in Mississippi for the Choctaws know that they wanted to stay here in Mississippi and become citizens of the States and take land? A If they did, I didn't know anything about it.

Q Did any of them ever claim or receive any land here in Mississippi from the Government of the United States under article 14 of the treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek? A No, sir, not as I heard of.

Q Any of them ever get any money from the Government? A No, sir, Not that I know of.

Q Any of them ever get any land anywhere from the Government? A No, sir, not as I knows of. I never heard tell of it.

Q So far as you know, none of your people ever got any benefits whatever as Choctaw Indians? A No, sir, they have not.

In accordance with the provisions of article 14 of the treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek, the Government of the United States directed an agent here in Mississippi to register the names of such Choctaws as might desire to remain here and become citizens of the States and take land under this 14th article. The records of the Government show that this agent failed to register and report to the Government the names of many Indians who did in fact let him know that they wanted to stay here and become citizens of the States and take land, and on this account the Government at its public land sales here in Mississippi in many instances sold land uponwhich Choctaws lived and had improvements, and which they supposed they would receive under article 14 of the treaty. This caused a great deal of complaint among the Indians, and the matter was finally brought to the attention of Congress, and Congress passed certain Acts between the years 1837 and 1842, providing for the appointment of commissioners to come down here to Mississippi and hear the cases of Choctaws who claimed that they had complied in all respects with the provisions of article 14 of the treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek, but that their land had been sold by the Government. These commissioners were duly appointed by the President of the United States and the commissioners came down here to Mississippi and heard a great many of these Choctaw cases. They were here between the years 1837 and 1845.

Q Did any of your ancestors appear before any of these commissioners and attempt to establish their rights under the 14th article of the treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek? A No, sir, not as I knows of.

Ellen Green, 5.

The Act of Congress approved August 23, 1842, provided that in case it should be finally determined that a Choctaw had complied in all respects with the provisions of article 14 of the treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek, but that his land had been sold by the Government, he should be entitled to select in the place of the land so sold by the Government, land some place else here in Mississippi or in Alabama, or Louisiana, or Arkansas, from vacant Government land, and should be given a certificate to that effect. These certificates were called scrip.

Q Did any of your ancestors ever receive any of this scrip from the Government of the United States under this Act of Congress?

A No, sir, I never heard nothing about it.

Q Do you know of any old person living who would likely know whether any of your ancestors ever complied or attempted to comply with the provisions of article 14 of the treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek, or ever received any benefits thereunder? A No, sir.

Q Do you know of any written evidence of any description which would show or tend to show such a state of facts? A No, sir.

Q Have you any written evidence to offer at this time? A No, sir.

Q Have you any witnesses here to-day? A Yes, sir, I have one.

Q

If you should find any other witnesses whose testimony you desire to have taken by the Commission in support of your application, they may appear before the Commission here at Meridian, Mississippi, before the 15th of this month, or within a reasonable time thereafter at the General Office of the Commission, in Muskogee, Indian Territory, and their testimony will be taken.

Q Are there any further statements you want to make at this time?

A No, sir.

Q What's the name of this witness? A Norman Flowers.

Q What do you expect to prove by Norman? A That he knowed my mother to be a Choctaw Indian.

Q Is that all? A Yes, sir.

Q Have you been married more than once? A Married twice.

Q What was your first husband's name? A Thomas King.

Q Did he have any Indian blood? A Yes, sir, he did. His grand father, I think, was a whole Indian.

Q You couldn't swear that he was, could you? A Yes, sir, I could because he told me so. I didn't see him, but he looked like a Indian himself.

Q Have you any children living by this man, Thomas King? A Yes, sir two.

Q What are their names? A Mandy Powell, and Alberta Hemphill.

Q Are they here to-day for the purpose of giving in their testimony?

A Yes, sir.

Q When did your first husband die? A He died; I don't know, sir, when; about twenty or thirty years, I reckon.

Q Was he older or younger than you? A Both married nothing but children; about the same, I reckon. I reckon he has been dead about thirty years.

Ellen Green, 6.

Q Now, through which one of his parents did he get his Choctaw blood? A His mother - no, his father - or grand father. it is.

Q Which of his parents, now, was it that had Choctaw blood; his father or his mother? A Didn't have none.

Q Yes he did, too. Which one? A From his mother, I think, it is. It has been so long, I have most forgot that.

Q What was his mother's name? A Leanna King.

Q That was your first husband's mother's name? A Yes, sir.

Q How long has she been dead? A She's been dead about - I don't know, sir, how long, to tell you the truth.

Q Do you have any idea how ~~long~~ old she would be if she were living now? A I expect she would be about eighty years old; I don't know, sir, she was living way up in Choctaw, and I lived in Montgomery County.

Q What was Thomas' father's name? A Plater, I believe. Plater King.

Q Were Thomas' parents slaves? A Yes, sir, I reckon so.

Q How much Choctaw blood did Thomas have? A I couldn't tell you to save my life. I know he had a right smart heap in him, but I couldn't tell you nothing about now he get it; he told me his grand pa was a Indian man.

Q According to your statement, the father of Thomas King's mother was an Indian; is that right? A Yes, sir; I reckon that's the way. Its been so long, child, I have forgot it.

Q You don't know anything about his Indian blood, as a matter of fact? A Yes, sir, I do. He sho had Indian blood in him, but I couldn't get it right now, how it was.

Q What was his grand father's name? A Plater King.

Q That was his grand father too? A I don't know; I declare, I done forget the names now, but I do know sho' he had a heap of blood in him; Injun blood in him, but I can't get at it to save my life.

Q Did you ever see your husband's grand father, whom you claim was an Indian? A No, sir, I never saw him, but I seen my husband, and he had a heap of Indian in him, but I have forgot now what side he got it from.

Q Did his people always live here in Mississippi? A Yes, sir.

Q Did any of his people ever comply with this 14th article of the treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek, to your knowledge? A No, sir.

Q Any of them ever receive any benefits as Choctaw Indians? A No, sir, not that I heard of.

Q Any of them ever get any scrip under this Act of Congress approved on the 23rd day of August, 1842? A No, sir, if they did, I don't know anything about it.

Q Now, can you give us any idea of what proportion of Choctaw blood your husband, Thomas King, had? A He looked like --

Q I don't want to know about that. I want to know if you know?

A No, sir, I'll tell you the truth; I don't know.

Q How many children have you living? A Seven.

Q You have named two of them; give us the names of the other five?

A Govie Dorris, Pijy Moore, Ransom Green, Cornelia Townsend.

Q Next one? A Didn't I say five.

Q Well, you have named all of your children who are living? A Fannie King.

Q Fannie is not married? A Yes, sir; she has a husband and family /

Q Now, have you any children dead who left children? A Yes, sir, thats what I am trying to get at.

Ellen Green, 7.

- Q How many? A Three; my oldest daughter died and left three little children.
- Q What are the names of those children? A Sammie Jolly, Eddie Jolly and Lelia Jolly.
- Q That's all, is it? A Yes, sir.
- Q Have you any brothers or sisters living? A Yes, sir, I have two sisters.
- Q What are their names? A Jimoline French.
- Q Next? A Ada Thompson.
- Q Where do they live? A Down in the lower part of down yonder in Carroll County - no - Grenada County.
- Q Have they been before the Commission? A No, sir, been wanting to come, but I know I have been here all my life, and they aint been far from here, I'll tell you.
- Q Have you any brothers or sisters dead? A Yes, sir, I have four brothers dead, I believe.
- Q Four brothers dead? A A good many; I have four or five sisters and brothers dead.
- Q Did any of them leave children? A Yes, sir.
- Q How many? A Brother Henry left children.
- Q Henry Copeland? A Henry Applewhite.
- Q How many children did he leave? A He left seven at the time when he died, but let me see how many he has got now. Charley, that's a boy, Ophelia Applewhite.
- Q Next one? A She was married, but her husband died this year.
- Q What's her married name? A Moses Stoval; he is dead now.
- Q Next one? A Frances. She married a Williams.
- Q Next one? A He didn't have no more.
- Q That's all is it? A Yes, sir.
- Q Did any other of your brothers or sisters who are dead leave children? A Yes, sir, I have a sister left two children.
- Q What was her name? A Alexina Thompson, married a man by the name of Dick Thompson.
- Q What are the names of those children who are living? A Margie Thompson and Major Thompson..
- Q Have any of them been before the Commission? A No, sir, I wanted them to come.
- Q Is that all of the descendants of your deceased brothers and sisters who are living? A Yes, sir, I believe it is.
- Q Are any of your mother's brothers or sisters living? A No, sir, if they are, I don't know it.
- Q Did she ever have any? A Yes, sir, I reckon she did have some.
- Q You don't know them, if she did? A No, sir.
- Q Are any of the brothers or sisters of your first husband living? A Yes, sir, two brothers, Jim King and Ned King.
- Q Where do they live? A They live back over yonder way; way back yonder, not far from Montgomery County.
- Q Have they been before the Commission? A No, sir, not that I know of.
- Q Are they full brothers of your husband? A Yes, sir, full brothers.

(This applicant has perfectly straight hair, and her features would indicate that she might be possessed of some Indian blood; she has rather dark skin and dark eyes. She does not speak or understand the Choctaw language.)

(Applicant excused.)

Ellen Green, S.

Norman Flowers, having been first duly sworn as a witness in behalf of the above named applicant, upon his oath testified as follows:

Examination by the Commission.

- Q What's your name? A Norman Flowers.
- Q How old are you? A I am thirty nine years old.
- Q What's your post office address? A Winona, Mississippi, Montgomery County.
- Q How long have you lived there? A All my life.
- Q What's your occupation? A Farming.
- Q Are you acquainted with the applicant, Ellen Green? A Yes, sir.
- Q How long have you known her? A Ever since I can remember any old citizen at all.
- Q Are you any kin to her? A No, sir, not a bit.
- Q Are you interested in any way in the result of her application? A Yes, sir.
- Q To what extent? A Well, to knowing of her mother - in Injun.
- Q I mean are you interested in any way in the result of her application? A No, sir.
- Q Has Ellen any Choctaw blood? A Yes, sir.
- Q How much? A From my judgment.
- Q How much? A Well, I am unprepared to say how much.
- Q What kind of Indian blood is it? A I couldn't tell you that.
- Q Were you acquainted with her parents? A Yes, sir.
- Q Father and mother? A My acquaintance with her mother, but not her father.
- Q Do you know what her father's name was? A No, sir.
- Q What was her mother's name? A Frances Copeland.
- Q How long has she been dead? A Well, I don't know, sir, exactly how many years she's been dead.
- Q About how many years; give us an idea? A Its been about eighteen or twenty years to my recollection.
- Q You were a grown man when she died, were you? A No, sir, I was about seventeen years old, or eighteen somewhere along there.
- Q How long had you known Frances at that time? A I was a chap raised up right under her in the same neighborhood with her.
- Q You have no Indian blood yourself? A Well, I don't know, sir; they say I have.
- Q Did Frances have any Indian blood? A Yes, sir.
- Q How much? A Well, I don't know, sir; she was a whole Indian so far as my judgment is leading me.
- Q You mean that from her personal appearance you think she was a full blood Indian? A Yes, sir.
- Q Didn't she have any negro blood? A No, sir, not as I know of. She didn't have any appearance of a negro.
- Q Do you know what kind of an Indian she was? A Well, I am - she was a Choctaw; but then he was speaking of the race I reckon.
- Q How do you know she was a Choctaw Indian? A I was just going by what I heard her say.
- Q What did you hear her say? A I heard her say in times passed and gone that she was a Choctaw Indian.
- Q When did she tell you that? A Well, that's quite a while before she died; I was about fifteen or sixteen years old, somewhere along there.

Ellen Green, 9.

Q Did she tell you she was a full blood Choctaw Indian? A She told me she was a Choctaw Indian, she never said full blood, but that she was a Choctaw Indian.

Q Do you know where she was born? A No, sir.

Q You don't know whether she or her ancestors ever complied or attempted to comply with the provisions of article 14 of the treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek, or ever received any benefits under it, do you? A No, sir, not that I know of.

(To Applicant)

Do you know of anything else you want me to ask him? A

By Applicant:

No, sir.

(This witness is a negro of average intelligence.)

R. S. Streit, having been first duly sworn, upon his oath states that as stenographer to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes, he reported in full all proceedings had in the above entitled cause on the 13th day of February, 1902, at Meridian, Mississippi, and that the above and foregoing is a full, true and correct translation of his stenographic notes of said proceedings in said cause upon said date.

--: D E C I S I O N :--

It appears from the record herein that applications for identification as Mississippi Choctaws were made to this Commission by Ellen Green for herself; by Amanda Powell for herself and her three minor children, Ferdie, Lennie, and Isabana Poe; by Alberta
Hemphill for herself and her six minor children, Alma, Nolie, Vessie, Charley, Luna, and Henry T. Brentia; by Fannie King for herself and her five minor children, Lora, Jesse, Devie, Ella Dera, and Annie Belle King; by Ransom Green for himself and his two minor children, Fleas and Beulah Green; and by Wesley Townsend for herself and her six minor children, Leonard, Pearlle, Will Henry, Neeley, Sarah Frances and Dewit Townsend, under the following provision of the act of Congress approved June 28, 1898, (30 Stats., 495):

"Said Commission shall have authority to determine the identity of Choctaw Indians claiming rights in the Choctaw lands under article fourteen of the treaty between the United States and the Choctaw Nation, concluded September twenty-seventh, eighteen hundred and thirty, and to that end may administer oaths, examine witnesses and perform all other acts necessary thereto and make report to the Secretary of the Interior."

It also appears that all of said applicants claim rights in the Choctaw lands under article fourteen of the treaty between the United States and the Choctaw Nation, concluded September twenty-seventh, eighteen hundred and thirty, by reason of being descendants of Frances Copeland, who is alleged to have been a full-blood Choctaw Indian and to have resided in Mississippi in eighteen hundred and thirty, and that the applicants embraced in M.C.R. 4756 and 4757 also claim said rights through Plater King, who is alleged to have been a full-blood Choctaw Indian, and Leanna King who is alleged to have been possessed of some Choctaw blood, degree thereof not positively stated.

It further appears from the evidence submitted in support of said applications and from the records in the possession of the Commission, that none of said applicants has ever been enrolled by the Choctaw tribal authorities as a member of the Choctaw tribe, or admitted to Choctaw citizenship by a duly constituted court or committee of the Choctaw Nation, or by the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes, or by a decree of the United States Court in Indian Territory, under the provisions of the act of Congress approved June 10, 1896, (29 Stats., 321).

It does not appear from the testimony and evidence offered in support of said applications, or from the records in the possession of the Commission relating to persons who complied or attempted to comply with the provisions of said article fourteen of the treaty of eighteen hundred and thirty, and to persons who heretofore were claimants thereunder, that the said Frances Copeland, or Plater King, or Leanna King, signified (in person or by proxy) to Colonel Wm. Ward, Indian Agent, Choctaw Agency, an intention to comply with the provisions of said article fourteen, or presented a claim to rights thereunder to either of the Commissions authorized to adjudicate such claims by the Acts of Congress approved March 3, 1837 (5 Stats. 186) and August 23, 1842 (5 Stats. 513).

It is therefore the opinion of this Commission that the evidence herein is insufficient to determine the identity of Ellen Green, Amanda Powell, Ferdie Poe, Lemmie Poe, Isabana Poe, Alberta Hemphill, Alma Brontie, Nolie Brontie, Vessie Brontie, Sharley Brontie, Luna Brontie, Henry T. Brontie, Fannie King, Lora King, Jesse King, Dovie King, Ella Dora King, Annie Belle King, Ransom Green, Pleas Green, Beulah Green, Neeley Townsend, Leonard Townsend, Pearlle Townsend, Will Perry Townsend, Neeley Townsend(2), Sarah Frances Townsend and Dewit Townsend as Choctaw Indians entitled to rights in the Choctaw lands under the provisions of said article fourteen of the treaty of eighteen hundred and thirty, and that the applications for their identification as such should be refused, and it is so ordered.

Gentlemen:

You are hereby advised that on the 14th day of April, 1903, the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes rendered a decision in the consolidated case of Ellen Green, et al., embracing the following applications for identification as Mississippi Choctaws:

Ellen Green,	M.C.R.4755;
Amanda Powell, et al.,	M.C.R.4756;
Alberta Hemphill, et al.,	M.C.R.4757;
Fannie King, et al.,	M.C.R.4758;
Ransom Green, et al.,	M.C.R.4783;
Neeley Townsend, et al.,	M.C.R.4782.

These applications were made under the provision of the act of Congress of June 28, 1898, (30 Stats., 495).

Said decision concludes as follows:

"It is therefore the opinion of this Commission that the evidence herein is insufficient to determine the identity of Ellen Green, Amanda Powell, Ferdie Poe, Lemmie Poe, Isabana Poe, Alberta Hemphill, Alma Brontie, Hollie Brontie, Vessie Brontie, Charley Brontie, Luna Brontie, Henry T. Brontie, Fannie King, Lora King, Jesse King, Dovie King, Ella Dora King, Annie Belle King, Ransom Green, Pleas Green, Beulah Green, Neeley Townsend, Leonard Townsend, Pearlle Townsend, Will Henry Townsend, Neeley Townsend (2), Sarah Frances Townsend and Dewit Townsend as Choctaw Indians entitled to rights in the

Dear Madam:

Receipt is hereby acknowledged of your letter of the 7th instant, in which you ask to be advised the status of the cases of yourself, Ellen Green and Ransom Green, applicants to this Commission for identification as Mississippi Choctaws.

In reply to your letter you are informed that it appears from our records that Alberta Hemphill, Ellen Green and Ransom Green made application to this Commission for the identification of themselves and families as Mississippi Choctaws. Up to the present time this Commission has not rendered any opinion relative to the rights of these applicants to such identification. As soon as a decision is rendered they will be duly notified of the action of the Commission and of the forwarding of the record to the Secretary of the Interior.

Respectfully,

Chairman.

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR,
Office of Indian Affairs,

Washington, July,11,1903.

The Honorable,

The Secretary of the Interior.

Sir:

I have the honor to submit herewith record of the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes in the matter of the application of Ellen Green for herself; of Amanda Powell for herself and her three minor children, Ferdie, Lemmie and Isabanna Poe; of Alberta Hemphill for herself and her six minor children, Alma, Nollie, and Vessie, Charley, Luna and Henry T, Brontie; of Fannie King for herself and her five minor children, Lora, Jesse, Dovie, Ella Dora and Annie Belle King; of Ransom Green for himself and his two minor children, Pleas and Beulah Green; and by Neeley Townsend for herself and her six minor children, Leonard, Pearlle, Will Henry, Neeley, Sarah Frances and Dewit Townsend, for identification as Mississippi Choctaws, wherein a decision rejecting them was entered by the Commission on April 14, 1903.

The testimony in this case shows that the applicants found their claims to a right to identification on their descent from Frances Copeland, who was the immediate ancestor of Ellen Green, the principal applicant. Certain of the applicants claim also through and Leanna Kind Plater King, it being the contention that all of these persons were of Choctaw blood. The applicants have no knowledge as to the residence of their ancestors in 1830, or whether they were in possession of improvements in the Choctaw Nation in Mississippi or Alabama at that time; neither are they able to testify as to whether they complied or attempted to comply with the provisions of the 14th article of the treaty, placing their sole reliance on their Choctaw blood derived through these ancestors named.

The Commission rejected the applicants for the reason that an examination of its records failed to show that any of the ancestors named either complied or attempted to comply with the provisions of the 14th article of the Choctaw treaty or the subsequent legislation relative thereto.

An examination of the records of this office has been made relative to the names of Frances Copeland, Plater King and Leanna King, and it is ascertained that their names do not appear among the names of those persons who either complied or attempted to comply with the provisions of the 14th article of the Choctaw treaty of 1830. The applicants being unable to give the names of more remote ancestors than those mentioned herein, it is impossible for a further search to be made, and I therefore recommend that the decision of the Commission rejecting them be approved.

Very respectfully,

W. A. Jones,

Commissioner.

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR,

Washington, September 29, 1903.

Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes,
Muskogee, I. T.

Gentlemen:

April 30, 1903, you transmitted the record in the matter of the application for identification as Mississippi Choctaws, of Ellen Green, of Amanda Powell, and her minor children, Ferdie, Lemmie, and Isabella Poe; of Alberta Hemphill and her minor children, Alma, Nolie, Vessie, Charley, Luna and Henry T. Brontie; of Fannie King and her minor children, Lora, Jesse, Dovie, Ella Dora and Annie Belle King; of Ransom Green and his minor children, Pleas and Beulah; and of Neeley Townsend and her minor children, Leonard, Pearlie, Will Henry, Neeley, Sarah Frances and Dewit Townsend. Your decision refusing the applications was rendered April 14, 1903.

The applicants base their claims to a right to identification as Mississippi Choctaw Indians on their descent from Frances Copeland, Plater King and Leanne King, it being alleged that the said Frances Copeland and Plater King were full blood Choctaw Indians, and that Leanna King was possessed of some Choctaw blood.

The record in this case as well as the records of the Indian Office fails to show that any one of said ancestors complied or attempted to comply with the provisions of article 14 of the treaty of 1830, or the subsequent acts of Congress relating thereto.

Reporting July 11, 1903, the Commissioner of Indian Affairs recommends that your decision be approved. A copy of his letter is inclosed.

Upon a careful consideration of the whole record, the Department finds no reason to disturb your decision, and it is hereby affirmed.

Respectfully,

Thos. Ryan,
Acting Secretary.

Examination by the Commission.

- Q What is your name? A Amanda Powell.
Q How old are you? A I don't know exactly, about thirty nine, I guess.
Q How much Choctaw blood have you? A I don't know, sir, exactly how much.
Q What's your post office address? A Kilmichael, Mississippi.
Q What county? A Montgomery County.
Q How long have you lived in Montgomery County? A All my life.
Q Is your father living? A No, sir.
Q What was his name? A Thomas King.
Q Is your mother living? A Yes, sir.
Q What's her name? A Ellen Green.
Q Is she the Ellen Green who appeared before the Commission here this morning? A Yes, sir.
Q Through which one of your parents do you get your Choctaw blood?
A Both.
Q How much Choctaw blood did your father have? A I don't know, exactly, my grand father was a Indian.
Q His father, or his grand father? A My grand father; his father.
Q You claim that your father was a half Choctaw? A From his testimony he was.
Q Your mother is how much? A I don't know; her mother was full blood that would make her half.
Q Then, you would claim a half, would you? A Yes sir.
Q How long has your father been dead? A I don't know, sir.
Q About how long? A Good while, about thirty years.
Q How old was he when he died? A I don't know, sir.
Q About how old? A I couldn't tell you; I guess he was a settled man.
Q How old does a man have to be to be a settled man, according to your own statement? A About thirty years old, I reckon.
Q Where was your father born? A I don't know, sir, exactly, where he was born.
Q Was he born in this State? A Yes, sir, in the State of Mississippi.

Amanda Powell, et al., 2.

- Q Did he live in this State all his life? A Yes, sir, in the State of Mississippi.
- Q Do you know the names of his parents? A I know what he told me, - he said their names was.
- Q What were they? A His mother was named Leanna, and his father Plater King.
- Q Did you ever see either one of them? A I don't remember seeing them.
- Q Did Leanna have any Choctaw blood? A I don't know, sir.
- Q How much did Plater have? A Said he was full blood.
- Q Who said so? A Father.
- Q Did you ever hear any one else say so? A No, sir, never did hear any one else say how much.
- Q What kind of an Indian? A Choctaw.
- Q Did your father speak or understand the Choctaw language? A I couldn't exactly remember.
- Q Does your mother speak it? A No, sir.
- Q You would n't be willing to swaerthat your father's father was a full blood Choctaw Indian? A I couldn't swear only by what he said.
- Q Do you know the name of Plater's father or mother? A No, sir.
- Q Do you know where they lived? A No, sir.
- Q Are you married? A Yes, sir.
- Q Is your husband living? A Yes, sir.
- Q Has he any Choctaw blood? A No, sir.
- Q You make no claim for him then? A No, sir.
- Q What is his name? A Frank Powell
- Q Were your father's parents married? A I don't know, sir.
- Q Was Plater a slave? A Said not to be.
- Q Who told you he wasn't? A My father.
- Q Was your father's mother a slave? A Yes, sir, said that she was a slave, and said that grand pa married her and bought her from a slave.
- Q Have all of your people always lived here in Mississippi, so far as you know? A So far as I know.
- Q Have you any children living under twenty one years of age and unmarried? A Yes, sir, they are all three.
- Q What are the names and ages of those three children? A Ferdie Poe
- Q How old? A Sixteen.
- Q Next one? A Lemmie Poe.
- Q How old? A Thirteen.
- Q Next one? A Isabana Poe.
- Q How old? A Eleven.
- Q That's all is it? A Yes, sir.
- Q These children all living with you at this time? A Yes, sir.
- Q What's the name of their father? A Adam Poe.
- Q He was your first husband? A Yes, sir.
- Q Hid he have any Choctaw blood? A No, sir, none that I know of.
- Q Is he living? A Yes, sir.
- Q This application is for yourself and three minor children? A Yes, sir.
- Q Is your name, or the name of any one of these children to be found upon any of the Choctaw tribal rolls in Indian Territory? A Not that I know of.
- Q Has any application of any kind ever been made before to-day for yourself or any one of these children for the purpose of establishing your rights as Choctaw Indians? A No, sir, never have.

Amanda Powell, et al., 3.

Q Do you appear before the Commission at this time for the purpose of claiming rights in the Choctaw lands in Indian Territory for yourself and three minor children under article 14 of the treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek? A Yes, sir.

Q Do you understand that 14th article of the treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek? A I understood very well what you said.

Q You heard it explained fully to your mother, Ellen Green, during her examination? A Yes, sir.

Q And you understand what I said to her about it? A Yes, sir.

Q Did any of your ancestors ever comply or attempt to comply with the provisions of that 14th article or ever receive any benefits thereunder? A None that I know of.

Q Did any of them own an improvement here in the old Choctaw Nation in Mississippi and Alabama, in 1830, when this treaty was made?

A Not that I know of.

Q Did any of them live here at that time, as a matter of fact, seventy one years ago? A I don't know, sir.

Q Did any of them remove to the new nation in Indian Territory at the time of the removal of the greater portion of the Choctaw tribe of Indians between the years 1833 and 1838? A I don't know that.

Q Did any of them, within six months after the treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek was ratified, let the agent of the Government here in Mississippi for the Choctaws know that they wanted to stay here in Mississippi and become citizens of the States and take land? A I do not know.

Q Did any of them ever claim or receive any land here in Mississippi from the Government of the United States under article 14 of the treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek? A None that I know of.

Q Any of them ever get any land from the Government under any other article of that treaty, or under the supplement thereto? A I don't know.

Q Any of them ever get any money from the Government? A No, sir, none that I know of.

Q So far as you know, then, none of your ancestors ever received any benefits whatever as Choctaw Indians? A No, sir.

Q You heard my explanation to your mother as to the causes which brought about certain Acts of Congress between the years 1837 and 1842, and their provisions, did you not? A Yes, sir.

Q Did any of your ancestors appear before any of these commissioners and attempt to establish their rights under article 14 of the treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek? A None that I know of.

Q Did any of them get any scrip from the Government of the United States under an Act of Congress approved August 23, 1842? A Not as I ever heard that I remember.

Q Do you know of any old person living who would likely know whether any of your ancestors ever complied or attempted to comply with the provisions of article 14 of the treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek, or ever received any benefits thereunder? A No, sir.

Q Do you know of any written evidence of any description which would prove or tend to prove such a state of facts? A No, sir.

Q Have you any written evidence of any kind to offer at this time? A No, sir.

Q Have you any witnesses here to-day? A That one that ma had is the only one we have.

Q That's Norman Flowers who has already testified in your mother's case? A Yes, sir.

Q His testimony will be considered in your case too? A Yes, sir.

Amanda Powell, et al., 4.

If you should find any other witnesses whose testimony you desire to have taken by the Commission in support of your application they may appear before the Commission here at Meridian, before the 14th of this month, or within a reasonable time thereafter at the General Office of the Commission, in Muskogee, Indian Territory, and their testimony will be taken.

- Q Any further statements you want to make at this time in support of your application? A Not any.
- Q Have you any children who are of age, or married? A I have one.
- Q What's that child's name? A Emma Gary.
- Q Is she here to-day? A No, sir.
- Q Has she been before the Commission? A No, sir.
- Q Have you any sisters here to-day? A I have two here.
- Q What are their names? A Alberta Hemphill and Fannie King.
- Q Is Fannie your full sister? A Half sister; we have the same mother.

(This applicant has the appearance of being possessed of a mixture of negro and either white or Indian blood, in which the negro predominates. She has, however, hair that is black and almost straight.)

R. S. Streit, having been first duly sworn, upon his oath states that as stenographer to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes, he reported in full all proceedings had in the above entitled cause at Meridian, Mississippi, on the 13th day of February 1902, and that the above and foregoing is a full, true and correct translation of his stenographic notes of said proceedings in said cause upon said date.

Kilmichael, Mississippi.

Dear Madam:

You are hereby notified that on the 29th day of September, 1903, the Secretary of the Interior affirmed the decision of this Commission refusing the applications for identification as Mississippi Choctaws of the several persons included in the consolidated case of Ellen Green, et al., of which decision you were advised by registered mail on the 14th day of April, 1903.

Respectfully,

James B. Bixby
Chairman.

Muskogee, Indian Territory, March 29, 1904.

Alberta Hemphill,

Maryland, Mississippi.

Dear Madam:

Receipt is hereby acknowledged of your letter of the 13rd instant, in which you ask if the Secretary of the Interior has taken any action in your case.

In reply to your letter you are informed that on September 29, 1903, the Secretary of the Interior approved the decision of the Commission refusing the application made by you for the identification of yourself and minor children as Mississippi Choctaws, of which Departmental action you were duly notified on October 10, 1903.

The Commission now considers your case closed, and it is not believed that you and your children are in any manner entitled to possessory rights in the tribal property of the Choctaw and Chickasaw Nations.

Respectfully,

Commissioner in Charge.

Fannie King,

Wilmichael, Mississippi.

Dear Madam:

You are hereby advised that on the 14th day of April, 1903, the Commissioner to the Five Civilized Tribes rendered a decision in the consolidated case of Ellen Green, et al., embracing the following applications for identification as Mississippi Choctaws:

Ellen Green,	M.C.R.4755;
Amanda Powell, et al.,	M.C.R.4756;
Alberta Homphill, et al.,	M.C.R.4757;
Fannie King, et al.,	M.C.R.4758;
Ransom Green, et al.,	M.C.R.4783;
Noeloy Townsend, et al.,	M.C.R.4782.

These applications were made under the provision of the act of Congress of June 28, 1898, (30 Stats., 495), which is as follows:

"Said Commission shall have authority to determine the identity of Choctaw Indians claiming rights in the Choctaw lands under article fourteen of the treaty between the United States and the Choctaw Nation, concluded September twenty-seventh, eighteen hundred and thirty, and to that end may administer oaths, examine witnesses and perform all other acts necessary thereto and make report to the secretary of the Interior."

Said decision concludes as follows:

"It is therefore the opinion of this Commission that the evidence herein is insufficient to determine the identity of Ellen Green, Amanda Powell, Ferdie Poo, Lemmie Poo, Isabana Poo, Alberta Hemphill, Alma Brontie, Follie Brontie, Vessie Brontie, Charley Brontie, Luna Brontie, Henry T. Brontie, Fannie King, Lora King, Jesse King, Dovie King, Ella Dora King, Annie Belle King, Hanson Green, Pleas Green, Boulah Green, Nealey Townsend, Leonard Townsend, Pearlie Townsend, Will Henry Townsend, Nealey Townsend (2), Sarah Frances Townsend and Dewit Townsend as Choctaw Indians entitled to rights in the Choctaw lands under the provisions of said article fourteen of the treaty of eighteen hundred and thirty, and that the applications for their identification as such should be refused, and it is so ordered."

F. K., 2.

You are further advised that you will be allowed fifteen days from the date hereof within which to file arguments in this office, and that at the expiration of said time the papers in the case, together with such arguments, will be forwarded to the Secretary of the Interior through the Commissioner of Indian Affairs.

Respectfully,

- Q How long has she been dead? A I don't know, sir.
- Q Did you ever see her? A Yes, sir.
- Q How long since you have seen her? A About twelve or thirteen years, as well as I can remember.
- Q Was she a full blood Indian? A That's what they tell me.
- Q You couldn't swear that she was a full blood Indian? A I am going by what I was told.
- Q Who told you she was a full blood Choctaw Indian? A Yes, sir.
- Q Who told you? A That lady there.
- Q What's her name? A Malinda.
- Q Malinda what? A Holgrove.
- Q Any one else ever tell you she was a full blood Choctaw? A I heard them all around in the country talking about it.
- Q You saw her yourself after you were grown? A No, sir, I didn't see her after I was full grown; I was very high grown; I seen her--
- Q Well, was she a full blood Choctaw? A Yes, sir.
- Q Do you know the name of either one of her parents? A No, sir, I do not.
- Q Where was Maria born? A I do not know, sir.
- Q Did she speak the Choctaw language? A I never heard her.
- Q Are you married? A Yes, sir.
- Q Is your wife living? A Yes, sir.
- Q What's her name? A Adlima.
- Q Has she any Choctaw blood? A I don't know, sir.
- Q You make no claim for her, then? A No, sir.
- Q Have you any children? A No, sir.
- Q This application, then, is for yourself only? A Yes, sir.
- Q Is your name on any of the Choctaw tribal rolls in Indian Territory? A Not that I know of.
- Q Has any application of any description ever been made for you before to-day for the purpose of establishing your rights as a Choctaw Indian? A Not that I knows of.
- Q Do you appear before the Commission at this time for the purpose of claiming rights in the Choctaw lands in Indian Territory under the 14th article of the treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek? A Yes, sir.
- Q Do you understand the 14th article of the treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek? A Not as I knows of.

This treaty was entered into here in Mississippi on the 27th day of September, 1830, between the United States Government and the Choctaw tribe of Indians. At the time the treaty was made, the Choctaws lived here in Mississippi and along the western edge of the State of Alabama. The object of the treaty was to get these Indians to move from the country occupied by them here in Mississippi and Alabama, to a new country west of the Mississippi River, a part of which is now occupied by the greater portion of the Choctaw tribe of Indians, and is commonly known as the Choctaw Nation, Indian Territory. At the time the treaty was made some of the Indians were unwilling to leave this country, and for the benefit of those who wanted to stay here what is known as the 14th article was put in the treaty. That 14th article provided that upon certain conditions a Choctaw who wanted to stay here in Mississippi might receive land here in Mississippi from the Government. It is as follows:

George Moore, 3.

"Each Choctaw head of a family being desirous to remain and become a citizen of the States shall be permitted to do so by signifying his intention to the agent within six months from the ratification of this treaty, and he or she shall thereupon be entitled to a reservation of one section of six hundred and forty acres of land, to be bounded by sectional lines of survey; in like manner shall be entitled to one-half that quantity for each unmarried child which is living with him over ten years of age; and a quarter section to such child as may be under ten years of age, to adjoin the location of the parent. If they reside upon said land intending to become citizens of the States for five years after the ratification of this treaty in that case a grant in fee simple shall issue; said reservation shall include the present improvement of the head of the family or a portion of it. Persons who claim under this article shall not lose the privilege of a Choctaw citizen, but if they ever remove are not to be entitled to any portion of the Choctaw annuity."

Q I have quoted to you the 14th article of the treaty of Dancing Rabbit Cree; do you think you understand it? A Yes, sir.

Q Did any of your ancestors ever comply or attempt to comply with its provisions or ever receive any benefits under that article? A Not that I knows of.

Q Did any of them own an improvement here in the old Choctaw Nation in Mississippi and Alabama, in the year 1830, when this treaty was made? A Not as I knows of.

Q Did any of them live here at that time, seventy one years ago? A Not as I knows of.

Q Did any of them remove to the present Choctaw Nation, in Indian Territory, at the time of the removal of the greater portion of the Choctaw tribe of Indians between the years 1833 and 1838? A Not as I knows of.

Q Did any of them, within six months after the treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek was ratified, let the agent of the Government here in Mississippi know that they wanted to stay here in Mississippi and become citizens of the States and take land? A Not as I knows of.

Q Did any of them ever claim or receive any land here in Mississippi from the Government of the United States under article 14 of the treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek? A Not as I knows of.

Q Did any of them ever get any land here in Mississippi under any other provision in that treaty, or under the supplement to the treaty? A Not as I knows of.

Q Any of them ever get any money from the Government? A Not that I knows of.

In accordance with the provisions of article 14 of the treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek, the Government of the George Moore, 4.

United States directed an agent here in Mississippi to register the names of such Choctaws as might desire to remain here and become citizens of the States and take land. The records of the Government show that this agent failed to register and report to the Government the names of ~~such~~ many Indians who did in fact let him know that they wanted to stay here and become citizens of the States and take land, and on this account, the Government at its public land sales here in Mississippi, in many instances sold land upon which Choctaws lived and had improvements and which they supposed they would receive from the Government under article 14 of the treaty. This caused a great deal of complaint among the Indians and the matter was finally brought to the attention of Congress, and Congress passed certain Acts between the years 1837 and 1842, providing for the appointment of commissioners to come down here to Mississippi and hear the cases of Choctaw who claimed that they had complied in all respects with the provisions of the 14th article of the treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek, but that their land had been sold by the Government. These commissioners were duly appointed by the President of the United States and they came down here to Mississippi between the years 1837 and 1843, and heard a great many of these Choctaw cases.

Q Did any of your ancestors appear before any of these commissioners and attempt to establish their rights under the 14th article of the treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek? A Not as I know of.

An Act of Congress approved August 25, 1842, provided that in case it should be finally determined that a Choctaw had complied in all respects with the provisions of article 14 of the treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek, but that his land had been sold by the Government, he should be entitled to select in the place of the land so sold by the Government, and land some place else here in Mississippi, or in Alabama, Louisiana, or Arkansas, from vacant Government land, and should be given a certificate to that effect. These certificates were called scrip.

Q Did any of your ancestors ever get any of this scrip from the Government of the United States under this Act of Congress? A

Q Not as I know of.

Q So far as you know, then, none of your ancestors ever received any benefits whatever as Choctaw Indians? A No, sir, not as I know of.

Q Do you know of any old person living who would likely know whether any of your ancestors ever complied or attempted to comply with the provisions of article 14 of the treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek, or ever received any benefits thereunder? A No, sir.

Q Do you know of any written evidence of any kind which would prove or tend to prove such a state of facts? A No, sir.

Q Have you any written evidence to offer at this time? A No, sir.

Q Have you any witnesses here to-day? A There's a lady.

~~George~~

George Moore, 5.

Q What 's her name? A Malinda Stanley.

Q

If you should find any other witnesses whose testimony you desire to have taken before the Commission, they may appear before us here at Meridian, Mississippi, before the 15th of this month, or within a reasonable time thereafter at the General Office of the Commission, in Muskegee, Indian Territory, and their testimony will be taken.

Q What do you expect to prove by Malinda Stanley? A About my grand mother Maria Hicks.

Q What do you expect to prove about her? A Being an injun.

Q Is that all Malinda knows? A Yes, they used to associate together.

Q Are there any further statements you want to make at this time?

A No, sir.

Q Have you any brothers or sisters living? A Yes, sir.

Q How many? A I has two brothers and three sisters.

Q What are the names of your brothers? A Jonnie Moore and Milton Johnson; my mother was married the second time, and Milton Johnson come in on the father's side.

Q What are the names of your sisters? A Mary, Emily Doneley.

Q Next one? A Ida Moore.

Q She is here now? A Yes, sir.

Q Next one? A Claudie Johnson.

Q Have any of them given in their testimony before the Commission?

A No, sir.

Q Have you any brothers or sisters dead who left children? A No, sir.

Q Any of your mother's brothers or sisters living? A No, sir.

Q Any of the children of any of your mother's brothers or sisters living? A Of my mother's brothers and sisters-they are all, as near as I can come at it dead.

Q Are any of your father's brothers or sisters living? A Not as I knows of.

Q Did he ever have any to your knowledge? A Not as I knows of.

Q Are any of the brothers or sisters of Maria Hicks living?

A Not that I knows of.

Q Did she ever have any brothers or sisters? A I heard her say she had brothers and sisters, but that's too far back.

Q Do you know whether any of the descendants of any of her brothers or sisters are living? A Not that I knows of.

Q Any of Lucy Ann's brothers or sisters living? A Not that I knows of.

Q Did she ever have any to your knowledge? A Not that I knows of.

Q Do you speak or understand the Choctaw language? A No sir.

(This applicant has the appearance of being possessed of a mixture of negro and either white or Indian blood; he had dark eyes, straight black hair, very dark skin. The features are more like those of a white person than of an Indian. He does not speak or understand the Choctaw language.)

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR,
COMMISSION TO THE FIVE CIVILIZED TRIBES.

In the matter of the application of George Moore, et al.,
for identification as Mississippi Choctaws, consolidating the applications of--

George Moore, M.C.R. 4759;
Ida Moore, et al., M.C.R. 4760.

DECISION.

It appears from the record herein that applications for identification as Mississippi Choctaws were made to this Commission by George Moore, for himself, and by Ida Moore, for herself and her minor orphan brother, Lonnie Moore, under the following provision of the act of Congress approved June 26, 1896, (50 Stat., 495):

"Said Commission shall have authority to determine the identity of Choctaw Indians claiming rights in the Choctaw lands under article fourteen of the treaty between the United States and the Choctaw Nation, concluded
September twenty-seventh, eighteen hundred and thirty, and to that end may administer oaths, examine witnesses and perform all other acts necessary thereto and make report to the Secretary of the Interior."

It also appears that all of said applicants claim rights in the Choctaw lands under article fourteen of the treaty between the United States and the Choctaw Nation, concluded September twenty-seventh, eighteen hundred and thirty, by reason of being descendants of one Lucy Ann, who is alleged to have been a full-blood Choctaw Indian, and Maria (or Ann Maria) Hicks, who is alleged to have been either an one-half blood or a full-blood Choctaw Indian.

It further appears from the evidence submitted in support of said applications and from the records in the possession of the Commission that none of said applicants has ever been enrolled by the Choctaw tribal authorities as a member of the Choctaw tribe, or admitted to Choctaw citizenship by a duly constituted court or committee of the Choctaw Nation, or by the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes, or by a decree of the United States Court in Indian Territory, under the provisions of the act of Congress, approved June 10, 1896, (29 Stats., 321).

It does not appear from the testimony and evidence offered in support of said applications, or from the records in the possession of the Commission relating to persons who complied or attempted to comply with the provisions of said article fourteen of the treaty of eighteen hundred and thirty, and to persons who heretofore were claimants thereunder that the said Lucy Ann, or the said Maria (or Ann Maria) Hicks, or ancestors less remote, signified (in person or by proxy) to Colonel Wm. Ward, Indian Agent, Choctaw Agency, an intention to comply with the provisions of said article fourteen of the treaty of eighteen hundred and thirty, or presented a claim to rights thereunder to either of the Commissions authorized to adjudicate such claims by the acts of Congress approved March 3, 1837, (5 Stats., 180) and August 23, 1842, (5 Stats., 513).

It is therefore the opinion of this Commission that the evidence herein is insufficient to determine the identity of George Moore, Ida Moore and Lennie Moore as Choctaw Indians entitled to rights in the Choctaw lands under the provisions of said article fourteen of the treaty of eighteen hundred and thirty, and that the applications for their identification as such should be refused, and it is so ordered.

Dear Sir:-

You are hereby advised that on the 29th day of October, 1902, the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes rendered a decision in the consolidated case of George Moore, et al., embracing the following applications for identification as Mississippi Choctaws:

George Moore, M.C.R.4759;
Ida Moore, et al., M.C.R.4760.

These applications were made under the provision of the act of Congress of June 26, 1898, (30 Stats., 495), which is as follows:

"Said Commission shall have authority to determine the identity of Choctaw Indians claiming rights in the Choctaw lands under article fourteen of the treaty between the United States and the Choctaw Nation, concluded September twenty-seventh, eighteen hundred and thirty, and to that end may administer oaths, examine witnesses and perform all other acts necessary thereto, and make report to the Secretary of the Interior."

Said decision concludes as follows:

"It is therefore the opinion of this Commission that the evidence herein is insufficient to determine the identity of George Moore, Ida Moore and Lonnie Moore as Choctaw Indians entitled to rights in the Choctaw lands under the provisions of said article fourteen of the treaty of eighteen hundred and thirty, and that the applications for their identification as such should be refused, and it is so ordered."

You are further advised that you will be allowed fifteen days from the date hereof within which to file arguments in this office, and that at the expiration of said time the papers in the case, together with such arguments, will be forwarded for review to the Secretary of the Interior through the Commissioner of Indian Affairs.

Respectfully,

James Dixey.

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR,

Office of Indian Affairs,

Washington, January 19, 1903.

The Honorable,

The Secretary of the Interior.

Sir:

There is transmitted herewith for your consideration, the consolidated application of George Moore, for himself, Ida Moore for herself and her orphan brother Lonnie Moore, for identification as Mississippi Choctaws, wherein an adverse decision was rendered by the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes October 29, 1902. The testimony in this case shows that the applicants base their claims to identification on their descent from Lucy Ann, and Maria (or Ann Maria) Hicks, whom it is alleged were members of the Choctaw tribe of Indians in Mississippi in 1830, through their descendants George Moore and Lova Ann (nee Moore). The Commission rejected the applicants because it did not appear from its records that the ancestors claimed under by the applicants complied or attempted to comply with the provisions of the 14th article of the treaty of 1830.

An examination of the records of this office discloses the fact that the names of Lucy Ann, Maria (or Ann Maria) Hicks, or Hardy Moore, and Leva Ann (nee Moore) do not appear among the names of those Choctaw Indians, who complied or attempted to comply with the provisions of the 14th article of the Choctaw treaty of 1830, nor does it appear that they applied to the Commissions appointed under acts of March 3, 1837 and August 23, 1842, for an adjudication of their rights, as Choctaw Indians, if they had such rights.

These being the facts, the decision of the Commission rejecting the applicants is respectfully recommended for approval.

Very respectfully,

(Signed) W. A. Jones,

Commissioner.

Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes,
Muskogee, I. T.

Gentlemen:

November 14, 1902, you transmitted the record in the matter of the applications for identification as Mississippi Choctaws, of George Moore, and of Ida Moore and her minor orphan brother, Lonnie Moore, including your decision of October 29, 1902, adverse to the applicants.

The applicants claim rights in Choctaw lands under article 14 of the treaty of September 27, 1830, by reason of being descendants of one Lucy Ann, alleged to have been a full blood Choctaw Indian, and of Maria (or Ann Maria) Hicks who is alleged to have been a half or a full blood Choctaw Indian.

The records fail to show that the applicants were ever admitted or enrolled as citizens of the Choctaw Nation, or that any one of their alleged ancestors complied or attempted to comply with said article 14, or with either of the acts of March 3, 1837

-2-

(5 Stat., 180), and August 23, 1847 (5 Stat., 515).

Reporting January 19, 1906, the Commissioner of Indian Affairs recommends approval of your decision; a copy of his letter is inclosed.

The Department has carefully reviewed the record, and hereby affirms your decision.

Respectfully,

(Signed) Thos. Ryan,

Acting Secretary.

- Q Do you understand that 14th article of the treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek? A Do I understand what?
- Q The 14th article of the treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek? A No? sir.

Ida Moore, et al., 3.

The treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek was entered into here in Mississippi on the 27th day of September, 1830, between the United States Government and the Choctaw tribe of Indians. At the time this treaty was made, the Choctaws lived here in Mississippi and along the western edge of the State of Alabama. The object of the treaty was to get these Indians to move from the country occupied by them here in Mississippi and Alabama to a new country west of the Mississippi River, a part of which is now occupied by the greater portion of the Choctaw tribe of Indians and is commonly known as the Choctaw Nation, Indian Territory. At the time this treaty was made, some of the Indians were unwilling to leave this country, and for the benefit of those who wanted to stay here what is known as the 14th article was put in the treaty. That 14th article provided that upon certain conditions a Choctaw who wanted to stay here in Mississippi and not move out to the new Nation might receive land here in Mississippi from the Government. It is as follows:

"Each Choctaw head of a family being desirous to remain and become a citizen of the States shall be permitted to do so by signifying his intention to the agent within six months from the ratification of this treaty, and he or she shall thereupon be entitled to a reservation of one section of six hundred and forty acres of land, to be bounded by sectional lines of survey; in like manner shall be entitled to one-half that quantity for each unmarried child which is living with him over ten years of age; and a quarter section to such child as may be under ten years of age, to adjoin the location of the parent. If they reside upon said land, intending to become citizens of the States for five years after the ratification of this treaty, in that case a grant in fee simple shall issue; said reservation shall include the present improvement of the head of the family, or a portion of it. Persons who claim under this article shall not lose the privilege of a Choctaw citizen, but if they ever remove are not to be entitled to any portion of the Choctaw annuity."

Q Do you think you understand that 14th article of the treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek now? A Do I think I understand it? Yes.

Q Did any of your ancestors ever comply or attempt to comply with its provisions or ever receive --? A What is it?

Q Did any of your ancestors ever comply or attempt to comply with its provisions or ever receive any benefits under that article? A Did they ever try?

Q Ever comply - do as that 14th article said they should do seventy one years ago? A Not that I know of.

Q Did any of them own an improvement here in the old Choctaw Nation in Mississippi and Alabama, in the year 1830, when this treaty was made? A Not as I know of.

Q Did any of them live here at that time? A I don't know.

Q Did any of them remove to the present Choctaw Nation, in Indian at the time of the removal of the greater portion of the Choctaw tribe of Indians between the years 1833 and 1838? A Moved from here there? I don't know.

Ida Moore et al., 4.

Q Did any of them, within six months after the treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek was ratified, let the agent of the Government here in Mississippi for the Choctaws know that they wanted to stay here in Mississippi and become citizens of the States and take land under the 14th article? A I don't know.

Q Did any of them ever claim or receive any land here in Mississippi from the Government of the United States under article 14 of the treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek? A Did they ever receive any? Not that I know of.

Q Did they ever make claim to land here that you know of? A No, sir.

Q Did any of your ancestors ever get any land here in Mississippi from the Government of the United States to your knowledge? A Not that I know of.

Q Did any of them ever get any money from the Government? A Not as I know of.

Q So far as you know, then, none of your ancestors ever received any benefits whatever as Choctaw Indians? A No, sir.

In accordance with the provisions of article 14 of the treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek, the Government of the United States directed an agent here in Mississippi to register the names of such Choctaws as might desire to remain here and become citizens of the States and take land. The records of the Government show that this agent failed to register and report to the Government the names of many Indians who did in fact let him know that they wanted to stay here and become citizens of the States and take land, and on this account, the Government at its public land sales here in Mississippi, in many instances sold land upon which Choctaws lived and had improvements, and which they supposed they would receive under the 14th article of the treaty. This caused a great deal of complaint among the Indians and the matter was finally brought to the attention of Congress, and Congress passed certain Acts between the years 1837 and 1842, providing for the appointment of commissioners to come down here to Mississippi and hear the cases of Choctaws who claimed that they had complied in all respects with the provisions of the 14th article of the treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek, but that their land had been sold by the Government. These commissioners were duly appointed by the President of the United States and they came down here to Mississippi between the years 1837 and 1845 and heard a great many of these Choctaw cases.

Q Did any of your ancestors appear before any of these commissioners and attempt to establish their rights under article 14 of the treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek? A Not as I know of.

Ida Moore, et al., 5.

The Act of Congress approved August 23, 1842, provided that in case it should be finally determined that a Choctaw had complied in all respects with the provisions of article 14 of the treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek, but that his land had been sold by the Government, he should be entitled to select in the place of the land so sold by the Government, land some place else here in Mississippi or in Alabama, Louisiana, or Arkansas, from vacant Government land, and should be given a certificate to that effect. These certificates were called scrip.

Q Did any of your ancestors ever get any of this scrip from the Government of the United States Under this Act of Congress? A I don't know.

Q Do you know of any old person living who would likely know whether any of your ancestors ever complied or attempted to comply with the provisions of the 14th article of the treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek, or ever received any benefits thereunder? A No, sir.

Q Do you know of any written evidence of any kind which would prove or tend to prove such a state of facts? A Not that I know of.

Q Have you any written evidence of any kind to offer at this time? A No, sir.

Q Have you any witnesses here to-day? A Mrs. Malinda Stanley.

Q What do you expect to prove by her? A By my mother's side, and my mother's mother; what kind of an Indian she is and how much she is.

Q Is that all? A Yes, sir, and her associate - they associated together.

Q Do you speak the Choctaw language? A No, sir.

Q Are there any further statements you want to make? A No, sir.

Q How many brothers have you living? A Three.

Q What are their names? A George, and Lennie Moore and Milton Johnson.

Q Is Milton Johnson a full brother? A No, sir, Milton Johnson is a half brother by same mother.

Q Have you any sisters living? A Yes, sir.

Q What are their names? A Mary Emily Donley and Claudie Johnson.

(This applicant has the appearance of being possessed of a mixture of negro and either white or Indian blood. She has dark eyes, straight black hair and dark skin. Her features are not those of an Indian, but resemble those of a white person. She does not speak or understand the Choctaw language.)

(Applicant excused.)

Malinda Stanley, having been first duly sworn as a witness in behalf of the above named applicant, upon her oath testified as follows:

- Q Were you pretty well acquainted with Maria? A She visited me all the time.
- Q Maria did? A Yes, sir.
- Q How much did she claim to have? A I didn't notice it; I didn't pay no attention.
- Q She was a slave? A I don't know sir, that; she was free when I met her.
- Q Well, now, do you know whether Maria had any other blood besides Indian blood? A No, sir, I don't know; they all were bright; I don't know what she had.

Ida Moore, et al., 7.

- Q Didn't she have some negro blood? A Yes, sir, she must have had, I reckon.
- Q Must have had some? A Yes, sir; she looked like a half breed.
- Q Your mother told you Maria was a half breed? A Yes, sir.
- Q When did Maria die? A About twelve or thirteen years ago.
- Q About how old was she when she died? A She was a right old woman.
- Q Do you know where she was born? A No, sir, I do not.
- Q You know nothing of her residence prior to twenty five years ago? A No, sir.
- Q Well, now, did Leva Ann have any Choctaw blood, or do you know? A I don't know
- Q Did Hardy Moore have any Choctaw blood? A They said he was.
- Q Who said that? A My mother and Maria talked it that they were Indians
- Q How much Choctaw blood did Hardy have? A I don't know; I have no idea.
- Q Do you know which one of his parents had Choctaw blood? A No, sir
- Q Don't know? A No, sir.
- Q Could Hardy or Leva Ann, either of them, speak the Choctaw language? A No, sir, not that I knows of.
- Q Could Maria? A I think she talked with my mother about it
- Q Could you swear that she spoke the Choctaw language, or understood it? A Well --
- Q I am talking about Maria, and you understand you are under oath. Could you swear that she spoke or understood the Choctaw language? A No, sir, I couldn't swear positive; I just know they claimed to be Indians.
- Q You don't know whether any of the ancestors of Ida Moore, or George Moore, ever complied or attempted to comply with the provisions of article 14 of the treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek, do you? A No, sir.

By S.A. Beadle:

- Q Mrs. Stanley when did you say you first met these people? A Down at Hick's plantation.
- Q In Leflore County or Carroll County? A Carroll County.
- Q Who was there when you met them? A We all lived there in the place.
- Q I mean who of this young man's people were there? A His mother and his eldest sister and father on that place.
- Q Did you see his grandmother there, Maria? A Yes, sir
- Q And his mother and his eldest sister, and his father? A Yes, sir.
- Q And his grandmother? A Yes, sir.
- Q You say they were there to see your mother? A Yes, sir to visit my mother and a heap of time-often.
- Q Do you know or not know whether these people you met there claimed to be Indians among themselves and were called to be Indians? A The old grandmother did.
- Q What was her name? A Maria.
- Q Did she claim to be a full blood Choctaw Indians? A She claimed to be an Indian
- Q What kind of an Indian? A Choctaw Indian.
- Q She claimed to be a Choctaw Indian? A Yes sir. She claimed to be a Choctaw Indian.
- Q Did she claim this young man's mother as her child? A Yes, sir.

Ida Moore, et al., 8.

Q At this meeting when you met her there? A Yes.

By Commission:

You think you have told all you know about this case? A Yes, sir.

Q Are there any further statements you want to make in regard to the matter? A No, sir.

(This witness is a negro of average intelligence.)

Dear Madam:

You are hereby advised that on the 29th day of October, 1902, the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes rendered a decision in the consolidated case of George Moore, et al., embracing the following applications for identification as Mississippi Choctaws:

George Moore, M.C.R.4759;
Ida Moore, et al., M.C.R.4760.

These applications were made under the provision of the act of Congress of June 28, 1898, (30 Stats., 495), which is as follows:

"Said Commission shall have authority to determine the identity of Choctaw Indians claiming rights in the Choctaw lands under article fourteen of the treaty between the United States and the Choctaw Nation, concluded September twenty-seventh, eighteen hundred and thirty, and to that end may administer oaths, examine witnesses and perform all other acts necessary thereto, and make report to the Secretary of the Interior."

Said decision concludes as follows:

"It is therefore the opinion of this Commission that the evidence herein is insufficient to determine the identity of George Moore, Ida Moore and Lonnie Moore as Choctaw Indians entitled to rights in the Choctaw lands under the provisions of said article fourteen of the treaty of eighteen hundred and thirty, and that the applications for their identification as such should be refused, and it is so ordered."

You are further advised that you will be allowed fifteen days from the date hereof within which to file arguments in this office, and that at the expiration of said time the papers in the case, together with such arguments, will be forwarded for review to the Secretary of the Interior through the Commissioner of Indian Affairs.

Respectfully,

Dear Madam:

Receipt is hereby acknowledged of the certificate of H. K. Whitehead, M.D., under date of November 18, 1902, certifying to the fact that you were sick and unable to attend to any business, and asking that you be allowed further time to make proof of your identity as a Mississippi Choctaw.

The same is returned to you herewith for the reason that on November 14, 1902, the record in your case was forwarded to the Secretary of the Interior for review, and you will be notified in due time of such action as may be taken by him.

The Commission cannot therefore accept any further evidence in your case pending the action of the Secretary of the Interior.

Dear Madam:

Receipt is hereby acknowledged of the affidavit in interrogatory form of Ben Putnam, bearing date of November 20, 1902, offered for filing in support of application made by you for identification of yourself and minor children as Mississippi Choctaws.

The same is herewith returned to you for the reason that the 15 days from October 29, 1902, granted you for filing argument in your case, expired on November 13, 1902, and on the following day, November 14th, the record therein was forwarded to the Secretary of the Interior for review, and you will be notified in due time of such action as may be taken by him.

Dear Madam:

Receipt is hereby acknowledged of your letter of the 16th instant, asking to be advised relative to your rights to identification as a Mississippi Choctaw. You state that you sent the evidence of Ben Putnam to Washington and ask if the Commission has heard anything from the same.

In reply you are informed that on February 10, 1903, the Secretary of the Interior approved the Commission's decision of October 29, 1902, refusing the application made by you for the identification of yourself and minor child as Mississippi Choctaws.

Your case is now considered closed, and it is not believed that you are in any manner entitled to possessory rights of the tribal property of the Choctaws and Chickasaws.

You are further advised that this office has not been notified by the Department of the filing of any additional evidence in support of your claim.

Examination by the Commission.

- Q What is your name? A Malinda Stanley.
Q How old are you? A Fifty.
Q How much Choctaw blood have you? A My father was whole; I reckon
I would be half.
Q What's your post office address? A Greenwood, Mississippi.
Q What county? A Leflore .
Q How long have you lived in Leflore County? A I reckon about thirty three years.
Q Where did you live before that? A In Carroll County, near Black Hawk.
Q Were you born in Carroll County? A No, sir, born in the Choctaw Nation.
Q Indian Territory? A Yes, sir, and brought to this country when I was a baby.
Q Where were you born in the Choctaw Nation, in Indian Territory?
A I do not know, sir.
Q How old were you when you were brought here? A My mother said fifteen months old.
Q And you have lived here ever since? A Yes, sir.
Q Were you a slave? A I don't know, whether I was or not. I was with Indians all the time.
Q You were not with the Indians when you came back here? A I lived with the Indians.
Q Was your mother a slave? A I don't know that; mother and I lived with the Indian folks.
Q Where? A Here near Black Hawk in Carroll County.
Q How long did you live with them? A From the time they brought me here until this freedom taken place.
Q How did it come you left them, then?? You belonged to some of them, did you? A Yes, sir, that's right.
Q What was the name of your owners? A Jim Stanley.
Q Where did Jim Stanley live? A He went back to the Indian Territory and died there.
Q When did he leave Carroll County and go back there? A Been gone back there thirty years.
Q What was the name of your father? A Eastman Lowman.
Q You claim that he had some Choctaw blood? A Well, Choctaw; she told me my father was whole Indian.

Malinda Stanley, 2.

- Q How long has he been dead? A He aint dead that I knows of.
- Q Where does he live? A We left him in the Indian Territory, farming there.
- Q You don't remember him, of course? A No, sir.
- Q He never came back here to Mississippi to see you? A No, sir.
- Q Is your mother living? A No, sir.
- Q What was her name? A Sallie Stanley. Mother died in 1874.
- Q How old was she when she died? A She claimed to be sixty three.
- Q She had no Choctaw blood at all? A Yes, she claimed to be part Injuntoo.
- Q How much Indian blood did she claim to have? A She didn't never saw, but she claimed to be.
- Q You have no idea how much Choctaw blood she had? A No, sir.
- Q You claim through your father then? A Yes, sir.
- Q Do you know how old Eastman Lowman is? A No, sir.
- Q You never have heard of him since you left him? A No, sir.
- Q All you know is what your mother told you? That a man by the name of Eastman Lowman was your father, and he was a full blood Choctaw and lived in the Indian Nation? A Yes, sir.
- Q Did she ever tell you whether she was married to this man, or not? A No, sir, never did.
- Q Did she ever tell you either way, whether she was or not? A No, sir.
- Q Do you know about that, whether she was married to him or not? A No, sir.
- Q Did she ever have any other children by this Indian? A Yes, sir, seven or eight over there.
- Q Those six children of hers that were left over there in the Territory, do you know whether they were children by this man, Lowman or not? A No, sir, I was only fifteen months old myself.
- Q Do you know the names of those other children? A None of them.
- Q What are the names of some of them? A Jerry and Moses, Caroline, Sucky and Dinah and Cynthia Ann.
- Q Have you ever heard from them since you left there? A No, sir.
- Q You don't know whether they are living or anything about it? A No, sir.
- Q Do you know the name of Eastman's father or mother? A No, sir.
- Q Do you know through which one of his her parents your mother got her Choctaw blood? A No, sir.
- Q Are you married? A Yes, sir, I have been married; I am not married now.
- Q Your husband dead? A No, sir.
- Q You make no claim for him? A No, sir.
- Q How many times have you been married? A Twice.
- Q You make no claim for either of your husbands? A No, sir.
- Q Have you any children living? A No, sir.
- Q This application, then, is for yourself only, is that right? A yes, sir.
- Q Is your name on any of the Choctaw tribal rolls in Indian Territory? A No, sir, not that I knows of.
- Q Has any application of any description ever been made for you before to-day for the purpose of establishing your rights as a Choctaw Indian? A No, sir.
- Q Do you appear before the Commission at this time for the purpose of claiming rights in the Choctaw lands in Indian Territory under article 14 of the treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek? A Yes, sir.

Malinda Stanley, 3.

Q Do you understand article 14 of the treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek? A No, sir.

This treaty was entered into here in Mississippi on the 27th day of September, 1830, between the Government of the United States and the Choctaw tribe of Indians. At the time the treaty was made, the Choctaws lived here in Mississippi and along the western edge of the State of Alabama. The object of the treaty was to get these Indians to move from the country occupied by them here in Mississippi and Alabama, out to a new country west of the Mississippi River, a part of which is now occupied by the greater portion of the Choctaw tribe of Indians and is commonly known as the Choctaw Nation, Indian Territory. At the time this treaty was made, some of the Indians were unwilling to leave this country, and for the benefit of those who wanted to stay here what is known as the 14th article was put in the treaty. It is as follows:

"Each Choctaw head of a family being desirous to remain and become a citizen of the States shall be permitted to do so by signifying his intention to the agent within six months from the ratification of this treaty, and he or she shall thereupon be entitled to a reservation of one section of six hundred and forty acres of land, to be bounded by sectional lines of survey; in like manner shall be entitled to one-half that quantity for each unmarried child which is living with him over ten years of age, and a quarter section to such child as may be under ten years of age, to adjoin the location of the parent. If they reside upon said land intending to become citizens of the States for five years after the ratification of this treaty in that case a grant in fee simple shall issue; said reservations shall include the present improvement of the head of the family, or a portion of it. Persons who claim under this article shall not lose the privilege of a Choctaw citizen, but if they ever remove are not to be entitled to any portion of the Choctaw annuity."

Q I have quoted to you the 14th article of the treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek; do you understand it? A Yes, sir.

Q Did any of your ancestors ever comply or attempt to comply with its provisions, or ever receive any benefits under it? A Not as I know of.

Q Did any of your ancestors own an improvement here in the old Choctaw Nation in Mississippi and Alabama, in the year 1830, when this treaty was made, seventy one years ago? A Not as I know of.

Q Did any of them live here at that time? A Not as I know of.

Q Did any of them remove to the present Choctaw Nation, in Indian Territory, at the time of the removal of the greater portion of the Choctaw tribe of Indians between the years 1833 and 1838? That was nearly seventy years ago? A No, sir.

Q Did any of your Choctaw ancestors, within six months after the treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek was ratified, let the agent of the Government here in Mississippi for the Choctaws know that they wanted to stay here in Mississippi and become citizens of the states and take land? A No, sir, not that I know of.

Malinda Stanley, 4.

Q Did any of them ever claim or receive any land here in Mississippi from the Government of the United States under article 14 of the treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek? A Not as I knows of.

Q Or under any other provision in that treaty? A No, sir.

Q Did any of them ever get any money from the Government?

A Not that I knows of.

In accordance with the provisions of article 14 of the treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek, the Government of the United States directed an agent here in Mississippi to register the names of such Choctaws as might desire to remain here and become citizens of the States and take land. The records of the Government show that this agent failed to register and report to the Government the names of many Indians who did, in fact, let him know that they wanted to stay here and become citizens and take land, and on this account, the Government at its public land sales here in Mississippi, in many instances, sold land upon which Choctaws lived and had improvements, and which they supposed they would receive under the 14th article of the treaty. This caused a great deal of complaint among the Indians and the matter was finally brought to the attention of Congress, and Congress passed certain Acts between the years 1837 and 1842, providing for the appointment of commissioners to come down here to Mississippi and hear the cases of Choctaws who claimed that they had complied in all respects with the provisions of article 14 of the treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek, but that their land had been sold by the Government. These commissioners were duly appointed by the President of the United States and they came down here to Mississippi between the years 1837 and 1845, and heard a great many of these Choctaw cases.

Q Did any of your ancestors appear before any of these commissioners and attempt to establish their rights under the 14th article of the treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek? A Not as I knows of.

An Act of Congress approved August 23, 1842, provided that in case it should be finally determined that a Choctaw had complied in all respects with the provisions of article 14 of the treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek, but that his land had been sold by the Government, he should be entitled to select in the place of the land so sold by the Government, land some place else here in Mississippi, or in Alabama, or Louisiana, or Arkansas, from vacant Government land and should be given a certificate to that effect. These certificates were called scrip.

Malinda Stanley, 5.

Q Did any of your ancestors ever get any of this scrip from the Government of the United States under this Act of Congress? A Not that I knows of.

Q Do you know of any old person living who would likely know whether any of your ancestors ever complied or attempted to comply with the provisions of the 14th article of the treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek, or ever received any benefits thereunder? A No, sir.

Q Do you know of any written evidence of any description which would prove or tend to prove such a state of facts? A No, sir.

Q Have you any written evidence to offer at this time? A No, sir.

Q Have you any witnesses here to-day? A No, sir.

If you should find any witnesses whose testimony you desire to have taken by the Commission, they may appear before the Commission here at Meridian, Mississippi, before the 15th of this month, or within a reasonable time thereafter at the General Office of the Commission, in Muskogee, Indian Territory, and their testimony will be taken.

Q Is there any thing further you would like to say? A No, sir.

Q Do you speak or understand the Choctaw language? A Not now, I don't. When I first could learn to talk, I talked that way. But, I have lived in Mississippi and been trained to this other language.

Q Where did you learn the Choctaw language? A My mother.

Q Where? A Here in Carroll County. She could talk just like that Indian yonder.

Q Have you any relatives living in this country? A Not as I knows of.

Q Not a one? A No, sir.

Q No kin folks? A None but my sister's children - my sister.

Q What are their names? A Sallie.

Q Sallie is your sister? A Sister's child.

Q What's your sisters name? A Indiana.

Q What was her other name? A Indiana Turner.

Q Where does Indiana Turner live? A She's dead.

Q She is the child? A She stays with me.

Q She is a half sister of yours? A Yes, sir, half sister.

Q The child then has no Choctaw blood? A No, sir, I suppose not.

(This applicant has the appearance of being possessed of a mixture of Negro and either white or Indian blood, in which the negro predominates. Her hair, however, is black and inclined to be straight. She does not speak or understand the Choctaw language.)

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR.
COMMISSION TO THE FIVE CIVILIZED TRIBES.

In the matter of the application of Malinda Stanley for identification as a Mississippi Choctaw, M. C. R. 4761.

---: D E C I S I O N :---

It appears from the record herein that an application for identification as a Mississippi Choctaw was made to this Commission by Malinda Stanley for herself, under the following provision of the act of Congress approved June 28, 1898, (30 Stats., 495):

"Said Commission shall have authority to determine the identity of Choctaw Indians claiming rights in the Choctaw lands under article fourteen of the treaty between the United States and the Choctaw Nation, concluded September twenty-seventh, eighteen hundred and thirty, and to that end may administer oaths, examine witnesses and perform all other acts necessary thereto and make report to the Secretary of the Interior."

It also appears that said applicant claims rights in the Choctaw lands under article fourteen of the treaty between the United States and the Choctaw Nation, concluded September twenty-seventh, eighteen hundred and thirty, by reason of being a descendant of Eastman Lowman, who is alleged to have been a full blood Choctaw Indian, and Sallie Stanley, who is alleged to have been a Choctaw Indian (degree of blood not stated).

It further appears from the evidence submitted in support of said application, and from the records in the possession of the Commission, that said applicant has never been enrolled by the Choctaw tribal authorities as a member of the Choctaw tribe, or admitted to Choctaw citizenship by a duly constituted court or committee of the Choctaw Nation, or by the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes, or by a decree of the United States Court in Indian Territory, under the provisions of the act of Congress approved June 10, 1896, (29 Stats., 321).

It does not appear from the testimony and evidence offered in support of said application, or from the records in the possession of the Commission relating to persons who complied or attempted to comply with the provisions of said article fourteen of the treaty of eighteen hundred and thirty, and to persons who heretofore were claimants thereunder that the said Eastman Lowman, or Sallie Stanley, signified (in person or by proxy) to Colonel Wm. Ward, Indian Agent, Choctaw Agency, an intention to comply with the provisions of said article fourteen, or presented a claim to rights thereunder to either of the Commissions authorized to adjudicate such claims by the acts of Congress approved March 3, 1837, (5 Stats., 180) and August 23, 1842 (5 Stats., 513).

It is therefore the opinion of this Commission that the evidence herein is insufficient to determine the identity of (3).

Malinda Stanley as a Choctaw Indian entitled to rights in the Choctaw lands under the provisions of said article fourteen of the treaty of eighteen hundred and thirty, and that the application for her identification as such should be refused, and it is so ordered.

Gentlemen:

You are hereby advised that on the 29th day of October 1902, the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes rendered a decision in the case of Malinda Stanley an applicant for identification as a Mississippi Choctaw.

This application was made under the provision of the act of Congress of June 28, 1898 (30 Stats., 496) which is as follows:

"Said Commission shall have authority to determine the identity of Choctaw Indians claiming rights in the Choctaw lands under article fourteen of the treaty between the United States and the Choctaw Nation concluded September twenty-seventh, eighteen hundred and thirty, and to that end may administer oaths, examine witnesses, and perform all other acts necessary thereto and make report to the Secretary of the Interior."

Said decision concludes as follows:

"It is therefore the opinion of this Commission that the evidence herein is insufficient to determine the identity of Malinda Stanley as a Choctaw Indian entitled to rights in the Choctaw lands under the provisions of said article fourteen of the treaty of eighteen hundred and thirty, and that the application for her identification as such should be refused, and it is so ordered."

You are further advised that the applicant in this case has been allowed fifteen days from the date hereof within which to

The Honorable,

The Secretary of the Interior.

Sir:

There is transmitted herewith the record in the case of Malinda Stanley an applicant to the Commission for identification as a Mississippi Choctaw, including the decision of the Commission of October 29, 1902.

The Commission has the honor to report that the applicant in this case, her attorney of record, her agent and the attorneys for the Choctaw and Chickasaw Nations have been duly advised by letter of the action of the Commission, copies of said letters being attached to the record.

Respectfully,

I am

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR,
Office of Indian Affairs,

The Honorable,

The Secretary of the Interior.

Sir:-

I have the honor to submit, herewith, for your consideration, the record of the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes, in the matter of the application of Malinda Stanley, for identification as a Mississippi Choctaw, wherein a decision adverse to the applicant was rendered by the Commission on October 29, 1902.

The testimony in this case shows that the applicant bases her claim to identification as a Mississippi Choctaw under this application, because of her descent from Eastman Lowman and Sallie Stanley. She claims that her ancestors were Choctaw Indians, and residents of the Choctaw Nation, in Mississippi, at the time of the making of the Choctaw treaty of 1830.

The Commission rejected the applicant because the names of the parties through whom she claims do not appear among the names of those who complied or attempted to comply with the provisions of the 14th article of the Choctaw treaty of 1830, and for the additional reason that the applicant herself had never been enrolled as a citizen of the Choctaw Nation.

An examination has been made of the records of this office with reference to Eastman Lowman and Sallie Stanley, and it is discovered that their names do not appear among the names of those who complied or attempted to comply with the provisions of the 14th article of the Choctaw Treaty of 1830.

This being the case it is evident that the decision of the Commission rejecting the applicant was correct, and I concur in that finding and recommend that it be approved.

Very respectfully,

A. C. Tonner,

Acting Commissioner.

Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes,

Muskogee, I. T.

Gentlemen:

November 14, 1902, you transmitted the record in the matter of the application of Malinda Stanley for identification as a Mississippi Choctaw, including your decision of October 29, 1902, refusing the application.

The applicant claims rights in Choctaw lands under article 14 of the treaty of September 27, 1830, by reason of being a descendant of Eastman Lowman, alleged to have been a full blood Choctaw Indian, and of Sallie Stanley, who, the applicant states, was a Choctaw Indian.

The records fail to show that applicant was ever admitted or enrolled as a citizen of the Choctaw Nation, or that either of her alleged ancestors complied or attempted to comply with said article 14 or with either of the acts of March 3, 1837 (5 Stat., 180), and August 23, 1842 (5 Stat., 513).

Reporting February 5, 1903, the Acting Commissioner of Indian Affairs recommends that your decision be approved. A copy of his letter is inclosed.

The Department finds no reason to disturb your decision and hereby affirms the same.

Respectfully,
(Signed) Thos. Ryan,
Acting Secretary.

Q Both of your husband's are dead? A Yes sir.

Q How many children have you? A One living and five dead.

Q What is the name of the child that's living? A Everett.

Q How old is Everett? A About fifteen years old.

Q Is he living with you now? A No sir, he's off at school.

Q What's the name of his father? A Alex McCain.

Q Did he have any Choctaw Indian blood? A No sir.

Q Was he your first husband? A No sir, my last husband.

Q How did you come to go by the name of Smith? A I used to be called that-that was my first husband's name.

Q What about this boy of yours-does he go by the name of Everett Smith? A Yes sir.

Q This application is for yourself and one minor child, is that right? A Yes sir.

Q Is your name or the name of this child on any of the Choctaw Tribal rolls in Indian Territory? A No sir.

Q Has any application ever been made before today for you or this child for the purpose of securing your rights as Choctaw Indians? A No sir.

Q Do you appear before the Commission at this time for the purpose of claiming rights in the Choctaw lands in Indian Territory for yourself and minor child under article 14 of the treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek? A Yes sir.

Q Do you understand article 14 of the treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek? A Yes sir, I believe I do.

Q Did any of your ancestors ever comply or attempt to comply with its provisions or ever receive any benefits thereunder-your old folks your forefathers? A No sir.

Q Did any of them own an improvement here in the old Choctaw Nation in Mississippi and Alabama in the year 1830 when this treaty was made-71 years ago? A No sir.

Q Did any of them, in fact, live here in the old Choctaw Nation at that time-71 years ago? A Not that I know of.

Q They were living over in Talladega County, Alabama, weren't they? A Yes sir, they all come from there.

Q Did any of your ancestors remove to the present Choctaw Nation in Indian Territory at the time of the removal of the greater portion of the Choctaw Tribe of Indians between the years 1833 and 1838? A No sir.

Q Did any of them within six months after the treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek was ratified let the Agent of the Government here in Mississippi, for the Choctaws, know that they wanted to stay here in Mississippi and become citizens of the States and take land? A Not as I know of.

Q Did any of them ever claim or receive any land here in Mississippi from the Government of the United States under the 14th article of the treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek? A Not as I know of.

Q Did any of them ever get any land under any other provision of that treaty? A No sir.

Q Did any of them ever get any money from the Government? A No sir.

In accordance with the provisions of article 14 of the treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek the Government of the United States directed an Agent here in Mississippi to register the names of such Choctaws as might desire to remain and become citizens of the States and take land. The records of the Government show that this Agent failed to register and report to the Government the names of many Indians who did in fact let him know that they wanted to stay here and become citizens and take land and on this account the Government, at its public land sales here in Mississippi, in many instances sold land upon which Choctaws lived and had improvements and which they supposed they would receive under article 14 of the treaty. This caused a great deal of complaint among the Indians and the matter was finally brought to the attention of Congress and Congress passed certain acts between the years 1837 and 1842 providing for the appointment of Commissions to come down here to Mississippi and hear the cases of Choctaws who claimed that they had complied in all respects with the provisions of article 14 of the treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek but that their land had been sold by the Government. These Commissioners were appointed by the President of the United States and they came down here to Mississippi and heard a great many of these Choctaw cases.

Q Did any of your ancestors appear before any of these Commissioners and attempt to establish their rights under the 14th article of the treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek? A I don't know anything about that.

An act of Congress approved the 23rd day of August, 1842, provided that in case it should be finally determined that a Choctaw had complied in all respects with the provisions of article 14 of the treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek but that his land had been sold by the Government, he should be entitled to select, in place of the land so sold by the Government, land some place else in Mississippi or in Alabama, Louisiana or Arkansas, from vacant Government land and should be given a certificate to that effect. These certificates were called scrip.

Q Did any of your ancestors ever get any of this scrip from the Government of the United States under this act of Congress? A Not as I know of.

Q Do you know any old persons living who would likely know whether any of your ancestors ever complied or attempted to comply with the provisions of article 14 of the treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek or ever received any benefits thereunder? A I don't know.

Q Do you know of any written evidence of any description which would prove or tend to prove such a state of facts? A No sir.

Q Have you any written evidence to offer at this time? A No sir.

Q Any witnesses? A No sir.

If you should find any witnesses whose testimony you desire to have taken before the Commission they may appear before us here at Meridian between now and the 15th of this month or within a reasonable time thereafter at the general office of the Commission in Muskogee, Indian Territory, and their testimony will be taken.

Q Are there any further statements you want to make at this time in support of your application? A No sir.

Q Do you speak or understand the Choctaw language? A No.

Q Have you any brothers living? A No sir.

Q Any sisters? A One.

Q What's her name? A Pennie Miller.

Q Where does she live? A She lives in Carroll County.

Q Has she been before the Commission? A No sir.

Q Have you any brothers or sisters dead who left children? A No sir, I aint got no brothers or sisters dead-I got a sister dead who left grandchildren. My sister died and she left two children and they grew up and married and had children and now they are dead and left children.

Q What was the name of your sister? A Elvira Jamison.

Q Now, she left two children? A Yes sir and they married and got children.

Q What are the names of those two children of your sister? A Mat Long, and the other one was named Flemmer Jamison.

Q Are any of Mat's children living now? A Yes sir, three.

Q Do you know their names? A Yes sir, Walter, Will and Douglas-they're little children.

Q With whom do these children live? A They live with my sister who's living-they live with Pennie Miller.

Q How many children has Flemmer living? A Two.

Nettie Smith et al---5

- Q What are their names? A I forgot their names.
Q Where do they live? A They lives up here in this State with his wife.
Q What is the name of their mother? A Maggie.
Q Are any of your mother's brothers or sisters or any of their children living? A Yes sir, she's got one sister living.
Q What is the name of your mother's sister who is living? A Pennie Liddell.
Q Where does she live? A Lives in Grenada County.
Q Has she been before the Commission? A No sir.
Q Has your mother any brothers or sisters dead who left children?
A No sir-she had one sister dead who left children but I don't know anything about them.
Q Are any of your father's brothers or sisters or any of their children living? A No sir.

Examination by Mr. Beadle:

- Q How long did your mother and father live together as husband and wife? A I couldn't tell you.
Q Did they live together as husband and wife until these five children were born? A Yes sir.
Q They had five children, then, when they were together as husband and wife? A Yes sir.
Q Did they always live there in Alabama? A Yes sir.
Q You don't know whether they were married or not? A No sir, they was together when I was big enough to know anything.
Q How long did you know them to live together? A A long time-I can't tell exactly.
Q As much as ten years? A Yes sir, I reckon it was ten years.

Commission:

This applicant has the appearance of being possessed of a mixture of negro and either white or Indian blood-her hair is almost straight and black-she does not speak or understand the Choctaw language.

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR,
COMMISSION TO THE FIVE CIVILIZED TRIBES.

In the matter of the application of Nettie Smith, et al., for identification as Mississippi Choctaws, N O R 4762.

DECISION.

It appears from the record herein that application for identification as Mississippi Choctaws was made to this Commission by Nettie Smith for herself and her minor child, Everett Smith, under the following provision of the Act of Congress approved June 28, 1878, (20 Stats., 498):

"Said Commission shall have authority to determine the identity of Choctaw Indians claiming rights in the Choctaw lands under article fourteen of the treaty between the United States and the Choctaw Nation, concluded September twenty-seventh, eighteen hundred and thirty, and to that end may administer oaths, examine witnesses and perform all other acts necessary thereto, and make report to the Secretary of the Interior."

It also appears that both of said applicants claim rights in the Choctaw lands under article fourteen of the treaty between the United States and the Choctaw Nation, concluded September twenty-seventh, eighteen hundred and thirty, by reason of being descendants of one Rebecca, who is alleged to have been a half blood Choctaw Indian, and of John Partlow, who is alleged to have been a full blood Choctaw Indian.

It further appears from the evidence submitted in support of said application and from the records in the possession of the Commission that neither of said applicants has ever been enrolled by the Choctaw tribal authorities as a member of the Choctaw tribe, or admitted to Choctaw citizenship by a duly constituted court or committee of the Choctaw Nation, or by the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes, or by a decree of the United States Court in Indian Territory, under the provisions of the act of Congress approved June 10, 1896 (29 Stats. 321).

It is found that the name of one Rebecca appears upon page 81 of Volume 1 of the Claimants' Brief and Evidence in the case of the Choctaw Nation versus the United States, before the Court of Claims, No. 12742, in a list of names of Choctaw Indians upon Colonel George W. Martin's Register of claimants under article fourteen of the treaty of "Dancing Rabbit Creek" of September twenty-seventh, eighteen hundred and thirty, said name having been so listed on October 21, 1835. It is not shown by the evidence offered by the applicants that the Rebecca through whom they claim is the identical Rebecca whose name appears in the record above cited.

It does not appear from the testimony and evidence offered in support of said application or from the records in the possession of the Commission relating to persons who complied or attempted to comply with the provisions of said article fourteen of the treaty of eighteen hundred and thirty, and to persons who heretofore were claimants thereunder, that the said Rebecca through whom these applicants claim, or John Partlow signified (in person or by proxy) to Colonel Wm. Ward, Indian Agent, Choctaw Agency, an intention to comply with the provisions of said article fourteen, or presented a claim to rights thereunder to either of the Commissions authorized to adjudicate such claims by the acts of Congress approved March 3, 1837 (5 Stats. 180) and August 23, 1842 (5 Stats. 513).

It is therefore the opinion of this Commission that the evidence herein is insufficient to determine the identity of Nettie Smith and Everett Smith as Choctaw Indians entitled to rights in the Choctaw lands under the provisions of article fourteen of the treaty of eighteen hundred and thirty, and that the application for their identification as such should be refused, and it is so ordered.

You are hereby advised that on the 22nd day of December, 1902, the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes rendered a decision in the case of Nettie Smith, et al., applicants for identification as Mississippi Choctaws.

This application was made under the provision of the act of Congress of June 28, 1898 (30 Stats., 495), which is as follows:

"Said Commission shall have authority to determine the identity of Choctaw Indians claiming rights in the Choctaw lands under article fourteen of the treaty between the United States and the Choctaw Nation, concluded September twenty-seventh, eighteen hundred and thirty, and to that end may administer oaths, examine witnesses and perform all other acts necessary thereto, and make report to the Secretary of the Interior."

Said decision concludes as follows:

"It is therefore the opinion of this Commission that the evidence herein is insufficient to determine the identity of Nettie Smith and Everett Smith as Choctaw Indians entitled to rights in the Choctaw lands under the provisions of article fourteen of the treaty of eighteen hundred and thirty, and that the application for their identification as such should be refused, and it is so ordered."

You are further advised that the applicants in this case have been allowed fifteen days from the date hereof within which to file arguments in this office, and that at the expiration of said time the papers in the case, together with such arguments, will be forwarded to the Secretary of the Interior through the Commissioner of Indian Affairs.

The Honorable

The Secretary of the Interior.

Sir:

There is transmitted herewith the record in the case of Nettie Smith, et al., applicants to the Commission for identification as Mississippi Choctaws, including the decision of the Commission of December 22, 1902.

The Commission has the honor to report that the principal applicant herein, her agent, her attorney of record and the attorneys for the Choctaw and Chickasaw Nations have been duly advised by letter of the action of the Commission, copies of said letters being attached to the record.

Respectfully,

Acting Chairman.

Dear Madam:

Receipt is hereby acknowledged of your letter of the 5th instant, relative to the decision of the Commission in your case. You give the names of your ancestors and state that you have no further evidence to offer.

In reply to your letter you are informed that the fifteen days from December 22, 1902, heretofore granted you to file arguments in your case, expired on January 6, 1903. On January 7, 1903, the record in your case, together with the decision of the Commission refusing the application made by you for the identification of yourself and minor child as Mississippi Choctaws, was forwarded to the Secretary of the Interior. You will be duly notified of such action as may be taken by him.

Respectfully,

Acting Chairman.

The Honorable,

The Secretary of the Interior.

Sir:

There is transmitted herewith a report from the Acting Chairman of the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes, dated January 7, 1903, forwarding the record relative to the application of Nettie Smith, et al., for identification as Mississippi Choctaws.

Nettie Smith applies for the identification of herself and her minor child Everett Smith. The applicants claim descent from Rebecca, grandmother of principal applicant; and from John Parlow, father of principal applicant.

December 22, 1902, the Commission held that the applicants were not entitled to identification.

The Commission invites attention to the fact that the name Rebecca appears upon page 81 of Vol. 1 of the claimants' brief and evidence in the case of the Choctaw Nation ~~vs~~ the United States before the Court of Claims and states that the evidence does not show that the Rebecca mentioned therein is identical with the Rebecca through whom they claim.

The records of this office show that a person by the names of Rebecca applied to George W. Martin, special commissioner, for land under article 14 of the treaty of September 28, 1830, but they do not show that she received a patent to this land. This being true and the applicants not being of the full blood the approval of the Commission's decision is recommended.

Gentlemen:

January 7, 1903, you transmitted the record in the matter of the application for identification as Mississippi Choctaws, of Nettie Smith and her minor child, Everett Smith, including your decision of December 22, 1902, adverse to the applicants.

They claim rights in Choctaw lands under article 14 of the treaty of September 27, 1830, by reason of being descendants of one Rebecca, who is alleged to have been a half blood Choctaw Indian and of John Partlow, who is said to have been a full blood Choctaw Indian.

You found that the name Rebecca appears upon page 81 of Volume 1 of the Claimants' Brief and Evidence in the case of The Choctaw Nation vs. the United States, Court of Claims No. 12742, but state that it is not shown by the evidence offered, that the Rebecca through whom applicants claim is the identical Rebecca whose name appears in said record. You further state that it does not appear from the testimony and evidence that the Rebecca through whom the applicants claim or said John Partlow, complied or attempted to comply with said article 14, or with either of the acts of March 3, 1837 (5 Stat., 180) and August 23, 1842 (5 Stat., 513).

Reporting January 27, 1903, the Acting Commissioner of Indian Affairs states that the records of the Indian Office show that a person by the name of Rebecca applied to George W. Martin, special commissioner, for land under said article 14, but do not show that she received a patent to this land. He recommends that your decision be approved. Copy of letter inclosed. Having carefully considered the record in this case, the Department affirms your decision therein.

Respectfully,

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR,
COMMISSION TO THE FIVE CIVILIZED TRIBES,
Meridian, Mississippi, February 13th, 1902.

In the matter of the application of Norman Flowers for the identification of himself and three minor children, Alex M., Lou A., and Robert Flowers, as Mississippi Choctaws.

Said Norman Flowers, being first duly sworn, testified as follows:-

Examination by the Commission.

- Q What's your name? A Norman Flowers.
Q How old are you? A Thirty-eight years old.
Q What's your postoffice address? A Winona, Mississippi.
Q Montgomery County? A Yes sir.
Q How long have you lived there? A All my life.
Q How much Choctaw blood have you? A One fourth.
Q You understand the nature of an oath, don't you? A Yes sir.
Q Is your father living? A No sir.
Q What was his name? A Alex Flowers.
Q Is your mother living? A No sir.
Q What was her name? A Lettie Flowers.
Q Through which one of your parents did you get your Choctaw blood?
A From my mother.
Q How long has she been dead? A About eleven years.
Q How old was she when she died? A She was about forty-eight years old.
Q Where was she born? A In Choctaw County.
Q Mississippi? A Yes sir.
Q Was she a slave? A No sir.
Q Did she live in Mississippi all her life? A Yes sir.
Q Through which one of her parents did she get her Choctaw blood?
A She got it from her mother's side I reckon-I don't know, sir-I never did see any of my foreparents.
Q What was your mother's mother's name? A I don't know.
Q According to your statement now, your mother's mother was a full blood Choctaw Indian, is that right? A Yes sir.
Q You want to swear to that positively, do you? A Yes sir, according to her word.
Q When did she tell you her mother was a Choctaw Indian? A It was in my childhood days.
Q You are sure she told you her mother was a full blood? A Yes sir.
Q Do you know where her mother lived? A No sir, only in Choctaw. I never understood what Choctaw meant until since I've been grown. I was small when she told me that.
Q What do you understand in Choctaw meant? A It means a Choctaw this side of Montgomery County-east of where I am living. When I was small they would come across and they would always call the men who come across the river Choctaws -I lived on this side of the River and they lived on the other. I didn't understand it then but I do now.
Q Didn't you live on the wrong side of the River to be a Choctaw?
A No sir, I suppose not.
Q Are you married? A Yes sir.
Q Is your wife living? A Yes sir.
Q What's her name? A Annie Flowers.

- Q Has she any Choctaw blood? A No sir.
Q You don't make any claim for her, then? A No sir.
Q Have you been married more than once? A No sir.
Q How many children have you living? A Three.
Q What are their names and ages? A Alex M. Flowers.
Q How old is he? A Fifteen years old.
Q Next one? A Lou A.
Q How old is she? A Twelve years old.
Q Is that a boy or girl? A Girl.
Q Next one? A Robert.
Q How old is he? A Eight years old.
Q Is that all your children? A Yes sir.
Q Are these three children living with you now? A Yes sir.
Q Are they the children of yourself and Annie Flowers? A Yes sir.
Q This application, then, is for yourself and three minor children, is that correct? A Yes sir.
Q Were you married to Annie under a license? A Yes sir.
Q When? A In '82.
Q Where? A Montgomery County.
Q Mississippi? A Yes sir.
Q Who married you? A A man by the name of Reuben Crawford.
Q What position did he hold at that time? A Pastor of church.
Q Have you your marriage license and certificate with you at this time? A No sir.
Q Are you living with Annie now? A Yes sir.
Q Have been ever since you were married, have you? A Yes sir.

It will be necessary for you to furnish the Commission with proper evidence of your marriage to your wife Annie for use in connection with the application you make for your three minor children. This should be furnished within a period of thirty days from this date.

- Q Is your name or the name of anyone of these children to be found on any of the Choctaw Tribal rolls in Indian Territory? A No sir.
Q Has any application of any description ever been made for yourself or anyone of these children before today for the purpose of establishing your rights as Choctaw Indians? A No sir.
Q This is the first application of any kind that has ever been made for you? A Yes sir.
Q Do you appear before the Commission at this time for the purpose of claiming rights in the Choctaw lands in Indian Territory for yourself and three minor children under the 14th article of the treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek? A Yes sir.
Q Do you understand the 14th article of the treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek? A Yes sir, I reckon.

This treaty was entered into here in Mississippi on the 27th day of September, 1830, between the United States Government and the Choctaw Tribe of Indians. At the time the treaty was made the Choctaws lived here in Mississippi and along the western edge of the State of Alabama. The object of this treaty was to get these Indians to move from the country occupied by them here in Mississippi and Alabama to a new country west of the Mississippi River part of which is now occupied by the greater portion of the Choctaw Tribe of Indians and is commonly known as the Choctaw Nation Indian Territory. At the time this treaty was made some of the Indians were unwilling to leave this country and for the benefit of those who wanted to stay here what is known as the 14th article was put in the treaty. That 14th article provided that upon certain conditions a Choctaw who wanted to stay here in Mississippi might receive land here in Mississippi from the Government. It is as follows:

"Each Choctaw head of a family being desirous to remain and become a citizen of the States shall be permitted to do so by signifying his intention to the Agent within six months from the ratification of this treaty and he or she shall thereupon be entitled to a reservation of one section of six hundred and forty acres of land, to be bounded by sectional lines of survey; in like manner shall be entitled to one half that quantity for each unmarried child which is living with him over ten years of age; and a quarter section to such child as may be under ten years of age; to adjoin the location of the parent. If they reside upon said land, intending to become citizens of the States, for five years after the ratification of this treaty, in that case a grant in fee simple shall issue; said reservation shall include the present improvement of the head of the family or a portion of it. Persons who claim under this article shall not lose the privilege of a Choctaw citizen but if they ever remove are not to be entitled to any portion of the Choctaw annuity."

Q Do you understand that 14th article now? A yes sir.

Q Did any of your ancestors ever comply or attempt to comply with the provisions of that 14th article or ever receive any benefits thereunder? A No sir, not as I know of.

Q Did any of them own an improvement here in the old Choctaw Nation in Mississippi and Alabama in the year 1830 when this treaty was made? A No sir, if they did I don't know anything about it.

Q Did any of them, in fact, live here at that time? A Yes sir, I suppose they did.

Q Well-who-what one of your Choctaw ancestors lived here 71 years ago? A I don't know, sir what one stayed here at that time. I don't know anything about the blood any further back than my mother.

Q You don't know that any of your Choctaw ancestors were living here 71 years ago, do you? A No sir, I don't.

Q Did any of your Choctaw ancestors move out to the new nation west of the Mississippi River between the years 1833 and 1838 when the greater portion of the Choctaw Tribe moved out there? A No sir, not as I know of.

Q Did any of them within six months after the treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek was ratified let the Agent of the Government here in Mississippi, for the Choctaws, know that they wanted to stay here and become citizens of the States and take land? A No sir, I don't know anything about that.

Q Did any of them ever claim or receive any land here in Mississippi from the Government of the United States under article 14 of the treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek? A No sir.

Q Did any of them ever get any land here in Mississippi from the

Norman Flowers et al--4

Government under any other treaty provision? A No sir.

Q Did any of them ever get any money from the Government? A No sir.

Q So far as you know, then, none of your ancestors ever received any benefits whatever as Choctaw Indians? A No sir.

In accordance with the provisions of article 14 of the treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek the Government of the United States directed an Agent here in Mississippi to register the names of such Choctaws as might desire to remain and become citizens of the States and take land. The records of the government show that this Agent failed to register and report to the Government the names of many Indians who did in fact let him know that they wanted to stay here and become citizens and take land and on this account the Government, at its public land sales here in Mississippi, in many instances sold land upon which Choctaws lived and had improvements and which they supposed they would receive under article 14 of the treaty. This caused a great deal of complaint among the Indians and the matter was finally brought to the attention of Congress and Congress passed certain acts between the years 1837 and 1842 providing for the appointment of Commissioners to come down here to Mississippi and hear the cases of Choctaws who claimed that they had complied in all respects with the provisions of article 14 of the treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek but that their land had been sold by the Government. These Commissioners were appointed by the President of the United States and they came down here to Mississippi and heard a great many of these Choctaw cases.

Q Did any of your ancestors appear before any of these Commissioners and attempt to establish their rights under article 14 of the treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek? A No sir.

Q Are you sure of that? A Yes sir.

An act of Congress approved on the 23rd day of August, 1842, provided that in case it should be finally determined that a Choctaw had complied in all respects with the provisions of article 14 of the treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek but that his land had been sold by the Government, he should be entitled to select, in place of the land so sold by the Government, land some place else in Mississippi or in Alabama, Louisiana or Arkansas, from vacant Government land and should be given a certificate to that effect. These certificates were called scrip.

Q Did any of your ancestors ever get any of this scrip from the Government of the United States under this act of Congress? A No sir.

Q Do you know of any old person who would likely know whether any of your ancestors ever complied or attempted to comply with the provisions of article 14 of the treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek or ever received any benefits thereunder? A No sir, I don't.

- Q Do you know of any written evidence of any kind which would prove or tend to prove such a state of facts? A No sir.
- Q Have you any written evidence of any kind to offer at this time? A No sir.
- Q Have you any witnesses here today? A Yes sir.
- Q How many? A I've got two.
- Q What two? A Aunt Ellen Green and Jerry Turner.
- Q What do you expect to prove by them? A I expect to prove that my mother had Indian blood in her.
- Q Is that all? A Yes sir, that's all I can prove by them.

If you should find any other witnesses whose testimony you desire to have taken before the Commission they may appear before us here at Meridian between now and the 15th of this month or within a reasonable time thereafter at the general office of the Commission in Muskogee, Indian Territory, and their testimony will be taken.

- Q Are there any further statements you want to make at this time? A No sir.
- Q Do you speak or understand the Choctaw language? A No sir.
- Q Did your mother? A No sir.
- Q Have you any brothers or sisters living? A Yes sir.
- Q How many brothers? A Two.
- Q What are their names? A Clinton and Ben.
- Q Have they been before the Commission? A No sir.
- Q Where do they live? A One stays in the swamp-I don't know where the other stays. I haven't seen him for two years.
- Q Have you any sisters living? A Yes sir, I have one.
- Q What's her name? A Sallie Carpet.
- Q Has she been before the Commission? A No sir.
- Q Have you any brothers or sisters dead who left children? A No sir.
- Q Are any of your mother's brothers or sisters living? A No sir.
- Q Are any of the children of any of your mother's brothers or sisters living? A No sir-if there is I don't know anything about it.

This applicant has the appearance of being a full blood negro-he shows no indications of being possessed of Indian blood-does not speak or understand the Choctaw language.

Ellen Green, being first duly sworn, testified as follows:

Examination by the Commission.

- Q What's your name? A Ellen Green.
- Q How old are you? A About 63 or 64 years old.
- Q What's your postoffice address? A Kilmichael, Mississippi.
- Q How long have you lived up there? A I lived about two and a half miles from there for about 25 years.

- Q Where did you live before that? A Right down below there all my life.
- Q What County? A Carroll County.
- Q You have appeared before the Commission this morning as an applicant for identification as a Mississippi Choctaw, have you not? A Yes sir.
- Q You now appear before the Commission as a witness in behalf of Norman Flowers who appeared as a witness in your case? A yes sir.
- Q How long have you known Norman? A Ever since I was small boy.
- Q Is he any kin to you? A No sir, only a neighbor-his mother was a door neighbor of mine.
- Q Are you interested in any way in the result of his application? A Not a bit.
- Q Has Norman any Choctaw blood? A She told me she was.
- Q Who are you talking about? A His mother.
- Q What was her name? A Lottie Flowers.
- Q What did she tell you about having Choctaw blood? A Me and her was talking about hearing of Indian Territory one day and I asked her how much Indian nation she had in her and I believe she told me she had half and I told her I had half. I asked her what tribe she belonged to and she said she belonged to the Choctaw Tribe. That's all she told me about it. She told me she was a Choctaw Indian-part Indian. I think she said half.
- Q You wouldn't swear that she told you what part? A No sir, only I know she told me Choctaw Indian-she looked to be like a whole Indian.
- Q How old would she be if she were living now? A About as old as I am-about 59 or 60.
- Q How old were you when you first saw her? A I was about fifty.
- Q You don't know where she was born, do you? A No sir.
- Q Now where she lived during the early part of her life? A Yes-I do-she lived there about three miles from me all during slavery times-I believe, when she was a child, right there at Mr. Flowers. We were children together.
- Q Do you know the name of her father or mother? A No sir.
- Q Do you know where they lived? A No sir.
- Q Don't know the name of any of her ancestors, do you? A No sir.
- Q You are sure that Lottie is the mother of this boy Norman? A yes sir, I knew him when he was a little shaver.
- Q Do you know whether any of the ancestors of Norman Flowers ever complied or attempted to comply with the provisions of article 14 of the treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek or ever received any benefits under that article? A No sir, I don't know.
- Q Is that all you know about this case? A Yes sir, it is.
- Q You have nothing further to say, then? A No sir.

This witness is apparently possessed of a mixture of negro and either white or Indian blood-she is a woman of average intelligence.

(Witness excused)

Jerry Turner, being first duly sworn, testified as follows.

Examination by the Commission.

- Q What's your name? A Jerry Turner.

Norman Flowers et al--7

- Q How old are you? A About forty-seven I guess.
- Q What's your postoffice address? A Winona, Mississippi.
- Q How long have you lived up there? A Been living there all my life.
- Q Are you a Choctaw Indian? A No sir.
- Q You don't make any claim to be a Choctaw? A No sir.
- Q Are you acquainted with Norman Flowers? A Yes sir.
- Q How long have you known him? A I been knowing him I guess 15 or 16 years.
- Q Are you any kin to him? A Not a bit.
- Q Are you interested in any way in the result of his application? A No sir.
- Q Where has Norman lived ever since you have known him? A He's lived in Montgomery County probably seven or eight miles from Winona ever since I've known him.
- Q Has he any Indian blood? A That I don't know, sir.
- Q Were you acquainted with his parents? A I was acquainted with his mother.
- Q How long has she been dead? A To my recollection may be ten or eleven years.
- Q About how old a woman was she when she died? A I don't know, sir.
- Q How long did you know her? A Quite a short while-probably two years.
- Q Where? A In Montgomery County.
- Q Was she a slave? A I don't know, sir.
- Q Were you? A Yes sir, I was as a little boy.
- Q Did Lettie have any Choctaw blood? A I don't know, sir.
- Q Was that this boy's mother? A Yes sir, I think that was her name.
- Q Do you know what his father's name was? A No sir.
- Q What do you expect to testify about? A What I heard her say.
- Q What did you hear her say? A I heard her say she had Indian blood in her.
- Q Did she say what kind of Indian blood? A She didn't.
- Q Did she tell you how much Indian blood she had? A No sir, she didn't.
- Q Is that all you know about this case? A Yes sir, that's all.
- Q You don't know where she was born? A No sir.
- Q You don't know whether any of her ancestors ever complied or attempted to comply with the provisions of article 14 of the treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek or ever received any benefits thereunder? A No sir.

This witness is a negro of average intelligence.

COMMISSION TO THE FIVE CIVILIZED TRIBES.

In the matter of the application of Herman Flowers, et al.,
for identification as Mississippi Choctaws, M.C.R. 4763.

---D E C I S I O N---

It appears from the record herein that application for identification as Mississippi Choctaws was made to this Commission by Herman Flowers for himself and his three minor children, Alex H., Lou A. and Robert Flowers, under the following provision of the act of Congress approved June 28, 1896 (30 Stats., 495):

"Said Commission shall have authority to determine the identity of Choctaw Indians claiming rights in the Choctaw lands under article fourteen of the treaty between the United States and the Choctaw Nation, concluded September twenty-seventh, eighteen hundred and thirty, and to that end may administer oaths, examine witnesses, and perform all other acts necessary thereto and make report to the Secretary of the Interior."

From the evidence submitted in support of said application and the records in the possession of the Commission, it does not appear that any of the applicants herein has ever been enrolled by the Choctaw tribal authorities as a member of the Choctaw tribe, or admitted to Choctaw citizenship by a duly constituted court or committee of the Choctaw Nation, or by the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes, or by a decree of the United States Court in Indian Territory, under the provisions of the act of Congress approved June 10, 1896 (29 Stats., 321).

The record herein shows that the applicants are too young to have been living in eighteen hundred and thirty, and fails to show the name of a mere remote Choctaw ancestor through whom they claim, than the mother of the principal applicant, who, according to the testimony, was fifty-nine years of age in 1902, and could not therefore have been living in eighteen hundred and thirty. The record shows that the principal applicant is ignorant of the names of any of his ancestors, other than his mother. Although he has had more than seven months in which to secure evidence tending to show who said ancestors were, he has not offered to submit such additional proof.

The evidence being insufficient to determine the identity of Newman Flowers, Alex N. Flowers, Lou A. Flowers and Robert Flowers as Choctaw Indians entitled to rights in the Choctaw lands under the provisions of article fourteen of the treaty of eighteen hundred and thirty, it is the opinion of this Commission that the application for their identification as such should be refused, and it is so ordered.

Dear Sir:

You are hereby advised that on the 6th day of December, 1902, the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes rendered a decision in the case of Norman Flowers, et al., applicants for identification as Mississippi Choctaws.

This application was made under the provision of the act of Congress of June 28, 1898 (30 Stats., 495), which is as follows:

"Said Commission shall have authority to determine the identity of Choctaw Indians claiming rights in the Choctaw lands under article fourteen of the treaty between the United States and the Choctaw Nation, concluded September twenty-seventh, eighteen hundred and thirty, and to that end may administer oaths, examine witnesses, and perform all other acts necessary thereto, and make report to the Secretary of the Interior."

Said decision concludes as follows:

"The Evidence being insufficient to determine the identity of Norman Flowers, Alex M. Flowers, Lou A. Flowers and Robert Flowers as Choctaw Indians entitled to rights in the Choctaw lands under the provisions of article fourteen of the treaty of eighteen hundred and thirty, it is the opinion of this Commission that the application for their identification as such should be refused, and it is so ordered."

You are further advised that you will be allowed fifteen days from the date hereof within which to file arguments in this

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR,
Office of Indian Affairs,

Washington, March 2, 1903.

The Honorable,
The Secretary of the Interior.

Sir:

There is transmitted, herewith, for your consideration, the record of the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes, in the matter of the application of Norman Flowers, for himself and his three children, Alex M., Lou A., and Robert Flowers, for identification as Mississippi Choctaws, claiming rights as such under the provisions of the 14th article of the Choctaw treaty of 1830.

The testimony in this case shows that the applicants base their claim to identification under this application, on their descent from the principal applicant's mother, Lettie Flowers, who it is alleged was a Choctaw Indian, but who it is not claimed was a resident in the Choctaw Nation, in Mississippi, at the time of the making of the Choctaw treaty of 1830. The applicants do not know the name of their ancestor who lived in the Choctaw Nation in 1830, nor if any ancestor complied or attempted to comply with the provisions of the 14th article of the Choctaw treaty of 1830.

The Commission rejected the applicants December 6, 1902, because they had never been enrolled as citizens of the Choctaw Nation, and for the reason that the party through whom they claim was not living in 1830. As the evidence herein states that the principal applicant's mother, Lettie Flowers, through whom they applicants claim rights was 59 years of age in 1902, she could not have been living at the time of the treaty of "Dancing Rabbit Creek", and as they do not give the name of an ancestor more remote than this Lettie Flowers, it is impossible to examine the records as to whether they had such an ancestor in Mississippi in 1830.

It is, therefore, the opinion of this office that the decision of the Commission rejecting the applicants is correct, and it is recommended that their decision be approved.

Very respectfully,

A. C. TONNER,

Acting Commissioner.

Gentlemen:

December 22, 1902, you transmitted the record in the matter of the application for identification as Mississippi Choctaws, of Norman Flowers and his minor children, Alex M., Lou A. and Robert Flowers, including your decision of December 6, 1902, adverse to the applicants.

They claim rights in Choctaw lands under article 14 of the treaty of September 27, 1830, by reason of being descendants of Lettie Flowers, the principal applicants mother, who, it appears, could not have been in existence in 1830. The principal applicant was unable to give the name of a more remote ancestor of Choctaw blood, than his mother.

Reporting March 2, 1903, the Acting Commissioner of Indian Affairs recommends approval of your decision. A copy of his letter is inclosed.

The Department affirms your decision.

Q Who married you? A Mr. Walt Moore-he was a justice of the peace in that county.

It will be necessary for you to furnish the Commission with proper evidence of your marriage to your wife Alena for consideration in connection with the application you make in behalf of your seven minor children. This should be furnished within thirty days from this date.

Q Is your name or the name of anyone of these children to be found on any of the Choctaw Tribal rolls in Indian Territory? A Not as I know of.

Q Has any application of any description ever been made for you or any of these children before today for the purpose of establishing your rights as Choctaw Indians? A No sir.

Q Do you appear before the Commission at this time for the purpose of claiming rights in the Choctaw lands in Indian Territory for yourself and seven minor children under article 14 of the treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek? A Yes sir.

Q Do you understand article 14 of the treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek? A No sir.

This treaty was entered into here in Mississippi on the 27th day of September, 1830, between the United States Government and the Choctaw Tribe of Indians. At the time this treaty was made the Choctaws lived here in Mississippi and along the western edge of the State of Alabama. The object of this treaty was to get these Indians to move from the country occupied by them here in Mississippi and Alabama to a new country west of the Mississippi River, part of which is now occupied by the greater portion of the Choctaw Tribe of Indians and is commonly known as the Choctaw Nation Indian Territory. At the time this treaty was made some of the Indians were unwilling to leave this country and for the benefit of those who wanted to stay here what is known as the 14th article was put in the treaty. That 14th article provided that upon certain conditions a Choctaw who wanted to stay here in Mississippi might and become a citizen of the States and not move out to the new nation might receive land here in Mississippi from the Government. It is as follows:-

"Each Choctaw head of a family being desirous to remain and become a citizen of the States shall be permitted to do so by signifying his intention to the Agent within six months from the ratification of this treaty and he or she shall thereupon be entitled to a reservation of one section of six hundred and forty acres of land, to be bounded by sectional lines of survey; in like manner shall be entitled to one half that quantity for each unmarried child which is living with him over ten years of age; and a quarter section for such child as may be under ten years of age, to adjoin the location of the parent. If they reside upon said land, intending to become citizens of the States, for five years after the ratification of this treaty in that case a grant in fee simple shall issue; said reservation shall include the present improvement of the head of the family or a portion of it. Persons who claim under this article shall not lose the privilege of a Choctaw citizen but if they ever remove are not to be entitled to any portion of the choctaw annuity."

- Q I have quoted to you the 14th article of the treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek. Do you understand that article? A Yes sir.
- Q Did any of your ancestors ever comply or attempt to comply with the provisions of article 14 of the treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek or ever receive any benefits thereunder? A No sir, not as I know of-my grandfather didn't have anything.
- Q Did any of them own an improvement here in the old Choctaw Nation in Mississippi and Alabama in the year 1830 when the treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek was made? A No sir.
- Q Did any of them, in fact, live here at that time-71 years ago? A Not as I know of-grandpa was living at that time cause he was over 100 years old when he died.
- Q Where was he living 71 years ago? A I suppose he was in Choctaw County, Alabama, as far as I know.
- Q Did any of your Choctaw ancestors remove to the present Choctaw Nation in Indian Territory at the time of the removal of the greater portion of the Choctaw Tribe of Indians between the years 1833 and 1838? A Not as I know of.
- Q Did any of them within six months after the treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek was ratified let the Agent of the Government here in Mississippi, for the Choctaws, know that they wanted to stay here in Mississippi and become citizens of the States and take land? A Not as I know of.
- Q Did any of them ever claim or receive any land here in Mississippi from the Government of the United States under article 14 of the treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek? A No sir.
- Q Did any of them ever get any land under any other article of that treaty or under the supplement? A No sir.
- Q Did any of them ever get any money from the Government? A No sir.
- Q As far as you know, then, none of your ancestors ever received any benefits whatever as Choctaw Indians? A No sir.

In accordance with the provisions of article 14 of the treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek the Government of the United States directed an Agent here in Mississippi to register the names of such Choctaws as might desire to remain here and become citizens of the States and take land. The records of the Government show that this Agent failed to register and report to the Government the names of many Choctaws who did in fact let him know that they wanted to stay here and become citizens and take land and on this account the Government, at its public land sales here in Mississippi, in many instances sold land upon which Choctaws lived and had improvements and which they supposed they would receive under article 14 of the treaty. This caused a great deal of complaint among the Indians and the matter was finally brought to the attention of Congress and Congress passed certain acts between the years 1837 and 1842, providing for the appointment of Commissions to come down here to Mississippi and hear the cases of Choctaw taws who claimed that they were entitled to land under the 14th article of the treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek but that their land had been sold by the Government. These Commissioners came down here to Mississippi between the years 1837 and 1845 and heard a great many of these Choctaw cases.

Q Did any of your ancestors appear before any of these Commissioners and attempt to establish their rights under the 14th article of the treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek? A Not as I know of.

An act of Congress approved on the 23rd day of August, 1842, provided that in case it should be finally determined that a Choctaw had complied in all respects with the provisions of article 14 of the treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek but that his land had been sold by the Government, he should be entitled to select, in place of the land so sold by the Government, land some place else here in Mississippi or in Alabama, Louisiana or Arkansas, from vacant Government land and he should receive a certificate to that effect. These certificates were called scrip.

Q Did any of your ancestors ever get any of this scrip from the Government of the United States under this act of Congress? A No sir.

Q Do you know of any old person living who would likely know whether any of your ancestors ever complied or attempted to comply with the provisions of article 14 of the treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek or ever received any benefits thereunder? A No sir.

Q Do you know of any written evidence of any description which would prove or tend to prove such a state of facts? A No sir.

Q Have you any written evidence to offer at this time? A No sir.

Q Have you any witnesses here today? A No sir.

If you should find any witnesses whose testimony you desire to have taken before the Commission they may appear before us here at Meridian between now and the 15th of this month or within a reasonable time thereafter at the general office of the Commission in Muskogee, Indian Territory, and their testimony will be taken.

Q Are there any further statements you want to make at this time in support of your application? A No sir.

Q Do you speak or understand the Choctaw language? A No sir.

Q How many children have you of age? A Two.

Q What are their names? A Genetta Coleman.

Q Is she married? A No sir.

Q Next one? A Girlee.

Q What's her married name? A Girlee Marshall, she lives at Natchez.

Q Have you any brothers living? A Not as I know of--I heard I had two but I never seen them.

Q Have you any sisters? A I had one sister --so said, but I never seen her.

Leander Coleman et al--6

Q Are any of your mother's brothers or sisters or any of their children living? A I don't know, sir-never seen them. I seen my grandmother's sister, but she's dead now.

Q I believe you said you didn't know whether your grandfather and your mother's mother were married? A No sir, I don't know that.

Q How many children did she have by him? A I never heard of but one-just my mother.

This applicant has the appearance of being possessed of a mixture of negro and either white or Indian blood-he does not speak or understand the Choctaw language.

Niles, being first duly sworn, states that as stenographer to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes, he reported in full all proceedings had in the above entitled cause, heard at Meridian, Mississippi, February 13th, 1902, and that the above and foregoing is a full, true and correct transcript of his stenographic notes taken in said proceedings on said date.

In the matter of the application of Leander Coleman, et al., for identification as Mississippi Choctaws. M.C.R. 4784.

---! D E C I S I O N !---

It appears from the record herein that application for identification as Mississippi Choctaws was made to this Commission by Leander Coleman for himself and his seven minor children, Madia S., Samella, Sarahanna, Wynnes L., Artie G., Irma L. and Latos Coleman, under the following provision of the Act of Congress approved June 23, 1894, (33 Stat., 406):

"Said Commission shall have authority to determine the identity of Choctaw Indians claiming rights in the Choctaw lands under article fourteen of the treaty between the United States and the Choctaw Nation, concluded September twenty-seventh, eighteen hundred and thirty, and to that end may administer oaths, examine witnesses and perform all other acts necessary thereto and make report to the Secretary of the Interior."

It also appears that all of said applicants claim rights in the Choctaw lands under article fourteen of the treaty between the United States and the Choctaw Nation, concluded September twenty-seventh, eighteen hundred and thirty, by reason of being descendants of one Tom McGrue, who is alleged to have been a fullblood Choctaw Indian.

It further appears from the evidence submitted in support of said application, and from the records in the possession of the Commission, that none of said applicants has ever been enrolled by the Choctaw tribal authorities as a member of the Choctaw tribe, or admitted to Choctaw citizenship by a duly constituted court or committee of the Choctaw Nation, or by the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes, or by a decree of the United States Court in Indian territory, under the provisions of the act of Congress approved June 16, 1896, (29 Stats., 321).

It does not appear from the testimony and evidence offered in support of said applications, or from the records in the possession of the Commission relating to persons who complied or attempted to comply with the provisions of said article fourteen of the treaty of eighteen hundred and thirty, and to persons who heretofore were claimants thereunder, that the said Tom McGrue, or ancestors less remote, signified (in person or by proxy) to Colonel Wm. Ward, Indian Agent, Choctaw Agency, an intention to comply with the provisions of said article fourteen, or presented a claim to rights thereunder to either of the Commissions authorized to adjudicate such claims by the acts of Congress approved March 3, 1837, (5 Stats., 100) and August 23, 1842, (5 Stats., 513).

It is, therefore, the opinion of this Commission that the evidence herein is insufficient to determine the identity of Leander Coleman, Moddie C. Coleman, Samella Coleman, Garcellena Coleman, Ulysses L. Coleman, Artie O. Coleman, Irma L. Coleman and Latee Coleman as Cheetaw Indians entitled to rights in the Cheetaw lands under the provisions of said article fourteen of the treaty of eighteen hundred and thirty, and that the application for their identification as such should be refused, and it is so ordered.

(3).

Gentlemen:

You are hereby advised that on the 11th day of August 1902, the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes rendered a decision in the case of Leander Coleman, et al., applicants for identification as Mississippi Choctaws.

This application was made under the provision of the act of Congress of June 28, 1898 (30 Stats., 495), which is as follows:

"Said Commission shall have authority to determine the identity of Choctaw Indians claiming rights in the Choctaw lands under article fourteen of the treaty between the United States and the Choctaw Nation, concluded September twenty-seventh, eighteen hundred and thirty, and to that end may administer oaths, examine witnesses and perform all other acts necessary thereto, and make report to the Secretary of the Interior".

Said decision concludes as follows:

"It is, therefore, the opinion of this Commission that the evidence herein is insufficient to determine the identity of Leander Coleman, Moddie C. Dear Sir:

You are hereby advised that on the 11th day of August 1902, the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes rendered a decision in the case of Leander Coleman, et al., applicants for identification as Mississippi Choctaws.

This application was made under the provision of the act of Congress of June 28, 1898 (30 Stats., 495), which is as follows:

"Said Commission shall have authority to determine the identity of Choctaw Indians claiming rights in the Choctaw lands under article fourteen of the treaty between the United States and the Choctaw Nation, concluded September twenty-seventh, eighteen hundred and thirty, and to that end may administer oaths, examine witness and perform all other acts necessary thereto, and make report to the Secretary of the Interior."

Said decision concluded as follows:

"It is, therefore, the opinion of this Commission that the evidence herein is insufficient to determine the identity of Leander Coleman, Moddie C. Coleman, Samella Coleman, Garcellena Coleman, Wlysses L. Coleman, Artie O. Coleman, Irma L. Coleman and Lattie Coleman as Choctaw Indians entitled to rights in the Choctaw lands under the provisions of said article fourteen of the treaty of eighteen hundred and thirty, and that the application for their identification as such should be refused, and it is so ordered."

L C-2.

You are further advised that the Commission has on this date forwarded the record in this case to the Secretary of the Interior for review and you will be informed in due time of such action as may be taken by him.

Yours truly,

(SIGNET)

OFFICE OF INDIAN AFFAIRS.

WASHINGTON. Oct. 23, 1902.

The Honorable,

The Secretary of the Interior.

Sir:

There is transmitted herewith a report made August 11, 1902, by the Acting Chairman of the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes, forwarding the record in the matter of the application of Leander Coleman for the identification of himself and his seven minor children, Meddie C., Samella, Garóallena, Ulysses L., Artie O., Irma L. and Latée, as Mississippi Choctaws claiming rights under article fourteen of the treaty of 1830.

August 11, 1902, the Commission held that the applicants were not entitled to identification.

Descent is claimed from Tom McGrue, grandfather of Leander Coleman.

The applicants are not full-blood Choctaws, and an examination of the records of this office fails to show that Tom McGrue received a patent to land under the provisions of said article fourteen, or complied or attempted to comply with the provisions of said article; neither does it appear that he applied to the commissions appointed under the Acts of March 3, 1837 and August 23, 1842, for an adjudication of any rights he may have had as a Choctaw Indian.

---2---

It is therefore respectfully recommended that the decision of the Commission, rejecting the application, be affirmed.

Very respectfully,

Your obedient servant,

A.C. Tomer,

Acting Commissioner.

Gentlemen:

August 11, 1902, you transmitted the record in the matter of the application for identification as Mississippi Cheetaws, of Leander Coleman and his minor children, Moddie C., Samella, Garcellena, Ulysses L., Artie O., Irma L. and Latee Coleman.

The applicants endeavor to trace their descent from one Tom McGrue, alleged to have been a full blood Cheetaw Indian.

The record fails to shew that any one of the applicants was ever admitted or enrolled as a citizen of the Cheetaw Nation, or that said Tom McGrue or a less remote ancestor of the applicants complied or attempted to comply with article XIV of the treaty of September 27, 1830, or with either of the acts of March 3, 1837 (5 Stat., 180), and August 23, 1842 (5 Stat., 513). You refused the application August 11, 1902.

The Acting Commissioner of Indian Affairs forwarded the papers October 23, 1902 and recommended that your decision be approved. A copy of his letter is inclosed.

---2---

The Department has carefully considered the record and hereby affirms your decision.

Respectfully,

Q Has any application of any description ever been made before today for yourself or any of these children for the purpose of establishing your rights as Choctaw Indians? A Not as I know of.
Q Do you appear before the Commission at this time for the purpose of claiming rights in the Choctaw lands in Indian Territory for yourself and six minor children under the 14th article of the treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek? A Yes sir.
Q Do you understand the 14th article of the treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek? A I don't know.

The treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek was entered into here in Mississippi on the 27th day of September, 1830, between the United States Government and the Choctaw Tribe of Indians. At the time this treaty was made the Choctaws lived here in Mississippi and along the western edge of the State of Alabama. The object of the treaty was to get these Indians to move from the country occupied by them here in Mississippi and Alabama to a new country west of the Mississippi River, part of which is now occupied by the greater portion of the Choctaw Tribe of Indians and is commonly known as the Choctaw Nation Indian Territory. At the time this treaty was made some of the Choctaws were unwilling to leave this country and for the benefit of those who wanted to stay here what is known as the 14th article was put in the treaty. That 14th article provided that upon certain conditions a Choctaw who wanted to stay here in Mississippi and not move out west with the main portion of the Tribe, might receive land here in Mississippi from the Government. It is as follows:-

"Each Choctaw head of a family being desirous to remain and become a citizen of the States shall be permitted to do so by signifying his intention to the Agent within six months from the ratification of this treaty and he or she shall thereupon be entitled to a reservation of one section of six hundred and forty acres of land, to be bounded by sectional lines of survey; in like manner shall be entitled to one half that quantity for each unmarried child which is living with him over ten years of age; and a quarter section to such child as may be under ten years of age, to adjoin the location of the parent. If they reside upon said lands, intending to become citizens of the States, for five years after the ratification of this treaty, in that case a grant in fee simple shall be issued; said reservation shall include the present improvement of the head of the family or a portion of it. Persons who claim under this article shall not lose the privilege of a Choctaw citizen but if they ever remove are not to be entitled to any portion of the Choctaw annuity."

Q I have quoted to you the 14th article of the treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek. Do you think you understand that? A I don't hardly understand the Dancing Rabbit Creek.

An article of a treaty is just a part or subdivision of a treaty. I will try to explain the 14th article so you will understand it. If a Choctaw who lived here 71 years ago when this treaty was made, wanted to stay here and become a citizen of the States and take land here in Mississippi under that 14th article, he was required by the terms of that article to let the Agent of the Government here in Mississippi, for the Choctaws, know that he wanted to stay here and become a citizen of the States and take land and he must let that Agent know within six months from the time that treaty was ratified—the treaty was ratified on the 24th day of February, 1831. If he let the Agent know that he wanted to stay here, he was entitled to a reservation of one section of 640 acres of land for himself and for each child in his family over ten years of age on the 27th day of September, 1830, the day the treaty was made, he was entitled to one half that quantity, and for each child in his family under ten years of age he was entitled to a quarter section. Now, the reservations for the children were required by the 14th article to adjoin the location of the parent and they must include their improvements as they existed on the 27th day of September 1830, when the treaty was made. If they Indians lived on this land for five years from February 24, 1831, the time the treaty was ratified, they were entitled to a grant in fee simple for the land, that is the Government would give the Indian the land and give him a deed to it. The 14th article says, further, that persons who claimed under that article and stayed here in Mississippi in place of moving out to the new nation, should not by reason of their having made claim under that article, lose their privilege of a Choctaw citizen, but if they ever removed they should not be entitled to any portion of the Choctaw annuity. The Choctaw annuity is money which becomes due to the Choctaws each year from the Government of the United States under treaty provisions.

Q Did any of your ancestors ever comply or attempt to comply with the provisions of this 14th article of the treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek or ever receive any benefits thereunder? A Not as I know of.

Q Did any of them own an improvement here in the old Choctaw Nation in Mississippi and Alabama in the year 1830 when this treaty was made? A Not as I know of.

Q Did any of them live here at that time--your Choctaw ancestors--71 years ago? A Not as I know of.

Q Did any of them remove to the present Choctaw Nation in Indian Territory at the time of the removal of the greater portion of the Choctaw Tribe of Indians between the years 1833 and 1838? A Not as I know of.

Q Did any of them within six months after the treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek was ratified let the Agent of the Government here in Mississippi, for the Choctaws, know that they wanted to stay here and become citizens of the States and take land? A Not as I know of.

Q Did any of them ever claim or receive any land here in Mississippi from the Government of the United States under the 14th article of the treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek? A No sir, not as I know of.

Q Did any of them ever get any land under any other provision of this treaty? A Not as I know of.

Q Did any of them ever get any money from the Government? A Not as I know of.

Q So far as you know, then, none of your ancestors ever received any benefits whatever as Choctaw Indians, did they? A No sir.

In accordance with the provisions of article 14 of the treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek the Government of the United States directed an Agent here in Mississippi to register the names of such Choctaws as might desire to remain and become citizens of the States and take land under that 14th article. The records of the Government show that this Agent failed to register and report to the Government the names of many Indians who did in fact let him know that they wanted to stay here and become citizens and take land and on this account the Government, at its public land sales here in Mississippi, in many instances sold land upon which Choctaws lived and had improvements and which they supposed they would receive under article 14 of the treaty. This caused a great deal of complaint among the Choctaws and the matter was finally brought to the attention of Congress and Congress passed certain acts between the years 1837 and 1842 providing for the appointment of Commissioners to come down here to Mississippi and hear the cases of Choctaws who claimed that they had complied in all respects with the provisions of article 14 of the treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek but that their land had been sold by the Government. These Commissioners were duly appointed by the President of the United States and they came down here to Mississippi between the years 1837 and 1845 and heard a great many of these Choctaw cases.

Q Did any of your ancestors appear before any of these Commissioners and attempt to establish their rights under the 14th article of the treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek? A Not as I knows of.

An act of Congress approved August 23,1842,provided that in case it should be finally determined that a Choctaw had complied in all respects with the provisions of article 14 of the treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek but that his land had been sold by the Government,he should be entitled to select, in place of the land so sold by the Government, land some place else here in Mississippi or in Alabama, Louisiana or Arkansas,from vacant Government land,and should be given a certificate to that effect. These certificates were called scrip.

Q Did any of your ancestors ever get any of this scrip from the Government of the United States under this act of Congress? A Not as I knows of-they didn't.

Q Do you know of any old person living who would likely know whether any of your ancestors ever complied or attempted to comply with the provisions of article 14 of the treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek or ever received any benefits thereunder? A No sir.

Q Do you know of any written evidence of any description which would prove or tend to prove such a state of facts? A No sir.

Q Have you any written evidence to offer at this time in support of your application-any papers? A No sir.

Q Have you any witnesses here today? A No sir.

If you should find any witnesses whose testimony you desire to have taken before the Commission ,they may appear before us here at Meridian between now and the 15th of this month or within a reasonable time thereafter at the general office of the Commission in Muskogee,Indian Territory,and their testimony will be taken.

Q Are there any further statements you want to make at this time in support of your application? A No sir.

Q Have you any brothers or sisters living? A Yes sir.

Q How many? A I've got two sisters living and two brothers.

Q What are the names of your brothers? A Yancey Harrison and Eddie Silas.

Q Have they been before the Commission? A No sir.

Q What are the names of your sisters? A Nady Peoples and Ellen Poe.

Q Have they been before the Commission? A No sir.

Q Have you any brothers or sisters dead who left children? A No sir-I got one sister dead but she didn,t leave any children.

Q Has your mother any brothers or sisters living? A She got one sister living.

Q What's her name? A Lisa Pittman.

Q She has been before the Commission,has she not? A Yes sir.

Q Is that all your mother's sisters that are living? A She's got another one somewhere but I never seen her. She's got another sister named Mahala Peeples-that's all I knew.

Sophonra Holmes et al--6

Q Has your mother any brothers or sisters dead who left children?

A Yes sir, she's got two brothers dead left children.

Q What are their names? A Ab and Arnold Peeples.

Q Do you speak or understand the Choctaw language? A No sir.

This applicant has the appearance of being a full blood negro-shows no indications of being possessed of Choctaw blood-does not speak or understand the Choctaw language.

Q Do you understand that 14th article of the treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek? A No sir.

This treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek was entered into here in Mississippi on the 27th day of September, 1830, between the United States Government and the Choctaw Tribe of Indians. At the time this treaty was made the Choctaws lived here in Mississippi and along the western edge of the State of Alabama. The object of this treaty was to get these Indians to move from the country occupied by them here in Mississippi and Alabama to a new country west of the Mississippi River part of which is now occupied by the greater portion of the Choctaw Tribe of Indians and is commonly known as the Choctaw Nation Indian Territory. At the time this treaty was made some of the Indians were unwilling to leave this country and for the benefit of those who wanted to stay here what is known as the 14th article was put in the treaty. That 14th article provided that upon certain conditions a Choctaw who wanted to stay here in Mississippi might receive land here from the Government. It is as follows:-

"Each Choctaw head of a family being desirous to remain and become a citizen of the States shall be permitted to do so by signifying his intention to the Agent within six months from the ratification of this treaty and he or she shall thereupon be entitled to a reservation of one section of six hundred and forty acres of land, to be bounded by sectional lines of survey; in like manner shall be entitled to one half that quantity for each unmarried child which is living with him over ten years of age; and a quarter section to such child as may be under ten years of age, to adjoin the location of the parent. If they reside upon said land, intending to become citizens of the States, for five years after the ratification of this treaty, in that case a grant in fee simple shall issue; said reservation shall include the present improvement of the head of the family or a portion of it. Persons who claim under this article shall not lose the privilege of a Choctaw citizen but if they ever remove are not to be entitled to any portion of the Choctaw annuity."

Q I have quoted to you the 14th article of the treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek. Do you understand that 14th article? A Yes sir.

Q Did any of your ancestors ever comply or attempt to comply with its provisions or ever receive any benefits thereunder? A No sir.

Q Did any of them own an improvement here in the old Choctaw Nation in Mississippi and Alabama in the year 1830 when this treaty was made-71 years ago? A I don't know, sir.

Q Did any of them live here at that time? A I don't know, sir.

Q Did any of your Choctaw ancestors remove to the present Choctaw Nation in Indian Territory at the time of the removal of the greater portion of the Choctaw Tribe of Indians between the years 1834 and 1838? A I don't know, sir.

George Reynolds--3

Q Did any of them within six months after the treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek was ratified let the Agent of the Government here in Mississippi, for the Choctaws, know that they wanted to stay here and become citizens of the States and take land? A I don't know.

Q Did any of them ever claim or receive any land here in Mississippi from the Government of the United States under the 14th article of the treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek? A I don't know, sir.

Q Did any of them ever get any land here in Mississippi from the Government under any other article of that treaty or under the supplement to it? A No sir.

Q Did any of them ever get any money from the Government? A Not that I know of.

Q So far as you know, then, none of your ancestors ever received any benefits whatever as Choctaw Indians? A No sir.

In accordance with the provisions of article 14 of the treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek the Government of the United States directed an Agent here in Mississippi to register the names of such Choctaws as might desire to remain and become citizens of the States and take land. The records of the Government show that this Agent failed to register and report to the Government the names of many Indians who did in fact let him know that they wanted to stay here and become citizens and take land and on this account the Government, at its public land sales here in Mississippi, in many instances sold land upon which Choctaws lived and had improvements and which they supposed they would receive under article 14 of the treaty. This caused a great deal of complaint among the Indians and the matter was finally brought to the attention of Congress and Congress passed certain acts between the years 1837 and 1842 providing for the appointment of Commissions to come down here to Mississippi and hear the cases of Choctaws who claimed that they had complied in all respects with the provisions of the 14th article of the treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek but that their land had been sold by the Government. These Commissioners were appointed by the President of the United States and they came down here to Mississippi between the years 1837 and 1841 and heard a great many of these Choctaw cases.

Q Did any of your ancestors appear before any of these Commissioners and attempt to establish their rights under article 14 of the treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek? A No sir.

An act of Congress approved August 23, 1842, provided that in case it should be finally determined that a Choctaw had complied in all respects with the provisions of article 14 of the treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek but that his land had been sold by the Government, he should be entitled to select, in place of the land so sold by the Government, land some place else in Mississippi or in Alabama, Louisiana or Arkansas, from vacant Government land and should be given a certificate to that effect. These certificates were called scrip.

Q Did any of your ancestors ever get any of this scrip from the Government of the United States under this act of Congress? A No sir.

Q Do you know of any old persons living who would likely know whether any of your ancestors ever complied or attempted to comply with the provisions of article 14 of the treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek or ever received any benefits thereunder? A No sir.

Q Do you know of any written evidence of any kind ~~xxxx~~ which would prove or tend to prove such a state of facts? A No sir.

Q Have you any written evidence to offer at this time? A No sir.

Q Have you any witnesses here today? A No sir.

If you should find any witnesses whose testimony you desire to have taken before the Commission, they may appear before us here at Meridian between now and the 15th of this month or within a reasonable time thereafter at the general office of the Commission at Muskogee, Indian Territory and their testimony will be taken.

Q Are there any further statements you want to make at this time in support of your application? A No sir.

Q Have you any brothers or sisters living? A Yes sir, three brothers.

Q What are their names? A Ben Reynolds, Buckner Reynolds and Will Reynolds; they were here in January, two of them.

Q Which ones? A Buckner and Will.

Q Has Ben made application? A Yes sir.

Q When? A I don't know, sir-I got a letter from him stating he had.

Q Where does he live? A Nashville, Tennessee. I think he went to the Territory.

Q Have you any brothers or sisters dead? A Two brothers and one sister dead.

Q Did any of them live to be grown? A One.

Q Did that one leave children? A No sir.

Q Are any of your mother's brothers or sisters or any of their children living? A Yes sir.

Q How many of her brothers are living? A Three.

Q What are their names? A J. Mack Higdon, John Higdon and Dave Higdon.

Q Where do they live? A John H. lives in Lawrence County, Tennessee; J. M. and Dave Higdon live in Texas.

Q Are any of your mother's sisters living? A Yes sir, she has two living.

Q What are their names? A Martha Cole-she lives in Texas, and Nancy Fry-she lives in Tennessee.

Q Has your mother any brothers or sisters dead? A No sir, not that I know of.

This applicant has the appearance of being a white man-he

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR,
COMMISSION TO THE FIVE CIVILIZED TRIBES,
Meridian, Mississippi, February 13th, 1902.

In the matter of the application of Shandy W. Samuels for the identification of himself and one minor child, Georgia Samuels, as Mississippi Choctaws.

APPEARANCES; S.A. Beadle, attorney for applicant.

Said Shandy W. Samuels, being first duly sworn, testified as follows:-

Examination by the Commission.

- Q What's your name? A Shandy W. Samuels.
Q How old are you? A Twenty-six.
Q How much Choctaw blood have you? A I don't know-I suppose between a fourth or a little over.
Q What's your postoffice address? A Pass Christian, Mississippi.
Q What County? A Harrison County.
Q How long have you lived in Harrison County, Mississippi? A About fifteen years.
Q Where did you live before that? A In Mobile and New Orleans.
Q Where were you born? A In Mobile.
Q Lived there until you went to New Orleans? A Lived in Mobile until I was five or six years old and then moved to New Orleans and from there to Pass Christian.
Q Is your father living? A Yes sir.
Q What's his name? A James Samuels.
Q Is your mother living? A Yes sir.
Q What's her name? A Georgia Samuels.
Q Through which one of your parents do you get your Choctaw blood? A Through my mother.
Q Has she been before the Commission? A Yes sir, through the Commission last May.
Q How much Choctaw blood has your mother? A About three fourths.
Q If your father has no Choctaw blood and your mother is three fourths, you would have three eighths, wouldn't you? A Yes.
Q How old is your mother? A She's about fifty-nine, I suppose-I don't know exactly.
Q Where was she born? A In Ruscaloosa, Alabama.
Q Now, her mother was a full blood Choctaw woman? A Yes sir.
Q What was your mother's father? A My mother's father was very near three fourths Indian-Choctaw Indian.
Q Did you ever see your mother's father or mother? A Yes sir, I saw my mother's father lots of times-I saw her mother too but I was too young to remember her.
Q What was your mother's father's name? A Shandy W. Jones.
Q What was your mother's mother's name? A I don't remember her name.
Q How old would your mother's parents be if they were living now? A If my mother's father was living now he would be about ninety-six or ninety-seven years old.
Q How old would her mother be? A I don't know. I knowed but very little of her mother.
Q Where did these people live during their life time? A Her father died in Mobile and her mother died in Tuscaloosa.
Q They never lived in Mississippi? A No sir.

Shandy W. Samuels et al---2

Q Do you know the names of any of Shandy W. Jones ancestors? A No sir.

Q Do you know the name of any of your mother's ancestors except her father? A No sir.

Q Are you married? A Yes sir.

Q What's your wife's name? A Corinne Samuels.

Q Has she any Choctaw blood? A No sir.

Q You make no claim for her, then? A No sir.

Q Have you any children living? A Yes sir, one.

Q What's the name and age of that child? A Georgia-she's nineteen months old.

Q Are you and your wife living together now? A Yes sir.

Q Were you married to her under a license? A License.

Q Who married you? A Married at church-a preacher.

It will be necessary for you to furnish the Commission with proper evidence of your marriage to Corinne for use in connection with the application you make in behalf of your minor child. This should be furnished within thirty days from this date.

Q You never have been married more than once, have you? A No sir.

Q This application is for yourself and one minor child? A Yes sir.

Q Is your name on any of the Choctaw Tribal rolls in Indian Territory? A No sir.

Q Has any application of any description ever been made before today for the purpose of establishing your rights as a Choctaw Indian? A No sir.

Q Do you appear before the Commission at this time for the purpose of claiming rights in the Choctaw lands in Indian Territory for yourself and minor child under article 14 of the treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek? A Yes sir.

Q Do you understand article 14 of the treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek? A Yes sir.

Q Did any of your ancestors ever comply or attempt to comply with the provisions of this 14th article or ever receive any benefits under it? A No sir, not to my knowing.

Q Did any of them own an improvement here in the old Choctaw Nation in Mississippi and Alabama in the year 1830 when this treaty was made? A No sir, not to my knowing.

Q Did any of them live here at that time-71 years ago? A The family records shows that at that time my grandfather became dissatisfied with the existence of affairs between the whites and Indians there on the line of Mississippi or Alabama and moved in the neighborhood of Tuscaloosa, Alabama.

Q When did he move there? A That was between 1827 and 1830.

Q Where did he move from? A I cant say just where from. The records say that he moved by wagon.

Q You have no idea where he was living before that? A No sir, no more than he was living somewhere with the Choctaw Indians.

Q Living with them? A Yes sir.

Q Did any of your Choctaw ancestors move from the old Choctaw Nation in Mississippi and Alabama to the present Choctaw Nation in Indian Territory at the time of the removal of the greater portion of the Choctaw Tribe of Indians between the years 1833 and 1838? A No sir, none that I know of.

Q Did any of them within six months after the treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek was ratified let the Agent of the Government here in Mississippi, for the Choctaws, know that they wanted to stay here in Mississippi and become citizens of the States and take land? A I cant say as to whether they did or not.

Q Did any of them ever claim or receive any land here in Mississippi from the Government of the United States under article 14 of the treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek? A No sir.

Q Did any of them ever get any land under any other ~~article~~ provision of that treaty? A No sir.

Q Did any of them ever get any money from the Government? A No sir.

Q So far as you know, then, none of your ancestors ever received any benefits whatever as Choctaw Indians? A No sir.

In accordance with the provisions of article 14 of the treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek the Government of the United States directed an Agent here in Mississippi to register the names of such Choctaws as might desire to remain and become citizens of the States and take land under that 14th article. The records of the Government show that this Agent failed to register and report to the Government the names of many Choctaws who did in fact let him know that they wanted to stay here and become citizens of the States and take land, and on this account the Government, at its public land sales here in Mississippi, in many instances sold land upon which Choctaws lived and had improvements and which they supposed they would receive under the 14th article of the treaty. This caused a great deal of complaint among the Indians and the matter was finally brought to the attention of Congress and Congress passed certain acts between the years 1837 and 1842 providing for the appointment of Commissioners to come down here to Mississippi and hear the cases of Choctaws who claimed that they had complied in all respects with the provisions of article 14 of the treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek but that their land had been sold by the Government. These Commissioners were duly appointed by the President of the United States and they came down here to Mississippi between the years 1837 and 1845 and heard a great many of these Choctaw cases.

Q Did any of your ancestors appear before any of these Commissioners and attempt to establish their rights under the 14th article of the treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek? A Not as I know of.

An act of Congress approved on the 23rd day of August, 1842, provided that in case it should be finally determined that a Choctaw had complied in all respects with the provisions of article 14 of the treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek but that his land had been sold by the Government, he should be entitled to select, in place of the land so sold by the Government, land some place else in Mississippi or in Alabama, Louisiana or Arkansas, from vacant Government land, and should be given a certificate to that effect. These certificates were called scrip.

Shandy W. Samuels et al--4

Q Did any of your ancestors ever get any of this scrip from the Government of the United States under this act of Congress? A Not as I know of.

Q Do you know of any old persons living who would likely know whether any of your ancestors ever complied or attempted to comply with the provisions of article 14 of the treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek or ever received any benefits thereunder? A No more than those who have testified to the rest of the family--there's about ten or twelve of the leading lawyers of the State of Alabama sent in some ~~in~~ affidavits.

Q Do you mean that these affidavits have been sent in in your mother's case? A Yes sir and for all the rest of the members of her family.

Q Do you know whether any of those people know whether any of your people ever complied with the provisions of article 14 of the treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek? A Yes sir, that was brought out I think before the last Commission.

Q That point? A I think it was.

Q What one of those witnesses knows about that ~~it~~ that occurred here 71 years ago--now who knows whether your people complied with that treaty or not? A I can't say with the treaty of 1830 at all.

Q Do you know of the existence of any written evidence of any kind which would prove or tend to prove such a state of facts--that is, that your people living here 71 years ago were Choctaws and that they complied with this treaty provision? A No sir.

Q Have you any written evidence to offer at this time? A I have an affidavit to show that ~~it~~ I am the son of Georgia Samuels.

The affidavit of Georgia Samuels offered in evidence, identified as Exhibit-A, filed and made a part of the records in this case.

Q Is that all the papers you have? A Yes sir.

Q Have you any witnesses here today? A No sir.

If you should find any witnesses whose testimony you desire to have taken before the Commission they may appear before us here at Meridian between now and the 15th of this month or within a reasonable time thereafter at Muskogee, Indian Territory, and their testimony will be taken.

Q Are there any further statements you want to make at this time in support of your application? A No sir.

Q Have you any brothers living? A No sir.

Q Have you any sisters living? A No sir.

Q Have you any brothers or sisters dead who left children? A No sir. Has your mother any brothers or sisters living? A Yes sir.

Q How many brothers? A I think she has five brothers and three sisters living.

Shandy W. Samuels et al--5

- Q I wish you would name those brothers? A Haywood Jones, Summers Jones, Spott Jones, William Jones, -I don't remember the other one.
- Q The girls are? A Lillie Jones.
- Q Is she married? A Yes sir.
- Q What's her married name? A Lillie Connolly.
- Q Next one? A Pink--I don't know what her other name is.
- Q Next one? A Elizabeth.
- Q Do you know what her other name is? A Her name is Elizabeth Papp.
- Q Next one? A Paralee--I don't know what her other name is either.
- Q How many of them have been before the Commission? A They all have been before the Commission.
- Q Here at Meridian? A Yes sir.
- Q Has your mother any brothers or sisters dead? A She has two or three dead but they died when I was young and I don't remember but one of them, that is Haywood Jones.
- Q Do you speak or understand the Choctaw language? A No sir.

This applicant has the appearance of being a full blood negro--shows no indications of being possessed of Indian blood--he does not speak or understand the Choctaw language.

necessary thereto, and make report to the Secretary of the Interior*.

Said decision concludes as follows:

"It is, therefore the opinion of this Commission that the evidence herein is insufficient to determine the identity of Georgia Samuels, Van Jones, Pink Samuels, Shandy W. You are further advised that the Commission has on this date forwarded the record in this case to the Secretary of the Interior for review and you will be informed in due time of such action as may be taken by him.

Yours truly,

Commissioner in Charge.

Muskogee, Indian Territory, August 2, 1903.

Shandy W. Samuels,

Pasa Christian, Mississippi.

Dear Sir:

Receipt is hereby acknowledged of your letter of the 3rd inst., wherein you state that you are at a loss to know why the evidence you furnished the Commission was insufficient to prove your identity as a Choctaw Indian. You also state that the evidence furnished was from the most representative people of the State of Alabama, and that you are confident some grave mistake has been made on the part of the Commission. In conclusion, you further ask an early investigation of the matter.

The authority vested in this Commission to determine the identity of so called Mississippi Choctaws is contained in a provision of the act of Congress of June 22, 1898, and is as follows:

"Said Commission shall have authority to determine the identity of Choctaw Indians claiming rights in the Choctaw lands under article fourteen of the treaty between the United States and the Choctaw Nation, concluded September twenty-seventh, eighteen hundred and thirty, and to that end may administer oaths, examine witnesses and perform all other acts necessary thereto, and make report to the Secretary of the Interior."

At the time you made your application for the identification of yourself and your minor child as Mississippi Choctaws, in reply to a question you stated that you understood the fourteenth article of the Choctaw treaty of 1830.

The Commission, in determining the right of persons to be identified as Mississippi Choctaws, requires that the applicants reasonably demonstrate that they are descendants of Choctaw Indians who resided in the old Choctaw Nation in the States of Mississippi and Alabama in 1830, and who complied or attempted to comply with the 14th article of the treaty of 1830 or were subsequently adjudicated beneficiaries thereunder by either of the two Commissions authorized for this purpose by the acts of Congress of March 3, 1837 and August 23, 1842.

The Assistant Attorney General for the Interior Department in an opinion of December 3, 1901, defining the power of this Commission to identify so called Mississippi Choctaws under the act of Congress of June 28, 1898, used the following language:

"There is no escape from the conclusion that the provision in the act of June 28, 1898, contemplated the identification of only those 'Choctaw Indians claiming rights in the Choctaw lands under article fourteen of the treaty between the United States and the Choctaw Nation, concluded September twenty-seventh, eighteen hundred and thirty'."

It would, therefore, in order for you to obtain rights as a Mississippi Choctaw under the provisions of the act of Congress of June 28, 1898, and the fourteenth article of the treaty of 1830, be necessary to show that the least remote of your ancestors, who was living at the date of the conclusion of the treaty of 1830, was a beneficiary under the provisions of article fourteen thereof.

The several applicants included in the consolidated Mississippi Choctaw case of Georgia Samuels and certain other persons, applicants to this Commission for identification as Mississippi Choctaws, claiming descent from one Zadoo Love and his wife Margaret, having failed to submit any proof tending to show any compliance on the part of their common ancestors with any of the provisions of article fourteen of the Choctaw treaty of 1830, the Commission on July 22, 1903, rendered its decision refusing the applications of the several persons included in said consolidated case, and on the same date notified the several interested applicants of such decision and of the forwarding of the record to the Secretary of the Interior for review.

You will be duly notified of any action taken by him.

Acting Chairman.

- Q Is your name or the name of any one of these children to be found upon any of the Choctaw Tribal rolls in Indian Territory? A No sir not as I know of.
Q Has any application of any description ever been made for you or any of these children before today for the purpose of establishing your rights as Choctaw Indians? A No sir.
Q Do you appear before the Commission at this time for the purpose of claiming rights in the Choctaw lands in Indian Territory for yourself and six minor children under article 14 of the treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek? A Yes sir.
Q Do you understand article 14 of the treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek? A Yes sir.

The treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek was entered into here in Mississippi on the 27th day of September, 1830, between the United States Government and the Choctaw Tribe of Indians. At the time this treaty was made the Choctaws lived here in Mississippi and along the western edge of the State of Alabama. The object of this treaty was to get these Indians to move from the country occupied by them here in Mississippi and Alabama to a new country west of the Mississippi River part of which is now occupied by the greater portion of the Choctaw Tribe of Indians and is commonly known as the Choctaw Nation Indian Territory. At the time the treaty was made some of the Indians were unwilling to leave this country and for the benefit of those who wanted to stay here that is known as the 14th article was put in the treaty. That 14th article provided that upon certain conditions a Choctaw who wanted to stay here in Mississippi might receive land here in Mississippi from the Government. It is as follows:

"Each Choctaw head of a family desiring to remain and become a citizen of the States shall be permitted to do so by signifying his intention to the Agent within six months from the ratification of this treaty and he or she shall thereupon be entitled to a reservation of one section of six hundred and forty acres of land, to be bounded by sectional lines of survey, in like manner shall be entitled to one half that quantity for each unmarried child which is living with him over ten years of age; and a quarter section to such child as may be under ten years of age, to adjoin the location of the parent. If they reside upon said land, intending to become citizens of the States, for five years after the ratification of this treaty, in that case a grant in fee simple shall issue; said reservation shall include the present improvement of the head of the family or a portion of it. Persons who claim under this article shall not lose the privilege of a Choctaw citizen but if they ever remove are not to be entitled to any portion of the Choctaw annuity."

Q I have quoted to you the 14th article of the treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek. Do you understand that 14th article? A Yes sir.

Q Did any of your ancestors ever comply or attempt to comply with its provisions or ever receive any benefits under that article? A Not as I know of.

Q Did any of them own an improvement here in the old Choctaw nation in Mississippi and Alabama in the year 1830 when this treaty was made? A Not as I know of.

Q Did any of them, in fact, live here in the old Choctaw Nation in Mississippi and Alabama in the year 1830 when this treaty was made-- 71 years ago? A Not as I know of.

Q Did any of them remove to the new Choctaw Nation in Indian Territory at the time of the removal of the greater portion of the Choctaw Tribe of Indians between the years 1833 and 1838? A Not as I know of.

Q Did any of them within six months after the treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek was ratified let the Agent of the Government here in Mississippi, for the Choctaws, know that they wanted to stay here in Mississippi and become citizens of the States and take land? A Not as I know of.

- Q Did any of them ever claim or receive any land here in Mississippi from the Government of the United States under article 14 of the treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek? A No sir, not as I know of.
- Q Did any of them get any land here in Mississippi from the Government under any other provision of that treaty? A Not as I know of.
- Q Did any of them ever get any money from the Government? A No sir, not as I know of.
- Q So far as you know, then, none of your ancestors ever received any benefits whatever as Choctaw Indians? A No sir.

In accordance with the provisions of article 14 of the treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek the Government of the United States directed an Agent here in Mississippi to register the names of such Choctaws as might desire to remain here and become citizens of the States and take land under that 14th article. The records of the Government show that this Agent failed to register and report to the Government the names of many Choctaws who did in fact let him know that they wanted to stay here and become citizens and take land and on this account the Government, at its public land sales here in Mississippi, in many instances sold land upon which Choctaws lived and had improvements and which they supposed they would receive under article 14 of the treaty. This caused a great deal of complaint among the Indians and the matter was finally brought to the attention of Congress and Congress passed certain acts between the years 1837 and 1842 providing for the appointment of Commissioners to come down here to Mississippi and hear the cases of Choctaws who claimed that they had complied in all respects with the provisions of article 14 of the treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek but that their land had been sold by the Government. These Commissioners were appointed by the President of the United States and they came down here to Mississippi and heard the cases of a great many Choctaws. They held sessions here in this State between the years 1837 and 1845.

- Q Did any of your ancestors appear before any of these Commissioners and attempt to establish their rights under the 14th article of the treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek? A Not as I know of.

An act of Congress approved August 23, 1842, provided that in case it should be finally determined that a Choctaw had complied in all respects with the provisions of article 14 of the treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek but that his land had been sold by the Government, he should be entitled to ~~select~~ select, in place of the land so sold by the Government, land somewhere else in Mississippi or in Alabama, Louisiana or Arkansas, from vacant Government land and should be given a certificate to that effect. These certificates were called scrips.

- Q Did any of your ancestors ever get any of this scrip from the Government of the United States under this act of Congress?

A No sir, not as I know of.

Q Do you know of any old person living who would likely know whether any of your ancestors ever complied or attempted to comply with the provisions of article 14 of the treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek or ever received any benefits thereunder? A No sir.

Q Do you know of any written evidence of any description which would show or tend to show such a state of facts? A No sir.

Q Have you any written evidence to offer at this time in support of your application? A No sir, not at this time.

Q Have you any witnesses here today? A Yes sir, one.

Q What's his name? A James Slay.

Q What do you expect to prove by him? A Brove my Choctaw Indian blood.

Q Is that all? A Yes sir.

Q Is that all the witnesses you have? A Yes sir.

If you should find any other witnesses whose testimony you desire to have taken before the Commission they may appear before us here at Meridian between now and the 15th of this month or within a reasonable time thereafter at the general office of the Commission in Muskogee, Indian Territory, and their testimony will be taken.

Q Are there any further statements you want to make at this time?

A No sir.

Q Have you any brothers living? A Yes sir.

Q How many? A Three.

Q What are their names? A Robert Powe, Oliver Powe and Collie Powe.

Q Have any of them been before the Commission? A Collie appeared here I think.

Q Have you any sisters living? A Yes sir.

Q How many? A Two.

Q What are their names? A Frances Willars and Nancy Belton.

Q Have you any brothers or sisters dead who left children? A Yes sir, two sisters dead who left children.

Q What are the names of those sisters? A Rachel Powe and Bady Powe.

Q Did they both marry Powes? A Yes sir.

Q How many of the children of Rachel are living? A Six I believe.

Q With whom do they live? A They are married, all but two they live with their father.

Q Are any of your mother's brothers or sisters living? A One brother.

Q What's his name? A Ebene Collins.

Q Has he been before the Commission? A No sir, not as I know of.

This applicant has the appearance of being a full blood negro--shows no indications of being possessed of Indian blood--does not speak or understand the Choctaw language.

Jimmie Slay, being first duly sworn, testified as follows:

Examination by the Commission.

- Q What's your name? A Jimmie Slay.
Q How old are you? A About eighty.
Q What's your postoffice address? A Buckatuma.
Q What County? A Wayne County.
Q How long have you lived in Wayne County, Mississippi? A Eighty years.
Q All your life? A Yes sir.
Q Were you a slave? A Yes sir.
Q You aren't an applicant for identification as a Mississippi Choctaw, are you? A No sir.
Q What's your occupation? A Farming.
Q Are you acquainted with Jackson Powe? A Yes sir.
Q Is he any kin to you? A He's my wife's grandson-I raised him pretty much.
Q You have known him all his life then, have you? A Yes sir.
Q Are you interested in any way in the result of his application?
A I don't wish for him to lose or to make only what's right.
Q You are not interested, then, in any way in the result of his application? A Only what's right.
Q Were you acquainted with this boy's mother? A I pretty well raised her.
Q What was her name? A Jennie.
Q Were you acquainted with Jennie's mother? A I had her for a wife.
Q How long has she been dead? A About ten years.
Q How old was she when she died? A Well, I don't know her age exactly.
Q Was she older than you or younger than you? A I was a little the oldest.
Q What was her name? A Eady.
Q What was her name before you married her? A We hadn't no particular name-only went by the name of owners.
Q What were her owners' names? A Collins.
Q Where was Eady born? A In Wayne County.
Q And lived there all her life, did she? A Yes sir.
Q Did she have any Choctaw blood-Eady? A Her father was a Choctaw.
Q What was his name? A Off.
Q What other name did he have? A Only by Indian.
Q Was he a full blood Choctaw Indian? A Yes sir, he was a Choctaw.
Q Full blood? A Yes sir.
Q Nothing but Choctaw? A Choctaw.
Q Was he a slave? A No sir.
Q Did you know Eady's mother? A Yes sir.
Q What was her name? A Jennie.
Q Was she a slave? A Yes sir, she was a slave.
Q This Indian Off was married to her, was he? A No sir, he wasn't married to her.
Q Did she ever have any other children by him except Eady? A No sir.
Q When did this Indian Off die? A He's been dead about thirty years or more.

Jackson Powe et al--7

- Q Was he as old when he died as you are now? A No sir.
Q You never did hear any other name for him? A No sir.
Q Are you certain that he was a full blood Choctaw? A Yes sir, he was a Choctaw for he oaped there at our place a heap of times.
Q Where did he live? A He lived in the nation back here.
Q What County? A Clarke-the upper edge of Wayne County.
Q Could he speak the Choctaw language? A Yes sir.
Q Do you know the name of his father and mother? A No sir-all that county from the upper edge of Wayne was an Indian territory.
Q Do you remember when the Indians were moved out of this country the first time? A Yes sir.
Q How old was you at that time? A I was about fourteen years old.
Q Did Eady or any of her people leave this County and go out there with the Indians when they moved? A No sir.
Q Her father didn't go out there? A I reckon he went-I don't know where he was.
Q Did he leave this country about the time the other Indians left here when you were thirteen or fourteen years old? A Yes sir, he left about the time they moved the Indians.
Q Do you know where he went? A He went where the other ones went, I reckon.
Q Did you ever see him again? A No sir.
Q How do you know, then, when this Indian Off died? A He died about thirty years ago after he went away from here.
Q How did you hear that? A I heard it in passing some way or other. The Indians after they carried them away once in a while would get back again.
Q He never did come back here to Mississippi, did he? A No sir.

Commission:

Mr. Beadle, Does this witness know whether any of the ancestors of the applicant Jackson Powe ever complied or attempted to comply with the provisions of article 14 of the treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek or ever received any benefits?

Q Mr. Beadle:
No sir.

Examination by Mr. Beadle:

- Q You say you knew Eady's father? A Yes sir.
Q He was an Indian? A Yes sir.
Q You call him Off? A Yes sir.
Q How long did Eady's father and mother live together? A I don't know.
Q Did they live together at all? A I don't know.
Q Was Eady married to anybody? A I had her myself. When this young man's mother was a little bit of a baby I had her.
Q Then you aren't the father of Jennie? A No, she was a baby when I had her mother.
Q You raised Jennie, did you? A Yes sir.
Q Do you now swear that Eady was a half blood Choctaw Indian woman? A Yes sir.

Commission:

This witness is a negro of average intelligence.

Jackson Powe, et al M.C.R. 4768
Collie Powe, et al " 4646

--: D E C I S I O N :--

It appears from the record herein that applications for identification as Mississippi Choctaws were made to this Commission by Jackson Powe for himself and his six minor children, Jimmie, Ulysses, Charleston, Augusta, Chester and Organdy Powe, and by Collie Powe for himself and his minor child, Collie Powe Jr.,
under the following provision of the act of Congress approved June 28, 1898 (30 Stats., 495):

"Said Commission shall have authority to determine the identity of Choctaw Indians claiming rights in the Choctaw lands
under article fourteen of the treaty between the United States and the Choctaw Nation, concluded September twenty-seventh,
eighteen hundred and thirty, and to that end may administer
oaths, examine witnesses and perform all other acts necessary thereto and make report to the Secretary of the Interior."

It also appears that all of said applicants claim rights in the Choctaw lands under article fourteen of the treaty between the United States and the Choctaw Nation, concluded September twenty-seventh, eighteen hundred and thirty, by reason of being descendants of one Off (or Indian Off), who is alleged to have been a full blood Choctaw Indian and to have resided in Mississippi in eighteen hundred and thirty.

It further appears from the evidence submitted in support of said applications, and from the records in the possession of the Commission, that no one of said applicants has ever been enrolled by the Choctaw tribal authorities as a member of the Choctaw Tribe, or admitted to Choctaw citizenship by a duly constituted court or committee of the Choctaw Nation, or by the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes, or by a decree of the United States Court in Indian Territory, under the provisions of the act of Congress approved June 10, 1896 (29 Stats., 321).

It does not appear from the testimony and evidence offered in support of said applications, or from the records in the possession of the Commission relating to persons who complied or attempted to comply with the provisions of said article fourteen of the treaty of eighteen hundred and thirty, and to persons who heretofore were claimants thereunder, that the said Off (or Indian Off), or a less remote ancestor of any of the applicants herein, signified (in person or by proxy) to Colonel Wm. Ward, Indian Agent, Choctaw Agency, an intention to comply with the provisions of said article fourteen, or presented a claim to rights thereunder to either of the Commissions authorized to adjudicate such claims by the acts of

(3)

Congress approved March 3, 1837 (5 Stats., 180) and August 23, 1842 (5 Stats., 513).

It is, therefore, the opinion of this Commission that the evidence herein is insufficient to determine the identity of Jackson Powe, Jimmie Powe, Ulysses Powe, Charleston Powe, Augusta Powe, Chester Powe, Organdy Powe, Collie Powe and Collie Powe Jr., as Choctaw Indians entitled to rights in the Choctaw lands under the provisions of said article fourteen of the treaty of 1830, and that the applications for their identification as such should be refused, and it is so ordered.

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR,
Office of Indian Affairs,
Washington, Nov. 5, 1902.

The Honorable,

The Secretary of the Interior.

Sir:

There is transmitted herewith a report made August 27, 1902, by the Acting Chairman of the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes, forwarding the record in the matter of the consolidated case of Jackson Powe, et al., applicants for identification as Mississippi Choctaws claiming rights under the provisions of the fourteenth article of the treaty of 1830.

Jackson Powe applies for the identification of himself and his six minor children, Jimmie, Ulysses, Charleston, Augusta, Chester and Organdy and Collie Powe applies for the identification of himself and his minor child, Collie Powe, junior.

August 27, 1902, the Commission held that the applicants were not entitled to identification.

Descent is claimed through Eady or Edith Slay, grandmother of Jackson Powe, to Off, or Indian Off, and Jennie (to whom Off was not married), great-grandparents of Jackson Powe.

The applicants are not full-blood Choctaw Indians. A careful examination of the records of this office fails to show that any of the alleged ancestors received a patent to land under the provisions of article fourteen of the treaty of 1830, or that they complied or attempted to comply with the provisions of said article; neither does it appear that they applied to the Commission appointed under the Acts of March 3, 1837 and August 23, 1842, for an adjudication of any rights they may have had as Choctaws.

It is therefore respectfully recommended that the decision of the Commission rejecting the applications, be affirmed.

Very respectfully,

Your obedient servant,

W. A. Jones,

Commissioner.

Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes,
Muskogee, I.T.

Gentlemen:

August 27, 1902, you transmitted the consolidated case involving the applications for identification as Mississippi Choctaws, of Jackson, Jimmie, Ulyses, Charleston, Augusta, Chester and Organdy Powe; and of Collie Powe and Collie Powe, Jr.

The applicants claim rights under article XIV of the treaty of September 27, 1830, by reason of being descendants of one Off (or Indian Off), alleged to have been a full blood Choctaw Indian residing in Mississippi in 1830.

The record fails to show that any one of the applicants was ever admitted or enrolled as a citizen of the Choctaw Nation, or that said Off or a less remote ancestor of the applicants complied or attempted to comply with article XIV of said treaty, or with either of the acts of March 3, 1837 (5 Stat., 180), and August 23, 1842 (5 Stat., 513). You refused the applications August 27, 1902.

-:- 2 -:-

Forwarding the papers November 5, 1902, the Commissioner of Indian Affairs recommends that your decision be approved. A copy of his letter is inclosed.

Having carefully examined the entire record, the Department affirms the decision rendered.

Respectfully,

Thos. Ryan,

Acting Secretary.

COMMISSION TO THE FIVE CIVILIZED TRIBES.

In the matter of the application of Alf Scarborough for enrollment as a citizen of the Choctaw Nation.

D E C I S I O N.

The applicant, Alf Scarborough, appeared before the Commission at Durant, Indian Territory, during the month of August, 1899, and there made application for enrollment as a citizen of the Choctaw Nation.

From an examination of the records in possession of the Commission, and from the evidence in this case, it appears that the name of the applicant has never been upon any of the tribal rolls of the Choctaw Nation, and that the applicant was never admitted to citizenship in the Choctaw Nation by either the legally constituted authorities of the said Nation, by the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes, acting under the Act of Congress of June 10, 1896, or by the United States Court in Indian Territory, on appeal from the decision of the Choctaw tribal authorities or the decision of the said Commission.

It also appears from the evidence that the applicant did not remove to Indian Territory in compliance with the Act of Congress of June 28, 1898, (Curtis Bill), which provides:

"No person shall be enrolled who has not heretofore removed to and in good faith settled in the Nation in which he claims citizenship."

Therefore, the application of the said Alf Scarborough for enrollment as a citizen of the Choctaw Nation is hereby refused.

Said decision, after a review of the evidence submitted, concludes as follows :

“The authority vested in the Commission by the twenty-first section of the act of Congress of June 28, 1898, (30 Stats., 495.) is as follows :

‘Said Commission shall have authority to determine the identity of Choctaw Indians claiming rights in the Choctaw lands under article fourteen of the treaty between the United States and the Choctaw Nation, concluded September twenty-seventh, eighteen hundred and thirty, and to that end may administer oaths, examine witnesses and perform all other acts necessary thereto, and make report to the Secretary of the Interior.’

It is the opinion of the Commission that the evidence in this case is insufficient to determine the identity of John Scarborough, Cora Ballard, Atha Ballard, Ada Gailer, Lorrel Samuel Gailer, Johnnie LaFayette Trotter, William E. Pike, Rennie Naomi Pike, Lona Lee Pike, Margaret E. Peveto, William J. Peveto, William Lonnie Peveto, Pinckney L. Scarborough, Dora May Scarborough, Rosa Jane Scarborough, Josie Carpenter, Mallie E. Carpenter, Nellie E. Carpenter, James Carpenter, Margaret Sanders, Carrie Pike, James E. Pike, Ernie E. Pike, Mattie McDowell, Bertha McDowell, Fred McDowell, Clifton McDowell, Hellen McDowell, Leon McDowell, William D. Scarborough, Oscar B. Scarborough, Burrell Scarborough, Richard Elery Scarborough, Ester Pearl Scarborough, James J. Berry, Earnest Berry, Roy W. Berry, Nellie Berry, Charlie Berry, Clyde Berry, Frank P. Berry, Margarete E. Phipps, Lucy E. Langford, Clinton O. Langford, Sarah E. Langford, Emma May Langford, Annie L. Langford, Johnnie Langford, B. rtie Langford, John L. Oakes, Lawrence Oakes, Reuben F. Oakes, Guy Oakes, Daisy Oakes, Mary Agnes Oakes, Lucy Bond, Olah Bond, Amanda Eubanks, Sidney Ethel Dunnam, Frances Alma Mullins, Percy Hunter Dunnam, Millard Bond Dunnam, Maggie Ora Mullins, C. B. Granbury, Alf Scarborough, Sam Scarborough and Wesley Scarborough as Choctaw Indians entitled to rights in the Choctaw lands under the provision of law above quoted, and that the application for their identification as such should be refused, and it is so ordered.

In view of the fact that a motion was heretofore made by the attorney for applicants for the withdrawal of the applications made by John Scarborough for the identification of his wife, Lurena Scarborough; by Josie Carpenter for the identification of her husband, Ephraim Carpenter; by Margaret Sanders for the identification of her husband, Calvin Sanders; by Mattie McDowell for the identification of her husband, John S. McDowell; by Sallie Mullins for the identification of her husband, Benjamin Franklin Mullins; by Cornelius B. Scarborough for the identification of his wife, Massie Scarborough; by William A. Freeman for the identification of his wife, Etta Freeman; and by James J. Berry for the identification of his wife, Mary Berry, all as intermarried Mississippi Choctaws, and that the said applications were thereupon dismissed by the Commission, no further consideration of their cases is necessary.

It is the further opinion of the Commission that under the provision of law above quoted, no person is entitled to identification as a Mississippi Choctaw by marriage, and that the application made by William D. Scarborough, for the identification of his wife, Fannie Scarborough, as an intermarried Mississippi Choctow should therefore be refused, and it is so ordered.”

You are further advised that the Commission has on this date forwarded the record in this case to the Secretary of the Interior for review, and you will be informed in due time of such action as may be taken by him.

Yours truly,

Dear Sir:

On May 31, 1902, the Commission advised you of the rendition of a decision on May 13, 1902, refusing your application for identification as a Mississippi Choctaw, and also of the forwarding of the record in the consolidated case of John Scarborough, et al., including your application for identification as a Mississippi Choctaw, to the Secretary of the Interior for review.

The Commission is now in receipt of a letter from the Secretary of the Interior, under date of November 10, 1902, affirming the decision of the Commission as to those applicants who claim identification as Mississippi Choctaws, and instructing the Commission to advise you that the decision rendered in your case is based only on your application for enrollment as a citizen by blood of the Choctaw Nation, and that a further hearing will be afforded you if you so desire to present your claim as a Mississippi Choctaw.

You are therefore hereby advised that you will be permitted thirty days from date hereof within which to submit your appli-

In the matter of the application of Wesley Scarborough for enrollment as a citizen by blood of the Choctaw Nation.

D e c i s i o n .

The applicant, Wesley Scarborough, appeared before the Commission at Durant, Indian Territory, during the month of August, 1899, and there made application for enrollment as a citizen by blood of the Choctaw Nation.

It appears from an examination of the records in the possession of the Commission and the evidence in this case, that the name of the applicant has never been on the tribal rolls of the Choctaw Nation; and it does not appear that said applicant has ever been admitted to citizenship in the Choctaw Nation by the tribal authorities of said Nation. It further appears from said records and evidence that the said applicant has never been admitted to citizenship in the Choctaw Nation by the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes acting under the act of Congress of June 10, 1896; or by the United States Court in Indian Territory, on appeal from the decision of the tribal authorities, or the decision of the Commission.

It further appears from the evidence, that the said applicant, did not remove to the Indian Territory in compliance with the Act of Congress of June 28, 1898, (Curtis Bill), which provides as follows:

"No person shall be enrolled who has not heretofore removed to and in good faith settled in the Nation in which he claims citizenship."

Therefore, the application of Wesley Scarborough for enrollment as a citizen by blood of the Choctaw Nation is hereby refused.

You are hereby advised that on the 13th day of May, 1902, the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes rendered a decision in the consolidated case of John Scarborough, et al, embracing the following applications for identification as Mississippi Choctaws:

John Scarborough, et al,	M. C. R.	252
Cora Ballard, et al,	M. C. R.	97
Ada Gailer, et al,	M. C. R.	98

Said decision, after a review of the evidence submitted, concludes as follows :

“The authority vested in the Commission by the twenty-first section of the act of Congress of June 28, 1898, (30 Stats., 495,) is as follows :

“Said Commission shall have authority to determine the identity of Choctaw Indians claiming rights in the Choctaw lands under article fourteen of the treaty between the United States and the Choctaw Nation, concluded September twenty-seventh, eighteen hundred and thirty, and to that end may administer oaths, examine witnesses and perform all other acts necessary thereto, and make report to the Secretary of the Interior.”

It is the opinion of the Commission that the evidence in this case is insufficient to determine the identity of John Scarborough, Cora Ballard, Atha Ballard, Ada Gailer, Lorrel Samuel Gailer, Johnnie LaFayette Trotter, William E. Pike, Rennie Naomi Pike, Lona Lee Pike, Margaret E. Peveto, William J. Peveto, William Lonnie Peveto, Pinckney L. Scarborough, Dora May Scarborough, Rosa Jane Scarborough, Josie Carpenter, Mallie E. Carpenter, Nellie E. Carpenter, James Carpenter, Margaret Sanders, Carrie Pike, James E. Pike, Ernie E. Pike, Mattie McDowell, Bertha McDowell, Fred McDowell, Clifton McDowell, Hellen McDowell, Leon McDowell, William D. Scarborough, Leslie Scarborough, Maud Scarborough, Hugh Scarborough, Sallie Mullins, Atmar Nelms Mullins, Jennie F. Mullins, Ludie S. Mullins, Susan Freeman, Dili Freeman, John Freeman, Ina Freeman, Anner Freeman, Ida Freeman, Cornelius B. Scarborough, Clyde Scarborough, John B. Mullins, Maggie Bradley, John S. Scarborough, Mary A. Scarborough, Roscoe Scarborough, Maggie Scarborough, John Scarborough, Jr., William A. Freeman, Cusbell Freeman, Clyde Freeman, William L. Mullins, Guy M. Granbury, Robert N. Scarborough, Robert L. Scarborough, Oscar B. Scarborough, Burrell Scarborough, Richard Elery Scarborough, Ester Pearl Scarborough, James J. Berry, Earnest Berry, Roy W. Berry, Nellie Berry, Charlie Berry, Clyde Berry, Frank P. Berry, Margareete E. Phipps, Lucy E. Langford, Clinton O. Langford, Sarah E. Langford, Emma May Langford, Annie L. Langford, Johnnie Langford, Bertie Langford, John L. Oakes, Lawrence Oakes, Reuben F. Oakes, Guy Oakes, Daisy Oakes, Mary Agnes Oakes, Lucy Bond, Olah Bond, Amanda Eubanks, Sidney Ethel Dunnam, Frances Alma Mullins, Percy Hunter Dunnam, Millard Bond Dunnam, Maggie Ora Mullins, C. B. Granbury, Alf Scarborough, Sam Scarborough and Wesley Scarborough as Choctaw Indians entitled to rights in the Choctaw lands under the provision of law above quoted, and that the application for their identification as such should be refused, and it is so ordered.

In view of the fact that a motion was heretofore made by the attorney for applicants for the withdrawal of the applications made by John Scarborough for the identification of his wife, Lurena Scarborough; by Josie Carpenter for the identification of her husband, Ephraim Carpenter; by Margaret Sanders for the identification of her husband, Calvin Sanders; by Mattie McDowell for the identification of her husband, John S. McDowell; by Sallie Mullins for the identification of her husband, Benjamin Franklin Mullins; by Cornelius B. Scarborough for the identification of his wife, Massie Scarborough; by William A. Freeman for the identification of his wife, Etta Freeman; and by James J. Berry for the identification of his wife, Mary Berry, all as intermarried Mississippi Choctaws, and that the said applications were thereupon dismissed by the Commission, no further consideration of their cases is necessary.

It is the further opinion of the Commission that under the provision of law above quoted, no person is entitled to identification as a Mississippi Choctaw by marriage, and that the application made by William D. Scarborough, for the identification of his wife, Fannie Scarborough, as an intermarried Mississippi Choctow should therefore be refused, and it is so ordered.”

You are further advised that the Commission has on this date forwarded the record in this case to the Secretary of the Interior for review, and you will be informed in due time of such action as may be taken by him.

Yours truly,

W. D. SCARBOROUGH

- A I don't know that they are; I guess not.
- Q Have you ever made application for citizenship in the Choctaw Nation for yourself and your children to the Choctaw tribal authorities in the Indian Territory? A No sir.
- Q Have you ever made application for citizenship in the Choctaw Nation for yourself and children to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes under the act of Congress of June 10, 1896. A No sir.
- Q Have you ever been admitted to citizenship in the Choctaw Nation by either the Choctaw tribal authorities, the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes or the United States Court in the Indian Territory? A No sir.
- Q Do you now come before the Commission for the purpose of identifying yourself and these children as Mississippi Choctaws, claiming under article fourteen of the treaty of 1830? A I do.
- Q Do you understand that article of that treaty? A I don't know that I do, fully.
- Q The treaty of 1830 was a treaty made between the United States government and the Choctaw tribe of Indians at a place called Dancing Rabbit Creek in the State of Mississippi on the 27th day of September, 1830, and was made for the purpose of the removal of the Choctaw Indians, who lived in that old Choctaw Nation east of the Mississippi River, to the Choctaw Nation in the Indian Territory. Before the treaty was signed it became known that a good many Choctaw Indians would not go to the Choctaw Nation, Indian Territory with the other Indians, and in order to protect them and their interests, article fourteen was drafted and put into the treaty of 1830. After it was inserted into the treaty, the treaty was signed, and after that, on the 24th day of February, 1831, it was ratified.

Mary A. Ferguson---3.

That article is as follows:

"Each Choctaw head of a family being desirous to remain and become a citizen of the States, shall be permitted to do so, by signifying his intention to the Agent within six months from the ratification of this Treaty, and he or she shall thereupon be entitled to a reservation of one section of six hundred and forty acres of land, to be bounded by sectional lines of survey; in like manner shall be entitled to one half that quantity for each unmarried child which is living with him over 10 years of age; and a quarter section to such child as may be under 10 years of age; to adjoin the location of the parent. If they reside upon said lands intending to become citizens of the States for five years after the ratification of this Treaty, in that case a grant in fee simple shall issue; said reservation shall include the present improvement of the head of the family or a portion of it. Persons who claim under this article shall not lose the privilege of a Choctaw citizen, but if they ever remove are not to be entitled to any portion of the Choctaw annuity."

- Q Do you think you understand that article enough to claim under it? A I think I do.
- Q What is the name of your ancestor through whom you claim your right to be identified as a Mississippi Choctaw?
- A Keshiah Thompson, maiden name Brashiers.
- Q What was the name of her husband? A Flemming J. Thompson.
- Q What relation was she to you? A She was my grand-mother.
- Q How much Choctaw blood did she have? A One quarter I think is what she claimed.
- Q That would make you one sixteenth? A Yes if I understand it right.
- Q Did she live in Mississippi in 1830? A I can't tell you.
- Q Did you ever hear that any of your Choctaw ancestors lived in Mississippi in 1830 and had a family there at that time.
- A I can't tell you that. I know grandmother lived in Mississippi but I can't tell what --
- Q Was she born in Mississippi? A No sir ^{she} was born in Alabama.
- Q Do you know what part of Alabama? A No sir I do not.
- Q Did she live in Alabama in 1830? A I can't tell you that.
- Q Do you know how old she would be if living now - or in other words, when she was born? A I don't know that I could tell you that.
- Q Do you know how old she was when she died? A She was seventy three years old when she died.
- Q And she died when? A She's been dead thirty-two years.
- Q She would be one hundred and five years old then now, would she not, if she was seventy-three when she died and died thirty two years ago that would make her one hundred and five years old if living now? A Yes sir.

Mary A. Ferguson --4.

- Q Now does that fact assist your memory at all in recalling whether or not she lived in Mississippi and Alabama in 1830 and had a family there then? A I don't know about that.
- Q Did she or any of your Choctaw ancestors own any improvements on land in Mississippi or Alabama in 1830? A I can't say.
- Q Did any of your Choctaw ancestors within six months after the ratification of the treaty of 1830 go to the United States Indian agent whose name was Colonel Ward and tell him that they wanted to stay in Mississippi, take land there and become citizens of the United States? A I don't know whether they did or didn't.
- Q Did any of your Choctaw ancestors go from that old Choctaw Nation in Mississippi and Alabama to the Choctaw Nation Indian Territory with the other Indians between 1833 and 1838? A I can't say.
- Q Did any of them own any land or claim any in Mississippi or Alabama in the old Choctaw Nation under article fourteen of the treaty of 1830? A I can't tell you that.
- Q Did any of them claim any land or any benefits under any other article of the treaty of 1830 than article fourteen or under the supplement of the treaty of 1830.
- A No sir, I don't know.
- Q Did any of your Choctaw ancestors claim benefits as Indians under any treaty made between the United States government and the Choctaw tribe of Indians other than the treaty of 1830? A No sir.
- Q You claim through your father William J. Thompson? A Yes sir.
- Q And he claims through his father? A His mother.
- Q Kesiah Thompson? A Yes sir.
- Q Did you say William J. Thompson claimed through his father or mother? A His mother.
- Q Through his mother? A Certainly.
- Q What was her maiden name? A Kesiah Brashiers.
- Q And what was her mother's name? A I can't tell you that?
- Q William J. Thompson claims through Kesiah Thompson?
- A Yes sir.
- Q Whose maiden name was Brashiers? A Yes sir. I claim through William J. Thompson - William J. Thompson is dead.
- Q You claim through your father and he claims through Kesiah Thompson? A Yes sir.
- Q The Choctaw Indians who lived in Mississippi after the treaty of 1830 was ratified, who refused to go to the Choctaw Nation Indian Territory under that treaty with the other Indians were required if they wanted to take advantage of article fourteen of the treaty of 1830 to go to the United States Indian agent whose name was Colonel Ward and tell him that they wanted to stay in Mississippi, take land there and become citizens of the United States; a good many Choctaw Indians did this whose names Colonel Ward failed to put upon his list known as "Ward's Register"; it is estimated that at least six thousand Choctaw Indians stayed back in the old Choctaw Nation, and of that number a considerable portion made application to Colonel Ward, under article fourteen, but his list contains the names of only seventy one heads of families out of that number; his neglect to make a proper list of the names of Choctaw Indians who went to his office within six months from the ratification of the treaty of 1830 and claimed benefits under it caused a good many Indians who had land in Mississippi and Alabama to lose their land, for it was taken from them with improvements upon it and sold by the government at its public land sales; this caused a great many complaints among the Indians and as a result, Congress appointed a Commission, in 1837 by an act approved March 3 of that year, which Commission went to Mississippi and heard claimants under article fourteen of the treaty of 1830; in 1842, by an act approved August 23 of that year Congress appointed another Commission for the same purpose and this Commission went to Mississippi and heard claimants under article fourteen of the treaty of 1830.

Did your Choctaw ancestors go before either of these two Commissions and claim benefits under article fourteen of that treaty? A I dont know whether they did or did not.

- Q The act of Congress approved August 23, 1842 provided that if any Choctaw Indian proved his claim under article fourteen of the treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek, if it also further appeared that he had had land in Mississippi which the government had taken from him and sold at its public land sales, that she should be entitled to select land in either Mississippi, Alabama, Louisiana or Arkansas, to be taken from vacant government land and that a certificate to that effect should be given to him; these certificates were called scrip on those days. Did any of your Choctaw ancestors receive any such scrip from the government as Choctaw Indians? A I can't say.
- Q Have you any evidence that you want to introduce further, in support of your claim -- any papers? A No sir.
- Q Would you like a little time in which to present other testimony or evidence? A I don't know that I have anything that would do any good.
- Q Have you any relatives who have been here claiming through Keshiah Thompson as a common ancestor? A Yes sir.
- Q Can you give the names of some of them? A I can give them all if you want me to. Dan Dumas, Scott S. Dumas, George Thompson--
- Q And a great many others I presume? A Yes sir.
- Q Do you want to have the testimony of these relatives of yours who claim through the same common ancestor through whom you claim taken into consideration with the testimony in your case. A Yes I do.

The case of Scott S. Dumas, et al., M.C.P. 4006 is the principal case under which all of these other cases will be consolidated where the applicants claim through the same common ancestor.

- Q Do you speak or understand the Choctaw language? A No sir I don't.
- Q Is there anything more you want to say in support of this claim? A I don't know that there is; I know my grandmother could converse with Indians for I have heard her.
- Q Did she have a Choctaw Indian name? A I dont know.
- Q How well could she speak it? A I cant tell you that for I was small.

Mary A. Ferguson --6.

- Q What was her personal appearance? A She was dark complected.
Q Did she look as though she had-----
A High cheek bones - resembled all the Indians I have seen.
Q Did she look like a full blood? A No sir; her appearance was not as much as full blood.

This applicant has the appearance and physical characteristics of being descended from white persons; has medium dark complexion; brown eyes; dark hair; she does not understand the Choctaw language and has no knowledge of compliance on part of her ancestors with any of the provisions of article fourteen of the treaty of 1830.

George S. Cobb being first duly sworn testifies as follows in the matter of the application for identification as Mississippi Choctaws of Mary A. Ferguson, et al., M.C.R.
4772 :

Examination by the Commission:

- Q What is your name? A George S. Cobb.
Q What is your age? A Fifty four.
Q What is your post office address? A Caddo, Indian Territory.
Q You have lived there how long? A Between four and five years, nearer five than four.
Q And your occupation is what? A In the mercantile business.
Q Where did you formerly live? A I formerly lived at Petty
Texas.
Q You are a court citizen in the Choctaw nation? A Yes sir.
Q You made application before the Commission under the act of Congress of June 10, 1896 did you not? A Yes sir.
Q Your case was then decided adversely I suppose? A Yes sir.
Q And an appeal was taken to the United States District Court at Ardmore Indian Territory? A Yes sir.
Q And you were then admitted were you not with your wife and children? A Yes sir; my father and mother and all the family lived up there and had for a long time.
Q Are you acquainted with Julia A. Ferguson? A Yes sir.
Q Are you related to her? A Yes sir.
Q What relationship exists between you and she? A She's a first cousin.
Q You know where she lives now? A She lives in Caddo Indian Territory.
Q How long has she lived there? A She came there about the first of this month? A
Q The first of November? A Yes sir.
Q Well did the whole family move when she removed to Caddo?
A Yes sir.
Q What is her husband's Name? A Albert.
Q Did he also come with her? A Yes sir.
Q And children? A All those not married are with her.
Q Would you know the names of her children if you heard them?
A Yes sir.
Q Can you call them now? A I think I can call them; yes there's William; he's married now. Jeffie, Lonnie and two little ones now, a little girl, Georgia B., named for me and the little boy younger;-- now I cant just get that fixed.
Q Did you mention the name of Scotty S? A I'm not certain but what that's the little fellow's name but I wont say;
he's five years old.
Q Where did they live previous to going to Caddo? A They lived in Wise County.
Q In what state? A Texas.
Q What is Julia A. Ferguson's husband's occupation in Caddo?
A Well he rents a farm; couldn't get possession of the farm he has taken up his residence in Caddo until he can get his farm.
Q He has no occupation now? A No sir.

- Q Is there anything further you want to state in support of your testimony for Julia A. Ferguson and as to her residence in the Choctaw Nation Indian territory; anything that you can think of? A I want to make the statement that we call Julia A. Ferguson, Mollie, but to the best of my belief her name is Julia A. Ferguson but we call her Mollie.
- Q Then your best opinion is that Julia A. Ferguson in whose case you have been testifying is the Ferguson you call Mollie. You never heard of her as Julia A.? A No sir. I want to testify that Julia A. is I think the name but we call her Mollie.

These applications were made under the provision of the act of Congress of June 28, 1898 (30 Stats., 495), which is as follows:

"Said Commission shall have authority to determine the identity of Choctaw Indians claiming rights in the Choctaw lands under article fourteen of the treaty between the United States and the Choctaw Nation, concluded September twenty-seventh, eighteen hundred and thirty, and to that end may administer oaths, examine witnesses and perform all other acts necessary thereto, and make report to the Secretary of the Interior."

Said decision concludes as follows:

"It is therefore the opinion of this Commission that the evidence herein is insufficient to determine the identity of Scott S. Dumas, Ruth Dumas, Miles G. Lantrip, Mary P. Phillips, Early E.  Q What is your mother's name? A Mary A. Ferguson.
 Q Your mother has made application for identification before the Commission to day has she not, February 19th? A Yes sir.
 Q You therefore claim your Choctaw blood from your mother?
 A Yes sir.
 Q How much Choctaw blood do you claim? A One thirtysecond.
 Q Has your mother ever been recognized in any way or enrolled as a member of the Choctaw tribe of Indians by the tribal authorities or the United States authorities in the Indian Territory? A I don't know.
 Q Is your husband living? A Yes sir.
 Q What is his name? A R. T. Powers.
 Q Do you claim any Choctaw blood for him? A No sir.
 Q What is his nationality then? A He's a white man I reckon.
 Q What is the name of your eldest child for whom you desire to make application? A Murray Powers.
 Q How old is he? A Three years old.
 Q What is the name of the next? A Maybell.
 Q How old is she? A Two.
 Q You claim for yourself and these two children? A Yes sir.

- Q Is R. T. Powers the father of these children? A Yes sir.
Q And these children are living with you at your home?
A Yes sir.
Q Is your name or the name of any of your children on any of the tribal rolls of the Choctaw Nation in the Indian Territory. A I dont know.
Q You have never lived in the Indian Territory have you?
A No sir.
Q Never heard that your names were enrolled by the Indians as members of that tribe did you? A No sir.
Q Did you ever make application to the Choctaw tribal authorities in the Indian Territory for citizenship in the Choctaw Nation? A No sir.
Q Did you ever make application for citizenship in the Choctaw Nation to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes under the act of Congress of June 10, 1896. A No sir.
Q Have you ever been admitted to citizenship in the Choctaw Nation by either the Choctaw tribal authorities, the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes or the United States Court in Indian Territory? A No sir.
Q Is this the first application that has ever been made for you or your children for citizenship in the Choctaw Nation to either the Choctaw tribal authorities or the United States authorities? A Yes sir.
Q Do you now come before the Commission for the purpose of being identified as a Mississippi Choctaw and for the identification of your children as Mississippi Choctaws claiming under article fourteen of the treaty of 1830?
A Yes sir.
Q Do you understand that article? A I have heard it read; I think I understand it.
Q Would you like to have it further explained? A I think I understand it well enough.
Q It reads as follows:

"Each choctaw head of a family being desirous to remain and become a citizen of the States, shall be permitted to do so, by signifying his intention to the Agent within six months from the ratification of this Treaty, and he or she shall thereupon be entitled to a reservation of one section of six hundred and forty acres of land, to be bounded by sectional lines of survey; in like manner shall be entitled to one half that quantity for each unmarried child which is living with him over 10 years of age; and a quarter section to such child as may be under 10 years of age; to adjoin the location of the parent. If they reside upon said lands intending to become citizens of the States for five years after the ratification of this Treaty, in that case a grant in fee simple shall issue; said reservation shall include the present improvement of the head of the family or a portion of it. Persons who claim under this article shall not lose the privilege of a Choctaw citizen, but if they ever remove are not to be entitled to any portion of the Choctaw annuity."

- Q Do you think you understand that? A Yes I think I understand it.
Q Do you know if any of your Choctaw ancestors ever complied with the provisions of that article of that treaty? A I dont know.

- Q What is the name of your ancestor through whom you claim your right to be identified as a Mississippi Choctaw?
- A Kesiah Thompson whose maiden name was Brashiers.
- Q Your great-grandmother? A Yes sir.
- Q How much Choctaw blood did she have? A One quarter.
- Q Did she live in Mississippi or Alabama? A I don't know.
- Q Did you ever hear that she lived in either one state or the other or both? A I have heard she lived in both.
- Q You have heard that in the family have you? A Yes sir I heard my mother say she did.
- Q How much Choctaw blood did she have? A I don't know how much she had.
- Q Did you ever hear that she had any? You claim your Choctaw blood from her do you not? A Yes sir.
- Q You claim one-thirtysecond? A Yes sir.
- Q Then you have heard she had some Choctaw blood? A Yes sir.
- Q And you heard she had one-fourth - heard that in the family? That she had one quarter? A Yes sir I heard that.
- Q Do you know how old she would be if living now? A She was seventy-three when she died - that would be one hundred and five.
- Q But you never did hear that she lived in Mississippi or Alabama in eighteen hundred and thirty and had a family of children then? A No sir.
- Q Did she or any of your Choctaw ancestors own or claim any improvements on land in Mississippi or Alabama in 1830?
- A I don't know.
- Q Did any of your Choctaw ancestors within six months after the ratification of the treaty of 1830 go to the United States Indian Agent, Colonel Ward and tell him that they wanted to stay in Mississippi, take land there and become citizens of the United States? A I don't know.
- Q Did any of your Choctaw ancestors own or claim any land in Mississippi or Alabama under article fourteen of the treaty of eighteen and thirty? A I don't know whether they did or not.
- Q Did any of your Choctaw ancestors own any land or claim any in Mississippi or Alabama under any other article of the treaty of 1830 than article fourteen or under the supplement of that treaty? A I don't know.
- Q Did they claim any benefits as Choctaw Indians under any treaty made between the United States government and the Choctaw tribe of Indians other than the treaty of 1830?
- A I don't know.
- Q The Choctaw Indians who remained in Mississippi and Alabama after the treaty of 1830 was ratified, were required, if they wanted to take advantage of article fourteen of that treaty to go to the United States Indian Agent whose name was Colonel Ward and who had an agency in Mississippi at that time, and tell him that they wanted to stay in Mississippi, take land there and become citizens of the United States; if they did this within ~~six~~ months after the ratification of that treaty their names should have been placed upon a list made by Colonel Ward known as "Ward's Register"; but a great many of the Indians who complied with the provisions of article fourteen of the treaty of 1830 and who went to Colonel Ward within the time limited in article fourteen failed to have thier names put on his list or in the register made by him; this caused a great many Indians who had had land in Mississippi and Alabama upon which they had improvements to lose both their land and improvements for both were taken from them by the government and sold at its public land sales. This caused so many complaints on the part of the Choctaw Indians that Congress in 1837 appointed a Commission by an act approved March 3 of that year; this Commission went to the state of Mississippi and heard claimants under article fourteen of the treaty of 1830 and made a list of the names of those who came before it; in 1842 Congress appointed another Commission for the same purpose by an act approved August 23 of that year and this Commission also went to the state of Mississippi and heard claimants under article fourteen of the treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek. Did any of your Choctaw ancestors go before either of these commissions and claim benefits as Choctaw Indians? A I don't know.

Q Did any of your Choctaw ancestors receive any scrip from the government which entitled them to select land either in Mississippi, Alabama, Louisiana or Arkansas, to be taken from vacant government land and to supply the land which they had had in Mississippi which the government had taken from them and sold? A I don't know.

Q You never heard that? A No sir.

Q Who is Scott S. Dumas? A He's my second cousin.

Q He has made application to be identified as a Mississippi Choctaw? A Yes sir.

Q Does he claim through Kesiah Thompson? A Yes sir.

Q And Dan Dumas? A Yes sir.

Q Who is George Thompson? A He's my second cousin.

Q Who is Mary A. Ferguson? A My mother.

Q She made application today? A Yes sir.

Q Do you want to have the testimony and the records made in the cases of all of your relatives who have appeared before the Commission to be identified as Mississippi Choctaws claiming through Kesiah Thompson to be considered with yours? A Yes sir.

The case of Scott S. Dumas et al., number 4006 is the principal case in this group of consolidated cases and Kesiah Thompson is the common ancestor; it is herein referred to for reference in this case.

Q Have you any evidence that you would like to present now in support of this claim? A No sir.

Q Would you like further time for the production of testimony or evidence? A No sir.

A certified copy of the marriage license and certificate of marriage between R. T. Powers and Miss Vergie Ferguson is presented by this applicant, filed, marked exhibit A. and made a part of the record in this case.

Q Do you speak or understand the Choctaw language? A No sir.

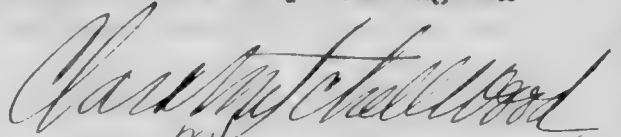

This applicant has the appearance and physical characteristics of being descended from white

These applications were made under the provision of the act of Congress of June 28, 1898 (30 Stats., 495), which is as follows:

"Said Commission shall have authority to determine the identity of Choctaw Indians claiming rights in the Choctaw lands under article fourteen of the treaty between the United States and the Choctaw Nation, concluded September twenty-seventh, eighteen hundred and thirty, and to that end may administer oaths, examine witnesses and perform all other acts necessary thereto, and make report to the Secretary of the Interior."

Said decision concludes as follows:

"It is therefore the opinion of this Commission that the evidence herein is insufficient to determine the identity of Scott S. Dumas, Ruth Dumas, Miles G. Lantrip, Mary P. Phillips, Early E. Q You want to introduce it in this case? A Yes sir.

A certified copy of the marriage license and certificate between Willie Ferguson and Miss Maud Blackwood, is presented by applicant, is filed, marked exhibit A., and made part of the record in this case.

- Q Have you any other evidence you want to introduce at this time? A No sir.
Q Do you care for any time to produce further testimony or evidence in your case? A I don't.
Q Is your name on any of the tribal rolls of the Choctaw Nation in Indian Territory? A I don't know.
Q You never made application for citizenship in the Choctaw Nation to the Choctaw tribal authorities in the Indian Territory? A No sir.
Q You never lived in the Indian Territory did you? A No sir
Q No one ever made application for citizenship for you? A No sir.
Q Did you ever make application for citizenship in the Choctaw Nation to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes under the act of Congress of June 10, 1896? A No sir
Q Have you ever been admitted to citizenship in the Choctaw Nation by either the Choctaw tribal authorities, the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes or by the United States Court in Indian Territory? A I have not.
Q Is this the first application of any kind that you have ever made for enrollment as a Choctaw Indian or for identification as a Mississippi Choctaw either to the Choctaw tribal authorities or the United States authorities? A Yes sir.
Q Do you now come before the Commission for the purpose of being identified as a Mississippi Choctaw and for the identification of these children as Mississippi Choctaws claiming under article fourteen of the treaty of 1830? A Yes sir.
Q Do you understand that article of that treaty? A I don't know.
Q Do you want to have it explained to you? A Yes sir.
Q Article fourteen of the treaty of 1830 was put into that treaty in order to protect the interests of the Mississippi Choctaw Indians who lived in Mississippi and Alabama in the old Choctaw Nation up to the year 1830 and '31, and who, when the treaty of 1830 was signed announced that they would not go to the Choctaw Nation Indian Territory with the other Indians under that treaty. This treaty of 1830 was made between the United States government and the Choctaw tribe of Indians in order to affect the removal of all the Choctaw Indians who lived in that old Choctaw Nation in Mississippi and Alabama; it was signed on the 27th day of September, 1830 and ratified on the 24th day of February 1831. At least six thousand Indians refused to go to the Choctaw Nation in the Indian Territory with the other Indians and therefore their interests were protected under article fourteen which was drafted into the treaty, after which the treaty was signed: that article is as follows:

"Each Choctaw head of a family being desirous to remain and become a citizen of the States, shall be permitted to do so, by signifying his intention to the Agent within six months from the ratification of this Treaty, and he or she shall thereupon be entitled to a reservation of six hundred and forty acres of land, to be bounded by sectional lines of survey; in like manner shall be entitled to one half that quantity for each unmarried child which is living with him over ten years of age; and a quarter section to such child as may be under ten years of age; to adjoin the location of the parent. If they reside upon said lands intending to become citizens of the States for five years after the ratification of this Treaty, in that case a grant in fee simple shall issue; said reservation shall include the present improvement of the head of the family or a portion of it. Persons who claim under this article shall not lose the privilege of a Choctaw citizen, but if they ever remove are not to be entitled to any portion of the Choctaw annuity."

- Q Do you think you understand that article? A I think I do.
- Q What is the name of your ancestor through whom you claim your right to be identified as a Mississippi Choctaw.
- A Kesiah Thompson, maiden name Kesiah Brashiers.
- Q What relation to you was she? A Great-grand-mother.
- Q How much Choctaw blood did she have? A One quarter.
- Q Did she live in Mississippi or Alabama? A I think she lived in both places.
- Q Did she live in either Mississippi or Alabama in the year 1830 and have a family there at that time? A I don't know.
- Q Did she speak the Choctaw language? A I don't know.
- Q Did she have a Choctaw Indian name? A I don't know.
- Q Do you know how old she would be if living now? A She was seventy three years old when she died and been dead thirty two years; that would be one hundred and five years old.
- Q You don't know what part of her life she lived in Mississippi or what part of her life in Alabama? A No sir.
- Q You claim through your mother do you not? A Yes sir.
- Q And she claims through whom? A William John Thompson her father.
- Q And he claims through Kesiah Thompson? A Yes sir.
- Q Was Kesiah Thompson's husband a white man? A Yes sir.
- Q What was his name? A Flemming J. Thompson.
- Q Did any of your ancestors own any improvements on land in Mississippi or Alabama in 1830? A I don't know.
- Q Did any of your Choctaw ancestors within six months after the ratification of the treaty of 1830 go to the United States Indian Agent, Colonel Ward, and tell him they wanted to stay in Mississippi, take land there and become citizens of the United States? A I don't know.
- Q Did any of your Choctaw ancestors go from the old Choctaw Nation to the Choctaw Nation Indian Territory with the other Indians between 1833 and 1838 or 1840? A I don't know.

Willie E. Ferguson--4.

- Q Did any of them own any land or claim any under article fourteen of the treaty of 1830 in Mississippi or Alabama?
- A I don't know.
- Q Did any of your Choctaw ancestors own or claim any land or benefits under any other article of the treaty of 1830 than article fourteen or under the supplement of that treaty? A I don't know.
- Q Did any of your Choctaw ancestors claim any benefits under any treaty made between the United States government and the Choctaw tribe of Indians other than the treaty of 1830? A I don't know.
- Q In 1837 by an act of Congress approved March 3 of that year a commission was appointed by an act of Congress which commission went to the state of Mississippi and heard claimants under article fourteen of the treaty of 1830; in 1842 by an act of Congress approved August 23 of that year, Congress appointed another commission which went to Mississippi and heard claimants under article fourteen of the treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek; the reason for the appointment of these two commissions was that the Indians who stayed in Mississippi and Alabama after the treaty of 1830 was ratified were required under the provisions of article fourteen of that treaty to go to the United States Indian Agent, Colonel Ward at his agency within six months from the ratification of the treaty and tell him that they wanted to stay in Mississippi, take land there and become citizens of the United States; a good many Choctaw Indians did this whose names Colonel Ward failed to put upon his list known as Ward's Register and because he failed to do so a good many Indians lost land in Mississippi and Alabama, which was taken from them by the government and sold at its public land sales and it was to right the wrongs done to those Indians who had complied with article fourteen of the treaty of 1830 that these two different Commissions were appointed, one in 1837 and the other in 1842. Do you know if any of your Choctaw ancestors appeared before either of those two commissions and claimed benefits as Choctaw Indians under article fourteen of that treaty? A I do not.
- Q The act of Congress approved August 23, 1842 provided that if any Choctaw Indian proved his claim under article fourteen of the treaty of 1830; if it also appeared that he had had land in Mississippi which the government had taken from him and sold, that he should be entitled to select land in Mississippi, Alabama, Louisiana or Arkansas, to be taken from vacant government land and that a certificate to that effect should be given to him; these certificates were called scrip; did any of your Choctaw ancestors receive any such scrip as Choctaw Indians? A I don't know.
- Q Who is Scott S. Dumas? A A second cousin of mine.
- Q Dan Dumas? A Second cousin.
- Q George Thompson? A Second cousin.
- Q Mary A. Ferguson? A Mother.
- Q Vergie J. Powers? A Sister.
- Q These and a great many others have made application to the Commission to be identified as Mississippi Choctaws claiming through Resiah Thompson? A Yes sir.
- Q Would you like to have all the records and testimony made in the cases of all of your relatives considered with yours? A Yes sir.

Willie E. Ferguson --5.

Scott S. Dumas et al., M. C. R. 4006 is the leading case under which all of these other cases claiming through Keshiah Thompson as the common ancestor will be consolidated and is here referred to as a matter of reference.

Q Do you speak or understand the Choctaw language. A No sir.

The applicant has the appearance and physical characteristics of being descended from white parentage, dark complexion, blue gray eyes, light brown hair; does not understand the Choctaw language and has no knowledge of compliance on part of his ancestors with any of the provisions of article fourteen of the treaty of 1830.

These applications were made under the provision of the act of Congress of June 28, 1898 (30 Stats., 495), which is as follows:

"Said Commission shall have authority to determine the identity of Choctaw Indians claiming rights in the Choctaw lands under article fourteen of the treaty between the United States and the Choctaw Nation, concluded September twenty-seventh, eighteen hundred and thirty, and to that end may administer oaths, examine witnesses and perform all other acts necessary thereto, and make report to the Secretary of the Interior."

Said decision concludes as follows:

"It is therefore the opinion of this Commission that the evidence herein is insufficient to determine the identity of Scott S. Dumas, Ruth Dumas, Miles G. Lantrip, Mary P. Phillips, Early E. In the matter of the application for identification as a Mississippi Choctaw of Alonzo A. Ferguson.

J. G. Ralls, attorney; no appearance.

Alonzo A. Ferguson being first duly sworn testified as follows:

Examination by the Commission

- Q What is your name? A Alonzo A. Ferguson.
Q How do you spell that? A A-l-o-n-z-o.
Q What is your age? A Twenty-one.
Q What is your post office address? A Parvin, Denton County,
Texas.
Q How long have you lived at Parvin? A About one year.
Q Where did you live before that? A Bridgeport.
Q Where were you born? A Collin County.
Q What County is Bridgeport in? A Wise County.
Q Were you born in Texas? A Yes, sir.
Q What is your father's name? A Albert H. Ferguson.
Q Is he living? A Yes, sir.
Q What is your mother's name? A Mary A. Ferguson.
Q Is she living? A Yes, sir.
Q She made application for identification on this date February 19, did she not? A Yes, sir.
Q You claim through your mother? A Yes, sir.
Q How much Choctaw blood do you claim? A One-thirty-second.
Q Has your mother ever been recognized in any way or enrolled as a member of the Choctaw tribe of Indians by the Choctaw tribal authorities or the United States authorities in Indian Territory?
A I don't know.
Q Are you married? A No, sir.
Q Claim for yourself alone? A Yes, sir.
Q Is your name on any of the tribal rolls of the Choctaw Nation in Indian Territory? A I don't know.
Q Have you ever made application for citizenship in the Choctaw
Nation to the Choctaw tribal authorities in Indian Territory?
A No, sir.
Q Did you ever make application for citizenship or any one for you, in the Choctaw Nation to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes under the act of Congress of June 10, 1896? A No,
sir.
Q Have you ever been admitted to citizenship in the Choctaw Nation by either the Choctaw tribal authorities, the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes or the United States Court in Indian Territory? A I don't know.
Q Well did you ever hear that anybody ever made application for you or try to get you enrolled as a Choctaw Indian or did you ever for yourself; have you any reason to believe that you have been admitted as a Choctaw Indian? A No, sir.

If there is any doubt about it we will have to look the records up; you think there is any question if you have been admitted or not? A I don't know.

- Q Well you ought to know whether you ever made application or whether any one ever made application for you; if you never lived in the Indian Territory you could not be enrolled? A No, sir.
- Q Do you now come before the Commission for the purpose of being identified as a Mississippi Choctaw claiming under article fourteen of the treaty of 1830? A Yes, sir
- Q Do you understand that article of that treaty? A I don't know that I do.

The treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek was entered in to in Mississippi on the 27th day of September 1830 between the United States government and the Choctaw tribe of Indians. At the time the treaty was made the Choctaws occupied a portion of the state of Mississippi and a small portion of the state of Alabama, along the Western boundary line. The object of the treaty was to secure the removal of the Choctaws from the Country occupied by them in Mississippi to the new country West of the Mississippi River, part of which is now occupied by the main portion of the Choctaw tribe of Indians. At the time the treaty was made some of the Choctaws were unwilling to remove to the new Country West of the Mississippi River but preferred to remain in what constituted the old Nation. For the benefit of this class of Indians article fourteen was put into the treaty. That article is, as follows:

"Each Choctaw head of a family being desirous to remain and become a citizen of the States shall be permitted to do so by signifying his intention to the Agent within six months from the ratification of this treaty and he or she shall thereupon be entitled to a reservation of one section of six hundred and forty acres of land to be bounded by sectional lines of survey; in like manner shall be entitled to one half that quantity for each unmarried child which is living with him over ten years of age and a quarter section to such child as may be under ten years of age to adjoin the location of the parent. If they reside upon said lands intending to become citizens of the States for five years after the ratification of this treaty in that case a grant in fee simple shall issue; said reservation shall include the present improvement of the head of the family or a portion of it. Persons who claim under this article shall not lose the privilege of a Choctaw citizen but if they ever remove are not to be entitled to any portion of the Choctaw annuity."

- Qx Do you think you understand that article? A Yes, sir.
- Q Did any of your ancestors through whom you claim your right to be identified as Mississippi Choctaws comply or attempt to comply with the provisions of article fourteen of the treaty of 1830? A I don't know.
- Q What is the name of your ancestor through whom you claim your right to be identified as a Mississippi Choctaw? A Kaziah Thompson, maiden name Brashear.
- Q What was the name of her husband? A Flemming J. Thompson.
- Q What relation was she to you? A Great grandmother.
- Q How much Choctaw blood did she have? A One-quarter.
- Q Did she speak the Choctaw language? A I don't know.
- Q Did she have a Choctaw Indian name? A I don't know.
- Q Did she live in Mississippi or Alabama in the year 1830? A I don't know.

- Q Did you ever hear that she lived either in Mississippi or Alabama?
A Yes, sir.
- Q You do not know when she lived in either of these states? A No, sir.
- Q Do you know whether she ever lived in the old Choctaw Nation?
A No, sir.
- Q How old would she be if living now? A I don't know.
- Q You claim through your mother Mary A. Ferguson.
Q Her maiden name was what? A Mary A. Thompson.
- Q Where was she born? A In Grayson County, Texas.
- Q She always lived in Texas did she not? A Yes, sir.
- Q Lives there now? A Yes, sir.
- Q Did any of your Choctaw ancestors own any improvements on land in Mississippi or Alabama in 1830? A I don't know.
- Q Did any of them within six months after the ratification of the treaty of 1830 go to the United States Indian Agent and tell him that they wanted to stay in Mississippi, take land there and become citizens of the United States? A I don't know.
- Q Did any of your Choctaw ancestors go from that old Choctaw Nation East of the Mississippi River to the Choctaw Nation West of the Mississippi River with other Indians between 1833 and 1838? A I don't know.
- Q Did any of your Choctaw ancestors own any land or claim any in Mississippi or Alabama under article fourteen of the treaty of 1830? A I don't know.
- Q Did they own or claim any land in Mississippi or Alabama under any other article of the treaty of 1830 than article fourteen or under the supplement of that treaty? A I don't know.
- Q Did they ever claim any benefits as Choctaw Indians under any treaty made between the United States government and the Choctaw tribe of Indians other than the treaty of 1830? A I don't know.

The Choctaw Indians who remained in Mississippi and Alabama in the old Choctaw Nation after the treaty of 1830 was ratified, were required if they wanted to take advantage of the provisions of article fourteen of that treaty, to go to the United States Indian Agent, whose name was Colonel Ward and tell him that they wanted to stay in Mississippi, take land there and become citizens of the United States. If they did this they might thereafter occupy lands in the old Choctaw Nation and if they occupied this land for five years they could get a deed for it from the government. A good many Indians went to Colonel Ward to his Agency in Mississippi within six months from the ratification of the treaty of 1830 and told him that they wanted to stay in Mississippi, have land there and become citizens of the United States, whose names he failed to put upon his list known as Ward's register. His failure to do this caused a good many Indians to lose the land which they occupied in Mississippi and Alabama in the old Choctaw Nation upon which they had improvements. Both were taken from them by the government and sold at its public land sales. This caused a great many complaints among the Choctaw Indians especially by those who lost their land so that Congress appointed a Commission by an act approved March 3, 1837, which Commission went to the State of Mississippi and heard claimants under article fourteen of that treaty. In 1842 Congress appointed another Commission for the same purpose by an act approved August 25, 1842, and this Commission went to Mississippi and heard claimants under article fourteen of the treaty of 1830.

- Q Did any of your Choctaw ancestors go before either of these two Commissions and claim benefits under any article fourteen of the treaty of 1830? A I don't know.

The act of Congress approved August 23rd, 1842, provided that if any Choctaw Indian proved his claim under that article of the treaty of 1830; if it also further appeared that he had had land in Mississippi which the government had taken from him and sold that he should be entitled to select land either in Mississippi, Alabama, Louisiana or Arkansas, to be taken from vacant government land and that a certificate to that effect should be given him. These certificates were called scrip.

- Q Did any of your Choctaw ancestors receive any such scrip from the government as Choctaw Indians? A I don't know.
 Q Who is Scott S. Dumas? A He is my second cousin.
 Q Dan Dumas? A Same.
 Q George Dumas? A Same.
 Q Mary A. Ferguson? A My mother.
 Q Virgie J. Powers? A Sister.
 Q Willie E. Ferguson? A Brother.
 Q There are other relatives who have made application to be identified as Mississippi Choctaws who claim through Kaziah Thompson? A Yes, sir.
 Q Would you like to have the record in their cases considered with yours? A Yes, sir.

The case of Scott S. Dumas, et al., M.C.R. 4006, is here referred to as the number of the case of this group of consolidated cases as the principal case under which other cases will be consolidated of applicants claiming through the same common ancestor.

- Q Have you any evidence that you want to submit? A No, sir.
 Q You care to have time extended for the presentation of other testimony or evidence? A No, sir.
 Q Do you speak the Choctaw language? A No, sir.

This applicant has the appearance and physical characteristics of being descended from white parentage; medium dark complexion; dark hair and dark eyes; he has no knowledge of the Choctaw language and no knowledge of compliance on the part of his ancestors with any of the provisions of article fourteen of the treaty of 1830.

G. Rosenwinkel being duly sworn on his oath states that as stenographer to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes he reported in full all the proceedings had in the above entitled cause on February 19, 1902, and that the above and foregoing is a full, true and correct transcript of his stenographic notes in said cause on said date of February 1902.

Subscribed and sworn to before me this 31st day of March 1902.

These applications were made under the provision of the act of Congress of June 28, 1898 (30 Stats., 495), which is as follows:

"Said Commission shall have authority to determine the identity of Choctaw Indians claiming rights in the Choctaw lands under article fourteen of the treaty between the United States and the Choctaw Nation, concluded September twenty-seventh, eighteen hundred and thirty, and to that end may administer oaths, examine witnesses and perform all other acts necessary thereto, and make report to the Secretary of the Interior."

Said decision concludes as follows:

"It is therefore the opinion of this Commission that the evidence herein is insufficient to determine the identity of Scott S. Dumas, Ruth Dumas, Miles G. Lantrip, Mary P. Phillips, Early E. In the matter of the application of Millard M. Hardy, for the identification as Mississippi Choctaws of his three minor children Jake, Claud and Mid Hardy.

B. S. Johnson, attorney; No appearance.

Millard M. Hardy being first duly sworn testified as follows:

Examination by the Commission.

- Q What is your name? A Millard M. Hardy.
Q What is your age? A Forty-five.
Q You are a white man? A Yes, sir.
Q What is your post office address? A Waco, Texas
Q Do you make application for your minor children? A Yes, sir.
Q How many have you? A Three.
Q What is the name of the oldest child for whom you make application? A Jake Hardy.
Q J-a-k-e? A Yes, sir.
Q How old is he? A About six years old.
Q What is the name of the next child? A Claud.
Q C-l-a-u-d? A Yes, sir.
Q How old is Claud? A Four.
Q What is the name of the next? A Mid.
Q M-i-d? A Yes, sir.
Q How old? A He will be three in April.
Q Are these all boys? A Yes sir.
Q How much Choctaw blood do you claim for these children? A One-sixteenth.
Q Are you the father of these three children? A Yes, sir.
Q What is the name of the mother of these children? A Elizabeth Hardy.
Q Is she living or dead? A She is dead.
Q How much Choctaw blood did she have? A One-eighth I guess.
Q You think one-eighth is right? A Yes, sir; their great grandmother was a full blooded Indian.
Q That would be your wife's grandmother would it not? A Yes, sir.
Q When did Elizabeth the mother of these children die? A The 18th of April 1899.
Q Where did she die? A In Kirk, Limestone County.
Q In what state? A Texas.
Q When and where were you married to your wife Elizabeth? A In Limestone County.
Q Texas? A Yes, sir; in 1885.
Q By a minister and under a license? A Yes, sir.
Q Have you proof of that marriage with you? A No, sir.
Q You can produce that later? A Yes, sir.

A reasonable time is allowed for that purpose.

- Q Were you ever married before you married your wife Elizabeth? A Yes, sir.

- Q You have no application to make for any other children? A No, sir.
- Q Was she ever married before her marriage to you? A No, sir.
- Q These are the only children she had? A Yes, sir.
- Q Has your wife Elizabeth ever been recognized in any way or enrolled as a member of the Choctaw tribe of Indians by the Choctaw tribal authorities or the United States authorities in Indian Territory? A Not that I know of.
- Qx You claim for these children do you? A Yes, sir.
- Q Is the name of your wife Elizabeth on any of the tribal rolls of the Choctaw Nation in Indian Territory? A No, sir.
- Q Has she ever made application for citizenship in the Choctaw Nation to the Choctaw tribal authorities in Indian Territory? A No, sir.
- Q Did she ever made application for citizenship in the Choctaw Nation to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes under the act of Congress of June 10, 1896? A Not that I know of.
- Q Did she ever make application for her oldest son Jake Hardy for citizenship in the Choctaw Nation to the Choctaw tribal authorities or the Dawes Commission? A No, sir.
- Q Was she ever admitted with her children to citizenship in the Choctaw Nation by either the Choctaw tribal authorities, the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes or the United States Court in Indian Territory? A No, sir.
- Q You now come before the Commission to identify these children as Mississippi Choctaws claiming through their mother under article fourteen of the treaty of 1830? A Yes, sir.
- Q Do you understand that article of that treaty? A I don't know whether I do or not.

The treaty of 1830 was made between the United States government and the Choctaw tribe of Indians at a place called Dancing Rabbit Creek in the state of Mississippi on the 27th day of September 1830 and afterwards on the 24th day of February 1831 it was ratified but, previous to the 27th day of September, before it became signed it became known that a good many Choctaw Indians were unwilling to go to the Choctaw Nation Indian Territory and in order to protect the interest of these Indians who stayed back there in the old Choctaw Nation article fourteen was put into the treaty. That article is as follows:

"Each Choctaw head of a family being desirous to remain and become a citizen of the States shall be permitted to do so by signifying his intention to the Agent within six months from the ratification of this treaty and he or she shall thereupon be entitled to a reservation of one section of six hundred and forty acres of land to be bounded by sectional lines of survey; in like manner shall be entitled to one half that quantity for each unmarried child which is living with him over ten years of age and a quarter section to such child as may be under ten years of age to adjoin the location of the parent. If they reside upon said lands intending to become citizens of the States for five years after the ratification of this treaty in that case a grant in fee simple shall issue; said reservation shall include the present improvement of the head of the family or a portion of it. Persons who claim under this article shall not lose the privilege of a Choctaw citizen but if they ever remove are not to be entitled to any portion of the Choctaw annuity."

- Q Did any of your Choctaw ancestors comply with any of the provision of that article of that treaty or any of the ancestors of your children I mean? A I don't know sir.
- Q Do you think you understand that article? A Yes, sir.

- Q What is the name of the ancestors of these children through whom they claim and through whom their mother claimed? A Gates.
- Q What is the full name? A Phillip Gates.
- Q What relation was Phillip Gates to these children? A He was their great grandfather I guess.
- Q How much Choctaw blood did he have? A I believe one-half.
- Q Did Phillip Gates live in Mississippi or Alabama in the old Choctaw Nation in 1830? A I think he lived in Alabama near the line.
- Q In what County? A Franklin County.
- Q Did he live there in the year 1830? A I think so.
- Q Did he have a family there at that time do you know? A I don't know.
- Q How old would Phillip Gates be if living now? A I don't know.
- Q These children claim through their mother? A Yes, sir.
- Q How old would she be if living now? A I don't know.
- Q Don't you know how old your wife would be if living now? A She would be thirty-two.
- Q If living now? A Yes, sir.
- Q Is that all, only thirty-two? A She was twenty-five when she died and she died in 1899.
- Q She claimed through which parent father or mother? A Mother and father both I think.
- Q Did she claim through both her father and mother or would all the Indian blood come from Phillip Gates? A I don't know much about it to tell you the truth.
- Q That is the difficulty with white people making application for relatives who claim Indian blood. As a rule they don't know much about the claim of their relatives? A No, sir; I don't know much about it. My wife was an orphan when we married and she did not know much about her people.
- Q Did any of your wife ancestors own any improvements on land in Mississippi or Alabama in the year 1830? A Not that I know of.
- Q Did any of your wife's ancestors through whom you claim the right for these children to be identified as Mississippi Choctaws go to the United States Indian Agent within six months from the ratification of the treaty of 1830 and tell him that they wanted to stay in Mississippi, take land there and become citizens of the United States? A I don't know sir.
- Q Did any of your Choctaw ancestors go from that old Choctaw Nation to the Choctaw Nation Indian Territory with the other Indians between 1833 and 1838? A I don't know.
- Q Did any of the Choctaw ancestors of these children own any land or claim any in Mississippi or Alabama under article fourteen of the treaty of 1830? A I don't know.
- Q Did any of the Choctaw ancestors of these children claim any land in Mississippi or Alabama or any benefits under any other article of the treaty of 1830 than article fourteen or under the supplement of that treaty? A I don't know sir.
- Q Did any of the ancestors of your children if Choctaw Indians claim any benefits under any treaty made between the United States government and the Choctaw Indians other than the treaty of 1830? A I don't know sir.

The Indians who remained in Mississippi and Alabama in the old Choctaw Nation after the treaty of 1830 was ratified were required to go, if they wanted to take advantage of the provisions of article fourteen of the treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek, to the United States Indian Agent Colonel Ward, and tell him that they wanted to stay there, take land and become citizens of the United States. A good many Choctaw Indians did this whose names Colonel

Ward failed to put upon his list known as ward's register, and his failure to do so caused a good many Indians who had land in Mississippi upon which they had improvements to lose both the land and the improvements which they had, both were taken from them by the government of the United States and sold. This caused a great many complaints among the Choctaw Indians and as the result of these complaints Congress appointed a Commission in 1837 and this Commission went to Mississippi and heard claimants under article fourteen of the treaty of 1830. In 1842 Congress appointed another Commission for the same purpose under an act approved August 23, 1842 of that year and this Commission went to Mississippi and heard claimants under article fourteen of the treaty of 1830.

- Q Did any of the ancestors of your children go before either of these two Commissions and claim benefits under article fourteen of the treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek? A I don't know sir.

The act of Congress approved August 23, 1842, provided that if any Choctaw Indian proved his claim under article fourteen of the treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek, and if it also further appeared that he had had land in Mississippi which the government had taken from him and sold at its public land sales that he should be entitled to select land either in Mississippi, Alabama, Louisiana or Arkansas, to be taken from vacant government lands and that a certificate to that effect should be given him. These certificates were called scrip.

- Q Did any of your Choctaw ancestors receive any such scrip from the government as Choctaw Indians; any of the Choctaw ancestors of your children I mean? A I don't know.
- Q Have you any other testimony or evidence that you want to introduce now in behalf of your children by affidavits or anything of that kind? A Yes, to connect them with the family.
- Q You want to introduce this? A Yes, sir.
- Q This is spelled Claude do you want to have it spelled that way or not? A C-l-a-u-d is right.
- Q How do you want it spelled in this application? A I suppose you had better let it go C-l-a-u-d-e.
- Q Then you want it spelled C-l-a-u-d-e? A Yes, sir.

The sworn statement of M. M. Hardy, the father of these children and a white man presented by him, received, filed, marked exhibit "A" and made a part of the record in this case.

The ex parte affidavit of Lucinda Americus Stanford, signed by her on the 28th day of September, 1901, before B. S. Johnson, Notary Public, presented by this applicant but is not accepted by the Commission for the reason that in said affidavit Lucinda Americus Stanford fails to show her relationship to the children of Millard M. Hardy and fails to show the ancestor through whom this applicant makes application for these children. While she claims descent from one Phillip Gates, her grandfather, she fails to show that the Phillip Gates through whom these children claim is the same Phillip Gates as her ancestor. She nowhere states in her ex parte affidavit that these children had an ancestor named Phillip Gates.

The ex parte affidavit of John R. Britton made by him and subscribed and sworn to by him before B. S. Johnson, Notary Public, on the 23rd of September 1901, presented by this applicant is refused for the reason that the said John H. Britton does not show his relation ship to these children for whom application is now made; does not show that they are descendants of an ancestor by the name of Phillip Gates and, while he himself claims to be descended from one Phillip Gates, who was his grandfather, he nowhere states that his grandfather Phillip Gates was in any way related to these children for whom application is now made and that his ex parte affidavit is altogether irrelevant for the purpose of showing the descent of these children from a Choctaw ancestor and that that Choctaw ancestors was named Phillip Gates.

A reasonable time is allowed this applicant in which to furnish other proof in support of this application which he makes for these children if he desires, if said proof is furnished in conformity with the rules of the Commission.

- Q They do not understand the Choctaw language any of them? A No, sir.
- Q What is the personal appearance of these children, take them up by name, Jake? A Jake has black hair; black eyed. Claud is light hair and black eyes. Mid has light hair and blue eyes.
- Q What relation is Lucinda Americus Stanford to these children? A She is their great aunt.
- Q She made application to be identified as a Mississippi Choctaw did she? A Yes, sir.
- Q Also Puss Rogers? A Yes, sir.
- Q What relation is Puss Rogers to these children? A Aunt.
- Q Does Lucinda Americus Stanford and also Puss Rogers claim through the same common ancestor Phillip Gates? A Yes, sir.
- Q Do you want the records made in their cases considered with the record made in the case of these children when both are taken up for consideration as well as the cases of all others who claim through the same common ancestor? A Yes, sir.

Lucinda Americus Stanford M.C.R. 3294, and Puss Rogers et al., M.C.R. 4438 are two applicants who claim the right to be identified, claiming through Phillip Gates as the common ancestor and whose cases and numbers are here referred to as a matter of record.

- Q Is there anything more you want to say? A No, sir.

G. Rosenwinkel being duly sworn on his oath states that as stenographer to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes he reported in full all the proceedings had in the above entitled cause on February 19, 1902, and that the above and foregoing is a full, true and correct transcript of his stenographic notes in said cause on said date of February 1902.

E. S. Johnson,

Attorney at Law,

Durant, Indian Territory,

Dear Sir:

Receipt is hereby acknowledged of your letter of the twelfth instant, inclosing certified copy of marriage license and certificate between M. M. Hardy and Bettie Mitchell, offered for filing in support of the application made by Millard M. Hardy for the identification of his minor children, Jake Hardy, Claud Hardy and Mid Hardy, as Mississippi Choctaws. The same has been filed with the record in this case.

Yours truly,

Commissioner in Charge.

Millard M. Hardy,
Waco, Texas.

Dear Sir:

You are hereby advised that on the 17th day of April, 1903, the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes rendered a decision in the consolidated case of Lucy Waltrip, et al., embracing the following applications for identification as Mississippi Choctaws:

Lucy Waltrip, et al.,	M.C.R. 5839
John B. Waltrip,	M.C.R. 5840
William M. Waltrip,	M.C.R. 5841
And Bentley, et al.,	M.C.R. 3053
Jake Hardy, et al.,	M.C.R. 4776
Ustacia Moore,	M.C.R. 5908
Nancy Counts, et al.,	M.C.R. 5907

These applications were made under the provision of the act of Congress of June 26, 1896 (30 Stats., 495), which is as follows:

"Said Commission shall have authority to determine the identity of Choctaw Indians claiming rights in the Choctaw lands under article fourteen of the treaty between the United States and the Choctaw Nation, concluded September twenty-seventh, eighteen hundred and thirty, and to that end may administer oaths, examine witnesses and perform all other acts necessary thereto, and make report to the Secretary of the Interior."

Said decision concludes as follows:

"It is therefore the opinion of this Commission that the evidence herein is insufficient to determine the identity of Lucy Waltrip, Luther G. Waltrip, John B. Waltrip, William M. Waltrip, Aud Bentley, Travis Bentley, Jake Hardy, Claude Hardy, Mid Hardy, Ustacia Moore, Nancy Counts and Othel Counts as Choctaw Indians entitled to rights in the Choctaw lands under the provisions of said article fourteen of the treaty of eighteen hundred and thirty, and that the applications for their identification as such should be refused, and it is so ordered."

Millard M. Hardy-2

You are further advised that you will be allowed fifteen days from the date hereof within which to file arguments in this office, and that at the expiration of said time the papers in the case, together with such arguments will be forwarded to the Secretary of the Interior through the Commissioner of Indian Affairs.

Respectfully,

In the matter of the application of Sophronia Holmes for the identification of her incompetent mother, Maria Scott, and her minor brother, Yancey Harrison, as Mississippi Choctaws.

Appearances:

S. A. Beadle, Attorney for Applicant.
A. W. Jones, Agent for Applicant.

Sophronia Holmes, having been first duly sworn, upon her oath testified as follows:

Examination by the Commission.

- Q What is your name? A Sophronia Holmes.
Q How old are you? A Thirty years old.
Q What's your post office address? A Minerva, Mississippi.
Q What county? A Montgomery County.
Q How long have you lived up there? A Been living there all my life.
Q You have heretofore appeared before the Commission as an applicant for identification as a Mississippi Choctaw? A Yes, sir, but I appear before the Commission at this time for the purpose of making application in behalf of my incompetent mother, Maria Scott.
Q Where does your mother, Maria Scott, live? A She lives in Montgomery County.
Q How far from you? A About five miles.
Q How long has she lived up there in Montgomery? A She's been living there ever since I knowed her.
Q Do you know where she lived before you were born? A No, sir, she told me she come from Holmes County; when I first knowed anything she lived in Montgomery.
Q Was she a slave? A No, sir.
Q You stated that she is an incompetent, did you? A Yes, sir.
Q Has she a legally appointed guardian? A Not that I know of.
Q Is she married? A Yes, sir.
Q Husband living? A Yes, sir, but he is old and feeble and almost impossible for him to get around.
Q To whom does your mother look for her support? A She looked to me more than she does the rest.
Q How old is she? A She says she's about sixty five as far as she knows.
Q How much Choctaw blood has she? A Half.
Q What's her post office address? A Lodi.
Q Her father living? A No, sir.
Q What was his name? A Austin.
Q Austin what? A Peeples.
Q Is her mother living? A No, sir.
Q What was her name? A Eady Peeples.
Q Through which one of her parents did your mother get her Choctaw blood? A Her mother.

Maria Scott, et al., 2.

- Q Do you know the name of Eady's father or her mother? A No, sir.
- Q Did you ever see Eady? A No, sir, I didn't see her.
- Q Where was she born? A I don't know, sir, where she was born.
- Q Where did she live during her life time? A I don't know, sir, where she lived. She was dead before I was born.
- Q What was her maiden name? A I don't know anything, just Eady Peoples.
- Q You claim she was a full blood Choctaw Indian? A Yes, sir.
- Q What makes you think she was? A My mother told me she was. My father he was raised - my grand mother raised my father too.
- Q Eady raised your father too? A Yes, sir, he said she was a full blood Indian.
- Q That's all you know about it? A Yes, sir.
- Q Has your mother any minor children? A Yes, sir one.
- Q What's his name? A Yancey Harrison.
- Q How old is he? A Seventeen.
- Q Is that boy living with your mother now? A No, sir, he aint living with her. He's working for wages with white folks.
- Q Where? A In Carrollton, in Webster County.
- Q What's the name of his father? A John Harrison.
- Q Has he any Choctaw blood? A Not that I knows of.
- Q Is he living? A I don't know, sir, whether he is living nor not.
- Q Is this boy a full brother of yours, or half brother? A Half brother.
- Q This application, then, is for your mother and one minor half brother? A Yes, sir.
- Q Is the name of your mother, or the name of this boy to be found upon any of the Choctaw tribal rolls in Indian Territory? A No, sir.
- Q Has any application of any description ever been made before today for your mother or this child for the purpose of establishing their rights as Choctaw Indians? A No, sir, not that I knows of.
- Q Do you appear before the Commission at this time for the purpose of claiming rights in the Choctaw lands in Indian Territory for your mother and one minor half brother, under article 14 of the treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek? A Yes, sir.
- Q That 14th article was fully explained to you in your examination and you understand it? A Yes, sir.
- Q Did any of your ancestors ever comply or attempt to comply with its provisions, or ever receive any benefits thereunder? A No, sir.
- Q Did any of your ancestors appear before any of the commissioners appointed under Acts of Congress appointed between the years 1837 and 1842, and attempt to establish their rights under article 14 of the treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek? A Not that I knows of.
- Q Did any of them ever get any scrip from the Government of the United States under the Act of Congress approved August 23, 1842? A Not as I knows of.
- Q So far as you know, none of your ancestors ever received any benefits whatever as Choctaw Indians? A No, sir.
- Q You don't know of any one living who would likely know whether any of your people ever complied or attempted to comply with the provisions of the 14th article of the treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek, or ever received any benefits thereunder, do you? A No, sir.
- Q You know of no written evidence of any kind which would prove or tend to prove such a state of facts? A No, sir.
- Q Have you any written evidence to offer at this time? A No, sir.
- Q Any witnesses here to-day? A No, sir, there aint none here.

Maria Scott, et al., 3.

If you should find any witnesses whose testimony you desire to have taken by the Commission in support of this application, they may appear before the Commission here at Meridian, Mississippi, to-day or tomorrow, or within a reasonable time thereafter at the General Office of the Commission in Muskogee, Indian Territory, and their testimony will be taken.

Q Any further statements you want to make at this time? A No, sir.

(This affiant has the appearance of being a full blood negro, and shows no indication of being possessed of Indian blood. Her mother, Mary Scott, was before the Commission several days since, but, being an incompetent, was not permitted to make application. She had the appearance of being possessed of a mixture of negro and either white or Indian blood, in which the negro predominates. She does not speak or understand the Choctaw language.)

R. S. Streit, having been first duly sworn, upon his oath states that as stenographer to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes, he reported in full all proceedings had in the above entitled cause at Meridian, Mississippi, on the 14th day of February, 1902, and that the above and foregoing is a full, true and correct translation of his stenographic notes of said proceedings in said cause upon said date.

It appears from the record herein that applications for identification as Mississippi Choctaws were made to this Commission by Sophronia Holmes for her incompetent mother, Maria Scott, and her minor half brother, Yancey Harrison; by Sophronia Holmes for herself and her six minor children, Lillie, Maria, Julia, Richard, Robert and Sanny Holmes; by Ann Peoples for herself and her eight minor children, George, Lera, Carney, Noah, Emma, Frank, Dewey, and Govia Peoples; by Mahala Poe for herself and her two minor children, General and Freddie Poe; by Rebecca Hoakins for herself and her minor child, Alonzo Hoakins, and by Eliza Pittman for herself and her three minor children, Nancy, Alice and Helon Pittman, and her minor grand-child, Jefferson Lott, under the following provision of the act of Congress approved June 28, 1898 (30 Stats., 495):

"Said Commission shall have authority to determine the identity of Choctaw Indians claiming rights in the Choctaw lands under article fourteen of the treaty between the United States and the Choctaw Nation, concluded September twenty-seventh, eighteen hundred and thirty, and to that end may administer oaths, examine witnesses and perform all other acts necessary thereto, and make report to the Secretary of the Interior."

It also appears that all of said applicants claim rights in the Choctaw lands under article fourteen of the treaty between the United States and the Choctaw Nation, concluded September twenty-seventh, eighteen hundred and thirty, by reason of being descendants of one Eady (or Radie or Edie or Edith) Peoples (or Wilson), who is alleged to have been a full blood Choctaw Indian, and to have resided in Mississippi in eighteen hundred and thirty.

It further appears from the evidence submitted in support of said applications and from the records in the possession of the Commission that none of said applicants has ever been enrolled by the Choctaw tribal authorities as a member of the Choctaw tribe, or admitted to Choctaw citizenship by a duly constituted court or committee of the Choctaw Nation, or by the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes, or by a decree of the United States Court in Indian Territory under the provisions of the act of Congress approved June 10, 1896 (29 Stats., 321).

It does not appear from the testimony and evidence offered in support of said applications, or from the records in the possession of the Commission relating to persons who complied or attempted to comply with the provisions of said article fourteen of the treaty of eighteen hundred and thirty, and to persons who heretofore were claimants thereunder, that the said Mady (or Fadie or Edie or Edith) Peeples (or Wilson), signified (in person or by proxy) to Colonel Wm. Ward, Indian Agent, Choctaw Agency, an intention to comply with the provisions of said article fourteen or presented a claim to rights thereunder to either of the Commissions authorized to adjudicate such claims by the acts of Congress approved March 3, 1837 (5 Stats., 180), and August 23, 1842 (5 Stats., 513).

It is therefore the opinion of this Commission that the evidence herein is insufficient to determine the identity of Maria Scott, Yancey Harrison, Sophronia Holmes, Lillie Holmes, Maria Holmes, Julia Holmes, Richard Holmes, Robert Holmes, Sammy Holmes, Ann Peeples, George Peeples, Lera Peeples, Carney Peeples, Noah Peeples, Emma Peeples, Frank Peeples, Dewey Peeples, Govie Peeples, Mahala Pee, General Pee, Freddie Pee, Rebecca Hoskins, Alonzo Hoskins, Eliza Pittman, Nancy Pittman, Alice Pittman, Helon Pittman, and Jefferson Lott, as Choctaw Indians entitled to rights in the Choctaw lands under the provisions of said article fourteen of the treaty of eighteen hundred and thirty, and that the applications for their identification as such should be refused, and it is so ordered.

Muskogee, Indian Territory, March 15, 1902.

Guy L. V. Emerson,
Clerk in Charge,
Meridian, Mississippi,

Dear sir:

There is inclosed you herewith original and three carbon copies of the testimony in the matter of the application of Sophronia Holmes for the identification of her incompetent mother, Maria Scott, and her minor brother, Yancey Harrison, as Mississippi Choctaws.

You will note that the date at the head of this application is February 14, 1902, while in the affidavit of the stenographer at the close of the application the date appears as February 13, 1902. The memorandum slip on file with this office shows that the case was heard on February 14, 1902. Please have the stenographer make the necessary correction in this testimony and return to the office in Muskogee as soon as practicable.

Yours truly,

Maria Scott,

Minerva, Mississippi,

Dear Madam:

Receipt is hereby acknowledged of your letter of October 28, stating that you can secure additional evidence in support of your application for identification as a Mississippi Choctaw and asking if you can have your witnesses sworn there and their testimony taken there.

In reply to your letter you are advised that on October 14, 1902, the Commission rendered its decision refusing your application for the identification of yourself and your minor child as Mississippi Choctaws, and on the same date you were notified thereof, and that you would be allowed fifteen days from that date within which to submit argument in your case for the consideration of the Secretary of the Interior, through the Commissioner of Indian Affairs. The fifteen days having expired on October 29, 1902, the record in the case was on October 30, 1902, forwarded to the Secretary of the Interior for review. The Commission therefore considers this case closed.
